LOOKOUT FOR THE LAS VIRGENES

Today's GI Las Virgenes S. at Santa Anita has attracted an unusually deep field of three-year-old fillies. The race will feature the seasonal bow of Wild Fit (Wild Wonder), the Grade I-winning grey whose late charge fell just short of Folklore--and divisional honors--in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 29. Subsequently purchased for $3 million at Fasig-Tipton's November Sale, the Florida-bred blew out a half-mile in :48 Wednesday, but new trainer Patrick Biancone cautioned that his charge may need this one. "This is her comeback race and in this race there are some fillies that are very fit," he said. "If she runs well I'll be happy." She'll have a host of challengers to run at. Itty Bitty Pretty (El Corredor) woke up in her first route attempt, drawing off by six lengths in the GIII Santa Ysabel S. Jan. 7. Dance Daily (Five Star Day) and Talullah Lula (Old Trieste) were noses apart--ahead of Folklore--in the GII Santa Ynez S. Jan. 16, and Diplomat Lady (Forestry) upset Balance (Thunder Gulch) in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. Dec. 18. "I told my wife and I told Charlie [owner Cano], the winner of the Kentucky Oaks goes through the Las Virgenes this year," said Chris Paasch, who saddles Diplomat Lady. "I think this is the toughest race in the country right now for three-year-old fillies. I think one of the first three will make their mark in the Oaks."

HORSE FOR THE COURSE?

Healthy Addiction (Boston Harbor), first or second in eight previous outings at Santa Anita, is the morning-line favorite in the GI Santa Maria H. this afternoon. The dark bay was a game winner of the GII Lady's Secret Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 2, defeating Star Parade (Arg) (Parade Marshal) by a half-length. She tired to be 13th at Belmont in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, but was freshened up afterwards and returned to post a victory in the Paseana H. Jan. 19 over track and trip. "She's coming up to the race in really good shape," said trainer John Sadler. "She had a little rest after the Breeders' Cup. She's never been worse than second here, so she likes this track and she's ready to go." Star Parade romped in the GII Bayakoa H. on the Hollywood main track Dec. 11, but a turf venture proved fruitless when she finished 10th in the GII San Gorgonio H. Jan. 8. "There's no question she's better on the main track," explained trainer Darrell Vienna. "There was a gap in the calendar [between her races] and she was feeling good, so I thought I'd try her on the turf." Musica Si (Chi) (Malek {Chi}), a multiple Group 1 winner in her native land, returned from a 13-month hiatus to finish third in the Paseana. The four-year-old fillies Proposed (Benchmark), Seafree (Chief Seattle), Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band) and Skipping Court (Doneraile Court) have been cross-entered in Sunday's GII La Canada S.

Kept toward the rear in this one by Michael Kinane, he came charging down the center of the lane to catch Where's That Tiger by a half-length. "He sat in the middle of the pack," winning trainer Ian Jory commented. "I was surprised he was so far back. I was a bit worried. He was coming wide around the turn, but he showed an impressive turn of foot. I don't think he will have a problem with the step up to the Derby distance [on Dubai World Cup day, 1800m]." Click for the Emirates Racing chart.

Is 'Rocky' ready to roll? That question will be answered this afternoon, when the highly regarded Rockport Harbor tries to build on the promise he showed at two. Now four, the John Servis trainee was undefeated as a juvenile with two stakes wins to his credit: an open-lengths romp in the GIII Nashua S. and a hard-fought win in the GII Remsen S., from which he emerged with a serious cut to his right hind leg. The injuries just kept piling on in the next few months. A bruised foot delayed his return, and following his good runner-up effort to Greater Good in the GIII Rebel S., a blood clot in his neck cost him even more training time. By the time he ran a disappointing sixth in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. in late April, his Kentucky Derby dreams were effectively over. Shelved for the remainder of the year to let his feet heal, he returns here with a clean slate. "He's been training very well," said Rick Porter, who owns the gray under the nom de course Fox Hill Farm. "He's gained some weight, and we've seen a lot of positive things. All systems are go. Now he's got to get out on the track and prove he can win. There's not much we can do about last year. We can just look forward to 2006 being a good year." Greater Good was another who showed plenty of promise early on. The dark bay never earned flashy speed figures, but his four stakes wins--including three graded--between September of 2004 and March of 2005 were tough to argue against. He failed to hit the board in his next four, most recently finishing well-beaten in a Churchill grass allowance in November, and needs to recapture the competitive fire in order to figure here.

Winner of the Fort Monmouth S. as well as a division of the Navajo Princess S. over the Monmouth turf course last season, Brunilda added a third-place effort in the Gill Violet H. on the Meadowlands grass Oct. 21 before getting a brief respite. Second by a head in the Connie Ann S. at Calder Dec. 18, the chestnut rallied to be fifth in the Jan. 14 Marshua's River S. at this track. The second choice in her return to allowance company, Brunilda was reserved in midpack, angled out on the far turn and outfinished Path of Thunder for the victory.

Fourth in his debut to a good horse in High Cotton, NOONMARK (Unbridled's Song) ran a hole in the wind next time, posting a 97 Beyer romping by 10 1/4 lengths vs. Belmont maidens Oct. 23. That was it for the year, though, and he returns off the four-month absence trying to make up for some lost time. The Triple Crown nominee has a series of solid works coming in and will be tested for class against a good group of sophomores. PRAYING FOR CASH (Songandaprayer) looked good winning by 4 1/2 at first asking at Monmouth in early June, but has been off since. He's been working exceptionally well, though, and could be a factor. Brisnet.com PPs

She's a half to GI Belmont S. winner Empire Maker, as well as Grade I winners Chester House, Honest Lady, and Chiselling. LUCERA (IRE) (Stravinsky) should give her all she can handle. She began her career in Europe, where she raced mostly in allowance company. Third and then fourth in two dirt tries in the U.S., she should relish a return to the green stuff. Brisnet.com PPs

MANCHU PRINCE (c, 3, Gone West--Candleinthedark {GSP, $199,696}, by Cox's Ridge) was one of this stable's early arrivals in South Florida and made the most of the opportunity, taking his Nov. 14 debut by a neck over the Calder turf course. Thrown to the wolves in his latest, the $425,000 KEESEP yearling finished a well-beaten ninth to Barbaro in the GIII Tropical Park Derby Jan. 1. The less-preferred of two Pletcher trainees, the 6-1 shot had just one beaten after a half, but swung into action on the far turn and closed with a rush to post a 3/4-length victory. JOHNS PLACE (f, 4, Wheaton--Magical Place, by Out of Place) made the first three starts of her career in claiming company, winning two of those starts, but has taken her game to the next level since. The chestnut returned from a seven-month absence to win an Arlington optional claimer May 28 before finishing third to the talented Eyes On Eddy in a June 18 allowance in Chicago. Most recently second in the July 4 Saylorville S. at Prairie Meadows, she was the 4-1 second choice in her turf debut. King's Swan Dies:

The popular 26-year-old gelding King's Swan (King's Bishop--Royal Cygnet, by *Sea-Bird) was euthanized Feb. 7 at the Mid-Atlantic Equine Medical Center due to complications from an injury sustained in December, according to The Blood-Horse. Known as the "King of Aqueduct" during his racing days, the bay made 107 career starts, winning 31 of those, including the GI Vosburgh S. in 1986. He was claimed by trainer Richard Dutrow the previous year for a partnership which included Dutrow, Alvin Akman and Herb Kushner. King's Swan campaigned over nine seasons in total, earning over $1.9 million while winning 11 stakes races. He retired at 10 in 1990, a year in which he placed in four graded stakes, and was given to exercise rider Jean Lazio. The grand old gelding sustained a shattered ulna in his right foreleg. He was recovering satisfactorily, but aggravated the injury, and the decision was made to euthanize him. "King was a great horse on and off the track," Lazio told The Blood-Horse. "I was honored to be able to spend the last 19 years of my life with him. He was a champion in every sense of the word."

On the heels of a dominating 14-length blowout in the Count Fleet S. over this strip Jan. 7, Achilles of Troy will attempt to take another small step on the Kentucky Derby trail. He'll be partnered with Ramon Dominguez for the first time, who replaces Alan Garcia in the saddle. Dominguez was aboard for the colt's last two works, and although they weren't overly fast, Dominguez isn't concerned. "I'd be lying to you if I told you the horse is a real good work horse," he said. "He's very laid back, especially for a young three-year-old, and I like to see that. He's proven that he can run fast in the afternoons, so he doesn't need to go out there every morning and abuse himself. He's got a nice, long stride on him and I really liked the way he worked the last couple of times." Psychotic Reaction, never worse than second in four starts, rates an upset chance. The Empire-bred comes off a 5 1/4-length allowance win vs. statebreds.

Lopez Okay After Thursday Spill:

Apprentice jockey David Lopez, who was unseated from his mount Obi Wan in the third race at Aqueduct Thursday, was banged up but otherwise okay yesterday. "He's pretty sore," said Lopez's agent, Hall of Fame rider Jorge Velasquez. "He's going to take this weekend off to recuperate and, hopefully, he'll be ready to go Wednesday." Lopez was thrown over the rail in a scary incident after trying to squeeze through a narrow opening along the rail in mid-stretch. "I'm going to give him some tips on what he did wrong and show him how to do it right," Velasquez added. "Everyone learns from their mistakes." Since beginning his career at Arlington in September, Lopez has a record of 11-14-27 from 265 mounts.

Indy--Countess Diana {Ch. 2yo Filly, MGISW, $1,117,186}, by Deerhound), sidelined off a debut seventh in a Churchill sprint June 5, rolled a pair of fours in her first two starts for this barn, going Aqueduct's one-turn mile Nov. 27 and two turns over a muddy inner track on New Year's Day. The 5-2 second choice was last away from the stalls, but went up to stalk the pace from close-up as they raced down the backstretch. Three wide on the final turn, the bay was roused to the front at the eighth pole and had to call upon all her reserves to hold favored Sydney's Emerald (Cloud Hopping) by a neck. WinStar principals Bill Casner and Kenny Troutt acquired Countess Diana for $1.8 million at the 2000 Keeneland January sale. This is her first winner. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, $30,800. With a best-of-17 work to boot, the homebred sprinted quickly to the front, opened up by as many as seven lengths in the stretch and cruised home to win by 5 1/4 easy lengths. First-time starter Strikeuptheblues (Take Me Out) was second best. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $32,800.

Sir Shackleton to Return in Tampa's Super S.

Tracy Farmer's millionaire Sir Shackleton (Miswaki) was in good form in South Florida early last season, winning a Gulfstream allowance impressively before annexing the GII Richter Scale BC H., and tries to kick off 2006 in similar fashion as he returns in Tampa Bay's $50,000 Super S. this afternoon. Trained by Nick Zito, the five-year-old has been idle since running eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Oct. 29. Sir Shackleton has been installed as the 3-1 morning-line favorite for the seven-furlong event over the main track. "He's run with better horses, but there are up-and-coming horses in the Super S., and I expect a tough stakes for his first race back," Zito said. "Tampa's track is extremely safe, and I have great faith in how well horses consistently come off it. It's a great spot for his first race back. I really like the place."

TOBA Statement on Kentucky House Bill 446

"The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association supports the concept and spirit of Kentucky House Bill 446, which was designed to protect horse buyers from being defrauded through undisclosed dual agency. This legislation reinforces and enhances the recommendations made against the practice of dual agency in TOBA's Sales Integrity Program. We encourage modifications to the bill that will ensure its intent of protecting both the buyer and reputable agents. TOBA's mission statement is to "improve the economics, integrity and pleasure of the sport on behalf of Thoroughbred owners and breeders" and we appreciate the efforts that Mr. Jess Jackson is taking to increase the transparency of the public and private sales of horses."

Choctaw Nation, winner of the GII San Diego H. in 2004, ran third in the G1 Dubai World Cup last March. He repeated in the San Diego in August and ran a close fourth, beaten 3/4 of a length in the GI Pacific Classic. Third in the GII Goodwood Breeders' Cup H. Oct. 1, the bay ran sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Oct. 29 and was given some time off. He returned to run seventh on the turf in the GII San Gabriel H. on New Year's Day, and was scheduled to be sold to Saudi interests ahead of a return journey to Dubai. Favored here, the six-year-old was typically unhurried early, but revved into gear on the far turn, swept to the lead and opened up in the lane. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

CLASSIC SALE BEGINS SUNDAY The two-day William Inglis Classic Sale kicks off at 10 a.m. Sunday. Usually sandwiched between Magic Millions and Karaka, Inglis moved the sale back three weeks this year and the response from buyers has been positive. The Classic average has hovered around A$39,000 in recent years, compared with MM and Karaka, which both average over A$100,000. Yet the first sale of the season for Inglis has garnered a worthy following because it consistently proves the source of highly useful horses. Of course, the most famous of these is world champion sprinter Silent Witness (Aus), a A$55,000 purchase for astute agent John Foote. Other Classic flagbearers include Caulfield Guineas winner God's Own (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), a A$220,000 purchase who returned recently to finish runner-up in the G1 Lightning S. Danehill Dancer (Ire) has 14 catalogued, including a possible sale-topper in a bay colt (Lot 458) from Fabled (NZ) (Seattle Dancer) to be offered by Yarraman Park. Another potential star is a chestnut colt (Lot 140) by Danehill Dancer from Portrait (Aus) (Octagonal {NZ}), herself a half-sister to G2 winning sprinter Jet Spur (Aus). "The Classic sale has the support of the state's leading breeders in NSW and around the country, so we are selling horses reared at the best studs," says Inglis director Jonathan D'Arcy. "They may not have the pedigrees of horses going to Easter, but they've been reared on the same quality pasture and they have been given every chance. Often they are from mares whose progeny may not have had the chance to perform yet, but they are by good, proven sires like Danehill Dancer, Tale of the Cat, Secret Savings, Flying Spur and Royal Academy." Catalogues are available on-line at www.inglis.com.au.

TYSON DELIVERS SECOND STRAIGHT KO

Tyson (SAf) (Silvino), winner of the G1 Summer Cup in South Africa, made it two straight handicap wins at Nad Al Sheba last night and has bigger things on the horizon, according to trainer Mike de Kock. "The major plan with him is the [G1] Dubai Duty Free [Mar. 25], which is why we dropped him back [in distance] tonight," de Kock commented. "I thought this was the best horse in South Africa. He's defied a seven-pound penalty, but the most impressive thing about the horse is that they have gone a slow pace in the last two races and that is not his game."
