DON'T CROSS THIS CHANNEL

There are some channels you just don't want to cross. English Channel (Smart Strike) had to settle for fourth behind Cacique (Ire) (Danehill) and Relaxed Gesture (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) in the June 10 GI Manhattan H. at Belmont Park, but turned the tables on those rivals to win yesterday's GI United Nations S. at Monmouth Park in a game effort. Compromised by a glacial pace in the Manhattan, English Channel fought jockey John Velazquez as he hounded Cacique through six furlongs in 1:16 3/5 and a mile in 1:40 2/5. He never quit, but lacked a killer late punch and was beaten a half length for all the money. "In his last race, he never had the chance to relax," Velazquez explained. "He was rank the whole time and he didn't have any kick at the end. This time he got to settle behind horses and relax, and when I asked him, he was there for me." U.N. cont. p2

DAVID SLINGSHOTS TO CORAL-ECLIPSE WIN

Covering all the bases paid off for owner David Sullivan's Roldvale Ltd. and stable star David Junior (Pleasant Tap). Connections blamed a lack of pace for the colt's below-par fourth in the June 21 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot, but ensured that was not an issue in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown yesterday, and earned another success at the highest level. Roldvale purchased some guaranteed gas in Royal Alchemist (GB) (Kingsinger {Ire}) after the Prince of Wales's, and she supplied the necessary fractions for her barnmate; David Junior delivered a last-to-first flourish under Jamie Spencer to best Notnowcato (GB) (Inchinator {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths. But Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) suffered a luckless run as the 2-1 choice, stumbling as she ran into traffic in the straight before coasting home in fifth. "It's disappointing for her--she's come here as a worthy favorite and hasn't been able to show what she showed at Ascot," trainer Ed Dunlop said. "When she stumbled, it was race gone." GOLDEN MAN

Becoming just the second horse in its 67-year history to win it back-to-back, Lava Man (Slew City Slew) held off the resurgent Ace Blue (Brz) (Coax Me Clyde) to win yesterday's GI Hollywood Gold Cup by a whisker. But jockey Corey Nakatani was not surprised at the outcome of the photo. "I thought I had it," Nakatani said. "He was trying, he was putting his heart out there. I thought I got the bob. [Jockey Victor Espinoza, aboard Ace Blue] was coming, but Lava Man showed he was the best." It was the fifth straight victory for the Cal-bred five-year-old, who was giving 11 pounds to the runner-up. But he will have to go one better to match the feat of Native Diver, who won the Gold Cup three straight times, from 1965-67. Gold Cup cont. p3

Pace Makes the Race...

Freshened after finishing fifth in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Turf, English Channel was able to sit off honest fractions in his first two starts this season, winning the Mar. 11 Canadian Turf H. at Gulfstream by 3/4 of a length over Miesque's Approval and besting Cacique by a half-length in the May 6 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill Downs. Looking to rebound from his loss in the Manhattan, the chestnut colt settled in fourth as Shake the Bank (Sandpit {Brz}), the rabbit for defending U.N. champ Better Talk Now (Talkin Man), cut out six furlongs in a solid 1:11.92 and a mile in 1:36. The 84-1 pacesetter threw in the towel on the far turn, but English Channel was poised to strike, driving to the front as they straightened for home. He was joined by Cacique as they raced down the lane, but refused to budge and was edging away at the finish. "I was a little bit concerned on the first turn, because he was a little bit rank," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "But by the time they had gone by the stands for the first time, he had settled in. He dropped his head and I knew he was fine." Pletcher added that the four-year-old will be pointed for either the Aug. 12 GI Arlington Million, or the GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. at Saratoga the same afternoon. Relaxed Gesture, the crowd's 19-10 chalk, closed from fifth to be third while never threatening the top two. Better Talk Now couldn't take advantage of the early fractions set by his stablemate. Wide into the stretch, he showed little down the lane, finishing fifth.  David Junior caused an upset when winning his first Group 1, besting a deep field in the Champion S. last October, but was the crowd's second choice this time. The chestnut was given a break after his Champion score, and there were no cobwebs in evidence on his return in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Duty Free, where he produced a scintillating display to easily beat The Tin Man. Connections were left flat after his European comeback at the Royal meeting, but, given the needed pace this time, he was able to conserve his energy before unwinding widest of all in the straight. Striking the front at the furlong marker, he avoided the scrimmaging in the main pack which hampered Ouija Board and Notnowcato, and was beyond reach at the wire. Trainer Brian Meehan said, "He's a wonderful horse and I suppose you've got to say the pace in the Prince of Wales's caught him out. Michael Tebbutt did a marvelous job on Royal Alchemist and did what we required and all credit to my team, who've worked hard and produced the horse pretty quick from Ascot." An 8 3/4-length hero of the 2005 Gold Cup, Lava Man ended the campaign with off-the-board efforts in the Oct. 1 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and Nov. 26 G1 Japan Cup Dirt. He bounced back to open 2006 with a win in the Jan. 28 Sunshine Millions Classic and has been unbeatable since. A narrow winner over Magnum (El Compinche {Arg}) in the Mar. 4 GI Santa Anita H., the gelding scored easily in the restricted Apr. 30 Khaled S. on the turf, and wired the field in his latest, the June 10 GI Charlie Whittingham H. at the Gold Cup distance on the grass. The heavy chalk to continue his streak here, Lava Man stumbled at the start, but was with the leaders one jump from the gate. He settled behind Magnum and Ace Blue early and was forced to steady on the first turn, then shifted over a path and was under a hold as he tracked the pace. The crowd's choice went after the frontrunners as they raced out of the final bend and looked to have it in hand despite the gallant performance of Magnum on the rail, but Ace Blue came back as they neared the wire and missed posting the upset by the smallest margin. Wildcat Bettie B started her career with a maiden score at Prairie Meadows and bolted in a stakes at Canterbury in her second start, but has overcome such humble beginnings to join the ranks of Grade I winners. The chestnut sandwiched a troubled 11th-place finish in the Feb. 24 Martha Washington S. at Oaklawn between wins in the Jan. 28 Dixie Belle S. and in an optional claimer Mar. 23. A rallying third behind Diplomat Lady (Forestry) in the Apr. 13 GII Beaumont S. at Keeneland, she changed tactics last time out and wired the field in the May 19 GIII Miss Preakness S. at Pimlico. The versatile filly was once again allowed to settle off the pace this time as Win McCool (Giant's Causeway) and Misty Rosette (Stormin Fever) battled it out through a half in :44.37. Wild Gams took over when those two faded from their early efforts, but Wildcat Bettie B hit the gas down the lane and drove to the front in the final yards to take the photo. "This filly loves to win," trainer Larry Jones said. "She shows up to run every time." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Arson Squad had to settle for second behind Point Determined and A.P. Warrior in the June 17 GIII Affirmed S., but turned the tables going an extra sixteenth of a mile here. The dark bay stepped into stakes company after posting a maiden win at Santa Anita in February, winning the Apr. 9 San Pedro S. by 1 3/4 lengths over Da Stoops. Sent off the 13-10 chalk in the May 20 GII Laz Barrera Memorial S., he put in his usual late run, but came up a length and a half short, finishing third. The Swaps set up just as the Affirmed had, with A.P. Warrior going to the front and Point Determined glued to his hip. But the leaders were head and head through six furlongs in 1:09.85, more than a second faster than the same split last time, and Arson Squad was poised for the attack. He drove to the front as A.P. Warrior faded down the lane and outgamed Point Determined for the victory. Always held in high esteem, Allegretto found the peculiarities of the tight Chester oval playing against her when sixth from a high draw in the Listed Cheshire Oaks May 10. Back on a fair playing surface at Chepstow last time June 16, she collected a maiden win there, and made the progression to provide more ammunition for the months to come for the Cheveley Park Stud/Sir Michael Stoute axis. Kept close to the early pace by Ryan Moore, she took a while to fully wind up in the straight, but, when in top gear, swooped by Local Spirit passing the quarter pole and into the clear. "I don't know what her next target is likely to be, but I know she is in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks [at York Aug. 23]," the owner's representative John Marsh told PA Sport. "Sir Michael has a few decent fillies this year, but it is a lovely problem to have trying to keep them apart. She is very progressive and Ryan gave her a peach of a ride--we knew she'd stay, so the faster pace suited." Click for Racing Post race chart or for the brisnet.com catalog-style pedigree.

Eyecatching when breaking his maiden by 6 1/4 lengths at Churchill June 15, Circular Quay put on an even more impressive performance in his second start. Devoid of early speed, the chestnut colt closed ground from the inside under a patient Rafael Bejarano. Steadied behind horses three furlongs from home, he angled outside for running room, then went back to the fence and shot through an opening late to win going away. "He's only had two races, but he's gotten a ton out of those two races," said Mike McCarthy, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher at Churchill Downs. "Obviously, he knows how to win. There was room on the fence and he went for it." It was an eventful ride for jockey Shaun Bridgmohan, aboard Chace City (Carson City). Breaking from the rail, the 9-2 chance reared and stumbled at the start, then swerved sharply toward the rail and made an attempt to jump it. Bridgmohan managed to stay in the saddle somehow and, despite racing erratically down the lane, his mount made up some ground late to be sixth. Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Richwoman opened her career with a seven-length maiden score at Keeneland Apr. 9, then shipped west and made it two in a row in the May 27 Cinderella S. at Hollywood Park. She was sent off the second choice behind Chagall, who was coming off a 1 1/2-length maiden win at Churchill Downs June 16, but proved narrowly best. Chagall's stablemate, Come Together (Dixie Union), was in a three-way battle on the front end early, but gave way to Gallant Dreamer (Belong to Me) after a half in :45.61. The lead changed hands again as they raced out of the turn, with the crowd's choice taking control. But Richwoman, who had been forced to steady behind horses twice, finally got clear as they straightened for home and gave it everything she had in the final furlong to edge Chagall in a photo. "Around the turn she got aggressive when the other riders started to make their move," said jockey Shaun Bridgmohan. "I just had to wait for a seam to open up and, once I did, and I was able to get her to the outside and she just did what she had to do." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Pivotal Point enjoyed a golden spell in 2004 when winning the Stewards Cup at Goodwood, G3 Prix du Petit-Couvert at Longchamp and G2 Diadem S. at Ascot. Forced to miss most of last term, he has gradually inched back to his best this season, finishing third behind Takeover Target (Aus) in the G2 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 20. Down the field in the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at that meeting four days later, he made the most of the far-side bias here from his favorable high draw to get his picture taken again. Not the quickest away, Pivotal Point was kept on the rail by Seb Sanders and, when switched around Benbaun at the furlong marker, delivered a rally to snatch the contest in the final 50 yards. "I didn't want him to be too quick out, but when the horses came across him, I fired him into the bridle and he got a bit keen," Sanders explained. "He's got a bit of class and I thought he won really well." Pivotal Point is expected to return in Friday's G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket.

Despite some creditable performances in tough company at two, Spinning Queen looked exposed as she began her sophomore campaign. But she has found improvement and registered her second consecutive stakes score in this competitive event. Despite finishing third in the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at Newmarket last July, she failed to progress throughout the remainder of 2005 before returning to finish second to Speciosa (Ire) in the Apr. 18 G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket. Sixth in desperate conditions in the G1 1000 Guineas back there May 7, she fared better on her third visit to that track when third behind the subsequent G3 Jersey S.
 victor Jeremy and Wake Up Maggie in the May 27 Listed King Charles II S. Receiving a confidence boost in the Listed Eternal S. at Warwick last time June 24, she was patiently ridden here and delivered a last-to-first rattle in the straight to oust Wake Up Maggie in the

This contest was reduced in distance to a mile last year in an attempt to attract a consistently high quality of performer, and the presence of G1 St James's Palace S. second and third Stormy River and Ivan Denisovich, alongside the smart filly Impressionnante and progressive Dilek, suggests the plan is working. Stormy River has established himself as one of France's premier milers, courtesy of an impressive success in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau at Longchamp Apr. 23 and a third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains May 14. He was doing his best work at the finish when two lengths runner-up to Araafa (Ire) in the St James's Palace at Royal Ascot June 20. Prix Jean Prat cont. p8

Ivan Denisovich was 1 3/4 lengths back in third last time out. He has yet to return to his best juvenile form, demonstrated when winning the G2 July S. at Newmarket and finishing runner-up in Deauville's G1 Prix Morny, but he gives the impression he is finding his feet with each run this term. Impressionnante was hampered by eventual winner Price Tag (GB) when third in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and was promoted to the runner's-up spot. She gained compensation by taking the G2 Prix de Sandringham over course and distance June 4, and trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias has opted to take on the colts. "She is the only filly in the field, but she has proved her class on several occasions and we know she is very well," Laffon-Parias told Paris-Turf. Dilek followed a win in the June 9 Listed Prix Matchem at Compiègne with a facile success in the G3 Prix Daphnis at Longchamp last time June 26, prompting trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre to supplement him to this race.

IGNACIO LUIS LEON

This week's accomplishment:

Leon is the general manger of Haras Santa Maria de Araras' Ocala, Florida farm. On July 4, the operation's homebred Quite a Bride (Stormy Atlantic) won the GIII Boiling Springs S. at Monmouth, while a horse it bred, Strong Contender (Maria's Mon), won the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont. Three days earlier, another homebred, Pommes Frites (Dynaformer), won Philly Park's Dr. James Penny Memorial H. Haras Santa Maria de Araras is owned by 70-year-old Brazilian businessman Julio Bozano, who ranked 486th on the 2006 Forbes Magazine list of the world's wealthiest people, with a net worth of $1.6 billion.

Birthdate: July 31, 1952

Birthplace: Buenos Aires, Argentina

Current Residence: Ocala, FL

Family: Wife Maria, daughter Estefania and son Ignacio

How was Haras Santa Maria de Araras named? Araras is a place in Brazil near Rio de Janeiro, where Mr. Bozano had his first farm.

How big is the Ocala farm? Are there farms elsewhere, as well? It's 191 acres. There are also farms in Brazil and Argentina.

How many horses does Haras Santa Maria de Araras breed each year? How many do you generally keep to race? Over 100 in each Brazil and Argentina, plus the 40 mares we have in the U.S. Usually we keep between 15 and 18 to race in the U.S. every year.

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? We need better public relations, particularly regarding misinformation on the use of drugs in racing.

Most underrated sire? Until a few years ago, Dynaformer. Now we realize how important he is.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Patagonia, Argentina and the Rocky Mountains, USA.

Favorite food or meal? Anything Italian.

Favorite book? The Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin, because it teaches us of much needed tolerance.

THOROUGHBRED DAILY NEWS

AROUND

 NORTH AMERICA

ASMUSSEN TO START SUSPENSION MONDAY

Steve Asmussen, currently the second-leading trainer in North America, has decided not to go to court to contest the six-month suspension he was handed by the Louisiana Racing Commission. Asmussen was suspended after No End In Sight tested positive for the local anesthetic mepivacaine following an off-the-board finish at Evangeline Downs Mar. 24. He appealed the decision when it was issued in May, but the original ban was upheld by the Commission June 23 and, although he denies that the administration of the medication was authorized by either himself or his staff, Asmussen will begin serving the suspension Monday. He will not be eligible for relicensing until January, 2007. "The majority of the owners have decided to turn their horses over to Scott Blasi [Asmussen's assistant at Churchill] at this point," the conditioner told Daily Racing Form. "He has a long-standing relationship with the owners and is capable of doing an excellent job." Asmussen still faces a six-month suspension based on a positive test for acepromazine in New Mexico, but that case has not yet been heard by the state racing commission.

PROUD TOWER TOO DONE FOR YEAR

Proud Tower Too (Proud Irish), winner of the GI Malibu S. and, most recently, the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen S. Mar. 25, had a bone chip removed from an ankle Thursday and will be out for the remainder of the season, according to Daily Racing Form. "He did it two weeks ago when he had his first work back," trainer Sal Gonzalez told DRF. "He'll be out four months and we'll have to start all over. It happens." Proud Tower Too worked four furlongs at Hollywood in :48.80 June 24.

BROTHER DEREK TO MISS HASKELL

Brother Derek (Benchmark), fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S., will be forced to miss the Aug. 6 GI Haskell Invitational H. due to a fever, Daily Racing Form reports. "He spiked a small temperature, probably some kind of virus," trainer Dan Hendricks told DRF. "He had an elevated white blood count. We got backed up. We won't start working for a couple of weeks--we won't make the Haskell." Hendricks added that the colt has yet to go back to the track. While his next start is up in the air, he could be pointed for the Sept. 2 El Cajon S. at Del Mar and possibly the Sept. 23 GI Super Derby at Louisiana Downs.

Amazing Speed pulled off a 48-1 upset against Gulfstream allowance foes Mar. 17, then tried stakes company in her next two. She finished fifth in the Snurb S. Apr. 25, then was second best in the May 12 Harmony Lodge S. In this one, she showed the way through a :23.48 opening quarter, was hooked by Prospect of Love along the backstretch and got the best of that one after a long duel.

5th-MTH, $36,860, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:44, ft. KISS THE KID (c, 3, Lemon Drop Kid--Black Tie Kiss, by Danzig), a $270,000 KEESEP yearling, was third over this strip in his debut May 29, then graduated over the Meadowlands grass June 19. Back on the dirt here, the 9-5 chance set the pace and cruised under the wire eight lengths clear of 7-5 chalk Blackfeet (Cherokee Run). Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-1, $46,920. O-Hardacre Farm LLC. B-Jayeff B Stables (KY). T-A Tarrant.

6th-DEL, $36,900, Msw, 3&4yo, a1 1/8mT, 1:57, fm. IRISH OSPREY (g, 3, Arch--Maiden Voyage, by Mr. Prospector) rallied to place second in his debut over the Pimlico lawn June 8 and was 8-5 to go one better here. Allowed to settle in sixth through easy early fractions, he kicked it into high gear while racing along the rail in the stretch to win by 3/4-lengths. Lightning Romance (Thunder Gulch) was second. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $27,060. O-James M Moran Jr. B-Elk Manor Farm & Ranney R Moran (MD). T-Edwin W Merryman.

SONG SONG BLUE (c, 3, Songandaprayer--Loyalambic {SP}, by Loyal Pal) was a respectable fourth in his turf debut at Calder last time June 18. The $110,000 OBSAUG yearling and $150,000 FTFEB two-year-old was the 1-2 favorite for his return to dirt here and took the lead quickly from the inside post. He moved willingly into the stretch and was never challenged, winning under wraps by 3 3/4 lengths over As Himself (Outflanker). Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-0, $18,970. O-Silver Rudd. B-Tony & Dawn Bowling (FL). T-E Plesa Jr.

IRENE'S MON (c, 3, Maria's Mon--Briarcliff {SW & GSP, $217,268}, by Red Ransom) broke his maiden in a $50,000 maiden claimer May 20, then represented himself well with a second-place effort against allowance company going six furlongs June 9. A 5-1 shot here, the $60,000 KEESEP yearling raced toward the rear, but was never far back. Swung out four wide for the stretch run, he hit his best stride and powered clear, finishing 3 1/4 lengths ahead of 2-5 favorite Simon Pure (Silver Deputy). Lifetime Record: 11-2-2-3, $85,350. Ole Faunty had gone winless in six attempts since notching an optional claimer at Arlington last August, but turned in a pair of decent efforts in his last two, including a third-place finish over this course May 27. Sent off as the third choice in this small group, he was allowed an easy early lead, turned back a bid from Ay Caramba and had enough left in the tank to hold off Terrific Storm.

Margins: NK, 3/4, 3. Odds: 2.15, 17.40, 6.05.

Spread The News broke his maiden against state bred over course and distance June 24 as the even-money chalk, and was well backed here as the 2-1 second choice. The bay broke well and dueled for the lead with Dafoe. He turned it on late to take command and held off a hard-charging Mutakinmove to win by a neck.

Star Cluster was restricted to one start last term, but showed enough when beating the eventual G1 Prix Marcel Boussac third Deveron in a Newmarket maiden in July to suggest she would hold her own in this company. Runner-up to the subsequent Listed Sandringham S. winner Red Evie (Ire) in a conditions event at Leicester May 30, she may have found the 10 furlongs of the Listed Lord Weinstock Memorial S. beyond her when fourth at Newbury last time June 15. Always within striking distance of the front rank here, she found herself at the head of affairs approaching the final furlong and, spurred on by the presence of Silver Touch, pulled out extra to prevail. "She's very lazy and she didn't stay at Newbury, but she only just does enough," trainer Henry Cecil commented. "I knew when they came at her, she'd find more as she's very genuine. I'd love to win a group race, whether in this country or at Deauville, as she needs a bit of give in the ground, so we'll see what the Prince thinks."

Sandown's crowds were expecting a walk in the park for the popular veteran Sergeant Cecil, but there was a sting in the tail for favorite backers as Land 'N Stars supplied an upset. He had already caused a shock when taking the Listed Fenwolf S. at odds of 50-1 at Newmarket in September and after a spell in Dubai this spring, he offered little hope of a repeat when fifth in the Listed Grand Cup S. at Musselburgh last time June 10. Tracking the front-running Winged d'Argent throughout, he looked beaten at the top of the straight, but responded to Paul Doe's urgings to rally against the rail and inhale that tiring rival in the final 75 yards. Despite the late thrust of Sergeant Cecil and Alan Munro, Land 'N Stars was not to be denied and dug in for a game success. The first and second will re-oppose in the Aug. 3 G2 Goodwood Cup, with an ambitious tilt at the G1 Melbourne Cup at Flemington Nov. 7 planned for Land 'N Stars.

Hinterland thrives on the big occasions, having won competitive handicaps at Epsom on Oaks day June 2 and here on the Eclipse undercard and he could be sharing the major stage soon on the basis of this performance. Backward at three, the dark bay took his first two races at Newmarket and Haydock in late summer before finishing unplaced in a Pontefract handicap in October.

He looked a different animal on his four-year-old bow when overcoming a high draw to win at Epsom and, despite finishing a creditable fourth in the prestigious Royal Hunt Cup at Royal Ascot last time June 21, there was a sense that tactics had denied him another high-profile success. Keen in the early stages settled in a stalking role, he was allowed to stride to the front passing the quarter pole and steadily drew away from the chasing Ace of Hearts on the uphill climb to the line. "I said to [trainer] Mick [Jarvis] not to worry if I hit the front early here, as I thought my mistake at Ascot was I didn't kick away when I went to the front," jockey Philip Robinson explained. "I sat there and let them come at me, but today I didn't make the same mistake. I don't really know how much improvement there is to come, as he's done all he's been asked so far and hopefully he'll keep on. I like him--he's got a nice character."

This track held a special place for the Late John Good and his colors were carried to success in one of the venue's most prestigious prizes aboard the game Consular. Having graduated here last June, he was a creditable third in the King George V S. at the Royal Ascot meeting at York later that month before his form tailed off. He showed a glimpse of a return to his best when third in an Epsom handicap on Derby day and was not disgraced when seventh in the Duke of Edinburgh S. at Royal Ascot last time June 24. Racing prominently under Neil Callan throughout the early stages, he was sent to the front with a half mile remaining and, despite veering right in the closing stages, dug in to hold the heavyweight Ouninpohja.

Pushed along with three furlongs to go, the 7-1 chance responded to a forceful drive inside the final eighth to deny Prowess (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) by a half length nearing the line. Futun is a half brother to Surbetee (Fr) (Alzao, MSP-Ity, $192,559). Lifetime Record: SP-Eng, 4-2-1-1, £31,827.

Reined back off a smart break to find cover through the early stages of this drop in grade, he took over with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and was at less than maximum inside the closing panel to hold Excusez Moi (Fusaichi Pegasus) by a short head. Lifetime Record: Hwt. Older Horse-Fr at 5-7f, Ch. Sprinter-Eur, Co-Hwt. Older Horse-Eng at 5-7f, G1SW-Eng & MG1SW-Fr, 28-10-3-1, £695,785.

Breaking sharply to seize immediate control, the 2-9 pick coasted home under whipless encouragement inside the final quarter for an untroubled three-length score from Billy Dane (Ire) (Fayruz {GB}).
