now, connections announced yesterday. The bay filly recorded a 1 1/2-length success in the 1 5/16-mile Chantilly Classic. "It was a great day and marvelous for Cheveley Park," her trainer, Sir Mark Prescott, commented. "We were lucky with the draw and with a strong pace and lucky to have a filly tough enough to take a race like this only two weeks after a hard race at The Curragh. I always felt she'd get a mile and a quarter and always doubted whether she'd get a mile and a half, but she deserves a bit of a breather now."

looks likely to tackle either the June 21 G1 Prince of Wales's S. over 10 furlongs or the June 24 G2

Hardwicke S. over a mile and a half at Royal Ascot. Trainer Ed Dunlop reported that the five-year-old has recovered from her run when second to Shirocco (Ger) in the June 2 G1 Coronation Cup. "She may well be running at Royal Ascot, although there has been no decision as yet," Dunlop said. "We will look at both her options. She has come out of her race at Epsom well and I'm happy with her. She had five days in the paddock after she ran and she returned to cantering for the first time on Friday. She has put all her weight back on--and more--that she lost. But we know she had a hard race at Epsom, so we will see how she is. I was very pleased with her effort there. It was a good run. For a moment, I thought we were going to beat Shirocco. But he is a very good horse--one of the best in the world."

After a weekend which featured races as important as the Belmont S. and French Oaks, I run the risk of accusations of bias, in view of my links to Juddmonte, in selecting Cacique's victory in the G1 Manhattan H. for today's column.

In mitigation, I wrote about Seeking the Gold's success with Deputy Minister mares after Bob and John and Jazil took first and second in the Wood Memorial, and I reviewed Singspiel and Confidential Lady after the filly's Group 3 victory last August.

Anyway, how could I possibly not pay tribute to Cacique's extraordinary dam, Hasili, after Cacique became her fourth consecutive Grade I winner, following Banks Hill, Heat Haze and Intercontinental.

Hasili's record ought to stand at a perfect five from her first five foals, as her first foal, Dansili, was very unlucky not to gain the accolade of Group 1 winner.

Dansili was second or third in no fewer than six Group 1 contests, once being beaten less than a length when second to the formidable Giant's Causeway in the Sussex S., and he later paid the penalty for pilot error when a very fast-finishing third, beaten a neck and a nose, in War Chant's Breeders' Cup Mile.

Dansili juddmonte.co.uk

"I had to wait and wait and wait," was John Velazquez's summary. "He finished unbelievable and if I could have gotten out just a little bit sooner, I would have won." The Equibase chart noted that Dansili "finished full of run."

With any luck, Hasili's record will continue to improve. Her sixth foal, Champs Elysees, created such a favourable impression in winning at Longchamp in May that he was given his chance in the G1 French Derby, in which he was beaten less than six lengths.

With Danehill dying during the 2003 covering season, Hasili had to be switched to his son Rock of Gibraltar, but without success. However, she produced a colt by Sadler's Wells in 2005 and has been tested in foal to Storm Cat this year.

Her three Grade I-winning daughters can also be expected to add to her remarkable story. Banks Hill started her broodmare career by producing two imposing colts to Kingmambo, with the elder of the two scheduled to join the Andre Fabre team later in the year. Banks Hill produced a good filly by Empire Maker this year, as did her three-parts sister Heat Haze, and Intercontinental has also been entrusted to Empire Maker in her first season.

Dansili is also playing his part in adding to the family fortunes. But for the intervention of the Longchamp stewards, I would have been able to describe him as a Classic sire, as his daughter Price Tag came out on top in the French 1000 Guineas. Unfortunately, she was demoted to third for having prevented the third-placed filly from finishing second. A prolific winner-getter, Dansili had three winners over the weekend in Britain and Ireland, and his good son Home Affairs is heading for the G1 Queen Anne S. following his desperately unlucky third in the G3 Diomed S. Price Tag also has a Group 1 target--the Coronation S.--at Royal Ascot.

Juddmonte is fortunate to have several other fillies from the Hasili-Kerali family, including Hasili's very talented sister Arrive. Promising Lead, the first living foal of this good stayer, is by Danehill and this two-year-old is therefore a sister-in-blood to Dansili, Banks Hill, Intercontinental and Cacique. Since Danehill's death, Arrive has been visiting Juddmonte's spectacularly speedy Oasis Dream, whose sire, Green Desert, got the excellent Heat Haze from Hasili. Arrive has a yearling filly by Oasis Dream and is again in foal to this dual champion.

Oasis Dream is also the sire of a good colt foal out of Hasili's winning half-sister Kid Gloves, who also has a very likeable yearling filly by Green Desert's son Cape Cross. Cape Cross was also chosen this year as the first mate for Hasili's unraced sister Kalima.

Cacique is also well qualified to add to Hasili's impact on the breed. A triple group winner in Europe, where he failed by only half a length to account for the future Arc winner Bago in the G1 Grand Prix de Paris, this sound horse has adapted very well to American conditions.

His victory in the Manhattan made him no less than Danehill's 12th graded winner on American turf tracks. He follows in the footsteps of Landseer, Banks Hill, Intercontinental, Dress To Thrill, Danish, Light Jig, Luas Line, Simple Exchange, Spring Star, Chiming and Desert Lady.

With the notable exception of Frank Stronach, who is standing Danehill's Derby-winning son North Light at Adena Springs, North American breeders--with their recent distrust of turf performers--have no doubt been indifferent to Danehill's increasingly impressive achievements.

But is the imminent proliferation of Polytrack courses going to force them to give Danehill the consideration he is long overdue? Only two stallions have more individual winners this year on Britain's all-weather tracks than Dansili's total of 10, and Danehill isn't far behind with eight.

Danehill and his sons Danehill Dancer, Danetime and Dansili all currently rank among the top 25 stallions in Britain and Ireland, while the Australian leading sires' list is being heavily dominated by sons of Danehill (there were six of them in the top 11 through April).

This is a fabulously talented male line, so why should America be immune to its many charms when breeders have both Polytrack and turf courses to aim for?

BAY MEADOWS JOCKEY ROLLINS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

By Claire Novak, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

Jockey Chance Rollins, a 36-year-old regular on the Northern California circuit, remained in critical but stable condition Monday with injuries he suffered after he was thrown in the third race at Bay Meadows on Sunday. Rollins sustained severe head injuries when his mount, Dr Ramos--the 4-5 favorite in a field of five--veered in sharply and hit the rail shortly after the start of Sunday's third race. The jockey landed on his head and was not breathing when track physician Dr. David Seftel reached his side. Seftel performed cardiopulmonary resuscitation on Rollins, who was then transported to nearby Stanford Hospital in Stanford, California. He remained in ICU Monday morning, and doctors were "cautiously optimistic" that his condition would not require surgery. "He sustained a major head injury with bleeding into the base of the brain," Seftel said. "The area that was damaged controls motor function on the left side of his body, but the bleeding appears contained and may reabsorb, so we hope Chance won't require surgery." A detailed MRI taken Sunday showed shearing to Rollins' nerve fibers, caused by the whip-lash effect of the accident. The damage may cause some degree of cognitive impairment, but doctors won't know the full extent of the jockey's injuries until he regains consciousness. They plan to keep Rollins sedated and on life support for at least 24 to 48 hours. For the complete story, click here.

BELMONT RATINGS DROP Without the draw of a Triple Crown bid, the ABC broadcast of Saturday's GI Belmont S. drew a preliminary national rating of 3.5, down 22 percent from last year, according to The Blood-Horse. It was the first time that ABC had covered the race since 2000, which also happened to be the last year that neither the Kentucky Derby or Preakness winner competed in the final leg of the Triple Crown. The telecast of that edition of the Belmont, won by Commendable, earned a national rating of 3.1.

Second in a pair of Tampa stakes in 2006, including the nine-furlong Turf Classic Apr. 8, the five-year-old came home fourth most recently in the GIII Miami Mile BC H. at Calder Apr. 29. Out like a shot in the early going of this one, Icy Atlantic opened up by daylight after a half mile, was challenged after three-quarters, but had enough left to spurt away from the field with a sixteenth left to go. Still in front while tiring in the stretch, the Todd Pletcher trainee held on in the final strides to record his first victory in almost two years. Eastern report cont. p2

The four-year-old filly was on a van yesterday, heading to Belmont Park for Saturday's GI Ogden Phipps H. She capped a three-race winning streak with a 5 1/2-length triumph in the May 21 GI Shuvee H. going a mile at Belmont, and will tackle a one-turn mile and a sixteenth this time. "We think the one turn has been an important part of her success," trainer David Fawkes said. "But that's not to say that she can't be successful going two turns in the future. There will be some tough ones in there Saturday, but we've got to try her, as good as she is right now."

ASCOT OPTION FOR DANCER John Pearce's G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Dragon Dancer (GB) (Sadler's Wells) has yet to be committed to the Irish equivalent July 2, with connections waiting on the weather to decide whether to supplement him for the The Curragh Classic. Trainer Geoff Wragg revealed to the Racing Post that the maiden, who was beaten a short head by Sir Percy (GB) in the Blue Riband, also has the option of the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot June 23. "We haven't finalised our plans for him and we will make the decision whether to supplement him into the Irish Derby at the end of the week, when the race closes," he told the Post. "If Dragon Dancer is to run anywhere, he wouldn't want the ground to be too firm so we'll have to see what the weather does."

 Placed in both juvenile starts, Grigorieva recorded a last-gasp victory in a belated seasonal return at Longchamp May 18 and maintained the winning thread with a decisive first stakes success here. Recovering from a sluggish start to occupy third after the opening exchanges, the crowd's choice made headway to grab the lead with 300 meters to run and was ridden out thereafter for a cozy score.
