Bogged down in the mud in the G1 1000 Guineas, Cheveley Park Stud's Nannina (GB) (Medicean {GB}) was back in the sunshine yesterday when rocketing to a two-length success in a stellar renewal of the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. The lethal weapon of last year's G1 Fillies' Mile heroine is her finishing kick and, while that was blunted in the May 7 Newmarket Classic, it was in full effect here. Sent on a daring stretch run up the inner by Jimmy Fortune, the 6-1 joint-favorite was in total command throughout the final furlong as Flashy Wings (GB) (Zafonic) chased in vain. "She's a beautiful filly and did nothing but progress last year," Fortune said. "She beat the best around at the back-end, but in the spring she just didn't come to herself. She didn't like the ground at Newmarket and it's a good job I wasn't too hard on her there, as today she showed what a very good filly she is." Cont. p2

A MILLION REASONS

A full field of talented three-year-old grass horses has shown up for today's $1-million Colonial Turf Cup at Colonial Downs. The race kicks off the Jacobs Investments Grand Slam of Grass, which offers a $2-million bonus if the Colonial Turf Cup winner can add victories in the $1-million GII Virginia Derby, the $400,000 GI Secretariat S. and the $3-million GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Multiple graded-stakes winner Stream Cat (Black Minnaloushe) is the morning-line favorite at 7-2, and his task is not an easy one. He will face four additional graded-stakes winners in Show-ing Up (Strategic Mission), Outperformance (Aptitude), Chin High (Smart Strike) and Go Between (Point Given), as well as the highly regarded Roman Dynasty (Theatrical {Ire}), who will be making his turf debut for trainer Todd Pletcher. Cont. p5

TARGET SIGHTED

Having completed the hard part of Royal Ascot's sprint double, Joe Janiak's Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) has dead aim at today's G1 Golden Jubilee S. Burdened with a seven-pound penalty over a trip short of his very best Tuesday, he defied the odds to win the G2 King's Stand S. and book his ticket to a place in the history books, rewritten after the feats of Choisir (Aus) in 2003. But, where Choisir was not counted as the best of his country's speedsters before his Ascot exploits, Takeover Target arrived in Berkshire at the top of the domestic tree. He started this year in imperious form when taking Flemington's major sprints, the Feb. 4 G1 Lightning S. and Mar. 11 G1 Newmarket H. Success here would take him through the £1-million barrier, as well as making him a household name. "His best distance is six furlongs and I think he'll appreciate that bit further," jockey Jay Ford said. Cont. p4

CROWNED QUEEN Nannina's turn of foot was on immediate display on debut at Pontefract last June, but she suffered reversals in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket and G3 Princess Margaret S. at Newbury the following month. Back in the winner's spot after the G3 Prestige S. at Goodwood in August, she got the better of subsequent G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Ire) after a memorable tussle in the Fillies' Mile at Newmarket in September. If the Guineas was a non-event, all the ingredients were in place yesterday, and she enjoyed the perfect trip under cover in mid-division as Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) carted the field along with her customary zest. Finding a golden rail in the straight, she swamped the long-time leader with 1½ furlongs remaining and was soon clear as Flashy Wings led the late cavalry charge out wide. "We wanted fast ground at Newmarket and it rained all night, so she hated it," trainer John Gosden commented. "She'd worked really well before that, but we didn't want to abuse her as there was always the Coronation. It was a peach of a ride and the plan was always to try and get lucky up the inner. Cheveley Park are fabulous breeders and have won the championship fillies' mile race by two lengths, so full credit to them and to their young stallion Medicean." Nannina is to be aimed at the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2. Trainer Pam Sly revealed that the 1000 Guineas heroine Speciosa would enjoy a vacation after tiring late to finish ninth. "I think probably the ground was a little bit quick for her," Sly explained. "She's going to have a rest now and come back for the autumn, when there should be a bit of give in the ground." Papal Bull has made giant strides since taking a Newmarket handicap in his three-year-old bow Apr. 20. He bested Dragon Dancer (GB) by a comfortable 3/4-length margin in the May 11 G3 Chester Vase, but was denied a chance to confirm that form when 10th in the G1 Vodafone Derby June 3. Breaking smartly here, he was restrained by Kieren Fallon off the moderate early fractions set by Red Rocks and was forced to race without cover. He had to be niggled to stay on the tail of that rival, but was set alight challenging three wide on the final turn. Narrowly in front when hanging away from the whip and into Red Rocks in the closing stages, he found extra when straightened and was the comfortable victor in the end. "He's growing up now and I think he's got a big future," Fallon said. "These Montjeus just get better and better and, when they keep improving like this, you never know how good they are going to be." There was a distinct sense of deja vu in this opener of the fourth day of the Royal meeting, as Sander Camillo emulated her connections' La Chunga in dropping her maiden tag in this competitive affair. Like that filly, she had been well supported on debut, but failed to get off the mark when fourth on a rain-softened surface at Newmarket May 26. Encountering contrasting conditions here, she justified the stable buzz by showing early dash to race prominently under Frankie Dettori before shaking loose at the quarter pole. Asserting from there, she was beyond recall as Silk Blossom made late progress to fill the runner-up spot. "Her homework has been unbelievable," Dettori commented. "We were kind of shocked when she got beat first time, but we can blame the ground for that and Jeremy [Noseda] was full of hope." Sander Camillo may be aimed at the inaugural Goffs Million at The Curragh Sept. 19. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Soapy Danger survived a stewards' inquiry to capture this marathon prize. He has been a revelation since stepping up to a mile and a half, winning at Beverley Apr. 19 and finishing runner-up at Leicester 10 days later. He accounted for a Haydock handicap last time June 10 and earned his first stakes victory here. Lazy out of the gates, he was roused awake by Kevin Darley and recovered to race behind the early leaders. Ridden on the approach to the final turn, he took time to organize, but responded with a surge to lead passing the quarter pole. Veering across the long-time leader Galient soon after, he put enough distance between himself and that rallying rival to satisfy the officials, who let the result stand. "He's been very consistent and, although he's not a stayer physically or on pedigree, he's a lazy horse with a very laid-back attitude," commented Mark Johnston, winning his fourth renewal since 2001. "We've seen that to the extreme today and you would never believe he was in trouble six out when you see the way he's gone away at the finish." Connections are considering a tilt at the Sept. 8 G2 Doncaster Cup. Click for the Racing Post chart.

If there is a potential class act amongst the home team, it could be Amadeus Wolf. He faces a tough task attempting to become the first sophomore to best his elders since Atraf (GB) took the race when it was known as the Cork and Orrery S. in 1996. The three-year-old demonstrated the necessary speed when winning the G2 Gimcrack S. in August and G1 Middle Park S. in October, and was far from disgraced when seventh in the G1 2000 Guineas over a mile May 6. Trainer Kevin Ryan believes the drop back to six will prove the key. "He's a very uncomplicated horse and he's in great order," he said. Godolphin are currently winless at the meeting, but in Iffraaj they have a potent force. He recorded a time just short of that recorded by last year's winner Cape of Good Hope (GB) when winning the Wokingham H. at this meeting at York 12 months ago, but failed to handle rain-softened ground when down the field in the G1 July Cup the following month. Back to winning ways in the G2 Park S. at Doncaster in September, he encountered testing ground again when off the board in the G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp in October. "I like this horse--he is very honest and has plenty of speed," trainer Saeed bin Suroor said. "This is his first race of the year and he is almost ready--I think he is a nice horse for the future."

Supporting the Australian cause is Garry Chittick's Glamour Puss, who has around a length to find on Takeover Target on her running when seventh in the King's Stand. She took the G1 Goodwood H. and G1 Salinge S. in 2005 and takes another shot at her arch-rival. "She has come through her first run tremendously well and [trainer] Danny [O'Brien] couldn't be any happier with her," Chittick told New Zealand Thoroughbred Marketing. "She usually takes a run to get to her best form, and this is the main race we brought her to Europe for." Michael Hill's evergreen Quito is in the form of his life, having won the Listed John of Gaunt S. at Haydock last time June 8. "He seemed as good as ever last time and he's still very well," trainer D. W. Chapman told PA Sport. "We'll give them all a run for their money anyway."

9	2	Self Defense (GB)	Warning (GB)	Lavelle	126

Godolphin rely on one of their biggest hopes for 2006 in Shawanda here. Campaigned by Alain de Royer-Dupre last term, she rose to the heights with an emphatic five-length success in the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh in July. She made light work of her opposition in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp in September and was injured when sixth behind Hurricane Run (Ire) in a strong renewal of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe back at that venue the following month. Sir Michael Stoute has won this three times and covers all bases with a trio headed by Maraahel, who was runner-up to Bandari in this race 12 months ago before finishing third behind Electrocutionist in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York in August. He warmed up for this with an easy score in the G3 Ormonde S. at Chester May 11. Last year's G2 Great Voltigeur S. winner Hard Top ran better than his latest fifth placing in the June 4 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly suggests, while the Listed Festival S. runner-up Mountain High completes the Freemason Lodge hand.

Argentina has moved on to the second phase of the FIFA World Cup, and Argentina makes her move to the East Coast. Multiple Group 1-placed in France last year, the Irish-bred four-year-old came up short in three outings in California, all graded stakes. She missed by a half-length as the runner-up in the GII Santa Ana H. Mar. 26 in her U.S. bow, then finished fourth in the GII Santa Barbara H. Apr. 22. The Wildenstein homebred had the lead late before surrendering to be third in the GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. May 29 at Hollywood, and the sweeping contours of Belmont's turf course should be just the tonic. Angara went off form following her victory in the 2005 GI Beverly D. S., finishing off the board in her final three starts for trainer Patrick Biancone. Purchased privately after RNA'ing for $2.2 million at FTKNOV, the bay ran sixth in her first start for the Sangster family and trainer Bill Mott, the GIII Beaugay H. at Aqueduct Apr. 29. She rallied to be third by 1 3/4 lengths in the GII Sheepshead Bay H. over this course May 27 and should move forward off that. Noble Stella has been the pacesetter in her last two, taking the GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 26, but just failing to see off Honey Ryder when second in the Sheepshead Bay H. "She ran a very gutsy race...and she seemed to like the course," trainer Roger Attfield said. "Those are the reasons we're coming back. I'd love to win a Grade II race with her."

Live Life, Group 3-placed in France last July, ended her European campaign with a pair of off-the-board performances, but has turned it around since shipping across the Atlantic. The four-year-old filly came back after a five-month layoff to win a Mar. 16 optional claimer at Santa Anita by a nose over Sohgol. Second by a neck while giving Dalicia two pounds in an optional event May 3, she came back to wire the field in an allowance test 28 days later, with Dalicia third, and will be the one to beat in her first try in U.S. stakes company. Sohgol picked up her first American score in an optional test over the Beverly Hills course and distance May 28, and will challenge Live Life on the lead early. Moscow Burning could benefit from swift early fractions. The six-year-old mare was freshened after a third-place finish behind Memorette in the Apr. 30 Fran's Valentine S. going a mile and a sixteenth at Hollywood. She is two-for-five at 1 1/4 miles on the turf. Memorette switched to the dirt for the June 3 GI Milady BC H. and ran fifth. In her only other try at this trip, she was sixth in last year's GI American Oaks.

GI Jim Dandy and GI Travers hero Flower Alley makes his first start since finishing a length behind Horse of the Year Saint Liam in the 2005 GI Breeders' Cup Classic. The four-year-old has looked good in the morning, clocking six furlongs in a bullet 1:13.46 at Belmont Sunday, but trainer Todd Pletcher warned that his charge may not have his A game ready. "He's training forwardly, but I'm not sure he is 100 percent yet," Pletcher said. "He isn't cranked up all the way."

Stream Cat is perfect in three starts on the lawn, breaking his maiden in Saratoga's With Anticipation S. He returned from a seven-month hiatus to defeat Go Between--winner of the GIII Palm Beach S. in March--in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. at Churchill May 5. The dark bay made a successful jaunt to Lone Star for the U.S.A. S. May 29, and is a worthy favorite.

Outperformance's late run was timed to perfection in the GIII Hill Prince S. June 9 at Belmont, and this stretch-out in distance should suit him. But two of the most interesting colts in the field are both making their first turf forays: Show- ing Up and Roman Dynasty. While Show-ing Up, hero of the GI Coolmore Lexington S. in April, makes his first start since finishing an admirable sixth in the GI Kentucky Derby, Roman Dynasty is stepping up in class. The son of the good turf filly Vinista finished second sprinting in his debut at Gulfstream before breaking his maiden by five lengths going nine furlongs Apr. 1 at that track. He drew off to take Belmont's off-the-turf Match the Hatch S. May 19 and should love the green stuff here. Roman Dynasty is trained by Todd Pletcher, who saddled English Channel to win last year's inaugural running of the Colonial Turf Cup.

PASEANA DIES IN ARGENTINA Two-time Eclipse Award winner and Hall of Fame member Paseana (Arg) (Ahmad {Arg}--Pasiflin {Arg}, by Flintham {Arg}) died June 21 at Dr. Ignacio Pavlovsky's Haras San Ignacio de Loyola in Argentina, according to The Blood-Horse. "She died from hemorrhaging following a ruptured blood vessel in her abdomen," Pavlovsky told the publication. "It was very sad." Foaled in 1987, the bay was a Group 1 winner in her native land before being purchased by Sid and Jenny Craig. Under the tutelage of Ron McAnally, Paseana became a standout in the U.S., capturing 14 of 28 starts in this country and finishing second in an additional 10. She received her first Eclipse Award as the nation's top older mare in 1992, after a season in which she captured the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, GI Apple Blossom H., GI Santa Margarita Invitational H., GI Vanity Invitational H., GI Santa Maria H. and GI Milady H. In 1993, she doubled up victories in the Apple Blossom and the Milady, as well as winning the GI Spinster S. and finishing second in the Breeders' Cup. After earning another Eclipse for 1993, Paseana stayed in training for two additional seasons before finally being retired in 1995 with $3,115,012 earned on these shores. She was plagued by fertility problems during her breeding career and produced only one foal, the six-year-old Paseana's Girl (Arg) (Lode), who is now a broodmare for the Craigs.

Latent Heat Returns:

Juddmonte Farms' Latent Heat (Maria's Mon), most recently third to Brother Derek in the GII Santa Catalina S. Mar. 4, makes his return in this afternoon's third race at Belmont Park. A son of True Flare (Capote), the bay debuted with an outstanding runner-up finish at Santa Anita Dec. 26, then graduated by 2 3/4 lengths over seven furlongs Jan 21. Stretched to two turns for the Santa Catalina, he set a quick pace for six furlongs, but gave way in the stretch to finish 4 1/2 lengths adrift of the winner. Latent Heat has drawn the outside post position in a field of six in the entry-level allowance test over seven furlongs. Kent Desormeaux rides for trainer Bobby Frankel.

Runner-up by a neck in that track's Oct. 2 GII Sky Classic H., the veteran took the Bonnie Heath Turf Classic at Calder Nov. 12, but was narrowly defeated in the GII W.L. McKnight H. at that oval Dec. 17. In his lone start this season, the gray became a millionaire with a victory in the Chris Thomas Turf Classic at Tampa May 6. Favored in this tough allowance, Revved Up chased the pace from second, hit the front at the quarter pole and was under a drive to win. Request For Parole (Judge T C) was shuffled back to last at the quarter pole, but rallied mildly to be fourth. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

'Lord' Back in the Game:

Multiple graded-stakes winner Lord of the Game (Saint Ballado) is expected to return to his Arlington Park barn today after undergoing tendon surgery at Pennsylvania's New Bolton Center earlier this week. "He was carrying a lot of heat in that leg," said trainer Tommy Tomillo, "and the procedure they did was designed to relieve that. He came out of the surgery good." The five-year-old captured the GII

Group Forming in Attempt to Purchase Ellis Park:

by Leslie Deckard, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

Former National Thoroughbred Racing Association executive Terry Meyocks said he is working with a group interested in purchasing Ellis Park from Churchill Downs Inc. "We are trying to get a group together and there is some interest," Meyocks said. "I signed a non-disclosure agreement and that is all I can say."

CDI has a long-standing policy of not commenting on rumors or speculation concerning business deals. Rumors of the sale of Ellis Park have run rampant over the past few years, with CDI reportedly attempting to sell the facility to Kentucky Derby-winning owner Mike Pegram in 2003. CDI purchased the track, located near Henderson, Kentucky, in 1998 from Racing Corporation of America for $22 million. The purchase also included the Kentucky Horse Center near Lexington, which was later sold to the Keeneland Association for $5 million.

Supplements for Barretts Summer Sale:

Barretts Equine Limited has announced that 11 older horses and 10 juveniles have been supplemented to the 2006 Summer Sale of Horses of Racing Age and Two-Year-Olds in Training, which will be held June 27 at Fairplex Park's Hinds Pavilion in Pomona, California. The catalogue and these additional entries may be viewed on www.barretts.com.

CHRB Leads Strategic Planning Discussion:

The California Horse Racing Board held its first public meeting Thursday on strategic planning for the future of racing in the state, with an emphasis on developing alternatives should any of the privately owned race-tracks cease conducting racing. "There is no secret that two of our racetracks [Bay Meadows and Hollywood] have been purchased and may be converted to alternative non-racing uses," said Board Chairman Richard B. Shapiro. "Given the possibility that two or possibly even more tracks could close sometime in the future, it is prudent for this industry to look at all the options--to create and study possible alternatives to ensure prosperity for California horse racing. Recognizing that any deviation from the current racing facilities would entail long lead times, and possibly legislation, it seems like a good idea to get a jump on it." Representatives at Fairplex Park presented a proposed $100-million project that would involve expanding the main oval and installing a synthetic surface, as well as putting in a turf course and expanding the grandstand. Cliff Goodrich, the former president of Santa Anita and Arlington Park, who now serves as a consultant for Fairplex Park, said in order to justify this kind of investment, Fairplex would require 20 weeks of racing (17 more weeks than its current allotment), or a minimum of 12 weeks of racing supplemented by revenue equating to eight weeks of racing. The sources of the alternative revenue would need to be negotiated and Goodrich cautioned, "Fairplex would require a one- or two-year headstart to do what needs to be done. For that reason, I would encourage the Board to begin issuing multi-year race date allocations--perhaps as long as a five-year calendar." In the past, management and potential investors in Los Alamitos Race Course have discussed similar plans to expand that property and acquire Thoroughbred racing dates were Hollywood Park to close. In a reference to that rival proposal, Goodrich advised the racing commissioners that only one project could be financially viable. "Fairplex Park and Los Alamitos could not spend $200 million [$100 million per property] and split the [Hollywood] dates," said Goodrich. "One of the two would have to prevail."

I'm So Lucky had proven himself capable of winning a race of this nature when taking a valuable handicap at Newbury last May. Fourth in the King George V S. at this meeting at York the following month, he scored at Sandown in July before enduring a barren spell subsequently. Fifth in the Listed Braveheart S. at Hamilton last time May 19, he made virtually all the running under Joe Fanning to reverse the poor recent form of the Mark Johnston stable. In front after a half mile, he turned the screw once into the straight and maintained the momentum as Wild Savannah made inroads into his advantage. "Frankly, the form's been bad and I still wouldn't say the horses are all well, but we are only running the ones we think are well," his conditioner explained. "I cannot say I was confident that I'm So Lucky was well, as his last two runs had been so disappointing and he lives in the part of the yard that was worse effected. [Jockey] Joe Fanning has earned every break and he should be singing his praises."

Completing a treble for Mark Johnston and a double for Klaus Jacobs' Newsells Park Stud, Linas Selection put clear distance between himself and his rivals to signal the end to his trainer's recent woe. Runner-up to Papal Bull (GB) in a strong Newmarket handicap Apr. 20, he met nothing of that calibre when going one better at Sandown eight days later and had been laid out for this event subsequently. Breaking well, he kept tabs on the leaders and ground his way to the front approaching the quarter pole before lengthening clear soon after.

Foreign Affairs is a regular in this type of event and is generally placed to advantage by his wily trainer. His last victory, in the Listed Grand Prix du Sud-Ouest at La Teste de Buch in September 2005, supplemented three runner-up spots from as many starts in Listed company over the campaign. He may have paid the price for setting a strong pace when finishing third in the Listed Jenkins Grand Cup S. at Musselburgh in his latest outing June 10. Pushed along after leaving the boxes to track the early leaders in fourth, the gelding was nudged into the lead seven furlongs from home and took a few lengths out of the field. Ridden along over three furlongs out, the veteran dug deep under a strong Declan McDonogh ride as the pack closed in the final eighth.

Limerick, 5.50, Mdn, €19,820, 2yo, 7fT, 1:27.60, gd/fm.

REGIONAL COUNSEL (GB) (c, 2, Medicean {GB}--Regency Rose {GB}, by Danehill), runner-up at The Curragh on debut June 10, traveled sweetly in a close-up second early. Ranging upsides the long-time leader City of New York (Ire) (Carrowkeel {Ire}) at the quarter pole, the 3-1 favorite headed that rival with a furlong remaining and defied greenness to score by a head. The victor was a 45,000gns TATNOV weanling and an 80,000gns TATOCT yearling. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, €16,709.
