Facing the starter for only the seventh time, the Marquise de Moratalla's four-year-old gelding Corre Caminos (Fr) (Montjeu {Ire}) proved he is on a steep upward curve when powering to a five-length success in yesterday's G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp. Comfortably held by Manduro (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt at this track last time Apr. 9, the 4-1 second choice comprehensively reversed that form, stalking rabbit Near Honor (Ger) (Highest Honor {Fr}) to the quarter pole before drawing away from his nearest pursuer Royal Highness (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and the one-paced favorite. "I was happy to see the rain fall earlier, as he likes some give in the ground," winning conditioner Mikel Delzangles commented. "He got a great run behind the pacemaker and quickened like a nice horse." Prix Ganay cont. p2

Corre Caminos APRH

Baffert Brigade Out in Force...

Trainer Bob Baffert was on hand at Santa Anita Park in California for Bob and John (Seeking the Gold) and Point Determined (Point Given)'s final major preparatory move ahead of Saturday's Kentucky Derby. Bob and John, winner of the GI Wood Memorial Apr. 8, who went without a workmate, covered six panels in 1:11.40, the fastest of nine moves at the distance. Also flashing his speed, Point Determined, working in tandem with maiden Evaluate, drilled five furlongs in :59.80.

The work was the third fastest of 40 moves Sunday. "It went very, very well," said Baffert. "It went just as we planned it. The riders [Victor Espinoza on Point Determined and Garrett Gomez on Bob and John] were very happy with the moves and the horses came back and cooled out fine." Supporting his decision to keep the duo in California, Baffert added, "I'm happy I stayed here with them. It has worked for the best."

Balance Arrives, Ready to Please Bows Out...

Trainer Todd Pletcher has decided not to run James Scatuorchio's Ready to Please (More Than Ready) in Friday's GI Kentucky Oaks. Pletcher announced the GII Fantasy S. winner's defection following an unremarkable four-furlong move at Churchill Saturday. The bay covered the distance in :49 flat. Shipping in for the Classic, probable favorite Balance (Thunder Gulch) arrived from her Southern California base Saturday and was given her first glimpse of the Louisville oval when she was sent out for a one-mile jog yesterday morning.

A.P. Warrior Works...

Stan Fulton's A.P. Warrior (A.P. Indy), preparing for the Derby, drilled six furlongs in company at Hollywood Park Sunday morning. With Ramon Guerra aboard, the colt covered the distance in 1:13.80. "He worked side-by-side with the filly [Yankee Million], then pulled away from her at the end," said trainer John Shirreffs. "I was pleased with the work." The colt is scheduled to ship from California to Louisville Tuesday.

Leparoux to Ride Ex Caelis in Oaks..

D. Wayne Lukas announced yesterday that Julien Leparoux will ride Circle C Group Stables' Ex Caelis (Fusaichi Pegasus) in Friday's GI Kentucky Oaks. The 22-year-old rider, who broke the record for most victories in a single meet this winter at Turfway Park, shared the riding title with Rafael Bejarano at the recently concluded Keeneland spring meet. Ex Caelis, who will attempt to give Lukas his fifth victory in the Oaks, covered six furlongs over Churchill's main track in 1:15 Saturday morning. The dark bay, runner-up in last year's GII Alcibiades S. and GIII Arlington-Washington Breeders' Cup Lassie S., concluded her 2yo campaign with a good fourth to stablemate Folklore in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies.

Corre Caminos debuted less than 12 months ago when winning at Saint-Cloud in May, but could not add to that when third at Longchamp in June and runner-up in the Listed Prix Ridgway at Deauville in August. Sent to this track for the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange in September, he overcame Ruwi (GB) before finishing seventh in the G2 Prix Dollar here the following month. "He has always been a good horse, but he was very difficult to train in his younger days and took a while to settle," Delzangles added. "Now he has matured and I might well send him to Royal Ascot for the [June 21] G1 Prince of Wales's S."

Lolita has only raced at this venue and she maintained her perfect record with a game pillar-to-post success in this first domestic Classic. Having graduated in October, she belied inexperience to win a battle with Mrs Snow (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) in the Listed Henkel-Trial-Dusseldorfer Stutenpreis Apr. 8 and showed those qualities again under a determined Andreas Helfenbein. Always at the forefront, she veered left when apparently in control at the top of the straight before straightening under her rider's drive. Chased by Almerita all the way to the line, she dug in to prevail as the pair drew clear of the remainder. In doing so, Lolita was providing her trainer Andreas Lowe with his third renewal in the last five years and her sire Lavirco with his first Classic winner. Petite Special shook up the status quo at the top of the marathoners' division with a shock score here. Despite some fair placed efforts in stakes company, she had failed to add to the one success in the Listed Grand Prix du Sud-Ouest in September 2004, but looked to be improving with the step up to these extreme distances when third behind Lord du Sud in the Listed Prix Right Royal at Saint-Cloud last time Apr. 1. Settled in rear early by Christophe-Patrice Lemaire as that rival led at every step, she arrived with a rush up the center of the track to disappoint the favorite's backers approaching the eighth peg before asserting in the drive to the line. "They went really fast up front and she relaxed nicely," her rider explained. "She quickened brilliantly and is all heart--she always gives her best and that's nice for her record." Danzon, who capped her juvenile campaign with a win in the Listed Prix Delahante at Marseille-Borely in November, returned to finish second in the Listed Prix la Camargo over a mile of this track Mar. 27. Stepped up in trip for this traditional prep for the G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks), she traveled easily throughout under cover stalking High Heel Sneakers. Granted a passage up the rail as that rival tired inside the final quarter and veered left, she took advantage to lead approaching the eighth pole before holding on for a comfortable score. "Last time we were gentle with her and it has paid off," trainer Jean-Claude Rouget said. "She got a lovely run up the inside and is a filly with Classic potential. We will pass on the G1 Prix Saint-Alary [at Longchamp May 21] and head straight for the Prix de Diane [at Chantilly June 11]."

This race is a virtual rerun of the Apr. 1 G3 Prix Edmond Blanc over course and distance, where Svedov got the better of Art Master and Helios Quercus in the soft going. With drying conditions expected for this contest, that form could be reversed now that the second and third finishes have race fitness on their side. While that success came as a surprise for Svedov, Art Master had looked set for greater things when scoring in the Listed Prix de Pontarme at this course and G3 Prix de la Jonchere at Chantilly at three and when delivering a highly impressive finishing burst to take the G3 Prix du Palais Royal on his only four-year-old start at Longchamp last May. He bids to provide Andre Fabre with his fourth renewal of this race since 1991. Helios Quercus was a top-class juvenile, winning the G1 Criterium International over course and distance, but the wheels came off the wagon last term and only two listed races fell his way. His return, however, hinted that he might regain lost glories. Special Kaldoun faces a stiff task as he attempts to defy a penalty in a race in which he has finished off the board the last three seasons. Nevertheless, he is a solid performer at this level on his day and is looking for his seventh group success. He ran with his usual enthusiasm when runner-up to Kendor Dine in the G3 Prix Exbury over 10 furlongs over this circuit last time Mar. 8.

Birkspiel, bidding to extend his winning sequence, kicked off with a 2 1/2-length defeat of Bailamos in the Apr. 14 G3 Grosser Preis der Bremer Wirtschaft on his seasonal bow. He faces last year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Nicaron, who could find the resultant burden for his Hamburg exploits hampering him in these contests this term. He failed to add to his tally last summer, finishing a tame eighth in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden in September either side of a pair of fourths in the G1 Rheinland-Pokal and G1 Preis von Europa over this track and trip in August and September. Tough fillies tend to hold their own against the colts in this country's leading events; Wurfscheibe warrants respect based on her defeat of Saldentigerin (Ger) in the G3 Frankfurter Stutenpreis in October.

This trial for the May 27 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas sees the European return of last year's G2 Champagne S. dead-heater Silent Times. The three-year-old bids to get back on track after an aborted Triple Crown foray when down the field in the Mar. 25 GII Lane's End S. at Turfway Park. Second to Horatio Nelson (Ire) in the course-and-distance G2 Futurity S. last August, he could not be separated from Close to You (Ire) at Doncaster and has strong claims on that form. Aidan O'Brien has a remarkable recent record in this race, annexing no less than five of the last eight renewals, and relies on a duo headed by Hurricane Cat. He took the G3 Horris Hill S. when last seen at Newbury in October and is the choice of Kieren Fallon.

KINGS POINT H.

Always a fan favorite in New York, the 2003 GI Kentucky Derby and Preakness S. winner Funny Cide was sent off odds-on in this restricted event, but he had to work hard to get the win. The gelding, now six, was in search of his first victory since capturing the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup in the fall of 2004, but showed some fire in his latest, running a game second to West Virginia in the Apr. 1 GIII Excelsior Breeders' Cup H. at the Big A. Sent out to lead the way here under jockey Richard Migliore, Funny Cide was alone on the lead through slow :24 2/5, :49 and 1:13

4/5 fractions. Drifting a bit wide as he cornered for home, he allowed room for Win With Beck to come to his inside as Gold and Roses rallied to his outside. Win With Beck flattened out and faded out of it, but Gold and Roses looked a sure winner as he established a narrow lead at the furlong grounds. Funny Cide fought back gamely, though, and was edging away as they hit the wire. "We went so slow, that he almost went to sleep, and he was idling so much that they were getting to me," said Migliore. "I started to ask him and he didn't pick it up right away. To be honest, I panicked a little. I turned my stick over and hit him before he was ready for it. I kind of took him out of his game; like he was saying 'Whoa, what do you want?' I stopped, gathered him up and got to riding him again. My little bit of worry almost cost us. I should have been more confident." Added winning trainer Barclay Tagg, "The idea of this race was to give him some confidence, and I think that worked. I don't have a spot picked out for him. We'll enjoy this one."

No Reason, second in the Fifth Avenue division of the New York Stallion series last fall, won against statebred allowance foes in her first test beyond two turns over the inner Jan. 22. Tried against open company last time, she tired badly in the Busher S. Feb. 26 and came home sixth, beaten 12 lengths, and after the breather was returning to restricted company as a rank outsider. Jockey Channing Hill was in no hurry early, keeping No Reason settled in sixth, before moving her wide for the drive to the wire. The pair came charging down the middle of the lane, collared the pacesetting Little Miss Zip and, after scrumming with that reluctant foe in the final eighth, began to inch away late.

Prince of Peace crossed the line first in a statebred maiden sprinting over the Big A's inner Mar. 1, but was placed second by the stewards for interference. Racing at this seven-furlong distance last time Apr. 1, he came home an even fourth, and was disregarded at 14-1 in his first foray into stakes company. Sitting off the pace as even-money chalk One Way Flight (Precise End) was softened up through :22 2/5 and :44 4/5 fractions, he rallied on the outside of his rival and got up in the shadow of the wire.

Returning here in open company, the David Cassidy homebred, a 9-2 chance, was never far back and showed a nice turn of foot in the final eighth, sprinting away to win by two lengths. Now with Christophe Clemente, the bay was offered a 2-1 chance to succeed in her U.S. bow and, as a first-time Lasix user, didn't disappoint. Zaynab was settled in fifth through the opening six furlongs, angled wide for the drive and outfinished favored Nice Nelly (Seattle Slew) for the 1 3/4-length tally. Let go at 8-1 taking on winners here, he broke alertly and was quickly in front, setting sensible :23 3/5 and :48 4/5 splits while maintaining a clear advantage. The Darley colorbearer wheeled into the stretch up by 3 1/2 lengths and won by that margin as jockey Eibar Coa kept him to task down the lane. Coming into this with several solid drills on the main track, the Adena homebred was rated off the pace as Saviano (Fusaichi Pegasus) raced out to lead by as much as seven lengths. Above Spirit, at 5-1, whittled away at that advantage around the far turn, turned up the heat in tandem with Judd (Kissin Kris) a furlong out and got up to take the three-horse photo by a nose on the line. The latter came calling down the lane and surged past to prevail by 2 1/2 lengths. Flyaway Princess sold for $17,000 as an OBSAPR two-year-old and, two months later, for $20,000 at the OBSJUN sale. SUMMER ROMANCE (f, 3, Deputy Minister--Catalina Court, by Forty Niner), a $340,000 KEESEP yearling, was entered as a main-track only runner and got in when heavy rains drenched the Louisville area. The chestnut, a wire-to-wire maiden winner at Calder Dec. 30, was trying to rebound off a dismal eighth-place showing in a one-mile Gulfstream allowance Feb. 1. The 9-1 shot raced in the five path up the backstretch and continued to race wide as she split foes on the turn. The appropriately named Napa Cat, owned by wine magnate Jess Jackson's Stonestreet Stables, had a long series of morning drills dating back to February and was no secret here as the crowd's 4-5 choice. The $800,000 KEESEP yearling raced well off the rail tracking the leaders, ranged up to challenge nearing the quarter pole, took a narrow lead over Inca King (Sir Cat) a furlong out and inched away to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Inca King was second, with Southwestern Heat (Gone West), the first offspring of champion Xtra Heat, another three lengths back in third. The winner's entry mate Carson Camp (Carson City) was scratched. From the family of successful sire Belong to Me, Napa Cat is out of graded winner Compassionate, a daughter of MGISW Adored. Summer Girlfriend broke her maiden over this strip last October and added an allowance win three weeks later, then was put away for the winter. In her sophomore debut, the dark bay was a good second sprinting in a five-furlong allowance at Woodbine Apr. 9 and was looking to improve facing last year's champion juvenile filly in Canada, Knights Templar. Put on the lead under Gerry Olguin, Summer Girlfriend set :23 and :46 3/5 fractions, carried a 2 1/2-length lead into the stretch and held the champ clear to the wire. Da Stoops showed promise in a game second to Your Tent or Mine in last year's seven-furlong GIII Hollywood Prevue S. Responding to the drop to state-bred company in the California Breeders' Champion S. at Santa Anita Dec. 26, the dark bay crushed rivals by an emphatic eight lengths. A runaway winner off the bench in the restricted Sunshine Millions

Dash Jan. 28, he showed some early speed, but wilted late to finish a well-beaten third in the off-the-turf Baldwin S. Mar. 4.

A much improved second in the 6 1/2-furlong San Pedro S. Apr. 9, the colt went off second choice for the stretch out. Up to press the early pace set by Scootin George, Da Stoops took over a furlong out and drew off to win by daylight. Favored Sam's Ace (In Exces {Ire}) was pulled up on the backstretch and was vanned off. Da Stoops worked in advance of the Snow Chief in tandem with another well-regarded Baffert trainee, Point Determined, who is slated to start in Saturday's Kentucky Derby. "[Da Stoops] took the inside and we gave him a head start," explained Baffert. "Point Determined caught up with him and they galloped out really strong. I think that really set him up for this race." Baffert added that the dark bay may make his next start in the GI Preakness S. May. 20. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Last year's GI Hollywood Gold Cup H. winner Lava Man began his year with a victory in the restricted Sunshine Millions Classic at Santa Anita Jan. 28, then captured the second Grade I of his career with a victory in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 4. Trainer Doug O'Neill gave him a bit of time off after that, and opted to bring him back here in a reasonably soft spot. The only question was how Lava Man would take to the grass, a surface over which he sported a modest record of three wins in nine starts. The question was answered soon after the break as he took it right to the pacesetter Skywalker Red, dueling that rival into submission as they left the backstretch. Turning on the jets from there, he opened up at will and bounded clear to win in record time of 1:44 1/5. "An incredible horse," said O'Neill. "Corey [jockey Nakatani] just had him going easy, he knew where he was and what kind of horse he had underneath him, and the time was just unbelievable." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Proposed established herself as one of the better fillies in California late last year with a victory in the GI El Encino S. in mid-January and a second in the GI Santa Maria H. Feb. 11. Favored in her latest, the GI Santa Margarita H. at Santa Anita Mar. 11, she faltered down the lane to be fourth and was looking to regroup here returning to restricted company. A well-bet 2-5 chalk, she overtook the dueling pair of Somethinaboutlaura and Vikki's Honor in upper stretch and needed only a hand ride to secure the facile win. The last time Memorette visited the winner's circle, it was as a juvenile following a game victory in the 2004 renewal of the California Breeders Champion S. Despite going winless in eight starts last term, she kept some pretty impressive company and raced admirably, hitting the board in the Sunshine Million Oaks, GI Las Virgenes S., GI Santa Anita Oaks, GI Ashland S., and GI Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks. Put on the lawn over the summer, the dark bay finished sixth in the GI American Oaks in July before dead-heating for second in the GI San Clemente H. later that month. Rested after that, she returned to be third in a grassy Santa Anita allowance Feb. 26 and most recently was fifth vs. similar company Mar. 31. The crowd's third choice here, Memorette raced under cover in mid-pack, then came flying down the lane to get up and hand the game Dancing Edie a narrow defeat. Odds-on Moscow Burning loomed a threat in mid-stretch, but tired late.

Lucky J. H. finished second in the restricted Snow Chief S. at Santa Anita back in April of 2005, but went missing for nearly 10 months following the race. Showing no signs of rust when he returned, the bay earned a career-best 104 Beyer taking a one-mile open allowance at Santa Anita Feb. 20. Eager early under Victor Espinoza, the bay was finally given his head leaving the turn and quickly ranged up to join the pacesetter Areyoutalkintome, bumping with that foe at the furlong grounds. The two continued to fight hard to the line, with Lucky J.H. getting the win by a head. Stewards reviewed the bumping incident in mid-stretch, but let the order stand.

Swiss Address was impressive in a 6 1/2-length maiden win as a juvenile in May of 2004, but was promptly shelved for the next 19 months. The chestnut overcame trouble at the start in his return to get up for second in a Hollywood allowance last December, but showed little in his latest, a fifth sprinting six furlongs at Santa Anita Mar. 24, and was let got at 10-1 in his stakes bow. Breaking widest of all from post nine, Swiss Address was content to lay off a hot pace, but kicked into gear when it counted most and ran past the favorite Catouttathebag to win going away.

Proudest Moment came home a winner in her first start of the year in $25,000 claiming company over a wet-fast Bay Meadows track and could only manage a third-place finish when bumped up to a six-furlong Golden Gate allowance test in the slop Feb. 26. A close second after setting the early pace over that track and trip Mar. 18, the bay ran a similar type of race in her latest against state-bred foes at Santa Anita Apr. 5. The 8-1 shot took command early, held the advantage all the way around and had enough left in reserve to collect her first stakes victory.

Tyrolean Empress sprang the 24-1 upset in this stakes for state-bred maidens. Coming off a second-place effort against open $80,000 maidens at Santa Anita Apr. 13, the chestnut dueled through quick :21 2/5 and :44 2/5 splits, was headed by Tiz a Gem (Cee's Tizzy) in the stretch, but fought back gamely to notch the victory.

Boocfuss had faced the starter 10 times before this race for maidens, with just a pair of thirds and a second to his credit. Both of those thirds came in his last two outings, however, at Santa Anita Mar. 15 and Apr. 8, and Boocfuss picked a good time to put his best hoof forward. Among the trailers through the opening quarter, he began picking off foes around the turn and, continuing his momentum through the stretch run, got up to best One Dixie by a desperate nose.

HOLLAND FOR LA CHUNGA

Darryll Holland will partner Sir Robert Ogden's La Chunga (More than Ready) in Sunday's G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket, connections revealed yesterday. Trainer Jeremy Noseda yesterday confirmed the booking for last year's G3 Albany S. winner and G2 Lowther S. runner-up, who enjoyed a racecourse gallop at Newmarket last Thursday. "Darryll Holland will ride her in the 1000 Guineas," he said. "She will do one more piece of work this week. The weather forecast suggests fast ground and that will suit her. We will have to take it on trust that she'll get the trip, but she seems in good order and we hope that she'll run a good, solid race."

3--Valentina Guest (Ire), 124, m, 5, Be My Guest--Karamiyna (Ire), by Shernazar (Ire). €5,000.

Margins: 1, 2, 2HF. Odds: 1-2, 8-1, 12-1.

Also ran: Cairdeas (Ire), Imperial Rose (Ire), Subtle Affair (Ire), Fuerta Ventura (Ire). Scratched: Princess Nala (Ire).

Kastoria, who debuted Wexford last June, has never been out of the first two and developed rapidly into a smart distaffer, winning the Listed Galtres S. at York in August and finishing runner-up to Sweet Stream (Ity) in the G2 Park Hill S. at Doncaster the next month. Again second to Oiseau Rare (Fr) in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp on her last start in October, she returned with an altogether easier task here and had more in hand over her stable companion Virginia Woolf than the official margin suggests. Settled towards the rear by Mick Kinane throughout the early stages, she swooped wide to lead with 1½ furlongs remaining and only needed the whip in the final 50 yards when idling.

Gowran Park, 3.15, Mdn, 16,847, 3yo, f, 1mT, 1:41.20, gd.

MICHIKABU (IRE) (f, 3, Grand Lodge--Mood Indigo {Ire}, by Indian Ridge {Ire}) played the bridesmaid in maidens at Leopardstown in November and at The Curragh on her return Apr. 9. Hammered down to 1-2 to graduate, she was up to lead early before settling for the lead at the halfway marker. Taking over again at the top of the straight, she was driven out to best Deauville Vision (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, 19,747. O/B-Ballylinch Stud; T-Dermot Weld.

A @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner and an + will first-time starters.

Navan, 3.30, Mdn, 16,847, 2yo, f, 5fT, 1:03.20, gd/fm.

NOBLE CITY (IRE) (f, 2, Titus Livius {Fr}--Peak Viewing {Ire}, by Sri Pekan), third on debut at The Curragh Apr. 9, stalked the early pace before finding a golden rail passing the quarter pole. In front soon after, the 15-8 pick, who was a €20,000 GOFORB yearling purchase, was driven out to beat Spirit of Pearl (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) by 2 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, 13,747.
