GOOSE FOES BUSH-WHACKED

It may have been just the first day of July, but Ron and Ricki Rashinski's Bushfire (Louis Quatorze) made her case for year-end honors, winning yesterday's Mother Goose S. at Belmont Park. In becoming the first of her generation to post three victories at the Grade I level, the Florida-bred filly defeated a field including GI Kentucky Oaks upsetter Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid); Grade II winners Ready To Please (More Than Ready) and Teammate (A.P. Indy); and Joint Effort (Runaway Groom), owner of a pair of Grade III successes. "I would have to think she's at the head of the division and, hopefully, we can keep her there," said trainer Eddie Kenneally. Mother Goose cont. p2

INVASOR SHINES IN BIG APPLE BOW

After stops along the way at Maroñas in Uruguay, Nad al Sheba in Dubai and Old Hilltop in Baltimore, the Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) hit Broadway yesterday afternoon. And the results were equally impressive, as the four-year-old colt took command at the quarter-pole beneath Belmont S. winning jockey Fernando Jara and rolled home a convincing 4 1/4-length winner from Wild Desert (Wild Rush). "I was impressed last time [GI Pimlico Special May 19], but today I was even more impressed," admitted winning conditioner Kieran McLaughlin. "He's the real deal." Suburban H. cont. p2

PURE GOLD

Noel and Miriam O'Callaghan's Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) had to battle for her fifth Group 1, but was in no mood to surrender her crown in yesterday's G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh. Having finished runner-up in this race two years ago, she came back to land the spoils 12 months ago and made it a repeat to reward backers who sent her off as the 11-8 favorite. Showing tenacity for jockey Kevin Manning to hold off Chelsea Rose (Ire) (Desert King {Ire}) after a thrilling final-furlong duel, she was the neck victress at the line. Pretty Polly S. cont. p3

BEST OF THE REST

The Curragh hosts the 141st renewal of the G1 Budweiser Irish Derby today and there are scores to settle for two of France's finest middle-distance performers in His Highness the Aga Khan's Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent) and Paul Vidal's Best Name (GB) (King's Best). For Alain de Royer-Dupre, success for Darsi would help ease the disappointment of saddling Dalakhani to suffer his sole defeat at the hands of His Highness the Aga Khan's second strong Alamshar (Ire) three years ago. Irish Derby cont. p11

Warming Up to the Task...

A winner in a pair of juvenile starts, Bushfire defeated Teammate a head in a Jan. 13 Gulfstream allowance, but failed to handle the sloppy track when seventh to Wait A While in the Feb. 4 GII Davona Dale S. The 3/4-length winner of the Florida Oaks at Tampa Mar. 18, Bushfire flaunted her speed over the Keeneland main track and cruised to a 6 1/2-length score in the GI Ashland S. Apr. 8. Third, but demoted to sixth behind Lemons Forever in the May 5 Oaks, the bay fought back after losing the lead to take the GI Acorn S. by a neck on the Belmont undercard June 10.

Filly Fires Again...

Quickly into stride, Bushfire took the field along through a moderate opening quarter mile in :23.86, but relinquished a narrow advantage to Teammate, who was off slowly, but rushed up to lead after four furlongs in :46.64. Content to have that target as they raced on the far turn, jockey Edgar Prado asked Bushfire to go on with it nearing the quarter pole and his charge responded, opening daylight before holding the lightly raced Pine Island (Arch) safe. GII Fantasy S. winner Ready To Please took a run at Bushfire at the eighth pole, but was outfinished for the place. "I think the key to the race was the first quarter mile," the victorious rider submitted. "She broke sharp, but she wasn't rank. She was relaxed and even when another horse came to us, she was still relaxed. When I shook her up, she found another gear."

Lemons Forever Falters...

Favored Lemons Forever turned in a mostly even performance and checked in fourth, beaten five lengths. "She kept grinding away and it looked to me that she was steadily trying to make up ground," said trainer and co-owner Dallas Stewart. "But these one-turn races can be tough and it might not be her thing."

Margins: 4 1/4, 1, 4HF. Odds: 1.25, 3.55, 19.20. Also Ran: Noble Causeway, Tap Day, Rathor (Ire), Wilko.

Following his perfect five-for-five campaign in Uruguay, Invasor was forced to give his juniors, including Discreet Cat, seven pounds in the G2 UAE Derby Mar. 25 and turned in a respectable fourth-place effort to the Godolphin runner. Despite some opposition from trainer Kieran McLaughlin, Invasor made his U.S. debut in the May 19 GI Pimlico Special H. and, despite looking hopelessly beaten at the quarter pole, stayed on for a 1 1/4-length success. Favored to make it seven of eight for his career, the Argentine-bred stalked the pace from third for the opening three-quarters of a mile. He tackled pacesetter Noble Causeway (Giant's Causeway) with two furlongs to race, opened up as Fernando Jara looked around for the competition and pulled nicely clear. "I asked him a little bit at the three-eighths pole and then he just ran up to the leaders on his own," Jara commented. "I was very confident in this horse." The winner likely goes next in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga Aug. 5. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Alexander Goldrun has stayed at the top of her game mainly due to her turn of acceleration over this trip, which saw her collect the G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp and G1 Hong Kong Cup at Sha Tin at the end of 2004. A victory in this race marked her return to Europe last term and she followed the win with a creditable second to Soviet Song (Ire) in the G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket's July meeting. Back in Britain later that month to conquer the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood, she ran third in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown in September and G1 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp the following month. She was off the board in the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket and the Hong Kong Cup at the end of her 2005 campaign, before finishing fifth on her comeback in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba. Overmatched against Hurricane Run (Ire) in the May 28 G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup back here last time, she came off a seven-length defeat and relished this return to distaff company. Settled in fifth throughout the early stages, she challenged wide as Chelsea Rose got the better of the long-time leader Red Bloom inside the final quarter. Grabbing the former soon after, she gradually asserted and had enough in reserve to contain that rival's game revival close home. Bolger has an identical plan mapped out for the five-year-old this season. "The G1 Nassau S. [at Goodwood Aug. 5] is next and then most likely the G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 9]," he said. "We'll see how she is then and she might go to France [for the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Opera de Longchamp] before another run in Hong Kong." sive so far in 2006, the bay kicked off the session with a victory in the Sunshine Millions Turf at Gulfstream Jan. 28 and came up 3/4 of a length short of victory to the classy English Channel, winner of the Canadian Turf H. Mar. 11. Back in the winner's circle for his latest start, the GII Maker's Mark Mile S. at Keeneland Apr. 14, the Florida-bred was installed the 3-5 choice to make it two straight here. Unhurried in sixth early, the Live Oak homebred moved five wide on the back stretch and advanced on the front rank on the far turn. Exchanging a few bumps with On The Border (Boundary) at the five-sixteenths pole, the seven-year-old swung five wide for the drive and forged to the lead late to win going away.

JAMES SAPARA

Alice & James Sapara

Michael Byrne

This week's accomplishment:

With his wife Alice, Sapara owns Edenwold (Southern Halo), winner of last Sunday's C$1-million Queen's Plate S. and 2005 champion two-year-old colt in Canada.

Birthplace: Killaly, Saskatchewan, Canada

Current Residence: Edmonton, Canada

Primary Business: We had a plant that manufactured housing (modular homes) employing about 450 people that we've just recently sold after 30 years. But I'm not ready to retire; I'm sure I'll find something else.

Of all the horses you have been around, who has been your favorite and why? Brushed Halory. She was a Broad Brush filly that competed in graded-stakes company, made about a half-million dollars. She was very feminine and very laid back--didn't have a mean bone in her body. But every time she went to the track, she put her race hat on.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? I don't want to sound ostentatious, but the problem I have is with the media--they don't do enough on owners. Those are the people that are feeding this industry. It's such a simple thing, and I think we can do more with it.

What was Edenwold named after? I name all my horses after towns in Saskatchewan. Edenwold's a small community of about 300 people.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Cabo San Lucas. We make it down about once a year.

Favorite food or meal? A good Alberta T-bone steak, with an Idaho baked potato, and my wife's homemade mustard beans.

First job? For 25 cents an hour, I filled woodboxes in my little hometown community for the ladies.

Last purchase? A little summer place in the Slocan Valley, BC. It's a place away from everybody on a glacier-fed lake, and the public hasn't found it.

CONGRATULATIONS!

from Fasig-Tipton's own Stakes Winning Star of the Week SHOWING UP. The May 2005 Sales Grad won the $1 Million Colonial Turf Cup S. on June 24.

Congratulations to his connections!

Dance in the Mood gained a measure of revenge, returning to the site of her runner-up finish in the 2004 GI American Oaks to post a most impressive victory in this event, formerly known as the Royal Heroine. No stranger to running against the boys at home, the attractive dark bay was runner-up to Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) in the Tenno Sho in 2004 and was a close fourth to top miler Hat Trick (Jpn) in the Mile Championship last November. Second in the Yomiuri Milers S. Apr. 15, she snapped a 13-race skid with a win in the Victoria Mile May 14 and was most recently fifth, beaten four lengths, to Bullish Luck in the G1 Yasuda Kinen June 4. Kept in the clear throughout, Dance in the Mood made eye-catching progress while deep on the far turn, struck the front at the quarter pole beneath Victor Espinoza and proved much the best. "She was nice and relaxed, but she was just waiting for me to ask her," the winning rider commented. "And when I moved my hands just a little bit, she took off so fast. Next thing I know, I was almost in the lead."

the bay obliged at odds of 11-10 last time out, graduating by eight lengths over the Matt Winn turf course in Louisville June 8. Wasting little time making the switch to stakes competition, Kingship took full advantage of the inside stall, carving out easy splits of :24.36 and :48.99 under a

Off the board in all three starts last year, 2003 Kentucky Derby hero Funny Cide is enjoying a renaissance at the age of six. Things didn't look promising after the chestnut gelding finished seventh in two of his first three starts this term, but he turned it around to finish second in the Apr. 1 GIII Excelsior BC H. at Aqueduct. The New York-bred followed with a victory in the restricted King's Point H. Apr. 30, then finished third in the GIII W.D. Schaefer H. at Pimlico May 20. The crowd's choice in his first foray to Canada, Funny Cide broke sharply from his inside post to set the early pace. Clear of the field as he dashed off a half in

:47.14 and three-quarters in 1:11.48, the veteran was joined by Nolan's Cat at midstretch, but battled back and was drawing away at the wire. "I kind of figured we'd be on the lead," said winning jockey Richie Migliore, who has been aboard Funny Cide for his past four starts. "I knew I had horse. When the challenge came, he met it. He likes to fight. As long as he can see them, they weren't going to beat him." Added co-owner Jack Knowlton, "We've been all over the country, now we've been international with him. He's taken us places we never thought we'd go. It's great being in the winner's circle and it's a real thrill to be a winner at Woodbine." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Baghdaria capped a three-race winning streak with a head victory in the GIII Silverbulletday S. at Louisiana Downs Jan. 14, but faltered in her next two starts. The bay filly weakened to be sixth as the 17-10 chalk in the Feb. 24 Martha Washington S. at Oaklawn Park, and could do no better than fourth in the Mar. 25 Honeybee S. at that track. Making her first start for trainer Tom Amoss in the May 19 GII Black Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico, she improved to be third, and was sent off the slight favorite to bring it up a notch here. Baghdaria was allowed to track second choice Maggie Slew through three-quarters in 1:11.94. She hit the gas at the top of the stretch and ran down the pacesetter in the final yards for a narrow score.

Margins: 10, 3/4, 4. Odds: 0.40, 9.90, 2.30.

Also Ran: Changing Weather. Scratched: Keyed Entry, Fabulous Strike.

Making his first start since running second in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, Henny Hughes was sent off the 2-5 favorite and lived up to his odds, romping home under jockey Joe Bravo. "That's worth waking up in the morning for," Bravo quipped. "He was spectacular. He was well within himself and he couldn't blow out a match after the race. He did it all real easy." The winner of the Tremont S. and the GII Saratoga Special last year, the chestnut ended the campaign with runner-up efforts in the Aug. 27 GI Hopeful and the Oct. 8 GI Champagne. He finished just 1 1/4 lengths behind champion Stevie Wonderboy in the Juvenile, then headed to Dubai, but never made it to the races while overseas. Henny Hughes returned to the U.S. Apr. 1, and trainer Kiaran McLaughlin had him primed for his return. "Kiaran made my job easy," Bravo said. "He had him ready to roll." The late defections of two potential speed horses, Fabulous Strike and Keyed Entry, also helped the cause. Henny Hughes broke sharply from his inside post and pressed last year's GIII Sapling S. hero He's Got Grit through an opening quarter in :22.23. He put a head in front after a half in :44.71 and quickly opened up on the competition, winning as much the best. The final time of 1:08.26 was just two-fifths of a second off the track record set by champion Gilded Time in 1992. The winner will be pointed for the July 31 GIII Amsterdam S. and the Aug. 26 GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga. Click for the brisnet.com chart. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Also Ran: Akarem (GB). Good Surprise (GB), Virginia Woolf (GB), Mutakarrim (GB).

John Oxx is becoming accustomed to saddling the winner of this contest, winning the last two renewals with Mkuzi. While that rival had a gallant cut at making it three in a row, it was stable companion Kastoria who emerged on top of the British raider Collier Hill in a strong renewal. Lightly raced for a five-year-old mare, the flashy chestnut took the Listed Galtres S. at York in August before finishing runner-up to Sweet Stream (Ity) in the G2 Park Hill S. at Doncaster the following month. Second again in the G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp in October, she returned to take the Listed Vintage Crop S. at Navan Apr. 30 before finishing fourth in the G2 Yorkshire Cup in testing conditions back at York last time May 19. Given time to recover from that tiring experience, she raced in rear early here before making her move widest of all on the final turn. Always responding to Mick Kinane's urgings, she ground her way to the front as Mkuzi relinquished inside the final 100 yards and clung gamely to her slim advantage as Collier Hill battled on. Trainer John Oxx said, "She just didn't get home in the very testing ground at York last time. We will aim her now at the [Sept. 16] G1 Irish St Leger here." Fayr Jag had failed to get his picture taken since the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot two years ago, but showed a glimpse of his ability when second in the G2 Diadem S. at Newmarket in September. Fourth on his return in the G2 Duke of York S. at York May 17, he was off the board in the June 5 Listed Leisure S. at Windsor and again in Saturday's renewal of the Golden Jubilee. Showing early dash to stay close to the trail-blazer Celtic Mill in this easier test, he took over from that rival at the quarter pole and had enough in hand as Beckermet found a late surge. Fayr Jag will now be aimed at the G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket in 13 days' time. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Suggestive came out best in a messy affair that saw Nayyir (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) meet the inevitable fate his late-closing style draws with another luckless run. For the winner, this represented a career high to add to the three listed successes he has garnered through the years. Successful in the Listed Fortune S. at Epsom in September, he came back to run second in the Listed Guisborough S. at Redcar the following month. Kept busy on the all-weather and in Dubai during the winter and spring, he returned to Europe to finish sixth in the June 8 Listed John of Gaunt S. at Haydock. Suggestive was positioned in behind the early leaders, but the gaps opened in time and he hooked up with Mac Love inside the final eighth before prevailing in the final strides. Nayyir ran into the back of rivals after finishing with a rattle from rear.

Eyeofthetiger finished third behind Floatyourboat (SAf) and the disqualified Money Bags (SAf) (Rich Man's Gold) in the G1 Cape Derby at Kenilworth Jan. 28 before winning an allowance plate at this track May 12. Fourth behind Elusive Fort (SAf) (Fort Wood) in the June 3 G1 Daily News 2200 back here on his latest start, he gained his revenge with a late rush to hand the Dynasty (Ire) team of Fieldspring Racing and Dean Kannemeyer the ultimate compensation for losing Rabiya (SAf) after last year's renewal. Positioned just behind the pace early, Eyeofthetiger was unleashed as Sushisan was committed in deep stretch and swamped him with a powerful late surge inside the final eighth. "The job is now done," the trainer told sahorseracing.com. "I said to the owners that they may only see the best of him as a four-year old, as he was big and clumsy early on. But, he has come on exceptionally well in recent months. I was initially very concerned about the early pace, but after watching him make up the best part of eight lengths after turning for home in the Daily News 2200 last time out, I felt that anything that beats him in this race will win it."

Budweiser Irish Derby

DERBY DREAMS AT THE CURRAGH

Unlike Darsi, who entered that Classic without championship pretensions on form, having won a minor race at Chantilly May 2, Best Name had his credentials signposted from the outset by Robert Collet. Justifying a bold decision to debut in the G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp in October, he was a short-head second to the subsequent G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud scorer Linda's Lad (GB). He broke his maiden on his sophomore bow in the Listed Prix de Courcelles back at that track Apr. 9 and was doing his best work at the finish of the Chantilly Classic. "He is very mentally-balanced horse and the travelling will not be a problem for him," Collet told PA Sport.

"He is very well and is in perfect shape and perfect health. "He worked very well on Monday and I am sure he can improve for his run at Chantilly." Also from France is Gary Tanaka's G1 Derby Italiano hero Gentlewave (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), who represents the Andre Fabre barn responsible for Hurricane Run. After wins in the Listed Prix Maurice Caillault at Saint-Cloud Mar. 18 and Apr. 17 G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp, he lost his unbeaten tag to Numide (Fr) in the G2 Prix Hocquart back at the latter venue May 8. Supplemented for the Rome Classic, he justified the fee 13 days later with a commanding four-length success. "As always with these races, you wonder how the Italian form is going to translate, but he did it easily and impressively," the owner's Racing Manager Lincoln Collins told PA Sport. "Andre thought he was worth supplementing, so Gary went ahead and did it. We are looking forward to it--it's not our habit to make excuses about anything--so may the best horse win."

A two-time winner at two, Asahi Rising has improved steadily this season while just failing to crack the best of her generation in Japan. A Listed stakes winner Mar. 11, the dark bay led well into the final furlong of the Japanese 1000 Guineas Apr. 9 before weakening to fourth. The granddaughter of Sunday Silence tried her luck in the May 21 Japanese Oaks over 12 furlongs and stayed on well to be a close third. Placed in French Group 3 competition last September, Attima has proved elusive in her two U.S. appearances, a 3 1/2-length allowance score May 10 prior to a 1 1/4-length success over Foxysox in the GII Honeymoon Breeders' Cup H. June 4. On the negative side of the ledger, Victor Espinoza, aboard for her last two starts, deserts for the Japanese invader. Wait A While broke her maiden on her lone previous try over the turf at Belmont last September and was most recently the easy 4 1/2-length winner of the off-the-turf GIII Sands Point S. in New York June 3.

2	Sharp Lisa	Dixieland Band	O'Neill	6-1
3	Freakin Streakin	Tactical Advantage	J Canani	10-1
4	Proposed	Benchmark	Shirreffs	3-1
5	Star Parade (Arg)	Parade Marshal	Vienna	2-1
6	Bardy Woman	Unusual Heat	Abrams	30-1
7	Hollywood Story	Wild Rush	Shirreffs	4-1

The winner of the GII El Encino S. and runner-up in the GI Santa Maria H. to kick off the year, Proposed took a short break after running fourth behind Healthy Addiction in the Mar. 11 GI Santa Margarita H. She came back to take the Apr. 30 B. Thoughtful S. at Hollywood and made it two in a row with a game head score over Star Parade in the June 3 GII Milady BC H. The four-year-old is a perfect four-for-four at Hollywood. "It would be nice to get a Grade I win for her," trainer John Shirreffs said. Star Parade has also been very effective at this track, winning four of her eight starts, including a front-running 1 3/4-length tally over Hollywood Story in the May 7 GIII Hawthorne H. The seven-year-old mare will give the free-running Healthy Addiction something to think about early. That mare wired the field in the Santa Margarita, but couldn't get loose in the Hawthorne and ended up a well-beaten third. Hollywood Story switched to the turf for her last start, the May 29 GI Gamely BC S., and finished well to be fourth.

9	Vortex (GB)	Danehill	Kelleway	15-1
10	Seattle Buddy	Seattle Slew	Frousiakis	30-1

Three-for-four this year, Siren Lure shoulders top weight of 121 pounds after a rallying win in the May 13 GIII Los Angeles H. going six furlongs over this track. The five-year-old gelding is two-for-two at Hollywood and prepped for this test with a bullet five furlongs in :59 3/5 June 27. Veteran Tricky Trevor bids for his first Grade I victory at the ripe old age of seven. Six-for-10 last season, the dark bay was off the board in his first two starts this term, but shipped cross country to post a mild 9-1 upset in the May 6 GII Churchill Downs H. He followed up with a second in the June 4 GIII Bay Meadows BC Sprint H. Vortex ships in from Britain for his first go at an American stakes. A Group 3 winner on the turf at Newmarket last year, the seven-year-old was also third in a Group 3 event on the Lingfield all-weather track last July. Second in three of his last five starts, he comes off a fifth-place finish behind Ad Valorem in the June 20 G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot. "He has won 10 of 17 on the dirt and won the biggest European dirt race in Sweden [the 2004 Nickes Minneslopning S. at Taby]," said trainer Gay Kellewayl. "He has been to Sweden and Japan, so he is well-traveled. I hope he gets the right trip on the right surface."

Evergreen The Tin Man is arguably better than ever at the age of eight. The winner of this event in 2002, the dark bay returned from a 15-month absence to win a pair of starts at Santa Anita over the winter, including the GII San Marcos S. Jan. 22. He makes his first start since finishing runner-up after setting the pace in the G1 Dubai Duty Free S. Mar. 25. "He's ready," trainer Richard Mandella said. "It's time to go and see where he's at." Fourty Niners Son has yet to win in four tries over today's trip and could be using this as a steppingstone to something a touch longer. Nonetheless, the chestnut was third by a half-length in this last year and missed by just a neck to Hendrix in his seasonal debut over 8 1/2 panels May 20.

Aidan O'Brien, responsible for seven of the last nine winners of this, including King of Kings (Ire), Bernstein, Rock of Gibraltar (Ire), Hold That Tiger, Antonius Pius and George Washington (Ire), relies on a sole challenger this time in Holy Roman Emperor. Like Rock of Gibraltar, he enters this after an off-the-board effort in Royal Ascot's June 20 G2 Coventry S. and needs to bury that disappointment, having looked potentially smart when winning on debut at Leopardstown 13 days previously. Excellent Art is on the upgrade, winning a Newmarket maiden on debut Apr. 20 before handing the subsequent G2 Norfolk S. third Cav Okay (Ire) a nine-length beating in a Sandown conditions event run on heavy ground last time May 29.

Aspectus took last year's G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at this track in October before returning to add the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial to his tally at Krefeld Apr. 23. He was beaten a head by Royal Power (Ire) in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen back here May 14, but blotted his copybook when failing to land a blow and finishing down the field in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly last time June 4. Imonso represents the Gestut Schlenderhan-Peter Schiergen axis responsible for last year's scorer Konigstiger (Ger) and he looked a work in progress when winning the June 5 G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich on his latest start. Schiergen also saddles Lauro, who made a successful overseas foray latest when collecting the May 31 Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp.

Margins: 1, HD, NO. Odds: 2.15, 3.65, 14.90.

Sabre Baby enjoyed a solid winter in the Sunshine State, winning three out of five starts at Gulfstream, including an allowance Apr. 21. The bay placed second in a $75,000 optional tagger at Belmont May 24 and was the lukewarm choice to notch this one. With Cornelio Velasquez aboard, he pressed Chilly Rooster while second, made it to the front in the stretch and edged clear late.

1st-BEL, $45,000, Alw, NW2L, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:16 3/5, ft.

TUFFERTIGER (g, 4, Tiger Ridge--Tuffer Trick, by Western Trick), a Monmouth maiden winner last summer, kicked off his four-year-old campaign with a second-place finish at Keeneland Apr. 23. He repeated that effort in his Belmont debut last time May 27 and was even-money to get his picture taken here. The bay settled toward the back of the pack, took the overland route on the turn for home and rallied to a 1 1/2-length victory. Elements (Charismatic) was second best. Lifetime Record: 5-2-3-0, $74,780.

The speedy Pommies Frites has really come into her own this term under the tutelage of trainer Bill Mott. She reeled off consecutive allowance wins at Gulfstream Feb. 20 and Mar. 31, then added Aqueeduct's GIII Beaugay H. Apr. 29. Sent off at odds of 3-1 in the GII Just A Game H. on the Belmont S. undercard, she led by as many as eight lengths, but just got nailed on the wire to finish second by a neck to Gorella (Fr). Facing much softer here, she stalked the early leader in second, gained the lead before the half-mile marker and had enough left in the tank to hold off the fast-closing Sabellina. Miracle Man hit the board in three stakes over the Monmouth main track last term, including a second-place finish in the Coronado's Quest S. and a third-place finish in the Spend a Buck S. He kicked off the new year with a Gulfstream optional claiming tally Mar. 19, but could do no better than sixth in Calder's Ponche H. Apr. 29. The bay returned to Monmouth with a fourth-place finish in the Frisk Me Now S. May 27 and was overlooked at the windows here for his turf debut. Kept close to the lead, he began to rally on the turn for home and was able to fight his way to the front in the shadow of the wire.

Budget Woes Could Halt Monmouth Racing:

Monmouth Park was able to hold its scheduled card of Thoroughbred racing yesterday, but the gates closed at 6 p.m. last night. The track had to call off its evening simulcasting program because the ongoing dispute over the state budget has resulted in a government shut-down, forcing the New Jersey Racing Commission to suspend operations. "The racetracks are required to have state regulators from the Racing Commission in order to conduct live, simulcast or internet wagering," explained Dennis Dowd, senior vice president of racing for the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority. "Without those regulators we were left with no option but to close." There is hope, however, that the doors will be reopened today. "We are in the process of drafting the paperwork to take to the appellate division, requesting permission to continue racing," said Dennis Drazin, the president of the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association. "The casino industry has a hearing before the appellate division panel after 4 p.m. [today], and they have been given permission to continue conducting business until that time. We are trying to get them to do the same for racing. We are hoping to get a decision that will let us race [today]." An executive order was issued yesterday afternoon, stating that all "non-essential" services be shut down "in an orderly fashion." According to Dowd, that process will take more than a day to accomplish. "We have drawn the races through Tuesday," Dowd said. "I don't believe we can close in an orderly fashion until we race out the horses that have already entered. My educated guess is that the judge will agree, and we are planning to race [today]." A decision on the horsemen's petition was expected to be reached by midnight last night.

ARAAFA SUSSEX-BOUND Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar’s Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) will be aimed at the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2, it was announced yesterday.

Araafa www.bbc.co.uk

Trainer Jeremy Noseda revealed that the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James’s Palace S. hero has trained well since the Royal meeting. Noseda had considered Saturday’s G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown, but he has decided to keep the colt at a mile. “Araafa has come out of his Royal Ascot race in great order,” Noseda commented. “I am delighted with how he has taken the St James’s Palace S. For a couple of days, we toyed with the idea of having a crack at the Eclipse. However, after discussions with his owners Saleh Al Homeizi and Imad Al Sagar and also their racing manager Tony Nerses, we’ve decided to go to the Sussex. Firstly, it is the most obvious target for the horse, and secondly, in our opinion, it provides an ideal spacing in between his races. We feel that it will allow the horse to progress and give him an opportunity to still be at his best in autumn.”

UVA FRALOGA (GB) (Nashwan) is pitched into this competitive handicap by trainer Jim Bolger, having graduated in an extended mile maiden at Cork last month. Her dam is a half to Pivotal (GB), so the step up in trip is an unknown, but Nashwan may have imparted enough stamina for her to last.

6-time Gr.1 winner by Sadler’s Wells, like sensational young sire Montjeu.

Admiral's Cruise was kicking around in handicap company last term, holding his own in competitive heats at the major tracks. Pitched into a higher level on his four-year-old return, he was not disgraced when sixth in the G3 Gordon Richards S. at Sandown Apr. 28 before winning a conditions race on the Rowley Mile at this venue May 13. Disappointing when only fourth in the Listed Buckhounds S. at Ascot a fortnight later, he rebounded with an impressive effort here, stalking the early leaders before arriving at the head of affairs full of run at the quarter pole. Allowed to stretch out by Jimmy Fortune exiting the "dip," he quickly put his seal on the contest as Ouninpohja chased in vain.

Librettist was fifth in the 2004 G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket before injury intervened to curtail a sophomore campaign. Returning to win a Nottingham conditions event June 7, he made light work of this stepping stone under a confident Frankie Dettori. Settled off the furious early speed duel, he made up ground effortlessly at the top of the stretch to lead with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining. Hope'n'Charity was highly impressive at Leicester on debut June 17 and stepped up to the plate as the heavily supported favorite on her stakes bow. On the front end early, she always held the edge under Philip Robinson. Satulagi pressed inside the final quarter, but the winner asserted in the final uphill yards. "She was very fresh, but she did it well and is quick enough," trainer Clive Cox told PA Sport. "I have always thought a lot of her and she is going places. On pedigree, she should get seven furlongs and I have always thought she would. She was so fresh and free here you might not think so, but I would put that down to her being so well in herself."

Toldo, who was stepped up to extended distances for the first time at the end of last term, defied his odds of 33-1 to scoop this valuable prize. He proved he could handle a staying test with a 14-length score over the St Leger trip at Doncaster in October and had added to that score in an Ascot handicap May 27. Fifth at Haydock in his most recent start June 10, he was sent to the front in the early going of this one by Nelson de Souza before surrendering the advantage to Acropolis (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in the back straight. Reeling in that rival with three furlongs remaining, he galloped relentlessly all the way to the post, shrugging off the attentions of Greenwich Meantime to secure the victory as River Alhaarth closed too late.

Margins: NK, SHD, 3. Odds: 3.80, 1.30, 2.40.

Also ran: Sadler's Star (Ger), Atamane (Ger).

Dickens was fourth behind the subsequent G1 Deutschland-Preis runner-up Schiaparelli (Ger) in the Listed Grosser Preis der Hannoverschen Volksbank at Hannover last time June 5 and, without a rival of that calibre, earned his place in the line-up for the July 23 G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg. Stalking the early pace, he rolled by the long-time leader Elcanos in the final 150 yards before holding the wide challenge of Felino.
