BANKING ON BARRETTS MARCH

The catalogue is 10 percent smaller than last year, but President Jerry McMahon is hopeful that the theory of quality over quantity will be well-received by the buyers at the 2006 Barretts March Sale of Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training. Bidding begins at 2 p.m. today. "I was concerned that the smaller catalogue would be a problem, but it looks like the buyers are still coming to take a look," said McMahon. "We had great people at the first training preview--the major buyers were certainly in attendance. I think that indicates that they are taking our sale seriously." Keeping the buyers interested is only part of the battle. For McMahon, the other side of the sales equation is most important. "In the two-year-old markets, the consignors are key," he remarked. "The buyers are comfortable with consignors more than they are with a particular venue. If you have consignors who do a good job, that's what attracts the buyers. It really does matter. We have a strong group, but it is smaller than what you find at the Eastern sales because of the proximity of those sales to where the Eastern consignors are based. We'd like to have five or six more Eastern consignors, but the consignors we have do a great job and produce very good horses." While most of the major players are expected to be in the Hinds Pavilion in Pomona this afternoon, there is one man who will be conspicuous in his absence. The late Bob Lewis had been a familiar face at Barretts since he became a member of racing's family in 1990 and he was the leading buyer at the sale last year, picking up five horses for a total of $3,875,000--nearly 27 percent of the gross. But it is much more than his purchasing power that will be sorely missed this year. "It's hard to describe just how important he was to Southern California, and certainly Barretts was at the top of the list," McMahon said. "He bought his first Thoroughbreds at our sale in 1990. He was really a great friend, and he is irreplaceable, as so many have noted."

ROCKPORT HARBOR INJURED

Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song), fifth in Sunday's GIII Razorback Breeders' Cup H., exited the race with a severe cut on his right hind foot, according to The Blood-Horse. The four-year-old originally cut the foot while winning the 2004 GII Remsen S. and the current injury occurred over the scar of that cut. It is severe enough to have connections considering retirement for the star-crossed gray. "The cut is only about a sixteenth of an inch, but the real problem is I can take my fingernail and pull apart the edge of it," trainer John Servis explained to Blood-Horse. "And you can see moisture in there. The foot's not real hot, so I don't think it's infected, but it's definitely bothering him. It'll be touch and go for the next four or five days to see if we even have a shot to get him 100 percent." During an unbeaten juvenile campaign, Rockport Harbor won the GIII Nashua S. and Remsen. He was second in last year's GIII Rebel S. and returned from a 10-month layoff to win the Feb. 11 GIII Essex H. A winner of five of eight starts to date, Rockport Harbor has earned $324,800.

South Florida Contingent Leaves Tuesday

After a final tune-up Monday at Gulfstream, GI Donn H. winner Brass Hat (Prized) is expected to head a team of seven South Florida stars leaving for the Middle East today. Brass Hat went a half mile in :50 4/5 in preparation for the G1 Dubai World Cup. "We just wanted to give him something easy--a chance to stretch his legs before he gets on the plane tomorrow night," the five-year-old's trainer, William "Buff" Bradley said. Also on the Tuesday night flight: Mustanfar (Unbridled), Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes), Magna Graduate (Honor Grades), Host (Chi) (Hussonet), Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and Gaff (Maria's Mon).

If at First You Do Succeed

Consignor Jerry Bailey was so pleased with his results at the first under-tack show for the Barretts March Sale that he chose to sit out the second with his seven-horse consignment. The entire septet was out at the track Mar. 5, with three getting an eighth in :10 flat--the fastest time at the preview--with four stablemates going in :10 1/5. "You had to love it," Bailey said with a grin. "You never expect every one of your horses to work that well, but we were lucky. They all previewed very well." He added, "I won't work any of them back. They trained all week, Tuesday through Friday, and then the rains came and we haven't been able to track them since. We will just rest on our laurels." Bailey and partner Lance Robinson of Gulf Coast Farms have had their share of success as pinhookers, but the Gulf Coast trio expected to attract the most attention at Barretts this afternoon are all homebreds. "We have about 100 mares," Bailey explained. "Lance started his breeding operation about 12 or 15 years ago, and I got involved four or five years ago. We've grown from 35 to 50 to 75 to 100 mares, but we'll probably plateau in there somewhere. Every year, we cull the bottom end and add a few new ones." In addition to selling off some of the mares and staying involved in the two-year-old sales, Gulf Coast also offers a selection of yearlings at auction every year. "We have sold a lot of yearlings that went on to do well at the two-year-old sales, but we were happy with what we sold them for," Bailey said. "Being at both the yearling and the two-year-old sales just gives us another option when it comes to selling our horses."

What They're Saying At The Sales...

Barretts President Jerry McMahon on the state of the market:

"The market appears to be really strong, but very selective. That seems to be the experience everyone is having. I'm hoping we will be able to do well with horses from the middle and lower markets. We have such a mix in our catalogue--we have the horses that bring the big prices and we have horses that will be well-sold at $100,000. That's the group I am wondering about."

Consignor Mary Knight on the popularity of freshman sire Johannesburg:

"I have been impressed with the two I have, and with what I've seen from around the country. Everybody that has them likes them. They are very sound. I had to push mine, and I have been really pleased with them. It's not often you can play catch-up and have them hold up, but the Johannesburg's can."

Consignor Eddie Woods on the importance of the workout:

"It is not something that matters--it's the only thing that matters. Unless you have a blue-blooded filly with residual value as a broodmare, the time is everything. That's what it's all about."

☆ HIP HAPPENINGS ☆

Hip 16, c, Touch Gold--Abby Girl, by Meadowlake
Consigned by Eddie Woods, agent for Saratoga Stable V

The chestnut colt, tabbed as one to watch by consignor Eddie Woods, is out of SW and MGISP Abby Girl. A May foal, he was purchased for $115,000 as a FTSAUG yearling, and was precocious enough to dash off an eighth in :10 1/5 at the Mar. 5 preview.

Hip 17, c, Richter Scale--Ada Ruckus, by Bold Ruckus
Consigned by B.C.3. Thoroughbreds, Agent for Timberline

He worked a quarter in :20 4/5 at the first preview; the four horses sold at Barretts March that broke the :21 barrier went on to win graded stakes. He will try to follow in the hoofsteps of last year's ill-fated topper, the $1.9-million What a Song, and 2005 graduate Brother Derek. The latter exited this consignment after a :20 4/5 trial, went on to win the GI Hollywood Futurity and is one of the early favorites for the GI Kentucky Derby after going two-for-two this year. "It's kind of a neat plateau he has reached," said B.C.3. partner John Brocklebank of the Richter Scale colt. "I try not to shoot off about him too much, because I don't want to jinx him, but it's hard not to brag about him. When you see a horse work in :20 and change, and come out of it in fine fashion, you are probably looking at quite an athlete." Named Call Zoll, he was an $85,000 KEESEP yearling purchase.

Hip 39, f, Tactical Cat--Bourbon Street Gal, by Dixieland Band

Consigned by Havens Bloodstock Agency, Inc, agent

She was foaled Apr. 1, but the gray didn't fool anyone at the first under-tack show, breezing an eighth in a bullet :10 flat. The attractive filly was purchased for $38,000 as a KEESEP yearling. She is from the family of Canadians champions Archers Bay, Bold Ruritania and Stage Flite.

Hip 41, f, Distorted Humor--Bridge to Cross, by Phone Trick

Consigned by Jerry Bailey Sales Agency, agent

A half sister to SP Purgatory (Devil's Bag), she dashed off an eighth in a bullet :10 at the Mar. 5 preview. Her second dam is SW Fun Flight, herself dam of stakes winners Tour, Flight Forty Nine and Pink Shoes. It is also the family of GSW Trip and SWs Laity, Joke, Wildcat Shoes and Isabell's Shoes. A February foal, she is named Undercover Angel.

Hip 47, c, Exploit--Carson Jen, by Carson City
Consigned by Murray Smith, agent

The dark bay, a Feb. 4 foal, sped through an opening eighth in :09 4/5 en route to a quarter in :21 1/5 at the first preview. A $100,000 OBSAUG yearling, he is the first foal from MSP Carson Jen. Said consignor Murray Smith, "He's a beautiful colt and he reminds me so much of What a Song [the 2005 Barretts March topper than Smith sold for $1.9 million]. I thought he was a perfect fit for this sale, because his sire raced out here, and he worked brilliantly."

Hip 58, c, Carson City--Cochet Cochet, by Clever Trick
Consigned by Jerry Bailey Sales Agency, agent

A $250,000 KEESEP yearling--the third-highest pinhook at the sale--the bay zipped an eighth in a co-fastest :10 flat at the first under-tack show. Out of a dam that has produced nothing but winners, he is from the family of GISW Run Man Run. "He's just a real, real solid racehorse," said Bailey. "Carson Citys are known for that and he is no exception. He was probably our fastest horse at the farm all year. He had a few mistakes during his first breeze, and he still went in :10 flat. When he went to start off, there was a horse to his outside that was pulling up. He focused on that horse and drifted out at the start and still went very fast."

Hip 73, c, Johannesburg--Gambler's Hope, by Bertrando

Consigned by Mary Knight, agent

Named Round Valley, the bay worked an eighth in :10 2/5 at the first preview. "He's a real attractive colt, very well-balanced," said consignor Mary Knight. "He moves well, he worked well, he's a kind, classy horse--he's the whole package. And he's a Cal-bred to boot, which makes him all the more valuable out here. I wish he was mine."

Hip 127, f, Storm Cat--Parade Queen, by A.P. Indy
Consigned by Sequel Bloodstock, agent

The only Storm Cat in the catalogue, she is out of a multiple-graded-stakes winner and worked a quarter in a sprightly :21 1/5 at the first preview. Named Untouched Talent, the May foal brought $310,000 as a KEESEP yearling, the most expensive pinhook at Barretts March 2006.

Hip 166, c, Elusive Quality--St Lucinda, by St. Jovite
Consigned by Mary Knight, agent

A half to GSW and GISP Mananan McLir, the dark bay was purchased for $57,000 as a KEEJAN yearling. She worked a furlong in :10 3/5 in the first under-tack show. "She's a big strong filly, but she was a little behind when she came in," said consignor Mary Knight. "She was green as grass at the first preview."

Jim Firios

Hip 177, c, Distorted Humor--Tom's Cat, by Storm Cat
Consigned by Jerry Bailey Sales Agency, agent

His sire's progeny averaged $55,868 in earnings last year, tops of any stallion represented at the sale, and he is out of a half to a Danzig colt that brought $1.4 million as a 2004 KEESEP yearling. The chestnut worked an eighth in :10 1/5 at the initial preview. "The two horses that have been the most active have been the two by Distorted Humor--hip 41, the filly; and hip 177, the colt," Bailey said. "He certainly is a popular sire these days, and that has helped us a lot. He gets runners, and the colt has a good enough pedigree that he will be a sire if he wins a graded stakes." Named Cowtown Cat, the juvenile is out of a winning Storm Cat mare from the family of GSW Crafty But Sweet and SWs Shouldn't Say Never, Stutz Keys and Captain Maestri.

After breaking his maiden in November, Tagano Bastille went winless in his next four starts before annexing a minor stakes race in his most recent. Jockey Kenichi Ikezoe kept the colt held up near the back of the crowded 14-horse field before guiding him out for racing room in the lane. Tagano Bastille kicked on well once clear, cruising home ahead of the filly I Am Angel. "He showed an impressive late kick in the stretch," said Ikezoe. "I think he was well in control, and he'll suit longer distances, as well."

A first graded winner is a significant landmark in the career of any stallion, but especially so when the stallion was the highest-priced new stallion of his year.

The stallion I am referring to, you will probably have guessed, is Point Given, who got off the mark when his son Go Between narrowly landed the GIII Palm Beach S. two days ago--on the same day that Point Given's sire Thunder Gulch was successfully represented by Balance in the GI Santa Anita Oaks.

Point Given's initial fee of $125,000 put him in a league of his own among the first-season sires of 2002, with Tiznow next in line at $30,000. Needless to say, Point Given's standing took a serious knock when he could finish no higher than 33rd among 2005's leading first-crop sires. His figures stood at only two winners from 17 runners, and his slow start was reflected in some disappointing sales figures. His second-crop yearlings, sired at an adjusted fee of $75,000, achieved a median of only $30,000, and his third-crop foals, again sired at $75,000, averaged $24,100.

People had every right to expect more of Point Given, even allowing for the fact that his size and his stamina might combine to limit his success as a sire of juveniles. After all, his size--he stands nearly 17 hands--hadn't stopped him from being rated the second-best juvenile male of 2000, when he won three of his six starts, beginning in August at Del Mar. His victories in the GIII Kentucky Cup Juvenile S. and the GI Hollywood Futurity book-ended a pair of Grade I seconds, including an excellent effort in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

The important thing to remember is that Point Given was an even better three-year-old. A winner of the last two legs of the Triple Crown, he went on to dominate both the GI Haskell and the GI Travers and his only loss, in the Kentucky Derby, was totally forgotten by the time of the Eclipse voting. An undisputed winner of the three-year-old male award, he was also a decisive victor for the Horse of the Year title. His achievements earned him a first book of 104 mares, with 71 live foals.

There was always every chance that Point Given's progeny would also start to shine in their sophomore year, and this is beginning to happen. One son, Great Point, was a good second to Barbaro in the GIII Holy Bull S. over a mile and an eighth last month and now Go Between has taken the GIII Palm Beach S. over the same distance on turf. We might also soon be seeing the likes of Point Determined and Point of Impact start to go on to better things.

Although turf racing never entered Point Given's agenda, it isn't surprising that Go Between is flourishing on the green stuff. His dam Mediation, an Irish-bred daughter of Caerleon, ventured onto the main track only once in 11 starts in the U.S., having earned a Timeform rating of 110 during a busy three-year-old season on the turf in Ireland.

I must admit to having been a fully paid-up subscriber to Caerleon's fan club, and I admired him both as a racehorse and sire. An unbeaten two-year-old, Caerleon went on to win the French Derby and the Benson and Hedges Gold Cup (now the Juddmonte International). He was also a very attractive, well-bred individual who cost $800,000 as a yearling in 1981.

Having seen him develop into a champion sire, capable of getting a very wide range of high-class winners in a wide range of countries, I fully expected him to become a major success as a sire of broodmares. This belief was influenced by the fact that his sire Nijinsky and grandsire Northern Dancer had been champions in this area, and his pedigree also featured the name of Princequillo, who racked up eight titles as champion sire of broodmares.

Altogether, this member of the famous La Troienne family looked assured of stardom as a broodmare sire, but that hasn't materialised. With over 1,700 offspring of racing age to the end of last year, Caerleon's daughters could hardly fail to have produced some important winners, with such as Stuka, Avonbridge, Patavellian, River Keen, Dimitrova, Mutamam, Taiki Shuttle and Mutafaweq among his Group 1 winners. However, there haven't been many superstars and I feel a little cheated.

Mediation was one of Caerleon's speedy winners, with the mare inheriting her speed from her female line. Go Between's second dam, Redeem Herself, was a useful Irish sprinter and the next dam, Redowa, was a sister to Yellow God, a top-class two-year-old who was second in the 2000 Guineas, and to St Alphage, sire of the champion sprinter Sandford Lad.

Although there is plenty of speed in Go Between's female line, both his sire and broodmare sire were Classic winners over a mile and a half, so there is every chance that he will stay a mile and a quarter--and continue improving.

TRF AWARDED HIGHEST RATING BY CHARITY NAVIGATOR

The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation has received Charity Navigator's highest four-star rating for sound fiscal management, the group has informed the TRF. Charity Navigator, the largest charity evaluator in America, cited the TRF's "ability to efficiently allocate and grow its finances" in announcing the rating. Its executive director, Trent Stamp, went on to say, that "less than quarter of the charities we've rated have received our highest rating, indicating that Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation outperforms most charities in America in its efforts to operate in the most fiscally responsible way possible. This 'exceptional' rating from Charity Navigator differentiates the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation from its peers and proves that it's worthy of the public's trust." Founded in 1982, the TRF's mission is to save Thoroughbred horses no longer able to compete on the racetrack from possible neglect, abuse and slaughter. Today, the TRF is the world's largest, best known and most respected organization devoted to equine rescue. It houses 1,300 permanent residents at farms in 13 states, predominantly at its five large farms at correctional facilities, where inmates benefit from ground-breaking vocational training. "The Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation is the largest equine sanctuary in the world," said Diana Pikulski. "As such, it takes a tremendous amount of effort on the part of the staff and our team of volunteer directors to try to raise the money to feed and care for so many horses, run our life-changing inmates' programs and try to educate the racing industry on its responsibilities. It is particularly gratifying, therefore, to be recognized for putting people's money to good use, especially by the largest independent charity rating system, and we hope that this gives donors even more confidence in our work."

Barbaro Works at Palm Meadows:

Undefeated Barbaro (Dynaformer) continued preparations for the Apr. 1 GI Florida Derby yesterday at Palm Meadows with a five-furlong work in 1:00 2/5. "We just let him stretch his legs," commented trainer Michael Matz. "Everything continues to go well for us. I don't know how his time compares to some of the other horses [on the work tab], but we were very happy with what he did. He went good, he came back fine, he scoped clean and he's got his head in the feed tub right now." The work was the second fastest of 30 at the distance yesterday at Palm Meadows. Barbaro is coming off a victory in the Feb. 4 GII Hutcheson S.

Wind Causes Hawthorne Cancellations:

Hawthorne Race Course was forced to cancel racing after the first race yesterday when westerly winds gusted up to 50 miles per hour. "Management and the jockeys agreed that the winds made the conditions unsafe for the horses and the riders," said assistant general manager Jim Miller. Live racing is expected to resume today with a first post time of 1:10 p.m.
