Kelly's Landing captured the June 25 GIII Aristides Breeders' Cup H. last summer at Churchill, but was a well-beaten sixth in the Aug. 13 GII A G Vanderbilt H. and hadn't been out since. With a string of four straight bullet works at Palm Meadows under his belt, the heavy favorite pressed pacesetting Pisgah through quick fractions. He took charge in upper stretch and inched clear to the wire.

'Bash' to Benefit Equine Research, World Hunger:

A charity event hosted by the New York Racing Association and The Jockey Club, the Belmont Bash will benefit Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation and World Hunger Year when it is held June 8 at the Hard Rock Cafe in New York, New York. The event was previously known as the Belmont Ball and Belmont Celebration. "We are very excited about this event and exceptionally proud to be helping the causes of equine research and world hunger in the same night," said Charles E. Hayward, NYRA's president and chief executive officer. "Besides raising money for these two charities, the Belmont Bash will undoubtedly raise awareness of the Belmont Stakes two days later."

SOLZEN DENIES MURTAGH Epsom Derby-winning jockey Johnny Murtagh was denied a memorable success at the Cheltenham festival yesterday when his mount Golden Cross (Ire) (Goldmark) failed by a head to peg back My Way de Solzen (Fr) (Assessor {Ire}) in the G1 Ladbrokes World Hurdle. Despite jumping the last upsides the eventual winner, Murtagh came out the wrong side of the photo finish with the six-year-old winner, who was sent off at 8-1. "I am sick--I haven't been as sick for a long time," Murtagh said. "I thought I had it and he jumped the last well. He is a great horse and has done everything well--he didn't hit one hurdle and he jumped very big." For My Way de Solzen's trainer Alan King, it was justification for the decision to let him take his chance on the quickening ground. "We were still undecided about the ground, but we let him take his chance," he commented. "The ground isn't soft out there today and I'm just hoping he is okay in the morning. We were always reluctant to run him on quick ground because he is a seriously good horse."

RECORD SET AT MAGIC MILLIONS General Nediym (Aus) continued his hot streak Thursday when local horseman Leon Macdonald outstayed leading trainer Mark Kavanagh to secure lot 397 for a sales-record A$340,000 during the third session of the Malaysia Airlines Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale at Morphettville. The chestnut, out of the Marscay (Aus) mare Classic Status (Aus), was offered by Mill Park as agent. "He's the nicest horse here," said Macdonald. "He's beautifully balanced and very athletic." Asked whether he thought the colt would bring as much as he did, Macdonald said, "I thought he'd make about A$300,000." The previous record of A$330,000 was set last year for a colt by Fusaichi Pegasus. Gross for the third day decreased from A$4,699,000 last year to A$4,300,000 this term, while average rose to A$39,090 from A$34,299 one year ago. The sale concludes Sunday, Mar. 19.
