A WHOLE NEW WORLD FOR BRASS HAT

Racing fans at Thistledown, Hoosier, Turfway, Louisiana Downs and Gulfstream know just how good Brass Hat

Brass Hat

Equi-Photo

Hat (Prized) can be. Now the crowd at Nad Al Sheba will have the chance to see if Fred Bradley's homebred bay has carried his best form overseas for today's G1 Dubai World Cup. The five-year-old made it three stakes wins in a row in his latest, the Feb. 4 GI Donn H., cruising to a 4 3/4-length score over a sloppy strip. Jockey Willie Martinez, who has been in the saddle for each start since the gelding captured the GII Ohio Derby in June of 2004, is confident that the real Brass Hat will be in the starting gate for the $6 million test. "I think he's going to get a chance to show the world how good he is," Martinez said. The 10-furlong World Cup distance is still a question mark for the star of the American contingent, but it is a given that Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) will get the route. The five-year-old handled a mile and a half in the G2 Premio Carlo d'Alessio and the G1 Gran Premio di Milano last year, and was once again on top at the finish of the 1 5/16-mile G1 Juddmonte International S. for his third straight victory. Fourth (but placed third) after an eventful trip in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine in October, he was purchased by Godolphin after the race. In his first start under new colors, Electrocutionist galloped to a seven-length triumph over Chiquitin (Arg) (Fitzcarraldo {Arg}) in his first try on the dirt, the Mar. 2 G2 Maktoum Challenge (Round 3). "He won very well here over course and distance," jockey Frankie Dettori said. "He has a completely different bunch of horses to beat in the World Cup on Saturday, but he is training well and has been here all winter which is a bit of an advantage for him. But he has got it all to do in the race. It is a very strong field and you have to respect every horse...it should be a very exciting race." Dubai World Cup cont. p5

LUCK OF THE DRAW

Normally, the 15 hole could be the kiss of death, but it should not bother Bullish Luck (Royal Academy), who will drop out the back in today's G1 Dubai Duty Free S. and make one run down the long Nad Al Sheba stretch. The champion miler in Hong Kong, he handed Silent Witness (Aus) his first defeat last May. The bay was a troubled fourth in the G1 Hong Kong Mile in December and finished eighth to Russian Pearl (NZ) (Soviet Star) in the Jan. 22 Stewards' Cup, but stretched to 10 furlongs and missed by a head in the Hong Kong Gold Cup Feb. 26. Dubai Duty Free S. cont. p6

ON BOARD

Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) will try to add another trophy to her impressive gallery when she takes on a cosmopolitan field in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. At three, she was a Classic winner in England and Ireland, a champion in the U.S. and third in the Arc. Her abbreviated 2005 campaign was highlighted by a win in the G1 Hong Kong Vase, a second in the G1 Breeders' Cup F/M Turf and a close fifth in the G1 Japan Cup. A victory here would take her earnings over $6 million. "Ouija Board seems to be enjoying herself," said trainer Ed Dunlop. "Certainly, she is happy in the heat and overall appears to be in good form." Dubai Sheema Classic cont. p7

BATTLE OF UNBEATENS IN UAE DERBY

Four of the 13 runners in today's G2 UAE Derby have yet to be beaten, but it's possible they will all exit the race with one in the loss column. Simpatico Bribon (Chi) (Election Day {Ire}), seven-for-nine lifetime, may have the edge over undefeated Dominguin (Per) (Domingo), Gold for Sale (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}), Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) and Discreet Cat (Forestry) after romping by six lengths in the Mar. 2 Al Bastikiya over track and trip. UAE Derby cont. p8

Silent Times was never worse than third in five attempts last season while sprinting on the grass in Europe. The dark bay finished a good third behind Horatio Nelson (Ire) in the G2 EBF Futurity S. Aug. 20, then dead-heated for the top spot in the G2 Champagne S. last out Sept. 9. He gets Robby Albarado for his U.S., two-turn and dirt debuts here. "The Polytrack surface is the best thing they can ever do," trainer Eoghan O'Neill said. "I have a private Polytrack on my farm and I have been pointing Silent Times to this race for three months. He swims every day, twice a day. He's very fit." Claiborne Farm colorbearer

Laity got back on track in his sophomore debut, notching the John Battaglia Memorial S. over this strip Mar. 4. He previously finished fifth in the G1 Breeders' Futurity S. and eighth in the GIII Iroquois S. Trainer Nick Zito sends out a pair in Superfly and Hemingway's Key. The latter began his career with two straight victories last season, but hasn't been able to handle the rise to stakes company, finishing 11th in the GIII Holy Bull S. Feb. 4 and eighth in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Mar. 4. He adds blinkers for this. Superfly, winner of last season's Whirling Ash S. at Delaware, makes his return to stakes company after finishing second and third in a pair of Gulfstream allowances.

in the GI Beldame S. Oct. 1, then closed out her campaign with a ninth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 29. The Kinsman Stable colorbearer has been firing bullets at Payson Park for her return. "She's doing good and if she's back to her form from last summer or even approaches it, she should have a good year," trainer Bill Mott told Daily Racing Form. Oonagh Maccool opened her account with two straight victories while racing in Britain last summer, but didn't do much in her U.S. debut, finishing sixth in the grassy Soaring Softly S. at the Big A Nov. 19. Freshened up after the effort, the chestnut made a sparkling dirt debut at Gulfstream, scoring by eight lengths over $50,000 optional claimers Feb. 11. "She's a very talented filly," assistant trainer Tristan Barry told DRF. "Obviously from her first race on the dirt she's showed she's got a lot of ability and raw talent."

Gary Tanaka sends out a pair here in King's Drama and Atlando. Atlando came home a 3/4-length winner over T.H. Approval and King's Drama in the GII San Luis Obispo H. Feb. 26. King's Drama, winner of last summer's GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. and second-place finisher in the GI Man o' War S., rebounded nicely from his 16th-place finish in the G1 Japan Cup with a game effort in the San Luis Obispo. "The pace [:46.61 & 1:10.84] got him beat," trainer Bobby Frankel told Daily Racing Form. "He can track like the [Man o' War] last year in New York, where he was 10 lengths off." T.H. Approval has only scored once in 10 attempts over the Santa Anita lawn, but that victory came in last April's GII San Juan Capistrano Invitational H.

7	Smokey Glacken	Forestry	J Jerkens	6-5

Smokey Glacken closed out her four-year-old season with a third behind Great Intentions in the GII First Flight H. Oct. 30, but has been unstoppable since. The bay kicked off the new year with a 4 1/4-length tally in the GIII First Lady H. Jan. 21 and a 3 1/2-length decision in the Feb. 18 GIII Hurricane Bertie H. Great Intentions enters off a victory in the Flip's Pleasure S. over this track Feb. 23. "I know by the way she's training that she's really doing great now," trainer Mike Hushion commented. Horse-for-course Magnolia Jackson brings a three-race winning streak over the inner to the table after taking the Feb. 4 Correction H. and the Mar. 12 Broadway H. Maddalena, who began her career with three straight victories, including the 2005 GIII Old Hat S., looks to get back on track after finishing a well-beaten seventh in the First Lady.

Triple Threats

High Blues Headed to Florida Derby...

High Blues (High Yield), a late nominee to the Apr. 1 GI Florida Derby at Gulfstream Park, is now listed as probable for the $1 million event. The dark bay colt was third behind Corinthian in a Gulfstream allowance test Feb. 2 and most recently ran second to Florida Derby hopeful Sunriver (Saint Ballado) in an entry-level allowance Mar. 4, both at the nine-panel distance of the Florida Derby. "The way I look at it, we've run with the best three-year-olds in South Florida this winter and held our own," said trainer David Paulus. "For a million dollars, we can stay right here in our own backyard and roll the dice. My horse has been training more aggressively lately, and is putting on weight now when some of the others are beginning to lose flesh as the season moves along." Paulus believes his charge had excuses in his last two races. "Two starts back, in his race against Corinthian, he got slammed going into the first turn, but was making up ground at the end," he explained. "In his last race against Sunriver, the two of them hooked up and Johnny V. [jockey John Velazquez, aboard Sunriver] had position on us, so we were a bridesmaid once again. But with a little bit more racing luck, we could have done a little better. My horse has never missed a check, and Cornelio Velazquez likes this horse enough that he wants to stay on him wherever we go. My horse is getting more focused every day and, the way I look at it, if you don't step up to the plate, you can't hit a home run."

DUBAI WORLD CUP
Nad Al Sheba
Mar. 25, 2006

FACE THE NATION

Third in the G1 Dubai World Cup a year ago, Choctaw Nation (Louis Quatorze) will be back to try and improve on that effort. The six-year-old was off the board in three of five starts following his 2005 World Cup experience, but did post a rallying score in the GII San Diego H. in July and was third in the GII Goodwood BC H. in October. A lackluster seventh in the Jan. 1 GII San Gabriel H. to open 2006, the bay rebounded to take a confidence builder in his most recent outing, a Santa Anita allowance Feb. 10. "Choctaw is a lot fitter this year," trainer Jeff Mullins said. As for the strategy for the race, he added, "He runs one way, and that's from behind. I just hope there's plenty of pace."

Un-Kane...

Kane Hekili (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}) has been beaten just once in his last seven starts, finishing second in the Musashino S. at Tokyo last October. The four-year-old colt came back to take the Nov. 26 Japan Cup Dirt by a nose over Seeking the Dia, then was given a break. He dropped back to a mile for his 2006 opener and swooped late to win by three lengths. "The horse seems to be in very good condition," said jockey Yutaka Take, who breezed the chestnut over the Nad Al Sheba main track Wednesday. "This dirt course is different from the Japanese one, but he [worked] very well. He has experienced different ways of running, coming from behind and from the middle of the pack, so he will deal it whatever the pace of the race." Japan has yet to win the G1 Dubai World Cup, but they came close in 2001, when the filly To The Victory (Jpn) finished second, three lengths behind U.S. invader Captain Steve.

AN INTERNATIONAL AFFAIR

Nine Grade/Group 1 winners representing eight racing jurisdictions line up for the G1 Dubai Duty Free S., the most competitive heat of the evening. America's best chance comes in the form of The Tin Man (Affirmed), who has returned from a 14-month absence with victories in a Dec. 28 allowance over a mile and the GII San Marcos S. Jan. 22. Trainer Richard Mandella is no stranger to Dubai, having sent out Pleasantly Perfect to win the 2004 World Cup, as well as three runners-up in the race. None has taken the long trip better than The Tin Man, according to the conditioner. "He looks great. He traveled great. I don't think we've ever had one that traveled better," Mandella said. The eight-year-old turned in his last serious piece of work Monday, going six furlongs on the Nad Al Sheba turf in 1:13.85.

The Land of the Rising Sun is represented by a pair of top horses in Hat Trick (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), winner of the G1 Mile Championship in his native land prior to a score in the G1 Hong Kong Mile Dec. 11; and Asukusa Den'en (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}), the G1 Yasuda Kinen hero who was sixth at Sha Tin. Full sisters Perfect Promise (SAf) (Caesour) and Team Valor's Irridescence (SAf) provide additional intrigue. The former, a Group 1 winner in South Africa and Australia, was most recently fourth to Fields of Omagh (Aus) (Rubiton {Aus}) in the 1600-meter G1 Futurity S. at Caulfield Mar. 4. Irridescence returned from a near eight-month absence to punch her ticket to the Duty Free with a 1 1/4-length victory in the Listed Balanchine S. over course and distance Feb. 24. Team Valor's Ipi Tombe (Zim) won this in 2003.

HEART OF THE MATTER

Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) lost a squeaker in the G1 Japan Cup in November, but rebounded by defeating Triple Crown hero Deep Impact (Jpn) in the Arima Kinen in December at Nakayama and was voted the country's champion older horse. He will attempt to duplicate Stay Gold (Jpn)'s feat in 2001 when he won this contest for owners Shadai Race Horse.

Relaxed and Ready...

Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), beaten less than a length in four consecutive graded events last summer, broke through with a tremendous score in the GI Canadian International Oct. 23 at Woodbine.

"De" Trio...

Trainer Mike de Kock will saddle three runners in this contest, led by Oracle West (SAf) (Western Winter). The bay has reached new heights since arriving in Dubai, winning three straight, including the G3 Dubai City of Gold over course and distance Mar. 2 while defeating Alayan (Ire) (Sri Pekan) and Falstaff (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). The latter also hails from de Kock's barn. Third to Motivator (GB) in the G2 Dante S. last spring, the bay will add blinkers for tonight's contest. The de Kock trio is rounded out by Greys Inn (Zabeel {NZ}), who finished fourth in this race in 2005. He comes into this one off a second--beaten a half-length--in the nine-furlong G3 Al Rashidiya Feb. 2.

BY HOOK OR BY CROOK

Gaff (Maria's Mon) won only one of his six starts while racing in Ireland, but he has been nearly perfect since returning to the U.S. The bay carries a three-race winning streak into the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen. After tiring to be third behind War Front in an allowance race at Belmont in September, he took an optional claimer at the Elmont oval in October and added a Churchill allowance success Nov. 9. The four-year-old was 5-1 in the Jan. 7 GIII Mr. Prospector H., and outfinished nemesis War Front for a neck tally.

Golden Opportunity...

A pair of Golden Shaheen hopefuls come off wins over the Nad Al Sheba sand. Heart Alone (Brz) (Music Prospector) took the Jan. 26 G3 Al Shinadagha Sprint and Tropical Star (Ire) (Machiavellian) annexed the Ma. 2 G3 Mahab Al Shimaal. Racing across town, Raging Creek (Storm Creek) came home a 2 1/2-length victor in his latest, the Mar. 17 Jebel Ali Sprint. GI Malibu S. hero Proud Tower Too (Proud Irish) was also a winner last time out, beating Thor's Echo (Swiss Yodeler) in the restricted Sensational Star H. at Santa Anita Feb. 19. The speedy bay looks to follow in the hoofsteps of fellow Cal-bred Big Jag, who took this event in 2000. Jet West (Western Fame), fourth in the Feb. 18 GII San Carlos H., rounds out the trio of Cal-breds.

THE GOLD STANDARD

Gold for Sale (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}) was five-for-five in his native country, closing from the middle of the pack to win the G1 Argentine 2000 Guineas by four lengths in his final South American start. The chestnut colt came back after nearly five months on the sidelines to best Where's That Tiger (Storm Cat) by a rallying half-length in the Feb. 19 G3 UAE 2000 Guineas. He stretches out beyond a mile for the first time.

Gold for Sale A Watkins

"I don't think he will have a problem with the step up to the Derby distance," said trainer Ian Jory after his 2000 Guineas tally. But the connections of Discreet Cat (Forestry), winner of the Mar. 9 Areej Trophy at a mile, are concerned about the added ground. "He has tons of speed," said Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford, but he added, "It is highly questionable whether a mile and an eighth is the true distance for him. He may turn out to be a miler or even a seven-furlong horse." Still, Crisford has high hopes for the bay. "He comes from an extremely good family," he said. "He is still a little bit light-framed and we expect that as he matures, he will fill out and develop into a very imposing colt." Discreet Cat will race in the U.S. this summer.

TURK APPEAL

No horse exemplifies the attraction of World Cup day more than Win River Win (Virginia Rapids), who looks to give the Turkish their first victory on racing's richest day. A half brother to Baby Zip, the dam of Horse of the Year Ghostzapper and successful young sire City Zip, the seven-year-old has bankrolled over $900,000 while doing the bulk of his work at the Turkish tracks in Ankara and Istanbul. Despite some decent performances on the turf, the $10,000 Keeneland November weanling purchase has--not surprisingly--excelled on the main track, a surface over which he has eight wins and three minor placings from 11 starts. He has two Carnival starts under his belt, a 1 3/4-length handicap victory on opening night Jan. 19 prior to a runner-up effort to Marbush (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) in the G3 Burj Nahaar S. going today's distance Mar. 2.

Horse for Course Cuts Back...

Like Marbush, Jack Sullivan (Belong to Me) has three wins to his credit over the Nad Al Sheba course and has taken consecutive runnings of the second round of the G3 Maktoum Challenge over 1800 meters. After winning the 2005 G3 Burj Nahaar, the prep for this race, the chestnut tried his luck in the World Cup, finishing a respectable fourth to Roses In May. He failed to win in his next five starts, but bounced back to defeat Blatant (GB) (Machiavellian) in the Maktoum Challenge Feb. 9. He cuts back in distance again, but so too does Blatant, who won the first round of the G3 Maktoum Challenge (1600 meters) by 9 3/4 lengths Jan. 19. Utopia (Jpn) (Forty Niner), winner of the Mile Championship Nambu Hai last October, was third to World Cup hopeful Kane Hekili (Jpn) in the Feb. 19 February S. and merits a long look.

Last Romance, claimed for $50,000 out of her debut at Churchill June 29, was haltered again next time for $65,000 from Steve Asmussen when she ran second Aug. 31 at Saratoga. She didn't run until Nov. 4, when she defeated $75,000 maidens at Aqueduct, but promptly added an optional claimer going a mile and 70 yards over this surface Dec. 18. Second to Daytime Promise in the Busanda S. Jan. 22, the bay was a close fourth in the Busher S. Feb. 26. Last Romance settled into an easy rhythm in fifth, came wide with her run and opened up for her first stakes victory.

Churchill to Move Simulcasting to Trackside:

Officials at Churchill Downs have decided to move its simulcasting operation from Trackside at Churchill Downs to the Trackside Louisville facility for three weeks leading up to the opening of the spring meeting. The action is being taken to allow for preparations for the opening week of the spring meet as well as the Kentucky Derby and Oaks. Trackside Louisville will be open on Derby and Oaks weekend, but simulcasting will be held exclusively at Churchill Downs when live racing resumes the following week. Simulcasting will return to Trackside at Churchill Downs upon conclusion of the spring meet July 16.

CHRB Votes to Hear Palomar Protest:

The six-member California Horse racing Board voted unanimously Thursday to waive the 72-hour time limit and permit owners who had runners in the GII Palomar BC H. at Del Mar last September to protest the result of the race. The Palomar winner, Intercontinental (GB), received her Lasix shot too close to post time for the race and, under normal circumstances, would have been scratched for the infraction. But she was allowed to run, and the owners of at least two horses that finished behind her have asked the CHRB to investigate the case, and redistribute the purse. State Steward Scott Chaney headed up the investigation, filing a 100-page report Wednesday. "The comprehensive review, which included interviews with 30 people, the principal 14 of which signed declarations under penalty of perjury, was done under full authority of the Board and was an unfettered, unobstructed review of the matter in a transparent and open manner," said CHRB Chairman Richard Shapiro, who added, "The report demonstrated that while tighter procedures might need to be in place--and that is something the Medication Committee will be reviewing--there was no attempt by anybody to cover anything up or conceal the truth--not the stewards, not the racing association, and not any of the racing commissioners or Board executives." He concluded, "The failure of communications at the time of the incident must be addressed, so that situations like this do not occur again." A panel of stewards will conduct a hearing to consider the owners' protests.

Second Purse Increase at Santa Anita:

Santa Anita Park has increased purses by five percent for the second time during the current meeting, track president Ron Charles confirmed yesterday. "This increase will be reflected in the program this Wednesday, March 29, but it takes effect immediately and will be retroactive to opening day [Dec. 26]," said Charles. "Despite the fact that we've had several weeks of unusually cold and wet weather, which really has impacted our turf program, horsemen have continued to support the entry box. This has enabled us to maintain our field size and provide the quality of product that our fans have come to expect here at Santa Anita." Through 63 days of live racing, Santa Anita is averaging 8.7 horses per race, a significant increase over last year. Added Mike Harlow, the track's director of racing, "With this additional increase, our overnight purses are now well in excess of $300,000."

A $40,000 OBSAPR juvenile, he suffered his first loss on the grass when tiring to be fifth in his return, an optional claimer over course and distance Feb. 9, and was off at 6-1 to improve in his second start back. The dark bay dashed right to the front and cut out swift fractions. Jockey Jon Court went to the whip after they crossed the dirt, and the gelding responded, opening up daylight at midstretch and holding off Lock And Key (Ire) (Key of Luck) for a half-length score. ALEXANDER TO WAIT Conditioner Tommy Stack, who sent out Las Meninas (Ire) to bag the G1 1000 Guineas in her seasonal return in 1994, will bid to repeat the feat by pointing Noel O'Callaghan's 20-1 chance Alexander Alliance (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) straight to the fillies' Classic at Newmarket May 7. "She'll go straight there because she wants good ground, and the chance of getting that in a prep run in early April is pretty slim," revealed assistant trainer Fozzy Stack. The half-sister to Ruby Rocket (Ire) finished second to the smart Art Museum on debut in a Curragh maiden last September and closed her juvenile campaign at the same track with an easy score in the Oct. 9 Listed Flame of Tara EBF S. The trainer's son continued, "She was impressive when she won her Listed race at the back-end, and her preparation is going good so far. She's in good shape and has wintered well. On pedigree she shouldn't get the trip, but we're hopeful she will. She's bred to get about five furlongs, but she got six well and should get seven. Whether she stays a mile or not is another thing. She's a fine, big filly with plenty of scope, and we'd expect her to progress as the year goes on."

Malikhan gave notice of his ability when second in last term's Listed Prix Tantieme at Fontainebleau and regained the winning thread in his sole start since when taking a conditions event at this track Mar. 3. Revelling in the deep mud here, the crowd's choice wired the field in easy fashion to record a first stakes success. "My horse is good and I instructed his rider to take advantage of his fitness and to dictate the pace in order not to be outrun," the winning trainer commented. "He is a ground specialist and we shall see how the ground will be in the coming weeks before making a decision on his next run," he added.
