BARBARO CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro (Dynaformer) continues to please veterinarians at the George D. Widener Hospital for Large Animals at the University of Pennsylvania's New Bolton Center. Dr. Dean W. Richardson, who inserted 27 screws in Barbaro's right hind leg May 21 after the colt suffered multiple fractures, replaced the cast Tuesday. "His leg looks excellent," said Dr. Richardson. "The incision has healed well, and judging by the radiographs, the graft is opacifying [taking]. Callus is forming nicely, and all of the implants [plates and screws] look unchanged." Barbaro, who was placed under general anesthesia for the procedure, enjoyed a very smooth recovery in the facility's pool. The winner of the GI Florida Derby, GIII Holy Bull S. and GIII Tropical Park Derby prior to the Derby, the imposing bay was injured early in the May 20 GI Preakness S.

PERCY GROUNDED BY DRY SPELL?

Connections of the G1 Epsom Derby winner Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) may sidestep both the July 2 G1 Irish Derby and July 8 G1 Eclipse S. if rain does not arrive. Having returned from Newmarket sore after the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas, run on fast ground, connections are wary of running him again on a fast surface. He's very well in himself and not nearly as bad as he was after the Guineas, but the Derby was the second race he's had on ground that was really too firm for him," warned Victoria Pakenham, who co-owns the Blue Riband hero along with husband Anthony. "I don't think we'd intentionally swerve both the Irish Derby and Eclipse, unless [trainer] Marcus [Tregoning] thinks we need to, but we need more rain to get the ground back to what we want. Marcus won't rush him, and the beauty of wanting to run him as a four-year-old is that there is no hurry."

SURREALIST BRINGS MAGIC MILLION RECORD

After a blockbuster three days of the weanling portion of the Magic Millions National sale on the Gold Coast, the first session of broodmares continued on in the same record-setting fashion, with Surrealist (Aus) establishing a new mark for a Thoroughbred at the event on the strength of Coolmore Stud's Michael Kirwan's A$1.6-million bid. Kirwan, the Australian manager for Coolmore, outlasted the stubborn Hunter Valley bloodstock agent Tony Bott in a fierce bidding duel that kept the sales complex in rapt. Oaklands Stud consigned the topper. "What more can I say?" Kirwan commented afterwards. "She's a magnificent mare. She's only 9, and she fit our criteria." Magic Millions cont. p9

Seeking the Gold has long been recognised as one of Mr. Prospector's most important stallion sons. Until, this year, however, there was something of an anomaly in his stud career in that he had never been represented by a colt who had been first past the post in a U.S. Grade I event (his son, Cape Town did take the GI Florida Derby, but only on the disqualification of Lil's Lad). From that statistic, one might infer that Seeking the Gold is a filly sire, but in fact his best runner is the brilliant, though ill-fated Dubai Millennium, winner of seven of his eight starts, including the GI Dubai World Cup, G1 Prix Jacques le Marois, G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and G1 Prince of Wales's S. Prior to this year, other Seeking the Gold colts to gain Group/Grade 1 laurels were Lujain, successful in England's G1 Middle Park S.; Secret Savings, who took the G1 Doncaster H. in Australia; and Meiner Love, who took the Sprinters S., a Japanese Grade I event.

Seeking the Gold's current crop of sophomores has corrected the oversight to such effect that it has produced two Grade I-winning colts. First, Seeking the Gold's son Bob and John took the GI Wood Memorial S. from his hard-charging paternal half-brother, Jazil. Then, in this weekend's GI Belmont S., after Bob and John had set a fast early pace, Jazil unleashed a powerful charge which carried him home 1 1/4 lengths clear of the game Bluegrass Cat. Jazil is Seeking the Gold's 74th stakes winner and 17th Group/Grade I winner. His best, in addition to the males mentioned above are champion three-year-old filly Heavenly Prize; champion juvenile filly Flanders; Seeking the Pearl, a champion and Group 1 winner in France and Japan; Japanese Grade I winner Gold Tiara; and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Pleasant Home. Jazil also has a pedigree which is well-up to classic standard on the distaff side. His dam, Better Than Honour, was one of the leading fillies of her crop, winning the GII Demoiselle S., finishing second in the GI Acorn S. and GIII Comely S. and third in the GI Mother Goose S.

A daughter of Deputy Minister, Better Than Honour is a sister to Turnberry Isle, a winner of the G3I Beresford S. and second in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at two while running in Europe. Better Than Honour's Danzig half-sister, Smolensk, also did her best work in Europe, where she won the G2 Prix d'Astarte and took second in the G1 Coronation S., and another half-sister, the Sadler's Wells daughter, Maryinksy never won a stakes, but was second in the G1 Fillies' Mile.

Better Than Honour's dam, Blush With Pride, was an ever better runner than her daughter, capturing four graded events, including the GI Santa Susana S. and GI Kentucky Oaks. Blush With Pride was no better than she was bred to be, as she was by Blushing Groom out of Broodmare of the Year Best in Show. One of the most significant tap-root mares of the last 50 years, Best in Show is ancestress of more than 65 stakes winners, including El Gran Senor, Try My Best, Aldebaran, Aviance, Chimes of Freedom, Spinning World, Malinowski, Xaar, Yagli, Strong Hope, Bahamian Pirate, Domedriver, Umatilla, Hurricane Sky and Redoute's Choice.

As a son of Mr. Prospector, it's no surprise to see that Seeking the Gold has crossed very well with Northern Dancer line mares, and nine of his first 15 group/graded winners are bred on that cross. Until this year, however, he had never had a stakes winner from 11 named foals out of Deputy Minister mares. Strangely enough, not only is Jazil out of a Deputy Minister mare, but so is Bob and John. The Mr. Prospector/Northern Dancer cross apart, the most interesting connection in Jazil's pedigree is between Seeking the Gold's dam, Con Game, and Jazil's granddam, Blush With Pride. Con Game is by Buckpasser--son of Tom Fool out of Busanda--and her dam is by Hasty Road. Blush With Pride is by Blushing Groom (Red God, whose dam is a three-parts relative to Tom Fool), out of a mare by Traffic Judge (half-brother to Hasty Road), with a second dam by Mr. Busher (3/4-brother to Busanda).

Belmont S. winners haven't generally been at the top of commercial breeders' hit lists recently, with the focus continually moving toward speed. As far as Jazil--who of course may well prove capable of winning major races at shorter distances--is concerned, it shouldn't be overlooked that Seeking the Gold is also turning out to be a useful sire of sires, with Dubai Millennium, Mutakddim, Petionville, Cape Town and Secret Savings all getting Group or Grade 1 winners in their early crops, and that no less than 11 descendants of Best in Show have already sired Group or Grade 1 winners.

☆ LETTERS TO THE EDITOR ☆

I was excited to learn that ABC/ESPN would be covering the Belmont Stakes and the Breeders Cup this year. But after last Saturday's performance, I'm not so sure. Between the technical glitches and the performances of Terry Gannon and Brent Musberger, a lot of improvement needs to be made. Ironically, ESPN already has the talent in Kenny Mayne as lead host for their own broadcasts. Pairing the knowledgeable Mayne with the expert analysis of Randy Moss while utilizing the talents of Jeanine Edwards, Hank Goldberg, and Jay Privman is clearly the best option. They have proven themselves over a period of time. Their chemistry is terrific. It will transfer to the big stage. We will watch and enjoy the broadcasts leading to the Breeders Cup and hope the executives at ABC will do the same.

THE CLASSIC SCOREBOARD

From this year's 'Go Figure' file: of the 10 Classics run in the three Tripartite European countries (Britain, Ireland, France) so far this year, the Maktoum family has won none, but they won two legs of the American Triple Crown. Since there is no suggestion that Godolphin is about to transfer their main string from Newmarket to New York, we're entitled to regard the American results as somewhat of a fluke of nature: the races were won by American trainers Tom Albertrani (Bernardini, for Sheikh Mohammed's Darley) and Kiaran McLaughlin (Jazil, for Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell). The two owners must marvel at the vagaries of American racing, as, after years of trying, they've won two legs of the American Triple Crown with strictly limited fanfare.

There are a lot more spring/summer Classics in Europe these days (I'm discounting St. Legers) than in America: 12, counting the upcoming Irish Derby and Oaks, versus three in the States. There should be six in America, of course, but there is no agreed Classic series for fillies. New York took a stab for a while with the Triple Tiara-Acorn, Mother Goose, and CCA Oaks - and that would make some sense, except for the Kentucky Oaks, which really is the fillies' equivalent of the Kentucky Derby, though run over nine furlongs rather than 10. Since we could hardly have four fillies' Classics and three for colts, we have none. Typical.

For sheer drama, of course Barbaro's terrible breakdown in the Preakness and subsequent recovery to save him, so far (touch wood), are the biggest stories of the American Classic season, followed at a respectable distance by the fact that the winners of the other two Triple Crown races were Maktoum-owned. I don't know that there have been bigger stories, or even that much more diversity, in the European Classics run so far, but there have certainly been more of them.

There have been eight different owners of the 10 Classic winners (three are owned by Coolmore associates, which I have summarized in the accompanying Table as 'Coolmore Partners'). But where there has been a distinct--and worrying--lack of diversity is on the sires' side of the Classic-winning equation.

Ten out of 10 2006 European Classic winners have been sired by stallions which stand or stood at two farms. You'll never guess which they are. As Mark Twain might have said, we can sit here until sugar turns to salt, and even then you probably wouldn't guess it, so I had better tell you. Six of the Classic winners were sired by stallions from an obscure Irish farm called Coolmore, and the other four were sired by stallions from an equally obscure Newmarket stallion station called Dalham Hall, a Darley production.

It should have only been nine out of 10, because Prince Khalid Abdullah's Price Tag, by the Juddmonte Farm home stallion Dansili, actually won the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, but was disqualified in favor of Tie Black, by one of two deceased Dalham Hall sires to have hit the target this year, Machiavellian (the other: Polish Precedent, sire of French Derby winner Darsi).

Then there is the influence of two of the many great sons of Northern Dancer: Danzig and Sadler's Wells. Danzig's descendants won four of the six Guineas races (should have been five, as Price Tag is by Dansili, by Danehill), plus the Prix du Jockey Club (Polish Precedent); the Sadler's Wells branch has been responsible for both Oaks winners: Alexandrova by Sadler's Wells himself, and last Sunday's Prix de Diane winner Confidential Lady is by Sadler's Wells's grandson, Singspiel - as well as the Irish 1000 Guineas winner Nighttime, from Galileo's first crop. The Mr. Prospector line (which also scored with Jazil, by Seeking the Gold, in the Belmont) inherited the French 1000 (Tie Black, by Machiavellian), while the Mill Reef line scored an important victory through Sir Percy, by Darshaan's heretofore underrated son, Mark of Esteem. Oppenheim cont. p5

COOLMORE

Sir Percy's Epsom Derby win didn't thrill the speed analysts (Racing Post Rating [RPR] 121), and it was a four-horse photo, also suggesting a shortage of superstars. But keep this in mind about Sir Percy's form: he was an unbeaten winner of the Dewhurst, and he was a clear second to one of two superstar 2006 three-year-olds--George Washington and Barbaro--in the English 2000 Guineas. He is now five-for-six lifetime; not bad for a 16,000 guineas yearling unearthed by rookie bloodstock agent Angie Sykes for trainer Marcus Tregoning. Sir Percy ran an RPR 120 when second to George Washington, and 121 when winning the Derby; the fact that he didn't markedly improve when stepping up to 12 furlongs suggests that Tregoning's decision to try him at 10 furlongs in the Eclipse S. early next month may actually see the horse running at his best distance for the first time.

There is a case for saying that George Washington's win in the English 2000 (RPR 127) and Barbaro's equally impressive win in the Kentucky Derby (Beyer 111) actually achieved a similar (superstar) standard. Though most figures don't show pluses, Barbaro's figure could have actually been a 111+ in that it was achieved so easily and at his first real step up in distance (to 10 furlongs). I've found that you can project adding six points in these kinds of cases, meaning I think Barbaro was capable of running at least a Beyer 117, which translates in my figures to a Timeform (or RPR) 129. George Washington ran 127+ in the Guineas. Here's how I read the Classic form this year. In Europe, the number one colt is superstar George Washington and number two is Sir Percy. In America, the number one colt is superstar Barbaro and number two is Bernardini, who actually ran a higher (113) raw Beyer figure in the Preakness than Barbaro ran in the Kentucky Derby. They are all seriously good; and, by the way, they might all turn out to be (or to have been) best at distances ranging from a mile to 10 furlongs.

Using my rule-of-thumb +12 for converting Beyers to Timeform or RPR figures suggests an interesting comparison between the top 12-furlong colts in Europe and America. The excellent handicapper James Willoughby, who is now Chief Correspondent for the Racing Post, wrote about this year's 12-furlong colts in yesterday's paper, commenting that, between the Epsom and French Derbies, "no less than a dozen colts ran to a Racing Post Rating of 114 or more ..." If you do the subtraction, 114 minus 12 equals 102--Jazil's exact Beyer figure when winning the Belmont. This looks good, because Belmont second Bluegrass Cat's distant second to Barbaro in Kentucky scored 101, and Belmont third Sunriver's Peter Pan win scored 102. Jazil had run a 97 in his last two starts, when second to Bob and John in the Wood and fourth to Barbaro in Kentucky, so the contention is that he improved five points for the step-up in trip.

Note, however, that still means a dozen colts who ran in the English or French Derbies could have won the Belmont. That is possibly true. Willoughby raises an interesting point, in taking the traditional European tack that 12-furlong races are still 'middle-distance races,' castigating the American system for not producing more 12-furlong horses. Don't make me laugh. Talk to any bloodstock agent on the planet: 10-furlong horses run middle distances these days, while 12-furlong horses are stayers, with very limited residual value after they've finished staying, even to buyers of jumpers. I completely agree that the 2100-meter French Derby is not the solution. The problem is that the European program for three-year-olds should be revised, so that Classic races are run at a mile, 10 furlongs, and 12 furlongs, because, in the real world where horses are bought and sold for big money, 10 furlongs, is a middle distance, and 12 furlongs is now a 'trip'. Let the wailing commence. cont. p7

Sophomore Sires

At the end of 2005, Tiznow ranked first and Aptitude ranked 19th among 2005 North American freshman sires. Things have changed a little bit. Tiznow has only six winners, no stakes winners, and the earners of just $258,034 thus far this year (from bloodhorse.com), and has dropped to seventh on the second-crop sires' cumulative progeny earnings list. Aptitude, though he has only two stakes winners-plus Kentucky Derby third and Belmont fourth Steppenwolfer--has 17 winners and the earners of $1,378,576 this year, leading the second-crop sires group for 2006 and jumping from 19th to fourth on the cumulative second-crop sires list.

In exactly the same order, the other five slots among the current cumulative top seven (Aptitude fourth, Tiznow seventh) are occupied by the sires who ranked second through sixth on last year's Freshman Sire list -- so these five have been a lot more consistent. El Corredor now tops the list, having been second to Tiznow on the Freshman list. City Zip moves from third to second; Songandaprayer from fourth to third; Broken Vow was fifth, is fifth; and Forest Camp was sixth, is sixth. Florida stallions Trippi, Exchange Rate, and Delaware Township occupy three of the next five slots, along with two Kentucky Mr. Prospector-line sires from Wintergreen Farm, Ecton Park (by Forty Niner) and Five Star Day (by Carson City).

New York sire Prime Timber is next, followed by Point Given (up from 33rd to 14th), Southern Hemisphere-bound Black Minnaloushe and Brahms. We've been following the European list more closely. Since the beginning of the month, Galileo has passed Bertolini for second spot behind Mozart, but it is just a matter of time before he takes top spot, especially as Mozart only had the one crop. With the German Oaks winner, Medicean moves back up to fourth spot, having been third at the end of 2005, but had dropped to seventh through a slow start to 2006. Mull of Kintyre is now a solid fifth, over £75,000 in front of King Charlemagne in sixth. So the European top five sophomore sires comprise three Danzig-line horses: Mozart, by Danehill, plus Bertolini and Mull of Kintyre, by Danzig himself; the prospective group leader Galileo, by Sadler's Wells; and Medicean, by Mr. Prospector's increasingly influential son, Machiavellian.

Tom Magnier, son of Coolmore chief John Magnier, was listed as the buyer of the sale topping Surrealist (Aus) (Kenny's Best Pal {Aus}) during the first day of action of the Broodmare Sale. From her first two foals to race the daughter of Kenny's Best Pal (Aus), produced the stakes-placed Distilled (Aus) (Masterclass) and Racing to Win (Aus) (Encosta De Lago {Aus}), twice a Group 1 winner in Australia. She sold in foal to champion racehorse and Coolmore stallion Fastnet Rock (Aus), a son of Danehill. Kirwan added that Surrealist would be bred back to Encosta de Lago (Aus), another Coolmore stallion, a mating that would produce a full sibling to Racing to Win. The only other mare on the day to eclipse the seven-figure mark was Carry on Cutie (Aus) (More Than Ready), who brought an even A$1 million from Richard Johnston of Accomac Holdings Pty Ltd. The three-year-old filly, heroine of the G1 Champagne S., hailed from the Oakridge Trading dispersal. The second of five sessions of broodmares kicks off today at 11 a.m. local time. For full results and catalog, visit www.magicmillions.com.au.

Racing to Win aapsports.com

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, and an ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1.

BIDDING PACKAGE FOR NYRA FRANCHISE APPROVED BY STATE PANEL

by Tom Precious, courtesy www.bloodhorse.com

The long-awaited Request For Proposals for the franchise to operate racing at Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga was approved for release June 13 by a state government panel, though it appears increasingly unlikely the winning bidder will be selected this year. The Ad Hoc Committee on the Future of Racing approved a bidding package that gives prospective franchise holders multiple options for structuring a plan to run racing at the three tracks. Jumping into the legally unsettled waters over who owns the racetracks, the RFP notes that bidders should assume the properties are owned by New York state. The New York Racing Association, which has held the franchise since 1955, insists it owns the tracks. The timetable for bidders is a short one. The franchise package requires bids to be submitted by Aug. 15, with the state committee selecting a proposed winner by Sept. 15. But the bid still needs the approval of the State Legislature and the governor and, with a change in control of the governor's office at the end of the year, the odds are against a final decision this year. Click here to continue.

MAJORS CAST EUTHANIZED Susan Roy's Majors Cast (Ire) (Victory Note--Ziffany {GB}, by Taufan) was euthanized after sustaining a fracture in a home gallop yesterday. Trainer Jeremy Noseda revealed that the five-year-old had suffered the injury to his right fore and was put down following complications after surgery in Newmarket. "It is devastating news for the owners Paul and Susan Roy, myself and everyone at Shalfleet where he has been a firm favourite," he told PA Sport. Despite having just one stakes success to his name in this year's Listed Spring Trophy at Haydock, Majors Cast put up a string of placed efforts in top company, including a runner-up finish in the May 20 G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. at Newbury on his final start and a third in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp last September. He was also second in the G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood last August, and was beaten less than two lengths by Artie Schiller when fifth in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile at Belmont in October. "Horses of his calibre are very hard to replace," Noseda added. "He was a fabulous servant to the yard and was very unlucky not to have become a Group winner during his career." Majors Cast's record stands at 17-6-3-5, with earnings of $585,598.

DETTORI IN CAUTIOUS MOOD

Frankie Dettori yesterday summed up the mood of the Godolphin camp heading towards Royal Ascot when saying that the operation is "more hopeful than confident" about the chances of winning at the meeting. Poor early stable form in May led Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's team to shut down for almost a fortnight, but both Librettist and Satchem (Ire) have won since the royal blue returned to the track. Amongst Dettori's rides will be the G1 Dubai World Cup winner Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) in next Wednesday's G1 Prince of Wales's S., G1 Sussex S. victor Proclamation (Ire) (King's Best) in Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne S. and G1 Prix Morny heroine Silca's Sister (GB) (Inchior {GB}), who runs in Friday's G1 Coronation S. "All the signs are good and we're positive," Dettori commented. "The horses are running much better now, which will give us a lot of confidence. We're more hopeful than confident this year because they have missed a bit, but we hope they can redeem themselves. Electrocutionist, Proclamation and Silca's Sister are our main hopes for the big races and all seem to be going well, so I hope they can come through."
