TICKER TAPE HEADS BUENA VISTA

Eclipse Award finalist Ticker Tape (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) may have come up short in last year's race for the turf female championship, but she stands as the one to beat in today's GII Buena Vista H. at Santa Anita Park. A winner of over $1.4 million, the consistent mare captured the GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup and GIII Pucker Up S. during her three-year-old campaign and hit the board in four of seven starts last season, including the GIII Royal Heroine S., GII Palomar H. and GIII My Charmer H. A half-length short of the victory in the GII San Gorgonio H. Jan. 8, the English-bred won her latest going a flat mile in the Tuzla H. Jan. 26. Never worse than second in five tries over the turf at Santa Anita, Ticker Tape will be ridden by regular partner Kent Desormeaux. Hoping to find some of her previous sparkle, Shining Energy (Rahy), winner of last year's GII San Clemente H. at Del Mar, will compete for the first time since a game second-place finish in the one-mile Harold C. Ramser Sr. H. last October. Trained by Julio Canani, the chestnut will be partnered for the first time by Martin Pedroza.

FOLKLORE TO MISS SANTA ANITA OAKS

Last year's champion juvenile filly Folklore (Tiznow), who was originally slated to contest the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 12, won't make the race, according to trainer D. Wayne Lukas. "She hasn't got into her program since the [GII] Santa Ynez S., so I'm going to skip it," said Lukas. The Bob and Beverly Lewis-owned filly finished third behind stablemate Dance Daily in the seven-furlong race Jan. 16. "I might run another one in there, but I'm not going to run her." As for when the champion will start next, Lukas added, "We've got a long summer. I've got a lot of ambitious plans for Folklore at Saratoga and it's still early in the year."

THE BUZZ AT GOLDEN GATE

Last year's GI Santa Anita Derby winner Buzzard's Bay (Marco Bay) will attempt to collect his first victory since taking Santa Anita's biggest prize for three-year-olds when he takes on six others in the GIII All American H. at Golden Gate Fields this afternoon. Winless since that effort, the chestnut came home third in his debut for Ron Ellis and failed to fire on the turf, finishing seventh in the one-mile Sir Beaufort S. Dec. 26. The colt finished fourth most recently in the restricted Sunshine Millions Classic Jan. 28. Also looking to regain past form,

Buzzard's Bay Benoit Photo

Greeley's Galaxy (Mr. Greeley) will try to reproduce the kind of effort that saw him destroy a solid field in last year's GII Illinois Derby at Hawthorne. A respectable third in his 2006 debut in the 1 1/16-mile GII San Fernando Breeders' Cup H. at Santa Anita Jan. 14, the chestnut couldn't muster the same run and came home a well-beaten fourth in his latest in the GII Strub S. Feb. 4. Looking for a sharper performance this time, trainer Warren Stute has equipped the colt with blinkers this time. All American field cont. p2

OAKLAWN CANCELS CARDS Oaklawn officials canceled racing at the Arkansas track on Sunday and Monday in the face of a frozen racing surface and continuing winter weather in the area. "We had hopes for some cooperation from Mother Nature in forecasts earlier in the week," said Oaklawn general manager Eric Jackson. "But that relief never occurred. We now face a day where temperatures will not get past the freezing mark and a forecast for additional freezing rain throughout the day." Oaklawn was also forced to cancel Saturday's race card, but officials are hopeful that the track will be ready for racing on Thursday. The Pippin S., originally scheduled for Saturday, will be run Thursday, while the Martha Washington, carded for Sunday, will now be run Friday and the Southwest S., carded for Monday, will be run Saturday.

Dyna's Destiny, a 10 3/4-length maiden winner over the Meadowlands turf last October, was third behind J'ray in the Oct. 27 Jessamine S. at Keeneland and fourth in the Nov. 19 Caressing S. at Churchill before earning a two-month vacation. The bay filly returned to win the Jan. 15 Bedanken S. by a late-charging nose in her last start. Allowed to settle off the pace after a slow start, Dyna's Destiny loomed a threat with a three-wide move on the far turn and determinedly wore down Delmarva for her second straight win. "We didn't want to be on the lead, but we certainly didn't want to be the last one coming out of there," admitted winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "She broke in and hit the doors and came out pretty awkwardly. But despite that, she was able to get a pretty good position on the first turn. That let her save some ground and work her way out on the backside. She's got a good late run, but it takes some time for her to put it together. It was really important for her to get clear late, because that allowed her to gear up." Pletcher said the Mar. 19 GIII

Well back in the early going after clipping heels, the chestnut swept to the outside for the drive, gained control a furlong out and inched clear to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Getting the services of John Velazquez for the first time here, the bay filly moved up three wide on the turn and overtook Bandstand (Deputy Minister) in the final strides, despite Velazquez losing his whip, to win by a head at 9-1. The $290,000 KEESEP yearling is a full sister to Whywhywhy (GISW, $315,015) and a half to Spellbinder (Tale of the Cat, GSW, $180,129). Chit Chat Pam, sidelined four months after running third in her debut at Retama last September, returned to earn her maiden win sprinting six furlongs in the Cy-Fair S. over this track Jan. 14. Favored to take two in a row in this field of seven, the dark bay filly was allowed to settle off the pace, swept out four wide on the far turn and reeled in pacesetting Kathy's Rocket down the lane to win going away. "She ran a good race," trainer Bob Young said of the winner. "She got away well and did everything right. We can't ask for anything better than that, but we'll find out down the road how good she is."

Happy Ticket opened her career with eight straight wins in her native Louisiana before taking her show on the road with a win in the GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H. last June at Arlington. She suffered the first loss of her career when second behind Madcap Escapade in the July 10 GII Princess Rooney H., but rebounded with a 5 1/2-length victory in the GI Ballerina H. She was second behind Ashado in the GI Beldame S. and was making her first start since a disappointing 11th-place effort in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff H. Sent off the prohibitive favorite in her homecoming, Happy Ticket veered in at the break, but was straightened out and stalked the pace. She moved into contention midway on the turn for home and easily took charge en route to an authoritative score.

Jockeying for Agents:

Ron Anderson, who represented Hall of Fame rider Jerry Bailey before his retirement, will return to Southern California to book mounts for Garrett Gomez. Gomez's former agent, Jim Pegram, has taken the book of Kent Desormeaux. Desormeaux recently announced that he would head east, but has since decided to remain in California.

Riders Named for Spellbinder and Texcess in Big 'Cap:

Martin Pedroza, winner of the 1989 Santa Anita H. with 50-1 shot Martial Law, will ride Gll San Antonio H. winner Spellbinder (Tale of the Cat) in this year's Big 'Cap Mar. 4. The five-year-old is trained by Richard Mandella, who won the 1 1/4-mile event with Siphon (Brz) (1997), Malek (Chi) (1998) and last year with Rock Hard Ten. Also with a mount in Santa Anita's classic race for older horses, Tyler Baze will get the call on MSW Texcess (In Excess {Ire}), who was recently purchased for $300,000 at the Barretts Mixed Sale. Texcess worked five furlongs in 1:02 at Hollywood Park Saturday. "I don't want him back that far," explained trainer Mike Mitchell, referring to the four-year-old's most recent start, where he rallied late to finish third in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Classic. "I don't want him on the lead either, but I don't think he needs to be that far. That was a lot of ground to make up."

From the connections of last year's champion sprinter Lost in the Fog, Frisco Star appears to be following in that stars footsteps. An impressive 8 1/2-length winner in his debut at Santa Rosa Aug. 6, the dark bay sat out the remainder of the season and wasn't seen again until a narrow victory in a $40,000 optional claimer at Bay Meadows Jan. 26. Well supported for his stakes bow, the colt did not disappoint. Up to press the early pace set by Barber, Frisco Star pushed past that foe a sixteenth from home and drew clear late to score.

RICK PORTER

Porter and last year's Acorn winner Round Pound
A Coglianese

This week's accomplishment:

Porter, whose Fox Hill Farms owns multiple graded winner Rockport Harbor and GI Acorn S. heroine Round Pond, returned both of his stables stars to the races last week after long layoffs. Rockport Harbor won Saturday's Gill Essex H. at Oaklawn Park, while Round Pond took an allowance race at that course Thursday.

Birthdate: June 15, 1940

Birthplace: Wilmington, DE

Education: One semester of college

Principal business: Auto dealer

Current Residence: Hobe Sound, FL

How many horses do you own? About 40.

First win as an owner? A claiming race with Dronetta at Garden State.

Of all the horses you have been around, who has been your favorite? Rockport Harbor because of his character. He is a real ham around fans and the media. [And] he has the best stride of any horse I have seen personally.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? Have a commissioner who can hold all parties involved in the sport accountable, similar to the Major League Baseball and the NFL.

Who inspires you most? My wife, Betsy.

Who was your biggest idol (s) growing up? Ted Williams and Robin Roberts.

Favorite musician? Alan Jackson.

What's your drink of choice? Iced tea.

What's your favorite vacation spot? Bermuda.

Favorite food or meal? Fresh grilled fish.

First job? Beach boy in Ocean City, NJ.

Last purchase? 50 percent of Jolted and Jostled from WinStar (note: by Storm Cat o/o Fox Hill Farm's former star MGISW Jostle).

Perfect day? Spending the day at Churchill Downs, with all my family and close friends, winning the Kentucky Derby.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's TWO Graded Stakes Winning Stars of the Week:

SEAFREE – Won GII La Canada S. at Santa Anita 2/12.

GULCH APPROVAL – Won GIII Appleton H. at Gulfstream Park 2/11.

Congratulations to their connections!
