

Triple Threats

DEREK ON TO DERBY

It's on to Louisville for Brother Derek (Benchmark) after trainer Dan Hendricks reported the colt came out of Saturday's GI Santa Anita Derby win in fine shape. "He had a good, easy race and ate up well," Hendricks said. "The race set up just like we wanted it to." Travel plans for the likely GI Kentucky Derby favorite are still up in the air, but Hendricks said, "I want to get the horse there and get him used to the paparazzi and everything else, all the media hordes."

Trainer John Shirreffs said GII San Felipe S. winner A.P. Warrior (A.P. Indy) came out of his third-place effort in the Santa Anita Derby in fine shape, but that he would "wait a few days" before deciding on a possible Kentucky Derby start. Sacred Light (Holy Bull) grabbed a quarter when he went to both knees at the break Saturday before finishing fourth in the race. Trainer David Hofmans said, "We haven't ruled out the Kentucky Derby, but we won't make a decision for a few days."

ILLINOIS DERBY WINNER MOVING ON

Sweetnorthernsaint (Sweetsouthernsaint), runaway winner of the GII Illinois Derby, came out of Saturday's race "in good shape," according to trainer Michael Trombetta, and will now be aimed at the Kentucky Derby. "He left [Hawthorne] early [yesterday] morning and is on his way back home [to Maryland]," Trombetta said. "We'll see where he's at condition wise in the next week before plotting out a plan. Off of that [win], if the horse is good, we'll go to the Derby."

MANDURO WINS AT LONGCHAMP

Manduro (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) made his first start for trainer Andre Fabre a winning one with a half-length victory in yesterday's G2 Prix d'Harcourt at Longchamp. The four-year-old's former conditioner Peter Schiergen made no secret of his esteem for the colt two years ago after his impressive romp in the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten, but setbacks caused Manduro to miss last year's Classics. He regained the winning thread in the Listed Grosser Bavaria-Preis on return in September and followed up in the G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit in October, before a fourth-place effort in the G1 Premio Roma last time in November. Settled for Stephane Pasquier in fifth early before challenging at the quarter pole, Manduro gained the edge with 150 yards remaining and was pushed out for a comfortable win. "He ran good races in the fall, but was not himself in Italy and Mr. Fabre has brought him back to an outstanding level here," said Baron Georg von Ullmann's Racing Manager Paul Harley. "He will now take the route to the G1 Prix Ganay [at Longchamp Apr. 30]," Click for Racing Post chart or free brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree.

It cannot be soft enough for Common World and the evergreen campaigner made light of the deep ground to register a career best here. Despite taking until August of last year for him to garner his first stakes score in the Listed Ruby S. at Tralee, he held his own at this level when runner-up in the G3 Concorde S. at Tipperary and when winning the G3 Landeshauptstadt Dusseldorf in October. Following three off-the-board efforts, lastly in the Mar. 25 Lincoln H. at Redcar, he put his rivals to the sword from the front here, drawing clear inside the final quarter mile for an emphatic success. "He handled the ground better than the others and has to have things his own way," commented conditioner Tom Hogan. "He is a very good horse on his day." Ultra-consistent Fort Prado ran his 2006 record to a perfect three-for-three with this decisive victory. Five-for-nine last season with two seconds, the gray opened the year with a neck score in the Jan. 21 GIII Fair Grounds Breeders' Cup H. at Louisiana Downs and added a popular two-length tally in the Feb. 25 Tampa Bay Breeders' Cup S. The odds-on chalk to continue the streak, he gave his backers a scare when he broke through the gate before the start, but enjoyed a dream trip once underway. Fort Prado rated off the pace while saving ground on both turns, then eased through an opening at the top of the lane and galloped clear. "I was just a passenger tonight," commented jockey Robby Albarado. "The couple times I have ridden him, he does all the work; I just guide him. I had a fortunate trip and was able to save ground. I got through on the inside and kicked on and dug a hole at the eighth pole. I think he had a slight class edge over the field. I could have moved him earlier if I needed to; I could have done anything with him today."

CAT PREPS FOR BLUE GRASS

WinStar Farm's Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) continued preparations for Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland with a five-furlong work at Churchill Sunday in 1:01.40. The move was the fifth fastest of 26 at the distance yesterday.

Also working at Churchill yesterday, the D. Wayne Lukas-trained Simon Pure (Silver Deputy) worked five furlongs in 1:00.40. Seventh behind A.P. Warrior in the GII San Felipe S., the colt is expected to start next in Saturday's GII Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park.

BALANCE FINE AFTER ASHLAND LOSS

Balance (Thunder Gulch), third as the favorite in Saturday's GI Ashland S. at Keeneland, came out of the race in fine shape and remains on target for the May 5 GI Kentucky Oaks. "She was a little cut up behind, which I think is from not being able to handle the track," reported trainer David Hofmans. "But she jogged some this morning and we're going to be okay. She'll go back to California Monday morning and then I'll probably send her to my son Grant's barn at Churchill Downs." Trainer Eddie Kenneally said Ashland winner Bushfire (Louis Quatorze) will also be aimed at the Oaks.

CHURCHILL, MAGNA TO PROVIDE RACES TO UK

Churchill Downs Inc., Magna Entertainment Corp., and Racing UK announced Apr. 7 that the three organizations have reached an agreement to partner in a subscription television channel that will broadcast races from CDI and MEC racetracks, as well as other North American and international racetracks, into the United Kingdom and Ireland. The new television channel, Racing World, launched Mar. 8 and offers live racing from Golden Gate Fields, Gulfstream Park, Laurel Park, Oaklawn Park, Santa Anita Park and Turfway Park. During the spring and summer, Racing World will expand its offerings when live racing resumes at Arlington Park, Bay Meadows Race Course, Calder Race Course, Churchill Downs, Hollywood Park, Keeneland Race Course, Lone Star Park and Pimlico Race Course. MEC and CDI will provide racing content to Racing World while Racing UK will manage day-to-day operations for the channel. Racing UK is a media company and subscription television channel owned by 31 leading British racecourses. For the complete story, click here.

SMART N PRETTY (f, 3, Elusive Quality--Private Lake, by Meadowlake) opened her 2006 account with a fourth-place finish in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 14, then closed ground to be third in the Feb. 4 GIII Old Hat S. The bay tried her luck at two turns in an allowance test Mar. 5, but faded to finish a well-beaten fourth. Off at 3-1 dropping back to seven panels, the $77,000 KEENOV weanling and $250,000 FTSAUG yearling lacked early speed, but started to make up ground as they raced around the turn. She kept on coming down the lane, collaring 50-1 Champagne N Glory (Miswaki) inside the eighth pole en route to a one-length tally. Lifetime Record: GSP, 6-2-1-1, $94,318. O-ClassicStar Stable LLC. The $115,000 FTSAUG yearling came back to be second by a head in a Gulfstream allowance Jan. 11, then shipped out west and was a solid third behind Moscow Burning in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions F/M Turf S. Freshened after the cross-country jaunt, the dark bay returned here as the 3-10 favorite. Rated just off the leaders for six furlongs, she moved out for the stretch run and motored under the wire three lengths clear. Miss Laken (Dynaformer) completed the exacta. LOUVE ROYALE (IRE) (m, 5, Peintre Celebre--Louve {GSW-Fr}, by Irish River {Fr}) was off the board in two starts in France last year, but picked up checks in all five stateside outings. The chestnut was second in a pair of stakes at Belmont and Delaware Park in September, then shipped to the Bluegrass State and was third in the Oct. 23 Dowager S. at Keeneland. Second by less than a length despite a rough trip in a Nov. 26 Churchill allowance test, the Irish-bred was then given a 4 1/2-month break. The 5-2 second choice for her return, she was off to an awkward start and had just one horse behind her for the opening half. Louve Royale edged closer as they came around the bend, angled wide for the drive and outfinished 19-10 Sky High Flyer (GB) (Anabaa) for a head score. The winner was a 42,000gns TATDEC horse-in-training purchase. Lifetime Record: MSP-US, 13-2-4-2, $114,403. O-Joseph Allen. B-Dayton Investments Ltd (IRE). T-Patrick L Biancone.

The dark bay set the early pace in his most recent appearance before weakening to be third in a 6 1/2-furlong sprint Mar. 4. Off at 5-2 in his first trip to Keeneland, he once again went right to the lead, but this time left his rivals in the dust, hitting the wire 13 3/4 lengths to the good. Still skeptical, the bettors let him go at 16-1 here, but the chestnut proved the first win was no fluke. Trainer John Charles Zimmerman, 46, was found dead in his Aventura home Sunday. The cause of death is unknown and an autopsy is pending. Zimmerman won his 13th race of the current Gulfstream meeting when Letters captured the sixth race Friday. The Pennsylvania native saddled Procreate to a world-record setting win in last year's Yankee Affair S. and was readying that horse for a repeat in next Saturday's renewal of the race. Zimmerman is survived by a daughter, Mallory, and two sons, Matt and Brett. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Gumboots followed a debut maiden victory with a seven-length tally in the Oct. 29 Fanfreluche S. at Woodbine. The chestnut suffered her first defeat when third by a half-length in the Nov. 20 Glorious Song S. and took the winter off. Off at 2-5 for her sophomore bow, she pressed the pace, then had to battle past the speedy longshot Summer Girlfriend for the score.

9th-WOX, $54,666, Msw, 3yo, 6 1/2f, 1:16 4/5, ft. ROCKDUNDO (c, 3, Carson City--Redlands, by Red Ransom) trailed the field when trying a sloppy Oaklawn strip in his first start Mar. 19. A 5-1 chance to improve on the fast track at Woodbine, the bay grabbed the lead soon after the start and held outsider Stormkick (Salt Lake) at bay down the lane for a 2 3/4-length victory. The winner of the GII Monmouth Breeders' Cup Oaks in 2004 and the GII Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. in 2005, Capeside Lady had made her last three starts in Grade I company. The bay was off the board in the Sept. 11 Ruffian H. and the Oct. 29 Breeders' Cup Distaff at Belmont, but finished a respectable third in the Spinster S. at Keeneland. Making her first start of the new year after the winter break, she was sent off the odds-on choice. Capeside Lady tracked Injustice to the stretch, drove to the lead and drew clear.

Arson Squad rallied late to get up for third in his Jan. 14 debut, but was on the lead from the start while breaking his maiden sprinting six furlongs at this track Feb. 11. Making the jump to stakes company, the dark bay gelding reverted to his stalking ways, falling back to last in the compact field of five. Da Stoops jetted to the lead on the bend and looked home free, but Arson Squad rallied four wide into the stretch and wrested control from the favorite in deep stretch before pulling clear for the win. "I was surprised at how far back he was," admitted winning rider Alex Solis. "I would have liked to have been a lot closer, but they were running fast, so I let him alone. I let the horse do his own running. At the three-eighths pole, I thought it was time to go and they were flying, so I had to swing him out into the clear and he got the job done." As for what is next for the lightly raced gelding, winning trainer Bruce Headley said, "I'm looking at everything over there [at Hollywood Park]." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Dismissed at 36-1, the bay filly was away slowly and settled behind a fast early pace.

Forced to steady behind foes in upper stretch, Royal Cheer closed powerfully once clear and got up late for a one-length victory over 3-1 favorite Royal Prana (Royal Academy). Lifetime Record: 6-1-1-1, $35,067.

BREEZE-UP SEASON HEATS UP Doncaster Bloodstock Sales Company opens the doors for its annual Breeze-Up today against the backdrop of unprecedented

L'Opera winner Kinnaird

demand for ready-to-run juveniles. This year's renewal is of added importance as the first marker of whether the monumental trading at Ocala and Calder has any knock-on effect in Europe. It is a niche sale that has produced countless bargains, such as its flagship graduate Kinnaird (Ire) (Dr Devious {Ire}), purchased for 8,000 guineas and now a winner at the highest level thanks to her exploits in the G1 Prix de l'Opera on Arc day last October. Also included in the honor roll are last year's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas second Penkenna Princess (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), shock G2 Rockfel S. winner Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}); G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte winner Balthazaar's Gift (Ire) (Xaar {GB}); and G1 Hong Kong Mile third Dave's Best (GB) (Bishop of Cashel {GB}), with none fetching more than 60,000 guineas.

Sire Power...

With the vibes strong about this year's 250-strong catalogue, the hope is that last year's record price of 150,000 guineas paid for a Sadler's Wells colt will be surpassed. That may be possible thanks to DBS's increased measures in the interim to ensure that overseas interest, the like of which saw the Shadai Corporation pay 140,000 guineas for a Danzig colt in 2003, deepens this year. Sires represented are Alhaarth (Ire), Baratheia (Ire), Cape Cross (Ire), Danehill Dancer (Ire), Grand Lodge, Inchinor (GB), Marju (Ire), Montjeu (Ire), Pivotal (GB) and Red Ransom. Freshmen stallions are sure to spark the usual keen interest and they include Golan (Ire), Street Cry (Ire) and Invincible Spirit (Ire).

Team USA...

Doncaster has seen a greater influx of the progeny of U.S.-based sires in recent times and among the offerings this time are two-year-olds by Arch, Cherokee Run, Elusive Quality, Fusaichi Pegasus, Gone West, Gulch, Smoke Glacken, Tale of the Cat and War Chant, while those with their first crop include Came Home, Johannesburg and Three Wonders. Fusaichi Pegasus is responsible for two of the standout lots, who on pedigree would not be out of place in any catalogue. Hip 226, from premier consignor Mocklershill Stables, is a son of Korveya, making him a half to Hector Protector, Bosra Sham and Shanghai, while Oaks Farm Stables' hip 37 is a half-brother to the G1 Ancient Title Breeders' Cup H. winner and top sprinter Avanzado (Arg). Buyers will also get the chance to buy into Came Home with Oaks Farm offering hip 98, a half to stakes performers from the established Juddmonte family of G1 1000 Guineas winner Wince (GB) and her daughter, the G1 St Leger runner-up Quiff (GB).

Class at DBS...

There are a clutch of juveniles eligible for the £300,000 St Leger Yearling S., including and hip 90, a son of DBS former graduate Kyllachy (GB) from Con Marnane's Bansha House Stables. Out of the precocious Elsie Plunkett (GB), she hails from the family of Spotlight (GB), Claxon (GB) and Cassydora (GB). There is also the chance to buy into the dream of the inaugural Goffs Million; those with an entry include Ballinahalla Stables' hip 228, a colt by Baratheia (Ire) out of the graded-stakes victress Stem the Tide. Gone West has one offering, hip 138, who is a son of the G3 Fred Darling S. winner Iftiraas (GB) consigned by Underbrow Farm. Danehill Dancer's fortunes took a sharp upturn at last year's yearling sales and a highlight is hip 151, a colt from the family of Fatherland (Ire), Bachelor Duke and El Condor Pasa.

Hot Hand for DBS...

DBS Managing Director Henry Beeby is expecting the assembly of juveniles to be a hit. "DBS breeders are now winning at the highest level around the globe and provide some unbeatable value that is not matched anywhere," explained Beeby. "The feedback we have had on our travels is that this is the best catalogue we have ever produced and I cannot wait to see some of these two year olds on the track as we had some very good reports from our vendors. This sale is all about selling winners and is now full of quality and diversification." Breeze start today at 11 a.m., with selling Tuesday and Wednesday starting at 1 p.m. Full catalogue and breezes can be found on www.dbsauctions.com.

Trainer Robert Collet served notice that he had something special in Best Name when pitching him against Linda's Lad (GB) in the G3 Prix de Conde over this track in October. In that event, he was short-headed by that rival, finishing ahead of Fauvelia, who would later fill the exacta behind Linda's Lad in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. Settled in rear off the fractions carved out by the rabbit Play It Again (Fr) (Zafonic), Best Name used his acceleration late on to swamp his rivals in the final 100 yards and record a decisive success. "I have always thought he was a good horse, which is why I ran him in a group race first time last year," Collet explained. "He has confirmed his quality here and quickened nicely. He may go straight to the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [French Derby at Chantilly June 4], or have a prep beforehand, but the [Apr. 23] G3 Prix la Force comes too soon."

GEORGE LEADS AWAY DAY

Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) was one of a team of over 20 horses Aidan O'Brien took to The Curragh for a series of racecourse gallops yesterday. Having joined River Tiber (GB) (Danehill) down the course ahead of his gallop, he veered left and then right before eventually ducking out through a gap in the rails.

Brought back to his lead horse by jockey Kieren Fallon, George Washington consented to gallop over nearly six furlongs along the rail, quickening up passing the eighth peg. During last Monday's press conference, O'Brien talked of the colt's "ego" and "arrogance," so he was not perturbed by his wayward display going down. "He's always been that way and it's not a problem," O'Brien said, before confirming last year's G1 Phoenix S. and G1 National S. winner on course for the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas. Other possibles for that Newmarket Classic on show yesterday were G3 Killavullan S. scorer Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway), the Listed Blenheim S. winner Art Museum (Storm Cat) and the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill), who all covered the same strip. Of the fillies on display, G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Rumplestiltskin (Ire) (Danehill) enjoyed a gentle exercise under Fallon ahead of a possible tilt at the May 7 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, while fellow Guineas aspirant Race for the Stars (Fusaichi Pegasus) also took part in a spin. "The horses are all well and the whole purpose was to give them an away day," O'Brien said.

Arch Rebel was a smart handicapper in 2004 and managed thirds in the Listed Oyster S. at Galway and in the Listed Trigo S. at Leopardstown. He was primarily restricted to the jumps last year, except for an eighth on the flat in last October's Listed Finale S. over this course. Back to claim his biggest prize on the level here under a waiting ride from Johnny Murtagh, he swooped from rear to take command in the final quarter and drew off late to prevail.

Curragh, 2.15, Mdn, €19,820, 2yo, f, 5fT, 1:11.80, hy.

+ ROSE OF BATTLE (GB) (f, 2, Averti {Ire}--Sky Red {GB}, by Night Shift) broke smartly to take a slight lead early in this first go. Pushed along soon after halfway, the 9-4 second choice was ridden out inside the final furlong to repel crowd choice Spirit of Pearl (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,020.

Curragh, 3.45, Mdn, €19,820, 3yo, f, 1mT, 1:55.40, yl/sf.

TAMAZUG (GB) (f, 3, Machiavellian--Nasheed {SW-Eng}, by Riverman) went postward as a 10-1 chance returning from a debut sixth at Galway Sept. 5. Stalking the leaders in fourth after the opening exchanges, the bay was pushed into third at the quarter-mile marker and kept on in determined fashion to deny Michikabu (Ire) (Grand Lodge) by a head in the bobber. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, €13,020.

Margine Rosso has taken his time to become a Classic contender. After enduring a busy juvenile campaign in the fall, with a run of three wins, his season ended with an unplaced effort in the Listed Criterium di Pisa in December. Fourth behind the smart Magic Box (Ity) in a conditions event over this course Mar. 5, he came back to run a close third in an unsuitably slowly run contest Mar. 26. Settled in a stalking third early, he was switched off the fence at the top of the straight and picked up to reel in Mr Hicks in the final furlong. He will now be pointed at the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) over course and distance Apr. 23.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters.
