

NO BELMONT FOR BERNARDINI

Darley's impressive GI Preakness S. winner Bernardini (A.P. Indy) will not be aimed at the third leg of the Triple Crown, the GI Belmont S. June 10. "Bernardini has had three quick races in succession, and Sheikh

Bernardini Horsephotos

Mohammed [Darley head] feels that the colt deserves a break before his next target, which will be determined in due course," said Darley's Jimmy Bell after talking with the operation's bloodstock advisor, John Ferguson. "Given the fact that Bernardini only broke his maiden in March and won a Grade I race in May, we feel that he climbed the ladder of competition quite quickly." According to Bell, the July 29 GII Jim Dandy S., Aug. 6 GI Haskell Invitational H., and Aug. 26 GI Travers S. are possible races for Bernardini, with the GI Breeders' Cup Classic being the ultimate goal.

BLACK-EYED SUSAN MAY BE APPEALED

ClassicStar has filed the initial paperwork to appeal the finish of last Friday's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. (video) at Pimlico. In the nine-furlong event, ClassicStar's Smart N Pretty (Elusive Quality) set the pace, then drifted out just a bit under jockey Noberto Arroyo, Jr. to bump Regal Engagement (Cat Thief) in the stretch before drawing off to hit the wire 3 1/2 lengths ahead of her rival. Stewards reversed the order of finish after ruling interference. "There was a 48-hour deadline to either file an appeal or not, so we decided to file the appeal," said Dale Holly, racing and sales manager at ClassicStar. "We're still in the preliminary stages, examining our position to see if we have a strong enough case to carry on." Holly added, "I thought both fillies ran a good race, but I thought our filly should have won." Holly said that ClassicStar principals would meet Friday to discuss the appeal. "We don't want to waste a lot of time or money unnecessarily if we feel like we don't have a chance to win it."

LOST IN THE FOG TARGETS CHURCHILL RACE

After considering putting last year's champion sprinter Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier) on the grass in a stakes at Lone Star Park, trainer Greg Gilchrist has decided instead to run the colt in the six-furlong GIII

Gilchrist and Lost in the Fog Horsephotos

Aristides Breeders' Cup H. at Churchill June 3. The four-year-old is scheduled to ship out from his West Coast base next Wednesday. "We probably would have gone down there [to Texas], but this race came up five days later," explained Gilchrist. "And we actually have another horse, a filly named Victorina, that we're going to send over for a stakes on the same card, and that gave her a little more time between races. It just looked like the best thing to do. Timing wise it's a little bit better." Victorina (Delaware Township), a two-time stakes winner, will start in the one-mile GIII Dogwood Breeders' Cup S. Gilchrist said that, with a good effort in the Aristides, Lost in the Fog would next compete in the July 15 GII Smile Sprint H. as part of the Calder's Summit of Speed program. In his seasonal debut, Lost in the Fog finished second at 2-5 odds in the Apr. 22 Golden Gate Fields Sprint S., an effort that didn't concern Gilchrist. "We wanted to win the race, of course, but my instructions to [jockey] Russell [Baze] was not to beat the horse up," Gilchrist said. "He was giving a lot of weight away, and we got beat by a very nice horse. Being Lost in the Fog, the majority of people expect him to win every time you go over there. He's coming off a 10 out of 11 season, and I've told people not to expect another 10 out of 11 season." Gilchrist maintains the same cautious tone when speaking of what most would assume is Lost in the Fog's ultimate destination, the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill. "That's a long way up the road," said Gilchrist. "The thing about racing, it's like winning the World Series: what you did last year doesn't mean anything. It's a whole new year, and you have to go prove yourself all over again."

HUMBLE PRADO TALKS ABOUT PREAKNESS

By all accounts, Edgar Prado's quick response to Barbaro (Dynaformer)'s devastating injuries in the GI Preakness S. is one of the main reasons the colt still alive. But the soft-spoken jockey shies away from taking credit for his gallant efforts.

Prado and Barbaro in the Preakness post parade
Sherackatthetrack

"I think anybody could have done the same job," Prado said, before adding of the chaotic situation, "I reacted pretty quickly and I tried to hold him together. The horse did his job by not fighting with me. I stopped thinking about the race and the Triple Crown right away. The only thing I could think of was him. I wanted to pull him up and comfort him as soon as I could. Each second felt like an hour." Prado said the hours and days following Barbaro's breakdown were especially tough. "Saturday was a nightmare," he said. "I was heartbroken Monday and Tuesday. I'm trying to bounce back and concentrate on my riding. I guess the busier I stay, the better it will be for me." Prado is quick to recognize the extraordinary care given to Barbaro at the New Bolton Clinic, where Dr. Dean Richardson performed extensive life-saving surgery on the colt Sunday. "It goes to show you that in America, everything is possible," said Prado. "The technology here is superior to so many other countries. You have a better chance to survive any kind of injury or illness here than you do anywhere else." It would figure that a jockey would have a special relationship with the horse that gave him his first Kentucky Derby win, and Prado's ties to Barbaro have clearly grown stronger in the last few days. "Of all the tears I have cried, if tears could heal a wound, Barbaro would be healed by now," he said. "I've been thinking about him and I've been crying on and off. I can't do any more."

2006 STUD FEE: $20,000 LIVE FOAL

JRHA ANNOUNCES CATALOGUE The Japan Racing Horse Association has announced that 316 foals and 170 yearlings have been catalogued for its three-day auction, which will run July 10-12 at Northern Horse Park on Hokkaido. The sale traditionally featured foals selling alongside their dams, but will include yearlings for the first time this year. Catalogues will be available on-line beginning June 26 at www.jrha.or.jp/eng. The sale's most famous graduate is Deep Impact (Jpn), hero of last year's Triple Crown and named Japanese Horse of the Year. He joined a list that already had Admire Groove (Jpn), Hat Trick (Jpn), King Kamehameha (Jpn), Sundrop (Jpn), Utopia (Jpn) and Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) on it. An international array of stallions will be represented, including Agnes Digital, Aldebaran, Awesome Again, Belong to Me, Brian's Time, Desert King (Ire), Exceed and Excel (Aus), Falbrav (Ire), Forty Niner, French Deputy, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Grandera (Ire), Kurofune, Pivotal (GB), Marienbard (Ire), Mineshaft, Moon Ballad (Ire), Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), Sadler's Wells, Singspiel (Ire), Sky Mesa, Smarty Jones, Special Week (Jpn), Stay Gold (Jpn), Symboli Kris S., Swept Overboard, Vindication and Wild Rush. Among the many appealing pedigrees are hip 60, a yearling colt by Pivotal (GB) out of GSW Veil of Avalon, a half-sister to Deep Impact; and hip 215, a foal who is a full brother to Japanese stand-out Kurofune (French Deputy--Blue Avenue).

OWNER PORTER, TRAINER SERVIS PART WAYS by Steve Haskin, courtesy of The Blood-Horse

Trainer John Servis and owner Rick Porter, who have been together for more than 15 years, have gone their separate ways, Porter said Wednesday. Among the top horses they had together were major stakes winners Jostle, Round Pond, and Rockport Harbor. Porter said Round Pond, winner of four stakes, including the GI Acorn and GII Fantasy, will be sent to trainer Michael Matz.

"John and I have been together a long time, other than a short breakup in the mid '90s when I sent the bulk of the horses to Nick Zito," Porter said. "This was a perfectly amicable break. John doesn't have a mean bone in his body, and we hugged afterward and wished each other well.

"I had been discussing with John for a while about making some organizational changes I thought needed to be made, feeling he was understaffed. John feels he's a professional and has his way of doing things, and that I shouldn't interfere. He feels he's good at what he does using his system. I feel anyone can get better. We met Sunday morning and talked a little about it, and he said, 'Rick, sometimes people who have been together a long time need a break from each other. I think you need a break from me and I need a break from you.'" For the complete story, click here.

MGSW Magna Graduate (Honor Grades) injured his right hind ankle during a workout at Churchill Downs Sunday and will be out at least until fall, the Daily Racing Form reports. The four-year-old breezed five furlongs in 1:00.20 over a fast main track at Churchill, but was lame after the move. "He came back from his breeze a little off in his right hind," trainer Todd Pletcher told DRF. "There's a small fracture in the ankle, but right now it looks like he won't be needing any surgery. He'll get 60 to 90 days of stall rest and we'll reevaluate him at that time." Owned by Mrs. Betty Alexander, the dark bay captured the GII Clark H., GIII Discovery H. and GIII Pegasus S. at three. He finished fourth in the GI Donn H. and the G1 Dubai World Cup in his two starts this term, but was subsequently moved up to third in the World Cup when Brass Hat was disqualified for testing positive after that race. His earnings stand at $1,777,002.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE TO MISS ASCOT Cape of Good Hope (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) is increasingly unlikely to return to England to defend his title in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. after trialling unsatisfactorily Tuesday morning at Sha Tin. "Compared to how he would normally trial when he's going well, I wasn't really that happy with him," trainer David Oughton told South China Morning Post. "[Jockey] Douglas [Whyte] said that he went all right, rather than anything special, but he didn't feel the horse had stretched out properly in the final stages." The globetrotting chestnut injured a check ligament behind his left knee when running third in the G1 Lightning S. in February and was returned to Hong Kong to recuperate.

Indianski ran fifth to subsequent G3 Prix la Force runner-up Echoes Rock (Ger) at Longchamp Apr. 6 and returned to that track to bag a valuable handicap, at generous odds, last time May 8. Making his stakes debut here, he was underestimated by punters again, but pounced late to record a career best. Occupying a close stalking role along the rail from flagfall, he was wound up soon after turning into the home straight. Accelerating to the front with 150 meters remaining, jockey Olivier Peslier only had cause to exercise his elbows from there to secure a cozy win.

Positioned third after the opening exchanges, the homebred was committed at the quarter-mile marker, quickly establishing daylight, and was pushed out inside the closing panel to comfortably account for Zayanida (Ire) (King's Best) by two lengths. Positioned in the peloton from the bell, the bay homebred reeled in the runaway leader at the 200-meter pole and remained in the same gear from there to safely hold the late flourish of Likasi (Fr) (Kalanisi {Ire}) by a length. H.R. 4777 MARKUP ON LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

The House Judiciary Committee is scheduled to debate the Internet Gambling Prohibition Act (H.R. 4777) on Thursday, May 25 beginning at 10:00 a.m. (ET). The hearing can be viewed via Webcast.

H.R. 4777 contains language that recognizes the horse industry's authority to continue to conduct online pari-mutuel wagering as allowed under the Interstate Horseracing Act.

The NTRA lobbying team has met with members of the Judiciary Committee and other allies in Congress to ensure that this important protection is retained and the $1.5 billion market for account and Internet wagering on horse racing is protected.
