TIME HONORED

Decades of tradition will be on display in today's G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom, with the jackets of four past heroines set to be graced in this renewal. Robert

Barnett's cherry silks will forever be etched into the memory of past winners thanks to the exploits of the great Time Charter (GB) in 1982, and it is the duty of Time On (GB) (Sadler's Wells) to fly the flag this time. His Highness the Aga Khan's emerald green were successful in 1989, only for the race to be later stripped from the impressive Aliysa (Ire), and Riyalma (Ire) (Selkirk) steps forward to settle a score. Susan Magnier's dark blue colors came to the fore thanks to Imagine (Ire) in the 2001 edition and Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) represents the all-conquering Irish influence for Ballydoyle. Even the silks of the late Dick Hollingsworth, made successful by Bireme (GB) in 1980, are in the line-up courtesy of Prowess (Ire) (Peintre Celebre).

Time Marches On...

Time On has a plenty of history on her side as she represents the John Dunlop stable successful with Circus Plume (GB) in 1984 and Salsabil (Ire) in 1990. With three-time Oaks winner Frankie Dettori in the saddle, she bids to become the first since Lupe (GB) in 1970 to collect the Listed Cheshire Oaks en route to glory here, and the ease of that three-length success May 10 off a Folkestone maiden win suggests she can hold her own. "She's an improving filly and there doesn't appear to be a standout in the race," the owner-breeder's Racing Advisor Will Edmeades told PA Sport. "She's a Sadler's Wells on Darshaan from a great family, the great grandmother won the race so it's worth having a shot. I don't think we'll have any concerns over going or stamina and I think she'll act round Epsom, because she's quite a handy filly and she acted round Chester and she acted round Folkestone."

SWEET LIKE SHERGAR?

It's been a full quarter-century since His Highness the Aga Khan's Shergar (GB) opened up to score by a record-setting 10 lengths in the G1 Epsom Derby. To-tomorrow, Visindar (GB), a chestnut son of the Aga Khan's 2000 Blue Riband hero Sinndar (Ire), will exit from the eight hole in his bid to become winner number five and secure a place in his owner's Hall of Fame. Conversely, Visindar's trainer, Andre Fabre, has suffered from a hoodoo in this prize stretching back to Shergar's year and involving seven contenders overall, none of which fared any better than ninth.

Visindar's unbeaten run to date culminated in a smooth four-length success in Saint-Cloud's May 15 G2 Prix Greffulhe, and the Aga Khan's Racing Manager Pat Downes is hoping that the colt can snap his trainer's run of woe. "Andre has never won a Derby, but he is taking some comfort from the fact the the green and red colors know their way to the winning post," he commented. "Visindar appears to be a very well-balanced individual, but you don't really know until you see them running on the course how they are going to handle it. So far, albeit on quiet days in France, he has shown that he does have a very good temperament and he seems a very relaxed individual, so I wouldn't anticipate that the atmosphere should be a problem. It is without doubt the ultimate test for a Thoroughbred and we still view it as a supreme test."

'BOARD' AND THE BOYS IN CORONATION

A compact but select six-horse field lines up in today's G1 Vodafone Coronation Cup at Epsom, with the likes of last year's G1 Breeders' Cup Turf one-two Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) and Ace (Ire) (Danehill) joined by super filly Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Coronation Cup, p5

Riyalma, who along with John Greetham's May 17 G3 Musidora S. winner Short Skirt (GB) (Diktat {GB}) bids to provide Sir Michael Stoute with his third renewal, is following in the footsteps of the 2004 heroine Ouija Board (GB) by capturing the Listed Pretty Polly S. at Newmarket May 7. Three winners of the Musidora have come on to win this Classic and Short Skirt had a comfortable 1 1/4-length cushion over Alexandrova in that York prep. "She may be improving, but Sir Michael Stoute wouldn't tell me if he knew," the Norfolk owner-breeder told the Racing Post. "But she's a fine, big filly. Sir Michael told me another two furlongs won't bother her in the slightest and she wasn't even drawing breath after York."

Mick Channon is still chasing his first British Classic winner and saddles outsiders Kassiopeia (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Kaylianni (GB) (Kalanisi {Ire}). Both appear to have mountains to climb off their latest starts, a fifth in the Listed Lingfield Oaks Trial May 13 and fourth in the Cheshire Oaks, respectively. "All the judges say we should leave them at home, but it would be a boring race if we didn't have a go," Channon said. "Kassiopeia is an out-and-out stayer, but she's an improver, and Kaylianni does have a kick. She's come on a ton for the Cheshire Oaks and I'm been very pleased with her--the ground will suit her."

FIRST CROP STAKES WINNER

ROXAN won 5f. Hilary Needler Trophy-L.R. on debut for Kevin Ryan on 31st May.

“ROXAN had such a tall reputation that she was sent off favourite, despite facing some pretty smart sorts, but she passed her test in excellent style... produced a searing turn of foot entering the final furlong to win with something to spare. She is now Royal Ascot-bound for the GR.2 QUEEN MARY STAKES and, on this showing, she must have a major chance.”

Full Nelson...

Kieren Fallon, who is looking for his fourth Derby since winning astride Oath (Ire) in 1999, will ride Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's Horatio Nelson (Ire)

(Danehill) and has received an outside draw in 15, the same stall from which Sinndar broke six years ago. Last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere victor bids to become the first colt since Generous (Ire) in 1991 to win this off a run in Newmarket's G1 20000 Guineas, in which he was eighth behind George Washington (Ire) May 6. Michael

Kinane has been booked for Susan Magnier, Derrick Smith & Michael Tabor's Septimus (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) as he bids for a third renewal after the exploits of Commander in Chief (GB) in 1993 and Galileo (Ire) in 2001. Septimus, who put eight lengths between himself and Gainsborough Stud's Best Alibi (Ire) (King's Best) in the May 18 G2 Dante S., is looking to be the third straight winner of that York prep to double up here after North Light (Ire) and Motivator (GB) and is drawn in the box number nine. With two-time winner Johnny Murtagh on the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial hero Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) and Seamus Heffernan on that race's runner-up Mountain (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), Aidan O'Brien has a strong hand to improve on his record of two wins and a second since 2001. "With Horatio Nelson, the plan was always to go to the Derby after the Guineas if everything was well with him," the conditioner commented. "We thought he was a little bit behind at Newmarket and that he would improve for that run. Septimus handled the ease in the ground well at York and came home very well and Dylan Thomas was a horse we always hoped would get a mile and a half and he looked the type to do well from two to three. He did it well in the Derrinstown Stud Trial and Mountain also ran well to finish second."

Trainer Mick Channon relies on John Livock's Championship Point (Ire) (Lomitas {GB}), who bids to become the first winner of Goodwood's Listed Predominate S. to triumph here since Troy (GB) in 1979. He tasted defeat only once as a juvenile, when losing out in a bobber to Sean Mulryan's Linda's Lad (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in the Listed Criterium du FEE at Deauville in August, but looked a different proposition when accounting for Sienna Storm (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) by an eased-down four lengths in the Predominate May 6. "He's just a smashing horse to have about and he only ever does enough," his conditioner said yesterday. "He's got a great attitude and a touch of class and we're very hopeful. It's a very open Derby, but the way I see it, Visindar wouldn't be that price if he wasn't a lot better than Linda's Lad and Aidan O'Brien has got a real strong hand--Horatio Nelson must have come right, so it will be very interesting. It's very difficult to weigh up the form of the Derby, but the great thing is, we're going to get proper racing ground and I couldn't be happier with my horse. He seems to be coming right at the right time, so we'll just have to see what happens." Epsom's Clerk of the Course Andrew Cooper yesterday described the going as officially "good" ahead of today's opener to the Vodafone Derby meeting. "It should be nice Flat racing ground; I certainly had no hesitation in dropping the good-to-soft places, and it will continue to dry," he told PA Sport yesterday. "There is no rain around, so it will only get quicker, but it is not ground that is going to be worse than good-to-firm at any stage of the meeting."

Shirocco bids to extend his trainer's distinguished record in this contest, with five renewals having fallen to France's champion since 1986. Formerly trained by Andreas Schutz, he was the four-length winner of the 2004 G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg before besting Electrocutonist in a bobber to win Milan's G1 Gran Premio del Jockey Club in October of that year. Transferred to Fabre's barn, he followed a third in the G2 Prix Foy at Longchamp in September with a good fourth behind Hurricane Run (Ire) in the Oct. 2 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Helped by downpours in New York, he beat Ace decisively in Belmont's G1 Breeders' Cup Turf Oct. 29 and defied a penalty on his return to take the G2 Jockey Club S. in the soft going at Newmarket last time May 7. Despite his track record, connections are unconcerned about the drying ground this week. Cont.

"He's in great and shape and we are delighted with him, but he doesn't necessarily need it as soft as everyone seems to be making out," owner-breeder Baron Georg von Ullmann's Racing Manager Paul Harley told PA Sport. "His best performances have been on soft ground, but good ground is also perfect for him. Myself and Mr. Fabre certainly don't have any problems with the ground being either soft or good. Christophe [Soumillon] is very happy too and I would say the horse is now fit and ready to go to war." Ouija Board needs no introduction, boasting world renown as she returns to the venue where it all began when winning the G1 Epsom Oaks two years ago. With G1 Irish Oaks and G1 Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf successes tacked on as a sophomore, great things were expected at four. Coming to hand late after some summer setbacks, she ran second in the Filly and Mare Turf at Belmont in October before annexing the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December. Only fourth on her return in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba Mar. 25, she finished with a purpose when third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup back at Sha Tin last time Apr. 23. "She seems extremely well in her work at home recently and we are hopeful of a big run," trainer Ed Dunlop's Racing Secretary Peter Shoemark commented.

Last year's G2 Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) winner Ramonti takes the next step on his road back to the top for the all-conquering Botti brothers, successful in 1995 with Les Boyer (GB). Following his impressive Capannelle Classic victory last April, he went within a head of completing the elusive Parioli--Derby Italiano double when runner-up to De Sica (Ire) here the following month. He returned with an easy success in a course-and-distance conditions event Apr. 4, before finding subsequent G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica hero Distant Way too strong in the May 1 Listed Premio Signorino in Rome. Back to winning ways last time in the May 13 Listed Premio Bereguardo over course and distance, he faces the veteran Nordhal, who bids to successfully defend in this event. Having bested Ryono and Distant Way 12 months ago, he was third behind Electrocutonist in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano in June before his form tailed off, but he enjoyed a confidence booster in a conditions race here on Saturday.

NEW STRUCTURE AT DARLEY A new management structure has been announced at Darley USA, according to a press release. Jimmy Bell will serve as both president and racing manager, while Dan Pride, who had headed the stallion nominations office for the past four years, will now act as chief operations officer. "With anticipated growth in our stallion, racing and farm activities," Bell said, "we are positioning Darley to meet the goals set out by Sheikh Mohammed. This new structure allows us to develop and grow in the years to come." In addition, bloodstock agent Charlie Boden will take over Pride's previous position as stallion nominations manager Aug. 1. "Creating stallions for Darley continues to be a primary goal for our operations," Bell continued. "Dan's exceptional strategic and management skills are going to be put to good use making the most of the Bernardinis of the future. Equally, we are thrilled to be extending our relationship with Charlie Boden, who has previously worked with me on the Darley racing side. Charlie is very knowledgeable and is well known throughout the industry, and I am sure Darley clients will enjoy dealing with him on a day-to-day basis."

OH SO AWESOME WORKS TOWARD BELMONT

Team Valor Stable's European import Oh So Awesome (Awesome Again) breezed seven furlongs at Belmont Park yesterday, stopping the clock in 1:27.84 as he continues to work toward the June 10 GI Belmont S. "It wasn't spectacular; he's not that kind of horse," admitted trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "But he did just about what I expected him to do." Transferred to Jerkens's barn after beginning his career in France, Oh So Awesome ran a closing third in his U.S. debut, the off-the-turf May 19 Match the Hatch S. going 1 1/16 miles at Belmont. "I thought his last race was a good one, and I think he can move forward off it," Jerkens said. "I mean, I think that Todd Pletcher has the two most accomplished horses in the [Belmont] field [Bluegrass Cat and Sunriver], but other than that, I think it is pretty wide open."

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

COREY NAKATANI

This week's accomplishment:
Nakatani reached the 3,000-win plateau at Hollywood Park Monday. The 35-year-old jockey won four races on the Memorial Day card, including his 2,999th in the GI Shoemaker BC H. aboard Aragorn (Ire) before his milestone win on Shakin N Dancin in a maiden special weight.

Birthdate: 10.1.70

Birthplace: Covina, CA

Family: Daughter Brittany, sons Matthew and Austin

Current Residence: Glendora, CA

Of all the horses you have been around, who has been your favorite and why? That's a tough one, but I'd say Sandpit (Brz). He had a lot of personality to him. He knew what he doing, knew where he was at.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? More horses. Or more good horses.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Hawaii. It's my favorite place. I go there at least once a year.

Favorite food or meal? In-N-Out Burgers. Double-double, animal style: grilled onions, pickles and tomatoes.

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? The one with Jim Carrey, Liar Liar.

What do you do to stay in shape? I just work horses in the mornings. That's enough.

What's playing in your CD player right now? I've got some Rolling Stones in there, some Doors, some Eminem. I've got everything. Some country, Garth Brooks.

Proudest Moment? I would say winning my first Breeders' Cup race; I won two up at Woodbine, on Lit de Justice (in the BC Sprint) and Jewel Princess (in the BC Distaff). Also, my first Kentucky Oaks, on Lite Light.

Perfect Day? Play 18 or 36 holes of golf, then go and win five or six races. That would be a perfect day, in a perfect world.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's

Lost in the Fog Arrives at Churchill:

The 2005 sprint champion Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier) arrived at Churchill Downs Wednesday afternoon in advance of tomorrow's six-furlong GIII Aristides Breeders' Cup H. The bay is bedded down in trainer Bob Holthus's barn. Also arriving was stablemate Victorina (Delaware Township), who joins the champ on Saturday's card in the GIII Dogwood Breeders' Cup S. for three-year-old fillies. Trainer Greg Gilchrist said both horses handled the trip well, though he opted to not send them to the track yesterday. "It was very warm and muggy when we first came in [Thursday] morning and they were a little jacked up," said Gilchrist. "But they jumped right into their feed tubs and everything is fine, it looks like." Lost in the Fog has drawn the five hole in the Aristides.

Perfect Drift Works; Stephen Foster Next:

Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) worked at Churchill Downs' Trackside Louisville training center yesterday and, despite missing some training time with a tender foot, is on course for a tilt in the June 17 GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill. Winner of the 2003 Stephen Foster over eventual Horse of the Year Mineshaft, Perfect Drift covered the five-furlong distance yesterday in 1:03 1/5 under regular exercise rider Joe Deegan. "Everything seems good," said his trainer, Murray Johnson. "We'll work him again, probably next Tuesday, and move forward to the Foster." In his seasonal debut, Perfect Drift ran last of 10 in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic on the Kentucky Derby undercard. He came up with some heat in a foot just prior to a planned work last Saturday, but missed just three days of training time, said Johnson.

MAGGIE SLEW (f, 3, Seattle Slew--May Day Ninety, by Alydar) opened 2006 with a respectable third in a $63,000 optional claimer at Oaklawn Apr. 8. Relishing the mud last time, the half to Roza Robata (Fire Maker), MGSW & MGISP, $732,780; and Burger Day (Vicksburg), SW, $270,077, proved much the best, scoring by five lengths here May 2. Sent off the 6-5 choice this time, the dark bay tracked the early pace, mounted a four-wide move to take over from early leader Talented (Fusaichi Pegasus) and drew clear to hand that foe a 2 3/4-length defeat. Lifetime Record: 8-3-1-1, $92,580.

GRAND PRIX (GB) (c, 2, Grand Lodge--Divine Quest {GB}, by Kris {GB}), runner-up to the subsequent Ascot conditions scorer Baby Strange (GB) in a Bath maiden last time May 17, was all the rage at 10-11 and broke best of all. Reined back to take a lead throughout the early stages, the 20,000gns TATOCT yearling made his forward move to lead approaching the furlong marker and was driven out to beat Dee Jay Wells (GB) (Ishiguru) by three lengths. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £5,716.

Settled off the pace until the straight in this, the 9-2 chance was pushed along to challenge Dream Rose (Ire) (Anabaa) with 2 1/2 furlongs to go and responded to a forceful drive thereafter to deny that game rival in the bobber. He was a 140,000gns TATOCT yearling acquisition. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-1, £4,946.

VENDANGEUR (IRE) (c, 3, Galileo {Ire}--Vahine, by Alysheba) was runner-up on debut, over course and distance Apr. 18, and went postward as the 9-10 pick returning from a third at Chantilly May 10. Positioned second until shuffled back into a pocket at the top of the stretch, the bay homebred angled out for his run approaching the final eighth and closed late to deny Balius (Ire) (Mujahid) by a short neck on the line. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 1 win, 2 places, €28,050.

ASIA

RAIDERS SETTLE IN FOR YASUDA KINEN The three foreign invaders for Sunday's G1 Yasuda Kinen, were out for routine work yesterday morning at Tokyo Racecourse, site of the 1600-meter fixture. The veteran Bullish Luck (Royal Academy) is the lone member of the field with a victory in a leg of the Asian Mile Challenge and could earn a US$1 million bonus with a victory on the weekend. The seven-year-old successfully defended his title in the Champions Mile at Sha Tin May 7 and will try to improve on his very good fourth-place effort in this last year (video) when he charged from well back to be beaten less than two lengths by Asakusa Den'en (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}). Says his trainer Tony Cruz, "Compared to last year, his form is physically about the same, but his attitude is more mature and professional." The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) has been a consistent performer in Hong Kong, highlighted by his runner-up effort to Hat Trick (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) in the G1 Hong Kong Mile in December. Joyful Winner (Aus) (El Moxie) bested Silent Witness (Aus) in the HK-G1 Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup over 1400 meters Apr. 15 before finishing third to Bullish Luck in the Champions Mile. The lightly raced six-year-old has been a progressive sort this year and could be sitting on a top performance Sunday. "The horse is almost in tip-top condition," commented trainer John Moore. "This horse has raced well in mostly 1400m races in Hong Kong, but he's a mile horse and I'm sure he can show good leg in the end even in a tough Tokyo mile race."

VADAZING (FR) (Spinning World), a debutantes winner at Angers Mar. 20 and a conditions fourth at Longchamp last time May 4, represents His Highness The Aga Khan who watched his silks carried to victory by half-sister Vadawina (Ire) in last term's G1 Prix Saint-Alary. While not ready to scale those heights just yet, the Lagardere-bred holds court with Edouard de Rothschild's Ciel Indien (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), a half-brother to a brace of homebred Group 3 winners, in this intriguing four-runner affair.

CHANGING HANDS

MALIBU MINT, f, 4, Malibu Moon--Ivory Mint, by Key to the Mint.

Lifetime Record: SW, 17-4-3-1, $141,129.

Breeder: B. Wayne Hughes (Ky).

From Owner: Carolyn M Chapman.

From Trainer: Jim Cassidy.

To Owner: John and Martha Jane Mulholland.

To Trainer: Remains with Cassidy.

Broker: Bill Mauk of Mauk Equine Brokerage.

Notes: Out of the stakes-winning Key to the Mint mare Ivory Mint, an earner of $198,041, Malibu Mint enjoyed a busy 12-race season last year. The highlight of her campaign was a victory in Calder's Chaposa Springs H. on New Year's Eve. Recently, she stumbled and lost her rider in the G1 Humana Distaff H. at Churchill May 6, but recovered to be second in the May 27 Winning Colors H. at the same track. She's been purchased by John and Martha Jane Mulholland of Mulholland Springs Farm, Lexington KY. The Mulhollands, incidently, bred the winner of the Winning Colors, Ever Elusive (Forestry).
