FOSTERING AN UPSET

Seek Gold (Touch Gold)'s previous career highlight had come under the Twin Spires, where he ran second to Saint Liam in the 2004 GII Clark H. while defeating Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) by a nose. That proved to be a bit of foreshadowing for yesterday's $844,500 GI Stephen Foster H. when Seek Gold came flying on the outside to nail Perfect Drift at the wire. "If he had my nose, we would have won," quipped Perfect Drift's trainer, Murray Johnson. It was a sweet win for conditioner Ron Moquett, who was saddling Seek Gold for the first time since getting him from Nick Zito. "As far as I'm concerned, I'm going to take the credit because my name's on the picture, but let's give credit where credit is due," Moquett said. "Nick Zito developed this horse. This is a classy guy helping a young trainer." Stephen Foster cont. p2

TOUR GUIDE

Take D' Tour (Tour d'Or), a front-running winner of the GII Shuvee H. at Belmont last out, mirrored that effort against a salty group in the GI Ogden Phipps H. yesterday afternoon. It was the first Grade I winner for trainer David Fawkes, who took over the mare's care at the end of 2005. "It's a lot of fun to watch her run them off their feet," Fawkes said. Even-money Spun Sugar (Awesome Again) spun her wheels on the turn and wound up fourth. Ogden Phipps cont. p3

THAT'S THE TICKET

Beaten a neck in her first two graded-stakes tries this term, Happy Ticket (Anet) finally got a photo in her favor in the GII Fleur de Lis H. at Churchill Downs yesterday afternoon. The five-year-old mare tracked pacesetting favorite Oonagh Maccool (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) to the stretch, then hit the gas and was able to get her head in front in the final strides.

STAYING BRILLIANT IN JEFFERSON CUP

Mill House's homebred Brilliant (War Chant), making his stakes debut, lived up to his 4-5 odds with a smooth success in yesterday's GII Jefferson Cup at Churchill Downs. He is now three-for-three on the turf. "The best way to describe his performance is that he ran to his name--Brilliant," said winning rider Robby Albarado. "This horse is going to go on and do some bigger things." Added winning trainer Neil Howard, "I'm not crying at the fact that he likes this turf course with the Breeders' Cup here this fall."

SEEK AND YE SHALL FIND Seek Gold started out his career for owner Robert LaPenta and trainer Nick Zito, but, after a promising two-year-old campaign, had a forgettable sophomore season in 2003, when he failed to menace in four outings. The bay showed improvement as a four-year-old, when he captured allowance contests at Belmont and Saratoga, then ran a distant fourth to Ghostzapper and Saint Liam in the GI Woodward S. in September, and closed out 2004 with his aforementioned Clark effort on Thanksgiving weekend. After failing to land a blow in three stakes races to start 2005, Seek Gold ran second in a $100,000 optional claimer over this surface Nov. 24 and ended the year with a second to stablemate Andromeda's Hero in the GIII Fred W. Hooper H. at Calder Dec. 17. He caught a sloppy track when seventh to Brass Hat (Prized) in the GI Donn H. Feb. 4 to kick off his latest campaign and, following a runner-up effort in Tampa's Budweiser Challenger H. Mar. 11, ran fifth in his return to Churchill in the Alysheba S. May 5, his final outing for Zito. Acquired by Ted Bowman and partners from LaPenta as part of a nine-horse package, the six-year-old gelding was looking to provide a bit of relief in the Stephen Foster for Bowman, whose mother was diagnosed with cancer earlier in the week.

Golden Ending...

After bumping a bit with favored Buzzards Bay (Marco Bay) at the start, Seek Gold was unhurried near the back of the pack as the longest shot on the board at 91-1. He still had the entire field in front of him turning for home, but an unconcerned Calvin Borel took him 12 wide and kept on riding him every inch of the stretch to get up in the final jump. Though it took a while for the official photo to confirm the result, Borel was confident. "I didn't want to go by him [Perfect Drift] because I know how he is," Borel explained. "He's a horse that needs something to pick off. I waited as long as I could." That's Racing for You...

Love of Money (Not for Love) went up to set the lead as expected with Buzzards Bay not too far behind, but the bay compromised the favorite a bit when drifting out badly down the backstretch. When Love of Money backed out of it heading for home, Buzzards Bay inherited the lead, but was soon faced by several challengers, including Perfect Drift making what looked to be a winning move on the outside. The seven-year-old, hero of the 2003 Stephen Foster, had a clear lead in deep stretch before getting caught late.

The lightly raced Take D' Tour returned from a six-month hiatus with a rusty sixth in Tampa's Wayward Lass S. Mar. 4. Entered for a $250,000 tag in an optional claimer at Gulfstream versus Balletto Mar. 30, the chestnut romped home by four lengths and has been unstoppable since. She took another optional claimer by 10 lengths at the Hallandale oval Apr. 14, then headed up I-95 on her way to the Big Apple. The Florida-bred made all the running in the GII Shuvee H. May 21, opening up to win by 5 1/2 lengths, and was out to prove herself once again. After a slightly awkward start, the five-year-old recovered and had the lead through fractions of :23.5, :46.01 and 1:10.38. She turned for home with a full head of steam and extended her advantage. According to trainer David Fawkes, the mare needed to get over some physical problems. "She had some bleeding issues; once we got those under control, her health really improved," he said. Fawkes added that he would wait before naming her next target. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Happy Ticket won 10 of her first 11 starts, including a 5 1/2-length romp in the GI Ballerina H. last August. She was a half-length behind champion Ashado when second in the GI Beldame S.

Oct. 1 and went off a well-backed 9-2 in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 29, but faded badly to finish 11th in her first-ever off-the-board effort. The bay returned to take a Louisiana-bred stakes at Evangeline Downs in February, but missed by a neck in both the Mar. 11 GII Azeri BC S. and the GI Apple Blossom H. and took to the bench. Back here after a two-month freshening, she was caught off-guard by the start, but soon had crowd's choice Oonagh Maccool in her sights through temperate early fractions. Jockey Julien Leparoux asked the question at the quarter pole and Happy Ticket responded, running down the favorite in the shadow of the wire. With the win, she became a millionaire. Dixie Meister could only manage to beat Texas-breds last season, winning state-bred stakes at Sam Houston in February and November, but the dark bay opened 2006 with a second-place finish behind Brass Hat in the Jan. 7 GII New Orleans H. at Louisiana Downs. He could do no better than seventh in the Feb. 4 GII Strub S., then improved to fill the runner-up spot in the Mar. 12 Santana Mile H. in Arcadia and put in a decent effort last time out to be third in the May 13 GII Mervyn Leroy H. over this track. Given a solid chance by the Hollywood faithful here, the four-year-old saved ground down the backstretch while rating off fast fractions. Jockey David Flores angled him to the outside on the far turn, and he gained the lead as they neared the eighth pole before holding off Super Frolic. "Oh man, I was hoping it would come out that way," Flores said. "There was plenty of speed in the race, and they were sending, so I was just sitting on my horse. He was running into the bridle all the way around, so I just tried to keep him in a good position and put him outside when it was time to go." The aptly named Brilliant maintained his perfect record on turf with this measured victory. After hitting the board in his first three starts on dirt, the dark bay graduated by three lengths at Oaklawn Jan. 20, then ran second in an allowance at the Arkansas oval Feb. 16. Trainer Neil Howard regrouped with the Mill House homebred, sending him out to defeat his elders in his turf bow Apr. 29, and Brilliant cleared his next condition in style May 20. Odds-on here in his stakes debut, the three-year-old settled along the hedge as Tahoe Warrior tugged his way on the front end. Jockey Robby Albarado eased Brilliant out approaching the stretch and, though he took a few strides to hit the right gear, went by the leaders smoothly for his first stakes win. High Cotton concluded his juvenile campaign with a second to Private Vow (Broken Vow) in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. over this surface Nov. 26, but the fortunes of both colts have gone in markedly different directions since. After being eased in his sophomore bow in a Gulfstream allowance Feb. 22, High Cotton posted a front-running tally in Turfway's Rushaway S. Mar. 25, but faded to ninth--with Private Vow third--in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 15. He rebounded with 5 1/2-length in the Sir Barton S. at Pimlico May 20 and was the slight favorite over his old rival. After exchanging bumps with Simon Pure at the start, the bay tracked Private Vow through fractions of :48.21 and 1:12.19 and moved up to challenge as they straightened into the stretch. The Peachtree colorbearer hit the front while keeping Simon Pure from finding a seam and drove home for his first graded win. Private Vow stopped badly in the lane to finish last.

Trial By Jury was third for a $40,000 tag at Santa Anita Mar. 24, then relocated to this track and was runner-up in a third-level allowance Apr. 28. The dark bay took a one-mile event over the local turf by a head May 28, but was coming into this off a third-place effort in a June 2 money allowance test. The third choice in the wagering despite his double-digit odds, Trial By Jury was rated along the inside early on, as New Export and Waupaca locked horns on the front end. Shifted out to the three path once heads were turned for home, the seven-year-old bumped lightly with Cosporosity (Golden Missile) in upper stretch, but dug in gamely and was able to nip New Export at the wire. "Actually I had everything in my favor because the pressure was on [New Export]," explained winning rider Alfredo Juarez Jr. "I was just riding the rail behind horses. When I asked him on the turn for home, I had to split horses, but he started rolling and that was it."

a length in her debut, a Sept. 1 conditions race at Chantilly, the chestnut graduated Sept. 17 in a Lonchamp maiden and added a conditions race win a month later at the same track for trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias. Purchased privately, the French-bred carried apprentice Julien Leparoux to victory in Keeneland's Apalachian S. Apr. 23 in her U.S. bow and was expected to maintain her perfect record on these shores here.

Lady of Venice settled into stride near the back of the pack and still had plenty to do turning for home, but the crowd's choice hit her best stride and flew past her rivals for her first graded tally. "She's a lovely filly; really, really good," commented winning trainer Patrick Biancone. "We've taken our time with her and are going step by step. The regally bred My Typhoon won with style in her debut score as a juvenile at Saratoga and became a stakes winner two starts later in the Hilltop Breeders' Cup S. last May at Pimlico. She went on to add victories in the Virginia Oaks and the GII Mrs. Revere S. as well as placings in the GII

Lake Placid S. and the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup S. The chestnut kicked off her four-year-old season with a fourth-place finish as the 8-5 chalk in Pimlico's GIII Gallorette H. May 20. Favored by the Louisville faithful here, she stalked in third as Ella Belle (Elnadim) showed the early way. Given her cue by Robby Albarado once clear in the stretch, the Live Oak colorbearer accelerated nicely and won going away.

Point Determined, third in his lone attempt at two, graduated impressively by 5 1/2 lengths at Santa Anita Jan. 13, then was second in an allowance over that track after bobbling at the start Feb. 3. The bay shipped to Golden Gate for a Feb. 17 $80,000 optional claimer and didn't disappoint his backers, scoring by 1 1/2 lengths as the 1-5 favorite. He was second best behind A.P. Warrior in the GII San Felipe S. Mar. 18, and duplicated that effort against Brother Derek in the

Apr. 8 GI Santa Anita Derby. The sophomore received a lot of attention on the first Saturday in May for the GI Kentucky Derby last time, but could do better than ninth, beaten 15 1/4 lengths. Favored in his first start in Inglewood, he was ridden aggressively to stay within a length of A.P. Warrior through :23.92 and :46.96 fractions. With Victor Espinoza in the saddle, Point Determined reached even terms with the pacesetter at the top of the lane, but needed the entire stretch to defeat that one by the narrowest of margins. "That was a good horse race," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "This horse, he's hard to ride. He's very lazy--you've got to force it out of him...[jockey] Victor [Espinoza] knows him, and you've gotta keep him in there." Arson Squad, sent off as the second choice, rallied to finish third. Cause to Believe appeared to have no excuse while fourth.

Kieran McLaughlin (center)
following Jazil's Belmont win

Adam Coglianes

KIARAN MCLAUGHLIN

This week's accomplishment:

McLaughlin conditioned Shadwell Stable's Jazil (Seeking the Gold) to Classic glory in the 138th edition of the June 10 GI Belmont S.

Birthdate: 11-15-60

Birthplace: Lexington, Ky

Current Residence: Garden City, NY

Family: Wife Letty, married 23 years in November; Son Ryan, 12; Daughter Erin, 15.

What did the post-Belmont celebration entail? Eating and drinking great food and great wine with Rick Nichols--Shadwell president--and wife and kids.

Of all the horses you have been around, who has been your favorite? Open Mind and Jazil.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? Polytrack to train on in New York! Slots in New York!

What's on your I-Pod now? I do not have I-Pod, but I listen to 660 WFAN sports radio in NY.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Dubai, or Turks and Caicos.

Favorite food or meal? As you can tell I love all kinds of food.

Funniest movie you've ever seen? Meet the Fockers.

Childhood Ambition? To be a trainer like Charlie Whittingham.

Proudest moment? The birth of my children, and then winning the Belmont!

Perfect day? Go to work in the a.m., win a race or two in the afternoon and dinner with my family in the evening. Then maybe a game of hold 'em after!

First job? Newspaper boy at age nine in Lexington.

Last Purchase? BMW X5 five weeks ago.

Favorite joke? To my owner: Our horse had a problem with the starting gate. Owner: What happened?! My reply: It opened.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's

Ebony Breeze registered her eighth career stakes victory and, in the process, became racing's newest millionairess. Winner of the Manatee S. at Tampa Feb. 4, the Steinbrenner homebred failed to land a blow when eighth in the GIII Hurricane Bertie H. at Gulfstream two weeks later. Third in the Giant's Causeway S. sprinting on the Keeneland turf course Apr. 22, she was third by a neck in the Winning Colors H. at Churchill May 27. Always within easy striking distance, Ebony Breeze launched her bid in earnest on the turn, was roused to the front inside the final furlong and edged clear. "The race set up perfectly for her," said winning rider John Jacinto. "I just let her break easy and let her get her feet. I just waited for the last quarter to ask her to run and she gave me a big kick."

Golden Titus assured his place at the peak of Italy's current juvenile crop while extending his perfect record here. Off the mark in a debutantes event at the Capannelle May 1, he accounted for Ladak (GB) (Agnes World) in the Listed Premio Alberto Giubilo back there May 28 and maintained his progressive profile with an authoritative success. Reserved towards the rear early by Stefano Landi, he arrived full of run inside the final furlong and needed only to be pushed out to comfortably best Xenes and Docksil.

No contender deserves these laurels more than Dionisia, who has carried over her remarkable juvenile strike rate to her sophomore year. She registered at the top of her division with four Listed scores in 2005, and almost bested the colts in the G1 Gran Criterium, only to lose by a length to Lateral (GB) here in October. Following a return success in the Apr. 23 Listed Premio Torricola at the Capannelle, she could finish only sixth in the May 14 G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas), but she rebounded in her customary style to take the ultimate dress rehearsal for this Classic, the G3 Premio Mario Incisa at this venue May 27. Wickwing was second in that event. Rising Cross has been purchased privately by owner Gary Tanaka, according to the Daily Racing Form, and is a 50-50 chance to travel to the U.S. for the July 2 G1 American Oaks. The filly is as hardy as they come and, after dead-heating in the Listed Lupe S. at Goodwood May 6, finished runner-up to Alexandrova (Ire) in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 2. "She is tough," trainer John Best told PA Sport. "And while some of the other fillies might have problems with the heat and traveling, she won't. She is in really good form at the moment and has taken her Epsom race really well." Souvenance comes off a third in the May 14 G2 Schwarzgold-Rennen at Cologne, and her trainer, Sir Mark Prescott, is looking for his second European Classic in the space of a week, following the exploits of Confidential Lady (GB) in the G1 Prix de Diane. "Souvenance is not as good as Confidential Lady," he told PA Sport. "But she should have a good chance. She is crying out for that trip, she has a good jockey on board and, as usual, we wouldn't go if we didn't think she had a chance."

GRAN PREMIO DI MILANO-G1, €288,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/2mT

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER
1	6	Groom Tesse (GB)	Groom Dancer	F & L Camici
2	2	Hattan (Ire)	Halling	C Brittain
3	4	Montalegre (Ire)	Montjeu (Ire)	A & G Botti

5	3	Shamdala (Ire)	Grand Lodge	de Royer-Dupre
6	5	Vol de Nuit (GB)	Linamix (Fr)	Cumani

All carry 132 pounds bar Shamdala, 129.

Shamdala, supplemented by her powerful connections, bids to provide trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre with his second renewal, following the exploits of Dark Moondancer (GB) in 1999. His Highness The Aga Khan's filly emerged as a top-class middle-distance performer last term, rattling up a sequence of successes at Longchamp in the Listed Prix de Thiberville in July, G3 Prix de Lutece in September and G2 Prix de Chaudenay in early October. That run was interrupted with a sixth-place effort in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks at York in August, but she returned to the Bois de Boulogne to finish third in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at the end of October. Ending her sophomore season with a fourth in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December, she was back at her beloved Longchamp to finish third in the Apr. 30 G3 Prix de Barbeville before annexing the May 21 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier in her latest appearance. Vol de Nuit finished 3/4 of a length behind Electrocutonist when runner-up in this event 12 months ago and that form sets the standard. Subsequently transferred to the Luca Cumani stable, he shaped as if he needed his return when third in the Listed Festival S. at Goodwood May 26. Germany have carried off three of the last eight renewals. Last year's G1 Deutsches Derby hero Nicaron flies the flag this time. He needs to return to the level he reached in that Classic and improve on his latest, a seventh in the May 1 G2 Gerling-Preis at Cologne. Groom Tesse is the other Derby winner in the line-up, having taken the domestic crown at the Capannelle in 2004. He has struck a level of consistency this season, finishing third in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica in Rome May 14 before winning the G3 Premio Carlo d'Alessio back there a week later. He hails from the Camici operation responsible for dual Grand Premio di Milano winner Tony Bin (Ire).

7	1	Willingly (Ger)	Second Set (Ire)	M Trybuhl

All carry 132 pounds.

Soldier Hollow drops back to a mile in a bid to regain the winning thread. The bay enjoyed a highly profitable 2005 campaign when beating Arcadio in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich in July and annexing the G1 Premio Roma in November. Only fifth on his return in the Apr. 14 G3 Grosse Preis der Bremer Wirtschaft, he finished a length runner-up to Distant Way in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica back at the Capannelle last time May 14. He faces the crack miler Idealist, who had Willingly, Lazio and Apeiron back in second, third and fourth in the May 21 G3 Badener Meile on his last start. Arcadio warrants respect, having already collected the Listed Grosse Preis der VGH Versicherungen at Hannover Apr. 17 and the G2 Grosse Mercedes Benz Preis at Baden-Baden last time May 28, but he too is coming back to a mile.

ROYAL ASCOT

CLASSIC CLASH SET FOR CORONATION Pam Sly's Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Marguerite Weld's Nighttime (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) are set for an intriguing clash between the English and Irish 1000 Guineas heroines in Friday's G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. While the former was fourth in the G1 Epsom Oaks after her May 7 Newmarket Classic success, Nighttime burst onto the scene with a six-length victory in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh May 28. They were among 19 fillies left in the mile contest at the five-day stage, with trainer Andreas Lowe paying £20,000 to supplement Martin Schwartz's G2 German 1000 Guineas victress Lolita (Ger) (Lavirco {Ger}). Godolphin are set to be represented by last year's G1 Prix Morny winner Silca's Sister (GB) (Inchinar {GB}), who was fourth in the 1000 Guineas, while the French representation will come courtesy of Khalid Abdullah's Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}), disqualified from first to third in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp.

DISTINCTION HEADS GOLD 13 Highclere Thoroughbred Racing's Distinction (Ire) (Danehill) yesterday headed the 13 stayers left in Thursday's G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting. Runner-up to Westerner (GB) 12 months ago, the seven-year-old was one of two veterans left in the 2 1/2-mile marathon by trainer Sir Michael Stoute, alongside Ballymacoll Stud's G3 Sagaro S.-winning nine-year-old Cover Up (Ire) (Machiavellian). Trainer Rod Millman has declared Terry Cooper's G2 Yorkshire Cup runner-up Sergeant Cecil (GB) (King's Signet), while Aidan O'Brien has Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's G1 Coronation Cup winner Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) engaged. Sir Michael Smurfit's 2002 G1 Melbourne Cup hero Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}) will represent the Dermot Weld stable, while Andre Fabre will saddle Khalid Abdullah's G1 Prix du Cadran victor Reefscape (GB) (Linamix {Fr}). Trainer Karl Burke yesterday paid the £18,000 supplementary fee to add the Listed Braveheart and Listed Buckhounds S. winner Akarem (GB) (Kingmambo).

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

CECIL TARGETS RIBBLESDALE Henry Cecil will saddle Khalid Abdullah's Novellara (GB) (Sadler's Wells) in Thursday's G2 Ribblesdale S. as he seeks his 71st Royal Ascot victory. Successful at Salisbury on debut May 18, the homebred filly will be bidding to provide the Newmarket conditioner with a sixth triumph in the mile-and-a-half contest. "I am very happy with her and think she will run very well, as long as she handles the likely fast conditions," he said. "So many of Sadler's Wells' progeny prefer some juice in the ground. But she has been working well, and Richard Hughes was very pleased with her when he rode her in a piece of exercise last Wednesday."

Bushfire May Target Test:

Bushfire (Louis Quatorze), winner of the Apr. 8 GI Ashland S. and the June 10 GI Acorn S., may try Saratoga's Aug. 5 GI Test S. instead of Belmont's July 1 GI Mother Goose S., reports Daily Racing Form. The seven-furlong Test would mark the bay's first sprint attempt. "She's never won at less than a mile, but she has plenty of speed and obviously you're going to need to be a pretty quick filly if you're going to run in the Test," trainer Eddie Kenneally told DRF. "She's doing super, but we need to give her a little chance to get ready for the next one, because she had a hard race in the Acorn."

Third in a Jan. 14 Gulfstream allowance race to open 2006, Thetactics Ofdance came back to win at that oval Feb. 3 and made it two in a row in the Turf Distaff S. at Tampa Bay Downs Apr. 8. The dark bay mare couldn't handle the jump into graded company, finishing 11th in the May 20 Gill Gallorette S. at Pimlico, but rebounded at long odds here. Thetactics Ofdance duled with Bright Abundance and Brunilda from the outset and just got the better of her rivals as four noses hit the wire together. Amorama (Fr) (Sri Pekan) closed to figure in the photo, but had to settle for fourth.

The five-year-old returned to be third by a neck after being checked in an optional claimer going five furlongs on the turf at Pimlico June 4. The third choice in his first try going six panels on the lawn, he broke on top and led through a quarter in :22.08 and a half in :43.97. Three-and-a-half lengths to the good at the eighth pole, Weigelia held off the late charge of Terrific Challenge to set a new course record of 1:07.04.

RONDO (Grand Slam), a $450K FTKJUL yearling purchase, was pinhooked by Maurice Miller for $2.9 million at last year's F-T Calder sale. The colt ran to that lofty pricetag for Sheikh Mohammed, finishing an excellent second to High Cotton in his lone start to date last Sept. 17 at this track. He is working bullets for the return. Holly Time (Gilded Time) was caught at the wire by the talented Doc Cheney in his bow Oct. 20 and is also training forwardly. brisnet.com pps

CITY SNITCH (Carson City), a $250K KEESEP yearling, debuts for his breeders, Gulf Coast Farms, and capped a solid-looking work tab with a bullet half-mile over the Turfway Polytrack in :46 1/5 this past Tuesday. Goleta Summit (Tale of the Cat), a half to SWs Irish Daisy and Irish Silence, brought $450K as a KEESEP yearling. SWEET WAY (Giant's Causeway) is the second foal from Sweet Life (Kris S.), whose previous foal was none other than Sweet Catomine (Storm Cat), champion two-year-old filly and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner of 2004. Works don't exactly whisper ready, but one to tab for the future. The aptly named Kris's Sis (Forestry) tries to improve on her debut sixth Apr. 16. REWRITE (f, 3, Editor's Note--Fickle Friends {MGSP, $254,130}, by Demons Begone) could do no better than seventh in an off-the-turfer at Big Sandy last October, but delivered by 2 3/4 lengths in her turf debut over the Belmont lawn May 5. Looking to make it two straight, the 5-2 chance was away in good order from the 11-hole and reported home a 3 3/4-length wire-to-wire winner. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $51,764. O/B-Amherst Stable (NY). T-Christophe Clement.

5th-BEL, $43,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 6fT, 1:08 3/5, fm.
SAVIANO (c, 3, Fusaichi Pegasus--Beaming Meteor, by Pleasant Colony) was beaten a nose after cutting out the pace on a daylight lead in his turf debut at Aqueduct Apr. 30. The dark bay went right to the front in his latest as well, but stopped badly over a yielding Belmont lawn and was 30 lengths behind the winner at the wire. Let go at 8-1 while dropping back to six furlongs off the two route attempts, he pressed a quick pace, angled outside for the stretch drive and outfinished first-time starter Tempt Fortune (Forest Wildcat) to take it by a neck. The winner was a $100,000 KEEJAN yearling and a $160,000 OBSAPR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 8-1-2-0, $38,995. O-Steve A Richardson. B-Spendthrift Farm LLC & James Brown (KY). T-Bruce N Levine.

STARHUMOR (c, 3, Distorted Humor--Miss Winmor {SP}, by Northern Baby) lost all chance after rearing at the start of his May 21 career opener at Belmont and finished 10th. Part of an entry favored at 3-2 this time, the $100,000 KEESEP yearling broke well to track a moderate pace and forged to the front in the final strides for a 3/4-length score. Pacesetting firster Mockingbird Lane (Wheaton) held on for second. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $24,764. O-Five Star Stable. B-Michael E & Penny S Lauer (NY). T-Bruce N Levine.

 Fleet Indian had little trouble extending her winning streak to five versus this overmatched group. The dark bay became a graded-stakes winner while making her first start for Todd Pletcher in Aqueduct's GIII Next Move H. Mar. 26 and crushed the field by 12 1/2 lengths in the GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne last out Apr. 22. In this one, she broke on top with Jose Santos aboard, set :23.93 and :48.37 splits and reported home a much-the-best winner. "She is very professional," Santos said. "She has been really impressive in her last three races. She really impressed me the day that she ran at Hawthorne and she was just as good, if not better, today. She is just getting better and better."

Crafty Prospector Recovering From Colic Surgery:

Brookdale Farm stallion Crafty Prospector (Mr. Prospector) is recovering from colic surgery at Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital, according to The Blood-Horse. The 27-year-old stallion underwent the procedure June 13. "It was a colic situation that sometimes comes with advanced age," Brookdale's Fred Seitz told The Blood-Horse. "He is doing very well, and the outlook is good. We hope to have him home soon." Seitz was unsure about whether the chestnut, the sire of 88 stakes winners to date, would return to the breeding shed next year. "We will just be happy to have him home and healthy, and even without the colic, he's getting on in years," Seitz continued. "We will just have a good sit down during the winter and see how he is."

Suave, Second of June Rematch?

Five-year-olds Suave (A.P. Indy) and Second of June (Louis Quatorze), who put up a memorable battle in an allowance race Friday at Churchill Downs (video), could face one another again in the $300,000 GII Washington Park H. at Arlington Park. Both horses were returning from layoffs; winner Suave had been off since a sixth in the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 4. "He ran big," said trainer Paul McGee. "That's a pretty good horse that he beat. He was game--he's got some fight in him." Suave found the wire a nose in front of Second of June, who hadn't faced the starter in over a year. "That's horse racing," philosophized trainer Bill Cesare. "You take what you get. It would have been nice to win, but he ran a good race." Cesare is usually based in Florida, but wants to point his charge for the $5-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic, which will be held at Churchill Nov. 4. "That's the key--that's the only reason we're here," Cesare explained. "We're hoping that everything falls into place. I think he belongs with them. It's just a matter of who's still around when that race comes."

The bay tried turf in his next attempt, but could only manage a seventh-place finish against Keeneland allow- ance foes Apr. 8. Freshened after that effort, he resur- faced with a decent fifth over this strip May 24. Backed as the 4-5 chalk here, Irish Majesty settled in the fourth slot, rallied five wide into the lane and wore down Polarity (Northern Afleet) to score by a half length. A dual Group 3 winner and Group 1 placed in his native Australia, Taikun lost his final five attempts in that country for top trainer Bart Cummings, capped by a seventh in the G1 Galaxy S. 13 months ago. Transferred to this country, the bay turned in an excellent U.S. bow, missing by a nose in a Santa Anita optional claimer down the hill Apr. 9, and was coming into this off a half-length setback when second in the restricted Bullet S. over track and trip May 15. The odds-on gamble was away slowly and last through the opening furlongs. Guided to the three path for the drive, Taikun closed willingly to win by a widening margin.

The $450,000 BESMAR juvenile disappeared after running fourth in an optional claimer 18 days later. Making his return at odds of 32-1, the bay rated just off the dueling pair of I'll Prey for You (Tiger Ridge) (third) and Corsario (Fr) (Zafonic) (fourth), but hit the gas when joined by Margaritalosflores (Artax) in deep stretch. She came back after a seven-month layoff to be second on the turf at Santa Anita Mar. 28, but tired to be fifth after setting the pace at Hollywood May 10. Sent off the 8-5 favorite after firing a bullet five-furlong work at Santa Anita June 11, she drove between horses to join Mezuzah (Mazel Trick) in deep stretch, but was bumped nearing the wire and finished a half-length behind that rival. The stewards took a look at the tape and reversed the order of the top two. Athena Two O Four (El Prado {Ire}) was fourth; Badoutoo (Theatrical {Ire}) broke slowly and trailed throughout. NTWA Donates $1K to Barbaro Gift Fund:

The National Turf Writers Association's Charitable Foundation has pledged $1,000 toward the Barbaro Gift Fund set up by the University of Pennsylvania. The Barbaro Gift Fund supports ongoing patient care and expansion of the George D. Widener Large Animal Hospital at the university's New Bolton Center in Kennett Square, Pennsylvania. "For the outstanding job the New Bolton Center has done since the evening of May 20, not only with Barbaro, but with handling the national media, the National Turf Writers Association Charitable Foundation is honored to donate $1,000 to the Barbaro Gift Fund," said Evan Hammonds, the organization's president. "In helping accomodate all forms of the national media, they gave us a leg up on the story, which has helped dramatically increase the awareness of the advances in the field of equine medicine."

PERCY WAITS

Anthony Pakenham's G1 Epsom Derby hero Sir Percy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) is almost certain to miss the mid-summer contests and be rested for an autumn campaign. Trainer Marcus Tregoning revealed that the June 3 Blue Riband winner "may need a little longer" to recover from his exertions. That would rule out a tilt at either the July 8 G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown and G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh July 2. "Health-wise he looks great, but unfortunately, he is a bit jarred up again--for the second time," he commented. "I wouldn't run him if I wasn't 100 percent happy." The Lambourn-based conditioner has a range of options for Sir Percy, including the Aug. 22 G1 Juddmonte International S. at York, Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp and Oct. 14 G1 Champion S. at Newmarket. "The owners are very keen to keep him in training and race next year, so we can give him time now as there is no rush."

TERRESTRIAL COVERAGE ENSURED

In a deal organised by the satellite channel Racing UK and Channel 4, terrestrial coverage of British racing is set to stay intact for the next three years. Outlined in the parties' negotiations is a guaranteed 75 days' worth of coverage and the development of digital platforms, partly funded by a sponsorship deal and contributions from the tote and Levy Board. "I am delighted that we have made such positive progress," commented Andrew Thompson, head of Sport at Channel 4. "Channel 4 has been the home of UK racing for many years--delivering quality sporting spectacle every week of the year. We want to continue to be that home going forwards, and work in partnership with racing to secure its continued terrestrial base. What makes this proposed deal groundbreaking is that it represents a fully integrated multi-media approach to the sport--with Channel 4's New Media department central to the negotiations. We're looking forward to working with Racing UK and the courses to deliver a deal that secures the future of Channel 4 racing for the next three years."

OWNERS' PREMIUMS SCRAPPED

The British Horseracing Board has announced that the owners' premium scheme will be abolished at the end of 2006. Citing reduced income from the levy as the reason for the move, the BHB will concentrate its funds on the all-important issue of prize money, Chief Executive Greg Nichols said on Friday. "It is disappointing to now have to end the scheme, as we had high hopes at its inception that it would enhance the viability of the British breeding industry and go some way to levelling the playing field with our international competitors, notably in Ireland," he said. "The reality is that sustaining levels of prize money, which we have striven to augment from abysmal levels in the 1990s, must be the sport's priority."

Prince Tamino graduated on Lingfield's polytrack in September before placing in handicaps at that track in October, at Kempton on his sophomore bow Apr. 15 and Nottingham June 1. Back to winning ways at Windsor 11 days later, the gelding stood up to his busy schedule to improve again in this intensely competitive heat. Never far away from the early pace, he arrived with his rally widest of all to lead approaching the furlong marker and was always holding the challenge of Tawaassol in the run to the line. "I don't know how he got beat at Nottingham, but I got him into trouble on Monday and he only raced for a furlong, so we thought we'd run again," jockey Steve Drowne explained. "He didn't get a lot of cover, but he settled well and the minute I gave him a squeeze he was away. He's a talented horse."
