SERENA'S SONG FOALS STORM CAT COLT

On Saturday, Harlington (Unbridled) gave champion and blue hen mare Serena's Song (Rahy) her fourth stakes winner, taking the GII Gulfstream Park H. At 11 p.m. Sunday, Beverly Lewis's 14-year-old mare produced her eighth foal, delivering a colt by Storm Cat at Craig Bandoroff's Denali Stud in Paris, Kentucky. Both mother and son are doing fine. "He's typical of her foals," said Bandoroff. "He has more size and more leg than some of her Storm Cats, but he is very pretty and has lots of quality." Serena's Song has resided at Denali since the beginning of her broodmare career. According to Bandoroff, it is a pleasure to work with her, and not just because she has proved so valuable. "With her, everything is text-book perfect," he said. "She's only had two covers once in her life--every other year she has caught on one cover." He added, "She's good to work around, but she's no pussycat. She can be pretty nasty for about 72 hours after she foals--she is very protective." In addition to Harlington, the latest addition to the family is a 1/2 to to MSW Serena's Tune (Mr. Prospector) and SP Arbitrate (Deputy Minister); and a full to G1SW Sophisticat and GSW Grand Reward. Serena's Song will be bred back to Storm Cat.

PLETCHER TO TRAIN $16M FORESTRY COLT

Todd Pletcher, who earned his second consecutive Eclipse Award last year as the nation's top trainer, will condition the world-record, $16-million Forestry colt that sold at Fasig-Tipton's Calder Juvenile sale a week ago. The colt was purchased by Demi O'Byrne for the Coolmore team of John Magnier, Derrick Smith and Michael Tabor. Coolmore typically sends its North American-based runners to either Pletcher or Patrick Biancone.

RICHTER SCALE COLT TOPS BARRETT'S TAB

A colt by Richter Scale, named Call Zoll, sped through a quarter mile in :20 4/5 at Fairplex Park Sunday to earn the bullet at the first breeze show for the Barretts March Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training. A full brother to Canadian stakes-winner Quite a Ruckus, the bay colt, cataloged as hip 17, is consigned by B.C.3 Thoroughbreds, agent for Timberline. He becomes just the fifth horse to shade :21 during a March Sale breeze show, joining Grade I winners Brother Derek (2005), victor of Saturday's GII Santa Catalina S., and Officer (2001), and Grade II winners What a Song (2005) and Arabian Light (2000). A total of eight horses shared the fastest time for an eighth, each working the distance in :10 flat (see box below). The second under tack show will be held at Fairplex Park in Pomona, California this Sunday, Mar. 12. The one-day auction begins Tuesday, Mar. 14 at 2:00 p.m. PST.

Bearing in mind that the Swale S. is over seven furlongs, it's not surprising that the recent roll of honor for this Grade-II event features such fast horses as Lost In The Fog, Midas Eyes, D'wildcat, Trippi, Yes It's True, Favorite Trick and Mr. Greeley.

Of the last 12 winners of the Swale, only Trippi,

Sharp Humor (inside) edges favored Noonmark

Favorite Trick and Roar succeeded in winning a graded race over a distance as long a mile and an eighth, with the majority developing into specialist sprinters. So what chance does Dale Romans have of realizing his dream of making the Kentucky Derby with Sharp Humor, the Swale's latest winner?

The way Sharp Humor found the speed to dispute the lead from the start on Saturday must raise some doubts about Romans' two-turn ambitions. But, as the favored Noonmark discovered, Sharp Humor still had something in reserve in the closing stages--as one might expect of a colt who rounded off his juvenile campaign with a stakes victory over a mile.

These ambitions sound a little at odds with Romans' post-race comment that Sharp Humor is "just a fast, fast horse...He does everything right. He's got a real high cruising speed."

Romans added that "I know he's a New York-bred, but he's a well-bred New York-bred," and I certainly wouldn't disagree with that assessment. Sharp Humor is a son of the up-and-coming Distorted Humor and comes from a female line which has enjoyed classic success on both sides of the Atlantic.

Sharp Humor's fourth dam, Continuation, was a winning sister to the dual Grade III turf winner Tuerta, who found fame as the dam of none other than Swale. Appropriately the Swale S. owes its name to this short-lived winner of the 1984 Kentucky Derby and Belmont S., whose career figures stood at nine victories from 14 starts. Swale's triumphs also included the Breeders' Futurity, Young America S. and Florida Derby, so his death at the age of three represented not only a major setback to Claiborne Farm but also to the American breeding industry in general.

Continuation herself became the second dam of Shadeed, a very talented Nijinsky colt who won the 1985 2000 Guineas before disappointing badly as second favorite for the Derby. The fact that Shadeed made a highly successful return to a mile after the Derby suggested that his failure at Epsom was attributed at least partly to the distance.

This famous family traces to Book Law, an English filly who followed second places in the 1000 Guineas and Oaks with a victory over the colts in the 1927 St Leger. The branch developed by Claiborne did so well that many of you will recall that Tuerta and Continuation were half-sisters to File, who found fame as the dam of Forty Niner. As Distorted Humor is a son of Forty Niner, Sharp Humor is inbred 4x5 to Continue, the Double Jay mare who produced the stakes winners Yamanin, List and Perpetual, in addition to the dams of Swale, Forty Niner and their fellow Grade I winner Chain Bracelet.

But what does Sharp Humor's fascinating pedigree tell us about his chances of carrying his speed beyond a mile?

The good news is that Distorted Humor already has a Derby hero to his credit in Funny Cide and that Forty Niner was a major winner over the Derby trip, taking the Travers S. after going down by a neck to Winning Colors in the Derby itself.

The bottom half of Sharp Humor's pedigree also encourages the belief that he ought to stay a mile and an eighth, possibly further. His dam, the unraced Bellona, is by Hansel, who earned the title of champion three-year-old colt with his victories in the Preakness and the Belmont. The second dam Basoof, a winner over a mile and an eighth in Scotland, is by Believe It, who took the Wood Memorial prior to finishing third in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. And so it continues down the generations. Continual, the third dam, was by Damascus (Preakness, Belmont and Jockey Club Gold Cup), while the fourth dam Continuation was by Forli, a winner at up to 1 7/8 miles in his native Argentina.

If there is a doubt about Sharp Humor's stamina potential--and there has to be in view of his bold style of racing in the front rank--it stems from Distorted Humor. With Mr. Prospector and Danzig as his grand-sires, Distorted Humor combines two of the modern era's greatest influences for speed, and it was no surprise that he shone at around seven furlongs as a mature horse.

Remember, though, that Distorted Humor once went within a head of winning the GII Fayette S. over a mile and an eighth as a three-year-old. And it is just as important to remember that Mr. Prospector sired winners of all three legs of the Triple Crown, while Danzig went close to doing so.

This background is enabling Distorted Humor to sire quite a wide variety of important winners. Among them are several which stay better than he did, such as Funny Cide, Flower Alley, Commentator, Fourty Niners Son and the Australian-raced Rinky Dink.

Flower Alley and Commentator share the fact that they are inbred both to Mr. Prospector and Northern Dancer, while Fourty Niners Son is another with two lines of Mr. Prospector. This is encouraging, as Sharp Humor is inbred 3x4 to Mr. Prospector and 4x5 to Northern Dancer.

Incidentally, Sharp Humor is the first American graded winner out of a daughter of Hansel, who was sold to Japan in 1999 after a very disappointing start to his stallion career. The Grade-II scorers Guided Tour, Magellan and Quantum Merit represented the sum total of Hansel's impact at graded level in the USA, but he fared a bit better in Europe, where Loving Claim took the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac and Fruits of Love landed three Group-2 contests. This didn't add up to much of a return for a stallion who started out at a fee of $30,000. Can he do better as a broodmare sire?

TALKS BREAK DOWN BETWEEN HORSEMEN

by Scott Davis, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

Negotiations between the Florida Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and Magna Entertainment Corp. over a split of slot revenue from Gulfstream Park broke down when FHBPA representatives walked away from the talks. "We've been holding meetings for four weeks and they keep offering us the same thing," said FHBPA president Sam Gordon. "The only change they've made is putting the offer in bigger letters." According to Gordon, Magna has proposed that approximately 3.2 percent of slot machine revenue go to horsemen's purses, with another 0.75 percent to the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association. That, he said, would put horsemen in a poor competitive situation compared to other states. Gordon said the FHBPA has made a counter-proposal in which it receives 6.75 percent of gross gaming dollars, and reiterated that offer in a Mar. 3 letter to Magna. "We're not being greedy," he said. "We understand we got a bad law." The law he refers to is the 50-percent tax rate on Broward County slots passed in December by the state legislature that is one of the highest in the country. The law also requires that Gulfstream reach a deal with horsemen before the first slots lever can be pulled; that has Magna officials eager to resume negotiations. For the complete story, click here.

Original Spin Fine After Last-Place Finish:

Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies third-place finisher Original Spin (Distorted Humor), who disappointed when last of 10 in her 2006 bow in Sunday's GI Forward Gal S. at Gulfstream, came out of the race with no obvious problems, according to trainer Tony Mitchell. "We've scoped her since the race and she's clean as a whistle," said Mitchell. "Also, she ate up every single oat this morning. I don't know what happened. I can't say she didn't like the track, because she worked great over it last week." In the Forward Gal, Original Spin raced along in mid-pack through the opening furlongs before fading and being eased late, finishing 10th, some 26 3/4 lengths off winner Miraculous Miss (Mr. Greeley). "She was running well, but when [jockey Rene Douglas] asked her for a little bit, she didn't respond very well, and when he asked her again she didn't give him anything," said Mitchell. "Now I have to find some answers. We're very disappointed." Original Spin, named 2005 Horse of the Year in Illinois for the Russell Reineman Stable, also won last year's GIII Arlington-Washington BC Lassie S.

Flashy Bull to Florida Derby:

West Point Thoroughbreds' Flashy Bull (Holy Bull), who was put up to second from third in the GI Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream, was none the worse for wear after Saturday's race and will continue on to the GI Florida Derby at Hallandale Apr. 1. "He ran a great race," said trainer Kiaran McLaughlin of Flashy Bull, who was promoted after Corinthian (Pulpit) veered out in mid-stretch, impeding him and eventual winner First Samurai (Giant's Causeway). "The 10 post was obviously a negative because we had to use him early and then ask him again late, but I thought he responded very well and he came out of the race great and looks great this morning. We'll proceed with the plan we had in place for him and point him to the Florida Derby."

Penn National to Close Present Grandstand Apr. 8:

Penn National Race Course plans to close its 33-year-old grandstand building following the last race on Saturday, Apr. 8, in anticipation of replacing it with a new integrated racing and gaming facility that is currently awaiting approval by the Pennsylvania Gaming Control Board. Penn National filed an application Dec. 22 for a license to construct and operate the new facility on the site of the existing grandstand and clubhouse. There will be no live racing at Penn National from Apr. 9 through Apr. 25. Thereafter, the track will move its racing operations to the new Paddock Club, located just north of the current facility. For more information, visit www.pennnational.com.

Texas Thoroughbred Educational Fund Award Grants:

The Texas Thoroughbred Educational Fund has awarded $24,500 in grants to five students for the 2006-2007 school year. The TTEF provides grants to young Texans to further the educational opportunities for children of Texas Thoroughbred Association members. "The TTA has always been a strong proponent of education, and we are proud to be able to back that commitment with the financial resources to help young Texans pursue their goals," said TTA Executive Director David Hooper. "This would not be possible without the generous support of the TTA Board and general membership." In order to receive a grant from the TTEF, a student has to be a TTA member or have parents who are TTA members.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

DISCREET CAT THURSDAY IN DUBAI? Discreet Cat (Forestry), purchased by Darley interests after an eye-catching debut win at Saratoga last August but on the sidelines since, could make his return Thursday at Nad Al Sheba in Dubai. The colt is one of 19 horses entered for a 1600-meter conditions event on the dirt, which yesterday was listed as a substitute race on the UAE Oaks undercard. Declarations are taken today for Thursday's races. Discreet Cat was acquired from Joyce Robsham, whose late husband Einar Paul Robsham bred the handsome bay three-year-old, shortly after his maiden win and transferred to Dubai.

RECORDS FALL AT INGLIS The final session of Inglis' Premier Sale (Session 1) at Oaklands concluded on a high note with new records established in average, gross and top price. A filly by King's Best out of the Sadler's Wells mare Rose of Tralee (Aus) realized a record price of A$570,000. Consigned by Brooklyn Lodge, Lot 324 was purchased by Graeme Rogerson, who purchased the bay's dam for $A500,000 at the 1997 Easter Sale. Rogerson, who retained part ownership in Rose of Tralee throughout her racing career, recently sold the mare in foal, to Redoute's Choice (Aus), to Cambridge Stud in New Zealand. The filly is a half sister to G1 VRC Oaks heroine Serenade Rose (Aus) (Stravinsky). "I think she's great value for the money-especially if Serenade Rose wins the [G1] Australian Guines [Saturday]," said Rogerson. "We're back in the family now and I think she's going to be a good filly." Leading the colts, Lot 475 reeled in top price of $A320,000 from Woodlands Stud. Out of the group-winning mare Apple Danish (Aus) (Danehill), the bay was consigned by Goulburn Park. Overall, session figures for average and median rose 25 percent over the comparable session from one year ago, while gross increased by eight percent from 2005. "The demand was exceptionally strong [yesterday] with a clearance rate of over 85 percent," said Inglis Director Peter Heagney. "With last year's sale setting records in all areas, it was always going to be a hard act to follow, so the outstanding success of this year's sale is a credit to the wonderful job done by all the vendors." Inglis' Premier Sale, session 2, concludes today.
