NO DOUBTING THOMAS

Yesterday's G1 Budweiser Irish Derby had an open look beforehand, but it was clear cut as soon as Kieren

Fallon shook loose on Susan Magnier and Michael Tabor's Dylan Thomas (Ire) (Danehill) to provide Ballydoyle with a fourth renewal of The Curragh Classic. Dylan Thomas was third in a thrilling finale to the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby, but no photo was required this time; the 9-2 pick had taken full command inside the final eighth and stretched away to beat Gentlewave (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) by 3½ lengths. "He acted better around here than at Epsom and it was a different ball game," Fallon said. "He was electric when he got the gaps and, when I asked him to quicken, he gave me some feeling." MISS AMERICA

Wait a While (Maria's Mon) overcame a cross-country sojourn and a claim of foul to secure her first Grade I

Wait a While Horsephotos

success in Sunday's American Oaks Invitational at Hollywood Park. Representing the formidable Todd Pletcher barn, the roan came from off the pace to win in 1:59.1. Only 1/10th of a second slower than Cesario's standard-setting mark set last year. Wait a While's final time proved faster than previous winners Megahertz, Ticker Tape and Dimitrova. A winner in her only prior start on the grass, a five-length romp in maiden company at Belmont last fall, the $260,000 OBSFEB juvenile recorded her third victory of the year here. cont. p2

TRUE HOLLYWOOD STORY

The build up to yesterday's GI Vanity Invitational H. at Hollywood Park couldn't have been more dramatic if it had been scripted. Soon after loading, Star Parade (Arg) (Parade Marshal) became uneasy in the stalls and lodged her left hind leg in the gate. Delaying the start for over 10 minutes while the remaining jockeys dismounted, the Argentine mare was inevitably scratched, before the rest of the field was able to get back to the task at hand. With all the pre-race drama seemingly left behind, the race itself also proved eventful with Hollywood Story (Wild Rush) coming from well off the pace to get the win despite taking the scenic route. Settled behind the early pace carved out by Healthy Addiction, Hollywood Story spent most of the early going on the inside, but swung out on the second turn to narrow the distance between herself and the front rank. Racing well within herself, and with the front-runner in her sights, the dark bay pushed ahead of her game foe, while drifting out in the drive. Despite the extra yardage, the mare outfinished Healthy Addiction, with GI Las Virgenes S. winner Sharp Lisa a well-beaten third. Explaining the errant stretch drive, David Flores said, "I got to the top of the lane and she started looking around. That kind of got me a little worried, because if she gets headed, she acts a little different." cont. p3

Budweiser Irish Derby

Dylan Coming into His Own..

Dylan Thomas was given time to develop into his sizeable frame at two and rewarded that policy by beating subsequent G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen scorer Royal Power (Ire) in the Irish Breeders Foal Levy S. at this track in September. Runner-up in the G3 Autumn S. at Salisbury in early October, he could manage only sixth place in the G1 Racing Post Trophy run on testing ground at Doncaster a fortnight later. While the majority of the Ballydoyle colts were needing their first outings in the spring, he proved too strong for his rivals in the G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 14, was beaten less than a neck in the Blue Riband. Well positioned from the outset by Fallon, he scraped the paint of the rail behind the early leaders, but was shuffled back on the final turn as the heat was turned up. Staying on the inner, he found a seam there and quickened impressively to swamp the enterprisingly ridden Heliostatic (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) once switched out approaching the eighth pole. Clear in a matter of strides, he was untouched by the whip and was beyond recall as Gentlewave outstayed Best Alibi for the runner's-up spot. "He went down nice and calm and traveled sweetly through the race," Fallon remarked. "We didn't go very quick earlier on and I was able to get him switched off and use no gas at all. When I needed it, he produced a turn of foot and he was very impressive when I got the gaps. He had the form at Epsom on a course he didn't like--Johnny [Murtagh] said he couldn't get him on the right lead going around there. It's very hard to compare him with [last year's winner] Hurricane Run, but I think this fellow will go on to do great things as well. The sky's the limit for this horse." Wait a While proved she loved the mud, winning three of four starts over the soft going, but was somewhat of a unknown quality on the grass. The Arindel Farm representative kicked off the year with a 14-length romp in the slop in Gulfstream's nine-furlong GII Davona Dale S. Feb. 4, but had to settle for third in the GII Bonnie Miss S. over that track and trip Mar. 5. Second to Saturday's GI Mother Goose S. heroine Bushfire in the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 8, she came home a respectable fourth, but was moved up to third via disqualification, in the GI Kentucky Oaks May. 5. An easy winner in the off-the-turf GIII Sands Point S. at Belmont June 3, the filly was installed the 5-2 third choice for her first try on the grass as a sophomore. Settled off the pace in fourth, the filly took over turning for home and rolled home the easy winner. ers' Cup H. May 29, she didn't let those down who backed her this time. Star Parade, who was scratched after lodging her rear hind leg in the gate door, was walking well after the incident, according to trainer Darrell Vienna. "She's moving OK now, but she lost plenty of hide on that left hock," he said. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Showing that he hasn't lost a step since celebrating his eighth birthday, The Tin Man ran his 2006 record to two-for-three with this front-running performance. The dark bay capped off his 2005 campaign with a fourth-place finish in the Oct. 3 GI Clement L. Hirsch H. at Santa Anita and a win in a Santa Anita allowance test Dec. 28. He battled to a one-length victory in his 2006 opener, the Jan. 22 GII San Marcos S., then shipped to the UAE and ran second to the highly respected David Junior in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Duty Free H. Trainer Richard Mandella gave the veteran gelding a break after that international junket, bringing him back here off a series of steady works. The Tin Man was eager to go in his return, carrying jockey Victor Espinoza right to the front and galloping along through six furlongs in 1:10.96. A length and a half in front at the eighth pole, he held off the late charge of Hendrix for a narrow score. "The old man, boy he just likes to run--loves to run," Espinoza said. "He has such a big heart." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Siren Lure showed enough class to win half of 10 starts last term, including a pair of stakes along the California circuit. A winner in his first go of the year in the Imperial Luck II H. down the hill at Santa Anita Jan. 25, the gelding made it two straight in an off-the-turf edition of the Daytona H. Feb. 19. A respectable third in that track's grassy GIII San Simeon H. Apr. 22, he returned to his winning ways when placed back on the dirt for the six-furlong GIII Los Angeles H. here May 13. Well respected this time, the bay was reserved off quick early fractions before mounting his challenge while racing three deep. Up to take command midstretch, the gelding held it together late, while under solid urging, to collect his first Grade I stakes victory. "We thought there would be several horses in front of us, because there's so much pace," said Alex Solis. "So I decided to let him make his move around the turn like he always does, and he came through."

Aspectus buried the disappointment of a fruitless trip to France for the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club by placing himself back amongst his country's elite. He rose to prominence here in October when annexing Germany's premier end-of-season juvenile contest, the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten, and added the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial to his tally on his sophomore debut at Krefeld Apr. 23. He found only Royal Power (Ire) a head too strong in the May 14 G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) back at this venue before trailing in the Chantilly Classic last time June 4. Rebounding in this competitive renewal, he raced in third and, when asked to quicken at the top of the stretch, soon had the measure of Lauro. Despite veering left inside the final quarter, he was always in control and needed only to be kept straight by Andrasch Starke to prevail.

Holy Roman Emperor provided Aidan O'Brien with his eighth success in the last 10 years. He had looked a bright prospect when winning a Leopardstown maiden on debut June 7 and was shipped in to Royal Ascot with a major reputation ahead of the G2 Coventry S. 13 days later. But he was one of many sufferers of a pronounced bias at the renovated Berkshire track and was unable to land a blow in the center away from the action down the stands' side. This time, he was restrained by Kieren Fallon in mid-pack off the strong fractions set by Wayne Lordan and the freewheeling Drayton. As that rival put his opponents to the sword approaching the quarter pole, Holy Roman Emperor reached top gear and duly inhaled the long-time leader inside the final 75 yards. O'Brien revealed that Holy Roman Emperor will be aimed at the G1 Phoenix S. at this track Aug. 13. Click for the brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree or the Racing Post race chart.

Full of run when given the green light, the gelding was rolling late to get up for the victory. "I was out there pretty wide and I wasn't sure if we got there," said winning jockey Earlie Fires. Rebel Rebel, a winner at the listed level in England last year, was good enough for a runner-up finish in last year's G1 2000 Guineas, but needed some time to come into his own. Fourth in his final European start in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas last May, the Irish-bred was third to the classy English Channel in his U.S. debut and his only start for trainer Bobby Frankel the GIII Virginia Derby in July. A winner over the Belmont sod facing easier company in a $75,000 optional claimer in October, the colt concluded the season with a flat seventh in the Commonwealth Turf Cup at Churchill one month later. A non-threatening sixth in the GII San Marcos H. Jan. 22, Rebel Rebel closed to be second in the one-mile Lure H. next time out in the Apr. 1, but was over his head last time out when fifth in the GII Dixie H. at Pimlico May 20. He was installed the 5-2 second choice to make amends here. Rated off the pace early, Rebel Rebel came running 1 1/2 furlongs from home, took command in deep stretch and drew clear to record his first graded-stakes victory. "[Edgar] Prado called me last night and told me he wanted to take the horse off the pace," said trainer Richard Dutrow Jr., explaining the tactic switch. "He usually lies close, but I told him to go on ahead and do it. I thought it was a great idea." Dutrow added, "He really likes this course. The only two times he's won in this country have been here. He's getting a little bit better. There was never anything wrong with him, we were just trying to pick the right spots." *Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}) finished first but was disqualified and placed last.

An easy winner of the May 27 Listed Festa-Rennen at Baden-Baden, Sexy Lady posted a lifetime best and maintained her unbeaten sophomore record after the intervention of the local stewards in this messy affair. Settled off the pace in rear through the slow early fractions, she took closer order after halfway and was ridden out from the eighth pole to take second behind the subsequently demoted Mandesha. The winner of the Gill British Columbia Derby last September at odds of 41-1, Spaghetti Mouse was sidelined after that upset score. He returned to be third in a pair of Hastings stakes events Apr. 14 and May 22, then dropped into allowance company. Rank early in that June 11 appearance, he tired to be eighth behind 1-2 finishers Shacane (Jumron {GB}) and Trick of the North (Western Trick), and was once again a longshot here. The bay gelding settled in fourth off tepid early splits, went after the leaders as they raced down the stretch and just got up to beat Quiet Cash on the line. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Monday, Belmont Park, post time: 2:04 p.m. EDT
GENUINE RISK BREEDERS' CUP H.-GII, $150,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Behaving Badly	Pioneering	Baffert	1-2
2	Stormy Kiss (Arg)	Bernstein	Tagg	5-2
3	Khalila	Elusive Quality	McLaughlin	4-1
4	Swap Fliparoo	Exchange Rate	H A Jerkens	10-1

A winner of seven of 10 lifetime starts, Behaving Badly is 0-for-two outside California and according to trainer Bob Baffert, this is her last chance to pick up a victory on the road. "If she doesn't win, I'll keep her in California," he confirmed. Baffert opted to send the bay east for the Genuine Risk, thereby bypassing Saturday's GII A Gleam H., after the weight assignments were announced. "She picked up a pound for the A Gleam coming off a loss [second in Churchill's GI Humana Distaff May 6]," he said. "For the Genuine Risk, she dropped a pound, which is the right thing to do. I'm just looking for her best interest down the road."

Monday, Woodbine, post time: 3:58 p.m. EDT
KING EDWARD BREEDERS' CUP S.-GII, C$300,000,

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	T.D. Vance	Rahy	SCRATCH
2	Le Cinquieme Essai	Fastness (Ire)	Nielsen	6-1
3	Tiganello (Ger)	Acatenango (Ger)	Pletcher	7-2
4	Jader (Ire)	Monashee Mountain	Attfield	10-1
5	Sky Conqueror	Sky Classic	Banach	6-1
6	Shoal Water	Smart Strike	Frostad	8-1
7	Diamond Green (Fr)	Green Desery	Frankel	2-1

Shoal Water was good enough to take the GIII Saranac H. at Saratoga two years ago, but has spent most of the time since at this venue. In the money in three graded stakes over this turf course, including a close-up second in the GII King Edward Breeders' Cup H. last June, he came home a winner in his latest try, the 1 3/8-mile GII Chinese Cultural Cup last July. Le Cinquieme Essai, second to Remarkable News in the GIII Connaught Cup May 28, should not be overlooked here given that the winner of that race finished a game second in yesterday's GIII Poker S. at Belmont.

Desire to Excel, a debut winner sprinting 4 1/2 furlongs at Aqueduct Apr. 19, was the longest shot on the board making her stakes debut second time out. The chestnut filly chased the pace through fractions of :22.46 and :45.73
before jetting clear down the stretch for an easy win. "We gave her a month [after her debut] to develop and it looks like everything we did worked," said winning trainer Kelly Breen.

"She's pretty high on herself. We took a shot today and it worked. We'll probably look at some races at Saratoga for her." Winning jockey Mike Smith added, "Everybody else was washing out and she didn't raise a hair. I was more nervous than she was."

DEAN'S LIST (f, 3, Holy Bull--Top Marks {SW, $109,131}, by Marquetry) hit the board in three of four tries on the main track this term, most recently running a distant second going a mile at Belmont June 4, but found her niche when trying turf for the first time here. Never far from the front, the 6-1 chance grabbed a short lead as they straightened for home and was all out to get to the wire 3/4 of a length ahead of even-money Captive Melody (Unbridled's Song). Lifetime Record: 9-1-2-2, $53,141.

O/B-J Mack Robinson (KY). T-Frank A Alexander.

Plans Developing for Jazil:

GI Belmont S. hero Jazil (Seeking the Gold) kicked off preparations for the second half of the season with a crisp four-furlong work in :49.63 at Belmont Park Saturday morning. Working in company with another Shadwell colorbearer, Jazil, who was partnered by rider Simon Harris, had the 23rd fastest of 46 works at the distance. "It was a perfect work," trainer Kieran McLaughlin told the Daily Racing Form. Explaining the need for a workmate, the trainer added, "If he doesn't go in company, he's eligible to go in 53." According to McLaughlin, the colt is likely to make his next start in the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga July 29, although the conditioner has not ruled out training the bay straight up to the GI Travers S. Aug. 26. "He's doing great, I don't want anybody to think there's anything wrong," said McLaughlin. "The Jim Dandy may have Bernardini, Blue Grass Cat, or Sunriver in it. If they all run in there, eight of them get hot and dirty and only one comes away happy."

New Jersey Racing Gets Go-Ahead:

Horse racing will continue in New Jersey despite the ongoing state government shutdown. Attorney Mike Schottland, acting on behalf of the New Jersey Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association and the Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association, filed a motion Saturday night, requesting a stay of the executive order that would have suspended both live racing and simulcasting at Monmouth Park and the Meadowlands during the shutdown. In response, Judge Stephen Skillman of the New Jersey appellate court issued a ruling that will allow the tracks to remain open, at least through Tuesday. "We will keep our horsemen, guests and employees apprised of the status of live and simulcast racing at both racetracks beyond the July 4 holiday card as soon as we are informed," said Dennis Dowd, senior vice president of racing for the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority. First post time at Monmouth will be 12:50 p.m. both Monday and Tuesday.

A trio of graded stakes winners--Buddy Gil (Eastern Echo), Don't Get Mad (Stephen Got Even) and Greater Good (Intidab)--will meet today in a 7 1/2-furlong $100,000 optional claiming event at Churchill Downs. GII Indiana Derby winner Don't Get Mad has been installed the 6-5 morning line choice, while another Derby winner, Buddy Gil, winner of Santa Anita's version in 2003, is the 3-1 second choice. Both horses, who are coming into this race off lengthy layoffs, will be saddled by new trainers. Don't Get Mad has returned to the barn of Paul McGee, who trained him briefly as a two-year-old, and Buddy Gil, who was recently added to Bill Mott's shedrow. Greater Good, winner of last year's GIII Rebel S. over Rockport Harbor, is looking to break a 10-race losing streak.

The tepid favorite was rushed out to set the pace through fractions of :21.41 and :44.59 and opened up 2 1/2 lengths on the field leaving the backstretch before determinedly holding off Coy Coyote and My List for the narrow victory. "She's sharp, she's fast," jockey Ray Sabourin said of the winner. "She broke like a rocket, we got to the rail and the rest was history." Winning trainer John Ross was also happy with his filly's effort. "With young horses, you see it early," Ross said. "She had some class and she had a nice attitude. She gallops and enjoys her job. She showed a little grit here today."

Third in the GIII Stanford BC H. at Bay Meadows last March, Fantastic Spain was beaten just a neck when second in a 10-furlong optional claimer on the grass at Hollywood Apr. 22, then went to the bench. The bay returned after more than nine months on the sidelines to be second by less than a length in a Feb. 1 optional claimer at 10 panels, but disappeared again after that effort. The odds-on chalk in this comeback attempt, he rated in fifth as Distorted loafed along on the lead. Sophomores generally find it hard to break through in these contests until late summer and the fall, but Dandy Man has achieved an early ascendancy over the hardened veterans. Con Collins saddled the dam to inflict the sole juvenile defeat on King of Kings (Ire) in the G3 Anglesey S. here in 1997, and he knew he had something special before Dandy Man's success in the Listed Tipperary S. last August. Only fifth behind Art Museum in the Listed Blenheim S. over six furlongs of this circuit the following month, he returned to finish runner-up to Moon Unit (Ire) in the Apr. 22 Listed Woodlands S. at Naas before delivering on his early promise with a win in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket May 6. He faced an impossible task drawn high against Takeover Target (Aus) in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot last Tuesday, but still managed to share fourth place, beaten less than a length. Breaking sharply here, he took a tow from the peerless starter Osterhase before grinding past that rival in the final 200 yards to be out of range of the staying-on Benbaun. "He ran a hell of a race for a three-year-old in the King's Stand and it was the draw that beat him," commented the trainer's daughter Tracey Collins. "We'll give him a break now and bring him back for the G1 Nunthorpe S. [at York Aug. 24]."

Mustameet, a stalwart of the Kevin Prendergast stable, delivered again on the big day. While his first stakes score in the G3 Gladness S. at this venue last April was his sole success last term, he has emerged in 2006 as a potent force over a mile, collecting the Listed Heritage S. at Leopardstown Apr. 23 before returning there to finish fourth in the May 14 Listed Amethyst S. Back over that track and trip last time, he bested subsequent G1 Pretty Polly S. runner-up Chelsea Rose (Ire) in the June 7 Glencairn S., and turned this seemingly competitive affair into a procession. Settled just off the pace by a confident Declan McDonogh, he delivered his surge wide, rallied to the front at the furlong marker and was clear of the staying-on Arch Rebel.

+ PELICAN KEY (IRE) (f, 2, Mujadil--Guana Bay {GB}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), a €130,000 GOFORB yearling, arrived at the track with stable confidence and was nibbled down to 13-2 for this first go. Recovering from a sluggish start to keep sight of the leaders, she was pushed along to challenge at the distance and was held together late to best Princess Ileana (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}) by a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £12,464. O-Khalifa Dasmal; B-Patrick Gleeson; T-David Simcock.

Windsor, 3.35, Hcp, £20,000, 3yo, 10f 7ydsT, 2:03.69, gd/fm.

IMPERIAL STAR (IRE) (c, 3, Fantastic Light--Out West {SW-Eng}, by Gone West), a course-and-distance maiden winner June 19, was ridden patiently in rear. Angled out to challenge at the distance, the 13-8 favorite drove to a 1 1/4-length win from Salute Him (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre). A 220,000gns TATOCT yearling, he is a 1/2 to Motivator (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), Hwt. 3yo-Eng at 11-14f, MG1SW-Eng & G1SP-Ire, $2,166,659. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £16,350.
