Despite the presence of four Grade I winners in today's GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup S., it could be the relatively fresh face of Wertheimer et Frere's Go Deputy (Deputy Minister) who steals the show. Lightly raced with just 11 starts to his credit, the six-year-old took a third-level allowance going 8 1/2 furlongs over this turf course Jan. 4 and might have made it two straight, but for a troubled trip in the GIII Mac Diarmida H. Jan. 29.

Steadied on the far turn of that 11-furlong event, the homebred lacked room in upper stretch, but ran on gamely once in the clear to finish second, beaten three-parts of a length (video). A less-impeded run for this half-brother to GI Pacific Classic winner Dare and Go could land him in the winner's circle today. Gun Salute (Military), last year's GI Secretariat S. hero, and Mustanfar (Unbridled) have added incentive this afternoon, as a solid performance likely translates into a berth in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 25. Both horses return off significant absences. Gun Salute, much-improved with the addition of blinkers last spring, was eighth and never a factor in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Oct. 29. Mustanfar, third as the 7-5 chalk in this last season, was most recently ninth in the GI Manhattan H. at Belmont Park June 5.

FIRST SAMURAI PREPS FOR TWO-TURN BOW

First Samurai (Giant's Causeway), who will make his first start around two turns in the Mar. 4 GII Fountain of Youth S., worked a mile in 1:37 2/5 at Gulfstream yesterday morning. The chestnut clicked off fractions of :49 2/5, 1:01 3/5 and 1:13 3/5 before galloping out nine panels in 1:53 3/5. "He lost interest a little bit in the stretch, but young horses will do that," trainer Frank Brothers said. The breeze was the three-year-old's last before his next start. "Now it's time to 'walk the walk,'" Brothers said. First Samurai made his sophomore bow in the Feb. 4 GII Hutcheson S., finishing second behind Keyed Entry. The Hutch winner is scheduled to go next in the Mar. 18 GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct.

Trainer David Hayes is having a tremendously successful season, especially with his two-year-olds, and has nominated the filly Miss Finland as his best chance for a third victory in this event. The conditioner has tabbed jockey Craig Williams to ride the bay, winner in her most recent appearance of the Talindert S. at Flemington Jan. 28. "Craig left the selection of the horses to me and Miss Finland goes particularly well for him and is peaking at the right time," Hayes told Australian Associated Press. Due Sasso belied his odds of 25-1 to defeat Wonderful World in the Feb. 11 G3 Blue Diamond Prelude S. for the colts and geldings, while Nediyim's Glow bested Satin Robes by a narrow margin in the fillies' version the same afternoon.

CLASSICSTAR OPERATING..AFTER IRS VISIT

by Dan Liebman, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

A day after agents from the Internal Revenue Service were at ClassicStar Farm near Versailles, Ky., the horse operation is continuing, the farm manager said today. While refusing to be quoted about the investigation, farm manager Matt Lyons said "it is business as usual." He said mares are being bred and horses cared for like any other day at a Thoroughbred nursery. Lyons said the agents, which were no longer at the property, took some records with them. There are 121 mares at ClassicStar. For the last few years, ClassicStar, which involves the leasing of mares, has spent freely on broodmares, the subsequent foals bred in various partnership names. The offspring were mostly sold as yearlings. It was announced Feb. 7 that David Plummer and his son, Spencer, were no longer associated with ClassicStar. The managing partner of ClassicStar continues to be co-owner Tony Ferguson, who is an executive in the oil and gas exploration business. Agents at the farm directed inquires to assistant U.S. Attorney Alan Garten. Reached at his Portland, Utah, office, Garten said, "We cannot comment on an ongoing investigation but if the IRS is there, that speaks for itself." Garten would not say if the investigation was focused on individuals or ClassicStar, or if records, property or horses were being seized.

NORFIELD (c, 4, Golden Missile--Nine Trumpets, by Forty Niner) broke his maiden in his second try on the turf, galloping home a four-length winner at Calder Dec. 5. The chestnut ran into today's GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. candidate Einstein (Brz) in his latest and, after setting the pace, tired to be sixth behind that rival on the Gulfstream turf Jan. 7. The 17-10 chalk facing a softer field, he tucked in behind the leaders down the backstretch, angled outside to take a short lead at the eighth pole and gave it his all to the wire to best Outer Marker (Broad Brush) by a length. The winner was a $65,000 FTKJUL yearling. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-0, $42,630.

Silver Train Readies for Richter Scale:

Silver Train (Old Trieste), getting ready for his first start since winning the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, breezed six furlongs in 1:14 at Palm Meadows yesterday. Jockey Edgar Prado was in the saddle. The four-year-old will make his 2006 debut in the GII Richter Scale Breeders' Cup S. at Gulfstream Mar. 4. "He went great," trainer Rick Dutrow, Jr. said. "He's doing better than ever. It was just what I wanted. Now we have to see if it was just what he wanted." He added, "I wouldn't be disappointed if he didn't win this first race-there are bigger races down the road that we're zeroing in on. But he's ready to run and doing as well as he ever has." Also prepping for the Richter Scale, Bandini (Fusaichi Pegasus) went six furlongs in 1:14 1/5 at Palm Meadows. The four-year-old has not been out since finishing 14th in the May 7 GI Kentucky Derby.

Magna Graduate to DWC:

Trainer Todd Pletcher informed officials at Santa Anita yesterday that Magna Graduate (Honor Grades) would not ship in for next Saturday's GI Santa Anita H. The four-year-old, owned by Elisabeth Alexander, will instead make his next start in the $6-million G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 25. Originally trained by Patrick Byrne, the dark bay began to flourish after joining the Pletcher barn last summer, with consecutive victories in the GIII Pegasus S., the GIII Discovery H. and the GII Clark H. He was most recently fourth, beaten 9 1/4 lengths, behind fellow World Cup hopeful Brass Hat (Prized) in the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Feb. 4.

AMADEUS ON SONG

Conditioner Kevin Ryan, in fine form with four winners at Wolverhampton yesterday, has revealed that G1 Middle Park S. winner Amadeus Wolf (GB) (Mozart {Ire}) will point to the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket without a preparatory run. The bay provided Ryan with a first Group 1 success in the Middle Park. The Yorkshire-based Irishman told viewers of At The Races, "He'll go straight for the 2000 Guineas without a run. It's going to be a hard race, but I wouldn't swap him for any other horse in the race. He's wintered well, he's forward in his work and in his coat." Race sponsor Stan James currently rates Amadeus Wolf a 14-1 chance for Britain's first Classic of the season.

Irridescence, last year's champion three-year-old filly in South Africa, went on a three-race winning streak in her native country in 2005, notching the G1 South

Andrew Watkins

African Fillies Classic Apr. 2, the G2 Gerald Rosenberg S. Apr. 28 and the G1 Woolavington 2200 June 5. Carrying highweight of 137 pounds while making her first start since finishing a close-up fifth in the G1 Vodacom Durban July H. July 2, the bay kept these within her sights and rallied to score by 1 1/4 lengths.

"I told my trainer [Mike De Kock] that we could run her once at the Carnival and if she ran well, then we could consider running in the [Mar. 25 G1 Dubai] Duty Free," commented Team Valor President Barry Irwin. "I thought she ran dynamite considering the long layoff and the weight she carried and spotted. If she comes out of this race well, we'll go in the Duty Free."
