"BAND" ON THE RUN

Bandini (Fusaichi Pegasus) returned after a 10-month layoff to take an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park Mar. 1 and made it two in a row in the Apr. 1 GIII Skip Away H. at the Florida oval. He is 5-2 on the morning-line to add to his streak in the GI Met Mile H. at Belmont today. The dark bay proved he could handle the trip when he stopped the timer in 1:34 flat at Gulfstream, but trainer Todd Pletcher is well aware how tough it is to win this race. Pletcher saddled favored Left Bank to a fifth-place finish in 2002, and saw Strong Hope run third as the crowd's choice in 2004. Last year, he sent second favorite Forest Danger out against Ghostzapper and watched him finish fifth. "You've got to be a lot of horse to get it done in this race," Pletcher said. "They're going to break and they're going to run the whole time. It's a demanding race--I think you could argue that sometimes a mile is the most demanding distance." Silver Train (Old Trieste) led gate to wire to win the one-mile GII Jerome H. last September and came back to win the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. He showed little in his 2006 debut, running seventh in the Mar. 4 GII Richter Scale BC H., but improved to be second in an optional claimer at Aqueduct Apr. 20 and has been working bullets since. The four-year-old is three-for-five at Belmont. "He's going to have show up, but I like the way he's training," trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. said. Sir Greeley (Mr. Greeley) has won four of five tries at a mile, most recently taking the GIII Westchester H. at the Big A in 1:33 3/5.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY

It was a family affair at The Curragh yesterday, as Dermot Weld sent the lightly raced Nighttime (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to take the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas in devastating fashion for Weld's mother Gita, who bred and owns the sophomore. The 12-1 chance hit the front 1 1/2 furlongs out and quickened away for an impressive six-length victory. "I'm delighted to win this for my mother, who is in her ninetieth year," Weld said. "I was for selling her as a yearling and my mother said no...she's always believed in her." Irish 1000 Guineas cont. p2

MAKING A NAME FOR HIMSELF

He won just three of 10 starts while racing overseas, but Silent Name (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) has been unbeatable since shipping to the U.S. He looks to run his stateside record to three-for-three in the GI Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood Park today. Twice a listed winner in France, the bay made his American debut in a Santa Anita allowance test Mar. 12 and came from far back to win it by 3/4 lengths. He showed versatility in his next try, pressing a solid pace in the Apr. 8 GII Arcadia H. en route to a 1 1/2-length score. Trainer Gary Mandella is looking to space the colt's races as he points for lucrative goals at year's end. "I would like to race him only three more times this year," Mandella said. "Those three would be the Del Mar Breeders' Cup Mile [GII, Aug. 26], the [GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Churchill Downs, Nov. 4] and the Citation H., a Grade I here after the Breeders' Cup." Shoemaker cont. p5-6

Silent Name

THE NEAR-PERFECT STORM

With just two rivals lined up against him and only one credible challenger, Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) was expected to impress when firing the opening salvo of his four-year-old campaign in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup. But the manner of his dismissal of Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) was a shot across the bows of the main pretenders to his crown in 2006. Forced to make most of his own running under Kieren Fallon, the bay romped by seven lengths at The Curragh yesterday. Gold Cup cont. p3

October and was not disgraced despite beating just one home. She was coming off a workmanlike Cork maiden success over an extended nine furlongs Apr. 16, but made the jump to this level with impressive ease. Tracking the trail-blazing Confidential Lady (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) through strong early fractions, Nightime was still travelling strongly in the second rank as the field tacked across to the stands' rail as they straightened for home.

Shaken up by Pat Smullen before the quarter pole, the chestnut was soon in command and opened up under a drive to leave the outsider Ardbrae Lady in her wake.

One of a Kind...

"If anything I was too hard on her, but there's only one Guineas," Smullen commented. "Seb Sanders made it a good test on the favourite [Confidential Lady] and there's no doubt it's a good Guineas to go the pace we did and for my filly to quicken up off it. In my eyes she's a 10-furlong filly, and she needed stamina to win today. I think she'll improve again when she steps up in trip." For Weld, stamina is not going to prove an issue for Nightime. "She's always proven to be a decent and improving filly," he said. "She was a very immature filly, but she has progressed and, after Grey Swallow winning the Irish Derby two years ago, this is a special day for us. I think she will stay further and the G1 Coronation S. Undoubtedly the best three-year-old in Europe last season, Hurricane Run met his only defeat over this trip when runner-up to Shamardal in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly in June. He rebounded with wins in the G1 Irish Derby in July and the G2 Prix Niel in September, and was at his dominant peak when steaming by Westerner (GB) to annex the main prize, the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe on his latest start in October.

Connections set out to prove he could cope with this greater test of speed and he emerged with flying colors, picking up the pace from the quarter pole under a hand ride to draw clear. "It was his first race of the year and I wanted him to enjoy it," Kieren Fallon said. "He gave me a wonderful feel last year, but was babyish and he's grown up now and is so much more mature. He stands out on his own and hopefully he'll steer clear of injury."

Andre Fabre, who revealed that the four-year-old cut his tongue and lost a shoe in the race, announced that he will tackle the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud before a tilt at the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 29. Gestut Schlenderhan's homebred Arcadio looked out of the top drawer when powering to a 15-length success in the G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich in May, but there was to be no coronation in Hamburg's G1 Deutsches Derby in early July, when he could only manage third place. He rebounded to finish runner-up to Soldier Hollow (GB) in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis back at Munich later that month, but was sidelined thereafter until returning to take the Apr. 17 Listed Grosser Preis Der VGH Versicherungen at Hannover. Content to race in rear throughout the early stages of this contest, Andreas Suborics took the oft-used route at Baden-Baden when swinging Arcadio wide into the home straight. Grabbing the far rail first, he swamped the long-time leader Day Flight passing the quarter pole before holding his rally in the closing stages.

Successful on debut at this track in October, Puerto Rico followed the pattern of virtually all Ballydoyle colts to have run in the spring of 2006 when looking in need of his return at Gowran Park May 7. He was not disgraced when third behind stable companion Poseidon Adventure (Ire) in that conditions event, and made the expected progression to record a comfortable success here. Settled in third by Kieren Fallon early, he swooped wide to lead approaching the quarter pole and lengthened clear before enjoying an easy time of the final 100 yards. "He's a nice horse and we'll have a look at the [July 2] G1 Irish Derby back here," trainer Aidan O'Brien commented. "He is a good-moving colt with a bit of class and he'll stay a mile and a half."

Remarkable News was the odds-on chalk in his stakes debut and got the job done, but just barely. Unraced in his native country, the chestnut colt was two-for-three last season. He opened 2006 with a third-place finish in a Gulfstream allowance test Feb. 16, came back to take a NW2X over that course Mar. 15 and made it two in a row in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 15. Sent north to try stakes company, the Venezuelan-bred was under a snug hold on the front end, with Le Cinquieme Essai dogging him from the rail. The two turned it up a notch as they raced out of the bend, and Sky Conqueror and Jambalaya (Langfuhr) hit the gas from the middle of the pack; the quartet hit the wire together, but it was the crowd's choice who came out on top. "He was a competitor today," said jockey Javier Castellano, who rode Bernardini to an upset score in the GI Preakness S. May 20. "I was scared at the top of the stretch--it's a long stretch. But everything worked out pretty good." The runner-up had not been out since running third in the Sept. 18 GI Atto Mile. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Coming back after an eight-month layoff, Around The Cape tried turf for the first time in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 13 and won by 2 1/2 lengths. The bay followed up with a third in the Turf Dash at Tampa Bay Mar. 18, and was most recently second by a neck in the GIII Shakertown S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. The second choice to go one better here, he hounded longshot Bold Decision through a half in :44.21. Around The Cape was three wide as they headed into the stretch and battled past the gallant pacesetter to stop the clock in the course-record time of 1:07.31. Jockey Kent Desormeaux, aboard third-placed Summer Service, claimed foul against the top two for interference in the stretch, but the claim was disallowed. "That was a terrific performance," winning trainer Bill Mott said. "Coming off the turn, he looked very strong and, at the end, he kicked clear." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Willow O Wisp is three-for-four on the Hollywood lawn, including a two-length tally in the GIII Cinema BC H. last June. He followed that effort with victories in the Aug. 13 GII La Jolla H. and Sept. 5 GII Del Mar Derby, but tired to be ninth in the G1 Hong Kong Cup in December. Suffering through a tough trip in his 2006 opener, the bay gelding trailed the field under the wire in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Turf S., and was given a break after weakening to seventh behind Milk It Mick and Aragorn in the Mar. 4 GI Frank Kilroe Mile H. He rebounded with a front-running score in the Apr. 29 GIII Inglewood H. and will be the one to catch here. Milk It Mick was third behind Silent Name in the Apr. 8 GII Arcadia H., then shipped to Louisville and filled the show spot once again in the May 6 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic. Aragorn made his latest start in the Apr. 29 GII San Francisco BC H. at Golden Gate. Sent off the 7-5 chalk, he had to settle for second behind Charmo in that one-mile contest. The gray five-year-old Charmo followed back-to-back allowance wins at Santa Anita with a rallying sixth, beaten just a length, in the Kilroe. He was picking up his fourth win from six U.S. starts last time out.

The winner of the GI Las Virgenes S. on the dirt, Sharp Lisa was switched to the turf after a string of disappointing efforts, including a distant third-place finish in the Feb. 12 GII La Canada S. She made her turf debut in the Mar. 26 GII Santa Ana H. and just missed, finishing less than a length adrift of Silver Cup (Ire) in fourth. Sent right to the front in the Apr. 22 GII Santa Barbara H. at 10 furlongs, the chestnut held on gamely to win it by a nose over Eternal Melody; she drops back a panel here. Argentina also shortens up after running fourth in the Santa Barbara. The runner-up in the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix Saint-Alary at three, she made her U.S. bow in the Santa Ana and closed to be second, beaten a half length. Her third dam is the incomparable Allez France. Hollywood Story, winless since taking the GIII Hawthorne H. more than a year ago, gets her first chance on the grass. The five-year-old comes off a second-place effort in the 2006 edition of the Hawthorne at Hollywood May 7.

Mubtaker is still a force to be reckoned with even at nine years old, as he proved when winning the G3 John Porter S. at Newbury Apr. 22. Subsequently disappointing when finishing last in the May 12 G3 Ormonde S. at Chester, he tries his hand at a staying trip for the first time here. On the pick of his past form, which includes a second to Dalakhani (Ire) in the 2003 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp and in three renewals of the G2 Geoffrey Freer S. between 2002 and 2004, he is worthy of maximum respect. Fellow veteran Cover Up, who spent most of his earlier years playing second fiddle to Persian Punch (Ire), has discovered a new lease on life and is on a roll after taking the G3 Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket in October and the G3 Sagaro S. at Lingfield on his return May 3. On both occasions, Tungsten Strike was his prime target; that rival will struggle to reverse form here and provide Amanda Perrett with her second renewal after the exploits of Solo Mio (Ire) in 2001.

She has been taking on the boys, but Pride gets an easier spot here as she bids to return to winning ways. Already a winner in the G3 Prix Allez France and G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris in 2004, she captured the G2 Prix Jean Romanet and G2 Prix Foy last term and rounded off with seconds in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October and G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin in December. Returning to finish fourth in the Apr. 30 G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp, she is primed to add to her impressive stakes tally. Paita was successful in the 2004 G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud, but failed to win last season despite some fine efforts in smart company. Third behind Divine Proportions in the G1 Prix de Diane at Chantilly in June and behind Shawanda (Ire) in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp in September, she filled the show spot once again in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris back at that track the following month. The filly made it count first time back when besting Bastet in the G3 Prix Allez France at Chantilly last time May 2 and rates a threat.

Bluegrass Cat Preps for Belmont...

GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) breezed five furlongs in 1:00.30 at Belmont yesterday morning. The three-year-old skipped the May 20 GI Preakness S., but will be in the gate for the final leg of the Triple Crown, the June 10 GI Belmont S. Trainer Todd Pletcher, who will also send out GI Peter Pan hero Sunriver (Saint Ballado) in the mile-and-a-half test, said "The defections of Barbaro and Bernardini have certainly changed the complexion of the race. Both our horses are doing very well and we are optimistic." Jockey John Velazquez, sidelined since breaking his shoulder blade in a spill at Keeneland Apr. 20, is expected to be back in the saddle to partner Bluegrass Cat in the Belmont. "I feel good," Velazquez said. "I'm just trying to get fit. I'm doing better than I thought I'd be doing at this point. I just need a little more strength in my back and we'll go from there." Ramon Dominguez had the mount in the Derby. Rafael Bejarano rides Sunriver.

Bluegrass Cat Horsephotos

Hofmans Looking to Go Two-for-Two...

Trainer David Hofmans, who sent out Touch Gold to win the 1997 Belmont in his only crack at the Classic to date, will try to run his record in the race to two-for-two with Sacred Light (Holy Bull). The colt was fourth after a troubled trip in the GI Santa Anita Derby and second behind 2005 Belmont third Nolan's Cat in his latest, a Churchill allowance test May 6. The gray worked seven furlongs in 1:28 at Hollywood Park yesterday with jockey Victor Espinoza aboard. "Our plan is to ship him to New York on Tuesday and work him over the track there Sunday," Hofmans said. "Touch Gold ran in the Preakness, but we gave him a good seven-eighths work before the Belmont over the track. I remember talking to Woody Stephens about the importance of getting a work over the track before the Belmont that year." Stephens won five straight Belmont from 1982-86.

Viva Pataka was so impressive in winning two of his first three starts in Hong Kong that he was made the odds-on favorite for the prestigious Hong Kong Derby and he obliged, taking that Mar. 26 event by 1 3/4 lengths. He lost some of his luster in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup Apr. 23 when he was a troubled sixth, but looked to bounce back in this final pattern race of the year. With Mick Kinane in for the ride, Viva Pataka bided his time on the rails towards the back of the pack and was in need of running room as they turned for home. He appeared to toss his head and even looked to jump at one spot, but Kinane got him out wider on the track and he closed stoutly over ground which was not entirely to his advantage. "He's a pretty classy horse and I think he'll be much better again next year," Kinane remarked. "He's an exciting horse for Hong Kong to have for the future, that's for sure." Click here for the HKJC chart; for a video replay: modem or broadband.

O'Brien Shuffles Derby Hand...

Aidan O'Brien could have as many as four representatives in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby, with Kieren Fallon yet to decide on his mount in the Blue Riband. O'Brien confirmed Susan Magnier's G3 Musidora S. runner-up Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) on course for Friday's G1 Epsom Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Turf second Ace (Ire) (Danehill) on target for that afternoon's G1 Coronation Cup, but the Ballydoyle conditioner has not yet made a decision as to his Derby runners. Revealing that Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill) had suffered a setback, he hopes to have Derrick Smith, Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's G2 Dante S. winner Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), Susan Magnier's G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial winner Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and Derrick Smith's Mountain (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) on offer for the mile-and-a-half Classic. "Horatio missed a bit of work two weeks ago with a bruised foot and has been held up a bit, but we'll see when he works again," O'Brien said. "All four will work on Tuesday or Wednesday and we'll know more then which one Kieren will ride."

No Derby Runner for Godolphin...

Godolphin will be without a representative in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby after ruling out Winged Cupid (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) yesterday. With only one winner on the board so far in 2006, the operation is set to analyse the poor start to the term and will scratch last year's G1 Racing Post Trophy runner-up from the Blue Riband, leaving Frankie Dettori free for a possible ride on Sean Mulryan's G3 Lingfield Derby Trial winner Linda's Lad (GB) (Sadler's Wells). "We have a big string of horses at Newmarket and their well-being comes first," Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford said. "They are clearly not right and, although nothing has come to light so far, we need to operate with the maximum amount of caution at this time. Therefore, we are not expecting to have any runners in the immediate future, as it will be necessary to give the horses more time to find their form."

Always held in high regard by trainer Gary Contessa, Mayan King continues to impress since returning from an extended break. The four-year-old began his career with two wins in 2005, but was shelved for 11 months after running seventh in the GII Lane's End S. Mayan King won his comeback, a one-mile NW2X in the slop on the Wood Memorial undercard Apr. 8, by an easy 3 1/2 lengths, then completed the exacta when stepped up to this level at Belmont May 4. The choice here over Noble Causeway, he made every pole a winning one under a confident Mike Luzzi ride.

Louve Royale, shipped over from Britain last summer, has yet to miss the board in eight U.S. efforts. Despite her gameness, she didn't earn her first American win until she registered a narrow head victory in a Keeneland maiden Apr. 9. Following that up with a second to Noble Stella (Ger) in the Apr. 26 GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland, Louve Royale was favored in this easier spot. The chestnut broke in the air at the start, but recovered well under Julien Leparoux and settled into stride while tracking from the back of a small five-horse field. Asked to pick it up as they turned into the lane, she rallied wide, set her sights on Sweet Science and pulled clear. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

She ran second in the GII Raven Run S. in mid-October, then threw in a rare clunker when eighth in the GII Falls City H. at Churchill Nov. 24 before going to the sidelines. The four-year-old came up 3/4-lengths short in her return sprinting at Oaklawn Mar. 17, and was trying the turf for the first time here while stretching out. The slight second choice behind May Gator, Flying Glitter was at the head of affairs through relaxed splits and had plenty in the tank once put to a drive.

My Miss Storm Cat stamped herself one to watch with a 10-length debut maiden win at Hollywood two years ago, but she has had only limited opportunities to grab the spotlight since. Third in the GIII Landaluce S. at two, she was then off for 11 months, returning to post a six-length victory in a Del Mar allowance test last August. Her next start came in the Dec. 31 GI La Brea S., where she tired badly to be ninth, but the dark bay rebounded with a five-length score in an optional claimer at Santa Anita Mar. 26. Odds-on to get her first black-type tally, she allowed Maryfield the lead through a half in :44.26, took control at the top of the lane and went on to win as she pleased. "The other horse is a little too speed crazy and I didn't want to go with her early on," jockey Victor Espinoza explained. "I just wanted to track somebody, but she did pretty much everything by herself. Once I pulled up beside the other horse around the turn, I knew that was it. She was impressive today." The bay failed as the favorite in a third-place finish against Hollywood allowance foes Dec. 10, then was given a breather when up the track in the Dec. 31 GI La Brea S. at Santa Anita. Changing surfaces for her four-year-old debut, Simply Because took a liking the sod and blazed the way through wicked :20 3/5 and :43 fractions. Digging in as jockey Pat Valenzuela gave her a few taps of the whip, the $135,000 KEESEP yearling hit the wire 2 1/2 lengths in advance of Inside Chance (Fargo). The chestnut filly was beaten a nose in her U.S. debut, an optional claimer going 10 furlongs at Santa Anita Mar. 16, and finished second again in a Hollywood allowance at a mile and an eighth Apr. 29. Stretching back out as the 4-5 chalk here, she put the pressure on the pacesetter down the backstretch, took a short lead as they hit the quarter pole and outfinished Thanks (Royal Anthem) for a one-length tally. She came back to earth to fill the runner-up spot once again at Hollywood Apr. 29 and was off at 2-1 to go one better here. Never far from the front, the dark bay took over in the stretch and pulled away to a 3 1/2-length score over Madonna Mia (Brz) (Mr. Fritz {Brz}). GEORGE WASHINGTON PALACE-BOUND

Aidan O'Brien believes that the defeat of Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) in Saturday's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas would make a "man" of the celebrated enigmatic colt. Having shown his usual flamboyance in the preliminaries, he suffered a two-length reversal of the Newmarket G1 2000 Guineas form at the hands of Araafa (Ire). His trainer was looking forward to the pair meeting again in the June 20 G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot. "I was delighted with him," he said yesterday. "He walked out of the race a man. He has to grow up and face reality. He loves his racing and that can only have done him good. Ideally he wants fast ground, but racing on all surfaces will make a man of him and he'll run in the St James's Palace next."

NOSEDA UP FOR DECIDER

Trainer Jeremy Noseda yesterday reported his G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) to be "okay" after his two-length defeat of George Washington (Ire) in the Curragh Classic. Saleh Al Homaizi & Imad Al Sagar's sophomore was fourth behind that rival in the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket before reversing the form and his conditioner is relishing the prospect of a rematch in the June 20 G1 St James' Palace S. at Royal Ascot. "I'm absolutely thrilled with Araafa's win, but now we'll put our heads down and work towards Royal Ascot," Noseda commented. "We are looking forward to a rematch there with George Washington. It's 1-1 and we will lock horns with him again in the St James' Palace S. Araafa is on his way back home and is expected to get back to Newmarket this afternoon."
