ARAAFA ROCKS GEORGE

Yesterday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas resembled a war of attrition, and it was Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) who came through The Curragh's mud best of all to defeat George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) by two lengths. Fourth behind that rival in the Newmarket equivalent May 6, the 12-1 shot readily reversed the form in the testing conditions, racing close to the moderate early pace under Alan

Munro before forging to the front three furlongs out and drawing away from the floundering 4-7 pick. "He's put in a great performance today and whether George Washington handled the ground, I don't know, but you couldn't take anything away from my horse," trainer Jeremy Noseda commented. "I just had a hunch he would handle this ground well and he did." Cont. p2

LADY IN WAITING?

Cheveley Park Stud have already demonstrated what a potent force they are with the success of Peeress (GB) in last Saturday's G1 Lockinge S., and it is another homebred filly that has her eyes on the prize as Confidential Lady (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) lines up in today's G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh. Handled by Sir Mark Prescott, the filly has a humorless attitude to racing, displayed in her resolute performance to be runner-up in the English equivalent at Newmarket May 7. "She ran a very good race at Newmarket and there were absolutely no excuses," her conditioner said. "She had an excellent preparation and everything went right--we just couldn't get past Speciosa (Ire). She's had a good preparation for this as well, so I'd be hopeful." Confidential Lady was a thoroughly game juvenile, winning the Listed Star S. at Sandown in July before failing by a head to beat Nasheej (Swain {Ire}) in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket in early August. Rebounding to take the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville later that month, she uncharacteristically flopped in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at Longchamp on Arc day before registering a career-best on her return behind Speciosa. "She's very unusual in that she goes on any ground," Prescott added. "She won in a bog at Deauville and had just failed to beat the track record on fast ground at Sandown. Therefore, she's probably best suited by extremes when most of the field are not. She's so straightforward and uncomplicated, she deserves to win one of these." Cont. p2-3

Pletcher. "We'll keep all of our options open." Cont. p4

Araafa followed a debut win at Newmarket in July with a second to subsequent Group 1 winner Palace Episode in York's Listed Acomb S. in August. Sixth in the G1 Somerville Tattersall S. at Newmarket the following month, he ran third to Hurricane Cat (Storm Cat) in the G3 Horris Hill S. at Newbury in October. Closing late to fill the fourth spot in the 2000 Guineas, he showed the benefit of that comeback with a game success, grinding out the result the hard way from the front for most of the second half of the race. "He's quite a heavy horse, so I didn't know if he would act, but he loved it," commented Munro, riding his first Classic winner since Generous (Ire) took the 1991 G1 Irish Derby. "He traveled well and quickened up on it and ran out a strong winner. Plan A was to follow the pace and there was a slight leader bias in the earlier races, so it was the best place to be off a sensible pace. He was going so well I got there a bit early." Nosedá indicated the colt would go next in the June 20 G1 St James's Palace S. "Unfortunately, last year at the back-end my horses weren't quite right and I knew his run against Hurricane Cat wasn't right, so I didn't fear him," Nosedá said. "I looked at it and thought if we were second to George Washington there was no disgrace and, if we improved a lot, we could beat him. If [George Washington] underachieved we'd be waiting in the wings and it's worked that way...he'll go to Royal Ascot." Kieren Fallon was unperturbed after the performance of the Newmarket Guineas hero, who was buried in mid-pack throughout before grinding his way past Decado in the final furlong without ever threatening the winner. "We all hate to see good horses getting beaten, but he took his chance in this desperate ground and we'll get revenge when we get better ground," Fallon said. "He's a top-of-the-ground horse and this is probably the worst ground you're ever going to ride on. You've seen what he can do on firm ground and I've not yet come across a horse that can do it on both, but fair play to Aidan and the team, they took a chance and it didn't come off. Today he just plugged on, but it's not the George Washington we know."

Confidential Lady and Malih L al Basti's Nasheej attempts to continue the fine record of runners in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket in this contest. Nasheej, who also the G2 May Hill S. at Doncaster and was third in the G1 Fillies' Mile at two, returned to notch the Apr. 22 G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury before her Guineas third. Jockey Ryan Moore is hoping the bay filly can make the frame again. "She's very well and I'm sure she'll run an honest race, like she always does," Moore commented. "I suppose Confidential Lady is the one to beat, but it'll be whatever handles the very bad ground on the day and I don't see any reason why she won't." Cont. p3

Kevin Prendergast, who won this race with Pidget (GB) in 1972 and Arctique Royale (Ire) in 1981, relies on Norman Ormiston's Ugo Fire (Ire) (Bluebird). At two, she was the runner-up to Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. in September and successful in the G3 C. L. Weld Park S. the following month at this track.

The bay filly returned to finish third behind Kamarinskaya (Storm Cat) and Beauty Bright (Danehill) in the Apr. 15 G3 1000 Guineas Trial S. at Leopardstown. "She's in good shape and has won on the ground," her trainer commented. "I'm looking for a big run from her."

Honey Ryder had gone from strength to strength in the last year, but the fact that she had never won in five previous tries over the Belmont turf course was some cause for concern. After a close fifth in last year's Sheepshead Bay, the grey rattled off three straight wins at Delaware, Saratoga and Woodbine, capping her season with a tally in the GI E.P. Taylor S. Oct. 23. The long-distance specialist came up a bit short in her seasonal bow, finishing third in the 8 1/2-furlong GIII Honey Fox H. at Gulfstream Mar. 4. But she responded with a successful title defense in the GII Orchid H. Apr. 1, setting a mark of 2:23 for the 12-furlong race, and was ready to run here. After saving ground in the early stages, the crowd's choice angled out in the lane and finally got past the stubborn pacesetter Noble Stella. "She's a better mare than she was a year ago," said Todd Pletcher. "Everybody finished up well; it was a good race."

Also ran: Little Miss Gracie (GB), Sweet Treat (Ire), Fairy of the Night (Ire).

On a day when desperate ground brought about some shocks, Pout delivered the most telling turnaround, providing trainer John Joseph Murphy and jockey Danny Grant with a dream result. She had been running mainly over sprint trips at three and managed a third in the Listed Abergwaun S. at Cork in October before starting 2006 with a third in the Listed Prix Satamixa on Deauville's all-weather surface Jan. 4. Two unplaced efforts in the G3 Park Express S. here Mar. 26 and Listed Cork S. on her latest outing May 5 did not inspire The Curragh punters, and she was allowed to start at 40-1. Settled in the rear early, she responded to her rider's urgings in the straight to wear down Jazz Princess in a gruelling final 100 yards. "Everything went right and she needs an ease in the ground," her conditioner commented. "She's tough and she never stops galloping, so that helped here on this tough track and tough mile. We'll see what the ground is like at Ascot [for the G2 Windsor Forest S. June 21]. It's usually firm, so we could go to France for her ground." *Fifteen Rounds finished first, but was DQ'd and placed second.

Gouldings Green got a sympathetic call from the stewards to attain his first graded victory. He was second in last year's renewal, but was sidelined following a fifth in last year's GI Stephen Foster H. in June. The chestnut returned with a win in an optional claimer at Oaklawn Feb. 25, then finished a solid third at 23-1 in the GII Oaklawn H. Apr. 8. before taking the Alysheba S. at Churchill May 5. Never too far from the front here, the five-year-old tried to sneak up the rail in the stretch, but Fifteen Rounds appeared to come over on him. Gouldings Green rallied and was only a length behind Fifteen Rounds at the wire. "I certainly don't blame Chris [Emigh, aboard Fifteen Rounds]," said jockey Corey Lanerie. He's a good rider and he was just 'race-riding,' but...I might have done the same thing. But I think I was on the best horse and that he definitely would have won." Every time Dionisia gets knocked down, she just bounces straight back up. She made up for her disappointing effort when only sixth in the May 14 G2 Premio Regina Elena at the Capannelle by taking this competitive contest. At two, she registered successes in the Listed Premio Vittorio Crespi and Listed Premio Coolmore at this venue and Listed Premio Repubbliche Marinare Tattersalls and Listed Criterium Femminile in Rome. Her best performance may have been when second to Lateral (GB) in the G1 Gran Criterium here in October. Her warm-up for the Regina Elena went smoothly, with a penalty defied in the Apr. 23 Listed Premio Torricola back at the Capannelle, but her Classic display fell short of her usual standard. Regaining the thread once again, she displayed her usual exuberance stalking the early tempo before looming large in the straight. Quickening to lead at the furlong marker, she settled the result in a matter of strides for another impressive success.

Disappointing for former trainer Barry Hills, Moss Vale owed as much to these prevailing conditions and to his rider Kieren Fallon's enterprise than any superiority over his rivals to record a career high. Successful in the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock and Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury in 2004, he had failed to build on that early promise, despite one excellent effort when third in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot at York last June. Dead-heating with Ashdown Express (Ire) in the Listed Starlit S. at Goodwood in September, he rounded off his four-year-old campaign with a third in the G3 Bentinck S. at Newmarket the following month. Off the board in the May 17 G2 Duke of York S. last time, he was helped by Fallon poaching a healthy cushion from the flag start and his mid-race effort was enough to ensure success from the game Moon Unit, despite tiring in the closing stages. "He fairly bolted up," Lady O'Reilly's Racing Manager James Kelly commented. "He was bought to have a lot of fun with and that starts today, so he'll now go for the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene [at Chantilly June 4]." Click for the Racing Post chart.

| 1 | 3 | Hurricane Run (Ire) | Montjeu (Ire) | Fabre | 126 |

| 3 | 1 | Alexander Goldrun (Ire) | Gold Away (Ire) | Bolger | 123 |

Hurricane Run almost faced a walkover after a majority of his rivals decided to skip this early bout. Brilliant at three, the Andre Fabre-trained behemoth suffered his sole defeat at the hands of Shamardal in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly in June. He landed the G1 Irish Derby the following month before enjoying a summer break, then had a smooth warm-up in the G2 Prix Niel at Longchamp in September. Tuned to perfection for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe the following month, he rolled over a field containing the likes of Bago (Fr), Shirocco (Ger) and Motivator (GB), among others. He was taken to Longchamp for a recent spin ahead of his 2006 campaign kickoff. "Hurricane Run needs a race after being off for nearly six months," Fabre told the Racing Post. "He has worked well in the build-up. He acts on any ground, and an extended mile and a quarter should be fine for his first race of the year. For his first race of the year, we don't need a crazy gallop and at The Curragh, there is a long straight." Alexander Goldrun is no slouch, boasting victories in the 2004 G1 Prix de l'Opera and G1 Hong Kong Cup and the 2005 G1 Pretty Polly S. and G1 Nassau S. on her impressive resume. She has won on this ground, but needs to bounce back from a fifth to Heart's Cry (Jpn) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic last time Mar. 25.

TDN ☆ Star of the Week ☆

This week's accomplishment: Saddled 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Better Talk Now to victory in last Saturday's GI Dixie S. at Pimlico. It was the first start of the year for the veteran gelding, who will point for the GI United Nations H.

Birthdate: 5.22.64

Birthplace: Cambridge, England

Family: Wife Anita, daughter Jane, son Marcus

Current Residence: Fair Hill, Maryland

Of all the horses you have been around, who has been your favorite and why? Through the Rye (allowance winner in the mid-1990s). We would turn him out in a round pen and he would have toys that he would throw all around. People would come from other barns just to watch him. He also used to sit like a dog to avoid going in the starting gate.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? Two things. Uniform national medication rules and less racing days.

What's in your CD player right now? I-Pod--Coldplay.

What is your favorite vacation spot? British Virgin Islands, been there twice and can't wait to get back.

Favorite food or meal? Steak or fresh fish.

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? I like a movie that leaves me thinking or depressed.

First Job? Washing dishes in a diner in upstate New York.

Proudest Moment? Breeders Cup in Texas 2004 with Better Talk Now, Film Maker (second in GI F/M Turf) and Dance Away Capote (fifth in GI Juvenile Fillies).

Perfect Day? Event free morning at barn, winner in the afternoon and dinner with my family.

Childhood Ambition? Jockey.

Last Purchase? Acura SUV--bought it today!

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's

Day Flight is a notable overseas raider and the five-year-old looks to hold all the aces on his British form. Fourth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly in June 2004, the homebred returned at four to win the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury in April and G3 Ormonde S. at Chester the following month. After a second in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket in July, he sat out mid-summer before annexing the G3 St. Simon S. at Newbury in October. Second in the Listed Serlby S. at Doncaster in November, he made a successful start to the new campaign in the Apr. 28 G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown. "He would like to have normal ground, not too soft and not too wet, that is what he prefers," conditioner John Gosden told PA Sport. "He will be stepping up in class, but he worked very well and we are hopeful." Arcadio threatened to become one of Germany's best sophomores last term, but could only follow a 15-length success in the G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich in May with a third in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg in early July. Runner-up to Soldier Hollow (GB) in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis back at Munich later that month, he was laid up until returning to win the Listed Grosser Preis Der VGH Versicherungen at Hannover last time Apr. 17. Fight Club, who took the G2 Euro-Cup at Frankfurt in September, warmed up for this with an easy success in the May 1 Listed Bet 3000-Trophy at Munich and commands respect.

TIE BLACK KEEPS POULICHES Javier Gispert's Tie Black (Ire) (Machiavellian) will retain her title in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches after it was announced that connections of Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}) had lost their appeal against her disqualification from first to third. Khalid Abdullah's filly was judged by the Longchamp stewards to have interfered with the eventual third Impressionnante (GB) in the closing stages en route to her 1½-length defeat of Tie Black. After a hearing on Wednesday, officials at the ruling body France-Galop's headquarters upheld the steward's decision.

PERCY OK FOR EPSOM Anthony Pakenham's Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) yesterday passed his final test with flying colors and will head to Epsom on Saturday for the G1 Epsom Derby. Having sustained a pulled muscle when runner-up in the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, last year's G2 Vintage S. and G1 Dewhurst S. hero completed his recovery when pleasing connections in a 10-furlong racecourse gallop on Lingfield's Polytrack. "He worked over 10 furlongs this morning and we were very happy with him," trainer Marcus Tregoning said yesterday. "If he comes out of it okay, he will start in the Derby. The ground at home is too soft, so we used the Polytrack for a proper gallop at racing pace and I was impressed with him. It was left-handed, and he came down Lingfield's hill extremely well, so the work went to plan--we have a good idea how he'll come down the hill at Epsom now. He was coming away readily at the end, so that points to the fact that he'll stay the mile and a half."

FOUR ADDED TO OAKS Trainer Pam Sly, son Michael and Dr. Tom Davies paid the supplementary fee of £20,000 yesterday to add G1 1000 Guineas winner Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) to Friday's G1 Epsom Oaks, for which a field of 16 stood their ground at yesterday's stage. Also added to the mile-and-a-half Classic were Claudia Jungo-Corpataux's G3 Blue Wind S. winner Galatee (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), Robert Barnett's Listed Cheshire Oaks victress Time On (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and the Heading for the Rocks Partnership's Listed Lupe S. dead-heater Rising Cross (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Speciosa's jockey Michael Fenton is looking forward to resuming his partnership with the May 7 Newmarket Classic heroine. "She had a week off after the Guineas and has been doing two canters a day," he commented. "She looks brilliant and took the Guineas good--she is very tough. I'm pretty confident--we definitely wouldn't waste a run if we didn't think there was a good chance she'll stay, but we'll find out on the day." Time On, who captured the Chester prep May 10, will represent conditioner John Dunlop and he is hopeful of a bold show. "She's fine and has been working well," he said. "She's very healthy, stays well and Frankie [Dettori] rides, so she has lots of things in her favor." Trainer Jim Bolger added further flavor to the Classic with the unbeaten Galatee, which swells the Irish challenge to four alongside an Aidan O'Brien-trained trio headed by Susan Magnier's G3 Musidora S. runner-up Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). As expected, Sir Michael Stoute has left in John Greetham's Musidora winner Short Skirt (GB) (Diktat {GB}), Ballymacoll Stud's Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial S. heroine Scottish Stage (Ire) (Selkirk) and His Highness the Aga Khan's Listed Pretty Polly S. winner Riyalma (Ire) (Selkirk), while scratching the same owner's Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial scorer Sindirana (Ire) (Kalanisi {Ire}).

VALID NOTEBOOK (c, 3, Notebook--Silk Appeal, by Valid Appeal), entered for a $62,500 tag in his Jan. 13 debut at Gulfstream, posted a coast-to-coast success and was haltered by current connections. Given four months after that effort, the bay earned back a bit of his purchase price, finishing runner-up in entry-level allowance company at this track May 13. The half to Silk Concorde (Concorde's Tune), MSW, $271,184, chased the pace from the outside and hit the front at the quarter pole. Tackled on either side by Tuffertiger (Tiger Ridge) and Elements (Charismatic), Valid Notebook dug in gamely and edged the former by three-parts of a length as the 11-10 chalk. MY DYNAMITE (c, 3, Lite the Fuse--Miss Monmouth, by Fortunate Prospect), sent off at odds-on in each of his two previous starts against Empire-breds, powered to a 5 1/4-length victory at Saratoga Aug. 11 and returned to action with a two-length allowance victory over the Aqueduct main track Apr. 14. The 1-2 chalk to continue his winning ways, the $30,000 OBSAUG yearling and $62,000 OBSMAR juvenile scrimmaged on the front through fractions of :22.56 and :44.74, opened a clear lead past the eighth pole and, despite some leg-weariness, held on for a 1 1/4-length win. He is a half to Tepexpan (Indian Charlie), SW, $126,070. Lifetime Record: 3-3-0-0, $79,800.

Never far from the pace while hugging the inside, the gray came out four wide approaching the drive and drew off to score by 5 3/4 lengths while racing a bit erratically late. Steppenwolver, Jazil Work Towards Belmont:

Two hopefuls for the $1-million GI Belmont S., Steppenwolver (Aptitude) and Jazil (Seeking the Gold), worked over the Belmont main track yesterday morning. The three-year-olds have been off since finishing third and fourth, respectively, to Barbaro in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby. Steppenwolver breezed six furlongs in 1:13 with jockey Jose Santos in the irons, though Robby Albarado will be aboard for the 12-furlong Classic. Trainer Danny Peitz opted to pass on last Saturday's GI Preakness to focus on the Belmont. "Giving him five weeks between starts was one of the reasons we skipped the Preakness," he explained. "He would have also been against it if the track at Pimlico came up speed favoring." The grey colt is from the first crop of Aptitude, who was the runner-up in both the Kentucky Derby and Belmont in 2000. Jazil went five panels in :59 3/5, handily, in company. "He worked very well," trainer Kieran McLaughlin said. "We're very pleased and he'll work back next week." The bay has done his best closing from the clouds, but McLaughlin doesn't anticipate a slower pace posing any problems. "I won't be concerned if there's not much pace in the race," he said. "That just means we'll be laying closer." The Shadwell colorbearer will be piloted once again by Fernando Jara in the Belmont.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Another New York-bred Stakes Winner!

After opening the season with an uninspiring ninth-place finish in a Gulfstream allowance test at a mile Jan. 13, Unbridled Belle stretched out to two turns. She was third in an allowance Feb. 16 and missed by just a head when second Mar. 23, then took a short break. Bet down to 6-5 in a NW1X at Delaware May 8, the dark bay romped to an eight-length score and was duly bet down to favoritism while making her stakes debut here. Unbridled Belle was allowed to settle just off the leaders for six furlongs. She fought her way between rivals to go after Amandatude as they straightened for home and got up in the final strides.

Second of June Nearing Return:

Graded-stakes winner Second of June (Louis Quatorze), out of action since last April, worked six furlongs in 1:13.8 Friday at Churchill Downs and will be ready to run soon. Hero of the Gill Holy Bull S. and a gallant second in the Gill Fountain of Youth S. at three, the bay hasn't faced the starter since a runner-up finish in the Gill Oaklawn Park H. in April of 2005. He was sidelined by an osselet in his left hind ankle. "We had to stop and wait for God to heal it and pray that he made it back, basically," said trainer Bill Cesare, who shares the same birthday (June 2) as his five-year-old charge. "He's great now. His birthday will be next Friday--me and him are getting older--and if he wants to mess with women for a little while, he's got to win a couple of good races. I tell him that every day." Cesare has high hopes for Second of June. "We're going to work him another time and then decide what we're going to do," he added. "We're just working on getting him back. The ultimate goal is to be here in November [for the Breeders' Cup Classic]--God willing. At least, we're going to try--whether we do good or not, we're going to try."

First Samurai Back on Track:

MGISW First Samurai (Giant's Causeway), who was diagnosed with cracked ribs after a lackluster fifth-place finish in the Apr. 15 GI Toyota Blue Grass S., had his first gallop since the injury at Churchill Downs yesterday morning. The three-year-old galloped a mile with Lisa Sloan, assistant to trainer Frank Brothers, in the saddle. "We've been ultra-sounding him about every week and all the gurus said to start back with him," Brothers said. "I guess if something goes amiss, then we'll have to back up a little bit. But it looks like everything is in order right now." It had originally been estimated that First Samurai might miss as much as two months of training, but in fact he was sidelined just 18 days. "If this is the end of it, it's a little better than I anticipated," Brothers said. "Two months really puts you behind the eight ball if you're trying to get something done later on. So, if he doesn't take a step backwards, we'd love to have him ready for something at Saratoga."

Cambiocorsa has been 'money' since last November and entered this in search of her seventh straight victory. The gray took back-to-back allowance tests down the Santa Anita hill, first against state-breds Nov. 3 and then open company Jan. 22, before adding that track's Wishing Well H. at the specialist trip a week later. A 4 3/4-length allowance winner Feb. 15, she bested Cal-breds by a head in the Irish O'Brien S. Mar. 17 and earned her first graded-stakes success by 3/4 of a length in the Apr. 16 Las Cienegas H. A tepid favorite stretching out to the mile, Cambiocorsa was allowed to set an opening half-mile of :47.21, turned back the bid of Dream Lady at the head of the stretch and held sway for the win. SEATTLE BUDDY (c, 4, Seattle Slew--Bad Pussycat, by Distinctive Pro) was claimed for $40,000 from his Dec. 9 maiden win at this track and was victorious in a $40,000 starter allowance at Santa Anita Jan. 25 before getting a breather. The $550,000 FTSAUG yearling stepped up to allowance company to win by a head in Arcadia Mar. 25, but was most recently eighth in the Gill San Simeon H. down the hill Apr. 22. The 5-2 second choice dueled from between horses, inched away leaving the quarter pole and held off odds-on Wing Kai (Touch Gold) for a nose victory. Lifetime Record: 11-4-0-1, $99,435.

Akarem may never repay his lofty yearling price tag, but he is finding a new lease of life for his new connections and doubled his stakes tally in the space of eight days under Pat Cosgrave. Showing tenacity to win the Listed Braveheart S. at Hamilton last time, he did not need to dig too deep to account for some smart rivals in the shadow of the impressive new grandstand. Always traveling easily in mid-division under cover, he sliced through a gap on the rails at the top of the straight to lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining before pulling clear. "He's a good horse and traveled really well for me," Cosgrave explained. "I got a nice split and he ran away from them."

He looked a different proposition when running away with a Windsor maiden on his return Apr. 24 and made the jump up to stakes company look effortless in this contest. Sticking close to the pace throughout, he quickened to seize command at the quarter pole and drew away from the chasing Degas Art up the rising ground. "This is Paul [Reddam]'s first horse trained in England, so we'll see how we go, but he's in the G2 King Edward VII S. [at Royal Ascot June 23]," the owner's Racing Manager Jamie McCalmont said. Jeremy earned the reward for his consistency the hard way after a thrilling last-furlong tussle with Wake up Maggie to open his stakes account. Runner-up in the Listed totesport.com S. at Doncaster in October, he returned to finish a neck second to Misu Bond (Ire) in the Listed European Free H. over course and distance last time Apr. 19. Stalking Wake up Maggie throughout, he was asked to challenge inside the final quarter and briefly had the call before looking booked for the runner's-up spot as that filly battled back to the front at the furlong-marker. Digging in on the uphill climb, Jeremy's rally regained the advantage in the final strides, earning his Royal Ascot ticket to the June 21 G3 Jersey S.

Partners in Jazz is a standing dish in the heritage six- or seven-furlong handicaps and, after a long time trying, he finally got one in the bag under a determined Ryan Moore. Amongst his finer efforts last term was a fourth in the Newmarket July meeting's feature handicap, the Bunbury Cup, and a third in the valuable International S. at Newbury that month. Off the board in four subsequent attempts, including a Newmarket handicap at the Craven meeting Apr. 19 in his 2006 opener, the grey veteran rebounded to land the first prestige event at the refurbished Ascot. Never far away from the early pace, he challenged wide to grind his way to the front at the eighth pole before asserting from Marching Song. "He ran very well in the Bunbury Cup and everything fell right for him here," Moore said. "He had a strong pace and a little bit of ease in the ground, so I was very confident and he's done it well. I got there too soon, but I didn't want to disappoint him."

ASCOT REHEARSAL GOES SMOOTHLY

Ascot opened its doors to a select invited crowd yesterday as a dress rehearsal for its flagship Royal meeting next month, with common praise ringing in the ears of Chief Executive Douglas Erskine-Crum. Hailed as a "pre-opening day," the Berkshire venue's meeting was the first since September 2004 and the 11,000 assembled were treated to the sight of the new grandstand and realigned track, which jockeys described collectively as perfect. "Today has proved a very useful exercise in learning about the new course and we are very pleased with the way it went," he said. "The purpose of today was to show to us what we needed to address before Royal Ascot and it has been invaluable to us in that respect. We now have just over three and a half weeks to get things right for Royal Ascot and address the issues that today's meeting has raised." Public Relations Nick Smith added, "We have some things to iron out before Royal Ascot but a key point to make is that the track itself seemed to ride well and the feedback from the jockeys demonstrated that they were satisfied."

Successful in both juvenile starts, and again on seasonal return at Angers Mar. 20, Grand Couturier enjoyed punters' confidence coming back from a third in the Apr. 17 G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp. Settled eight lengths off the pace until closing into second at halfway, he dominated the stretch run to comfortably record a first stakes success at the expense of market rival Leitmotiv.

Bordeaux-Le-Bouscat, 3.40, Cond, €22,000, 4yo/up, 1 1/2mT, 2:36.68, gd/sf.

KOCAB (GB) (c, 4, Unfuwain--Space Quest {GB}, by Rainbow Quest) went postward as the 1-2 pick returning from a second in the Oct. 16 G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris at Longchamp. In command from the bell, the Juddmonte homebred was merely held together in the straight to easily account for Monsieur Dim (Fr) (Dyhim Diamond {Ire}) by three lengths. Lifetime Record: SW & MGSP-Fr, 6 starts, 3 wins, 3 places, €94,050.

Drayton defied a penalty for his success in the Listed Coolmore S. over course and distance May 1 with another display of raw speed here. Rank under restraint while close to the early pace, he took over before half-way and duly pulled clear for a convincing success. "He was very good today and did it well," trainer Tommy Stack's son and assistant Fozzy said. "He was like a bullet out of the stalls and Wayne [Lordan] said when he got to the front he settled and was fine. It will be either the [June 22] G2 Norfolk S. or [June 20] G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot next, and there's the G2 Railway S. [at The Curragh July 2]. He'll probably go for the G1 Phoenix S. [at The Curragh Aug. 13] and end up in the G1 National S. [at The Curragh Sept. 17]."
