SILVER ANNIVERSARY FOR SCHWARTZ

On the day of his 28th wedding anniversary, Martin Schwartz got a $90,000 gift from a lady who wasn't his wife. Not to worry, though. We don't think Audrey Schwartz will mind. With a third straight Grade II victory hanging in the balance, Schwartz's four-year-old filly Silver Cup (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}) dug in and found the wire in advance of the hard-charging favorite Argentina (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) to capture yesterday's GII Santa Ana H. at Santa Anita. It was an ultra-game effort from Silver Cup, who was coming off victories in the GII San Gorgonio H. and GII Buena Vista H. and who earned $90,000 for the win. She becomes the first filly in history to sweep all three races. "She's tough, she's good, she's a lovely animal to train, you know?" said winning trainer Patrick Biancone. "She's manageable. If they go fast, they go slow, it doesn't matter to her. She just fights. She's a fighter." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Santa Ana Coverage cont. p2

FLEET INDIAN REACHES NEXT LEVEL

Making her first start for Paul Saylor, who purchased her for $290,000 at the Keeneland January sale, Fleet Indian (Indian Charlie) took her game to the next level yesterday and earned her first graded success in the GIII Next Move H. at Aqueduct. The strapping New York-bred, originally a juvenile buy for Stan Fulton, won three of five last year, including a five-length tally in the restricted Montauk H. Nov. 27 for trainer Jimmy Toner. She romped by a similar margin in a Philly Park allowance Dec. 30 under Clifford Sise, Jr.'s care, and, following her sale, was sent out by her third trainer in as many starts Sunday, now representing Todd Pletcher's barn. Facing just three others in a compact field, Fleet Indian moved between rivals rounding the turn, charged to a daylight lead in upper stretch and was always holding Flaming Heart safe. As for what's next, Pletcher said, "We'll play things by ear. She hadn't run in awhile, so having this race under her belt should help her." Click for the brisnet.com chart. All the Shimmers is Silver...

A Group-2 winner in Italy before being sent to the States last summer, Silver Cup took some time to register her first U.S. win, but showed promise running third in the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Nov. 12. Moved to West Coast after that one, she disappointed as the favorite when fourth in a Santa Anita allowance Dec. 29, but found her A-game with a rallying victory in the Jan. 8, nine-furlong GII San Gorgonio H. Shortened up for the one-mile GII Buena Vista H., she once again took the prize with a late flourish, and was returning to the nine-panel trip here. Much closer to the pace than usual, she pulled jockey Victor Espinoza around the first turn as Sharp Lisa (Dixieland Band), making her turf debut, led the way. Silver Cup had enough of the waiting game and forged to the lead two furlongs out, and while the slow-starting favorite Argentina got on track late, she couldn't catch the eventual winner as they streaked toward the line. Espinoza, who arrived from Dubai just in time to make the race, said afterwards, "[Silver Cup] doesn't like to win by much, but it's enough to get to the wire first." Owner Martin Schwartz said the filly would be shipped to Kentucky to rest and "eat a little bluegrass" before targeting the $750,000 GIII CashCall Mile in early July.

Danehill Music's juvenile season was a story of steady improvement, culminating in a black-type performance, and this win was another personal best. Opening her account at the fourth time of asking in a seven-furlong nursery at Down Royal last September, she went on to take a similar event at this venue before finishing runner-up to Wovoka (Ire) in the Nov. 6 Listed Eyrefield S. at Leopardstown, her latest outing. The bay travelled well towards the rear of the field through the early stages of this sophomore debut and was pushed along at the quarter pole. She took it up at the distance and was driven out in the testing conditions for a gritty debut score in group company. Winning rider Wayne Lordan commented, "She had the form in soft ground and did it well in the end. She probably handled it better than the others." Trainer David Wachman agreed and added, "She loves this ground and will now go for one of the Guineas' trials. Hopefully it will keep raining." Click for the Racing Post race chart.

Billionaire Stanley Ho has amassed his fortunes, in large part, due to his ownership of 15 of the 17 casinos on the island of Macau. It was a roll of the dice of his own which saw him purchase Comic Strip from the yard of Sir Mark Prescott last year and that decision paid dividends yesterday, giving the 84-year-old Ho a coveted victory in this event. Renamed for the Macau currency, Viva Pataca was five-for-seven in England, including a win in the Listed Silver Tankard S. He earned Derby favoritism on the heels of a pair of victories going 1600 meters at Sha Tin this winter. So impressive were those tallies that trainer John Moore said that only traffic in a large field could get his horse beat. Those words nearly proved prophetic. Reserved at the back of the pack as 2-1 second choice Hello Pretty (Aus) (Distorted Humor) set a dawdling pace, Viva Pataca found himself buried along the inside just as the real running was about to take place. But Christophe Soumillon, fresh off a return from Dubai on Ho's private charter, guided his mount through the slimmest of openings in upper stretch and drew clear. It was D-Day for Team Silent Witness at Sha Tin, with owner Archie da Silva stating in no uncertain terms that anything other than a top-three finish for the reigning Horse of the Year would earn the gelding a break. That eventuality is on hold for at least a few weeks after the champ showed a bit of his old spark, finishing third in this second leg of the Champions Sprint Series. Drawn in the two hole, Silent Witness jumped well enough, but was always being niggled at by regular rider Felix Coetzee. He had his chance to go through an opening at the fence in upper stretch, but could not quicken through. He was overhauled by Scintillation, who in turn failed to stave off the late bid of outsider Billet Express. "I'm in shock!" trainer John Moore exclaimed. "Christophe [jockey Soumillon] said the horse loved the softer ground, but he only believed he could win inside the final 50 meters." As for Silent Witness, da Silva said, "He was getting a bit tired at the end, but I know now that we can look forward to tackling 1400m in the next leg of the series [the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup] Apr. 15." ## Brother Derek Fires Bullet in S.A. Derby Drill...

Brother Derek (Benchmark), 1 3/4-length winner of the GII Santa Catalina S. in his latest Mar. 4, worked a bullet six furlongs in 1:11 flat yesterday at Santa Anita Park. The Dan Hendricks charge is preparing for an expected tilt in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8. "He did it just about like the last few works," said Hendricks. "We'll come back next week with a three-quarters or so work

Brother Derek Benoit

Saturday or Sunday and we're all set." Asked about the prospects of running against a small field in the Santa Anita Derby, Hendricks added, "It makes it easier, that's all. It's less to do, easier on him, but whoever runs, runs. Two weeks and one more work." As for yesterday's work, at least one onlooker was impressed. "He was well off the rail and looked pretty awesome," said Gary Nelson, a clocker at the Arcadia track. "[Jockey Alex Solis] had such a hold of him."

Pletcher Pair Work Toward Florida Derby...

The Todd Pletcher stable sent a pair of Apr. 1 GI Florida Derby hopefuls out to work yesterday at Palm Meadows. Sunriver (Saint Ballado), the little brother of champion Ashado who is coming off a Mar. 4 Gulfstream allowance win, breezed five furlongs in 1:01 flat. Barnmate Saint Augustus (Saint Ballado) worked the same distance in the same time. Saint Augustus, off the board in the Jan. 14 GIII Risen Star S. and Feb. 4 GIII Holy Bull S., rebounded with an easy win versus Gulfstream allowance foes Feb. 26.

First Samurai Works Over Churchill Strip...

Some 22 days after winning the GII Fountain of Youth S. at Gulfstream via disqualification, First Samurai (Giant's Causeway) got reacquainted with the Churchill Downs strip, breezing five furlongs in an official 1:02 1/5. won on debut here last July and spent the month of September in Louisville preparing for the GI Champagne S. at Belmont, which he won over Henny Hughes. First Samurai's move, the eighth-fastest of 19 at the distance, satisfied his trainer, Frank Brothers. "He worked well," said

Brothers, who watched his charge from atop his pony in the Churchill Downs stretch. "I had him five-eighths in like a minute and three [fifths] and he probably went out in [a minute and] 13. He was well within himself and was happy. He was good." Prior to his work, First Samurai looked to be in fine fettle, bucking and playing under rider Donna Brothers, Frank's wife. "That's the biggest thing," said Frank Brothers. "He's done well and I'm very happy with him." Commenting on First Samurai's most recent effort, Brothers added, "That was a good race. Sure, I'd love to have seen him 'run out of the screen,' as they say. But that was a very good race for a horse that had never been two turns at a mile and an eighth. I think he's got an excellent chance to improve off that race and, if he does and runs a very good race in the Blue Grass, then I think he buys his ticket to the Derby. If he doesn't, then I guess you've got to think about that."

Request for Parole hadn't visited the winner's circle since taking the GI United Nations H. at Monmouth Park in July of 2004, but he proved there was still life in his seven-year-old legs yesterday. Blanked in seven starts last year, the veteran was third in the 2005 U.N., but finished off the board in every other outing. The dark bay kicked off the new season with a fourth in the Jan. 29 GIII MacDiarmida H., but showed little in his latest, a seventh-place effort in the Feb. 25 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. The second choice with the drop into the allowance ranks, he trailed the field after the opening quarter, but took closer order as they approached the three-eighths pole. Request for Parole hit the accelerator as they straightened for home and caught Ascertain late to break the long drought.

Paraneck Trainer Suspended:

Trainer Frank Amonte, Jr., who took charge of Paraneck Stable's string at Aqueduct Mar. 11, has been suspended after failing a drug test, reports Daily Racing Form. According to the publication, Paraneck chief Ernie Paragallo confirmed that Amonte tested positive for the painkiller Vicodin, for which he did not have a prescription. Amonte claimed he obtained the pills from his father-in-law, who does have a prescription. New York stewards administered the test earlier in the week. Amonte told the Form he had agreed to a 15-day suspension, but state steward Carmine Donofrio would not confirm that statement. "At this point [Amonte] has to deal with the Racing and Wagering Board in Albany," Donofrio told the Form. Aqueduct stewards scratched all six of the Paraneck horses scheduled to run Saturday and Sunday. Amonte replaced Jennifer Pederson earlier in the month as Paraneck's primary trainer.

Claimed for $100,000 from owner Edmund Gann and trainer Bobby Frankel at Keeneland last April, Watchem Smokey was off the board in two of his first three starts for his new connections, but came back off a seven-month layoff to take the Feb. 4 Delta Mile over this track. The bay, second in an Evangeline allowance test going six furlongs Mar. 1, was the second choice stretching out with the return to stakes competition. Quickly into stride, he pressed the pace early, joined Wild Notions on the front end as they raced out of the turn and outfinished the longshot to win decisively.

He was a respectable sixth in a big-field handicap, going an extra panel at Leopardstown the following month, and finished the campaign with a third in a similar event at Listowel Sept. 23. Racing prominently in the second rank here, the bay was nudged into the lead 2 1/2 furlongs from home. Magic Box graduated from claiming and handicap wins last term and enjoyed the perfect prep for this by completing a hat trick of conditions wins at Rome last time Mar. 5. Sent postward as the joint-third choice in this stakes debut, he claimed pole position for the Apr. 23 G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) with an emphatic score. Electric from the gate to seize immediate command, the chestnut was pushed further clear approaching the final furlong and jockey Fabio Branca enjoyed an imaginary cigar inside the closing panel as the partnership coasted to the wire in splendid isolation.
