DARSI DELIVERS

His Highness the Aga Khan suffered the disappointment of watching Visindar (GB) finish fifth in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby, but his homebred Darsi (Fr) (Polish

www.france-galop.com

Precedent) provided the ultimate pick-me-up when winning yesterday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly. Always close to the pace, the 15-2 chance ground his way past Arras (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) in the final eighth and went on to a 3/4-of-a-length success from Best Name (GB) (King's

Best) to hand Christophe Soumillon the perfect 25th birthday present. "He's a lovely horse and the strong pace in the race helped him, as he stays," said trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre, who saddled Dalakhani (Ire) to win this race three years ago. "We were taking a chance running him, as I had him entered in the Listed Prix de l'Avre over a mile and a half last week, but His Highness said to run here as it was wide open and he had worked well." cont.p2

Not to be Denied...

Showing the drop back in trip to be no issue, Darsi travelled strongly behind the early leaders before challenging Arras in the final quarter. Soumillon lost his whip in the frantic final battle, but Darsi proved game and rolled by with 150 yards remaining before asserting as the cavalry closed in. "I had a dream trip behind Arras and Olivier Peslier, who took me far, and he quickened really nicely," Soumillon said. "I lost my whip, but he did it anyway." Peslier was far from downcast about the eventual third. "Maybe they didn't go fast enough for him, as he was always a little bit keen, but he fought very well and it's the first time he's had to," he commented. Christophe-Patrice Lemaire, aboard the runner-up, said. "I'm delighted with his run and he finished superbly. His wide draw probably played its part and I had to hold him up, so the winner got first run." Aussie Rules (Danahill), sent off the 4-1 crowd's choice, stayed on from mid-division in the straight to finish a never-nearer seventh. cont. p2

ATTIMA'S WEDDING MARCH

Lightly-raced Attima (Zafonic) gave connections reason to believe that they had made a wise investment when she galloped off to an impressive 3 1/2-length score in her U.S. debut May 10, but the English-bred looked like a steal when she made short work of six others to take yesterday's GII Honeymoon Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood Park. Taken to the front from the word go, the bay led by a comfortable margin through an opening half mile in :47.95 and was still in front by two lengths after a three quarters of a mile in 1:11.81. Foxysox (GB)

(Foxhound), winner of the GIII Provedencia S. and GIII Senorita S. in her last two starts, made a go at the leader, cutting her rival's advantage to only a 1/2 length with only a furlong to negotiate. But unfortunately for Foxysox, the front-runner had more in reserve and the favorite pulled away again to collect her first graded stakes score. "She does everything by herself, nice and easy," said winning rider Victor Espinoza. "She took the lead without a problem. Most of the time somebody tries to go to the lead, but this time was like nobody wanted to go, so I thought we might as well take advantage of it while we can." In addition to collecting her first graded stakes victory, Attima also earned an automatic berth in the G1 American Oaks July 2, but trainer Julio Canani remains undecided whether his filly will go to the 10-furlong contest.

Making the Trip...

Attima visited the winner's circle only once during her European campaign, a Maisons-Laffitte conditions event last June, but fared well enough to finish a respectable third, before getting bumped up to second, in the G3 Prix La Rochette at Longchamp Sept. 8. A well-beaten 11th in her final start for Pascal Bary in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac Oct. 2, the bay was given some time off and reappeared at Hollywood with a dominant score in a one-mile allowance May 10.

Typical of his trainer's patient approach, Darsi stayed under the radar at two and had just a minor Lyon-Parilly success to his name as he started out for his sophomore campaign. Runner-up to his owner's top-class prospect Vison Celebre (Ire) in a conditions event at Longchamp Apr. 9, he was in a different league to his rivals in a similar race over an extended mile and a half at this track last time May 3. Cruelly denied an Epsom Derby when beaten a short head on Dragon Dancer (GB) 24 hours earlier, jockey Darryll Holland received some recompense when guiding Almerita to Classic glory here. She had split Nordtanzerin and Karavel when runner-up in the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin at Baden-Baden in October, but came out best of that trio after a thrilling stretch duel yesterday. Having won the Listed Fruhjahrs-Stuten-Preis on her sophomore bow at Cologne Apr. 2, she finished two-lengths second to Lolita (Ger) in the Apr. 30 G2 Pferdewetten.de-Stutenpreis (German 1000 Guineas) over a mile of this circuit. Settled in a stalking role early, she tracked the leader Nordtanzerin until seizing a gap up the inside of that rival at the top of the straight. In front at the quarter pole, she was driven out to repel the rally of the long-time leader and dug in as Karavel unleashed a late flourish out wide. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Moss Vale, finally beginning to deliver on his early promise, displayed a lethal turn of acceleration to dominate some of his country's finest sprinters in a result with a heavy British bias. He had looked a smart prospect when winning the Listed Sandy Lane S. at Haydock and Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury in 2004, but had failed to make it count on the big days for trainer Barry Hills. While his overall form fell below the gold standard last term, he offered glimpses that he retained his ability when finishing third in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot at York in June and when sharing the spoils with Ashdown Express (Ire) in the Listed Starlit S. at Goodwood in September. Now in the hands of the "sprint king" Dandy Nicholls, he made all to win last Saturday's G3 Greenlands S. at The Curragh and made light of this task, stalking the line of dueling speedsters in front before cutting down Benbaun and Tax Free at the furlong pole with a decisive burst. "I had to supplement him for this, as he wasn't entered because he had missed lots of work," Nicholls explained. "It will be difficult to keep Lady O'Reilly away from Royal Ascot now, so we'll go for the [June 20] G2 King's Stand S. and be back in France for the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye [at Longchamp Oct. 1]." Grand Prix de Chantilly cont.

Policy Maker, winner of the 2003 G2 Grand Prix de Deauville, recorded victories in this race and the G2 Prix Foy two years ago. Fourth in the 2004 G1 Japan Cup, he finished runner-up in the last two renewals of the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. Third behind Bellamy Cay in the Listed Prix de la Porte de Madrid on his seasonal bow at Saint-Cloud Apr. 18, he was fifth behind that rival in the G3 Prix d'Hedouville at Longchamp May 8, but turned the tables this time. Helped by the strong early fractions, he traveled easily toward the rear before challenging wide in the straight. The bay quickened to lead with a quarter mile remaining, then veered away from Stephane Pasquier's whip across Salutino, but was firmly in command at the finish. The stewards allowed the result to stand. "This was a perfect stepping stone to the [June 25] G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud," Elie Lellouche said of the winner, who beat the previous race record of Egyptband and just missed the track record. Hong Kong invaders Bullish Luck and Joyful Winner landed an impressive first and third for the visiting team in this final leg of the Asian Mile Challenge, with the former earning a US$1-million bonus for winning two of the series' four legs. The Challenge was comprised of the Mar. 4 G1 Futurity S. in Australia, the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Duty Free, the May 7 G1 Champions Mile in Hong Kong and the Yasuda Kinen. Hong Kong's champion miler of 2005, Bullish Luck, who did not compete in the first leg of the Challenge, was second in February's HK-G1 Hong Kong Gold Cup before traveling to Dubai to be a solid fifth to David Junior in the Dubai Duty Free.

Fifth in his return to Hong Kong in the Apr. 23 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin, he returned to winning ways in his latest at that course, taking the Champions Mile S. (video). Looking to make amends for a fourth-place effort here last year and with the lucrative bonus on the line, the veteran saved ground early, extricated himself from a tightly packed group in upper stretch and, once clear, sped off under jockey Brett Prebble's urging. Last year's champ Asakusa Den'en took a three-horse photo for the place spot. "I had a lot of confidence, but the fact that the weather held was probably one of the key factors, as the horse is best on a very fast going," said Bullish Luck's owner, Wing Keung Wong. "I would like to thank the fans who came all the way from Hong Kong to root for my horse, and also the Japanese fans who gave us support."

PERCY HAS CURRAGH OPTION Anthony Pakenham's Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) could face his nearest rivals from Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby in the Irish equivalent, connections announced yesterday. Having beaten Dragon Dancer (GB) by a short head, he will have to repeat the feat again in the July 2 G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh, a race which could contain the first five home in the Blue Riband. Trainer Marcus Tregoning declared himself happy with the sophomore's condition yesterday, despite having spread a plate. "It was a rough race, but he's a street-fighter and a warrior and I'm amazed by him," Tregoning said yesterday. "We thought he wasn't quite sound behind this morning, but found he'd only spread a hind shoe. He's fine, lost very little weight and had eaten up his food by 9 p.m. last night, so he's in good shape. I think we'll probably go and stick to a mile and a half for the time being, with the Irish Derby a possibility." Sir Percy, who had finished runner-up in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 6, has a host of autumn targets, including the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. "He could go for the G1 Champion S. [at Newmarket Oct. 14], or maybe even have a crack at the Arc. The owners would like to go for it and if it came up on the easy side, he'd handle it."

I'll Be Bek...

Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Hala Bek (Ire) (Halling) will take on Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby winner Sir Percy (GB) in the Irish equivalent. Beaten just a neck in total, the Newbury maiden winner jinked right in the closing stages and connections are looking for a chance to atone in the July 2 Curragh Classic, for which he would need to be supplemented. "I'm still scratching my head, because at one point I thought I had it won," jockey Philip Robinson commented. "It's a bit depressing, but we've got to go on and look forward to the next race. He's an extremely good horse and I think he'll maybe go for the Irish Derby after speaking to connections." Trainer Michael Jarvis echoed those sentiments when reporting on the colt's condition yesterday. "He looks a bit tired, but apart from that he's fine," he told PA Sport. "It's just one of those unfortunate things. We don't know why the horse jinked, I suppose it would have to go down to inexperience. I would presume, and we've only briefly discussed this, that with the agreement of the owner, he would be supplemented for the Irish Derby. He genuinely stays a mile and a half and did well on that ground."

Wragg Waits on Dragon...

Conditioner Geoff Wragg yesterday refused to commit to the next target for Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Dragon Dancer (GB) (Sadler's Wells). Denied a shock 66-1 success by a short head by Sir Percy (GB) in the Blue Riband, Jon Pearce's maiden will have to be supplemented for the July 2 G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh. "He's thankfully sound, which is the main thing," Wragg told PA Sport. "I was watching in the weighing-room and when they went past the post I thought we had won. Things are still up in the air so we will have to wait and see about what's next."

PARI-MUTUEL CLERKS WIN NYRA ARBITRATION FIGHT

by Tom Precious, courtesy The Blood-Horse

The New York Racing Association has lost a major arbitration case brought by fired pari-mutuel clerks, dozens of whom walked off their jobs a year ago during the GI Preakness S. over a contract dispute. Details of the ruling in the binding arbitration case were not available Friday night, but both NYRA officials and representatives of the clerks confirmed the decision went against NYRA. "It was favorable to the clerks," said Sal Zammitto, chairman of the local Division of Pari-Mutuel Employees Union. He declined further comment until he discussed the ruling with his lawyer. The union leader said it was his understanding the arbitrator's ruling affected workers who were both fired and suspended by NYRA. William Nader, NYRA's senior vice president, also confirmed that the ruling went against the racing association, but said NYRA officials had not yet seen the arbitrator's decision. A racing industry source said the ruling could cost NYRA millions of dollars in back pay and could result in NYRA having to hire back the fired workers. Click here for the complete story.

A STEEPLCHASE LEGEND IS REMEMBERED

Friends and family of Daniel "Mickey" Smithwick are gathering today at St. James Church in Monkton, Maryland for the Baltimore native's memorial. Smithwick died on Monday, May 29 of a form of Parkinson's disease. He was 77 years old. The service will be held at 2 p.m., with reception to follow at the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Club in Monkton. Smithwick began his career in racing as an amateur jockey, winning the Maryland Hunt Cup, widely regarded as America's finest timber race, a record six times. He started five wins in the Grand National timbers and three in the Virginia Gold Cup as a rider. After becoming a trainer in 1955, he took the helm of Lillian Phipps' Wheatley Stable and continued on to a Hall of Fame career that spanned 45 years with winnings of over $4.3 million. Smithwick won 12 National Steeplechase championships, including a run of seven consecutive, from 1964- '70. Of his champion runners, three were also inducted into the Hall of Fame: Neji, Bon Nuevell and Jay Trump. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to the Maryland 4-H Foundation - Horse Program, 8020 Greenmead Dr., College Park, Md, 20740; or the National Steeplechase Fund, 400 Fair Hill Dr. Elkton, Md, 21921.

Ermine Works at Churchill in Final Acorn Prep:

GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up Ermine (Exchange Rate) breezed four furlongs in :48 3/5 at Churchill Downs yesterday, her final serious work before Saturday's one-mile GI Acorn S. at Belmont. Jockey Robby Albarado, who was aboard Ermine in the Oaks, was pleased with the work. "She went good, as always," he said. "She went along easy; we let her finish and it was just like we wanted." Ermine was originally scheduled to work Saturday, but trainer Ronny Werner opted to wait a day to ensure the filly would be traveling over a 'fast' surface. "It was a day closer than I would normally breeze her," he said. "She had a good, stiff work last week. She didn't need much--she's got a pretty good bottom to her." Ermine is booked on a New York-bound flight from Louisville Wednesday, along with trainer Eddie Kenneally's Bushfire (Louis Quatorze), who is also expected for the Acorn.

No Reason got a two-month freshening after a sixth-place effort in the Feb. 26 Busher S. at Aqueduct and returned to win the Apr. 30 New York Stallion Park Avenue S. last time out. Heavily favored to make it two in a row, the bay filly pressed pacesetting Artistic Express through fractions of :23.03 and :46.34 before sticking her head in front in upper stretch and inching clear to the wire. "I felt that as long as she had a target and was comfortable that we would be fine," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "She got a little tired over the heavy ground late, but she is a real good horse." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Exacting his revenge this time, he took command of nearing the quarter pole and bounded clear. "He wasn't sent today, and he was able to relax much better," said Toby Sheets, assistant to winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "He proved in the stretch that he was much-the-best. We'll see how he comes out and make a decision on his next start." One Way Flight's victory completed the stakes double at Belmont for Asmussen and jockey Garrett Gomez.

Sent off the second choice in the field of six, the bay filly jumped out to the early lead and never looked back in an easy victory. "I was told that she doesn't like dirt in her face, so either put her on the lead or stay in the clear," explained winning rider Chris DeCarlo. "They said she was pretty one-paced, so at the three-eighths pole I set her down to try and open up a bit on them and she did." GALILEO COLT TOPS MAGIC MILLIONS

OPENER A yearling colt by Galileo (Ire) out of Sogno (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) brought a final bid of A$140,000 to top the opening session of the Magic Millions National Sale on the Gold Coast yesterday. Consigned by

Oakwood Farm, agent, the bay was purchased by top local trainer John Wallace. He hails from the family of Group 1 winners Respect (NZ) and Sky Chase (NZ). A total of 140 yearlings brought an aggregate of A$3,123,600 for an average of A$22,311. The average was down 19 percent from 2005.

The clearance rate was 68.3 percent, down from 76 percent a year ago. "I would have liked to have seen the clearance rate a little higher," Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester said. "We expanded the catalogue to three days due to incredible demand from breeders, and buyers in turn have been able to be more particular with their choices." He added, "I have no doubt that all of the buyers today will be back again next year. They were the big winners and they will look back and realise what great value shopping it was. The average price...is pretty good when you consider we had a yearling sell for A$400,000 on the same day last year, and today no yearling sold for more than A$140,000." The second session begins today at 11 a.m. For complete results, go to www.magicmillions.com.au.

DUBAI TO HOST ASIAN RACING CONFERENCE

The 31st Asian Racing Conference will be held for the first time in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, from Jan. 21-27, 2007. The theme for the event will be 'Racing Without Borders.' "On behalf of the Emirates Racing Authority, it gives me great pleasure to invite the delegates and visitors from the racing nations around the world to the 31st Asian Racing Conference," said His Highness Sheikh Mansoor bin Zayed Al Nahyan, chairman of the Emirates Racing Authority. "The horse and the sport of horse racing have always been an important part of the culture and heritage of the people of the United Arab Emirates. The global positioning of the UAE makes it an ideal location for this gathering of industry leaders to participate in what promises to be an enlightening conference." The Asian Racing Federation was formed in 1960 and consists of 20 member countries which meet every two years to discuss industry issues and the future of horse racing.
