STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

Conditioner Sir Mark Prescott gauges the value of jockeys by how few mistakes they make and Seb Sanders scored a perfect zero in yesterday's G1 Prix de Diane Hermes at Chantilly as the rider's power-packed drive guided Confidential Lady (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) to a 1 1/2-length success from local favorite Germance (Silver

France-Galop

Hawk). Lighting up the board at 43-1, the win provided the Newmarket trainer with a first Classic victory in a 37-year career, although he was not on hand to witness the achievement. "I'm absolutely over the moon and I'm really delighted for the boss," enthused Sanders. "She did it very well and stayed on all the way to the line. She may get a bit further as well and we'll definitely have a good season with her." Cont. p2

AN EASY ESCAPE

The success of Dubai-connected runners in the U.S. continued Sunday when Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again) glided to an effortless win in yesterday's GII Vagrancy H. at Belmont Park. The four-year-old filly, carrying the same Darley colors as Preakness S. winner Bernardini, began a now five-race win streak with a victory at Nad al Sheba in March. She added victories in a pair of Gulfstream allowance victories before a 4 3/4-length score in the Apr. 12 GII Madison S. at Keeneland last time. Ridden out to the early lead, the $2-million Barretts juvenile set fractions of :22.18, :44.75 and 1:08.84. She turned back the challenge of Smokey Glacken (Forestry) turning for home and sailed clear an impressive winner. "She's a super fast filly and I just try to stay out of her way," said winning trainer Eoin Harty. "She's done nothing wrong for us. Today, she went to the lead like she always does and they couldn't catch her." Dubai Escapade may make her next start in either the GI July 15 Princess Rooney S. or the Aug. 27 GI Ballerina S. Click brisnet.com chart or free brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree. HYSTERICALADY IN A LAUGHER

Hystericalady (Distorted Humor), was lightly regarded at 7-1, but had her supporters laughing all the way to the bank with a 7 1/2-length romp in yesterday's GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks at Hollywood Park. The chestnut filly was on the lead from the start through fractions of :23.73, :47.10 and 1:11.27 and kicked clear easily for the win. "I've just really and truly always liked this filly," said winning trainer and co-owner Jerry Hollendorfer. "I like the way she's trained and she's done all the things that we've asked her to do." Benoit Even-money choice Squallacious (Summer Squall), unbeaten in two starts, rallied late to grab second, but never threatened the winner. "She ran good," trainer Mike Puype said of the beaten favorite. "She was coming back in 11 days, a little quick. It was her first stakes start, her first route start and the winner was tough." Cont. p3

Confidential Lady was kept busy as a two year old, taking minor seven-furlong events at Catterick and Beverley before stepping up in class to take the Listed Star S. at Sandown in July. Runner-up to Nasheej in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at Newmarket in August next time, she regained the winning thread in the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville later that month, but her season culminated with an uncharacteristically poor run when 10th in the Oct. 2 G1 Prix Marcel Bousac at Longchamp. Her veteran trainer broke new ground when he ran the daughter of Singspiel in the May 7 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket on seasonal debut and she justified that decision by finishing second to Speciosa (Ire). The homebred may have paid the price for forcing a strong gallop over heavy ground when fading into sixth in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh last time May 28, but bounced back here to record a career high. With different tactics here, she was settled in midfield along the rail through the early fractions. Taking closer order as the field straightened for home, jockey Seb Sanders angled her out to make a challenge at the quarter pole. Collaring Germance under a drive with 150 yards remaining, she was kept up to her work in the final sixteenth to establish a decisive margin at the line. "I'm sorry the owners [David and Patricia Thompson] and the trainer could not be here today as they would have enjoyed the moment," explained Cheveley Park Stud's Chris Richardson. "Sir Mark told us she was doing great beforehand and was confident she would run a big race. She ran a great race and certainly wasn't stopping in the 1000 Guineas, but the ground was against her in Ireland. We had a good draw [today], a suitable pace and it worked to perfection. We will discuss with Sir Mark when and where she runs next." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Sanders' Victory Tempered By Ban

Seb Sanders' winning ride aboard Confidential Lady came at some cost as the rider will be forced to sit out the entire Royal Ascot meet after incurring an eight-day ban for using his whip 32 times on the winner. Senior steward Jean-Pierre Colombo was not on duty, but explained the official decision, "Sanders hit Confidential Lady 32 times which was four times over the limit stated in the French rules of racing," he told Racing Post. "These [rules] have been created to protect the horse and we have felt it necessary to suspend him for eight days which will sadly mean Sanders missing the whole of the Royal Ascot meeting."

Rouget Gracious In Defeat

While trainer Sir Mark Prescott was securing a maiden Classic triumph, Jean-Claude Rouget was left to rue another missed opportunity as runner-up Germance fared best of his four entries. The Pau-based conditioner still awaits a first Classic win, but was fulsome in his praise for both winner and second. "I have no excuses, Germance was beaten by a better filly on the day," he said. "Maybe the outside draw was not that good as she had to be used a little early, but hats off to the winner. After running in two Guineas and then coming back here after another tough fight it certainly shows that, at this time of year, the English horses are tougher competitors."

Hystericalady won a Pleasanton stakes last July, but was overmatched when sixth in Del Mar's Aug. 6 GIII Sorrento S. Sidelined for seven months after that effort, the chestnut filly returned to run fourth in the Eire Go Brach S. at Golden Gate Mar. 17 and tuned up for her two-turn debut and a return trip to Southern California with a two-length allowance victory at Bay Meadows May 10. After Hystericalady's front-running romp, winning jockey Pat Valenzuela said, "When they came to me, I nudged her a little bit, she picked up very easily, so I just waited until the head of the stretch and threw a cross on her, she switched to her right lead and took off." He could only manage fifth when stepped up in class and trip in the G2 Prix Hocquart at Longchamp May 8 on his last outing. Breaking smartly here, the chestnut was settled in a close-up second after the opening exchanges. Asked to pick up pacesetting Kendargent at the quarter pole, he headed that rival 25 yards out under a drive to open his stakes account. "At one stage I thought he was a horse for the French Derby, but his last run showed that he didn't stay which is why we came back to a mile and I'm not surprised he won," explained Alain de Royer-Dupre. Apsis took the G3 Prix Thomas Byron at Saint-Cloud as a juvenile, but endured a truncated and winless second season. Fit and firing at the start of last term, he won a conditions at Longchamp in April and the Listed Prix de Montretout at the same track later that month before placing in the July 20 G3 Grand Prix de Vichy and the Aug. 15 G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at Deauville. He demonstrated his ability to run well off a break once more this spring by garnering a second renewal of the Listed Prix de Montretout at Longchamp last time Apr. 27 and secured a fifth stakes success with a cozy win here. Tracking the early pacesetters in fourth, he was pushed along with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Jockey Christophe Soumillon did not need to get too serious with the persuader for him to take it up 150 yards from home and asserted as Turtle Bowl finished well for second. "He's a lovely horse who never disappoints and always runs a good race," claimed rider Christophe Soumillon. "I had a dream trip in a truly-run race and when he made his move I was confident of winning as I had a lot of horse underneath me." Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Successful in last term's Listed Giuseppe de Montel at Milan, Lord of England returned to that track to place third in the Oct. 16 G1 Gran Criterium and returned this year to finish second in the Apr. 23 G3 Dr Busch Memorial at Krefeld. Sent postward at short odds coming back from a third in the May 14 G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne last time, he made most of the weight-for-age allowance to secure a first group victory in decisive fashion. Reined back to third after an alert break, the eventual winner reappeared on the scene at the top of the stretch. Sent on with 450 meters remaining, the contest was safely in the bag throughout the final quarter as Lazio's errant stretch run posed no serious threat. Kimchi, second while still a maiden in last year's Princess Elizabeth S., graduated with a 6 1/4-length victory at this track in November. Fourth on her seasonal return in a six-furlong allowance Apr. 15, the dark bay filly was second behind Sweet Breanna in a May 13 allowance last time out.

Never far from the front end, Kimchi made a three-wide move turning for home, gained command in upper stretch and drove clear in the final furlong for her first stakes win. Favored Strike Softly (Smart Strike) never threatened and finished seventh, ending a streak of eight consecutive post-time Oaks favorites. "Nothing went right in her last race and then Patrick [Husbands] said she was too sharp," explained trainer Mark Casse. "We took the blinkers off and got her relaxed a little bit today. She was still pretty eager, though. I kept saying, 'Patrick, don't go to the lead too quick.' I never count anything until they get to the wire." On Kimchi's future, Casse added, "We will go to Fort Erie [for the July 2 Bison City S.] and try that, and come back here." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

JAZIL FINE AFTER BELMONT WIN

Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin reported yesterday that Jazil (Seeking the Gold) was fine after his win in Saturday's GI Belmont S. McLaughlin is already looking ahead to a summer campaign with his first Classic winner. "We'll give him a couple of easy weeks," McLaughlin said. "I'd imagine we'd run in either the [GI] Haskell Invitational [at Monmouth Park Aug. 6] or the [GII] Jim Dandy [at Saratoga July 29] before the [GI] Travers [at Saratoga Aug. 26]."

Jazil A Coglianese

The Haskell or Jim Dandy followed by the Travers could also be the route for Todd Pletcher's Belmont runner-up Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat), and his third-place finisher Sunriver (Saint Ballado).

Still looking for his first Triple Crown win, Pletcher remained upbeat yesterday. "We've been very, very fortunate," he said. "We've won a lot of big races. I'm not going to sit around and feel neglected or unfortunate because I haven't won a Triple Crown race. Yeah, I'd like for one of those to have my name on it, but it doesn't always happen."

Trainer Danny Peitz's Steppenwolf (Aptitude), fourth in the Belmont, will also be pointed towards the Travers. But the gray colt may prep for the Mid-Summer Derby in the July 15 GII Virginia Derby over the turf at Colonial Downs. "My first thought is the Virginia Derby," Peitz said yesterday. "The timing of it is pretty good. That would give him five weeks to the Virginia Derby and then six weeks to the Travers."

Deputy Glitters (Deputy Commander) may have an excuse for his 11th-place effort in the Belmont. "Something wasn't quite right with him," trainer Tom Albertrani said yesterday. "He stopped pretty quickly after only going a mile. He looked fine this morning. We think he might have displaced [palate] at some point in the race where it cut his air off. We'll see how he trains next week and then make some plans for him."

Perilous Pursuit took a 5 1/2-furlong turf maiden at Saratoga at first asking last August, then was third and fourth in Monmouth's Salem Co. S. and Keeneland's Jessamine S., respectively, in October before going to the sidelines. An Aqueduct allowance winner on return Apr. 27, she handled this return to stakes competition with aplomb. Jockey Jose Santos had the filly settled comfortably in seventh for the initial six panels before swinging her out for the stretch drive. Perilous Pursuit did the rest from there, powered clear of her rivals and on to the daylight win. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Harborage, a maiden winner at Tampa Bay in February, ran a good third in his first stakes try, the Mar. 20 restricted OBS Championship S. in Ocala. Runner-up in a $100,000 optional claimer at Aqueduct Apr. 28, he failed to land a punch when sixth to Sunriver in the May 20 GII Peter Pan S. and was shipping north in search of his first stakes win. Last of four after three quarters in 1:12.35, he rallied strongly and was going away at the wire. The well-bred Harborage is a half to graded winners Accelerator and Daydreamer, as well as She's a Winner (A.P. Indy), the dam of Saturday's GI Belmont S. runner-up Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat).

AIR ACE (c, 3, Forest Camp--Cope's Light, by Copelan) had not been out since winning his debut at Del Mar last July, but prepped for his return with a bullet six furlongs at Santa Anita June 6 in 1:11 2/5. Sent off the 9-5 favorite, the dark bay colt was pressured on the lead through fractions of :22.03 and :45.19 before inching clear down the lane to score by 1 1/4 lengths over Paddy Murphy (Forest Camp). Air Ace, a $450,000 FTKJUL yearling, is a half brother to Miss Jennifer Lynn (El Prado {Ire}, GISP); Zillah the Hun (Hawk Attack, GSW, $102,250); Political Attack (Hawk Attack, MGSW, $471,154); Brahminy Kite (Silver Hawk, GSP-Eng, $161,886). GETBACK TIME (f, 3, Gilded Time--Shay {MSW, $119,474}, by Incinderator) was claimed for $40,000 out of a winning effort vs. Santa Anita maidens Apr. 21. Paying immediate dividends with an 8 1/2-length tally facing starter allowance foes at Hollywood May 17, she handled the step up in class here as a 9-1 outsider. The chestnut raced wide under Jose Valdivia, Jr. as the leaders blazed through a half in :44 3/5. ★ INDUSTRY INFO ★

New Season for Winters:

After almost three years as operations manager for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, Fred Winters has decided to return to a commercial role within the Thoroughbred industry. Winters has made Kentucky his home for the past 31 years. He was farm manager for the Kentucky division of Joe Allbritton's Lazy Lane Farm from 1989 to 2001, during which time the farm purchased and raced Eclipse Champion Hansel. Immediately prior to joining the TRF, Winters was a partner and operated an equine farm management consultancy. Also during this period, Winters served in many roles within the Kentucky Thoroughbred Farm Managers' Club and was the organization's president in 1998. He was an original board member of the Kentucky Equine Management Internship program.

Equibase.com Boasts Record Triple Crown Traffic:

For the three days that composed the 2006 Triple Crown race series, Equibase LLC reported 710,389 total visitors to their website, www.equibase.com. That number represents an increase of 26 percent over the previous mark of 562,582 set in 2004 when Smarty Jones made his unsuccessful bid for the Triple Crown. "Given the unusual and unfortunate circumstances of this year's Triple Crown, it was quite encouraging that fans' enthusiasm remained strong," said Equibase's executive vice president and chief operating officer Hank Zeitlin. As the industry's official database, equibase.com offers coverage of the Triple Crown race series as well as the Breeder's Cup World Championships with email notifications of entry, results and workout information for all contenders. The site also provides comprehensive racing information including entries, results charts and a full line of handicapping products for horseplayers of any skill level.

another Australasian record with 32 weanlings realizing over A$100,000. "This has been the most successful weanling sale ever conducted in the Southern Hemisphere," Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester said. "To say I am ecstatic would be an understatement." Heading Sunday's third and final session of the weanling portion of the sale was lot 1331, a colt by Australian champion sprinter Exceed and Excel (Aus). Out of group-winning Burning Embers (Aus) (Zoffany {Aus}), the chestnut was purchased for A$200,000 by New Zealand Bloodstock, acting on behalf of Ascot Farm. Sold to dissolve a partnership, the colt was consigned by Central Pastoral Group. Exceed and Excel, represented by his first crop of weanlings, had seven sell through three days for an average of A$110,429. New Zealand Bloodstock outdistanced the competition in buying power, laying down A$1,037,500 for six lots. The action continues at Magic Millions with the National Broodmare Sale kicking off Tuesday at 11:00 a.m.
