JAPANESE PAIR WORK AT HOLLYWOOD

A pair of Japanese stars worked in tandem at Hollywood Park yesterday with an eye on this weekend's lucrative turf events at the Inglewood oval. Asahi Rising

Dance in the Mood

(Jpn) (Royal Touch {Jpn}), who will start in Sunday's $750,000 G1 American Oaks for three-year-old fillies, worked five furlongs on the dirt in 1:02 3/5, while Dance in the Mood (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) stopped the clock in 1:03 4/5. The latter, runner-up in the 2004 Oaks, is being prepared for Saturday's $750,000 CashCall Mile. Asahi Rising is looking to follow in the footsteps of Cesario (Jpn), who crossed the Pacific to pillage last year's renewal of the Oaks. So far, things are looking promising, according to her connections. "She shipped well, and everything was good with the work," said her trainer Masaaki Koga, who was aboard for the move. "She's a very quiet horse." Koga has been training on his own for just three months, but worked under Kazuo Fujisawa--conditioner of Dance in the Mood--for 14 years. Victor Espinoza is slated to ride Asahi Rising. Meanwhile, another foreign-based runner, Laus Line (Ire) (Danehill), cleared quarantine yesterday afternoon and is a go for the CashCall Mile. The four-year-old is no stranger to the States. Last year, she was fourth in the Oaks, then won Belmont's G1 Garden City Breeders' Cup S. in September. The David Wachman trainee will be partnered with Aaron Gryder, who replaces the injured Jose Valdivia, Jr.

ADDENDUM: In his column in Wednesday's TDN, Bill Oppenheim called Baddam "the first horse I have ever heard of to sweep the Ascot S. (20 furlongs) and Queen Alexandra S. (21 furlongs) double." In fact, as Kildangan Stud's Charles Spiller points out, Trelawny not only completed the 1962 Ascot-Queen Alexandra double, but came back to do so again in 1963.

DAVID SET FOR ECLIPSE

Trainer Brian Meehan yesterday gave the go-ahead for Roldvale Ltd's David Junior (Pleasant Tap) to run in next Saturday's G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown. Following the four-year-old's fourth-place effort behind Ouija Board (GB) in last Wednesday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, the Manton-based conditioner is keen to take on the mare again in the 10-furlong contest. "David Junior will run in the Eclipse at Sandown next weekend, with Jamie

David Junior Horsephotos

Spencer riding," he announced in a statement to PA Sport. "He is a course-and-distance winner and would not mind the ground, as he goes on any surface. I was obviously very disappointed with him at Ascot, but I am sure that he will show what a very good horse he really is in the Eclipse."

MUBTAKER EUTHANIZED

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Mubtaker (Silver Hawk--Gazayil, by Irish River {Fr}) was euthanized after breaking his off-hind leg on the home gallops, the Racing Post revealed yesterday. Trainer Marcus Tregoning paid tribute to the nine-year-old, runner-up to Dalakhani (Ire) in the 2003 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. "Everyone at our yard is devastated by Mubtaker's death and it will take us time to get over it," he told the Post. "We adored him for his courage, his consistency and his wonderful outlook on life." Mubtaker, who also took three renewals of Newbury's G2 Geoffrey Freer S. between 2002 and 2004, was unable to be saved after suffering multiple fractures to the lower leg on Sheikh Hamdan's Farncombe Down gallops in Lambourn. "I doubt I'll see another similar to Mubtaker during my career," his conditioner added. "He loved racing. We had our greatest high this year with Sir Percy. Now, within a few weeks, we're suffering our worst low." In total, Mubtaker posted a record of 31-13-7-4 with his latest coming at his favored Newbury in the Apr. 22 G3 John Porter S. His career earnings totaled £704,819.

INCLUDE COLT TOPS FASIG-TIPTON A colt from the first crop of Grade I stakes winner Include (Broad Brush) elicited a $42,000 bid from Joseph J. Balsamo to top Tuesday's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic Two-Year-Olds In Training and Horses of Racing Age sale in Timonium, Maryland. Catalogued as hip 88, the gray juvenile is out of Silver Gamble (Prospectors Gamble), a half to stakes winner Trick Card (Clever Trick) and to graded-stakes-placed Stellar Rival (Exceller). Agent Wolf Creek Farm consigned the unnamed colt. Hip 56, a daughter of Royal Academy named Charlotta, led the way for the fillies. Fast Lane Farms paid $40,000 for the Bill Reightler, agent, consignee. Charlotta was produced by the unraced Miswaki mare Miss April and is from the family of MGISW Honor Glide. Sale figures were down from 2005. In all, 68 horses grossed $707,700 for an average of $10,407, a 26.9-percent drop from last year's average of $14,230. Median was also down, from $10,000 to $5,850, a 41.5-percent decline. BARRETT'S TOPPED BY COMIC STRIP FILLY A two-year-old Comic Strip filly named Legend Lucy topped Barretts' June Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training and Horses of Racing Age, held Tuesday at Fairplex Park in Pomona, California. The dark bay, selling as hip 82, brought a bid of $67,000 from Tom Acker & Bob Toomajian. Havens Bloodstock Agency Inc., agent, consigned Legend Lucy, a daughter of Raise a Legend (Northern Prospect) who hails from the family of GI Santa Anita Derby hero Larry the Legend. cont. p2

ALTESSE (A.P. Indy), out of GISW Aldiza, was a well-beaten fourth in her debut at Keeneland Apr. 14. A much-improved third when stretched past a mile at Belmont May 4, the bay won in the mud for fun while trying this distance for the first time here June. 8. Also looking for her second straight victory is Sugar Shake (Awesome Again), trained by Bobby Frankel. Never off the board in five prior starts, the Stronach homebred finally broke through with a victory over this track and trip May 25. brisnet.com pps

MILLER ELECTED TRF PRESIDENT Johnathan Miller, a Virginia-based businessman and part-time breeder, has been elected president of the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation by the organization's Board of Directors. He succeeds Terence Collier, who decided not to seek re-election after serving for two years. TRF presidents are elected to one-year terms. Growing up in Louisville, Miller got involved in racing at a young age as a fan and proudly recalls that he had his 10th birthday party at Keeneland. A graduate of Duke University and the University of Louisville School of Law, he is the president of Bluemont International, a consulting firm specializing in investment advisory work in emerging markets. Prior to creating Bluemont, he served in several governmental roles, including stints as the Senior Director of the National Security Council; Deputy Assistant to the President for Management under President Ronald Reagan; and Deputy Political Director to George H. W. Bush. cont. p2

CONCERN OVER GUILD'S HIRING OF NATIONAL MANAGER

By Tom Lamarra, courtesy of The Blood-Horse

The apparent hiring of the team of sports agent Dwight Manley and civil rights activist the Rev. Jesse Jackson as national manager has created uneasiness among some members of the Jockeys' Guild who put their support behind Dave Stevenson, a former rider and consultant with knowledge of the inner workings and politics of the pari-mutuel industry. According to reports, jockeys based in the Eastern region of the country left a two-day Guild senate meeting in Louisville, Ky., early June 26 because of concerns over the direction the organization may be headed. On June 28, Mike Luzzi, a New York-based rider, told The Blood-Horse he had resigned from the Guild senate for personal reasons. Luzzi, who attended part of the Guild meeting June 26, was elected to the interim senate after the Guild fired Matrix Capital Associates, its previous management team, last November, and was re-elected to the senate this year. Matrix was headed by Dr. Wayne Gertmenian. "I resigned for personal reasons," Luzzi said. "It's time-consuming, but [the board] is doing things I didn't agree with. Some of us thought we could have gotten [former national manager] John Giovanni back, or felt that Dave Stevenson was the candidate who should have been hired." For complete story, click here.

Hip 410, the last horse through the ring, was the top-priced colt on the day. Gregory Unruh purchased the son of Touch Gold--In Excelcis Deo, by Forty Niner, for $50,000. Named Aurora Borealis, the colt was from the draft of Cashmark Farm (Cash Asmussen), agent. His second dam, Sabin, was a dual Grade I winner, and his sister Heavenly Cat has produced SW Capitano and GSW Heavenly Ransom. Hip 301, a three-year-old filly by Flying Continental named Broadway Starlet, led the way for the horses of racing age. The chestnut, placed in two starts, was consigned by Mary Knight, agent, and was knocked down to Dale Baird for $20,000.

"I'd like to see the TRF build on the foundation laid by its previous presidents, Terence Collier and John Stuart, and founder Monique Koehler, and broaden them," Miller said. "I want the TRF to be equally involved with owners, breeders, farm managers, trainers, bloodstock agents. I want to reach out to all areas of the industry and have a diverse board that represents the entire industry so that we are not just compassionate, but relevant to all areas of the sport. "I'd also like us to be more involved in educational issues so that owners and breeders become more involved in the issues pertinent to retired horses. I want the TRF to be seen as a safety net and not a group that runs what amounts to a large horse pound." Miller, who has served on the TRF's Board of Directors since 2001 and as the president of the Virginia committee, was involved in horse rescue long before he joined the TRF. He currently cares for 10 retirees on his farm in Paeonian Springs, Virginia, including Bowl Game, the 1979 Eclipse Award winner as the nation's outstanding turf horse. Collier, the director of marketing for Fasig-Tipton, served with distinction. Under his leadership, the TRF was able to care for a growing number of retirees and its program expanded to include three additional retirement farms based at correctional facilities. "Terence was a dedicated and innovative president," said TRF Executive Director Diana Pikulski. "It was a pleasure to work with him. In recent years, the TRF has made tremendous progress in its efforts to care for retirees and educate the public and the racing industry about the horrors of horse slaughter, and that would not have been possible without Terence." Founded in 1982, the TRF is the nation's oldest and largest Thoroughbred horse rescue group. The non-profit organization that provides lifetime retirement for hundreds of Thoroughbreds at farms and satellite facilities across the nation and adopts out hundreds of others after retraining them for second careers. The TRF is wholly dependent on public support.

Turfway Changes Fall Meet Line-up:

Turfway Park yesterday announced a change in the line-up of its Fall Meet stakes races, including the meet's signature day, the Kentucky Cup Day of Champions. Racing Secretary Richard Leigh said the event, highlighted by the $350,000 GII Classic, has been pushed back to Saturday, Sept. 30, on the last week-end of the 22-day meet that runs from Sept. 5 through Oct. 5. The Kentucky Cup races were moved in part to accommodate horsemen working toward the Breeders' Cup World Championships, scheduled for Nov. 4 at Churchill Downs. "Since its first running in 1994, the Kentucky Cup Day of Champions has played an important part in the road to the World Championships," said Turfway President Robert Elliston. "With the Breeders' Cup at Churchill Downs, we decided to move the Kentucky Cup to the end of our meet so that horsemen from across the country could ship one time, taking in the Kentucky Cup and then the great racing at Keeneland's fall meeting."

RACING MOURNS RAYMOND ROWLEY

Bloodstock agent Raymond Rowley died aged 62 last Wednesday after a long illness, the Racing Post announced. Renowned as a shrewd operator, the Indian-born friend and colleague of John Gaines and the late Gainesway Manager Joe Taylor was responsible for the purchase of Sharpen Up (GB), who sired the top-class Pebbles (GB), Kris (GB), Selkirk (GB) and Trempolino, as well as Diesis (GB). He also bought Allegretta (GB) for just 24,000 guineas at the 1981 Tattersalls December Sales and she went on to produce the 1993 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Urban Sea, the dam of Galileo (Ire) and the 2000 G1 2000 Guineas scorer King's Best. Rowley, who lived in Newmarket up to the time of his death, is survived by children Russell, James and Kimberley and partner Charlotte Phipps. His funeral will be held July 4 at St Mary's Church in the town.

House Re-Election Rates Favor GOP

The GOP currently enjoys a 29-seat margin in the U.S. House of Representatives. To win control, Democrats would need to pick up a net of 15 seats. Election analysts point to a dearth of strong candidates and a House re-election rate of 97 to 99.5 percent as arguments in favor of the GOP retaining control. The Cook Political Report rates about a dozen seats – mostly held by Republicans – as “toss ups” for the November 7 election.

Through legislative advocacy and its Political Action Committee, Horse PAC, NTRA works to educate Members of Congress about the horse racing and pari-mutuel industries.
