BENEATH THE RADAR

While the sophomore spotlight is focused on Louisville for the next week, Darley homebred Bernardini (A.P. Indy) proved that he will be a force to be reckoned with come the second leg of the Triple Crown after rolling to a 3 3/4-length victory in yesterday's GIII Withers S. at Aqueduct. Positioned just off the flank of favored Luxembourg (Wild Rush), the bay took that one's measure turning for home and kicked clear. "Everything went pretty much according to what we wanted to see," commented winning trainer Tom Albertrani. "We had a lot of horse today. We finished up well, and it looked like he had something left at the end." Cont. p2

BUSY DAY AT THE DOWNS

No fewer than a dozen contenders for next Saturday's GI Kentucky Derby turned in their final major preps on a cloudy but warm morning in Louisville.

Barbaro Celebrates Birthday With Fast Work...

Lael Stables' Barbaro (Dynaformer), foaled Apr. 29, 2003, went to work on his birthday, stopping the timer in :46 for his half-mile move, the fastest of 69 horses at the distance. "We just basically wanted to blow him out," commented trainer Michael Matz. "Right now, he's ready to go into the starting gate." With exercise rider Peter Brette in the saddle, the strapping bay galloped out strongly, getting his five furlongs in :59 2/5 and three-quarters in 1:12 1/5. Matz is certain that the best is yet to come. "I think he's still got a lot of maturing to do," he offered. "I don't know what he's going to be like when he matures." Edgar Prado has the call on Derby Day.

Another Bullet for Lawyer Ron...

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr), winner of six in a row including the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 15, continues to hold his form. The chestnut colt breezed five-eighths of a mile in a bullet :58.80. Regular rider John McKee was aboard for the move. "I liked the way he worked," said trainer Bob Holthus. "He's getting a little more professional and getting to where he is more relaxed." Owned by the Estate of James T. Hines, Lawyer Ron galloped out six furlongs in 1:12, according to Holthus's watch. Stablemate Red Raymond (Deputy Commander), a longshot to make the Derby, also worked five furlongs, covering the distance in :59.80. Cont. p2

Fourth to Exclusive Quality in his Jan. 7 bow at Gulfstream, Bernardini graduated by 7 3/4 lengths in South Florida Mar. 4. The horse he beat on that occasion, High Finance, came back to take a Keeneland maiden by over nine lengths Apr. 15. A foot bruise cost him a start in a race ultimately won by Luxembourg on the Wood Memorial undercard Apr. 8, but Albertrani was never concerned. "His foot bruise was really a minor deal," he commented. "We backed off him for a couple of days, and then it was right back to his usual routine." The conditioner added that he would consult with John Ferguson and Sheikh Mohammed, but that the GI Preakness S. May 20 is under consideration.

Pletcher Brigade Out a Day Early...

Trainer Todd Pletcher sent out his trio of Derby hopefuls yesterday, trying to beat the weatherman. Aaron and Marie Jones' Sunriver (Saint Ballado) was first out, drilling six furlongs in 1:13.60. "Excellent. It looked good to me," Pletcher said of the colt, who has quietly become his top contender. Starlight Stable, Saylor and Lucarelli's Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory), most recently third in the GI Wood Memorial, went the same distance in 1:12.80. WinStar Farm's Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) breezed a half-mile in :50.80. "He was very aggressive today," commented his exercise rider Luis Castillo. "I had to take a pretty good hold of him. He is feeling very good and he likes what he's doing."

Peitz' Don't Care Attitude...

Trainer Dan Peitz has a one-headed monster at Churchill Downs and his name is Steppenwolfer (Aptitude), runner-up to Lawyer Ron in the Arkansas Derby. The gray colt turned in his typically solid work yesterday, going six furlongs in 1:13 under jockey Robby Albarado. "I didn't know how fast the track was going to be, but I was hoping he would go in about 1:13," the satisfied conditioner commented. "I don't care how fast everybody else worked," he added. "That's their horse and I know what my horse has to do and what he needs to do and we did what we wanted to do."

Sweetnorthernsaint Fires His Best Shot...

Joseph Balsamo and Ted Theos' Sweetnorthernsaint (Sweetsouthernsaint), who figures no worse than the fourth choice on Saturday, pleased connections with a six-furlong breeze in a race-like 1:11.60 over the glib surface. "I was pleased with how the horse worked," commented trainer Michael Trombetta. "The fractional times were good. I think they finished the last quarter in :23 and change and they galloped out well." Jockey Calvin Borel was in the boot for the move, replacing regular rider Kent Desormeaux, who retains the Derby mount, despite going AWOL for yesterday's work.

Sufficce to say that Charmo likes this country. A career maiden in Europe--he was winless in 16 starts with seven minor placings--the gray is now four for six in this country after a convincing score here. Victorious in his stateside bow going down the Santa Anita hill Oct. 14, he was third to Ulistnintome (Wild Rush) in an 'a-other-than' going that trip Nov. 3. Following back-to-back victories at a mile at Santa Anita Dec. 26 and Jan. 21, he was tried in the GI F.E. Kilroe Mile H. and finished sixth by a length in that blanket finish. Making his first trip to the Bay Area, he lingered at the back of the pack early, but took closer order approaching the stretch. Aragorn got a dream run through on the inside, but Charmo outran that one to the line. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Rob Roy's victory here went some way to justifying the tall reputation he has enjoyed since powering home in a seven-furlong Newmarket maiden on his only juvenile start. Sent off second favourite in last season's G1 2000 Guineas following an unlucky second in the G3 Craven S., he finished last and came home lame. The colt had his shins pinfired following that disappointment and did not reappear until September, when he finished third in a one-mile conditions event at Doncaster. His comeback continued with an impressive victory in the Sept. 30 G3 Joel S., but he was down the field in the G1 Champion S. Oct. 15 at Newmarket. Racing a shade keenly in second through these steady early fractions, he was nudged along to challenge Kings Point at the quarter pole. The brown colt drew away from the field, and jockey Mick Kinane did not need to give him the full treatment to score from Babodana. "My fellow picked up well and got a little tired close home," Kinane said. "This is a very genuine horse; he's matured well, seems to be sound and could have a nice year." Owned by Mike Pegram, whose Isitingood defeated Skip Away to win this race for trainer Bob Baffert in track-record time in 1997, Preachinatthebar was fourth as the favorite in the Windy Sands H. at Del Mar last Sept. 5, but returned to take a Hollywood money allowance Nov. 9. Rested off a close fourth in the Dec. 10 GIII Native Diver H. in Inglewood, he filled the same slot behind Yes He's A Pistol (Yes It's True) in the Santana Mile H. at Santa Anita Mar. 12, but was coming into this off a one-length score in the GIII Tokyo City H. in Arcadia Apr. 1. Five wide on the first turn, he still found himself out on the track down the backstretch, but tugged his way towards the front on the far turn. He made the lead at the quarter pole and dug in gamely for the win. Stockholder rallied five wide into the lane and just missed. Baffert now has 11 Lone Star stakes wins to his credit and winning jockey Jon Court boasts seven career stakes wins at the Dallas oval.

Gigawatt finished fifth in a Churchill turf allowance Apr. 30 and improved to be third in a similar event May 18 before finishing fifth in a two-turn test on the main track 11 days later. Sidelined off a runner-up effort in the Independence Day H. at Louisiana Downs, the dark bay returned to run third in the Gulf Coast Classic S. at Evangeline Downs Mar. 25. Lightly regarded in his return to the turf, Gigawatt raced closest to the pace for the opening six furlongs, poked a head in front at the eighth pole and was all out to win from the dead-heating Old Forester and Spring House. "This race came up at the right time," explained trainer Michael Lerman. "We'll be shipping to New York in another week or so, and there will be plenty of options to look at in about three or four weeks if he's doing well." The winner was produced by a full sister to Words of War, the dam of MGSW E Dubai.

The Aqueduct turf course has played well to speed since it opened and Pommes Frites used that to her advantage, just holding off Naissance Royale for her first graded-stakes success. Seventh in the GI Test S. and eighth in a main-track allowance at Saratoga last summer, the homebred returned to the turf take a second-level allowance at Belmont Oct. 21 prior to a fourth in the Frances Genter S. at Calder Dec. 31. A front-running winner over the Gulfstream turf course Feb. 20 and Mar. 31, the dark bay was the tepid favorite in her first try over this course. Sent to the front by Cornelio Velasquez, Pommes Frites took them along in :49.93 for the half and 1:13.84 for three-quarters and stayed on gamely for the win. "She could always run," commented winning trainer Bill Mott. "It has just taken a little maturity and seasoning to get her to this level." Naissance Royale was steady in traffic entering the far turn, but closed well to just miss. Angara (GB) (Alzao), last year's GI Beverly D. winner, was never a factor and finished sixth. Willow O Wisp took the Golden State by storm last summer after being purchased from Florida, winning a first-level allowance and the GIII Will Rogers S. at this track in the spring. He took equally kindly to Del Mar, tacking on victories in the GII La Jolla H. Aug. 13 and the GII Del Mar Derby Sept. 5, but was forced to read-just his schedule when turf racing was cancelled at Hollywood last fall. He shipped to Hong Kong, where he was ninth after setting the pace in the G1 Hong Kong Cup over 2000 meters Dec. 11 and was a disappointing 12th on relatively short rest in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Turf at Gulfstream. He showed some signs of life when a close seventh in the GI F.E. Kilroe Mile H. at Santa Anita Mar. 4 and was favored here to rediscover his winning ways. The gelding quickly showed in front and was able to get his opening half-mile in a relatively moderated :47.17. Briefly challenged to his outside by last year's runner-up Red Fort (Ire) (Green Desert) in upper stretch, Willow O Wisp kept finding and held gamely. Also ran: Private Business, Jadalee (Ire).

Primary, who raced for the now-retired David Loder last year, contributed to his handler's fine season by wiring a seven-furlong Leicester maiden on debut in August. He repeated those tactics when following up in a conditions race at Newmarket the following month, but a troubled trip was partly to blame for his last-place finish in the Oct. 15 G1 Dewhurst S. back at Newmarket. Sent straight to the lead here, the bay cut out a decent early pace. He was nudged along turning for home, and jockey Darryll Holland drew his whip at the quarter pole. Despite hanging away from the rail soon after, allowing Baan to make his challenge, Primary showed his sire's determination by digging deep and holding off that opponent and the renewed effort of The Last Drop in a thrilling final furlong. "It would be wonderful to run him in the Derby," Highclere's Harry Herbert told Racing Post. "He would need another run first; we need to see how the form looks, and we also need to talk to [trainer] William [Haggas] before deciding if he should go for the Italian Derby instead."

Hindered by lameness earlier in her career, National Colour progressed from maiden and handicap victories to finish third in the Mar. 7 Listed Bauhinia H. at Newmarket. That promise was confirmed when the sophomore plundered the Apr. 1 Man O' War Conditions S. by 6 1/4 lengths at this track last time, and she made the step into the highest class here, exploding onto the scene with a highly impressive win only 0.12 seconds off the track record. Out of the traps like lightning, the grey was quickly into a commanding three-length lead. Mocha Java was allowed to within two lengths approaching the final furlong, but was quickly disappointed as Brett Smith urged National Colour further clear in the closing stages for an emphatic pillar-to-post score.

PRIX GANAY-GRAND PRIX AIR MAURITIUS-G1,

€300,000, 4yo/up, 1 5/16mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	WT
1	7	Vatori (Fr)	Vettori (Ire)	Demercastel	128
2	1	Corre Caminos (Fr)	Montjeu (Ire)	Delzangles	128
3	2	Manduro (Ger)	Monsun (Ger)	Fabre	128
4	3	Near Honor (Ger)	Highest Honor (Fr)	Vovcenko	128
5	4	Royal Highness (Ger)	Monsun (Ger)	Bary	125
6	6	Pride (Fr)	Peintre Celebre	de Royer-Dupre	125
7	5	Montare ((Ire)	Montjeu (Ire)	Pease	125

Andre Fabre, who has won this three times since 1990, relies on the ex-German Manduro to increase that tally in a substandard renewal. Trained by Peter Schiergen at two and three, Manduro annexed the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne in October 2004 before enduring an injury-interrupted sophomore campaign that was nevertheless highlighted by successes in the Listed Grosser Bavaria-Preis at Munich in September and G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit at Hoppegarten in October. He lost his unbeaten tag when fourth in the G1 Premio Roma the following month, and was something of an unknown quantity when returning for his new conditioner in the Apr. 9 G2 Prix d'Harcourt at this track, but sealed his reputation by beating Corre Caminos by a half length and setting a new 10-furlong record in the process. His chief threats may be the distaffers in the line-up. Heading them is Pride, who was disqualified from second place behind Bago (Fr) in this 12 months ago. She proved herself a top-class performer subsequently when taking the G2 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville in August and G2 Prix Foy at this track in September before returning to finish seventh in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in early October. She excelled just 13 days later when finishing runner-up to David Junior in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket and when filling the same spot in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin in December, and bids to provide trainer Alain de Roye-Dupre with his fifth success in this since 1991. Royal Highness is worthy of respect on the best of last season's form, capturing the G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud in June either side of chasing the tail of Shawanda (Ire) in the G3 Prix de Royaumont at Chantilly in June and G1 Prix Vermeille here in October.

This week's accomplishment:

Won his first Keeneland stakes race, the Giant's Causeway, with Gilded Gold on his first-ever day at Keeneland.

Birthplace: New York, NY

Birthdate: 12-10-64

Residence: New York, NY

Family: Wife, actress Stephanie March; daughter Sophie, 10.

Education: French Culinary Institute

Principal business: Chef and owner of three restaurants in NYC (Mesa Grill, Bolo and Bar Americain) and Mesa Grill Las Vegas.

Who's the coolest person who ever came into one of your restaurants? Robert De Niro.

Who would you most like to see come through the doors? Steve Cauthen, riding Affirmed. (Yes, I know the horse is deceased.)

Childhood ambition? To survive high school.

Fondest memory? Going to Saratoga for the first time with my grandfather and father.

Describe a perfect day. Playing Augusta in the morning, winning a stakes at Keeneland or Saratoga in the afternoon, eating a perfectly cooked steak (cooked by someone else) with my wife, accompanied by a fabulous bottle of Priorat (a Spanish red wine), finishing with a gigantic hot fudge sundae, tucking my daughter into her bed and kissing her good night!

What's your best recipe? Shrimp and roasted garlic tamale.

Does anyone ever invite you to their house for dinner? Or is it too intimidating? Yes, but they usually ask me to bring my knives.

If I weren't a chef, I would be... Dean DeRenzo and Randy Hartley, selling The Green Monkey at the Calder Sales.

Last purchase: 2yo Rahy filly from Nick Demeric, named Sophie's Salad.

What's your wallpaper on your laptop? A photo of my wife from her NBC show, Conviction.

Do you ever let her cook? Stephanie cooks for me once a year on my birthday.

It took a filly of the quality of Crimplene (Ire) to snatch Germany's first Classic from the domestic team in 2000. Looking to add to that tally, Sir Mark Prescott sends over an intriguing raider in Violette. On the upgrade at two, she took the G3 Firth of Clyde S. at Ayr in September before finding only the smart Misu Bond (Ire) too strong in the Listed Redcar Two-Year-Old Trophy in early October. Taken to Newmarket for the G2 Rockfel S. a fortnight later, she went down by a neck to Speciosa (Ire) before rounding off with a third in the G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte in November. Of the German fillies, Lasira booked her ticket with a win at this track in the Apr. 15 Listed Preis der Dreijahrigen. She had filled fourth spot behind Nordtanzerin (Ger), Almerita and Karavel in the key juvenile race, the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin at Baden-Baden in October, and it will be interesting to see how that form plays out on the big stage here. Almerita won another prep, the G3 Preis der Union-Gestuts, on her Apr. 2 return at Cologne, while Lolita annexed the Listed Henkel Trial over course and distance Apr. 8.

FIVE WORKERS FOR THE OAKS A handful of sophomore fillies worked yesterday morning in preparation for Friday's GI Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs. Trainer Todd Pletcher will be represented by one, and possibly two, horses in the race, including Arindel Farm's Wait a While (Maria's Mon), who breezed five-eighths of a mile in 1:03.40 beneath exercise rider Frederick Buscialle. "She felt good," the Frenchman commented. "She's going well right now." The gray filly, the 14-length winner of the GII Bonnie Miss S. in February, was most recently runner-up in the GI Ashland S. GII Fantasy S. winner Ready to Please (More Than Ready) remains officially on the bubble for the Oaks, but she worked a half-mile in :49. Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid), third to Top Notch Lady (Sultry Song) in the GIII Bourbonette Breeders' Cup S. at Turfway Mar. 25, went five furlongs in 1:00.4, while Fantasy runner-up Miss Norman (Artax) went seven panels in 1:29.6. Over at Keeneland, Bushfire (Louis Quatorze) remained sharp, breezing a half-mile over the main track in :47.4. "She went very well," said trainer Eddie Kenneally. "She will ship to Churchill [today] and will gallop up to the race."

McLaughlin Colts Work in Company...

The Kiaran McLaughlin-trained pair of GII Fountain of Youth S. runner-up Flashy Bull (Holy Bull) and Jazil

Flashy Bull Horsephotos

(Seeking the Gold), a fast-finishing second in the GI Wood Memorial, worked five furlongs in company yesterday morning in 1:00.4.

McLaughlin, who sent out Closing Argument to a second-place finish in last year's Kentucky Derby, was pleased with the works.

"They went perfect," he said. "They both switched leads when they should, and the riders said they wouldn't blow out a match when they came back."

Hollendorfer in For Cause to Believe...

Northern California hopeful Cause to Believe (Maria's Mon), a late nominee to the Triple Crown, turned in his final pre-race work, covering five-eighths of a mile in 1:00.80. "It was just a maintenance breeze," the perennial leading conditioner commented. "And it was just what I expected from him. He's not a good work horse, but he gets something out of his breezes." The gray colt will mark the second Derby starter for Hollendorfer. He was represented in the 2003 Run for the Roses by Eye of the Tiger, who finished a respectable fifth behind Funny Cide.

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT KEENELAND MEET

The 15 days of the 2006 spring meeting at Keeneland saw a record 244,145 fans push through the turnstiles, breaking the mark of 235,220 set during last year's 16-day stand. The daily average attendance was a new high of 16,276, surpassing the record of 15,522 set in 2004. The jockey and trainer races came down to Friday's final program, with Nick Zito edging Todd Pletcher, 12 wins to 11; and Julien Leparoux finishing in a dead-heat with Rafael Bejarano at 17 victories apiece. Leparoux became the first-ever apprentice rider to lead the Keeneland standings. Ken and Sarah Ramsey led all owners with six winners.

First Foal for Dancinginmydreams Debuts:

Dancing Forever (Rahy), the first foal out of GISP Dancinginmydreams (Seeking the Gold), makes his career debut in the ninth race at Aqueduct this afternoon. A full sister to champion Heavenly Prize and GISW Oh What a Windfall, Dancinginmydreams was second by a head in the 2000 GI Matron S. and went off the 6-5 favorite in the GI Frizette S., but fractured her right hind pastern at the top of the stretch. She underwent a prolonged recovery from the injury before being bred in 2002. The eight-year-old mare also has a juvenile filly by Forest Wildcat named Remember and an unnamed yearling filly by El Prado (Ire). Dancing Forever, owned and bred by the Phipps Stable and trained by Shug McGaughey, will start from post 6 in the 1 1/16-mile turf test. Jockey Cornelio Velasquez has the mount.

Three-for-four on the Calder main track coming into this race, Electrify was in over his head when fading to seventh behind Sharp Humor in the Mar. 4 GII Swale S.

at Gulfstream Park. The chestnut colt rebounded in his latest, rallying for a three-length score in the Apr. 8 Sophomore S. at Tampa Bay. Sent off the second choice over his favorite strip, he cruised along behind the leaders through soft fractions and was in hand as he powered to the front on the far turn before pulling away to an emphatic success. The colt could make his next start at Monmouth Park, where trainer Eddie Plesa Jr. will have a string this summer.

Trainer Bob Baffert has been on fire this spring with his three-year-olds and appears to have another nice one here with Record. The dark bay earned his diploma over Simon Pure at Santa Anita Feb. 4, then was third at this distance as the 4-5 chalk in an allowance Feb. 25. Favored at 3-5 in an $80,000 optional claimer, he reported home a nose short while second Mar. 26. Making his first start outside of California here, he was never far back while sixth and fought his way past the longest shot in the field to score narrowly. Protagonus (Salt Lake), the second choice at odds of 2-1, broke down on the turn for home and was vanned off.

BRILLIANT (c, 3, War Chant--Fairest, by Known Fact) had hit the board in each of his first three trips to the post before graduating by three lengths going a mile at Oaklawn Jan. 20. The Mill House homebred followed that with a second in a one-mile allowance at the Arkansas oval Feb. 16, but hadn't faced the starter since. A 2-1 chance in his turf bow, the dark bay settled into fourth on the outside, made his move in the lane, hit the front and just fended off the four-year-old Mansmind (General Royal) to win by a neck. Brilliant was produced by a half-sister to GISW Furiously (Danzig). Lifetime Record: 6-2-3-1, $81,810. O/B-Mill House (KY). T-Neil J Howard.

The bay kicked off the new year with a second-place finish at Gulfstream Jan. 29, then was a respectable fifth in the Gill Very One H. last out Mar. 4. Favored at 9-5 for this, she tracked the early leaders in fourth and rallied in deep stretch to score by one length over Aimer (Swain {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 10-3-1-0, $58,829. COACH KENT (c, 3, Forestry--Reach the Top {GSW, $214,405}, by Cozzene), a $450,000 FTKJUL yearling, was unable to get the job done as the chalk in his last three, including a third-place finish at Keeneland last out Apr. 7. Sent to the lead by Rafael Bejarano, the 3-5 choice dueled through :23 2/5 and :47 splits and ran away from them in the stretch. It was seven lengths back to 17-1 Air Corredor (El Corredor) in second. The winner is a half to Changing World (Spinning World), GSW, $379,249. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-3, $43,270. Surgery for Protagonus:

Protagonus (Salt Lake) was taken to Rood & Riddle immediately after breaking down in the Derby Trial S. "We think he has at least one fractured sesamoid," said Dr. Nancy Davis, Churchill's chief veterinarian. "But we did not X-ray him...we shipped him straight to the surgery without risking further damage by unloading him, taking the splint off and reloading him."

Third in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket last year, Etlala disappointed in the Sept. 25 G2 Diadem S. at Newmarket and the Oct. 15 G2 Challenge S. back at the Rowley Mile. He suggested this season might be different when taking a seven-furlong conditions event on seasonal return at Warwick Apr. 17 and confirmed that with a determined success here. The field split into two groups, and jockey Richard Hills chose to stalk the leader of those in the center of the track until asking Etlala to take the lead over a half-mile out. The chestnut was shaken up at the quarter pole and responded to a drive from there as Philharmonic's final-furlong surge up the stand's side rail proved his only realistic danger.
