SMART RIDE PAYS OFF FOR EINSTEIN

The lightly raced Einstein (Brz) (Spend a Buck) was facing a group of accomplished turfers in yesterday's GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup S., but that didn't stop him from going wire-to-wire by a measured neck over Go Deputy (Deputy Minister). The Helen Pitts trainee graduated in the Churchill mud Nov. 6, then was fourth over that track's turf course 19 days later. He kicked off the new year on the right foot over the Gulfstream lawn, closing from 10th to notch an allowance Jan. 7. Jockey Rafael Bejarano tried different tactics, sending the bay to the lead in his most recent start in an off-the-turfer Feb. 4, but the end result was still the same, a seven-length score. Making his stakes debut here, he walked around the track through :25 3/5, :51 2/5 and 1:18 fractions, turned back a challenge from Gun Salute (Military) in the stretch and held Go Deputy safe. Cont, p2.

CASE CLOSED!

Even with three consecutive scores under his belt by a combined 27 1/2 lengths, the jury was still out on Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr), but after his determined 3/4-length victory in yesterday's Southwest S. at Oaklawn Park, it looks like he's going to start receiving the respect he deserves. The chestnut earned his diploma in his sixth call to the post, then finished third in a grassy allowance at Churchill Nov. 5 and fourth in the Grand Canyon H. Nov. 20. He made his return to the dirt in an off-the-turfer at Louisiana Dec. 9 and hasn't tasted defeat since. Allowed to set easy fractions in the Diamond Jo S. at Evangeline Downs New Year's Eve, he cruised home to an 8 1/2-length victory. Heavily favored here off his win in the Jan. 14 GIII Risen Star S., which produced a 106 Beyer, he rattled off :23 1/5 and :48 splits and held Steppenwolfer (Aptitude) safe. "You worry about a lot of things at his short price, among them hoping he breaks well," winning trainer Bob Holthus said. "I felt pretty good when he turned down the backside, because I could see he had relaxed. He did everything well." Chart, p2.

TANAKA ENTRY LOOMS LARGE

Owner Gary Tanaka appears to have a stranglehold on today's GII San Luis Obispo H. at Santa Anita, sending out Atlando (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}), King's Drama (Ire) (King's Theatre {Ire}) and Aubonne (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). Atlando notched the GIII Knickerbocker H. in his U.S. debut last October and has two starts under his belt this season, finishing second in the Jan. 1 San Gabriel H. and fourth in the GII San Marcos S. Jan. 22. King's Drama, winner of the GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. last summer, looks to get back on track after finishing 16th in the G1 Japan Cup Nov. 27. He appears to be the controlling speed. Aubonne, the lone female entered, defeated the boys in a pair of contests while racing in France back in 2004. She comes in this off a victory in the La Zanzara H. Jan. 27. Connections of The Tin Man (Affirmed) decided to skip this event in favor of the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25. "I'd be sorry if he got there and was a little [tired]," trainer Richard Mandella told Daily Racing Form.

"I told you he was special," winning trainer Helen Pitts said. "He's still coming along. He's still just a baby, but he's got a lot of heart. I knew the race was going to be either us on the lead, or we could tuck in just off the pace. He can do either one. He can set the pace, but I think he's versatile. There are a lot of options here. We're going to sit down and lay out some best-case scenarios. He's been invited to the UAE Derby. Dubai is hard on a horse, but it's a great opportunity to consider."

Behaving Badly began her career with three straight tallies, including the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. at Del Mar. She suffered her first defeat when eighth in Keeneland's GIII Thoroughbred Club of America S. last October, then placed second in her grass debut versus allowance company at Santa Anita Nov. 5. The New York-bred returned to the winner's circle with a 4 1/2-length allowance tally over the Hollywood main oval Dec. 16 and followed with a decisive victory in the GI Santa Monica H. last out Jan. 29. Breaking from the six hole with Victor Espinoza aboard, she dueled five wide through an opening quarter of :21 2/5, began to edge clear on the turn for home and won under wraps. "We like to win like that," trainer Bob Baffert commented. "She's extremely fast and they usually are when they're built like that. I think I'll probably run her in the [GI] Humana Distaff on Derby Day [May 6]...we'll let her tell us. If she's doing great, it could be that race." It was a banner day for Arrowfield stallion Redoute's Choice (Aus), who picked up his sixth and seventh individual Group 1 winners on the Caulfield card. It was also a one-two for trainer David Hayes, but Nadeem had to overcome a very heavy track and a near-disastrous start to post the upset victory. The colt clipped heels and nearly fell, causing his trainer to admit, "I took my eyes off him as I thought he was too far back." Due Sasso (Scenic {Ire}), the slight 5-1 favorite, took the lead a furlong from home, but Nadeem hit high gear in the stretch and swooped late to win going away, with stablemate Miss Finland rallying for second. Hayes, who returned to Australia in August after 10 years in Hong Kong, has dominated the juvenile scene, winning 25 races, including 10 stakes. In addition to the top two here, he has the unbeaten filly I Got Chills (Aus) and stakes-placed Churchill Downs (Aus) heading for the Apr. 8 G1 AAMI Golden Slipper S. at Rosehill.

Purchased for A$260,000 at the 2004 Magic Millions Yearling Sale, Snitzel picked up his first victory at the Group 1 level with this front-running score. The three-year-old had won five of his 10 prior starts, but was overlooked at 10-1 to handle elite company. Sent right to the front, he was always in control, holding favored Virage de Fortune at bay to the wire. "He has a high cruising speed and when he gets traveling, he can quicken off it," trainer Gerald Ryan said. "Not many horses can do that and he can. I could see at the 600 metre, when he put the pressure on, the others were all under pressure chasing. I knew we had it won." As for what lies ahead, Ryan added, "I've been saying for 12 months that this is a horse I'd like to take to America."

5:04p HRTV 4th-SAX, $46K, Msw, 3yo, a 6 1/2f
EAGLE RIDGE (Fusaichi Pegasus), owned and bred by Fusao Sekiguchi, debuts for the Neil Drysdale barn, which hits with a very solid 27 percent of its first-time starters. Drawn on the inside for this down-the-hill debut, the dark bay colt shows a best-of-42 half mile in a handy :46 1/5. Also sure to attract his fair share of attention is TRADITION (Elusive Quality), purchased by Jay Em Ess Stable for $340K at the 2004 Keeneland September sale.

Never out of the exacta in five previous inner-track appearances, Bohemian Lady kept that streak intact with a facile victory. The bay mare suffered a trio of tough losses last fall, finishing second by 3/4 of a length in the Athenia H. at Belmont Oct. 15, by a half-length to Stellar Jayne in the GII Top Flight H. Nov. 25 and by a head to India Halo in the Dec. 17 Ladies H. The five-year-old rediscovered her winning ways last time out, taking the Affectionately H. by an easy seven lengths in the mud Jan. 14. Heavily favored to go back-to-back, Bohemian Lady sat just off the early pace of Amazing Buy (High Yield), swallowed that one up at will turning for home and sprinted clear. "It was to her credit that she was able to relax a little off the front," commented Seth Benzel, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "This might be a better dimension for her. She doesn't have to be on the lead, necessarily. After that, [jockey] Jose [Santos] had plenty of horse to kick out from them." Benzel indicated that the GIII Next Move H. Mar. 26 could be next for the winner. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

GALLOPING GROCER (g, 4, A. P Jet--Little Evie {MSP}, by Northrop) was third--placed second--in last year's GIII Gotham S., but was seventh in the GI Wood Memorial and 13th in the GI Preakness S. before leaving the picture. The runner-up in the sloppy Cab Calloway S. for Empire-breds at Saratoga Aug. 3, he disappeared again, returning to be a distant eighth in the Oct. 22 Empire Classic at Belmont. The 3-2 chalk on the class relief, the chestnut forced the issue from the outside, edged to the front nearing the stretch and dug in determinedly to win by a nose from Rum Point (Afternoon Deelites). GREELEY'S LEGACY (c, 3, Mr. Greeley--Deceit Princess, by Vice Regent), a good third in his first attempt at routing over the inner Dec. 10, graduated by 3/4 of a length Dec. 31. Bumped during the stretch of a Jan. 26 allowance, the dark bay settled for fourth. Part of an entry at odds of 3-1, the $120,000 OBSMAR juvenile dropped out to last after a half-mile, but rallied on the turn, swept to the front in upper stretch and pulled away to defeat Men's Club (Brahms) by 5 1/2 lengths. Scanlon's Song (Partner's Hero), the 9-10 chalk, finished fifth by 9 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 8-2-0-2, $67,691. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. O-Donald F Flanagan. TALE OF WONDER (g, 4, Tomorrows Cat--Wild and Wonderful, by Kennedy Road), a full to West Virginia, GSW, $641,570, went gate to wire to break his maiden at Aqueduct on New Year's Eve. The chestnut suffered through a rough trip in an entry-level allowance test at the Big A Jan. 28, finishing eighth, but was off at 5-2 to redeem himself here. Narrowly in front after an opening quarter in :22.33, he opened daylight after a half in :45.14 and was all alone down the lane, coasting to a 5 1/4-length score. The winner was a $20,000 FTNAUG yearling and a $130,000 OBSMAR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $54,623. O-Puglisi Stables. B-Donald & R Mary Zuckerman, as Tenants by the Entireties (NY). SCOTS PINE (c, 3, Forestry--Miss Valid Pache {SW, $166,023}, by Valid Appeal) was 10th to Steppenwolver in his Nov. 12 bow over seven panels, but improved markedly with a stretch out in distance. The $275,000 KEESEP yearling was third in a Dec. 7 maiden rained off the turf and rounded out the triple in a muddy maiden over the inner Jan. 14. Allowed an easier-than-expected lead when Uncle Festor (Cat Thief) stumbled and lost his rider, the half-brother to Valid Pulpit (Pulpit), MSW, $140,385, responded when asked and was 3 1/2 lengths better than Madison Blues (Sultry Song) at the wire. Scots Pine, produced by a full sister to Valid Expectations, was the preferred part of an entry favored at even-money. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-2, $35,344. Fort Prado was the beaten 1-2 favorite in his 2005 finale, running second by 3/4 of a length in the Dec. 18 Col. E.R. Bradley H. on the Louisiana Downs turf, but rebounded to take the Jan. 21 GIII Fair Grounds Breeders' Cup H. by a neck at odds of 7-2. The slight choice to make it two-for-two on the year, the gray bided his time near the back of the pack for six furlongs. Icy Atlantic appeared to get the jump on the field when closing with a rush to take over at the top of the stretch, but Fort Prado had started to bridge the gap on the final bend and stormed past Icy Atlantic in the final furlong for a decisive victory.

The 14 1/2-length winner of a Philly Park allowance Sept. 27, Sticky got her head down on the line to take the Oct. 15 Maryland Million Oaks at Laurel and closed a successful three-year-old season with a runner-up effort in the Anne Arundel S. at the same oval Nov. 19. Part of a formidable entry for Richard Small, Sticky stalked the pace, but was forced to wait for room and steadied behind horses. She found a split between rivals in upper stretch, angled out at the eighth pole and was along in time to best her stablemate.

The 3-5 chalk to earn his diploma this time around, the $50,000 KEESEP yearling purchase raced just off sizzling early fractions, rallied into the stretch and overhauled Voudouist (Petionville) for a 2 1/2-length victory. The winner is bred on the same cross that resulted in MGSW High Limit and GSP Monarch Lane. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $14,200. O-Rhodyo-Rosemore Stable. B-Brilliant Stable Inc & Lynn Jones (KY). Two Stakes Added to Laurel Schedule:

A pair of added-money races have been added to the stakes schedule at Laurel Park in light of the cancellation of the track's centerpiece events of the winter meet--the GII General George Breeders' Cup H. and the GII Barbara Fritchie Breeders' Cup H. The Northern Wolf S. will take place Saturday, Mar. 18 and is open to three-year-olds and up. Run at the distance of seven furlongs, it will carry purse money of $60,000 guaranteed with no fee to nominate. Entries close Thursday, Mar. 9. The Snow Goose S. is scheduled for Saturday, Apr. 1. For fillies and mares, three-years-old and up, it is also worth $60,000 guaranteed and will be run at one mile. Free nominations close Thursday, Mar. 23.

A year ago, trainer Tim Ritchey suprised many by dropping the name of Afleet Alex into the entries for the Mountain Valley, and the eventual dual Classic hero obliged with an impressive victory. Urban Guy has taken a different route to the Oaklawn stake. Claimed for $40,000 off his Oct. 11 maiden win at Delaware, the chestnut took a Nov. 1 allowance at the same track before finishing second in Aqueduct's Huntington S. Nov. 13. Rested off that effort, the colt returned to miss by a half-length in the Jan. 20 Dixieland S. at Oaklawn. Settled just off the early pace, Urban Guy rallied three wide on the turn, poked a head in front at the eighth pole and pulled away. "The race developed perfect for us," commented winning jockey Robby Albarado. "We had two horses up ahead with my horse sitting in the garden spot and when I asked him to go, he gave me that big late kick."

Claiming trainers missed a bargain when they let Classical Ryder get passed them carrying a $15,000 tag. The bay bested maiden claimers at that level in her Dec. 14 debut at Turfway, and made it two in a row with a 6 3/4-length score over $30,000 open-claiming company Jan. 4. After making it three in row in an entry-level allowance going a mile Jan. 21, she was let go at 8-1 to remain unbeaten in her stakes debut. Classical Ryder had just two beaten as they raced through the opening half, but closed ground on the turn and kept on coming down the lane to catch Anna Dana in the final yards. CHRB Soliciting Public Comment on Coupling Rules:

The California Horse Racing Board is encouraging public comment on a proposed change which would eliminate the coupling of horses as single-wagering interests at the state's racetracks. The CHRB approved the proposed changes for a 45-day public notice period, which will expire Apr. 10. Comments should be forwarded to Harold Coburn by regular mail to the CHRB, 1010 Hurley Way, Suite 300, Sacramento, CA, 95825 or by email (harold@chrb.ca.gov). The Board will conduct a public hearing at its meeting Apr. 27 at Hollywood Park and interested parties are encouraged to attend.

Gamely, Shoemaker Nomination Process Altered:

Nominations to the GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. and the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup H., both to be run at Hollywood Park on May 29, 2006, will close May 17. In previous years, Hollywood accepted early bird nominations for the two Grade I races in late February.

+ STAR SERENADE (f, 3, Catrail--Sweet Surrender, by Synastry) belied longshot odds of 14-1 to win this racetrack debut. Fast into stride, but taken back there-after, the bay was guided to the outside of horses leaving the eighth pole and overtook odds-on Miss Bordeaux (Eltish) for a one-length tally. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $16,500.

Successful in the G2 Prix Hocquart as a sophomore, Lord du Sud failed to hit the heights again until recording a Listed double in the Grand Prix de la Ville de Nantes and Prix Max Sicard at the end of last season. He made it three in a row and justified favoritism with a dominant display on seasonal debut here. Racing on the front end after a smart break, the grey left rivals trailing in his wake off the home turn to post an impressive score.

Penalized two kilograms for winning last term's Listed Prix des Sablonnets at Nantes, Salsalava made light of that anchor to double his stakes tally in determined fashion. The crowd's choice returned off a fourth in the Nov. 12 Criterium de Saint-Cloud to occupy the same berth in the Listed Prix de la Californie here 13 days ago, but was better suited to the extra 650 meters of this event. Patiently ridden until asked for his run in the straight, the homebred seized control inside the eighth pole and held enough in reserve to withstand the late surge of Papillon Rose.

ASIA

ALL EYES ON SILENT WITNESS Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie) makes a much-anticipated return to the races in this afternoon's G1-HK Centenary Sprint Cup at Sha Tin, an event he has won the past two seasons. The six-year-old has not faced the starter since annexing the G1 Sprinters' S. at Nakayama Oct. 2 and was forced to abandon a three-peat attempt in the G1 Hong Kong Sprint due to a virus he likely contracted in quarantine prior to his return to Sha Tin. While the domestic competition includes horses Silent Witness has routinely thrashed over the past three years, today's 1000-meter test will likely prove to be his toughest race to date. Trainer Tony Cruz elected to give the gelding the month of December off and has brought the reigning Horse of the Year along slowly. The bay has exhibited some signs of rust since being put back into training, including a third-place finish in a Feb. 7 barrier trial over 1000 meters, where he struggled home five lengths behind Hong Kong Sprint winner Natural Blitz (Aus) (Maroof), a rival he faces this afternoon. However, his recent trackwork has been much sharper and he has dropped 15 pounds since the barrier trial three weeks ago. In other Group 1 action, G1-HK Stewards Cup hero Russian Pearl (NZ) (Soviet Star), champion miler Bullish Luck (Royal Academy) and G1 Hong Kong Vase third Best Gift (NZ) (Bahhare) square off in the Hong Kong Gold Cup. The 2000-meter heat was supposed to feature the return of Vengeance of Rain (NZ), but the G1 Hong Kong Cup victor has been put away for the season by trainer David Ferraris.
