STRIKELINE TOPS MM SELECT FINALE

Group 3 winner Strikeline (Aus) (Desert Sun {GB}), sold by Eliza Park as agent to dissolve a partnership, brought a bid of A$470,000 to top Thursday's final select broodmare session of the Magic Millions National Sale on the Gold Coast. Steve Brem signed the ticket for the five-year-old racing/broodmare prospect on behalf of Ultra Thoroughbreds. It was another successful day of trading for Magic Millions, with the current sale average of A$92,502 up 38 percent from last year's A$66,954. "This sale continues to grow at amazing levels each year and it is now regarded as the best in the Southern Hemisphere," David Chester, Magic Millions' managing director, said. "We're very proud of the results of the National Sale to date--particularly the broodmare sale over the past few days. Quality mares were in amazing demand. I'm sure many of the breeders wished they had catalogued more of their quality stock that they were contemplating selling. While many of the mares sold for lofty amounts, there were plenty of great value buys." The non-select portion of the sale continues today at 11 a.m. Statistics and Top Lots p3

GOOD THURSDAY FOR BLUE MONDAY

Blue Monday (GB) (Darshaan {GB}) survived a steward's inquiry to earn his first group success in yesterday's G3 La Coupe S. at Longchamp. Successful in the valuable Cambridgeshire H. at Newmarket Oct. 1, the five-year-old confirmed his well-being when second on seasonal return at Ripon Apr. 20. He emphasized that further with a win in the May 26 Listed Festival S. at Goodwood. Settled in third for most of yesterday's contest, Blue

Monday was angled out from his rail position to challenge with a quarter mile to run. Responding to every smack of Steve Drowne's whip, he would not be denied and wrested victory from Annenkov (Ire) (Danehill) on the line. "He is improving with every run," said trainer Roger Charlton. "He had a good season in handicaps last year, won a Listed race at the first attempt and has now won a group race at the first attempt." Cont. p2

ROYAL ASCOT

FIRST DAY TAKING SHAPE

Godolphin's Proclamation (Ire) (King's Best) will have a maximum of eight rivals to face in Tuesday's G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot. Last year's G1 Sussex S. hero missed his intended return in the May 20 G1 Lockinge S. That race was won by Cheveley Park Stud's five-year-old mare Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), who also featured among the entries at yesterday's Queen Anne five-day stage. Her trainer Sir Michael Stoute also has Khalid Abdullah's May 15 Listed Royal Windsor S. winner Home Affairs (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the mile contest. As expected multiple Group 1 winner Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) was scratched by trainer James Fanshawe in favor of the following day's G2 Windsor Forest S.

In the G1 St James's Palace S., Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's May 27 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) headed a field of 15 for the mile contest yesterday. Trainer Jeremy Noseda is hopeful that the Curragh Classic hero can prove that surprise win was no fluke. "He's a proper Group 1 horse and hasn't had the acclaim he deserves compared to George Washington," he said on Wednesday. Noseda also has Susan Roy's Newmarket maiden scorer Secret World (Ire) (Spinning World) engaged, but he is expected to take in the next afternoon's G3 Jersey S. in preference.

Aidan O'Brien has a team of four left, with Susan Magnier's G2 July S. winner Ivan Denisovich (Ire) (Danehill) expected to be the main representative and Michael Tabor's May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) runner-up Marcus Andronicus (Danehill) en route to the Jersey. Further international flavor will be added by the inclusion of Ecurie Mister Ess AS's Poulains third Stormy River (Fr) (Verglas {Ire}) from the Nicolas Clement barn in France and Catherine O'Flynn's Irish 2000 Guineas third Decado (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who will represent Kevin Prendergast.

LAWYER RON RETURNS TO HOLTHUS BARN

Lawyer Ron (Langfuhr), injured during a 12th-place finish in the GI Kentucky Derby, is expected to return to the Churchill Downs barn of trainer Bob Holthus today and has been given the go-ahead to resume training. The chestnut colt, winner of the GII Arkansas Derby, had surgery to remove a small chip from his right hind leg. "Dr. [Larry] Bramlage examined him and said he's ready to go back to training," Holthus said yesterday. "We'll try to have him ready to run sometime around the first of September." To date, Lawyer Ron has hit the board in 11 of 15 starts, with seven victories and earnings of $1,220,008.

MEEKER PRESIDES OVER FINAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

by Ron Mitchell, courtesy of The Blood-Horse

As the search for his successor continues, Churchill Downs Inc. president and chief executive officer Tom Meeker presided over his 22nd and final shareholders' meeting Thursday, painting a positive picture of the racetrack operating company's future while also accepting plaudits from fellow directors and company employees. "Over the next several months there will be dramatic changes in this company under the leadership of a new person," Meeker said as he opened the meeting. As the CDI executive search committee continues its work in choosing his successor, Meeker said he would like to see a new president and CEO who is a "proven leader with a sense of risk-taking who also understands technology and new products it will create." Meeker reiterated observations he has made in recent months that the horse industry needs to change the business model under which it operates by obtaining more revenues from simulcasting ventures. He also cited CDI's expansion into European wagering markets, in conjunction with Magna Entertainment, as a positive move that will fuel industry growth. Richard Duchossois, CDI's largest shareholder, would not provide specifics of the search for Meeker's successor because he is not on the search committee. But he said he believed the company is on the right course to position itself for future growth. Click for entire story.

Put away for the year thereafter, he was returned to training in late February and had not missed a beat ahead of his three-year-old bow. A 4-1 chance trying winners for the first time, the Wygod homebred settled towards the back of the pack and rallied along the inside on the turn. Steered out for the drive, the dark bay struck the lead just outside the furlong marker and went on to a 1 3/4-length victory from Operation Red Dawn (Miswaki). The winner is a full brother to the still-unraced Liwa Oasis, purchased by Sheikh Mohammed for a sales-topping $9.7 million at last year's Keeneland September sale. Pomeroy Returns Saturday at Calder:

Pomeroy (Boundary), winner of the 2004 GI King's Bishop S. and last year's GII Alfred Vanderbilt H., may return to the races Saturday in Calder's Champali S. The five-year-old has not been out since finishing eighth in the Oct. 1 GI Vosburgh H. for trainer Patrick Biancone and owners Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith. After that effort, Pomeroy was purchased privately by David Hutson and sent to trainer Marty Wolfson. Pomeroy is entered in the Champali coupled with Hutson's graded-stakes winner Chandtrue (Yes It's True), with jockey Carlos Olivero named on both. Wolfson is pointing Pomeroy towards the July 15 GII Smile Sprint H. Also entered for Saturday's six-furlong Champali S. is Universal Form (Formal Dinner), winner of Gulfstream's GIII Deputy Minister H. and stakes winner Nightmare Affair (Out of Place).

The bay tried older competition in her latest and acquitted herself well over a 'good' Churchill turf May 18, leading late before finishing second by a head. The 7-2 second choice in the wagering, the $60,000 KEENOV weanling found herself well back following a sluggish start, but picked off horses on the far turn and rallied to nail favored Take the Ribbon (Chester House) by a nose. The even-money favorite in his first lifetime start was slow to get into action after the break and needed to be asked to pick it up halfway through the turn for home. However, when he hit the head of the stretch after being forced five wide, Circular Quay took over with a forceful move, passing three horses easily and drawing off under continued urging from jockey Rafael Bejarano to score by 6 1/4 widening lengths for Michael Tabor and Todd Pletcher. The winner is a half-brother to Circle the World (Fusaichi Pegasus), a candidate for tomorrow's GIII Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup S. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $31,300. Second of June, Suave Face Off in Feature:

Second of June (Louis Quatorze), unraced since a runner-up finish in the 2005 GII Oaklawn H., and Suave (A.P. Indy), last seen finishing sixth in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 4, hook up in this afternoon's 10th race at Churchill Downs. Winner of the GIII Holy Bull S. in 2004, Second of June missed by a neck in that year's GII Fountain of Youth S. before going to the shelf for 10 months. He failed to win in four subsequent starts, but trainer Bill Cesare is cautiously optimistic about today's race. "He's going to run good," the former professional football player assured. "I don't know if we can win it, but I ain't running to lose it. We'll find out how much work we've got to do to get him back going." Suave, who won the GIII Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup S. as a three-year-old at this track, proved his affinity for the surface with a runner-up effort in the GII Clark H. last November. His successful 2005 campaign also included a victory in the GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H., a second in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and a respectable fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Adding further quality to the field is MGSW Greater Good (Intidab), winless in nine starts since taking the GIII Rebel S. in March 2005.

A Family Affair:

One mare, one day, three runners. Trainer Bob Holthus will hope to make it a day of watching all in the family, as he starts full sisters in a pair of stakes races on the Stephen Foster undercard and another in an allowance race up the road at Arlington. Things get underway just before 5 p.m. Eastern time when the oldest of the trio, the five-year-old Victoire Bataille, takes her spot in a third-level turf allowance at the suburban Chicago oval. Fewer than 10 minutes later, the youngest sibling, Beau Dare, will take her spot in the GIII Regret S. for three-year-old fillies on the turf at Churchill. Holthus' day comes to an end in the final race in Louisville when he saddles four-year-old Beaugeste in the GIII Early Times Mint Julep S. for older fillies and mares on the grass. All three horses are owned by Walts David Stable LLC and are by Military out of the Beau Genius mare Gen Corp Purposes.

Peterman joins Turfway as Official Starter:

Turfway Park has hired Stephen Peterman as the track's official starters and summer stabling manager. Peterman, who has been the lead assistant starter at Churchill Downs since 1987, will begin his new duties June 24. He has also served as Keeneland's assistant starter since 1987 and added similar duties at the Ellis Park meet beginning in 1993.

Your Tent or Mine Out for the Year:

Graded stakes winner Your Tent or Mine (Forest Camp), who had been scheduled to make his three-year-old bow in tomorrow's GIII Affirmed H., has sustained an unspecified injury that will preclude him from making the races this year, according to Daily Racing Form. "It's knocked him out for the rest of the year," trainer Neil Drysdale told DRF. "But he'll be fine." Drysdale did say that surgery would be required. Winner of the GIII Hollywood Prevue S. in November, the bay colt ran second to Brother Derek in the GI Hollywood Futurity in December, but hasn't been out since. He was taken off the Triple Crown trail during the winter due to an abscess in his right front foot.

TRF Horses Head Home to Breeders:

Under a new Thoroughbred Retirement Fund initiative to include breeders in the care and expenditures of caring for retired racehorses, two ex-campaigners are set to return to their birthplaces. "We know that there are many conscientious breeders out there who care about the horses they brought into the world and would never want anything bad to happen to them," explained TRF Executive Director Diana Pikulski. "Sometimes horses slip through the cracks and their breeders or original owners never know what happened to them. In many cases, they wind up with us. We want to give people the chance to take these horses back and care for them, just as they did when they were babies on their farms." Still in the initial stages of the program, the TRF has already received positive responses from breeders Marlene Brody of Gallagher's Stud and Arthur and Staci Hancock of Stone Farm. Aristan, a 15-year-old gelding, was bred by Brody and her late husband Jerry. He came to the TRF after finishing seventh in a $5,000 claimer at Penn National in 1999. "I think all breeders should be willing to take back a horse that they bred who needs a home, if they have a farm," Brody said. "Or everyone should pay money into a fund to care for unwanted racehorses." The Stone Farm-bred Selznick, a nine-year-old son of Harlan, will also be returned to his birthplace. "Because of the on-going efforts of the TRF, we are bringing Selznick back to Stone Farm," said Staci Hancock. "I haven't seen him since he was sold as a yearling in 1998, but I remember him as a beautiful colt. I plan to turn him out with some other geldings who have found their way back to Stone Farm. I am looking to find them second careers."

ODYSSEY INJURED

Bill Gredley's Olympian Odyssey (GB) (Sadler's Wells) has been found to have sustained a fracture to his off fore during his disappointing run in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. Having finished third in the May 6 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, the Barry Hills-trained colt had been expected to be in the firing line in the June 4 Chantilly Classic, but faded to finish 12th. "He sustained a stress fracture on his off-fore, just above the knee," Hills told PA Sport yesterday. "He just wants time now and he'll have plenty of box rest to give the injury time to heal properly. Hopefully, he'll be back in full work in September, and if everything goes to plan, he could be back for the [Oct. 14] G1 Champion S. at Newmarket."

DUBAI RACING CLUB APPOINTS IRB

The Dubai Racing Club has announced the appointment of the International Racing Bureau as its European agent. The organization will be charged with attracting the best horses to compete in the Dubai International Racing Carnival, highlighted by the Dubai World Cup program. "The appointment of the IRB will ensure that we are able to effectively meet the needs of all the European owners, trainers and jockeys who are looking to travel to Dubai and compete on the world stage at Nad al Sheba Racecourse," said Frank Gabriel Jr., CEO of the Dubai Racing Club.
