OVER THE THRESHOLD

In the last two years, the G3 Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. at Naas has been won by Damson (Ire) and Rumpelstiltskin (Ire). The event produced another exciting prospect yesterday in Brazilian Bride (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). Highly impressive in a local five-furlong maiden Apr. 22, she opened up on the yielding turf to score by eight lengths on that occasion, but encountered quicker conditions in this stepping stone to Royal Ascot. Stalking Amber Valley (GB) (Foxhound) throughout the early stages, she quickened past that rival and Gee Kel (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) approaching the eighth pole before drawing away in the run to the line. "The only worry we had beforehand was whether she would act on the ground when it quickened up," trainer Kevin Prendergast commented. "We thought she'd win first time, but we didn't expect her to win by eight lengths, and that's a long way for a two-year-old to win in the spring. She seemed to handle the ground okay and we'd be hoping she'll stay the seven furlongs of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. [at The Curragh Aug. 27] and, after that, it's in the lap of the gods. I think we'll go for the G1 Phoenix S. [at The Curragh Aug. 13] and keep her for that, so I'm not sure about Royal Ascot."

Pletcher Pair Tune Up for Belmont...

With the main track at Belmont Park turned to mud by the recent rains, trainer Todd Pletcher opted to work G1 Belmont S. hopefuls Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) and Sunriver (Saint Ballado) over the training track yesterday morning. "It was safe," Pletcher said. "It will probably be a little different [Tuesday], but I wanted to get it done [yesterday]." G1 Kentucky Derby runner-up Bluegrass Cat, with Eddie King up, went five furlongs in 1:01.72 over the "good" surface.

Bluegrass Cat Horsephotos

"He was obviously well in hand throughout and got enough out of it without overdoing it," the conditioner remarked. GII Peter Pan S. hero Sunriver, in company with GISW Adieu, was clocked in 1:00.24 with Hall of Famer Angel Cordero Jr. in the irons. "We got a little more solid work, which you would expect in a company situation," Pletcher said. "I thought he went really well."

To Work or Not to Work...

Several trainers chose to postpone their final Belmont tune-ups, with Deputy Glitters (Deputy Commander), High Finance (Talk Is Money) and Platinum Couple (Tale of the Cat) now slated to breeze this morning. Sacred Light (Holy Bull) will also work today, but trainer Kieran McLaughlin has decided that Jazil (Seeking the Gold), who dead-heated for fourth in the Derby, will gallop up to the race. "He's fit and ready to go," McLaughlin said. ...California shipper Bob and John (Seeking the Gold) went six furlongs in 1:12 1/5 at Santa Anita yesterday and will fly to New York tomorrow...Double Galore (Grand Slam), who broke his maiden going 1 1/16 miles at Hollywood May 19, has joined the Belmont field.

Unraced as a juvenile, Satri closed his sophomore semester with victory in a valuable handicap at Compiègne Oct. 31 and finished second on his seasonal return at that track Mar.13. Coming back from a May 2 conditions score at Chantilly, he climbed to a career high against seasoned campaigners in this stakes bow with a resolute stretch run. The bay shadowed Choparlas (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}) from the break, was committed with 2 1/2 furlongs to go and held a persistent Helios Quercus safe in the drive. "He's a nice and consistent horse, but it took me a little while to realise his ability," admitted trainer Jean-Marie Beguigne. "He is lazy in the mornings and, being a half-brother to [G1 Prix de Diane Hermes winner] Latice, I thought he would stay. That is why I ran him over 2000 meters in his debut last year, but since I shortened him in trip he has been excellent. I feel he's still improving and am thinking of the [Aug. 6 G1] Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville. We shall wait and see if he is to have another run before then." Imonso, who made a winning debut in a course-and-distance maiden May 14, overcame the outsider Dark Dancer to book his ticket to the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 23. Settled in third off the generous tempo set by stable companion Sommertag, he challenged wide in the straight as Dark Dancer was committed. Wearing down that rival with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was driven out to contain the persistent threat and assert for the score.

From Derby Loser to Belmont Winner...

During the last 50 years of the 20th century, not a single horse went straight from a loss in the Kentucky Derby to a win in the Belmont Stakes without at least one race in between. However, three of the six Belmont winners since the turn of the century have used just that strategy. They are:

After Sadler's Wells was knocked off his perch in 2005, after 13 consecutive years as champion sire, there seemed to be a strong chance that this phenomenal stallion would never regain the championship. After all, he had been seriously outperformed in 2005 by Danehill, who had replaced him as Europe's highest-priced stallion in 2003, and by his own son Montjeu, whose sensational first crop contained three Classic winners.

However, the 25-year-old Sadler's Wells is staging a powerful bid to regain his crown this year, and the Epsom weekend saw him move into the lead ahead of Mark of Esteem and Danehill. His main benefactors were the highly impressive Alexandrova, who provided Sadler's Wells with his fifth victory in the Oaks, and Dragon Dancer, who briefly appeared to have won the Derby until the photo proved that he had been beaten a short head.

Sadler's Wells was responsible for two runners in the Oaks, the other being Cheshire Oaks winner Time On, and five in the Derby, including the 2006 stakes winners Septimus, Linda's Lad and Atlantic Waves. Sadler's Wells has also hit the group target this year with his older sons Day Flight, Percussionist and Policy Maker, and he could have several candidates for the Irish Derby and the St Leger, one likely type being Puerto Rico, an encouraging winner of the G3 Gallinule S. Sadler's Wells may have a contender for the Deutsches Derby as well in Saddex, who landed one of the German trials.

Sadler's Wells www.coolmore.com

Of course the stallion table could have had a different look if Danehill's son Horatio Nelson hadn't broken down so terribly in the Derby. When we are finally in a position to judge Danehill's influence on the breed, which promises to be immense, the Coolmore team will inevitably be left wondering what might have been had they not lost three of Danehill's best-qualified sons.

The first blow came when the spectacular sprinter Mozart succumbed to acute colitis in May 2002, in the midst of his first season as a stallion. An indication of the scale of this loss came last year, when Mozart ended the year as leading freshman sire. The next setback came with Landseer, who looked to have all the makings of a very popular stallion following his 2002 victories in the French 2000 Guineas and Keeneland Turf Mile. Sadly, this courageous colt suffered a fatal injury when travelling strongly in the Breeders' Cup Mile. Now Coolmore have lost Horatio Nelson, a Group 1-winning colt out of one of Sadler's Wells' Oaks winners, Imagine.

It is a measure of Danehill's excellence that his legacy still promises to be a rich one, despite the loss of three sons of such calibre. Coolmore must be more than happy with the results achieved by Danehill Dancer (whose daughter Speciosa was a gallant fourth in the Oaks) and with the bright start made by Rock of Gibraltar. There's also George Washington still to come.

To return to Sadler's Wells, it is hard to imagine that his fillies once had a reputation for being markedly less successful than his colts. Although his first crop produced eight group-winning colts, none of his fillies won anything more important than a Listed race, and it was a similar story with his third crop.

The group winners from Sadler's Wells first four crops divided very unevenly between the sexes, with the colts leading the fillies by 20 to two, but one of the two fillies was the magnificent Salsabil, winner of the 1000 Guineas, Oaks and Irish Derby.

Gradually more and more good fillies by Sadler's Wells began to appear, and he has now won the Oaks with Salsabil, Intrepidity, Moonshell, Imagine and Alexandrova, plus the Irish Oaks with Dance Design and Ebadiyla. He has also won the Irish 1000 Guineas with Imagine, Gossamer and Yesterday.

Alexandrova, together with George Washington, highlight the potential of the sales progeny of Coolmore stallions. Both Classic winners figured among the higher-priced yearlings at Part 1 of Tattersalls' October yearling sales, with Alexandrova's price of 420,000gns making her the fourth-highest priced filly of the year.

It is easy to understand Alexandrova's appeal. Her appearance in the sales ring came eight days after her three-parts sister Magical Romance (by Sadler's Wells' son Baratheo) had landed the G1 Cheveley Park S.

Alexandrova's appeal also owed a lot to the fact that her dam, Shouk, was a winning daughter of Shirley Heights. While Sadler's Wells' partnership with mares by Shirley Heights' son Darshaan has been his most rewarding nick, he has also done very well with mares by Shirley Heights himself.

Alexandrova follows In The Wings, Subtle Power and Alberto Giacometti as the fourth Group 1 winner produced by the Sadler's Wells--Shirley Heights cross, and there have been 13 group winners, including the previously mentioned Gallinule S. winner Puerto Rico. Altogether there are 19 stakes winners bred this way.

Shouk won over 10.5 furlongs, while her three-parts sister Puce (by Darshaan) showed very useful form over a distance of ground before becoming the dam of Pongee, a granddaughter of Sadler's Wells who won the 2004 Lancashire Oaks.

Although Alexandrova's third dam, the unraced Soumana, produced nothing better than her second dam, the Listed-placed Souk, Soumana was a half-sister to the Classic-winning Dumka. This French 1000 Guineas winner became one of the most famous producers of recent times in Europe, with the 2000 Guineas winner Doyoun leading her team of four group winners, which also featured Sadler's Wells' Group 3-winning son Dolpour. All of which suggests that Alexandrova could be as exciting as a broodmare as she was in winning by six lengths at Epsom.

Aga Khan Weighs Up Options...

Sunday's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club winner Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent) is likely to represent His Highness the Aga Khan in the July 2 G1 Irish Derby, connections announced yesterday. "We're thinking about the Irish Derby and the G1 Grand Prix de Paris [at Longchamp July 14]...we should know a bit more in a few days," Racing Manager Georges Rimaud told PA Sport. "He came out of the race fine and ate up all his feed. He's sound, going well and there are no problems." Stablemate Visindar (GB) (Sinndar {Ire}), fifth in Saturday's G1 Epsom Derby, is also in the Curragh Classic, but the Aga Khan had said at Chantilly Sunday that the G2 Prix Greffulhe scorer might be rested with a view to getting to the bottom of the spots that appeared on his neck before his Saint-Cloud prep. "I would say it is probably less than 50-percent likely that Visindar will run in the Irish Derby," the owner explained.

FUTURE OF BREEDERS' CUP, NTRA MAY HINGE ON ELECTION OF TRUSTEES

by Tom LaMarra, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com

The future direction of the Breeders' Cup, and perhaps the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, could be at least partly decided when the results of an ongoing election for the Breeders' Cup board of trustees and members are announced in July. Twenty-one individuals, including 10 incumbents, are on the ballot for election or re-election to the 46-member board that earlier this year elected the smaller 13-member board of directors that oversees Breeders' Cup operations. The election comes at a critical time given the fact Breeders' Cup and the NTRA are deciding the fate of their joint operating agreement that began in 2001. The Breeders' Cup and NTRA boards--scheduled to meet jointly this Thursday, June 8, in New York--also must decide on a management structure. With D.G. Van Clief Jr., currently Breeders' Cup president and NTRA commissioner, having announced his retirement for later this year, the boards must choose his successor. However, the two boards are said to be undecided whether to have one person oversee both organizations, or have two different chief executives. Van Clief, the longtime Breeders' Cup president, was the first to oversee Breeders' Cup and the NTRA when he took over as NTRA commissioner from Tim Smith, who resigned in 2004. The election in January that created a new 13-member Breeders' Cup board wasn't without behind-the-scenes political posturing from individuals who differ on a future direction for the two organizations. The current election could swing the balance of power among the 46 trustees, which ultimately may change the 13-member Breeders' Cup board and its commitment as the financial engine for the NTRA.

FROST & REED SHOW TO BENEFIT TRF The fine art dealership Frost & Reed will present an exhibition of equine paintings by leading contemporary equine artists Leslie Priggen and Ashley Collins to benefit the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. Opening night will be

Thursday, June 8 from 5:30 to 7:30 at 21 East 67th St. in Manhattan. A celebration of the beauty of the horse in art, the exhibition is a unique collection of paintings ranging from 8x10-inch spirited studies to works 3x10-feet in size. Priggen, who is on the national board of the Thoroughbred

Lambourne-the last set (sold). Priggen

Retirement Foundation, left a 20-year career as a fashion photographer and commercial director to paint, and specializes in animal portraiture. "Life now is much the same as it was when I was a youngster," said Priggen. "My parents were English, which means there was a dog in every chair and riding gear all over the house. I have 30-odd chickens, four horses and nine dogs (chickens, horses and dogs are all rescue cases) and nowhere to sit." Her client list now ranges across the United States and Europe, and she has been commissioned to paint many of the world's top race and steeplechase horses, including Saint Ballado, Vindication, Soaring Softly, Congaree, Sarava, Buck Jakes, Swayo and Welterweight, to name just a few. Her portrait of Lonesome Glory, who was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2005, has recently been bought by the National Steeplechase Museum. "I consider myself to be extraordinarily lucky," said Priggen. "My days are spent with the creatures I love doing what I love. By the way, if there isn't dog hair on the canvas it's probably not a portrait I've painted." The show runs through July 28. For those who may not have received an invitation but would like to attend the opening cocktail party, please call Frost and Reed at (212) 717-2201.

Darley Stallions to Relocate:

Gainsborough Stud resident stallions Quiet American (Fappiano) and Elusive Quality (Gone West) will stand the 2007 season at Sheikh Mohammed's Darley at Jonabell, located near Lexington. A decision to move the stallions, who are the property of Darley, was prompted by the death of Gainsborough Stud founder Sheikh Maktoum earlier this winter. "With the passing of Sheikh Maktoum, Gainsborough is now the responsibility of Sheikh Mohammed and we will be as one in the future," said Jimmy Bell, president of Darley USA. Gainsborough Stud will retain its name, but will operate as part of Darley. Elusive Quality, who stood for $100,000 in 2006, is the sire of 2004 Kentucky Derby and Preakness S. winner Smarty Jones. Quiet American also has a Derby winner to his credit with Real Quiet taking the Run for the Roses in 1998. The 11-year-old stallion, who stood for $20,000 this season, has also sired champions Hidden Lake and Warrior Queen.

Osterhase generally catches a flyer from the gates and on his best days, such as this, he is practically untouchable despite his advancing years. Age seemed to be catching up with him recently, with four off-the-board efforts suggesting that he may not be adding to his stakes tally of five wins, including in this race two years ago and in the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. at The Curragh last August. Burying the disappointment of his comeback when beating only one home behind Moon Unit in the Apr. 22 Listed Woodlands S. over course and distance, he was back to his familiar slick best from his wide draw and dominated proceedings from the front, allowing Fran Berry the chance to showboat as Moon Unit closed all too late.

CHOISIR FILLY TOPS MAGIC MILLIONS A filly by top international sprinter Choisir (Aus) helped boost a strong second session of the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale on the Gold Coast yesterday, eliciting a bid of A$250,000. The top-priced horse after two days of selling, the daughter of the Rory's Jester (Aus) mare Classy Amber (Aus) was purchased by Magic Millions, acting as agent for a Queensland client. It was revealed shortly after the sale that leading local horsewoman Maryann Thexton would train the chestnut. "She's a great-looking filly," Thexton commented. "On type, she has really thrown to Rory's Jester, her broodmare sire. And with Choisir and Rory's Jester on both sides of her pedigree, you'd expect her to be an early runner. Hopefully, we'll be running in races like the Magic Millions [2YO Classic] and the Golden Slipper." Catalogued as lot 387, the filly is the first foal of an unraced half-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Ravarda (Aus) and was consigned by Velvet Stud, agent. At the close of day two, 290 lots had sold for A$7,158,200. The average of A$24,683 was down 10.7 percent from the corresponding 2005 figure, which was boosted by the sale of a A$480,000 yearling. The clearance rate was 70.22 percent, compared to 79 percent a year ago. The third and final session of the sale begins today at 11 a.m. local time. For results, www.magicmillions.com.au.

BLACK MINNALOUSHE SOLD TO SOUTH AFRICAN INTERESTS No stranger to the international breeding arena, South African horseman Graham Beck has secured Black Minnaloushe (Storm Cat-Coral Dance {Fr}, by Green Dancer) for an undisclosed amount from Coolmore Stud. As part of the purchase agreement, the eight-year-old, who served the Northern Hemisphere breeding season at Coolmore's Ashford Stud in Lexington and shuttled to New Zealand for last four Southern sessions, will remain at Windsor Park Stud in New Zealand for the 2006 breeding season. "Although we are disappointed we will only have him for one more season, the offer Coolmore have accepted would mean we would have been forced to stand him for considerably higher than this season's fee of NZ$17,500 if we were to purchase him outright," Windsor Park's Nelson Schick told aapracingandsports.com. The owner of Main Chance Farms in South Africa, Beck also owns interests in including Gainseway Farm in Lexington, the birthplace of Black Minnaloushe. During his sophomore season, the bay won the G1 St. James's Palace S. and G1 Irish 2000 Guineas en route to a three-year-old championship in Ireland. With 15 individual winners from his first crop to race, Black Minnaloushe has sired American graded-stakes winner Stream Cat and Jokers Wild (NZ), New Zealand juvenile champion.
