DIPLOMAT LADY FLIES TO BEAUMONT WIN

Diplomat Lady (Forestry), who ended her juvenile campaign with a 39-1 upset win over Balance in the GI Hollywood Starlet S. last December, returned to the winner's circle yesterday at Keeneland with a confident victory in the GII Stonerside Beaumont S. Winless outside of Hollywood Park, the dark bay filly came into yesterday's race with some question marks after struggling to fifth and fourth-place finishes in the Feb. 11 GI Las Virgenes S. and Mar. 12 GI Santa Anita Oaks, respectively, but never gave her backers an anxious moment. After getting bumped at the break, Diplomat Lady contested the early fractions of :21.93 and :44.85 with Yachats (Forest Camp). The 7-2 shot asserted control in upper stretch and pulled clear to win by 2 1/4 lengths. Cont. p2

ARTIE SCHILLER LOOKS TO MAKE HIS MARK

GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Artie Schiller (El Prado {Ire}), who began his 2005 campaign with a win in the GII Maker's Mark Mile, hopes to start 2006 the same way at Keeneland today. Off since his determined victory over subsequent turf champion

Artie Schiller
S Sherack

Leroidesanimaux (Brz) in the Breeders' Cup, the five-year-old bay has been training strongly for his return to the races. "He's been sharp lately, and his last few works [at Belmont] have been good," confirmed trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "He runs hard wherever he goes." Also returning for the 2006 renewal of the Maker's Mark are last year's runner-up

Gulch Approval (Gulch) and third-place finisher Good Reward (Storm Cat).

Gulch Approval won the one-mile GIII Appleton H. at Gulfstream in his 2006 opener before tiring to fifth in the 1 1/16-miles Canadian Turf H. last time out Mar. 11. The regally bred Good Reward, winner of last year's GI Manhattan H., was fourth in the Canadian Turf H. in his only start this term. Field p2

EX CAELIS RETURNS IN FANTASY

Ex Caelis (Fusaichi Pegasus), runner-up in last year's GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Lassie S. and GII Darley Alcibiades, will try to break through to the graded stakes winner's circle in today's GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn Park. A maiden winner at Saratoga last August, the D. Wayne Lukas trainee has been off since a credible fourth-place effort in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Southern California invader Quiet Kim (Real Quiet) broke her maiden in her eighth trip to the post in her Feb. 10 sophomore debut, but made a quick transition to the graded stakes ranks with a runner-up effort behind Balance in the Mar. 12 GI Santa Anita Oaks last time out. Sweet Idea (Langfuhr) will try to step in class after three straight dominant victories at Sam Houston. The dark bay filly graduated with a 16-length romp last November and ended the campaign with a 13 1/2-length win in a Dec. 22 allowance before returning with a 4 1/2-length triumph in the Mar. 11 Sam Houston Oaks last time out. Fantasy field p2

After finishing her juvenile campaign with a Grade I win, Diplomat Lady was a distant runner-up behind division leader Balance in two starts this term. "The last couple of races we've been a little bit disappointed with her finishes," admitted trainer Christopher Paasch. Hoping for a different outcome in yesterday's GII Stonerside Beaumont S., Paasch gave jockey Cornelio Velasquez instructions to put Diplomat Lady right into the mix. "I told [jockey] Cornelio [Velasquez] to let her break real sharp today," the trainer explained. "I think it got a little deep down the lane; she got a little tired in the race." The victory likely earned Diplomat Lady a trip to the May 5 GI Kentucky Oaks. "She's a versatile filly; she wins around two turns, comes back here today and wins around one," Paasch said. "I think she impressed enough that I've already talked to [owner] Mr. [Charles] Cono and I think if she comes out of the race well, you'll see her at Churchill."

Favored India (Hennessy) was never far back, but failed to fire and finished fourth. "She ran even; she just never put in any effort," jockey John Velazquez said of the beaten favorite. The race was marred when GII Santa Ynez S. winner Dance Daily (Five Star Day) suffered a condylar fracture of the right front leg at the top of the stretch and was humanely euthanized.

Starter Sprint H. and GIII Vernon Underwood S. and started 2006 with a gutsy win in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Million Sprint S.

Bordonaro went head-to-head with Friendly Island through rapid fractions of :21.70, :44.26 and :58.22 and still found another gear in the stretch to pull clear impressively. "We broke about half a length in front and I just let him settle when that other horse went out so fast," explained winning rider Patrick Valenzuela. "He wanted to go, but I was telling him 'ho papa--ho papa.' Midway around the turn we got a head in front, but that other horse was going nice and I was just sitting there waiting and waiting. At the quarter pole, I threw a cross and he just pulled away." Winning trainer William Spawr added, "His next start is the [May 13 GIII] Los Angeles Times H. [at Hollywood Park]. The Breeders' Cup this fall? He must earn his way there."

LITTLE CLIFF WORKS FOR BLUE GRASS

Little Cliff (Gulch) tuned up for Saturday's GI Toyota Blue Grass S. with a three-furlong drill at Keeneland yesterday in :37.40. "The horse has done everything we've asked of him," trainer Nick Zito said of the GIII Tampa Bay Derby fourth-place finisher. "But he has to run a big race for us to obtain a spot [in the Derby]."

HUMOR SHARP AT CHURCHILL

Sharp Humor (Distorted Humor), second in the GI Florida Derby, worked five furlongs at Churchill Downs yesterday in :59.60, the second fastest of 19 at the distance. "He's improved since January 1--every day I think he's gotten better," said trainer Dale Romans. "We'll probably work one long work--maybe next Thursday--and then come back the next Saturday and give him a work for the race and that'll be it." Sharp Humor would be the first Kentucky Derby starter for Romans, who was born in Louisville and has been leading trainer at Churchill Downs seven times.

Also working at Churchill yesterday, Kentucky Oaks contender Top Notch Lady (Sultry Song) breezed five furlongs in 1:00.40 for trainer Mark Casse. It was the third fastest five-furlong work of the day. Top Notch Lady won the GIII Bourbonette Breeders' Cup S. at Turfway last time out and connections are expected to supplement the Woodbine-based filly to the Oaks at a fee of $25,000.

Multiple graded stakes winner Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song--Regal Miss Copelan, by Copelan) will begin his stud career next season at Darley at Jonabell in Lexington, Kentucky. The four-year-old gray was retired following the recurrence of a deep cut to his right front foot. "Rockport Harbor was a dazzling racehorse, whose talents ignited nationwide interest and passion," said Darley's Director of stallion operations Dan Pride. "He's got a lot of his sire in him and we're very proud to be standing him on the Darley roster, where he fits in very well alongside another great charismatic gray, Holy Bull." Rockport Harbor won five of eight races, including the 2004 GII Remsen S. and GIII Nashua S. and this year's GIII Essex H.

3rd Dam: Miss Baja, by Mr. Leader

Minister's Bid comes from the barn that boasts almost 25 percent winners for first time starters, but was overlooked at 9-1. Sluggish at the start, the $750,000 KEESEP yearling purchase gradually picked off horses until taking over a furlong from home and drew clear in the run to the wire, winning by an eye-popping 8 3/4-length margin. UK Program Offers Pasture Evaluation:

Central Kentucky horse farms interested in assistance from the University of Kentucky in evaluating their pastures now have access to a new program from the College of Agriculture's Department of Plant and Soil Sciences. The program, which started last fall, provides area horse farms an evaluation of the types of grasses and weeds present in each pasture, the ratio of each, an estimation of forage available and evaluation of pastures for percent of tall fescue and the potential of fescue stands to cause fescue toxicity in pregnant broodmares. The year's program, which runs through October, will provide pasture evaluation and customized findings report to 25 horse farms in Fayette, Bourbon, Woodford, Scott, Jessamine and Clark counties. Participation is on a first-come, first-served basis and the cost is $600. Farms interested in enrolling in the program, should contact Tom Keene at (859) 257-3144, tom.keene@uky.edu or Ray Smith at (859) 257-3358, raysmith1@uky.edu.

Arias Rewards Faithful:

Apprentice rider Saul Arias continued to reward his loyal backers when he guided 36-1 longshot Royal Cheer home first in the 10th race at Santa Anita Sunday. Through Wednesday, the 27-year-old Columbian had 18 wins from 179 rides. His winners have returned a total of $786.60, with his average win price $43.70. A flat $2 win wager on each of his mounts would have netted a profit of $428.60.

GUINEAS ASSET

Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Asset (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) was the subject of an upbeat bulletin from connections yesterday ahead of his tilt at Newmarket's G1 2000 Guineas May 6. Last year's G3 Solario S. third returned to win the Apr. 1 Listed Easter S. over Kempton's new polytrack surface and Racing Manager Harry Herbert believes he has what it takes. "He's done very well indeed since the Easter S. and we were thrilled with his run there," he said yesterday. "He was immensely impressive in a gallop before Kempton and produced a very eye-catching performance in the race itself. He's got a great turn of foot and we're very excited--I really think he's a live contender." Herbert revealed that the Richard Hannon-trained colt may sidestep next week's Craven meeting at Newmarket and head straight to the mile Classic. "He didn't like the soft ground first time at Newmarket or at Sandown in the Solario S.--in fact he absolutely hated it, but at least we know where we stand now. I would say it's almost certain that he'll now go straight to the 2000 Guineas."

NOSEDA FILLIES ON TRACK

Jeremy Noseda has confirmed his G1 1000 Guineas contenders La Chunga (More Than Ready) and Salut d'Amour (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) on course for the May 7 Classic at Newmarket. While the Sir Robert Ogden-owned G3 Albany S. winner La Chunga will only take part in a racecourse gallop at Newmarket on Thursday, Michael Tabor's G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up will prep in either Wednesday's G3 Nell Gwyn S. or the Apr. 22 G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury. "I'm very happy with La Chunga and her early preparations have gone well," Noseda said yesterday. "It has always been our plan to start her three-year-old campaign off in the 1000 Guineas." Noseda indicated that he was pleased with Salut d'Amour's progress, and explained his options. "Bearing in mind the cold winter that we've had, the filly is well forward at this stage of the season," he said. "She will probably head to the Nell Gwyn, but we will also consider giving her an entry in the G3 Fred Darling S."

CHENCHIKOVA MEETS WITH SETBACK

Susan Magnier's Chenchikova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) may be forced to sidestep the June 2 G1 Epsom Oaks after suffering a setback, it was announced yesterday. Fourth in the G3 Park Express S. at The Curragh Mar. 26, the full sister to the 2002 Epsom Derby hero High Chaparral (Ire) was one of many possibles for the mile-and-a-half Classic from the Aidan O'Brien barn. "She has suffered a minor setback and it's possible she may not make the Oaks," a Coolmore spokesman confirmed.

Conditioner Andre Fabre is not one to tilt at windmills and the fact that this full-brother to G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club winner and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe runner-up Cherry Mix (Fr) debuts against previous winners merits closer inspection. Fabre employs more-than-useful apprentice David Michaux in this Class B event to reduce the burden further and a bold show from the Lagardere-bred is expected.
