A UNANIMOUS VERDICT FOR LAWYER RON

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) stamped himself a Kentucky Derby contender with a decisive victory in the GIII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Park yesterday afternoon. The chestnut colt had wired the field in his last four starts, taking the Jan. 14 GIII Risen Star S. by 8 1/4 lengths and the Feb. 25 Southwest S. by 3/4 of a length, but he changed tactics this time. The Bob Holthus trainee rated well off the pace before charging down the center of the track to best stablemate Red Raymond (Deputy Commander) by three lengths. "I just followed instructions," jockey John McKee said. "He did the rest. In the stretch he really kicked it in...he kept his mind on business and so did I." Rebel cont. p2 Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A BATTLING FINISH IN SAN FELIPE

A.P. Warrior (A.P. Indy) outgamed Point Determined (Point Given) to earn his first graded score in the GII San Felipe S. at Santa Anita yesterday. The dark bay closed from the middle of the pack to get to the front at the eighth pole, then fought off a resurgent runner-up to take it by a half-length. The winner goes next in the Apr. 8 GI Santa Anita Derby. San Felipe S. cont. p2

HOW DO YOU LIKE ME NOW?

He was let go at 36-1, but Like Now (Jules) led them from gate to wire to win yesterday's GIII Gotham S. at Aqueduct by a neck. Making his first start beyond six furlongs, the bay gelding dashed off fractions of :23.25, :47.78 and 1:12.30. Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory), the 8-5 second choice, tracked him throughout, but couldn't get to him in the final yards and had to settle for second. Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin is convinced that his charge will go even farther than the mile and a sixteenth of the Gotham. "We will definitely keep taking the steps toward the Kentucky Derby and run in the Wood Memorial [GI, Apr. 8 at Aqueduct] next," McLaughlin said. DEPUTY GLITTERS SHINES AT TAMPA

Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) got the better of Deputy Glitters (Deputy Commander) in the Feb. 18 Sam F. Davis S., but the Joseph LaCombe homebred turned the tables in the GIII Tampa Bay Derby yesterday afternoon. Jockey Jose Lezcano rated Deputy Glitters in second as 65-1 Winnies Tiger Too (Wheaton) strolled through six furlongs in 1:13.43. The bay colt took control as they raced past the eighth pole and was kept to the task to beat 2-5 Bluegrass Cat by two lengths. The runner-up may have had an excuse, however--he lost his right front shoe during the race. Tampa Bay Derby cont. p3

Case Closed...

The 9-5 favorite in quest of his fifth consecutive victory, Lawyer Ron bided his time in fifth down the backstretch. He edged closer on the far turn, then kicked it into gear down the lane and widened to the wire in a solid performance. Trainer Bob Holthus, winning the race for the fifth time, said, "He was a little far back early, but we didn't know how fast they would be going up front. Once our colt made the big move and got to the lead, I knew it was all over." The winner goes next in the Apr. 15 GII Arkansas Derby. Private Vow (Broken Vow), making his first start since winning the Nov. 26 GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., pressed the early pace, but faded late to be seventh. "It wasn't a bad race and it is one that will help him," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "He needed the race and will improve."

A.P. Warrior got the better of Bob and John when he posted a four-length score in an entry-level allowance test at Santa Anita in November, but raced evenly to be fourth in his next start, the Dec. 17 GI Hollywood Futurity. Fourth again in the Jan. 29 GIII El Camino Real Derby at Bay Meadows, he found himself changing hands, going to John Shirreffs, the trainer of 2005 GI Kentucky Derby hero Giacomo. Off at 7-1 to improve under new management, the Stan Fulton colorbearer shadowed the frontrunners while racing on the outside. He went after the leaders as they came out of the turn and had daylight on the field at midstretch, but Point Determined, living up to his name, came back to make it close at the wire. "When [Point Determined] came to me, he pinned his ears and dug in like I thought he would," jockey Corey Nakatani said. "I could not have been more pleased with the way he was traveling underneath me. He was relaxed. I really think the sky is the limit with this horse. I'm excited." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Deputy Glitters made his debut against $65,000 maiden claimers at Saratoga last September and ran away from the field, winning by 13 3/4 lengths. The bay didn't handle the jump up in class for the Oct. 6 GI Champagne S. and tired to run last, but improved to be fourth in the Nov. 13 Huntington S. at Aqueduct. Freshened after that effort, he faded to fifth in his return, an allowance test at Gulfstream Jan. 15. The colt was sent off at 63-1 in the Sam F. Davis, but belied the long odds to finish a solid second behind Bluegrass Cat. A better-backed 8-1 this time, Deputy Glitters settled in second to the stretch, then forged to the front and had enough left in the tank to win handily. But the connections of Bluegrass Cat were not disheartened by their colt's defeat. "[Trainer Todd Pletcher] noticed when he was getting his bath that he had lost his right front shoe," WinStar Racing Manager Elliott Walden said. "On a track like Tampa, that's deep and sandy, I think that makes a difference. But he came out of the race great and if he comes back and wins next time, all will be forgotten." The top two may meet again in the Apr. 8 GI Wood Memorial S. or the Apr. 15 GI Blue Grass S. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Like Now was in for a $75,000 tag when he beat maidens at Aqueduct Nov. 2. The John Dillon home-bred tired to be sixth in an optional claimer at the Big A Dec. 14, but led every step of the way against similar company in his first start of the new year Jan. 12. Sent right to the front in his stakes debut, the Feb. 18 Fred Capossela S., he cruised home a 2 3/4-length winner, but the New York faithful gave him little chance to stretch his speed around two turns. The Florida-bred broke sharply to take a daylight lead around the first bend. He was in the clear while clicking off untaxing splits and still had a length and a half on Keyed Entry at midstretch. The runner-up cut into that margin in the final sixteenth, but Like Now held on gamely to post the upset. "We thought he would be successful stretching out, but you never know until you try," Kieran McLaughlin said. Achilles of Troy (Notebook) raced wide around the far turn, then had no reponse in the stretch and finished fifth. The gray was vanned off after the race. Dr. Anthony Verderosa, the chief examining veterinarian for the New York Racing Association, said, "He seemed a little sore in his right front, but at this point, there was nothing we could see or feel."

Splendid Blended captured the GI Hollywood Starlet at two, but disappeared for 5 1/2 months after the victory. She came back to be fourth in the June 4 GI Acorn S., then was back in California for the July 3 GI Vanity H. and bested Island Fashion by a head. The filly injured a suspensory after that race, and it was announced that she would be retired, but that announcement proved premature. The chestnut recovered so well while on the farm that it was decided to send her back to the track, and that decision bore fruit yesterday. Splendid Blended tired to be sixth in her first start back, the Feb. 18 GIII Herecomesthebride S., and was off at 3-1 to improve in her second try of the season. The crowd's second choice, she was head-and-head with Injustice through six furlongs in 1:09.10, then took control in the final furlong to win as much the best. Wild Gams tired to be fourth against fellow J-breds in her juvenile finale, the Nov. 4 New Jersey Futurity at the Meadowlands, but she has been unbeatable this season.

The bay filly opened the year with a 4 3/4-length score in an optional claimer over the Aqueduct inner track Jan. 6 and made it two in a row in the Jan. 23 Oxford Scholar S. at the Big A. The co-second choice in her graded bow, she settled in third as favored Celestial Legend led Oprah Winney through a half in :45 4/5.

Wild Gams split the frontrunners at the top of the lane and pulled away to win handily. "She actually did better today than her previous two victories," winning jockey Eibar Coa said.

"She ran against better horses and proved she has been improving. I was very happy with the way she ran...she was stuck inside and I had to wait. But when I pointed her, she responded." As for what's next, trainer Ben Perkins Jr. said, "It looks like maybe we could stretch her out another notch or two. There are some nice races here, so I'm not sure we'll have to ship around." The runner-up was a perfect six-for-six coming into this race, following a 12-length tally in the Jan. 7 Marshua S. at Laurel with a nose tally in the Feb. 11 Wide Country S. at that track. "She ran great; we just got out-run," trainer Dale Capuano admitted.

Latency came back after 5 1/2 months on the sidelines to win at Palermo Nov. 12, then was second at San Isidro Dec. 10. He took another couple of months off after that performance, returning to capture the Feb. 12 G1 Gran Premio Miguel A. Martinez De Hoz by a half-length, and earning himself a trip to Uruguay for this prestigious event in the process. Baleriana (Per) (Keseff) jumped out of the gate to set the early pace, getting the first 1200 meters in 1:09.80 and still leading through 1600 meters in 1:34.60, but the pace took its toll down the long stretch at Maronas. Necessaire, who had stalked the pace early, took over in the final 200 meters, but favored Latency came flying down the wide outside to win going away.

Sri Diamond overcame the widest post under a good ride from Jamie Spencer to score at 8-1. A smart handi-capper, he took his tally to four at Lingfield going 1 1/2 miles Feb. 4, and Britain's reigning champion jockey exploited that stamina here. Stalking the slow early fractions, Sri Diamond hit the front with 300 yards remaining and clung gamely to his lead as Grand Passion challenged wide. "I was lucky he's a horse you can switch on--when I got him where I wanted to be, he just lobbed again," Spencer said. "There are very few horses who you can set alight from the gate and get them to drop it again, but Sylvester [Kirk] has trained him for the race." Triple Threats

First Samurai to Blue Grass...

Trainer Frank Brothers confirmed yesterday that First Samurai (Giant's Causeway) will make his next start in the Apr. 15 GI Blue Grass S. at Keeneland. The chestnut colt worked at Gulfstream yesterday, going a half in an easy :49. He is scheduled to fly from Opa-Locka to Louisville Wednesday, and will be stabled at Churchill in the run-up to the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby.

Three-Year-Olds on the Work Tab...

Trainer Nick Zito sent out a pair of sophomores to breeze at Gulfstream Park yesterday morning, with Great Point (Point Given) going five-eighths in 1:02 2/5 and stablemate Doc Cheney (Saint Ballado) getting the same distance in 1:00 4/5. Both are candidates for the Apr. 1 GI Florida Derby. Great Point, runner-up in the GIII Holy Bull S. in February, struggled home 10th in the Mar. 4 GII Fountain of Youth S. Doc Cheney comes off second-place finish in his two-turn debut, an allowance test at Gulfstream Feb. 26. At Palm Meadows, Lewis Michael (Rahy) went a bullet five furlongs in 1:00. He is pointing for the Apr. 8 GII Illinois Derby. "He worked awesome," trainer Wayne Catalano said. "It looks like we'll take a shot at the Illinois Derby." The colt has made just one start on the dirt, finishing second to laity in his career opener at Arlington last August. He was fifth in his latest, the Feb. 12 Hallandale Beach S. on the Gulfstream grass.

SECRETTAME DEAD Secrettame (Secretariat--Tamerett, by Tim Tam), the dam of top sire Gone West, was struck by a severe bout of colic and died Mar. 17 at Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital in Lexington, The Blood-Horse reports.

Gone West

Joy Gilbert

Owned by Audrey Reed, the mare was 28. The winner of the Shirley Jones H. and second in the GII Gazelle H., the chestnut mare captured six of her 10 career starts and earned $101,598. But it was in the breeding shed that she proved most valuable. Her first foal was Gone West (Mr. Prospector), who sold for $1.9 million as a KEEJUL yearling before winning the GI Dwyer H., GII Gotham S. and GII Withers S., earning $6892,251 before retiring to stud. From 16 crops to race, the world-class stallion has sired four Breeders' Cup winners, including champion Speightstown, and top-class runners turned sires such as Zafonic, Elusive Quality, Grand Slam and Mr. Greeley. To date, he has 81 stakes winners, including 46 graded winners, and his progeny have earned more than $61 million. He currently stands at Mill Ridge Farm for a fee of $125,000. Secrettame also produced MGSW and MG1SP Lion Cavern (Mr. Prospector), a $950,000 KEEJUL yearling. Her last foal is the three-year-old Airbound (Fusaichi Pegasus), who has placed in three starts in England. In all she had 15 foals, including eight winners, and her progeny earned $1,682,095.

The Augustin homebred had improved since being switched to the turf late last year. Following a fifth to subsequent GISW Einstein (Brz) in a local allowance Jan. 7, the Pennsylvania-bred ran third in a five-furlong sprint Jan. 22 and most recently missed by a length going 8 1/2 panels over this surface Feb. 24. Taken in hand after breaking from the rail, the dark bay raced along near the back of the pack, angled to the outside for his challenge and finished up strongly to win by 3/4 of a length over Argento (More Than Ready). JOHN AMERMAN

Horsephotos

This week's accomplishment:

Balance, campaigned by John and his wife Jerry's Amerman Racing, established herself as the favorite for the GI Kentucky Oaks with a rousing win in the GI Santa Anita Oaks last weekend.

Birthdate: January 28, 1932

Birthplace: Newark, NJ

Current Residence: Palos Verdes Estates, CA and Temecula, CA

Education: BA, Dartmouth; MBA Tuck School of Business Administration (Dartmouth).

Family: Married, wife Jerry; daughter Anne and son Garrett.

Principal business: Amerman Racing and Peacefield Farm, a rehabilitation and lay-up facility for Thoroughbreds and show horses in Temecula, CA

Favorite horse to be around? Happyanunoi--she became part of Amerman Racing after being the two-year-old filly champion in Australia/New Zealand. She won three Grade I's in the U.S. We will never forget singing the kids' song "If you're happy and you know it, clap your hands" in the winners circle.

Who inspires you the most? In racing, it is two of our trainers, Bobby Frankel and David Hofmans. Bobby for his in-depth knowledge of how to train horses and produce a high percentage of winners. David for his ability to plan and succeed in winning high-profile races.

What's playing in your CD player right now? Listening to talented artists never gets old--Tony Bennett, Frank Sinatra and Patsy Cline.

If you could have dinner with one historical figure, who would it be and why? Ronald Reagan for ending the Cold War and for providing leadership that resulted in positive economic impact from tax cuts. After dinner, maybe we could watch "Knut Rockne All American."

Favorite food or meal? Jerry's homemade spaghetti and meatballs. I think I'm from an Italian heritage even though my parents told me we are Dutch.

Funniest movie? Caddyshack.

First job? Repossessing cars for GMAC.

Drink of choice? A vanilla or strawberry shake, with whey for protein, for breakfast.

CONGRATULATIONS!

to Fasig-Tipton's own Stars of the Week:

WELL HIDDEN – Undefeated 3yo won Island Fashion S. 3/11
CHEROKEE PRINCE – Won Budweiser Challenger S. 3/11

Bushfire graduated in wire-to-wire fashion in her second start at Churchill Nov. 25. The bay filly used that style to post a game victory over subsequent GSW Teammate in a one-mile allowance at Gulfstream Jan. 13, but came undone in the sloppy Gil Davona Dale S. Feb. 4 and wound up last of seven. The third choice here, Bushfire was a bit rank before settling down while showing the way. The Florida-bred opened up a bit turning for home and had enough left to hold Saratoga Drive at bay in the final strides.
 "We took a shot in the slop because we didn't know if she'd care for it or not," winning trainer Eddie Kenneally said about her last start. "She came back with a good effort. Next time we can have her relax early."

The bay's second dam is Slightly Dangerous (Roberto), whose previous produce include G1 Epsom Derby hero Commander in Chief (GB) (Dancing Brave), champion miler Warning (GB) (Known Fact), MGSW & Classic-placed Dushyantor (GB) (Sadler's Wells), GISW Yashmak (Danzig) and SW Jibe (Danzig). To Sender won at first asking at Newbury May 14, defeating subsequent GSW Ivan Denisovich (Ire), but faltered as the favorite a month later in the G2 Coventry S. at the Royal meeting in his final outing for John Gosden. He captured his stateside debut in a down-the-hill sprint Jan. 22 and was bet down to even-money here. The Juddmonte colorbearer went up to force the issue from second as Tent showed the way. When they straightened into the stretch, the favorite drew even and put his tenacious rival away in the final strides. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Maryfield had done most of her previous running in Canada, but was shipped south of the border following a sixth at Woodbine Oct. 27 for trainer Josie Carroll. The Ontario-bred was claimed for $50,000 in her local bow Jan. 16, when she finished fourth, beaten just 1 3/4 lengths. She came away with a win at the $40,000 level Feb. 19, but there were no takers in that off-the-turf contest. With scratches whittling this field down to just four, the bay shrugged off an early challenge and opened up for her first stakes victory.

2nd-SAX, $48,056, Msw, 3yo, 6 1/2f (off turf), 1:15 4/5, ft.

JEALOUS PROFIT (c, 3, Trippi--Fast Profit, by Tejano) debuted with a second at Calder Aug. for trainer Joe Catanese and was purchased privately. In his first try out West, the chestnut ran third to eventual champion Stevie Wonderboy in the GII Del Mar Futurity Sept. 7. He followed that with a third to Brother Derek in the GII Norfolk S. Oct. 2, but a trip to New York for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile proved fruitless later that month when he finished 10th. Back home for a Nov. 25 maiden at Hollywood, he missed by a nose to Wanna Runner, then ran sixth to Brother Derek in the GI Hollywood Futurity Dec. 17 and was given some time to regroup. Bet down to 3-5 when this contest came off the turf, Jealous Profit gave his backers a few uneasy moments when he broke leisurely and sauntered down the backstretch well behind the others. But he picked it up smartly on the turn, angled out sharply for room and ran by pacesetting McKenzie Pass (Storm Cat) under a hand ride to earn a 2 1/4-length diploma. The Florida-bred sold twice as a yearling, for $50,000 at OBSJAN and for $150,000 at KEESEP. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: MGSP, 7-1-2-2, $95,060.

Part of a 6-5 favored entry with Poker Rules (Valid Wager), the dark bay chased the pace, found running room on the outside and got up to deny his stablemate by a nose. He faced the starter four times in 2005, missing by 3/4 of a length as the runner-up in his latest outing at Hollywood Nov. 17. With just one previous turf foray under his belt--a sixth down the hill early last year--the dark bay was let go at 15-1 here. He stalked the pace, angled to the outside in the lane and got to the wire a head in front of Tenash (Brz) (Special Nash {Ire}). Fremont stumbled after the wire, unseating jockey Jon Court, but returned to the winner's circle unscathed to be unsaddled. He is a half-brother to Lucky Virginian (Saratoga Six), MSW, $110,154.
