ELEVEN FACE STARTER IN OAKS

A field of 11 will line up for tomorrow's G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom, with Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor & Derrick Smith's Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) holding onto favoritism in an open renewal. Bidding to provide Ballydoyle with its third renewal since 1998, she has to reverse placings with John Greetham's Short Skirt (GB) (Diktat {GB}), who bested her in York's G3 Musidora S. last time May 17. Jockey Kieren Fallon thinks there is more to come. "She looked great the other morning--the way Aidan's usually do when they've had a run," he said. "She was knocked over at the start of the Musidora and had the stuffing knocked out of her and then I went too soon on her. She did nothing wrong and if she improves on that, she's the one they have to beat." Alexandrova has already proven herself at the highest level, when second in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Newmarket in September, but it is her maiden success at the Tralee's August festival that convinces Fallon that she has the right material for this test. "I can't see why she wouldn't handle Epsom," he added. "She went around Tralee as a maiden, which is quite a tricky, sharp track and she travels well." Sir Michael Stoute carried out the most notable withdrawal at yesterday's stage when scratching Ballymacoll Stud's Scottish Stage (Ire) (Selkirk), leaving him two-handed in the Classic with John Greetham's Short Skirt and His Highness the Aga Khan's Listed Pretty Polly S. winner Riyalma (Ire) (Selkirk). Trainer Pam Sly, son Michael and Dr Tom Davies will be at the center of attention tomorrow after deciding to supplement their G1 English 1000 Guineas winner Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}). For her conditioner, the question is one of stamina as she prepares the mile Classic heroine to tackle the extra four panels. "She just might stay, but if she doesn't there are other races she can go for," Sly commented. "I went there for the first time on Thursday and I was amazed at how steep the first two furlongs are and they're climbing for the first half mile, but then it levels off and goes downhill. I think she'll handle the track, because she's a very well-balanced filly and we hope she can finish in the first four."

SILVER TRAIN TO VINERY

Silver Train (Old Trieste--Ridden in Thestars, by Cormorant), winner of last season's GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and Monday's GI Metropolitan H., will stand at Vinery, in Lexington, Ky. upon the conclusion of his racing career. "We have followed the career of Silver Train very closely since his victory in the Breeders' Cup Sprint last year and his recent victory in the Metropolitan certainly establishes him as a top stallion prospect," said Vinery

Co-General Manager Tom Ludt. "He will be syndicated for stud duty, and we will announce his fee at the end of his career." The Buckram Oak colorbearer became a millionaire following his victory in the Met Mile. He has earned $1,127,345 to date, which includes five victories and six minor placings from 14 starts. "I think he will be extremely popular with breeders," said Co-General Manager Ben McElroy. "Silver Train is something of a rarity in that he is a top-class sprinter, who can carry his blistering speed through a mile." Silver Train, a $140,000 FTKJUL yearling acquisition, was bred in Kentucky by Joe Mulholland Sr., Joe Mulholland Jr. and others.

Dutrow Changes Tune...

Silver Train will likely point for the July 16 GI Tom Fool H. at Belmont Park, according to Daily Racing Form. Following the colt's victory in the Met Mile, trainer Rick Dutrow, Jr. had suggested stretching him out in distance for the 1 1/4-mile July 1 GI Suburban H. "We're not going to rule out the Suburban, but most likely it's the Tom Fool," Dutrow told DRF. "I'm sure we can depend on him to run a good race going seven furlongs."

FALLON COMMITS TO HORATIO Kieren Fallon has decided to ride Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill) in Saturday's £1.25-million G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom following a morning of workouts Tuesday. Last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner was eighth on his sophomore bow in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, but trainer Aidan O'Brien believes he has made progress since that return. "[Kieren] was happy with all of [the Derby contenders], but he was most impressed by Horatio Nelson," O'Brien told the Racing Post Tuesday. "He had ridden him before the 2000 Guineas and he was much happier with him today." The Ballydoyle conditioner also revealed that Johnny Murtagh would ride one of his other Derby contenders; G2 Dante S. winner Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), or G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial first and second Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and Mountain (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Michael Kinane is also linked to the operation. One representative of the the Coolmore team with firm riding plans is the Sir Michael Stoute-trained May 11 G3 Chester Vase scorer Papal Bull (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), who will be partnered by Robert Winston. "He's a horse that connections haven't really got to the bottom of yet," Winston said. "The main thing is that he's got to the track and done everything right. He's not very big, but at the same time he has a big heart."

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

'RULES' SET FOR JOCKEY-CLUB Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Faisal Salman's Aussie Rules (Danehill) is set to run in Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly, for which 24 colts stood their ground at yesterday's stage. Aidan O'Brien confirmed the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains hero on target for the 1 5/16-mile Classic. "Aussie Rules is likely to be our runner, although it is possible that one from Altius (Ire) (Danehill), Hurricane Cat (Storm Cat), Major Commitment (Danzig) and River Tiber (GB) (Danehill) may join him," O'Brien told the Racing Post. Bill Gredley's G1 2000 Guineas third Olympian Odyssey (GB) (Sadler's Wells) will tackle the Chantilly Classic instead of the Epsom Derby and Jamie Spencer will ride. Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's G3 Lingfield Derby Trial runner-up Hazeymm (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) and Evelyn Hankinson's G3 Dee S. winner Art Deco (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) will complete a strong overseas challenge, with Frankie Dettori aboard the latter.

NO BELMONT FOR 'SAINT' Trainer Mike Trombetta told Daily Racing Form yesterday that

2006 Preakness S.
Sherackatthetrack

Sweetnorthernsaint (Sweetnorthern) will not contest next Saturday's GI Belmont S. "We don't want to overdo it," Trombetta said. "Now seems like the right time to take half a step back." His withdrawal means that no three-year-old will have participated in each of this year's Triple Crown races. The beaten favorite in the GI Kentucky Derby, Sweetnorthern was the runner-up in the GI Preakness S. May 20, but reportedly grabbed a quarter during that contest. After a brief rest, the GI Illinois Derby hero is expected to race again in July before a tilt at either the $1-million GI Haskell Invitational H. at Monmouth or the $750,000 GIII West Virginia Derby at Mountaineer. Both will be contested Aug. 6.

BOB AND JOHN GEARING UP FOR BELMONT

Bob and John (Seeking the Gold), winner of the GI Wood Memorial S., drilled six furlongs in 1:12.20 at Santa Anita yesterday in preparation for the June 10 GI Belmont S. "The track was really dead today, so this was a very good work," trainer Bob Baffert told the Blood-Horse. "He was supposed to break off with a workmate, but she got the jump on him and opened up eight lengths. He caught her at the sixteenth pole and went right on by. He came home real strong and got a lot out of the work." Bob and John was last seen finishing 17th in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6. "The Kentucky Derby was a disaster," Baffert continued.

"Garrett [Gomez] wasn't aggressive enough early and they put the squeeze on him."

Fair Hill Training Center to Install All Weather Surface:

Fair Hill Training Center in Elkton, Maryland, announced that a new all-weather track will be installed, replacing the facility's woodchip training surface. The Tapeta surface, introduced six years ago to trainer Michael Dickinson's farm in North East, Maryland, is scheduled to be installed at Fair Hill later this summer. "Over the years our wood chip track has served us well as an "alternative" training surface, however, it is seasonal," said Sally Goswell, Fair Hill Training Center manager. "Training is difficult even during the mildest winters; track conditions are impacted directly by the weather making it extremely costly to keep the dirt track open and virtually impossible to have a consistent surface on a daily basis. Explaining the decision to add an all weather surface to the Fair Hill program, Goswell added, "We have been watching with growing interest the advent of all weather surfaces in this country. They are not affected by adverse weather conditions and do not freeze in the winter, thus providing uniform track conditions every day. Having done due diligence, we are confident that Tapeta is the best synthetic surface available to meet our needs from both a safety perspective and maintenance perspective."

I-Gaming Debate to Continue in June

The House of Representatives is expected to take up two I-gaming bills, the Internet Gambling Prohibition Act (H.R. 4777), sponsored by Rep. Bob Goodlatte (R-VA), and the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (H.R. 4411), sponsored by Rep. Jim Leach (R-IA). It is not known which will be the "base bill" for the House debate, which is expected to begin in mid-June. Each bill contains a provision recognizing horse racing's authority to conduct online pari-mutuel wagering under the Interstate Horseracing Act. The bills are likely to be melded by the Rules Committee or House Leadership.

Successful in the G1 Melbourne Cup nearly four years ago, Media Puzzle has only been sighted four times since that career high and came off the shelf to run fourth in the Apr. 9 Listed Alleged S. at The Curragh last time. Confirming he retains much of his ability here, he exhibited resolution in the straight to secure a deserved win in the meeting highlight. Settled in fifth for much of the marathon contest, the nine-year-old came under pressure after the home turn, but stayed on dourly in the closing stages to bag the prize. "He has had chronic leg problems and takes a lot of minding, especially at nine," winning trainer Dermot Weld told PA Sport. Kevin Ryan's two-year-old academy is in full swing at present and punters took note that Roxan was the team's selection for this competitive event, despite making her racecourse bow at stakes level. That faith was repaid thrice over as the daughter of Rock of Gibraltar scored in emphatic style to secure a black-type win for her freshman sire. Slack from the gate, the eventual winner raced under cover in rear until coaxed forward after halfway. Seizing control at the eighth pole, the debutante put the contest to bed in a matter of strides and dominated the closing stages for an easy success. "We've known from the start that she has always been a bit special," Ryan told PA Sport. "We have got patient owners and have had to take our time with her, we had to wait for the right ground. She is going to improve a lot for that fitness-wise as she ran a bit green. Two furlongs down she was always going to win. The [G2] Queen Mary [at Royal Ascot June 21] was always the plan and still is. She's very special."
