'SMOKEY' SAILS THROUGH HURRICANE

She keeps swishing her tail, but as long as she keeps winning, her connections probably don't mind. Smokey Glacken (Forestry) swept aside her rivals in the GIII Hurricane Bertie H. with an authoritative win yesterday. Allowed an easy first quarter of :22 2/5, the five-year-old ripped through a half in :44 3/5 and kept on going for her second straight graded victory at Gulfstream. "In her last two starts she broke very well," said winning trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "She can relax when she gets away fast early, and then she's really tough to beat." Hurricane Bertie cont. p2

BARBARO POINTING TO FLORIDA DERBY

Undefeated Barbaro (Dynaformer) will make his next start in the $1-million GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park Apr. 1, according to Daily Racing Form. Winner of the GIII Tropical Park Derby on the Calder turf Jan. 1, the bay handled a sloppy track in capturing the GIII Holy Bull S. Feb. 4. Trainer Michael Matz had been considering the Mar. 4 GII Fountain of Youth S. as an option for his charge. "The way it stands now, we'll wait for the Florida Derby," Matz told DRF. "His races have been scheduled five and six weeks apart all the time; he's already had two races at a mile and one-eighth, and I felt that if, God willing, we make it to the Kentucky Derby, I'd like to go in with the freshest horse possible." Matz said that he discussed the situation with Edgar Prado, who rode the colt for the first time in the Holy Bull. "I spoke with Edgar and said, 'If you feel like he needs the experience, let me know,' and he agreed he'd rather go in with a fresh horse," he explained. "So many horses this time of year are trying to play catch-up, and I feel like we're lucky to be in the spot we're in. I'm new at this thing, but I just feel it's the best way to go."

DESORMEAUX HEADING EAST

Hall of Fame jockey Kent Desormeaux, one of the leading riders in Southern California, will take his tack to the East Coast, according to Daily Racing Form. The 35-year-old rider indicated that he would begin with a brief stint at Gulfstream Park at the end of March before heading to New York. "I really believe the pendulum has switched to the East," Desormeaux told DRF. "When I moved to California they had the best racing, but right now there are way more opportunities and much more money available in the East, and if I want to be a champion jockey I have to use my skills where those opportunities are most readily available." One of the factors was Jerry Bailey's recent retirement. "I realize there are some very good riders in New York, like Johnny Velazquez, Edgar Prado, and several others, but with Jerry gone, there is a void there, and I'm hoping I can come in and achieve the kind of business my status deserves," Desormeaux added.

Smokey Glacken, winner of the Gill Valley Stream S. at two, added the Gill Floral Park H. to her trophy case in September. After failing to see out the seven furlongs of the Gill First Flight H. Oct. 30 at Belmont, where she finished third, the bay was given a break. She returned with an authoritative score in the six-furlong Gill First Lady H. Jan. 21 and lived up to her odds here over a slightly longer distance. "I got her a little break past the half-mile pole," said winning rider Javier Castellano. "I know she went in 1:09, but she still took off when I asked with no problem." Jerkens was unsure of his charge's next outing. "I'm not sure what's next," he said. "She's really a dyed-in-the-wool sprinter and you don't want to mess with that too much." Smokey Glacken had been slated to sell at Fasig-Tipton last November, but owners John and Susan Moore opted to keep her in training for another year. MGISW Splendid Blended (Unbridled's Song), making her first start since June, put in a solid middle move before flattening out to finish sixth as the 4-1 third choice.

Surf Cat kicked off his four-year-old campaign with this eye-catching score. After earning a 114 Beyer Speed Figure in a Hollywood allowance win in May, the dark bay missed by a neck in the Gill Affirmed H. in June in his route debut, but rebounded with a five-length tally in the Gill Swaps BC S. July 9. He weakened to sixth in the 10-furlong GI Pacific Classic Aug. 21 and didn't face the starter again until Oct. 10, when he won an 8 1/2-furlong allowance over this surface as the 1-5 chalk. Allowed to settle into stride in his first start back, the favorite launched his run on the turn. He came rolling up the center of the track and went by second choice Major Success en route to an emphatic success. "He's a great horse," said rider Alex Solis, winning his fourth straight race. "I think he's going to do better this year. The best thing about him is, when he goes long, he shows that nice, high-cruising speed." Equi-Photo

Her late charge came up a half-length short in the slop in the Suwanee River H. at this distance Feb. 4, and she was favored to go one better this time. Unhurried early, the nearly black mare settled into an easy rhythm as second-choice Miss Matched (Formal Gold) cut out fractions of :46 3/5 and 1:10 3/5. Darling Daughter took over turning for home, but Taittinger Rose revved up five wide and put in a sustained effort to earn her first graded stakes victory. "The other day [Feb. 4] we thought she was unlucky with the muddy track and having to drop further back than we would have liked," said assistant trainer Kenny McCarthy. "It's all about producing her at the right time. You might lose a little ground, but she'll always give you her run." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Virage de Fortune enjoyed a solid juvenile campaign in Australia, notching the G3 Champagne Classic May 21, the G1 QTC Sires' Produce S. June 4, the G3 Champagne S. Sept. 10 and the G2 A.J. Moir S. Oct. 22. Beaten a nose while second in her seasonal debut in the G2 Mazda Carlyon S. Jan. 25, she broke on top here, but let All Bar One (Hennessy) cut out the early fractions. Sitting a stalking second, the grey gained command at the top of the stretch and crossed the line a length clear of Rewaaya. "My plan was to get out as quickly as I could without putting pressure on her," winning rider Greg Childs told AAP Racing. "[Trainer] Bruce [McLachlan] told me she has been flying in trackwork and she replicated that the way she came out of the gates. Bruce wanted me to kick on her from 400 meters and make the others catch her with the light weight, which is what I did, but they couldn't catch her." According to McLachlan, Virage de Fortune will return in next weekend's Oakleigh Plate.

Like Now was in for a $75,000 tag when he broke his maiden in front-running fashion at Aqueduct Nov. 2, then stepped up to face optional claimers Dec. 14 and tired to be sixth. Able to get to the front against similar company in his 2006 opener Jan. 12, the bay once again led every step en route to a 5 1/2-length victory and was 5-2 in his stakes debut. The John Dillon homebred showed his customary speed, setting fractions of :47.29 and :59.27. Sunshine Alpine closed the gap late, but Like Now was comfortably in front at the wire. "He has matured a lot," said Art Magnuson, assistant to trainer Kiaran McLaughlin. "He's turned into a very nice horse." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The Fox Hill Farms colorbearer posted a career-best 102 Beyer Speed Figure in that effort. "She's a very, very talented filly," trainer John Servis told the Form. "She came back very good. She's acting good. She ate up good. It was not a hard race on her...You can just tell she's matured. She's happy." The GI Acorn S. victress had her sophomore campaign cut short last season, having a small bone chip removed from her left knee following a second-place finish in the GII Delaware Oaks July 16.

Oaklawn Cancels Saturday Card:

An ice storm which caused unsafe track conditions forced Oaklawn Park officials to cancel yesterday's live racing. A decision on Sunday's card will be made early in the morning. "In order to maintain our hopes of racing on Sunday and Monday," said General Manager Eric Jackson, "we need to stay off the track today. We're going to need some help from Mother Nature right now. We received more precipitation than we expected, and the track is water-logged. We can't race and work at the same time. So, in order to keep up hopes for the remainder of the weekend, we will close for live racing [Saturday]." The feature, the Pippin S., will be contested Monday alongside the $250,000 Southwest S.

Son of Sunday Silence Makes U.S. Bow:

Silent Name (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), born in the Far East but raced exclusively in France, makes his first North American appearance in the $80,000 Daytona H. going 6 1/2 furlongs down the hill at Santa Anita this afternoon. The four-year-old colt has won three of his 10 career starts, including two listed stakes at Deauville last summer. Fourth in the G1 Prix de la Foret, the Wertheimer et Frere homebred was sixth in the Oct. 30 G3 Prix Perth last time out. The bay has been working well for his U.S. debut, most recently firing a bullet six furlongs in 1:12 3/5 at Hollywood Feb. 12. Trainer Gary Mandella takes over for Christiane Head-Maarek. Silent Name faces Silent Lure (Joyeux Danseur), who is three-for-four over this course and distance; Richebourg (Lear Fan), who made it two-for-three with an optional-claiming score Jan. 12; and GIII Morvich H. hero Geronimo (Chi) (Gold Tribute), third while beaten less than a length in a money allowance at a mile Jan. 20.

Purse Hike for Big 'Cap Day:

For the second year in a row, the purses on the non-stakes races on the undercard of the GI Santa Anita H. will be boosted $15,000 each. There are seven non-stakes events scheduled for the Mar. 4 program. The purse increase is a cooperative effort of the California Marketing Committee, the Thoroughbred Owners of California and Santa Anita Park. "What we are doing, thanks to the CMC and the TOC, is pumping up our overnight purses with the belief that mutuel handle will increase substantially," said Santa Anita Racing Secretary Rick Hammerle. "The response from horsemen and the public last year was overwhelming and we were able to come up with one of the best cards of the entire year. It worked so well that everyone agreed we should do it again." The total handle on Big 'Cap day last year was $22,675,695, up more than $1.1 million from 2004.

CHRB Moves to Require Synthetic Surfaces:

The California Horse Racing Board has approved a proposed rule to require a Polytrack-like (synthetic) surface at the major Thoroughbred tracks in California by the end of 2007. The rule, proposed by CHRB Chairman Richard B. Shapiro and approved unanimously by the seven racing commissioners, reads, "As a condition to license, any track that operates four weeks (or more) of continuous Thoroughbred racing in any calendar year must install a polymer, synthetic-type racing surface by no later than Dec. 31, 2007." Before the rule can be adopted, a 45-day period of public notice for input from the industry must pass, followed by a public hearing. The five tracks which would be affected are Bay Meadows, Del Mar, Golden Gate Fields, Hollywood Park and Santa Anita Park. Installing a synthetic surface is estimated to cost $6 million and $9 million per track. Shapiro has offered the Board's assistance in finding ways to reduce the financial burden on individual race-tracks. "We must look at funds now being used by the industry for other purposes, and we might require legislation to seek financial assistance," said Shapiro. "Whatever is needed, we should start now."

Old Thunder broke his maiden by eight lengths at Santa Anita Oct. 22. He was sent off the even-money choice in the Nov. 19 GIII Hollywood Pevue S., but could do no better than fourth behind Your Tent Or Mine. The bay stretched out to two turns for the Dec. 17 GI Hollywood Futurity, tiring to be fifth, then finished an even fourth in an entry-level allowance in his latest outing Jan. 20. Off at 5-1 in his turf debut, Old Thunder lacked any early speed and had to wait for running room on the final bend, but kicked it into gear once clear to win going away.

Allowed to tarry near the back of the pack early, the dark bay circled the field at the top of the lane and drew away despite lugging in to take it by a handy 5 3/4 lengths. King Palm (Halo's Image), the 19-10 choice, was the runner-up. KEEP's Expanded Gaming Bill Filed:

The expanded gaming bill backed by the Kentucky Equine Education Project, which supports a constitutional amendment that would allow casino gambling at the eight racetracks in the Bluegrass State, has been introduced in the Kentucky House of Representatives. House Bill 600 is sponsored by Rep. Joe Barrows (D-Versailles), the Majority Whip and member of the House Appropriations and Revenue Committee. "We're pleased to be working with Rep. Barrows and other legislators on this important piece of legislation," said KEEP Executive Director Jim Navolio. "Our bill--like others--asks for the legislature to let the people of Kentucky decide on this important issue by a constitutional amendment. The bill calls for designated revenue for education, healthcare, local government, veterans, the environment, the horse industry and more." He added, "Currently there are hundreds of millions of dollars leaving our state and we need to keep this revenue in Kentucky for our education system, healthcare needs and other vital services. This is a complicated issue and will require a lot of dialogue and input from many people to reach consensus. We invite everyone who recognizes the need to keep this revenue in Kentucky to come together with us and engage in dialogue to build consensus to put forth the best plan for Kentucky. And to our opponents we say, let the people decide this issue at the ballot. This will resolve the issue once and for all and every Kentuckian will help decide this important issue."
