ARCS DE TRIOMPHE

Yesterday's G1 Golden Jubilee S. was set up for Takeover Target (Aus) (Celtic Swing {GB}) to complete the Royal Ascot sprint double, but there were no excuses as Willie McKay's Les Arcs (Arch) rushed by en route to a neck defeat of the fast-finishing Balthazaar's Gift (Ire) (Xaar {GB}) to cause a 33-1 upset. Campaigned over middle-distances and even over hurdles at Cartmel in 2004, the six-year-old became an accidental hero with this career-high for first-season trainer Tim Pitt. Never far away from the early tempo, he rolled by the eventual third Takeover Target inside the final quarter and was all out under John Egan's drive as Jamie Spencer closed late on Balthazaar's Gift. "He did it well, but if I'd known Balthazaar's Gift was coming with a late run, I might not have taken on Takeover Target so soon, but I wanted to put that one to bed early," his jockey commented. "He's a fantastic horse--we used to run him over a mile and a quarter and thought he was quirky because he didn't find anything, but he obviously didn't stay and we gradually got his trip right."

'FLOWER' BLOSSOMS IN THE RAIN

With the handicap division in disarray following Seek Gold's 91-1 upset in last Saturday's G1 Stephen Foster H., Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) did more than throw his name into the ring with a 3 1/4-length victory in the GIII Salvator Mile S. at a rainy Monmouth Park yesterday.

"With the exception of the race-track conditions, it was just the kind of race we were looking for," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "Fortunately, he had the one race at Turfway earlier in his career over a sloppy track, so that gave us the confidence that he would handle the track. The [G1] Whitney H. [Aug. 5] will be next, and then hopefully the [G1] Woodward S. [Sept. 2]. I'd like to give him two or three races before the Breeders' Cup, but we'll play it by ear as to what the third race might be."

SHOW OFF!

Lael Stables' Showing Up (Strategic Mission), last seen finishing sixth in the G1 Kentucky Derby, had never raced on the turf in four previous attempts, but had no problem adjusting to the new surface in yesterday's $1-million Colonial Turf Cup, scoring by 3 1/4 lengths over the pacesetter Kip Deville (Kipling). Breaking from the 14-hole, IEAH Stables' Kip Deville was hustled to the front and led by as many as 15 lengths through scorching fractions of :22.54 and :45.45 and 1:08.61. Cornelio Velasquez kept the GII Coolmore Lexington S. victor in fourth in the early running and began to chip into the lead on the turn for home. Swung out for the stretch drive, Showing Up kicked it into high gear, inhaled Kip Deville in deep stretch and won going away. For a $140,000 Keeneland yearling and 32,000gns TATAUT purchase, Les Arcs has undertaken a bizarre route to the top, with his former trainer Richard Guest convinced that he was a distance runner. Not surprisingly, he was last on his only try over the jumps, but, when dropped to seven furlongs and a mile last year, started to show something, winning handicaps at Musselburgh and Chester. Switched to Pitt, he instantly rewarded the decision to drop him into sprint contests and reeled off a four-timer on the polytrack during the winter and spring.

Back on turf, he took the Listed Cammidge Trophy at Redcar Mar. 25 and finished runner-up in the Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket Apr. 18, but had been off the board in the May 30 G2 Temple S. at Sandown and in Tuesday's G2 King's Stand S. here. Handed a favorable low berth in this competitive affair, he was gifted a dream run up the rail and grabbed the long-time leader Takeover Target with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. The race was seemingly his after he had brushed aside the 7-2 favorite, but John Egan had to pray for the line as Balthazaar's Gift rushed to his side late. "After he won at Lingfield and the Cammidge, he kept going up and up the handicap and there are only so many places you can enter them," Pitt explained. "This guy put us on the map at Lingfield in the winter and he'll probably go for the G1 July Cup [at Newmarket July 13] next."

Beaten but Unbowed..

For trainer Joe Janiak, the Takeover Target journey did not end in regret after the gelding battled on to hold third place. "I'm absolutely wrapped," he said. "I couldn't ask for more than that and he tried his hardest. Probably the four-day back-up just took its toll in the final furlong, as he couldn't pick his momentum up. I'm so pleased I've come over, as I would have regretted it all my life if I hadn't and we'll be back for the July Cup at Newmarket. The 1200 metres will suit him and then it will be on to Japan after that." Jockey Jay Ford echoed those sentiments. "I feel the four-day back-up just left him a little bit flat," he said. "He bounced out well and got across nice to the stands' side and only went steady. He traveled super throughout, but just passing the 400-metre mark he felt the pinch and, as game as he is, he boxed on well and finished the race right off."

Also Ran: Day Flight (GB), Hard Top (Ire), Self Defense (GB), Collier Hill (GB), Bandari (Ire). Scratched: Shawanda (Ire).

This race was weakened by the late scratching of Godolphin's Shawanda (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) due to lameness, but featured a thrilling finish between the Sir Michael Stoute-trained duo of MaraaHEL and Mountain High. The former had finished runner-up to Bandari (Ire) (Alhaarth {Ire}) in this race 12 months ago, but jockey Richard Hills kept the faith and was rewarded with a game success from the visored bay, who had promised to hit this type of target on many occasions. Settled in mid-division off the genuine early fractions carved out by Bandari, he was full of run behind Mountain High as that rival struck for home inside the final quarter. Quickening past his stable companion in a matter of strides, he responded to a drive to maintain his advantage despite the renewed rally of the runner-up.

Maraahel was involved in many of the major dog-fights of 2005 and underlined his quality when third, beaten a neck and a head by Electrocutonist and Zenno Rob Roy (GB), in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York in August. He filled the same spot behind David Junior and Pride (Fr) in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October and again in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin in December. Sixth on his first try on dirt in the G1 Dubai World Cup at Nad al Sheba Mar. 25, he returned to Europe to finish third in the Apr. 22 G3 John Porter S. at Newbury. Back on track when recording back-to-back successes in the G3 Huxley S. at Chester last time May 11, his victory here bodes well that he can finally hit the target at the top level. "He's threatened for a while and there were some great performances last year," Stoute said. "He has a short run and Richard gave him a great ride today, as he was very brave. I think there's a group one in him, but I don't know where. That was Mountain High's best performance by far and he's going the right way."

Noble Stella posted two wins from nine starts in 2005, including Woodbine's July 16 GIII Dance Smartly H. and the Sept. 25 Flaming Page S. She finished a decent sixth in the GI E. P. Taylor S. Oct. 23 and closed out the year with a third-place finish in Calder's GII La Prevoyante H. Dec. 17. The gray resurfaced this season at Gulfstream with a pair of third-place finishes in the GIII Very One H. Mar. 4 and the GIII Orchid H. Apr. 1. The Gary Tanaka colorbearer got back in the winner's circle following a half-length victory in the GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 26 and followed up with a game second behind Honey Ryder in Belmont's GII Sheepshead Bay H. last out May 27. Sent right to the front by Mike Smith, Noble Stella crawled through :26.13 and :52.66 fractions over the boggy going here.

Challenged in the stretch after that easy early lead, the five-year-old dug in gamely to post the narrow victory. "I broke, and I thought the outside was the better place to be," Smith commented. "She handled the [soft] going really, really well. Every time I got after her, she just kept pushing herself forward and just stayed there." According to trainer Roger Attfield, a return trip to the GIII Dance Smartly at Woodbine July 15 may be next.

Memorette hit the board in plenty of good races on the dirt last term, including second-place finishes in the GI Las Virgenes S., the GI Santa Anita Oaks and the GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks. She held her own while making her turf debut in the GI American Oaks, finishing sixth and closed out the year with a second-place finish in the GII San Clemente H. July 30. The dark bay began her four-year-old campaign with a third-place finish in a $62,000 optional claimer over the Santa Anita lawn Feb. 26 and followed with a fifth over that course versus allowance company Mar. 31. She returned to the winner's circle in Hollywood's Fran's Valentine S. against state bred's Apr. 30, then was fifth in her return to the dirt in the GII Milady Breeders' Cup H. last out June 3. In this one, she settled in sixth through :22.64 and :45.82 fractions. With Victor Espinoza aboard, Memorette began to rally on the turn for home and fought her way past a very game Live Life.

Flower Alley pulled off a 10-1 upset in last season's GII Lane's End S. over a muddy track Mar. 25, then was a distant second behind dual classic winner Afleet Alex in the GII Arkansas Derby Apr. 16. Let go at 41-1 in the Run for the Roses, he finished a troubled ninth and was given a freshening. The time off did the Melnyk colorbearer well, as he returned with a second-place finish in the July 4 GII Dwyer S. and victories at the Spa in the July 30 GII Jim Dandy S. and the GI Travers S. Aug. 27. Flower Alley threw in a rare clunker, finishing a well beaten fourth after dueling for the early lead in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Oct. 1, but ran one of the best races in his career placing second behind eventual Horse of the Year Saint Liam in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic last out Oct. 29. Hammered at the windows for his four-year-old bow, he sat in third as Gold and Roses (GoldToken) set the early pace. Asked to quicken on the turn for home by John Velazquez, he fought his way past the pacesetter and drew off smartly for a convincing victory.

Art Fan cut out comfortable fractions. All carry 128 pounds bar Pride, 125.

Hurricane Run, taking the next step along the Montjeu route, faces a diminished but select field in this renewal. Like his sire, he rose to prominence as a sophomore, capturing the G1 Irish Derby in June before returning to annex the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in October. As Montjeu had done in 2000, he shipped back to The Curragh to start his four-year-old campaign, capturing the May 28 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup. The nature of his seven-length dismissal of the high-class mare Alexander Goldrun (Ire) in that contest stamped him as something out of the ordinary, and a repeat performance will be enough to secure Andre Fabre a sixth renewal. Pride is arguably the toughest mare in training in Europe and has held her form admirably throughout the last two years.

Successful in the G2 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville last August and G2 Prix Foy at Longchamp the following month, she was a creditable seventh in the Arc before finishing runner-up to David Junior in Newmarket's G1 Champion S. just 13 days later. She filled the same spot in the G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin in December before finishing fourth on her comeback in the G1 Prix Ganay back at Longchamp Apr. 30. Her confidence received a boost with a facile score in the G2 Prix Corrida here last time May 29 and she will be there to pick up the pieces, should the favorite fail. Policy Maker, runner-up in the last two renewals of this race, warmed up with an impressive success in the June 4 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly. Laverock has stamina to prove after besting subsequent G1 Prince of Wales's S. third Manduro (Ger) in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan over an extended nine furlongs at Longchamp May 21.

 This race has traditionally been framed as the first major encounter between Germany's best three-year-olds and its older horses, often tempting the G1 Deutsches Derby winner to do battle. But this year, due to the rescheduling of the Hamburg Classic to July 23 to avoid a clash with the World Cup, the middle-distance sophomores are as yet untested. Nevertheless, one of the country's most promising is the unbeaten Schiaparelli, a full brother to previous Derby hero Samum (Ger) and G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine Salve Regina (Ger). Unsighted until making a winning debut at Cologne Apr. 17, he followed up at Hannover May 7 before annexing the June 5 Listed Grosser Preis der Hannoverschen Volksbank. Andre Fabre puts forward Salutino, third in the G1 Preis von Europa in Cologne last September before finishing runner-up in the G1 Gran Premio del Jockey-Club at the San Siro the following month. He was runner-up to Policy Maker (Ire) in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly on his latest start June 4. Andreas Wohler, who saddled Lomitas (GB) to win in 1991 and doubled up with Sabiango (Ger) three years ago, relies on Simonas, who was third in this 12 months ago and had Salutino behind him when runner-up in the Preis von Europa. He has been off the track since finishing fifth in last October's G1 Canadian International S. at Woodbine.

RON MOQUETT

Coady Photography

This week's accomplishment: Moquett sent out 91-1 bomb Seek Gold (Touch Gold) to a late-rallying victory over Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) in last Saturday's G1 Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs. It was Moquett's first Grade I victory as a trainer.

Birthdate: 8/31/71
Birthplace: Ft. Smith, Ar
Current Residence: Louisville, Ky
Family: Chandler (daughter), Chance (son)

First win as a trainer? It was about 10 or 11 years ago, with an Appaloosa named Sparkling Bull, at Blue Ribbon Downs in Sallisaw, Oklahoma. It was a quarter horse race.

Of all the horses you have been around, who has had the most personality? Rare Money. He was hilarious. He was a colt of D. Wayne Lukas'--Lukas actually bred him. He was an overachiever; had a huge heart and horrible legs. He would stick his tongue out so you could play with it, he'd grab whatever you had in your pocket and take it to the back of the stall. He wouldn't go inside a barn unless the right person was leading him. He was cuckoo for Cocoa Puffs, and I get along with that type of horse.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? More match races. There needs to be more Seabiscuit/War Admiral.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Never been on one. But I'd like to go to Rio de Janeiro.

Favorite food or meal? Fried chicken.

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? Let It Ride is hilarious, but I'd have to say Blazing Saddles. I like Road Trip, all the American Pie movies; I'm just sick enough to enjoy all that stuff.

What's on your I-Pod? I've got 564 songs on my I-Pod. I'm young, so there's some Green Day, Collective Soul, Toby Keith, Ludacris. I've got more rap on there than anything, but if you say that to people in our business, they freak out.

Last Purchase? I got new boxing gloves for my Slam Man --it's a boxing bag that looks like a human. I've been boxing my whole life. It's the best thing in the world if you've had a bad day. You can go home and beat the hell out of it, and then you feel better about everything else that's going on.

CONGRATULATIONS!

His Highness the Aga Khan, Andre Fabre and Christophe Soumillon have proved a potent combination this year, and Minatlya is the latest project for the trio. Unbeaten in three starts, she showed a game attitude to win the Listed Prix Caravelle at Toulouse Apr. 25 and when adding the G3 Prix de Royaumont to her resume at Chantilly last time June 3. Her trainer bids for a fifth renewal since 1993. Time On, who beat subsequent G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Mont Etoile (Ire) in the May 10 Listed Cheshire Oaks at Chester, was sixth in the G1 Epsom Oaks on her last start June 2. Penchee disappointed when only sixth in the Royaumont, but previously looked a smart prospect when getting the better of subsequent G1 Prix de Diane fourth Mussoorie (Fr) in the Listed Prix de la Seine at Longchamp May 14. She represents the Criquette Head-Maarek barn, successful three times since 1988.

Trainer Bob Baffert opted to skip the Triple Crown trail with Wanna Runner to point for Canada's equivalent of the Kentucky Derby. Third behind Brother Derek in the Jan. 14 GII San Rafael S., the chestnut gelding was freshened after finishing fifth in the GIII El Camino Real Derby 15 days later. The Ontario-bred showed his appreciation for the break with a 4 3/4-length victory in the Apr. 1 WinStar Derby and comes off a 5 1/4-length romp in the May 13 GIII Lone Star Derby.

"He's been very effective in those races, so I guess I've been spotting him right," said Baffert. "He's making money, I just hope he runs like he's been running. So far, he looks good. And he's been working great. He's quick. He likes to be up there, in the fight." Ready to challenge the morning-line chalk for that early lead is Pipers Thunder, who followed a May 13 maiden score with a one-length tally in the June 4 Plate Trial. "[Trainer Eric Coatrieux] was pretty high on him before the Trial, so I wasn't surprised when he ran that well, and he said he'll run that much better on Sunday," said jockey Ray Sabourin. Malakoff bids for his third in a row. The chestnut colt also went straight into stakes company after breaking his maiden Apr. 30, and proved up to the task with an impressive 7 1/4-length score in the May 20 GIII Marine S. He has been working bullets since that victory. "You always hope they show that sort of form this time of year, hoping he's a Plate horse," said trainer Brian Lynch. "He stepped up (in the Marine Stakes) and showed he certainly is. He's prepped well his last two works. The closer we've got (to the race), the better he's got. I'm quietly confident." The three-year-old will try to give owner/breeder Frank Stronach a third Queen's Plate triumph. Stronach won it with Basqueian in 1994 and Awesome Again in 1997. Eugene Melnyk homebred Sterwins steps up after posting a 10 1/2-length maiden tally at Monmouth Park June 10.

CHANGE OF PLANS FOR DISCREET CAT? A cough and a fever will force Godolphin's Discreet Cat (Forestry) to miss a tilt in next weekend's GII Dwyer S., but may also knock him out of the Aug. 6 GI Haskell Invitational H. and the Aug. 26 GI Travers S., reports Daily Racing Form. "The timing could not have been worse," assistant trainer Rick Mettee commented. "The Dwyer seemed like such a perfect prep for wherever we went after the Dwyer. It would be a solid Grade 2 where he would get pushed. Now we have to go back to the drawing board." Plans call for the G2 UAE Derby victor to return to the track next week. "We'll have to play it by ear from here," Mettee continued. "We don't have any definitive goals, because we don't know when he'll be back on a work schedule."

GREY SWALLOW SOLD TO AUSTRALIA

Grey Swallow (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), winner of the 2004 G1 Irish Derby, has been sold by Vega FZE to Australian racing's Wadham Park Stud and will be pointed for the G1 Cox Plate at Melbourne in late October, reports SAHorseracing.com. The five-year-old, who defeated Bago (Fr) to win last year's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, has two starts to his credit in the U.S. in 2002--a five-length romp in the GII Jim Murray Memorial H. May 13 followed by a third to Cacique (Ire) in the June 10 GI Manhattan H., where he was beaten a neck by English Channel. The sale of Grey Swallow, currently stabled in New York, was brokered by South African bloodstock agent Robin Bruss and Paul Guy of Heritage Bloodstock in Melbourne. The grey colt is scheduled to make his next appearance in the GI United Nations S. at Monmouth Park before his export to Australia. To date, Grey Swallow has six wins from 14 starts and earnings of $1,636,275.

HALA BEK OUT OF DERBY

Sheikh Ahmed bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Hala Bek (GB) (Halling) was yesterday ruled out of Sunday's G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh after failing to please connections in his work. Trainer Michael Jarvis revealed that the G1 Epsom Derby fourth will be rested for an autumn campaign. "He didn't work satisfactorily this morning and there is just something not right with the horse," he told PA Sport. "We are going to wait and we are going to prepare him for the autumn. We are going to get right whatever is ailing the horse."

Cool Conductor Healing at Churchill:

Multiple graded-stakes winner Cool Conductor (Stravinsky) will be sidelined for at least three weeks after undergoing ankle surgery last week to remove a bone chip in a hind sesamoid. The chip was discovered after the five-year-old finished third in an allowance June 10 at Churchill. It's a "good prognosis," according to trainer Ralph Nicks. "It looks like there's no soft tissue damage." He added, "We'll re-scan that in three weeks and, if there's no soft tissue damage, he goes right back in training." The bay had trouble in the same area in 2005. "That ankle was bothering him last year and we gave him some time off," Nicks said, "but this time that piece broke off." Cool Conductor finished sixth by less than two lengths in his only other start of the year, the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic May 6.

Allowed to settle into stride, the popular five-year-old came with his run in the lane and just got up in time for his fourth straight victory. "Today I was just a passenger," said winning rider Robby Albarado. "He prefers a little cut in the ground, but it was a little hard today...he prevailed and showed his class. RECORD SATURDAY TOPS ASCOT'S WEEK

Officials at Ascot racecourse were celebrating a record attendance for yesterday's climactic card of the 2006 Royal meeting, which helped raise the total crowd by over 10,000 on two years ago. After absorbing a final-day figure of 60,595, Chief Executive Douglas Erskine-Crum expressed himself satisfied with the reaction to the redevelopment and the new facilities. "It's very pleasing to end the week with a record Saturday crowd," he commented. "The last day of the Royal Meeting continues to go from strength to strength. We are tremendously pleased with the way that the facilities have performed, given the tight deadlines we had to deliver the Royal Meeting in following 20 months of redevelopment. The track has performed particularly well, with feedback from jockeys and trainers almost wholly positive, particularly in relation to the cambered bends and actual turf surface. We are aware, of course, that there are still improvements to be made as anticipated and we will build on this week through the summer and indeed right up to the 2007 Royal Meeting. I would like to thank everybody who has come to Royal Ascot this week for their support and, in some cases patience, as we identify and begin to iron out some inevitable teething problems." The five-day festival saw a crowd of 310,967, compared to 300,666 the last time the meeting was staged at the track two years ago. Erskine-Crum was keen to stress that improvements will be the first priority. "This redevelopment should not yet be seen as the realisation of our ambitions for Ascot," he added. "We will continue to improve the facilities, specifically some areas of landscaping in order to provide the very best racing experience to our many and varied customers and participants." Tote turnover for the week was up slightly on 2004, at £8,573,920 compared to £8,562,607.

Champlain finished third behind Major Cadeaux (GB) and Jo'Burg in a hot Newbury maiden May 2,0 and that duo were second and fifth, respectively, in Tuesday's G2 Coventry S. While this was not so competitive, Champlain had to face the disadvantage of a high draw away from the stands' side bias and showed early dash to track the pace out wide. Taking over traveling strongly with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was pushed out by Philip Robinson to contain the challenge of Country Song and Kieren Fallon in the closing stages. "He's very vocal and screams every morning, but it's misleading, as he's not colty and doesn't misbehave," trainer Michael Jarvis explained. "He buckles down to it on the track and is a natural two-year-old, in that although he's not very big, he's very mature and strong. He got seven furlongs very well there, so I suppose the G2 Superlative S. [at Newmarket July 14] is one that jumps up at you, but I'll talk to the boss before making any firm plans."

Like Les Arcs, Young Mick was another who found vast improvement on the kind Polytrack surface over the winter, with his handicap rating soaring thanks to five successes at Wolverhampton, Lingfield and Kempton. Translating that to turf to score at Yarmouth Mar. 29, the former banded race winner had failed to add a seventh subsequently, but had continually justified the handicapper's high opinion and came here off a luckless sixth at Kempton June 7. Breaking well from his wide stall, he was keen in behind the leading group before challenging down the outside in the straight. Hitting the front with 300 yards remaining, he had enough in reserve to hold Palomar on the far rail and the late charge of Glistening in the centre of the track.

Margins: 1HF, 1HF, HF. Odds: 10-1, 5-1, 33-1.

Baltic King should arguably have been in the Golden Jubilee line-up, as he had finished sixth in the bunch finish to Tuesday's G2 King's Stand S., with Les Arcs trailing in behind. However, connections were adamant that this was his race and the six-year-old fully vindicated that faith with a dramatic late burst. After recording his first stakes score in the Listed Leisure S. at Windsor last May, he had failed to add to that subsequently, but had put up a string of smart efforts highlighted by a fourth in the G2 Diadem S. at Newmarket in September. Restrained early by Jimmy Fortune, he was shuffled back to rear by the marauding pack and had most of his rivals in front passing halfway. His acceleration saw him through gaps near the fence inside the final quarter and he cut down Firenze in the final 100 yards, before forging clear. "I dare say we'd have won the Golden Jubilee, but we're happy and I always wanted to run him in this," trainer Hughie Morrison commented. "I gave him a good blow on Tuesday and he ran exceptionally well there. Jimmy rode a cracker of a race and it's the first time this year he's picked off the pace. He's always just gone through his races galloping, but when he's at it he's very good and can beat some of the best around."

2--Cover Up (Ire), 138, g, 9, Machiavellian--Sought Out (Ire), by Rainbow Quest. £10,263.

3--Vinando (GB), 128, h, 5, Hernando (Fr)--Sirena (Ger), by Tejano. (160,000gns yrl '02 TATOCT). £5,132. Margins: NK, 3/4, 1HF. Odds: 11-2, 3-1, 4-1.

Baddam overhauled the 2002 and 2003 hero Cover Up in the dying strides of this traditional quirk of the Royal Ascot week to complete the Ascot H.-Queen Alexandra double. He had reversed a run of four straight unplaced efforts when powering to a five-length success in Tuesday's 2 1/2-mile affair and traveled like a fresh horse throughout this contest. Settled in rear by Ian Mongan off the tepid early tempo, he moved up before the final turn, was thrown wide as they rounded the bend, but dug in to reel in Cover Up, who had been forced to set the pace before the thrilling finale.

Spinning Queen was just a notch below the best of her sex during a juvenile campaign highlighted by a third in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket in July. She returned to fill the runner's-up spot behind Speciosa (Ire) in the Apr. 18 G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket and was her usual game self when finishing sixth behind that rival in the G1 1000 Guineas May 7. On her third visit to Newmarket this term, she was third behind the subsequent G3 Jersey S. winner Jeremy in the May 27 Listed King Charles II S., and lined up against marked inferiors for this relative class drop. Her biggest concern here was lack of room in the straight. Having raced in mid-pack against the rail throughout the early stages, she found room on the inside in the final quarter and quickened to lead with a furlong remaining before putting safe distance back to Secret Night.

CARESSED (GB) (f, 3, Medicean {GB}--Embraced {GB} {SW-Eng}), by Pursuit Of Love {GB}) showed a smart turn of foot to land a Beverley maiden last time May 31, and the even-money pick was restrained towards the rear of this field early. Pulled wide to challenge three furlongs out, she hit the front at the eighth pole and ultimately recorded a cozy one-length verdict from Lucky Token (Ire) (Key of Luck). The penny dropped for the homebred when taking over just inside the final eighth and he quickened away smartly to beat Jewaar (Diesis {GB}) by a convincing 3 1/2-length margin. "He's got a little bit about him," trainer Henry Cecil told PA Sport. "He did that nicely. I was going to run him in the spring in either the Wood Ditton [at Newmarket] or a maiden at Newbury, but he had very bad sore shins and it has taken up to now to get rid of them."
