A SPECIAL CORONATION?

While the dust was settling on the second day of Royal Ascot, trainer Pam Sly was celebrating a maiden hurdle win at Worcester. The self-proclaimed "Fens farmer" has bigger fish to fry today as she saddles G1 1000 Guineas heroine Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G1 Coronation S. at the Royal meeting. In the last three years, both Russian Rhythm and Attraction (GB) have completed the 1000 Guineas-Coronation double.

Speciosa www.bbc.co.uk

Speciosa returns to her optimum trip after a respectable fourth in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 2. "She's electric over a mile, that's her thing," jockey Micky Fenton said. "In the Oaks, she did really well, but we were always trying to get her to stay just that bit further than she really wanted. Back over a mile she will be brilliant." But the bay filly has a habit of veering left, and her errant tendencies are a concern for connections. "The race conditions are ideal, but the track is a bit of a worry," Fenton admitted. "We weren't going to go to Ascot, but in her last couple of runs she hasn't given me a hard time at the finish, so I think it's worth taking a shot at." Coronation S. cont. p2

AN IRISH FAIRY TALE

Trainer Aidan O'Brien reached another landmark yesterday when Susan Magnier and Diane Nagle's Yeats (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) produced a compelling stretch drive to annex the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting. Last year's G1 Coronation Cup hero was running for the first time since finishing sixth in the G1 Canadian International at Woodbine in October, but lacked for nothing when Kieren Fallon took command at the quarter pole. Drawing away to make his own procession up the straight, the 7-1 chance had four lengths to spare over Reefscape (GB) (Linamix {Fr}) at the line. "You're never sure they will stay this far, but we knew he'd definitely get two miles and Kieren had the world of confidence in him," commented O'Brien, who was celebrating his first Gold Cup win. "It's great to have this kind of horse and, hopefully, we'll be able to keep him sound and he'll be a horse to look forward to." Yeats was long-time favorite for the 2004 G1 Epsom Derby, but after collecting the G3 Ballysax S. and G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown in the spring, was injured and missed the rest of his sophomore campaign. After a comeback second in the G3 Mooresbridge S. at The Curragh last May, he looked ready to rebuild his career when besting Alkaased in the G1 Coronation Cup the following month. Subsequently disappointing when trailing in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud later that month, he returned from a break to finish fourth in the G1 Irish St Leger at The Curragh before his fruitless trip to Canada. Gold Cup cont. p2

ANOTHER STARRING ROLE FOR PIGGOTT

Mont Etoile (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) captured a thrilling renewal of the G2 Ribblesdale S. to place Hall of Famer Lester Piggott back in the Royal Ascot winners' spot that he dominated so often in his prime. The three-year-old filly is co-owned by Piggott and trained by his son-in-law, William Haggas. "My wife Maureen rides this filly at home and it's fantastic to win a race of this quality for her, especially as her father has an interest in this horse," Haggas said. Ribblesdale S. cont. p3

Eight fillies since 1980 have followed up here after winning the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and Marguerite Weld's Nighttime represents the form of the May 28 Curragh Classic. Another Classic winner is in the mix in the form of Martin Schwartz's G2 German 1000 Guineas victoress Lolita; that Apr. 30 Dusseldorf contest received a boost when the runner-up Almerita (Ger) took the G1 Preis Der Diana. Arguably, the tally of Guineas heroines should be four, with Khalid Abdullah's Price Tag controversially disqualified after besting Tie Black (Ire) and Impressionnante (GB) comprehensively in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp May 14. Price Tag bids to emulate Shake the Yoke (GB) and Banks Hill (GB) in bettering a placing in that Classic with success here. Aidan O'Brien, successful with Sophisticat in 2002, relies on Susan Magnier's Irish 1000 Guineas fourth Race For the Stars, while Godolphin seek their first renewal with last year's G1 Prix Morny winner Silca's Sister, who was fourth behind Speciosa in Newmarket's 1000 Guineas. "Silca's Sister ran fourth in the Guineas and is a tough filly who always tries hard in her race and her work," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "She is in good form. She has won on soft, but it was too soft for her in the Guineas--she should be fine on the ground at Ascot and we are looking forward to running her in the Coronation S." Cheveley Park Stud's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Nannina beat only one home on unsuitably testing conditions at Newmarket and warrants respect back on her favored surface. "She's like her sire, Medicean--he didn't act on the soft ground either," Cheveley Park Stud's Managing Director Chris Richardson told PA Sport. "She came out of the race well enough, but she has now come in her coat and we are very happy with the way she is at this point in time. Obviously, she might still be a little ring-rusty, but we have got the ground and this has always been her target and, luckily, we are here." Jeremy Nosedo puts forward J. Paul Reddam's Vague, who is returning from an enforced absence, having suffered a fracture after capturing the Listed UAE 1000 Guineas at Nad al Sheba Feb. 16.

- Despite encountering training troubles in the spring, Yeats belied any fears about his readiness here, enjoying the perfect stalking trip along the inside before stretching into an unassailable lead when committed at the top of the straight. "We didn't have a clear run with him and he had a few problems in the spring, so we just had to be patient," trainer Aidan O'Brien said. "All credit to everyone to get him back into the shape he was in today. Kieren was convinced about this horse after the Irish St Leger, where he didn't get a run when he wanted to and he looked to be getting that mile and six really well." Distinction (Ire), sent off the 5-2 favorite, was positioned behind Yeats throughout, but could not match that rival's acceleration in the straight and stayed on to take third, while Media Puzzle (Theatrical {Ire}) broke down in the final strides and was later euthanized (see p6). Winless in three starts at two, Mont Etoile graduated first time up this year at Yarmouth Apr. 27 before finding Time On (GB) three lengths too strong in the Listed Cheshire Oaks at Chester May 10. Saved for this prize, she was anchored in rear early by Michael Hills and angled over to the inside to negate her high draw. Still behind when full of run in the final quarter, she muscled her way through one-paced and tiring rivals to find a gap alongside Scottish Stage and edge out that rival in a pulsating drive to the line. "We were lucky to get a run up the inside, but that was what we planned to do and tried to ride her for place," trainer William Haggas commented. "I told Michael that if we got anything else, it would be great as she needs cover and slotting in from the one draw was going to be difficult. I told him not to panic and if she'd got hemmed in and hadn't won it goes like that, but on the day probably the best filly won." Connections of Scottish Stage may aim at the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 16. Click for the brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or for the Racing Post race chart.

Newmarket's jungle drums were sounding for Dutch Art in the lead-up to this contest and he justified all the hype with a resounding success. He made an immediate impact when besting fellow debutante Simply Perfect (GB) in a hot conditions race at Windsor June 5 and that form received a major boost when the runner-up filled the same place in Wednesday's G2 Queen Mary S. Described by trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam as a "speed machine," he stepped up to the mantle yesterday. Breaking well, Dutch Art was restrained by Alan Munro to race in mid-division off the furious early fractions before being angled wide for his run at halfway. Quickening to pass the freewheeling Cav Okay at the eighth pole, he asserted as Hoh Mike found racing room too late, having been caught behind a wall of horses at a crucial stage. "It's wonderful, as we've been absolutely devastated that we lost our favorite horse Majors Cast," said owner Paul Roy, reflecting on the fatal injury of his flag-bearing five-year-old on the gallops last week. "This is wonderful compensation for us and he's a serious two-year-old." Click for brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree or for the Racing Post race chart.

This race poses an annual quandary for those assessing the form of the G1 Epsom Derby and Sixties Icon and Papal Bull represent the Blue Riband this time. Its proximity to that Classic has led to several upsets, with only Storming Home (GB) having succeeded off the back of a Derby run in recent years. Sixties Icon excelled when finishing seventh in the June 3 Classic on the back of just a Windsor maiden score. Papal Bull, who had beaten Dragon Dancer (GB) in the G3 Chester Vase May 11, met trouble in running at Epsom and trailed in 10th as that rival went within a short head of winning. Brian Meehan saddles Red Rocks, who followed an impressive Windsor maiden success with a power-packed four-length defeat of Degas Art in the Listed Fairway S. at Newmarket last time May 27.

Silk Blossom created a favorable impression when taking a Newmarket maiden Apr. 19 and heads a host of unexposed fillies chasing this prize. Jeremy Noseda enjoyed a one-two in last year's renewal, courtesy of La Chunga and Vague, and relies on the unbeaten Bahama Mama and maiden Sander Camillo. While the former advertised her claims with successes at Newmarket May 13 and Yarmouth June 4, Sander Camillo charts the same path as La Chunga, having finished fourth behind Bicoastal in a Newmarket maiden May 26. "Bahama Mama is a good, solid filly," Noseda commented. "She will be suited by the trip and the ground. Sandor Camillo has an abundance of class. She wasn't suited by the soft ground on her racecourse debut and we will forgive her that. If there is one query in my mind, I would love the race to be at seven furlongs rather than six. But I am hopeful that a stiff-ish six at Ascot and a fast-run race, will mean she should be going forward right to the line." Richard Hannon took this two years ago with Jewel in the Sand (Ire) and there is a chance he could saddle a winner for The Queen in Medley, who shaped with promise on debut when runner-up to La Roca at Windsor June 6.

The Dermot Weld-trained nine-year-old, who had won the 2002 G1 Melbourne Cup, broke down near the line under Pat Smullen, but could not be saved. Horseracing Regulatory Authority Spokesman Paul Struthers told PA Sport, "After breaking down on the racecourse, he was taken to the treatment centre at the racecourse stables so they could evaluate the extent of the injury. This showed the injuries to his near-fore leg were extensive, so it is with sadness that I have to confirm that Media Puzzle has been put down." Media Puzzle had amassed over £1-million in prize money throughout his career, which was highlighted by his Flemington heroics under Damien Oliver four years ago. He was also fourth in the 2000 G1 St Leger at Doncaster and counted successes in the 2002 G3 Geelong Cup and this year's Listed Saval Beg S. to his name.

ECLIPSE OPTION FOR OUIJA BOARD Lord Derby's Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) may tackle the July 8 G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown, it was announced yesterday. Following the five-year-old's success in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot on Wednesday, trainer Ed Dunlop is considering the 10-furlong contest and possibly the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 29. "She's fine and well and sound," Dunlop said yesterday. "She ate up last night and she seems okay. We will consider the Eclipse and we'll see how she is and have a chat with the owner. She has got to be supplemented if we went to the King George and I don't know about that, as it is a long way off. The Breeders' Cup is the big aim."

NO DWYER FOR DISCREET CAT Godolphin issued a bulletin on their website yesterday that Discreet Cat (Forestry) will sidestep the GII Dwyer S. July 4. The bay colt, who has not faced the starter since his impressive victory in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 25 at Nad Al Sheba, missed work after developing a cough. No other target has yet been named for the unbeaten three-year-old, who is stabled at Belmont Park.

RESILIENT JACKSONS SHOW UP IN VIRGINIA

by Lucas Marquardt

As the sun set over the Twin Spires of Churchill Downs on Saturday, May 6, it would have been hard to find two happier people than Roy and Gretchen Jackson in all of Louisville. About two hours earlier, their homebred Barbaro had won the Kentucky Derby by 6 1/2 lengths. If that wasn't enough, the previously unbeaten Showing Up, another horse who carried the Jacksons' Lael Stables colors in the Run for the Roses, ran a gallant sixth with just three career starts under his belt.

Roy Jackson & Barbaro

Two weeks later, all that good cheer evaporated in an instant when, just after leaving the gate in the May 20 Preakness S., Barbaro suffered a devastating injury that stunned the racing world. Debates of Triple Crown chances switched to talk of compression plates and surgical screws.

In the days and weeks that followed, as Barbaro fought for his life at the University of Pennsylvania's New Bolton Clinic, the Jacksons received a flood of cards and e-mails from well-wishers. Folks who didn't even consider themselves racing fans took the time to write. In all, the Jacksons have received thousands of pieces of correspondence. Gretchen Jackson is now undertaking the formidable task of responding to each one individually.

The reaction overwhelmed the Jacksons, who say the show of public support helped them get through the ordeal, especially in those first days when things looked especially bleak.

"It's always a difficult thing, because you never prepare for something like that," said Roy Jackson. "You prepare yourself for losing, and that kind of thing. I think that's the first one we've ever had that actually got injured on the track."

"The support was tremendous, and it's still going on," he added. "We're still getting letters and cards--a lot of things from kids. New Bolton is still getting apples and treats. It's been a huge outpouring."

This weekend, something else could make the Jacksons feel better. Showing Up returns to the races in Saturday's $1 million Colonial Turf Cup at Colonial Downs.

A chestnut trained by Barclay Tagg, Showing Up didn't until February, but quickly made up for lost time with two impressive efforts at Gulfstream. In his first outing, he romped by four lengths sprinting 6 1/2 panels on the main track. He then added an easy win in a one-mile allowance Mar. 11. Favored in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 22, he didn't let the public down, gamely beating Like Now in an effort that earned him a trip to Louisville.

In the Derby, Showing Up ranged up from just off the pace and looked for a while like he might complete the Lael Stables exacta, but he flattened out in mid-stretch to be sixth, 10 lengths off Barbaro. He's been off since.

The 1 3/16-mile Turf Cup, the first leg of the $5 million Jacobs Investments Grand Slam of Grass, is shaping up to be a contentious affair. Ten members of

Showing Up winning the Lexington
Pat Lang

the field have stakes wins to their credit, five of those at the graded level. That cast includes Stream Cat, winner of the GIII American Turf S.; GIII Palm Beach S. winner Go Between; and Roman Dynasty, who enters the race off a smart win in the off-the-turf Match the Hatch S.

Showing Up joins Roman Dynasty as the only members of the field never to have started on the sod before. But Tagg is confident that the change of surface won't be a problem.

"He's had four very nice works on the turf, and he seems to be doing well," Tagg, conditioner 2003 Derby hero Funny Cide, said Wednesday. "He likes the turf and moves very well over it--it looks like he moves better on the turf [than the dirt]. And he's bred for it, so we'll see what happens. If he doesn't like the turf, we can always go back to the main track."

Out of the T.V. Commercial mare Miss Alethia, Showing Up is from the first crop of Strategic Mission, a Mr. Prospector half to Sultry Song and the top turf horse Solar Splendor. A good turf horse in his own right, Strategic Mission won the grassy GIII Fort Marcy H. and finished second in the GII Shadwell Keeneland Turf Mile S.

Regardless of whether Showing Up prevails Saturday --and God knows a $1 million purse is quick way to a wide smile--the best tonic for the Jacksons is the continued well-being of Barbaro, who is making daily strides toward a 'normal' life a month after Dr. Dean Richardson put 27 screws into his right hind leg. That, and a healthy perspective about their injured star.

"It was a tough couple days [after the Preakness], but I think that all of us, Michael [Matz, Barbaro's trainer] and his whole crew, and Gretchen and myself, we are all generally optimistic people," Roy Jackson said. "There's no point sitting around feeling sorry for yourself--you've got to get on with life."

KEENELAND ANNOUNCES FALL SCHEDULE

Keeneland has announced a stakes schedule worth $5.1 million for its inaugural Polytrack meeting at the Lexington, Kentucky oval Oct. 6-28. There will be four Grade I races at the 17-day meet, including the $600,000 GI Shadwell Turf Mile, $500,000 GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity Oct. 7 and the $500,000 GI Juddmonte Spinster S. Oct. 8 on the opening weekend. The fourth top-level event will be the $500,000 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Oct. 14. "We are looking forward to a very exciting fall meet of racing," said Rogers Beasley, Keeneland's director of racing. "We will celebrate the completion of our track renovation, highlighted by the new Polytrack surface, with some of the best racing in the country leading up to the Breeders' Cup Championship." The Breeders' Cup will be held this year at Churchill Downs Nov. 4. For the complete stakes schedule, visit www.keeneland.com.

DISTORTED HUMOR'S DAM DEAD Jess Jackson's Danzig's Beauty (Danzig--Sweetest Chant, by Mr. Leader), a Grade II winner and the dam of leading sire Distorted Humor, was euthanized at Jackson's Stonestreet Farm June 17 after complications from three bouts of colic suffered since delivering an Empire Maker filly Apr. 27, according to The Blood-Horse. She was 19. Winner of the GI Gardenia S. and second in the GI Acorn S., Danzig's Beauty went on to gain recognition in the breeding shed when her second foal, Forty Niner's son Distorted Humor, won four graded events, including the GI Commonwealth Breeders' Cup H. and GI Churchill Downs H. A foal of 1993, Distorted Humor earned $769,964. Distorted Humor was retired to stud in 1998 and has become one of the leading sires in the country. His progeny include 2003 GI Kentucky Derby winner and champion three-year-old Funny Cide, and Grade I winners Flower Alley, Awesome Humor, Commentator, Fourty Niners Son, and Rinky Dink (Aus). Distorted Humor stood the 2006 season at WinStar Farm for a fee of $150,000. Danzig's Beauty also produced the MSW Dancing Gulch (Gulch), a winner of $215,783. Narvick International purchased the mare, in foal to Lemon Drop Kid, on behalf of Jackson at the 2004 Keeneland November Sale. Danzig's Beauty produced a filly, now a yearling, from that mating. She also has a two-year-old Point Given filly named Danzig Point that is unraced.

In his first start for his new connections, the veteran set the early pace before tiring to third in the Wolf Hill S. at Monmouth May 29. Favored in his return to allowance company, the bay was quickest of the foursome into stride and set the pace in advance of second choice Tani Maru. He repulsed a bid from that one at the quarter pole, opened up past the midstretch marker and held off a resurgent Tani Maru at the wire.

Sent off the 3-5 chalk in his first try against winners, the bay stalked the pace from a close-up third as GI Kentucky Derby also-ran Flashy Bull (Holy Bull) cut out the early pace. Three wide into the stretch, he made steady, if not eye-catching, progress to lead at the eighth pole and edged away for a 2 1/4-length success over Racketeer (Awesome Again). Flashy Bull was another neck back in third. The winner was purchased for $750,000 at the 2004 Keeneland September sale from the consignment of Four Star Sales. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $58,825.

Pataki Shakes Up New York Regulatory Board:

by Tom Precious, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

A long-simmering dispute between top Republicans in New York over the composition of the state racing and wagering board has been settled with the nomination by Gov. George Pataki of two new members to the racing industry's regulatory panel. Daniel Hogan, the state's commissioner of the Office of General Services, has been nominated to become the agency's new chairman. He would replace Cheryl Ricthko-Buley, who has been nominated to join the state Public Service Commission. John Simoni, an upstate businessman and friend of Senate Majority Leader Joseph Bruno, was nominated to fill a vacant seat on the board. Simoni has been involved in Saratoga County GOP politics and serves as chairman of the county's Industrial Development Agency. 5.30p Royal Ascot, Hcp, £55,000, 3yo, 1½mT
PEARLY KING (Kingmambo) is on the upgrade and followed a win at Redcar with success in a heritage handicap at Newbury last month. Kieren Fallon is booked again for Gainsborough Stud's colt from the immediate family of Turtle Island (Ire). Pearly King has the raw material to fit the typical mold of improver from the Sir Michael Stoute stable, which has won this three times since 1998.

6.30p Newmarket, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, 6fT
TIMBER TREASURE (Forest Wildcat) is an intriguing newcomer from the Plantation Stud operation made a favorable impression when reaching $340,000 at Calder in February. The half to Dr. Vincent O'Brien's smart stakes performer Lord Admiral is saddled by Henry Cecil, who will be hoping to re-establish Warren Place in the big time with some of Plantation's recent acquisitions.

Snoqualmie Boy provided the first boost to the form of the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby when causing a shock to dent some reputations here. Third behind Hala Bek (Ire) in a Newbury maiden Apr. 21, he graduated in a Salisbury handicap May 7 before finishing 19 lengths behind Septimus (Ire) when third in the G2 Dante S. at York May 18. He was out of sight at the end of the Epsom spectacular, beating just one home in the Blue Riband, but proved that run all wrong with a game display to open his stakes account. Tracking the leading group early, Snoqualmie Boy took over with 300 yards remaining before responding to John Egan's drive to hold the fast-finishing Petrovich in the closing stages.

Sir Gerard produced a rattle from rear under the in-form Jamie Spencer to land a major gamble in this highly competitive renewal. Completing a memorable double of this meeting's mile handicaps for James Fanshawe, it was a case of deja vu just 24 hours after Cesare (GB) emerged from the pack to take the Royal Hunt Cup. Fourth behind the promising Narvik (Ire) in a Newmarket maiden on debut last September, Sir Gerard graduated on Lingfield's polytrack the following month before returning to win at Beverley Apr. 27. He was unlucky when runner-up to Anna Pavlova (GB) in a valuable handicap at Haydock last time May 27, and the only fears here surrounded his ability to escape the pack bunched against the stands' rail. Getting out inside the final quarter, he delivered a telling turn of acceleration to cut down Upper Hand in the final 100 yards and was out of range as Easy Air closed late up the rail. "He's a lovely horse and, although he should have won last time, he learned a lot that day," Spencer commented. "He knuckled down today and made up a nice bit of ground. They went a good pace and I took the easy route, but he really flew when he got through. He's still a baby and there's more to come." Sir Gerard's trainer revealed that the colt had been purchased with a view to running at Cheltenham's national hunt festival. "He's always looked like a nice horse and, although he was bought as a potential Cheltenham horse, he's got too much speed for that," Fanshawe said. "It's been a great week and sometimes the gods are on your side in racing. He's very progressive and classy."

Margins: NK, 1, 1. Odds: 25-1, 50-1, 33-1.

Uhoomagoo took a valuable handicap at Galway in July, but had remained winless since and offered little hope that he retained his ability when beating no rivals in a handicap on Epsom Oaks day last time June 2. Carrying the colors of the stable's top-class Amadeus Wolf (GB), he took advantage of the pronounced stands' side bias to register a career-high. Chasing the early pace in mid-division, he squeezed through a gap on the rail to lead passing the quarter pole before bravely holding the rally of Appalachian Trail.

Sixth in the May 14 G3 Prix de Saint-Georges at Longchamp, he followed up with a last-out seventh in the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene here June 4, but finally put the record straight with a determined first stakes score here.
