HANGING IN THE BALANCE

Thunder Gulch walked away with the Roses in 1995 and today, his three-year-old daughter Balance will try and give her daddy his first winner in the fillies' equivalent in the G1 Kentucky Oaks at Churchill Downs. Never out of the money in seven lifetime starts, the bay kicked off her career with three straight wins, including the Sharp Cat S. at Hollywood, before finishing a half-length runner-up in the G1 Hollywood Starlet S. Starting off 2006 the right way, the Kentucky-bred reeled off wins in the G1 Las Virgenes S. and G1 Santa Anita Oaks, but failed to show her usual kick last time in Keeneland's Apr. 8 G1 Ashland S. CHAMPION FOLKLORE RETIRED

Last year's Juvenile filly champion Folklore (Tiznow-Contrive, by Storm Cat) has been retired because of a stress fracture in her knee, trainer D. Wayne Lukas confirmed yesterday. Robert Lewis, who campaigned the filly with his wife Beverly in 2005, died earlier this year. Winner of the G1 Matron S. and GII Adirondack S. earlier in 2005, the bay concluded her juvenile campaign with an emphatic victory in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Belmont Park. "We're going to retire her," Folklore Adam Coglianese Lukas told the Lexington Herald-Leader Thursday. "We wouldn't have to but, according to the best veterinarians we could find, they said we were about 30 days away from putting her back in serious training and they thought it would compromise her form and she wouldn't be as good as she was. When we started evaluating what we'd have to do to bring her back, we all said, 'That's it.' She's already accomplished everything." In her final start, the filly finished third in the GII Santa Ynez S. at Santa Anita Jan. 16. The filly retires with four wins from eight career starts and earnings of $945,500.

HANDLING THE HOODOO

No favorite has won the G1 2000 Guineas since Zafonic in 1993 and tomorrow the onus will be on Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill), as he faces 13 rivals in a stellar renewal of the Newmarket Classic. Last year's G1 Phoenix S. and G1 National S. winner will be joined by Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill) and Tabor, Magnier and Smith's G3 Killavullan S. victor Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway) as part of a three-pronged Ballydoyle attack on the mile contest, which boasts four individual Group 1 winners and the top six in the 2005 European Two-Year-Old Rankings. Kieren Fallon, looking for his fourth success since 2000, will launch the crowd's choice from stall six, while Mick Kinane, who captured the Guineas for trainer Aidan O'Brien on King of Kings (Ire) in 1998, will exit from the 11 hole. cont. p3

LAWYER RON SALE FINALIZED

Audry Haisfield's Our Legal Team has purchased a majority interest in Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr), one of the early favorites in Saturday's Kentucky Derby. "On behalf of the Hines Estate, it was a difficult decision to make," said Ron Bamberger, executor of the estate. "They realize the pros and cons of owning a horse. It was a joint decision by interested family members and myself as executor that this was the course to take." Winner of the Apr. 15 GII Arkansas Derby, the chestnut also won this year's GIII Rebel S., GIII Risen Star S. and Southwest S. Lawyer Ron, the 4-1 co-second choice on the morning line, will run in the name and silks of the Estate of James T. Hines Jr. Upon his retirement, the colt will take up stud duties at Haisfield's Stonewall Farm near Versailles, Kentucky.

Burning Bush...

Confirmed front-runner Bushfire (Louis Quatorze), who won in a gallop over Wait a While (Maria's Mon) and Balance (Thunder Gulch) in the Apr. 8 GI Ashland S., will attempt to collect her second consecutive Grade I in today's Oaks. "She's as good or even better than she's ever been," said trainer Eddie Kenneally. A narrow winner in her 2006 debut in a Gulfstream allowance, the filly foundered, finishing seventh, in a sloppy edition of the GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 4, but rebounded to take the Mar. 18 Florida Oaks at Tampa. Ready to roll on the front end here, the filly fired a sharp :47 2/5 final time in her latest workout at Keeneland Apr. 29. "She can be aggressive when she gallops, but her exercise rider [Desi Farrell] knows how to switch her off. That's why I bring her out late..It's quieter. She's very competitive."

Waiting List...

Once again represented by a live challenger, trainer Todd Pletcher, who will saddle Bluegrass Cat and Keyed Entry in tomorrow's Derby, will be represented by GII Davona Dale S. heroine Wait a While here. Although winless in two subsequent starts, including a distant second to Bushfire in the GI Ashland S. Apr. 8, the roan looks to get back on track with the help of Pletcher's new go-to man, Garrett Gomez.

☆ 2000 GUINEAS ☆

Strong Supporting Cast...

Anthony Pakenham's unbeaten Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), who will start from stall four, will bid to become only the second winner of the G1 Dewhurst S. to come back to Newmarket and win since 1995. Great things were hardly expected of the son of the 1996 Guineas hero when bought for just 16,000 guineas at Tattersalls, but Sir Percy defied his pedigree and humble price tag with scores at Goodwood and Salisbury before heading back to the former venue to annex the G2 Vintage S. in July. After a near three-month break, he returned to best Horatio Nelson by a neck in the Dewhurst, form that has solid foundations due to the presence of the third and fourth, Opera Cape (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) and Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom). After some stellar workouts at home and at Newbury, connections are feeling the strain. "There's so much hype and a lot is expected of [Sir Percy], but we know he is in brilliant hands," commented Victoria Pakenham. "It's incredible how much publicity he's getting--he looks sensational and [trainer] Marcus [Tregoning] and his team have got him to a perfect pitch."

Hills' Triple Threat...

Trainer Barry Hills, who doubled his tally in the race two years ago with Haafhd (GB), will saddle three and jockey Michael Hills has chosen to ride John Grant's G3 Craven S. winner Killybegs (Ire) (Orpen). Jamie Spencer will take the ride on Bill Gredley's Olympian Odyssey (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and he is hopeful of a bold show from the Listed Fielden S. runner-up. "He worked very well yesterday and he went very nicely," Spencer said. "He's a lovely horse and he ran a good race at Newmarket--he was unfortunate not to win and it should have left him right for this weekend. I would say he has a good each-way chance, but it looks a very competitive Guineas." Richard Hills will partner Ronnie Arculli's G3 Greenham S. winner Red Clubs (Ire) (Red Ransom) and he said of the colt, "He has got a good draw in box three and the stalls are in the middle. Red Clubs is stepping up to a mile for the first time, but he is quite a laid-back horse and most of my father's horses tend to stay, so I don't think the distance is any concern at all."

Race Another Day...

There were no surprises among the scratchings, with O'Brien ruling out Amadeus Mozart (Ire) (Mozart {Ire}) and James Joyce (Ire) (Danahill), Jim Bolger withdrawing Heliostatic (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Hughie Morrison the maiden Supaseus (GB) (Spinning World). With the weather forecast changeable, Clerk of the Course Michael Prosser was weighing up his options yesterday. "It is getting up to 24 degrees today and the ground is quickening up all the time," he said. "The rain is still due, albeit 24 hours later than we were forecast earlier in the week. Unless there is another change in the forecast tomorrow morning which indicates that the thundery rain will not hit us after all, I will not be watering the course. It is out of the question to do so with the weather forecast as it stands." Prosser also confirmed that the stalls would be placed in the middle of the track.

Datrick was pounded down to 4-5 favoritism in his debut going a sixteenth shorter at Keeneland Apr. 12 and did not disappoint, winning by 7 1/2 lengths. Sharp during a four-panel work, going

Datrick Reed Palmer

:48 flat over this Louisville oval Apr. 29, the dark bay went off the 5-2 second choice to record his first graded stakes victory. Up to press the crisp early fractions carved out by Sentry, the Texas-bred overtook the tiring leader and had enough to put away the slow-closing Pro Pink.

Trainer Steve Asmussen, who saddled four of 12 entries in this year's race, was happy with the performances of winner Datrick and third-place finisher Sentry, but was less-than pleased with favored Sequoia King's sixth. "I'm disappointed that Sequoia King broke and made a left turn like he did," said Asmussen. "Garrett Gomez [on Sequoia King] did an amazing job staying on. [Sequoia King] was is in the gate a long time and was probably just distracted when it came time to break. He came back fine." According to Asmussen, the winner will be pointed for the five-furlong TTA Sales Futurity at Lone Star Park June 10. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

TWO DERBY RUNNERS RACING FOR EDUCATION Two Kentucky Derby contenders, Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory) and Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat),

Bluegrass Cat

will be running Saturday for The Race For Education's Nomination Program, which funds scholarships for young people in the racing industry. As part of the program, a portion of the horses' earnings will go to the non-profit. The Race for Education aims to improve the quality of life for farm and track workers' families through education, and to attract people to careers in the Thoroughbred industry. Keyed Entry is owned by Starlight Stable LLC, Paul H. Saylor and Donald Lucarelli. Bluegrass Cat is a WinStar Farm homebred. Both runners are trained by Todd Pletcher. "Our sole reason for nominating Keyed Entry to The Race For Education is to raise as much money as possible for the organization," said Paul Saylor, who is a member of The Race For Education's Board of Directors. "Education is extremely important for the future of our industry, and The Race For Education is the only national scholarship program set up to serve the racing industry."

A 4 1/4-length allowance winner over track and trip June 26, Unbridled Sidney defeated Mocha Queen by 6 3/4 lengths in the July 9 Zenobia Empress H., but faltered late to be third in Woodbine's GIII Royal North H. Aug. 1. Second by a head in the Pent Up Kiss H. over this distance Nov. 12, the bay returned to be seventh in the Spring Fever S. on the Oaklawn main track Mar. 4 and was a disappointing sixth in the Giant's Causeway S. at Keeneland Apr. 22. Unbridled Sidney was up to challenge Very Vegas for the early lead, kept grinding at the frontrunner and got her nose down on the money. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Exciting Metro, third in Aqueduct's Brutally Frank S. Jan. 8, was given some time to regroup following a fifth in an optional claimer over the inner track Feb. 19. The dark bay had his head in front after a quarter in :21 3/5, but lost a bit of ground to pace rivals Kelly's Landing and Pro Prado. Jockey Rene Douglas kept after him and the five-year-old battled back along the rail to prevail in a thriller.

Stadore had never been worse than second in six outings for trainer Jean-Claude Rouget in France last year, concluding her tenure there with a victory in the Listed Criterium de l'Ouest at Craon Sept. 5. Favored in her U.S. bow against her elders, the bay filly raced four wide while in striking distance. She made her move in the lane, seized the lead passing the eighth pole and fended off Island Escape's late bid.

Claimed for $62,500 out of a runner-up finish over course and distance last May 25, Engineered earned back part of that investment with a half-length score in an $80,000 optional claimer over 7 1/2 panels June 17, but was last seen finishing fourth going two turns over this dirt July 4. The second favorite in this open affair and entered for the claiming tag, he was content to race well off the pace, charged seven wide off the final turn and was along late for the win.

Favored at 8-5 to validate both performances, the half to Silverfoot (With Approval), MGSW & GISP, $582,745, pressed the pace from the outside, took command approaching the stretch and pulled away to win it by 2 3/4 lengths from Overland Trail (Gone West). Runner-up routing over the Keeneland turf last Apr. 13, Not Phone defeated Sir Greeley in a local one-mile turf allowance May 11 and made it two straight in a seven-furlong event June 11. The dark bay was rested thereafter and had just one start to his credit since, a close fourth to the ill-fated Funfair (GB) in the GII Kelso BC H. Oct. 2. Favored in his eight-year-old bow, Not Phone saved ground from midpack, got through along the inside in the lane and held sway to account for Storm Creek Rising. Rathor took back-to-back starts on the turf at Pontefract July 5 and at Nottingham 18 days later, but was a well-beaten sixth in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury Aug. 11. Fifth in York handicap company Oct. 7, the dark bay was sidelined, returning to take his main-track bow going six furlongs over the inner track Mar. 10. Odds-on to take the next step, the homebred was rated off a fast early pace before switching out for the drive. He came in under a right-handed stick, bumping with Mayan King and forcing that one to take up, but stayed on for the win. After conducting an inquiry into the incident, stewards allowed the result to stand.

HIGH FINANCE (c, 3, Talk Is Money--Margay, by Conquistador Cielo) ran into some monsters at Gulfstream this winter, finishing third to Showing Up Feb. 11 and runner-up to last weekend's GIII Withers S. winner Bernardini Mar. 4. In his most recent appearance, the chestnut took a seven-furlong Keeneland allowance by 9 1/4 lengths Apr. 15. One of two sophomores in this field, the $72,000 KEENOV weanling and $120,000 FTKJUL yearling was unruly and broke through the gate prior to the start. Reloaded without incident, the 1-2 chalk scampered to the early lead and opened up under a hand ride to score by 5 1/2 lengths. Forest Phantom (Running Stag) was second best. CAPOTE'S CROWN (f, 3, Capote--Majesty's Crown, by Magesterial) graduated at first asking at this track Oct. 2 and was a good second in the GIII Tempted S. Oct. 30 before going away. She'd failed to impress in two starts at Gulfstream this season, finishing sixth going six panels Feb. 24 and fourth at a mile Mar. 30. A 9-2 chance to get back in the win column, the half to Smoke Glacken (Two Punch), Ch. Sprinter, GISW, $759,560; and Smokey Glacken (Forestry), MGSW, $437,660, attended the pace from the inside, responded when roused and kicked away to score by 6 1/4 lengths. Menu Varnish (Mr. Greeley) completed the exacta. The winner was a $170,000 KEESEP yearling purchase. Lifetime Record: GSP, 5-2-1-0, $76,780. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. O-Eldon Farm LLC. TAP GOLD (f, 4, Pleasant Tap--Color of Gold, by Seeking the Gold) debuted with a second-place finish by a neck going seven furlongs at Aqueduct last Apr. 8, but went missing off a runner-up finish to subsequent GISW Sweet Symphony at this track May 12. The $60,000 KEENOV weanling was bet down to even-money for her Mar. 10 return to action over the Aqueduct inner, but was clearly in need of the race, finishing a distant fourth. Stretching out for this as the 2-1 second choice, the dark bay attended the pace from the outside, was roused to the front at the eighth pole and inched away for a one-length success. JUST PRECISION (f, 3, Stormin Fever--Jerry Bomb, by Explosive Bid) debuted sprinting over this turf course Sept. 11, but was forced into a wide trip throughout and finished an even seventh. Given plenty of time to recover and making her first start for this barn, the dark bay was the slight 5-2 favorite in the wagering. Sent up to dispute the pace three wide, the $50,000 FTKJUL yearling and $200,000 OBSMAR juvenile was guided to the inside for the drive and was joined to her outside by first-time starter Roshani (Fantastic Light), but dug in very gamely and held on by a nose. COSTUME DESIGNER (m, 5, Capote--Ravnina, by Nureyev), sidelined since January 2005, returned with a distant fourth against similar company in an off-the-turfer at Santa Anita Feb. 16, but fared better, coming home third in a 6 1/2-furlong turf allowance over that track Mar. 16. Sent off the 9-5 choice to record her first victory since November 2004, the dark bay mare tracked the early pace in third, closed in on early leader Ugotadewhatugotado (Jazzing Around) in deep stretch and forged past that foe late to take it by a half length. WARRSAN RETIRED Saeed Manana's four-time Group 1 winner Warrsan (Ire) (Caerleon--Lucayan Princess {Ire}, by High Line {GB}) has been retired from racing, it was announced yesterday. Trainer Clive Brittain revealed that the eight-year-old, successful in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom in 2003 and 2004 and in the last two renewals of the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden, was being retired due to wear-and-tear to his joints. "It was a very easy decision to make," Brittain said yesterday. "We'd given him a good break during the winter and he appeared to return in good form, but on Monday morning we detected some heat in a joint and when we had him X-rayed, there was a little chip in the back of the sesamoid in a very awkward position. It would have meant surgery and there was no guarantee of success, so the decision was taken very quickly." Warrsan, who was campaigned over five seasons, was also successful in the 2003 G2 Jockey Club S. at Newmarket and finished runner-up in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano and third in the G1 Hong Kong Vase that season, as well as finishing second in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown the following year. "With Warrsan, you had a fighter who would give you 100 percent and you can't ask for more than that," Brittain added. "Epsom is a very unforgiving course, but he was tough enough to survive and go back and win again." Warrsan, whose stud arrangements have yet to be confirmed, won nine of his 43 lifetime starts and amassed a total of £1,118,854 in prize money.

ASCOT TEMPT FAR EASTERN JEWELS Officials at Ascot racecourse are in the process of securing the presence of some of Japan and Hong Kong's finest performers at the Royal meeting, which comes home to its traditional venue in June. Nick Smith, head of public relations at the venue, yesterday announced that Kaneko Makoto Holdings' sensation Deep Impact (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) could be at the Royal meet for the June 21 G1 Prince of Wales's S. "We're hoping to see Deep Impact over the summer," he said. Last year's Japanese Triple Crown and G1 Tenno Sho hero is also lined up for the July 29 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S., which compatriot and G1 Arima Kinen conqueror Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) is set to contest. Featuring among the entries for the June 24 G1 Golden Jubilee S. are the world-class Hong Kong sprinters Silent Witness (Aus) (El Moxie) and Cape of Good Hope (GB) (Inchiner {GB}), the latter chasing back-to-back renewals. "Rome wasn't built in a day, and it's really important when attracting horses of the caliber of Deep Impact and Silent Witness that when they come over here they are taking on the very best in the world." Smith also confirmed that the first meeting at the course May 27 would not mark the official opening day. "We won't be at our absolute best immediately and people will live with that," he explained. "Everything is being geared to the Tuesday of Royal Ascot June 20 and the grand opening ceremony."

7.25p Cork, Mdn, €16,352, 3yo, f, 10f 50ydsT
KUSHNARENKOVO (GB) (Sadler's Wells) is a sister to the 2003 G1 St Leger winner Brian Boru (GB) and smart listed scorer Kitty O'Shea (GB) and like that talented duo, emanates from the Aidan O'Brien stable. Susan Magnier's colorbearer excelled herself on her return when third in the Listed Salsabil S. at Leopardstown Apr. 15, doing her best work at the finish and has a maiden like this well within her compass.

PEARLY KING (c, 3, Kingmambo--Mother of Pearl {Ire} {GSW-Fr}, by Sadler's Wells), who graduated at Yarmouth Apr. 17, holds an entry in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh July 2 and was sent off the 8-13 favorite. Settled last of the four runners off steady early fractions, he picked up when switched to the outside to grind down Nihal (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) in the final 150 yards and score by a neck. Pearly King was a $200,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £11,593. O-Gainsborough Stud; B-Swettenham Stud; T-Sir Michael Stoute.

KARAYEL (IRE) (c, 2, Fasliyev--Madamaa {Ire}, by Alzao), runner-up in a Nottingham maiden on debut Apr. 22, broke well and stalked the early pace. Finding a split up the rail as the long-time leader See in the Dark (Ire) (Night Shift) veered right at halfway, the 5-2 second choice seized the advantage passing the quarter pole before holding that rival's rally by 3/4 of a length. Karayel was a €22,000 GOFORB yearling. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, £4,201. O-Kemal Kurt; B-Stall A and R; T-Richard Hannon.

CHAMPS ELYSEES (GB) (c, 3, Danehill--Hasili {Ire} {SW-Fr}, by Kahyasi {Ire}) came here off two thirds at Maisons-Laffitte Nov. 21 and Apr. 12, respectively, and was expected to follow family tradition with an improved performance on this better ground. Reserved off the pace from the outset, the regally bred 11-10 favorite responded to urging in the straight and was pushed out inside the closing panel to best Mezel (Grand Slam) by a cozy two lengths. Champs Elysees is a full brother to Dansili (GB) (Hwt. Older Horse-Eng & Fr at 7-9.5f, MGSW & MG1SP-Fr, G1SP-Eng & US, $552,023); Banks Hill (GB) (Ch.
