BARBARO RULES THE DAY

Lael Stables' homebred Barbaro (Dynaformer) had some questions to answer in yesterday's GI Florida Derby. Could he handle a fast main track? Could he overcome a wide draw? Could he head to Louisville a perfect five-for-five? How about a two-month hiatus? Yes. Yes. Yes. And yes. The well-built dark bay hounded pacesetter Sharp Humor (Distorted Humor), last-out winner of the GII Swale S., through reasonable fractions and willed himself to the line, defeating the hard-knocking New York-bred by a half-length. "I think he's a good horse," said winning trainer Michael Matz, in easily the biggest understatement of the millennium. As for the immediate future, "We'll keep him here about a week or so, and then probably go to Keeneland, probably work once there, and then go to Churchill [Downs]."

Turf a Logical Starting Point...

By the noted turf sire Dynaformer and out of a mare who was twice graded-stakes placed on the grass, Barbaro began his career on the green stuff, winning his maiden by 8 1/2 lengths at Delaware Oct. 14, the Laurel Futurity by eight Nov. 19 and the Jan. 1 GIII Tropical Park Derby by 3 3/4 lengths at Calder. After mulling over his options, Matz decided to see if his charge belonged on the Triple Crown trail and Barbaro gave him the answer he was looking for, taking a sloppy renewal of the GIII Holy Bull S. by 3/4 of a length Feb. 4.

An Unorthodox Preparation...

Given two months off ahead of this, Matz opened himself to criticism, but, yesterday, let the horse do the talking. Away in a bit of a tangle, Barbaro bumped slightly with Charming Image (Halo's Image), but recovered and raced just outside of Sharp Humor, who got an opening quarter in :23.45 and a half in :47.35. The two raced nearly inseparably through the next two furlongs in :24.02 and had it to themselves as the quarter pole loomed. For a second, it looked as if Sharp Humor would outstay the favorite, but Barbaro kept to his work and was along in the final strides. "I saw Sharp Humor break sharp, so I just followed him," said winning rider Edgar Prado. "He [Barbaro] was pretty much in control of the race. So far this is my Derby horse. We'll see how he comes back over the next couple of days and make a decision from there." Prado had previously ridden First Samurai and is expected to pilot Strong Contender in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 15. Also expected to go on to the Derby are Sunriver (Saint Ballado) and seventh-place finisher Flashy Bull (Holy Bull).

West Virginia rallied from midpack to account for a game Funny Cide. Winner of the GIII Iselin BC H. at Monmouth last August, the dark bay was fifth in the sloppy Empire Classic at Belmont Oct. 22 and second by a neck in this track's GIII Stuyvesant H. and GIII Queens County H. Nov. 19 and Dec. 10, respectively. Fourth to Brass Hat in the GII New Orleans H. at Louisiana Downs Jan. 7, he failed to handle the wet track again when fifth to that rival in the GI Donn H. at Gulfstream Feb. 4. Rated in center field for the opening half-mile, West Virginia rallied wide on the turn, took command approaching the eighth pole and edged clear. "He ran better today than any other time I've ridden him," said winning rider Norberto Arroyo Jr. "The pace was quick, which was good for us. Sometimes, when he gets to the last horse, he likes to wait. But today, he just went right by." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Honey Ryder proved that she will be a force to be reckoned with in the Turf Distaff division with a comprehensive victory here. The defending champion of this event, the gray added scores in the Robert G. Dick BC H. at Delaware July 16 and the GIII Glens Falls H. at Saratoga Sept. 5. She earned a valuable Grade I success in the E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine Oct. 23, but was likely in need of the run when third in the GIII Honey Fox H. over an insufficient 8 1/2 furlongs Mar. 4. Allowed to lope along towards the back of the pack, Honey Ryder eased out four wide approaching the final turn, advanced in hand at the quarter pole and won as much the best. "I think this is probably the best race she's ever run, which is saying a lot because she's been such a very good, consistent mare," commented winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "We'll take a look at the [GIII] Bewitch [S. Apr. 26] at Keeneland and play it from there." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Silver Whistle took back-to-back turf allowances last spring then was an even fourth to English Channel in the GIII Virginia Derby at Colonial Downs July 16. He endured tough beats in his next two, missing by a nose in both the Aug. 8 GII Hall of Fame H. at Saratoga and the GIII Saranac S. Sept. 4. Rested thereafter, the Stronach homebred was steadied repeatedly in a Feb. 22 allowance over 11 furlongs and came on to lose by a head. Longshot Ramazutti cut out the early pace as Silver Whistle saved ground beneath Edgar Prado. Eased out to the two path on the final bend, he took aim on the long-time leader in the stretch and was all out to wear that one down. "It took him all the way to the wire to finally win one of these," said winning trainer Bill Mott. "I guess he needed the extra distance. He had a nice trip inside. We knew he would be able to step up to this level of competition. He had some near misses at Saratoga and it looked like he could stay [go a distance]. He did it in decent company. Hopefully, there's more to come." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

 Also Ran: El Roblar, Sort It Out, Truly a Judge, Congrats, Snorter, Romeo Plus (Arg). Scratched: Bully Hayes.

Preachinatthebar won four of his nine starts in 2005, including an allowance event at Hollywood Park Nov. 9, and ended the season with a fourth-place finish in the Dec. 10 GIII Native Diver H. The gray took a winter break, returning to fill the fourth spot once again in the Mar. 12 Santana Mile H., and was no better than fifth choice to get the job done here. With new pilot Jon Court in the irons, he settled in fourth as Truly a Judge (Judge T C) led them along through six furlongs in 1:10. The homebred went up to challenge the front-runner as they came out of the turn and was game to the wire as Texcess closed late for second. "He was very comfortable with the way the race set up," Court said. "I think the wet/fast track was a huge benefit to him. He really seemed to get a hold of the track and he was liking it. [Trainer Bob Baffert] and I discussed the race yesterday and he told me about the horse's style of running. He wanted to be sure I kept him to his task...that was no problem today." Bettarun Fast kicked off her career with three consecutive victories at Calder, climbing the ladder from the maiden-claiming ranks to cap the streak with a stakes win going five furlongs on the turf in September. The bay changed hands after that score, heading west to join trainer Vladimir Cerin's stable. Second in the Oct. 23 Anoakia S. in her first West Coast appearance, she faltered to fifth in the Nov. 20 Moccasin S. and returned to Florida. Bettarun Fast did not live up to her name in the Jan. 26 Sunshine Millions Oaks at Gulfstream, ending up 10th, but improved to be second when switched back to the turf for the Mar. 5 La Habra S. at Santa Anita. A rank outsider with the return to the main track here, she rated off an opening half in :43.67, then slipped through on the rail to catch El Mirage Queen in the final furlong to light up the tote board at 31-1. "We've always believed in her," Cerin said. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Bandini ran his local record to four wins from five starts, leading past every pole en route to an easy victory in this prep for the GI Met Mile at Belmont Park May 29. A 4 1/4-length maiden winner over Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway) last Jan. 6, the attractive dark bay was a nine-length allowance winner Feb. 5 and second to High Fly in the GII Fountain of Youth S. Mar. 5. A six-length winner of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 16, he was 19th of 20 in the GI Kentucky Derby and was put away thereafter. The Smith/Tabor runner resurfaced with a track-record setting performance over a mile Mar. 1 and was the heavy chalk in his four-year-old stakes bow. Racing with front wraps for the first time, Bandini broke alertly and set the pace in hand while hugging what appeared to be a golden rail on the day. Still comfortably in front after six furlongs in an easy 1:11.73, he opened a daylight advantage past the eighth pole and held sway late. "This horse has matured quite a bit from last year," commented winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "He's made progress every step of the way and that performance was pretty much what we were hoping for. On paper he looked like he was the controlling speed. Sometimes race don't turn out the way they look on paper, but he was able to get to the front and do what we expected. We'll point for the Met Mile. That's been the plan." Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Svedov showed the benefit of race fitness to cause an upset against ring-rusty opponents in testing conditions. Fourth in this race 12 months ago, he had failed to build on that effort during an uninspiring 2005 campaign. Out early this term, he was coming off a runner-up finish in the Listed Prix Altipan at this course Mar. 16. Reserved towards the rear early by Stephane Pasquier, the chestnut edged out inside the final quarter and delivered his challenge wide to lead with 150 yards remaining, comfortably holding the late effort of Art Master. "He hasn't improved that much, but it's just that he got a covered run, was very fit and loved the ground," trainer Elie Lellouche explained. "He may go for the G2 Prix du Muguet here next [May 1]."

Wanna Runner followed a Hollywood maiden score in November with an allowance victory at Santa Anita Dec. 28. The chestnut stepped up into stakes competition for his sophomore debut and was not disgraced, finishing third behind Brother Derek in the Jan. 14 Gil San Rafael S., but he could do no better than fifth in the Jan. 29 GIII El Camino Real Derby last time out. The odds-on chalk to get back on track after the trip to the Land of Enchantment, Wanna Runner raced with the leaders from the outset, was in command at midstretch and pulled away from stablemate Sky Diving to give trainer Bob Baffert the 1-2 finish. The winner is out of a half-sister to MGSW Time Limit (Gilded Time) and MGSW and GISP Miss Indy Anna (Apalachee).

De Beers had only one win from 10 previous starts, but he was second in a Group 2 event last season and again when beaten just a neck Mar. 4. The bay was fifth in his latest, the Mar. 18 G1 Royal Randwick Guineas, but was only two lengths adrift of Hotel Grand (Grand Lodge) at the finish of that mile Classic. Overlooked by the bettors while stretching out here, he settled just off the pace, hit the gas in the straight and got up in the final yards under jockey Craig Williams. "It was a great Craig Williams' ride because you have to produce this horse inside the last furlong," trainer David Hayes told AAP. "Any sooner and he looks around." The winner will now head for the Apr. 15 G1 AJC Australian Derby. "De Beers is an ideal Derby horse and that's where he is headed," Hayes added. Hotel Grand, the 5-2 chalk, set a pressured pace and faded to 12th. He is likely to drop back to a mile for the Apr. 17 G1 Doncaster H.

This was billed as a heavyweight bout, but it was Elusive Fort who landed the knockout blow as he led home a historic one-two-three for his breeder Mary Slack of Wilgerbosdrift Stud. Runner-up to Hunting Tower (SAf) in the Mar. 4 G1 SA Classic over a 1 1/8 miles here last time, the sole challenger from the Geoff Woodruff barn was primed to improve over this longer trip and was strongest at the finish of this test. Overcoming a wide post, he was held up in rear throughout the early stages, but, when switched to the inner in the straight, overwhelmed Bennie Blue at the eighth pole before drawing clear. Elusive Fort will now be aimed at the G1 Durban July H. at Greyville.

 Mary Slack, who had already bred the first three home in the SA Derby, was provided with a dream result as Ilha da Vitoria carried her colors to success in the race honoring her late father. Ilha da Vitoria had made the breakthrough at the top level when recording a five-length success in the G1 Summer Cup over 10 furlongs here in November before finding only Bad Girl Runs (SAf) too strong in the G1 Paddock S. at Kenilworth Jan. 7. She may have been hampered by moderate early fractions when a closing second in the Jan. 28 G1 J & B Met at Kenilworth on her latest start, but had the pace to suit here and settled in behind the leading group early. Swooping up the inner at the quarter pole, she was always holding last year's winner Overarching in the closing stages to record the emotional victory, made sweeter as these connections were responsible for the great Horse Chestnut.

The bridge-jumpers figure to be out in force as Surf Cat will be the shortest of short-priced favorites. Despite winning two of his first four career starts at sprint distances, the dark bay stretched out for the balance of the 2005 season, finishing second in the GIII Affirmed H. and winning the GII Swaps Breeders' Cup S. before splitting the field when sixth in the GI Pacific Classic Aug. 21. A three-length winner of a two-turn allowance over this track Oct. 10, he returned to defeat Major Success in the GII San Carlos H. Feb. 18. Even trainer Bruce Headley admits the task at hand seems simple. "I never bet on 3-5 shots," he told Daily Racing Form. "But if everybody gets the same break, and there is no bad luck for anybody, then it's a good bet." Oceanus stands the best chance of finishing closest to the chalk based on his third-place effort in the San Carlos, where he was beaten 5 1/2 lengths.

FLORIDA FOAL DIES; MRLS SAFETY MEASURES CITED

by Kimberly S. Herbert, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

A second foal has been confirmed as having died from Mare Reproductive Loss Syndrome (MRLS) in Florida, according to Dr. Dana Zimmel of the University of Florida's College of Veterinary Medicine. The first case was a Thoroughbred foal from the University of Florida research herd, the second was a Quarter Horse foal born on a private farm. Both mares foaled in Alachua County, and both foals were born alive but were hospitalized and euthanized due to their deteriorating conditions. The first foal was born on Mar. 18 and died on Mar. 20. The University of Florida herd of research mares lives near Ocala, Fla., until about 30 days prior to foaling, when they are brought to the university's farm in Alachua County. The Quarter Horse foal was born on a private farm on Mar. 25 and died on Mar. 26. Zimmel said there is still one suspect case that was a late-term abortion from a Thoroughbred mare from the University of Florida breeding herd. Eastern tent caterpillars (ETC) were found in fields with the dams of all foals. For the complete story, click here.

A track-record setter, Exclusive Quality ran his record at Gulfstream Park to a perfect three-for-three in his stakes debut. The $850,000 KEESEP yearling just missed in his career opener at Aqueduct in November, finishing second by 3/4 of a length. He came back to break his maiden at the Hallandale oval Jan. 7 and broke the Gulfstream standard for seven furlongs in an allowance test Mar. 4, getting the distance in 1:21 flat. Odds-on to continue the streak, the bay flashed his speed from the start, taking a short lead after a half in :44.46 and turning back the challenge of Diabolical for the score. "He's done everything we've asked him since he came down here this winter," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "It was great to see him willing to put up a fight, because he had to battle a little bit early on, and still kept going." But Pletcher added that he doesn't expect the colt to join the Triple Crown fray. "He's probably a sprinter," he said. "Maybe the most we'd stretch him out is seven-eighths or even a mile. There are races like the [GIII] Withers [Apr. 29 at Aqueduct] or the Rival Ridge [now the Gil Woody Stephens S. June 10], or any number of other races at Belmont."

Florida-bred opened 2006 with an 8 1/4-length triumph over starter allowance foes at Gulfstream Jan. 8, but had to settle for second in that company Jan. 25. In for a $50,000 tag in his latest, he posted a 2 1/2-length tally, but was overlooked at 10-1 taking on stakes company for the first time. Little Thunder sat second early, drove to the front in the stretch and rolled home an easy winner. An allowance winner over the Gulfstream turf last March, Drum Major disappeared for the spring and summer, but returned to take an allowance at the Meadowlands in September. He followed up with a fourth in the Oct. 13 Bryan Station S. at Keeneland and a third in the Nov. 13 Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Downs before closing out the year with a win in the Pete Axthelm S. at Calder on New Year's Eve. The dark bay kicked off 2006 with a third in the Feb. 11 Gill Appleton H. at Gulfstream, but was looking to get back on track after shipping to Santa Anita for the Mar. 4 Gl Frank Kilroe Mile H. and finishing 12th. The 5-2 chalk facing a softer field, Drum Major saved ground while sitting just off the leaders early. He found running room on the inside as they swung into the stretch, grabbed the advantage in the stretch and was all out to rebuff Rebel Rebel in the final sixteenth.

BRITISH BLUE (h, 6, Storm Cat--Memories of Silver {MGISW, $1,448,715}, by Silver Hawk), second in a pair of Keeneland turf allowance tests last fall, kicked off the current season with another runner-up finish going five furlongs over this track Feb. 13. Fifth while sprinting in a Mar. 8 allowance, the $2,400,000 KEEJUL yearling was sent off the 5-1 third choice this time. Settled in a stalking fifth early, the chestnut slipped in along the rail to take command at the head of the stretch and battled late to hold off 8-5 choice Charlevoix (Boundary) by a neck. No Simulcasting in Massachusetts:

Interstate simulcasting at each of the four racetracks in Massachusetts expired at midnight Friday after the state House and Senate failed to agree to the renewal of a license extension. The tracks were allowed to continue simulcasting for the first three months of this year, the result of another extension when no agreement could be reached by the beginning of 2006. The laws that govern off-track betting were lumped into a bill which would allow slots to be installed at the racing facilities. The state Senate passed that measure, but the House did not take up the issue before January and they passed a three-month extension, expecting the slots vote to come by the end of last month. The legislature returns to session on Monday. "We're hopeful that the matter can be resolved quickly, but in the meantime roughly 250 people are temporarily out of work," Suffolk Downs Media Director Christian Teja told Daily Racing Form.

Sweet Fourty was a 25-1 dark horse when facing $32,000 maiden claimers in her debut at Calder, but was sent off the odds-on chalk to join the ranks of stakes winners here. After rallying to take her career opener last June, she finished off the board in a pair of Calder stakes, then rebounded to take an off-the-turf allowance by 8 1/2 lengths Oct. 7. The dark bay was sold privately and shipped to trainer Jeff Mullins after that effort. She failed to take to the grass in the Nov. 2 Hidden Light S. at Santa Anita, running sixth, but ended the season with a solid second behind Balance in the Nov. 27 Sharp Cat S. at Hollywood. Making her 2006 bow in New Mexico, Sweet Fourty prompted the pace, drove past pacesetter Princess Patricia in deep stretch and held Well Hidden at bay.

Dropped in grade subsequently, he wound up with wins in the Listed Grand Prix de la Ville de Nantes in November and Listed Prix Max Sicard at Toulouse the following month. Returning in the same vein, he annexed the Listed Grand Prix du Conseil General des Alpes Maritimes on Cagnes-sur-Mer's all-weather track and relished this extended trip to stamp his presence on the stayers' scene. An early pointer to the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, this race introduced a possible contender for the Chantilly Classic as Gravitas scored an ultimately cosy success under a considerate Christophe Soumillon ride. Leading his rivals along at a moderate tempo throughout, the chestnut pulled out extra as Silver Point joined and briefly headed him in the final quarter, gaining the edge under a hand ride in the final furlong.

SINDUDA (GB) (f, 3, Anabaa--Dead Certain {GB} {G1SW-GB, SW-Fr, $413,751}, by Absalom {GB}), off the board on her sole prior start here in November, raced in mid-pack early before delivering her challenge inside the final quarter. Grabbing the lead passing the eighth peg, the 22-1 shot drew away to beat Desmounia (Fr) (Smadoun {Fr}) by two lengths. The winner was a 90,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 2 starts, 1 win, 0 places, €9,500.

Fresh from a working holiday in Dubai, Don't Dili Dali demonstrated her hardiness to register a deserved first stakes success in this early 1000 Guineas trial. Despite her busy juvenile campaign, she took everything thrown at her in her stride, picking up third-place prize money in the Watership Down Stud Sales Race at Newbury in September. The filly was tried on the dirt at Nad al Sheba this winter and ran a respectable sixth in the Feb. 16 UAE 100 Guineas before finishing third in the UAE Oaks on her last start Mar. 9. Forced to race off the pace here, she showed an impressive turn of acceleration in the straight to cut down the long-time leader Song of Silence in the final 50 yards.

Richard Hannon farmed this 2000 Guineas trial when it was a turf event and he added to his resume in its inaugural running on polytrack with the impressive Asset. Fourth on a yielding surface on debut at Newmarket last May, the colt won by open lengths at the end of a Yarmouth maiden the following month before running third on testing ground in the G3 Solario S. at Sandown on his final start in August. Slowly away here, he soon made up lost ground to track the pace and was full of run as he sliced between the leaders with 300 yards remaining. Asset quickened clear soon after and was firmly on top as Royal Power emerged late. "He wasn't doing a stroke and I didn't want to get to the front too soon, but he was going so well I had to let him go," jockey Richard Hughes commented. "We always thought a lot of this horse and were surprised he got beat in the Solario, but I think the ground caught him out there as he needs top of the ground." Hannon will point the winner at the May 6 Newmarket Classic if the ground stays on the fast side. "If its soft, we'll have to think again, but I think we've got a livewire," he remarked.

Stalking the leader from the bell, the 2-7 pick was pushed to the front at the top of the straight and lengthened clear inside the closing panel to score by an easy three lengths from Catherine Medici (GB) (Medicean {GB}). The winner was a 42,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, £4,659. O-Saeed Manana; B-John T L Jones, M McMinn, Live Foal Inc & Tower Bloodstock; T-Clive Brittain.

EDDERY OFF THE MARK

Pat Eddery saddled his first winner as a trainer when Visionist (Ire) took the seven-furlong handicap at Kempton yesterday. Sent off at 9-1, the four-year-old took up the running traveling easily at the furlong marker before scoring by 2½ lengths under Darryll Holland. "That was very good, excellent and it's never easy when you take up a new profession," the former 11-times champion jockey told PA Sport. "That's my sixth runner...I have 40 horses for owners like Khalid Abdullah, John Magnier, Con Wilson, Derrick Smith and Raymond Tooth. "
