G'DAY FOR BALLYDOYLE

Aidan O'Brien's colts have taken time to catch fire this term, but after George Washington (Ire) marked a reversal of fortunes in the 2000 Guineas at Newmarket last Saturday, it was Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor & Faisal Salman's Aussie Rules (Danehill) who opened the floodgates when completing a Classic double in yesterday's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp. Last year's G3 Somerville Tattersall S. winner had looked a work in progress when demoted to fifth behind Stormy River (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}) in the Apr. 23 G3 Prix de Fontainebleau over this track and trip, but he made the step forward to reverse that form under a daring ride from Kieren Fallon. Sent off the 11-4 second choice behind that rival, he had it all to do on the rail as the 5-6 pick drew to the front soon into the straight. His rider was sticking to the fence and his bravado paid off as he ground his way to a half-length success over Marcus Andronicus (Ire) (Danehill). Cont. p2

TIE BLACK AFFAIR

If the protests that delayed the card at Longchamp were not enough, the racing provided its own share of drama yesterday when Javier Gispert's 9-1 shot Tie Black (Ire) (Machiavellian) was awarded the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 1000 Guineas) upon the disqualification of Khalid Abdullah's Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Although she never actually got her head in front during the mile Classic, Tie Black was handed the prize due to Price Tag's drift across the eventual third Impressionnante (GB) (Danehill) in the closing stages en route to her 1 1/2-length success. The demoted filly's trainer Pascal Bary was in a defiant mood afterwards. "This is a scandal," he said. "My filly was much the best in the race and my jockey made no mistake, so I just can't understand it." ### 'DYLAN' TAKES DERBY TRIAL

Susan Magnier's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) earned his first stakes victory yesterday when he crossed the line 1 1/2 lengths clear of Mountain (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial. "He's a big, honest horse and he had a good blow after," jockey Seamus Heffernan commented. "He could make up into a Derby horse and will handle Epsom. He stays and has a good attitude, so I'd be hopeful he'll make up into a top-class horse." Cont. p3

BOMBS AWAY IN THE ITALIAN 1000 GUINEAS

There was the sound of formbooks ripping after the G2 Premio Regina Elena Emirates Airline (Italian 1000 Guineas) as Windhuk (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) caused a 66-1 upset for Pierluigi Giannotti, who trains horses in the morning before taking up his occupation as a dentist in the afternoons. It was one length back to 63-1 Musa Golosa (GB) (Mujahid) in second. Cont. p5

Laying down the Rules...

Aussie Rules had a reputation that preceded his debut score in a Curragh maiden in June, but came unstuck on rain-softened ground at Goodwood when only fourth in the G2 Vintage S. the following month. Second to Abigail Pett (GB) in the G3 Round Tower S. at The Curragh in early September, he rebounded to deny Killybegs (Ire) in a thrilling finish to the Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket later that month. He had more than four lengths to make up on Stormy River from the Fontainebleau, but with Fallon in full effect, there was an inevitability to the result once he got daylight in the final furlong. Rolling by the tiring favorite in the last 100 yards, he was firmly on top as Christophe Soumillon drove his stable companion into the runner's-up spot in the final strides. "Kieren gave him a masterful ride," O'Brien added. "He discussed the race with Michael Tabor beforehand and he told him to stay on the inside, where the better ground was. The next target for him is the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club [French Derby at Chantilly June 4]." Protest Cancels Classic Action...

Yesterday's meeting at Longchamp, which featured the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, was delayed by over two hours by a crowd protest as a result of a strike by the track's Pari-Mutuel workers. On-track employees initiated the disruption when calling the strike minutes before racing was due to start, which resulted in a large number of racegoers blocking the walkway from the parade ring as an objection to the lack of betting opportunities. After negotiations between France Galop's Director-General Louis Romanet and the Tote operators' shop stewards, an agreement was reached to begin talks about the reduced opportunities for workers caused by the new betting machines. "We have agreed to have discussions in the near future," Romanet said. "We will hope to find the right balance between having enough people employed on the track and at the same time satisfy the desires of our betting public. The power of the unions is a French disease and we lose money with our on-course betting operation."

Price Tag finished first, but was disqualified to third. Tie Black entered this Classic with modest credentials, having recorded two provincial successes before running third in the Listed Prix Finlande over nine panels here Apr. 6. She showed that a mile was her forte when taking the Listed Prix Aymeri de Mauleon at Toulouse last time Apr. 25. Settled hard against the rail tracking the early leaders, she was full of run at the top of the straight and quickened to challenge inside the final quarter. Driven out by Jean-Bernard Eyquem, she was comfortably held by Price Tag and Thierry Thulliez, with Olivier Peslier and Impressionnante the chief sufferer sandwiched between the pair. Trainer Francois Rohaut, who was winning his second Pouliches in three years after saddling Torrestrella (Ire), would not comment on the stewards' decision. "My filly has run a great race," he said. "She had her ground and put up a real good performance, but she needs a break now and will be prepared for the G1 Prix d'Astarte [at Deauville July 30]." Bary revealed that the 28-1 shot Price Tag would be aimed at the June 23 G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot.

Also ran: Rocamadour (GB), Bening (Fr), Los Bonitos (Ger), Nonno Carlo (Ire).

Distant Way, fourth behind Groom Tesse in the G1 Derby Italiano here in May 2004, began to blossom last term, following easy scores in the Listed Premio Natale di Roma in April and Milan's Listed Premio Bereguardo in May, and a third in the G2 Premio Emilio Turati back at the San Siro the following month. It was at that track that he was uncharacteristically disappointing when down the field in the G1 Premio Vittorio di Capua in October, but he put that right the next month back at his beloved Capannelle when taking the G2 Premio Ribot. Kept to this venue since, he followed a facile conditions score Apr. 2 with a defeat of Ramonti (Ity) in the Listed Premio Signorino last time May 1. Detached in rear early, he allowed Soldier Hollow a two-length start in the straight, a tactic which looked dangerous as that rival arrived at the head of affairs full of run at the quarter pole. Mirco Demuro knew what was in the tank, however, and Distant Way duly quickened on demand to run him down in the final strides to win a shade cozily. While Aidan O'Brien was overseeing his team at Longchamp, Dylan Thomas and Mountain were holding up the home front by providing Ballydoyle with a one-two in this often vital Classic prep. Graduating first time up at Tipperary last June, he overcame a three-month absence to best yesterday's G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen scorer Royal Power (Ire) in the Irish Breeders Foal Levy S. at this track. He found Blitzkrieg (Ire) a neck too strong in the G3 Autumn S. at Salisbury in early October and Doncaster's testing conditions against him when only sixth in the G1 Racing Post Trophy later that month. Always prominent under Seamus Heffernan, he took up the running on the turn into the stretch and quickly established a decisive advantage which Mountain and Colm O'Donoghue were unable to cut back in the closing stages, despite their game attempt.

Royal Power upset the home defence with a game defeat of the hot favorite Aspectus to provide owner Jaber Abdullah with his second renewal after the exploits of Royal Abjar in 1994. Off the mark in a Thirk maiden in June, Royal Power followed placed efforts in conditions and nursery company with a runner-up finish behind yesterday's G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial winner Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the Irish Breeders Foal Levy S. at Leopardstown in September. He was no match for Asset (Ire) when second on his return in the Apr. 1 Listed Easter S. at Kempton before filling the same spot behind Rattle and Hum (Ity) in the G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) at the Capannelle last time Apr. 23. Getting just rewards for his consistency, he was positioned close to the pace by Chris Catlin, who committed him approaching the quarter pole. Showing resolution from there, he dug in for a brave success over Aspectus, who lunged late, but just fell short.

Having won a seller in Livorno last May, Windhuk had already proven herself capable when winning the Listed Criterium Labronico there in August. However, she had finished off the board in three listed events last fall; the Premio Coolmore at the San Siro, and the Premio Ubaldo Pandolfi and the Criterium Femminile here. Raced solely in Pisa on her next four starts, she returned to form when second in the Listed Criterium di Pisa in December before enjoying a winter break. After failing to land a blow in a Mar. 5 conditions race and Listed Premio Pisa three weeks later, she got back to winning ways in a conditions event on her latest outing Apr. 2. Sticking to the rail deep in mid-division throughout, she was angled out at the top of the stretch as the field fanned out for the final drive. Rallying between the enterprisingly ridden Sabana Perdida and Musa Golosa, she led with a furlong remaining before pulling away under a drive.

Quelle Amore debuted in the Dusseldorf maiden won by subsequent G2 Pferdewetten.de-Stutenpreis (German 1000 Guineas) runner-up Almerita (Ger) in September and finished down the field, before graduating at Dresden the following month. Fourth on her return in the Listed Jean Harzheim-Rennen over this course and distance Apr. 17, she enjoyed a charmed trip to secure her place in the line-up for the June 4 G1 Preis der Diana at Dusseldorf. Settled on the inner stalking the early pace carved out by Souvenance, she found a golden rail as that rival drifted left under pressure to lead at the quarter pole. All out to hold her advantage late, the post came in time for Quelle Amore as last year's G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Nordtanzerin made inroads.

Having plied her trade in conditions events and handicaps, Latona earned a crack at some black type and duly won the Listed Prix de Saint-Cyr over seven furlongs at Chantilly in October. She found only Reve de Paix (GB) a half-length too strong in the Listed Prix Servanne over a panel shorter returned to that venue Apr. 24 and dropped back to the minimum trip to record this career-high. Showing she had the speed for this sharp test, she shadowed Matrix on the front end until passing that rival at halfway. Soon in command, she was driven out by Thierry Gillet to assert for a comfortable success.

The always-consistent High Button Shoes was on the board in six of eight coming into this race, but hadn't enjoyed stakes success--graded or otherwise--before yesterday. The chestnut concluded her 2005 season with a narrow victory in a seven-furlong allowance at Woodbine Dec. 9, then returned from a break to be second by a neck in the local six-furlong GIII Whimsical S. Apr. 16. The second choice this time to do one better, she kept close tabs on the leaders in third, then charged to the fore when jockey Todd Kabel gave her the go-ahead. Eventual runner-up Gold Strike rallied gamely from the back of the pack, but was never in danger of catching the winner.

 by Seamus Heffernan before being allowed to stride to the front with a quarter mile remaining. Challenged by Modeeroch soon after, she responded to her rider's urgings to hold that rival in the closing stages. "I really fancied her today and she won nicely," Heffernan said.
 "When I let her go at the two pole, she quickened up and then idled in front."

All carry 128 pounds.

Visindar steps forward to book his ticket to the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby in a trial won by the likes of Suave Dancer, Peintre Celebre, Croco Rouge (Ire), Montjeu (Ire), Act One (GB) and Dalakhani (Ire). Andre Fabre, who was responsible for five winners between 1989 and 1997, saddles half the field and will be looking for His Highness the Aga Khan's colt to extend his unbeaten record. Visindar, who only debuted at this track in November, has become the hottest property in town following a facile success in a conditions race at Longchamp Apr. 17 and connections are hoping he can make the grade. "The English Derby is a possibility, but he has to impress at Saint-Cloud," Fabre said. "I would prefer Epsom over Chantilly as the race has been so elusive for me, but the owner has won it so many times. He has not got much experience and Saint-Cloud will be only his third race and I expect him to win it really nicely--if not, he will stay in France."

Christophe Soumillon has the enviable task of steering the exciting prospect. "He is one of the favorites for the Derby and its been a long time since a French horse has been in a position like this," he said. "We'll see how he goes, but I hope he wins easily and gives us the confidence to come to Epsom." Barn mate Bremen lost out by a short head to Gentlewave (Ire) in the Apr. 17 G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp, form which looked better after fourth-place finisher Linda's Lad (GB) won Saturday's G3 Lingfield Derby Trial. Philippe Demercastel took this race 12 months ago with Vatori (Fr) and will be hoping that Zatonic can make amends for his luckless sixth in the G3 Prix la Force at Longchamp last time Apr. 23, while the Mar. 25 Toulouse conditions scorer Onerous represents the Jean-Claude Rouget stable successful twice since 2000.

☆ TRIPLE THREATS ☆

BAFFERT COLTS TO SKIP PREAKNESS

Bob and John (Seeking the Gold) and Point Determined (Point Given), 17th and ninth in the GI Kentucky Derby, will not run in Saturday's GI Preakness S., according to Daily Racing Form. "If something happened to Barbaro, then Bob and John might go," trainer Bob Baffert told the publication. "The window's open a crack, and only for that reason. Both of them might run in the Belmont. I don't want to hook Barbaro right now. We need to get him softened up after the Preakness." Both colts are scheduled to fly back to California today.

Bob and John
Sherackatthetrack

Zito's 'Key' Works at Saratoga...

Hemingway's Key (Notebook), off the board in four attempts this season including an eighth-place finish in the GII Lexington S. Apr. 22, worked five furlongs over the Saratoga training track Sunday in 1:00.28 in preparation for a tilt in the Preakness. "He's a horse that we always thought had the potential," said trainer Nick Zito. "I think if he has a good Preakness, then he could go on to the Belmont. He's much better than he's been showing. Barbaro obviously looks sensational off his last race, so we're just gonna try."

Klesaris Considering Diabolical for Preakness...

Diabolical (Artax), third behind Bluegrass Cat in last season's GIII Nashua S., may try his luck in the middle jewel of the Triple Crown, according to his connections. "It's a shorter field and the distance is a little shorter [than the Kentucky Derby]," Klesaris explained. "We still haven't made a decision to run, but it is under high consideration." Diabolical was last seen notching a Delaware allowance by 8 1/4 lengths Apr. 25.

Dave captured the West Point H. at Saratoga last August, but was off the board in a pair of stakes try at Belmont in the fall. He was put away after running 10th in the off-the-turf Mohawk H. Oct. 22. The bay made his return in an optional claimer on the turf at Aqueduct Apr. 28, missing by just a nose, and was stretching out an eighth in his second start of the season. Allowed to settle well off the early fractions, Dave launched his bid from the outside in the stretch and got past Golden Commander in the final yards. "It all worked out perfect," winning jockey Javier Castellano said. "I went around horses at the quarter pole and he was right there. With a horse like him, you have to move at the right moment."

KHALILA (f, 3, Elusive Quality--Indy Flash, by A.P. Indy) was tabbed a TDN Rising Star when she captured her Apr. 12 debut by four lengths sprinting at Aqueduct, a race that earned her a 104 BRIS figure. If that effort was impressive, her second start would be just as eye-catching, but it wouldn't go off without a hitch. Prior to the race, the Shadwell colorbearer was fractious in the paddock and threw a shoe. Efforts to re-shod the ram-bunctious filly were unsuccessful, and it was decided that, while she would still race, it would be for purse money only. That changed the betting scenario completely, as Khalila had been installed as the 2-5 morning-line pick, but affected the outcome not at all. Pressing the leader from an inside position, she took command in upper stretch and drew off at will to prevail by 10 1/4 lengths. Undeniable Queen (Concerto) bested 3-5 chalk Chili Cat (Storm Cat) for place honors. The victress, a $290,000 KEENOV weanling and $550,000 FTSAUG yearling, is a half to Galloping Gal (Victory Gallop), MSW & GSP, $348,269. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $52,800.

Lewis Michael to Peter Pan:

Lewis Michael (Rahy) will bypass Saturday's GI Preakness S. in favor of Belmont's GII Peter Pan S. run on the same day. "We decided to go to the Peter Pan," trainer Wayne Catalano said of Lewis Michael, who last seen finishing a distant fourth in the GII Illinois Derby Apr. 8. "Belmont's a bigger track, and we like the setup. We'd love to come to the Preakness, but there's a lot of speed in the race and we didn't think it was in our best interest."

YATE'S BLACK CAT (c, 3, Black Minnaloushe--Dazzle, by Slewacide) had finished first twice before, but was DQ'd and placed second at Hawthorne last November, then was demoted to eighth in his second outing this year at Gulfstream Mar. 13. The dark bay took on stakes company last time out and was not disgraced, running second to the ill-fated Up an Octave in the Apr. 20 Forerunner S. at Keeneland. The 17-10 favorite to finally get his picture taken here, the $20,000 KEESEP yearling was wide throughout, but rallied to the lead inside the eighth pole and held off Mercurius (Lemon Drop Kid) for a one-length success. SALTY RESPONSE (f, 3, Cozzene--Lake Huron, by Salt Lake) never really got into the action in her debut, finishing sixth by eight lengths at Turfway Mar. 25. It was a different story the next time the Brereton Jones homebred hit the track, though. Sent off at 7-2 in a 6 1/2-furlong test at Turfway Apr. 5, she won by an easy 5 3/4 lengths, and was trying to replicate that effort here in her grass debut. A 5-1 chance, she kept the pacesetter honest in the early going through :23 2/5 and :47 2/5 splits. The chestnut made her move in upper stretch, quickly opening up by daylight, and fought hard to the wire to stave off favored Fantastic Shirl (Fantastic Light) by half a length. REAL DANDY (c, 4, Yankee Victor--Berga, by Jade Hunter) was smartly campaigned in 2005 and, in a busy 12-race season, collected wins in the GIII West Virginia Derby and Zia Park Derby in December. He found the competition too stiff at Oaklawn over the winter, though, missing the board in the Feb. 11 GIII Essex H., Mar. 12 GIII Razorback BC H., and Apr. 12 GIII Fifth Season H. The bay got back on track in this class reprieve, rallying to win by 5 1/4 lengths as the 2-1 second pick. Real Dandy, a $75,000 KEESEP yearling, is a half to Premeditation (Afternoon Deelites), MSW & MGSP, $317,999. Lifetime Record: GSW, 23-5-7-2, $847,135.

The dark bay pressed a moderate pace, took control in the stretch and pulled away to a 5 1/3-length victory. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $32,400.

MAXINE'S HYMN (f, 3, Seeking the Gold--Battle Hymn, by Danzig) was the beaten favorite in her first two starts, losing out in a photo when runner-up at Oaklawn Feb. 26 and Mar. 19. A lackluster fifth at Keeneland in her latest outing Apr. 8, she was off at 4-5 to rebound here. The bay filly was bumped at the break and had to steady in traffic a half-mile from home, but jockey Robby Albarado got her to the outside in the stretch and she responded with a rallying half-length score over Special One (Point Given).  Minefield went to post in his debut as the crowd's 5-2 second choice, but ran more like an odds-on monster in an auspicious first outing. From the same connections as Ashado, Minefield broke alertly and raced up to challenge for the lead while between foes. Jockey Rafael Bejarano gave him a bit more rein in upper stretch and the colt responded immediately, bounding away from the pack to secure the victory by 8 1/2 lengths. Longshot Allensworth (Prized) was second, with post-time favorite Carson Camp (Carson City) running a disappointing ninth. Brass Hat (Prized), who was last seen finishing second in the $6 million G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 25, returned to the worktab yesterday, posting a :50.20 four-furlong move over Churchill's training track. "He breezed really well," trainer William "Buff" Bradley said of the GI Donn H. victor. "He started off nice and easy and hit some 13's for the first two eighths, and the last eighth he went 11 and change. When he came back, you wouldn't even have known that he had been out there. He wasn't blowing or anything, so that was easy for him." The five-year-old, who was disqualified from second in the World Cup after post-race blood tests showed a trace level of methyl prednisolone acetate, will start next in the GII Stephen Foster H. at Churchill June 1.

Blazing Sunset began his three-year-old campaign with a sixth-place finish versus $30,000 claimers at Louisiana Downs Jan. 13, but ran a much better race in his next start, notching a Sam Houston allowance Jan. 27. The bay was thrown to the wolves once shipped to Southern California, finishing sixth in the GII Santa Catalina S. Mar. 4 and eighth in the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 18. He was given some class relief in his latest, and responded with a good third-place finish behind Neko Bay in an $80,000 optional claimer Apr. 12. Away cleanly from the one-hole here, the longest shot on the board set an uncontested pace and held the favored Neko Bay safe. "Tyler [Baze] did a great job," winning trainer Doug O'Neil said. "He hustled him away from the gate. I think the other couple speed horses weren't as sharp and they had to sit back behind and chase him. That gave us a chance to give him a breather and he ran great."
