ELECTROCUTIONIST KING GEORGE BOUND

Godolphin's Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) will be aimed at the July 29 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, connections announced yesterday. Having finished runner-up to Ouija Board

Electrocutionist

(GB) in last Wednesday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, the G1 Eclipse S. had been mentioned as a target for the five-year-old. However, Godolphin will pass on next Saturday's Sandown contest and point the G1 Dubai World Cup hero straight at the mid-summer highlight. "We were pleased with his run at Royal Ascot and are looking forward to seeing him race in the King George," Racing Manager Simon Crisford commented.

NO QUICK RETURN FOR GEORGE

Susan Magnier, Michel Tabor and Derrick Smith's G1 2000 Guineas hero George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) faces a lengthy spell on the sidelines, trainer Aidan O'Brien told the Racing Post. The impressive Newmarket Classic winner suffered a muscle injury above the hip after finishing runner-up to Araafa (GB) in the May 27 G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh and could be out until the fall. "George Washington is back cantering, but as to when he might make it back to the track, we are probably talking about months rather than weeks," O'Brien told the Post. "We will just have to wait and see how he comes along."

PETE LIZARZABURU WINS DOMINION AWARD

Pete Lizarzaburu, the social program coordinator for the Delaware Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, has been named the 14th recipient of the Dogwood Dominion Award, presented annually to an unsung hero in the Thoroughbred industry. Lizarzaburu, a native of Ecuador, will receive $5,000 and a bronze statue of Dogwood colorbearer Dominion at a luncheon at the Reading Room in Saratoga Springs on Aug. 2. "Under the guidance of Pete Lizarzaburu, Delaware Park's backstretch social program has been among the most progressive in America," explained Dogwood Stable's president Cot Campbell. "Pete's knowledge of immigration issues is invaluable--especially now. He has shown the way in the H-2B Visa Program, giving barn workers the opportunity to go back home every year and then re-enter the country before the racing meet begins--a boon to racing and a boon to the Hispanic workers."

SUGAR SHAKE (f, 3, Awesome Again--Skipping Around {GSW, $259,603}, by Skip Trial), third in a Keeneland maiden going two turns Apr. 8, could do no better than second at 1-2 in a seven-furlong Churchill maiden May 3. Most recently an easy winner going this track's one-turn mile May 25, the homebred was the 7-10 chalk to put them together. Sent immediately to the front, the bay cut out fractions of :44.66 for the half and 1:09.57 for three-quarters and reported home an eased-down 6 1/2-length winner. Will State Budget Deadlock Threaten NJ Racing?

The New Jersey state government could shut down as of 12:01 a.m. Saturday if lawmakers cannot come to terms on a budget before the constitutional deadline at midnight, and that could have an impact on racing in the state. Monmouth Park and the Meadowlands are operated by the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority, an agency of the state. If the deadline is not met, Governor Jon Corzine has threatened a shutdown, and all "non-essential" services will be closed, including the New Jersey Racing Commission. But Chris McErlean, vice president of racing operations for the NJSEA, said yesterday that, as far as he knows, it will be business as usual Saturday no matter what happens with the budget. "We are prepared to race," McErlean said. "I haven't been advised of anything to the contrary. I have been in contact with several people, but no one has been able to give me any direction, and I am taking that to mean we should move ahead as usual. The situation does seem to be changing constantly, so things might be different [Friday], but right here and now, it is full steam ahead [for Monmouth and the Meadowlands]."

Crowd Pleaser Dead:

Northview Stallion Station's Crowd Pleaser (A.P. Indy--Creaking Board {GB}, by Night Shift), winner of the 1998 Virginia Derby and GIII Saranac H., died Tuesday in his paddock. The 11-year-old's death was caused by acute cardiovascular collapse, the cause of which is still to be determined. Racing for breeder George Strawbridge's Augustin Stable, the dark bay was a stakes winner at two, three and five, winning nine races and earning $605,150. Standing his first season at stud in 2001, Crowd Pleaser has 110 foals of racing age in his first three crops, with 27 winners.

SIBIRIAN LILY (f, 3, Grand Slam--Black Waterlily, by Dehere) rolled to an easy 5 1/2-length victory in her May 13 debut over track and trip and was a 7-10 proposition to put them back-to-back. Buried down on the inside while arguing the pace with Impelling (Forestry), the bay was joined in upper stretch by Champagne Truffles (Five Star Day). She dug in gamely inside and refused to let that one by, winning by a widening 1 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $65,110. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

BANKIN ON CANDY (f, 3, Banker's Gold--Candy Cane {Arg}, by Ride the Rails), produced by a full sister to Argentinian champion and GI Pacific Classic winner Candy Ride (Arg), faltered badly in three starts on the main track, including a distant last-out fifth at Mountaineer June 25, 2005. The longest shot on the board at 61-1 in her turf bow, the $11,000 KEEJAN yearling gained the early advantage, led throughout and held off Minnehaha Chic (Exploit) for a neck success. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-0, $32,800. O/T-Jac Tomasello. B-Todd & Kathy Murty (KY).

Abercrombie Honored With Chenery Award:

Josephine Abercrombie, owner of Pin Oak Stud, will be honored as this year's recipient of Arlington Park's fourth annual Penny Chenery Distinguished Woman in Racing Award at an invitation-only charity luncheon to be held Aug. 10 at the Chicago area track. An accomplished horsewoman, Abercrombie bred and campaigned Canadian champions Peaks and Valleys and Hasten to Add. In addition to its equine accomplishments, Pin Oak will contribute over $100,000 to the Ronald McDonald House of Houston as well as Texas Children's Hospital, founded in 1953 by Josephine's father, James Abercrombie. Arlington's Distinguished Woman in Racing Award is named after Penny Chenery, Thoroughbred racing's unofficial First Lady since campaigning Triple Crown winner Secretariat.

WRITERS UP

PATIENT APPROACH PAYS OFF FOR CENTENNIAL By Steve Sherack

You don't see too many five-year-old first-time starters and when you do, they are normally in need of a race or two. In recent memory, Alumni Hall was able to buck the trend. He made a winning debut as a five-year-old at the Keeneland spring meeting in 2004 and has gone on to become a multiple graded stakes winner. More than two years later, Centennial Farms' Song for the Best (Unbridled's Song) added his name to that list with a sharp score at Delaware Park June 19 (video). The gray, who was purchased for $210,000 as a KEESEP yearling, battled for early command and won under wraps by 9 3/4 lengths, stopping the clock at 1:09 2/5 for six furlongs. He received a 92 Beyer Speed Figure.

"He was training as a two-year-old at Saratoga and he was really doing well," explained Centennial Farms spokesman Patrick Lamberty. "He had his final breeze right before he was going to go in the entries and he fractured his tibia. It was a very major injury. We sent him to our farm in Middleburg, Virginia, and he had a couple of minor setbacks after that. It's been a long process. One of our things is we always give horses time. He showed so much natural ability when he was a two-year-old that we figured we'd take a long-term approach and find a way to get him to the races... patience is something that we try to stress."

Song for the Best exited his debut in fine fashion and is currently in training at Laurel Park with trainer Rodney Jenkins. The Kentucky-bred will start next in a first-level sprint allowance at the beginning of the Saratoga meeting, which kicks off July 26.

Corinthian (Pulpit), who was disqualified from first to third in the GII Fountain of Youth S. last time out Mar. 4 (video), is nearing a return. In the Fountain of Youth, the Centennial colorbearer raced erratically in the stretch, veering in and out before crossing the line one-length clear of First Samurai. The chestnut exited that race with a minor fracture in his left hind ankle.

"He still very much has the same personality that he had--the alpha male racehorse," Lamberty commented. "He's always had the tendency to lay on horses and lug in. But when he drifted out in the stretch in the Fountain of Youth, that was something new for him. We speculated that it might have been him running away from the pain of that injury in his left rear hind. We're just speculating there, nothing to really prove it."

Original plans called for a start in the July 4 GII Dwyer S. for Corinthian, but a recent minor skin rash forced him to miss some training and he will likely not be ready in time. The $385,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase most recently breezed four furlongs over the Belmont training track in :50 June 21. The summer goal for Corinthian is the Aug. 26 GI Travers S. at Saratoga.

Memphis Mon (Maria's Mon) ran a good second in his Big A unveiling Apr. 22, then earned his diploma by 2 1/4 lengths at Belmont May 20 (video). "He's going to be a nice colt," Lamberty said of the $375,000 KEEAPR juvenile acquisition. "He missed a race last week with a bit of a minor cough, nothing major, just enough for him to miss the race. We'd like to get a race into him before Saratoga. We knew he'd be a horse that would be a little bit of a late-developing type, but we do think he has a bright future."

Last season, Reverberate (Thunder Gulch) was among the top three-year-olds in the country, finishing second behind Oratory in the GII Peter Pan S. and also placing second in the GII Jim Dandy S. to Flower Alley. He closed out the season with a well-beaten sixth in the GI Travers S., and resurfaced last week with a fifth-place finish in an optional claimer at Belmont Park June 23.

"He's been battling quarter cracks and he threw the shoe on the foot that had the quarter crack during the race," Lamberty said. "He's a big horse and we think he'll move forward off that race in his next start."

Waiting in the wings to carry the red and tan colors of Centennial Farms are Forest of Dreams (Forestry--Desert Angel, by Desert Wine), who was picked up for $600,000 earlier this year at KEEAPR, and Emishi Warrior (Orientate--French Line, by Boundary), a $400,000 FTSAUG yearling last summer.

"He's a lovely colt," Lamberty said of Forest of Dreams. "He's very professional and has a great mind to him. He's on our farm in Virginia. As is the case when we buy horses from the two-year-old in training sales, we'll give them 30 to 60 days down there and then we'll start over with them. Plans for him are to go to either Jimmy Jerkens or Michael Matz." Forest of Dreams may make his debut at the Belmont fall meeting.

Emishi Warrior is also on the farm in Virginia and is close to shipping to either Jerkens or Matz as well. "He's coming along well," Lamberty said. "He's not as precocious as you think for an Orientate. He's more of a classic-type horse. He's really gotten big, but he's got a good temperament."
