VISINDAR REMAINS UNBEATEN

Visindar (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}) was supposed to be tested in yesterday's G2 Prix Greffulhe, but France's newest sensation strolled through the Saint-Cloud contest to record an emphatic four-length success. His Highness the Aga Khan has inherited many high-class performers from the empire of the late Jean-Luc Lagardere, but this chestnut looked a cut above the rest in his first two starts and he confirmed that impression when drawing clear of his rivals in the final quarter. "That was exactly what we wanted to see," commented the owner's racing manager Georges Rimaud. "There was a strong, even pace and he quickened impressively and easily, so as a final prep race this seems excellent. Provided the Prince agrees and the horse is fine, the main objective is now the G1 Epsom Derby [June 3]." Visindar looked special when registering a four-length success in a newcomers' race here in November, but the vibes were unusually strong before his return in a Longchamp conditions race last time Apr. 17. In that event, the hype proved on the money as he made light work of beating G3 Prix de Guiche fourth Racer (Fr) by 2 1/2 lengths. Settled fourth of the field strung out by the pace making efforts of stable companion Moon Mix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), the 3-10 pick traveled easily for Christophe Soumillon before being asked to lengthen at the top of the straight. Taking command with a quarter mile remaining, he stretched away from the pack without feeling the whip to leave Onerous (GB) (Groom Dancer) to win the battle for the minor placings. Visindar's sire conquered the Epsom Classic and trainer Andre Fabre has yet to win the Blue Riband, but in Visindar connections are hoping he has the credentials to end that drought. "Being by Sinndar, who won the Epsom Derby, he is obviously special to my father," commented His Highness the Aga Khan's daughter Zahra. "He's a special horse, but what we don't know yet is if he's a very special horse." cont. p2 Racing Post race chart. or click for brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Visindar francegalop.com

DIABOLICAL CONFIRMED FOR PREAKNESS

Diabolical (Artax) will be entered for Saturday's G1 Preakness S. at Pimlico, trainer Steve Klesaris confirmed Monday. The runaway winner of an Apr. 25 Delaware allowance walked the shedrow under tack Monday after breezing a half mile in :48.64 at Fair Hill Training Center Sunday morning. "He came out of the work in good shape," said Klesaris. We're going to go ahead and enter him. Diabolical is a talented colt. I don't believe anyone has seen the best of Diabolical yet. Obviously, Barbaro's a tremendous horse, but I think some of the other colts might be vulnerable." Ramon Dominguez gets the call.

Platinum Couple Considered for Preakness...

Platinum Couple (Tale of the Cat), winner of last December's restricted Damon Runyon S. at Aqueduct, is under consideration for Saturday's Preakness, according to Glen Lostritto of Team Tristar Stable Monday. The New York-bred colt worked four furlongs in :51.24 at Belmont Park Monday. Third to Achilles of Troy in the Count Fleet S. in January, the roan was runner-up in a mile optional claimer at Aqueduct Mar. 22 before finishing a well-beaten 10th behind Bob and John in a sloppy edition of the G1 Wood Memorial Apr. 8.

Lawyer Ron Back at Churchill Downs...

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr) returned to his stall at Churchill Downs Monday after undergoing arthroscopic surgery to remove small chips from the right front and right hind fetlocks. "They were possibly affecting his performance, but now that they are removed, they are no factor in the rest of his career," said Dr. Larry Bramlage. During his 30-40 day recovery, the GII Arkansas Derby winner remain in the care of his trainer, Bob Holthus. The chestnut finished 12th in the G1 Kentucky Derby May 6.

make a final decision whether the champion will make the journey to the Grand Prairie oval after weight assignments are announced next weekend. Gilchrist and owner Harry Aleo also have multiple-stakes winner Victorina (Delaware Township) slated to run on the card. "We've had a hard time spotting the filly [in California], so I would say it's a better than 50-percent chance that we'll bring both those horses down," explained Gilchrist. Lost in the Fog finished second in his seasonal debut in the Golden Gate Sprint Apr. 22. "We've always wanted to run the horse on the turf and this race happens to come up at a pretty good time in his schedule," he added. "We're trying to get a race at Calder at their Summit of Speed in July and we're obviously spacing the horse's races out a whole lot more than we were last year. We didn't want him running every month this year, so this just comes up at a pretty good time."

HALA BEK MISSES DANTE Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Hala Bek (Ire) (Halling) will side-step Thursday's G2 Dante S. at York after scoping dirty. Trainer Michael Jarvis announced yesterday that the G1 Epsom Derby was "on hold" for the Apr. 21 Newbury maiden scorer. "He didn't have a perfect scope, so we thought it would be prudent not to run," he told PA Sport yesterday. "The Derby is on hold at the moment. He couldn't run before the Derby now because it would be too close."

Third betting choice in his seasonal debut, the five-year-old tracked the pacesetting favorite Vroom Vroom (Arg) (Fitzcarraldo {Arg}) from second, overtook that rival at the eighth pole and edged clear. King and King ran on to give the home team its best performance since Ouzo (NZ) scored in 2000. The disappointment of the race was Valixir (Ire) (Tremolino), the 7-2 second choice, who finished over 35 lengths last.

Dance in the Mood returned to the winner's circle for the first time since winning the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) two years ago, with jockey Jirochi Kitamura winning the first Group1 of his career. The five-year-old mare, trained by Kazuo Fujisawa, broke from an inside draw in a field of 18 and quickly settled into fifth position, where she rated for nearly a mile. At the head of the stretch, Kitamura guided her through an opening to gain command and continued on impressively, drawing clear of second-place finisher Air Messiah by 1 1/4 lengths. "There was a lot of pressure before the race," admitted Kitamura, "but the horse was in good form and everybody expected this performance. I owe the trainer a lot because he kept me on this mare even when we didn't have very much success with her." Dance in the Mood, runner up in the 2004 G1 American Oaks, failed to find the wire first last year, but put up a solid effort when third against males in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) in October and fourth in the G1 Mile Championship in December. In her seasonal debut, Dance in the Mood again faced males in the Apr. 15 G2 Miler's Cup. Dance In The Mood will likely be headed for the G1 Yasuda Kinen June 4. The G2 Sankeisports Hai Hanshen Himba S. winner Rhein Kraft (Jpn) (End Sweep), sent of the 2-1 favorite, finished ninth.

FAMILY TIES: BLUE HEN MARES

In case you don't know exactly what a blue hen is--and I'll forgive you if you don't, as even my great big English dictionary doesn't include the phrase--the Thoroughbred Times Racing Almanac offers the following useful definition:

"Blue hen--used to describe a great broodmare, the producer of a number of stakes winners and whose daughters, granddaughters, and great-granddaughters in turn produced important winners."

Obviously a blue hen is a pretty rare bird, but the month of May has already thrown up several excellent illustrations of this phenomenon. For a start, we have seen the Chief Singer mare Alidiva represented by her fourth individual group/graded winner, with Oonagh Maccool adding the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. to her success in the GII Rampart H. in March. Billed by Todd Pletcher as "as good of a filly as we've had," the daughter of Giant's Causeway follows in the footsteps of Taipan (a four-time Group 1 winner in Europe), Ali-Royal (winner of the G1 Sussex S. and a Group 1 sire) and Sleepytime (winner of the 1997 G1 1000 Guineas). Then, last week, the G3 Dee S. was won by the Peintre Celebre colt Art Deco, who became the second stakes winner to emerge from the first three foals produced by Alidiva's daughter Sometime.

COOLMORE

This family traces back to another blue hen in Bourtai, who produced such famous daughters as Banta, Delta, Levee and Bayou. It has been pretty much a story of excellence generation after generation, the one comparatively weak link being Alidiva's second dam Shore. However, Shore's failure to produce a stakes winner is easy to forgive in view of the fact that Delta, Alidiva's third dam, produced five stakes winners and Alligatrix, the dam of Alidiva, bred three, including the top-class French colt Croco Rouge.

The power of these bloodlines is highlighted by the fact that Alligatrix also produced two non-winning daughters, Galatrix and Itching, which have produced group winners. Sometime, the dam of Art Deco, was another non-winner--this sister to the Classic-winning Sleepytime never raced--but she is looking good value at the $300,000 she cost Bradley Thoroughbred Brokerage at Keeneland last November. She was carrying to an early cover by Fusaichi Pegasus, whereas Ellen, an unraced daughter of Sleepytime, made $625,000, in foal to Giant's Causeway.

Sometime received another boost recently when her two-year-old Galileo colt made 390,000gns at Newmarket, so there look sure to be plenty more big winners from this family.

'Rule' the Roost...

The same applies to the Nucciolina family responsible for Aussie Rules, the colt who completed an impressive Anglo-French 2000 Guineas double for Danehill (who completed the same double in 2002).

Aussie Rules is the latest in a very long line of group winners from this family, another being his high-class dam Last Second, winner of a pair of Group 2 contests which now carry Grade 1 status. A daughter of Alzao and Alruccaba, Last Second is a close relative to the Group 1-winning fillies Alborada and Albanova, who were sired by Alzao from Alruccaba's daughter Alouette. Another of Alruccaba's daughters, Jude, found fame as the dam of the Group 1-winning sisters Yesterday and Quarter Moon.

This is also the family of Aliysa, the disqualified Oaks winner who ranks as the second dam of Alamshar, winner of the Irish Derby and King George in 2003.

Coincidentally, this family also supplied the Aga Khan with one of his winners of the French 2000 Guineas, as Nucciolina--the fourth dam of Aussie Rules--was also the second dam of Nishapour, winner of the 1978 Classic.

Trace this female line further back and you come across such famous names as Mah Iran, Mah Mahal and Mumtaz Mahal, one of the most notable blue hens of all time.

Golden Eggs...

The value of such well-established families was also demonstrated in the French 1000 Guineas. Although everyone seems to recognise that the original winner of this race, Dansili's daughter Price Tag, was clearly the best horse in the field, there was still plenty to admire about the effort of Tie Black, the filly promoted to first.

Tie Black wasn't exactly cheap as a yearling, costing £330,000, but this daughter of Machiavellian must be extremely valuable now, as she comes from a lengthy line of Classic winners and champions.

Tie Black's third dam Irish Lass II was a sister to Lynchris, a filly talented enough to win the Irish Oaks and Irish St Leger in 1960, after finishing an unlucky fourth in the Irish 1000 Guineas. Unfortunately, Lynchris produced only three foals, but her younger sister made a more-than-adequate substitute, Irish Lass' finest achievements being her son Irish Ball, winner of the Irish Derby in 1971, and her daughters Irish Bird and Mill Princess.

Irish Bird became one of the few mares which have produced three Classic winners, thanks to the French Derby success of her son Bikala, the French and Irish Derby victories of another son, Assert, and the Irish St Leger win of her daughter Eurobird.

One might have expected Irish Bird's younger half-sister Mill Princess to struggle to emerge from such a huge shadow, but she has enjoyed more than her fair share of time in the sun. Her five stakes winners were undoubtedly led by Last Tycoon, a champion sprinter who stretched his stamina to take the Breeders' Cup Mile. As many as five of Mill Princess' daughters have gone on to produce at least one group winner, the remarkable feature being that two of them have now produced winners of the French 1000 Guineas. It was her Kings Lake filly Save Me the Waltz who produced Valentine Waltz, winner of the 1999, and now her Barathea filly Tender Is Thenight--a minor winner in France--has produced Tie Black as her third foal.

As with the other examples, the excellence shown by the last few generations is nothing new, as Irish Lass' third dam was the famous Schiaparelli.

The moral of the story seems to be that seemingly unexceptional members of exceptional families are discarded at their breeders' peril. But the good news for everyone else is that even the top breeders can't possibly hang on to every filly from a prolific family.

Hip 80 \(video\), a colt by Red Bullet, and Hip 156 \(video\), a gelded son of Chief Seattle, worked in :9 3/5 and :9 4/5, respectively, during the first breeze show May 11. MICUCCI NEW GULFSTREAM PARK PRESIDENT

Paul Micucci, who joined Magna Entertainment Corp. in March 2003, was appointed President and General Manager of Gulfstream Park in Hallandale, Florida. Micucci will replace Scott Savin, who has held the position since 2000. "Paul Micucci has demonstrated leadership in the entertainment field across North America's racing and racino facilities, including MEC's Remington Park," said Don Amos, Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer of MEC. "I'm pleased to be joining Gulfstream Park during this exciting time," said Micucci. "Gulfstream Park will become a major destination with the full complement of entertainment options, including the recently approved 'Village of Gulfstream Park,' featuring fashion shops, signature restaurants and outdoor cafes." Savin is expected to assist in the transition. "Right now, I'm thinking about taking a vacation, but I'll be a regular here at Gulfstream Park," said Savin. "I'm a horseman. I love racing and this facility. I enjoyed my time working with Frank Stronach and I truly believe in his vision for the future of horse racing."

MASTER OF DISASTER (c, 3, Dance Master--More D'Amour {MSP, $211,256}, by Tour D'Or), who as a two-year-old topped the 2005 OBSFEB sale on trainer Steve Klesaris' $600,000 bid, had an up-and-down season last year. After breaking his maiden by 13 1/4 lengths over this strip in his first outing in May, he ran a good second to Henny Hughes in the GII Saratoga Special in July. Off at 5-2 in the GII Futurity S. at Belmont Sept. 17, he was beaten some 25 lengths by Private Vow before coming back to take a Delaware allowance a month later. Trying stakes company once again next out, he again was well-beaten when fifth in Aqueduct's Huntington S. Nov. 13. The chestnut was put away after that one and was making his first start since in this with a sparkling work tab to his credit. The crowd's 8-5 pick blazed out of the gate and set :21 3/5 and :44 4/5 splits while clear. The 6-1 shot Shamss (Exploit) rallied to a narrow advantage in deep stretch, but the chalk fought back and got his nose down on the wire. Before selling as a juvenile, Master of Disaster was a $12,000 OBSOCT weanling and a $63,000 FTKJUL yearling. Video, sponsored by Talyor Made. Lifetime Record: GSP, 6-3-1-0, $111,640. Home Affairs flopped in the 2004 G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket, but showed the benefit of Sir Michael Stoute's patient approach when third in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot at York in June. Fourth in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly the following month, he was off the board in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury in August and G3 Joel S. at Newmarket on his final sophomore outing in September. Soon in command under Richard Hughes, he dominated this contest weakened by the scratching of Babodana (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) to win without being asked a serious question.

expected to be mated to Australia's most popular sire Redoute's Choice (Aus) in 2006. The mare's part-owner and former co-trainer Stephen McKee said Saturday that inquiries are being made about Sunline's mating. "I can't confirm anything yet, but that's the stallion which we are considering," McKee said. McKee added that Sunline's first foal, a rising two-year-old filly by Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), has just been broken. "She looks terrific and we can't wait to see her on the racetrack," McKee said. Last year, Sunline produced a colt by Zabeel (NZ) and was then covered again by Rock of Gibraltar.
