DIONISIA CAPTURES ITALIAN OAKS

Dionisia (Tejano Run) produced a scintillating display to earn herself a place among the great winners of the G1 Oaks d'Italia and completed an afternoon Group 1 double for jockey Christophe Soumillon yesterday in Milan. Breaking with her customary enthusiasm, Dionisia was restrained by Soumillon to race in a stalking third early and stayed in the catbird seat until the top of the stretch. Launched passing the three-furlong marker, her acceleration carried her to the front in a matter of strides and she opened up with a surge to seal the victory. The bay filly failed to land a blow in the May 14 G2 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas), but without drawing breath, she was back where she belonged with an easy win in the May 27 G3 Premio Mario Incisa. She went postward yesterday as the major domestic hope on this big stage. Click for free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

ARAAFA, PEERESS HEAD ASCOT OPENER

The fields for Tuesday's opening salvo of Group 1 events at Royal Ascot were drawn yesterday, with Irish 2000 Guineas winner Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) and G1 Lockinge S. heroine Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) among the stars that will be on display for a crowd that is supposed to include Her Majesty The Queen. The one-mile G1 St James's Palace S. boasts a deep field that pits Araafa against the Ballydoyle pair of Ivan Denisovich (Ire) (Danehill), who has lured the services of Kieren Fallon, and Marcus Andronicus (Danehill), runner-up in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 14. Peeress, meanwhile, hopes to repeat her defeat of males in the Lockinge when she lines up against eight others in the G1 Queen Anne S., also at a mile. Proclamation (Ire) (King's Best), who bested Soviet Song (Ire) in last year's G1 Sussex S., joins Sussex third Ad Valorem (Danzig) as those who are trying to tame the five-year-old mare. Fields, p2

SHAMDALA WINS MILANO

Supplemented this week, Shamdala (Ire) (Grand Lodge) paid back that investment in spades with a smooth success in yesterday's prestigious G1 Gran Premio di Milano. Stalking the moderate early tempo in third, she took her time to reach top gear, but once in full flight inhaled the pacesetter en route to a 1 1/2-length victory. Cont. p3

Dionisia (Tejano Run) enjoyed a very successful juvenile campaign. The filly came close to registering a success at the top level in October when second in the San Siro's feature event for two-year-olds, the G1 Gran Criterium. That game effort enhanced her juvenile record, which included wins in the Listed Premio Vittorio Crespi and Listed Premio Coolmore in Milan and the Listed Premio Repubbliche Marinare Tattersalls and Listed Criterium Femminile in Rome. Stakes win number five came in the Apr. 23 Listed Premio Torricola at the Capannelle.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

BRASS HAT FINE AFTER FOSTER LOSS Trainer William "Buff" Bradley said that Brass Hat (Prized), a disappointing dead-heat fifth in Saturday's G1 Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs, was understandably tired after the race but was otherwise fine. "He drank a bucket of water, which is more than he normally does," said Bradley of the five-year-old, who went off the 5-2 second choice in the Stephen Foster in his first race since returning from his disputed runner-up finish in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai World Cup. "Coming off a layoff like that and doing what we did, you face those kinds of horses at top weight, I think it was just a little too much for him," Bradley added. Meanwhile, the trainer of the race's 91-1 upsetter Seek Gold (Touch Gold), Ron Moquett, said the significance of his charge's win was sinking in. "If you don't believe there is a racing god, then you have to now, right?," said Moquett. "If we lined back up with all those horses, I don't know that we could be beat 'em. But you know what? We did it [Saturday], and I thank God for that." Seek Gold's victory came at the expense of trainer Murray Johnson's Perfect Drift (Dynaformer), who was just caught on the line by his rival. Johnson said that he would now map out a campaign to get the seven-year-old gelding back to Churchill in November for an unprecedented fifth consecutive bid for the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic.

Shamdala exemplifies her trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre's patient approach, having missed her juvenile campaign before a winning debut at Saint-Cloud last May. Within five months, she had enjoyed a relentless climb up the scale, winning the Listed Prix de Thiberville, G3 Prix de Lutece and G2 Prix de Chaudenay, all at Longchamp. Third in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak back at Longchamp in October and fourth in the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December, the decision was made by His Highness the Aga Khan to keep Shamdala in training in search of that elusive Group 1 to complete her portfolio. She may have needed her return when third in the Apr. 30 G3 Prix de Barbeville at Longchamp, but was back in the winners' circle there after the May 21 G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier. Shamdala caught Groom Tesse at the eighth pole before asserting on the run to the line. Click for the Racing Post race chart or for the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Also Ran: Apeiron (Ger), Willingly (Ger), Madresal (Ger).

Scratched: Idealist (Ger).

Despite being campaigned exclusively over middle distances previously, Arcadio proved with a last-gasp success that he had the speed for this mile test, weakened by the withdrawal of Idealist (Ger) (Tiger Hill {Ire}). Third when favorite for the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg and runner-up to Soldier Hollow in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis at Munich last July, he was sidelined until making a winning return in the Listed Grosser Preis der VGH Versicherungen at Hannover Apr. 17. Having taken the G2 Grosser Mercedes Benz Preis over two panels further at Baden-Baden last time May 28, connections opted for this drop in distance and Andreas Suborics exuded confidence reining Arcadio back towards the rear off the moderate early fractions. Delivered wide in the straight as Soldier Hollow stole a seemingly decisive advantage, his run was timed to perfection as he inhaled his arch-rival in the final stride. Also Ran: Hovering (Ire), Perfect Hedge (GB), Kiswahili (GB). DNF: Dancing Sky (Ire). Scratched: Sainly Rachel (Ire).

Sina Cova is a powerful front-runner and almost exploited that tactic to full effect before being reeled in late by Perfect Hedge (GB) (Unfuwain) in the Listed Salsabil S. at Leopardstown Apr. 15. She lost her rider at the start of the Listed Victor McCalmont Memorial S. at Gowran Park May 7 before finishing third in a conditions race at Navan last time June 4. Relieved of her pace-setting duties this time, she conserved her power before taking over with a half mile remaining. Lengthening clear in the stretch, she was in no danger and maintained the relentless gallop as Kushnarenkovo pursued in vain. "That was not a surprise to us, as she deserved one of those," trainer Peter Casey's son Francis commented. "She will probably have a prep and then head to York for the [Aug. 23] G1 Yorkshire Oaks."

Sabellina, in her sole start for trainer Chuck Simon, was only 1 1/4 lengths behind the classy filly Gorella in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 19 and returned to the barn of Joseph Aquilino for her latest to finish a respectable third in a $75,000 optional claimer going a mile over this turf course May 25. Camped at the back of the pack in the early going of this one, the dark bay moved up after three quarters of a mile, found room along the rail at the head of the stretch, was forced out for the drive and came running late to get the best of Finlandia. "I had very little room at the quarter pole," explained winning rider Javier Castellano. "She hit the hedge and I lost my balance, but after that, every hole opened up. At the eighth pole, I knew I had a lot of horse. I can't believe how perfect things went after that." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Lewis Michael Works Toward Colonial Turf Cup:

Lewis Michael (Rahy), a game runner-up to Sunriver in the May 20 GII Peter Pan S. at Belmont, worked over the Arlington grass Saturday in anticipation of a start in next Saturday's $1-million Colonial Turf Cup. The Wayne Catalano trainee stopped the clock in 1:06.80 for the five panels. "Lewis Michael was just going an easy five furlongs around the dogs," said Illinois State clocker Bobby Belpedio, "but he did the last eighth in :12 1/5 and then galloped out the three-quarters in 1:19 4/5. He was well in hand all the way." A winner of two turf starts as a juvenile, including Churchill's Grand Canyon H. in November, Lewis Michael ran third to Barbaro in the grassy GIII Tropical Park Derby and fifth in the Hallandale Beach S. He came home fourth on the main track to Sweetnorthernstaint in the GII Illinois Derby prior to his Peter Pan effort.

Tested against NW1X foes in his next at that track Apr. 16, he again aired by daylight, and ran his record to three-for-three with a little help from the stewards in a Calder NW2X May 26, when he finished second before being promoted to first. Off at 5-1 in his stakes bow, the bay raced along in fifth as How's Your Halo ripped through a half in :44 1/5. With his rival softened up, Mach Ride came calling in the final panel and was going away at the wire.

Etlalaala looked a star in the ascendant when taking the G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster in September 2004, but Classic ambitions were derailed after two disappointing efforts at Newmarket in the G1 Dewhurst S. the following month and G3 Craven S. the next April. Reverting to sprinting thereafter, the pick of his efforts came when third in the G1 July Cup back at that Suffolk venue, but he failed to build on his early promise. This term he had collected a Warwick conditions event Apr. 17 and Listed Leicestershire S. 12 days later, before fading back through the field in the May 17 G2 Duke of York S. at York. Restrained in rear early off the furious tempo, the chestnut was coaxed into contention and found his stride to lead with 100 yards remaining before stretching clear in the closing stages.

MAGIC MILLIONS SALE CONCLUDES The 2006 Magic Millions National Sale concluded its 11-day run on the Gold Coast yesterday with the final session of the broodmare sale. Total gross for the marathon auction was A$71.4 million--up A$19-million from last year's record figure of A$52.4 million. During the final session of the auction, 135 broodmares sold for A$646,900 and an average of A$4,792. Twilight Moon (Aus) (Grand Lodge) (lot 2330) attracted the day's highest price when sold for A$32,500 to Magic Millions, acting as agent for a Korean client. From the consignment of Raheen Stud, as agent for Starcrest Thoroughbreds, the eight-year-old mare is in foal to Dane Shadow (Aus). "It has been a marvelous sale," said Magic Millions Managing Director David Chester. "Right from the start to the finish, the National Sale has been a record breaker. The Yearling Sale boasted a record gross and average, the Weanling Sale also had a record gross and average and then the select mares did the same."
