'MALIBU' SHOCKS 'DUBAI'

Calder's Summit of Speed headliner, the $500,000 GI Princess Rooney H., was supposed to be a coronation for Dubai Escapade (Awesome Again), who had swept aside her competition in four previous starts in the States. But that's why they run the race. When the 1-5 favorite faltered in the lane, Malibu Mint (Malibu Moon) resumed her love affair with the Calder strip by driving clear in the final furlong. "This is by far the biggest win of my career," said jubilant rider Josue Arce. "Honestly, coming into this race I thought that the favorite was going to be almost impossible to beat...I thought our best chance was to sit back since there was so much speed in the race and see if we could close on them in the stretch. I was confident in the sense that my filly likes this track here and was coming off a very good race...of course, it worked out perfectly and she finished very strong." Cont. p2

NO SUCH THING AS TOO MUCH

On a day when prohibitive favorites Dubai Escapade and Lost in the Fog went unplaced in their respective Summit of Speed events, Too Much Bling (Rubiano) lived up to his 1-2 billing by taking the $300,000 GI Carry Back S. at Calder yesterday afternoon. It was the third graded stakes win on the year for the three-year-old. "My agent talked to [trainer Bob Baffert] and he told me to ride him like he's the best horse in the race," winning rider Edgar Prado said. "And he was." Cont. p6

LEADING THE DANCE

Kieren Fallon has endured a troubling fortnight, but a win on Alexandrova (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) in today's G1 Darley Irish Oaks at The Curragh would be a sweet pill for Ballydoyle's number one rider. He has already piloted Ramruma and Ouija Board (GB) to success in both the Epsom Oaks and this equivalent since 1999, and has an excellent chance to follow up here. Alexandrova, runner-up to the subsequent G1 Coronation S. heroine Nannina (GB) in the G1 Fillies' Mile at Newmarket last September, rebounded from a second in the May 17 G3 Musidora S. at York to register a six-length success in the June 2 Epsom Classic. Cont. p3

AFFAIR TO REMEMBER

Nightmare Affair (Out of Place) came flying on the outside to land the $500,000 Smile Sprint H. at Calder, with favored Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier) a well-beaten ninth. He had won the GIII Carry Back S. a year ago, but couldn't match that effort this time. "It's disappointing," trainer Greg Gilchrist admitted. "There was a lot to overcome with the 125 [pounds] and the trip, but if he finished second or third, you could understand. But to run like this, we'll have to talk about his future. We'll take him back home and see if there is anything physical that comes out to explain this performance." Cont. p5

NEWLY MINTED Malibu Mint had rattled off three straight wins at Calder late last year, culminating in the Chaposas Springs H. on New Year's Eve. That streak came to an end with a fourth-place finish on the turf Feb. 6, and the chestnut didn't run again until Apr. 12, when she was a tired eighth to Dubai Escapade in the GII Vinery Madison S. at Keeneland. Another try on the turf proved fruitless in the Giant's Causeway S. at the Lexington oval, and she stumbled at the start of the GI Humana Distaff H. at Churchill May 6, losing her rider and grabbing a quarter. Malibu Mint got back on track with a game runner-up effort in the Winning Colors H. at Churchill May 27, missing by a neck to Ever Elusive, but was ignored here despite her good Calder form. Content to race a few lengths off the lead disputed by Hot Storm and Dubai Escapade through splits of :21.79 and :44.51, the four-year-old swung to the far outside approaching the stretch and ran by everyone for her first Grade I tally. "She grabbed a quarter pretty good in the race on [Kentucky] Derby Day and missed 10 or 12 days training, which didn't help her when she just got beat in the Winning Colors," winning trainer Jim Chapman explained. "She's trained great since, working bullets almost every time, and I thought she'd run great today. She obviously handles the track here very well, but I don't think that mattered today." Dubai Escapade proved reluctant to change leads when the real running began, and wasn't persevered with in the final furlong when she was already beaten. Trainer Eoin Harty was at a loss to explain her performance. "I'm very disappointed," he said. "[Jockey] Edgar [Prado] said she didn't feel like herself today. I can't blame the heat; it's hot in New York, and we just got here yesterday. I can't see anything wrong with her, but I'm going to go back to the barn and see."

Barbaro Update

BARBARO CONTINUES TO BE STABLE Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro (Dynaformer) remained in stable condition after a restful Friday night, according to a press release from the George D. Widener Hospital in Pennsylvania. "His heart rate and pulse are normal, and his appetite is good," said Dr. Dean Richardson. "He continues to respond well, looks good, and has a positive attitude." The three-year-old developed severe laminitis earlier this week in his uninjured left hind leg. "We continue to monitor him very closely, and we are keeping him as comfortable as possible."

Darley Irish Oaks

ALEXANDROVA ALL SET Trainer Aidan O'Brien issued an upbeat bulletin about Alexandrova Friday. "She is lovely and in great form," he told PA Sport about the three-year-old filly. "I don't think the [good to firm] ground will bother her--she didn't mind it at Ep-som, although she does bend her knee. There have been no problems and so far everything has been good, touch wood."

From Ascot to Ireland...

It has been 12 years since Bolas (GB) followed up a success in Royal Ascot's G2 Ribblesdale S. with victory here, and Tony Hirschfeld, Des Scott & Lester Piggott's Mont Etoile bids to emulate that feat. Runner-up to Time On (GB) in the Listed Cheshire Oaks at Chester May 10, she produced a late burst to get the better of Ballymacoll Stud's Scottish Stage by a neck at the Royal fixture. "There are only six runners, but it is still a tough race," conditioner William Haggas told PA Sport. "She is improving and stays well, so fingers crossed."

Sunday Stage...

Sir Michael Stoute, who has won this race six times, will be hoping that Scottish Stage can add to that tally. Runner-up to Race for the Stars in the Listed Oh So Sharp S. at Newmarket in October, she was slow to come to hand this spring, but reemerged with a head defeat of Guilia (GB) in the Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial S. at Newbury May 19. She had looked the winner of the Ribblesdale until caught close home, and is bred to improve with experience. Gary Tanaka's Rising Cross has to rebound from an unplaced effort in the G1 Oaks d'Italia at the San Siro June 18, but trainer John Best is hopeful she can prove up to this task. "Our filly's in great form; she's come back from Italy fine, but it's tough," he told PA Sport. "At home you wouldn't say she was a Group 1 horse, but she's proved it. We've got to take our chances when we can. I hope she can prove herself on Sunday. She's working really well and everything's fine. She travels well when you go anywhere like this, so I'm hoping she'll run her race and, hopefully, Alexandrova may be on a bad day."

Never off the board in eight previous starts, Go Between earned his second graded stakes victory with an excellent turn of foot and set a new course record in the process. The Peter Vegso homebred graduated in his seasonal bow Feb. 17 at Gulfstream and promptly added the GIII Palm Beach S. Mar. 12 over the same course. Second in Tampa's Sophomore Turf S. Apr. 8, the chestnut missed by a neck to Stream Cat in the GIII Crown Royal American Turf S. May 5 at Churchill Downs and was given a brief freshening. He got caught a bit in traffic before running third in the $1-million Colonial Turf Cup June 24, and was third choice this time. Always in striking position, the Florida-bred angled out for running room in the stretch and accelerated smartly for a convincing success. He marks the third Virginia Derby win for his connections, who also won in 2002-2003 with the full brothers Orchard Park and Silver Tree. Go Between joins an honor roll which includes not only his fellow Vegso colorbearers, but also Kitten's Joy, the champion turf horse of 2004; and English Channel, the 2005 winner who already has two Grade I victories this year.

He warmed up for the Summit of Speed with a swift win in the Champali H. June 17 and, in receipt of 10 pounds from Lost in the Fog (Lost Soldier), proved a capable winner here. Well back early, the Florida-bred came widest of all into the lane and drove clear late as even-money Lost in the Fog finished a timid ninth. "I truly respected the good horses in this race, but my horse has been doing so well, training great," winning conditioner Manny Azpurua said. "I'll have to talk to the owner [Ronald Borgese], but I've got some ideas for him now--maybe Saratoga--we'll see."

He had a very wide trip when eighth in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6 at Churchill, but backpedaled in the GI Belmont S. and was beaten over 40 lengths. Regrouping here, the third choice settled into fourth, not too far from the front, where local hero Tri Uimet (Lac Ouimet) led from High Cotton. Deputy Glitters ranged up on the outside at the head of the lane, engaged the favorite and prevailed in gritty fashion. Flashy Bull rallied from last to complete the trifecta.

a 19 1/2-length romp in a Thistledown maiden last July, the grey ran third to First Samurai and Henny Hughes in the GI Hopeful S. Aug. 27, a race which marked his first outing for trainer Bob Baffert. But a pair of subsequent outings in New York saw the colt get well beaten, and he was given some time to regroup following a sixth to Bluegrass Cat in the GIII Nashua S. Oct. 28. He resurfaced Jan. 8 with a sharp victory in the San Miguel S. at Santa Anita, then added a game tally in the GII San Vicente S. Feb. 12 at the same track. Baffert sent the three-year-old back to New York for the GIII Bay Shore S. Apr. 8. Too Much Bling relished the sloppy going that day and trumped Songster by nine lengths, but, following a two-month layoff and a tough trip, was forced to settle for second behind that colt in the GII Woody Stephens Breeders' Cup S. at Belmont June 10. Away smoothly here, the Ohio-bred kept the pacesetters within his sights down the backstretch. He took aim three wide approaching the stretch, put away Mach Ride at the eighth pole and kept a steady rhythm to the wire. Baffert, who didn't accompany the colt to Florida, wasn't sure when Too Much Bling would next face the starter. "I'm not going to run him too often now," the trainer said by phone. "I want to keep him fresh for the [GI] Breeders' Cup Sprint [Nov. 4, Churchill], and then take him to Dubai next year." Adieu, one of the top two-year-old fillies of 2005, earned her first win of the year while participating in a big day for trainer Todd Pletcher. A debut winner last spring at Keeneland, the bay traded decisions with Folklore in a pair of stakes races before going her own way, taking the GII Spinaway S. at Saratoga July 27 and the GI Frizette S. at Belmont Oct. 8. She faced off with Folklore once again in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Oct. 29 at Belmont, but came home a tired seventh and watched her nemesis win both the race and an Eclipse Award. Adieu didn't return until May 6, when she ran second in the GIII La Troienne S. at Churchill, and she could only manage a fourth as the favorite in the GI Acorn S. at Belmont June 10. Trying two turns for the first time here, the Tabor/Magnier/Smith colorbearer settled into a close-up fourth as 4-5 Hystericalady (Distorted Humor) showed the way. Adieu made her move on the outside at the top of the stretch, headed Amandatude late and drove clear for the win. For Pletcher, who also saddled Go Deputy to win the GII Bowling Green H. and Honey Ryder in the Robert G. Dick Memorial H. yesterday, the third time was the charm. "I think the third race back is a lot of the times the best in a return cycle," he said.

Ambitious Cat took back-to-back allowance tests over the Woodbine turf last summer and carried that form into an excellent runner-up effort in the GII Bell Canadian H. Sept. 18. Given her shot in the GI E.P. Taylor S. over yielding ground Oct. 23, the bay took a short lead inside the final furlong before grudgingly giving way to finish third by a half-length. Rested off that effort, she never really factored in a pair of starts south of the border this spring, coming home fifth in both Gulfstream's GIII Honey Fox H. Mar. 4 and Keeneland's GIII Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 15, but hinted at a return to her best with a runner-up effort to the talented Naissance Royale (Ire) in Woodbine's GII Nassau S. June 3. Defending champion Noble Stella (Monsun {Ger}), winner in her most recent appearance of the GII New York Breeders' Cup H., was away slowly from the stalls, but eased her way to the front as Ambitious Cat was allowed to settle last but one down the backstretch. Asked to rally three wide on the turn, she bid for the lead at the top of the lengthy Woodbine stretch and drove to a clear-cut victory. Victorina began her career in the shadow of her acclaimed stablemate Lost in the Fog, but earned her first graded stakes victory here while last year's champion sprinter finished off the board later in the card in the GII Smile Sprint H. The Florida-bred went three-for-four in Northern California to begin her career, then traveled to Hawthorne to take the Meafara S.

Apr. 8. She was beaten by subsequent graded stakes winner Hystericalady in an allowance at Bay Meadows upon her return home May 10, but that didn't stop her from heading out on the road again. Trainer Greg Gilchrist had her accompany Lost in the Fog to Churchill June 3; while the four-year-old won the GIII Aristides Breeders' Cup, Victorina was beaten just a length when third in the one-mile GIII Dogwood Breeders' Cup S. June 3. Favored here while cutting back to a sprint, the bay broke alertly from post seven, but settled in mid-pack as Frolicing went up to set fractions of :21.61 and :44.97. When that filly began to drift out into the path of G City Gal turning for home, Victorina had plenty of room on the inside to come on through before edging away from her rivals. "She got in a lot of trouble in her last race, but we wanted to see if she could finish going a mile, and she did," Gilchrist said, adding that he would consider the seven-furlong GI Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 5 for the filly's next start.

Go Deputy had been in search of a stakes victory since knocking off a NW3X at Gulfstream in January and finally earned his badge here. The six-year-old completed the exacta in the GIII Mac Diarmida H. and GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup S., ran third in the GIII Pan American H., then shipped north to be second once again in the Apr. 28 GIII Elkhorn S. at Keeneland. Hammered down to 3-5 favoritism in this small five-horse affair, he kept close tabs on pacesetter Gigli (Brz) (Clackson {Brz}), joined a crush of horses vying for the lead in upper stretch and responded to jockey Fernando Jara's drive to stave off Crown Point as those two drew away from the pack. "This horse has a reputation for losing the field a little bit," said Seth Benzel, assistant to winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "We told Fernando to keep him close to the field. He was forced to go up there and press the pace, and that was a great decision. It probably won the race. Maybe this race will instill a little confidence, so we might take a shot in the [GI] Sword Dancer H. [at Saratoga Aug. 12]."

Just like his sire, Praying for Cash graduated impressively at first asking, scoring by 4 1/2 lengths at Monmouth in what would be his lone start of the year June 3. The colt was favored to Noonmark in his Feb. 11 return to action at Gulfstream, but could do no better than third. Sixth behind Sharp Humor in the Mar. 4 GII Swale S. in the Sunshine State, he returned to his favored Monmouth to post a popular 3 3/4-length allowance victory going six furlongs May 14 and most recently gave a good account of himself in his two-turn bow, running second to Gottcha Gold (Coronado's Quest) in the June 25 Coronado's Quest S. Unwilling to let the heavy favorite Latent Heat have things his own way up front, Praying for Cash prompted the pace from the inside, eventually overhauling the Juddmonte runner on the far turn before inching clear late. "It wasn't the best of trips," winning trainer Kelly Breen explained. "He got stuck down on the inside the whole way, but he showed a lot of grit and dug in." The winner receives an automatic invitation to the GI Haskell Invitational H. Aug. 6.

Rich in Spirit reaffirmed her affinity for the Matt Winn turf course, posting her third win--along with two seconds--from five starts over the surface. Winner of the 2005 GIII Regret S. beneath the Twin Spires, the Lavin homebred was third in the Virginia Oaks July 16 and fifth in the GI Del Mar Oaks Aug. 20 before calling it quits for the year. Runner-up to Lattice (Ire) in Keeneland allowance company Apr. 15, she took a local $100,000 tagger June 27 and most recently rounded out the exacta behind My Typhoon (Ire) in this track's June 17 GIII Mint Julep H. Sent up to track pacesetter Cape Hope while four wide, Rich in Spirit dropped back a bit at the quarter pole, but re-engaged the frontrunner at the furlong grounds and won under a hand ride from Mark Guidry.

There is only one way that South Africa's pre-eminent sprinter National Colour likes to race and she turned on the afterburners again here to cement her position at the top of the tree. Having suffered setbacks early in her career, she demonstrated her lethal early dash to take the Apr. 1 Man O' War Conditions S. at Turffontein Apr. 1 and returned to that venue four weeks later to just miss the track record when winning the G1 Computaform Sprint. Her raw speed soon took her five lengths clear of her rivals here and it was left to Tiza to lead home the fruitless chase.

Echo of Light was named by Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum as the one to watch from the sole crop of Dubai Millennium (GB) two years ago, but it has been a slow road to prominence for the imposing performer. A commanding seven-length winner in a conditions event at Doncaster last September, he was supplemented for the G1 Champion S. at Newmarket in October, but ruined his chance by racing too freely and faded back through the pack. He exhibited the same willing attitude from the front under Kerrin McEvoy here, but had plenty in reserve at the business end and cranked up the pressure on the turn into the straight. Despite the game effort of stable companion Satchem and Frankie Dettori, Echo of Light was not for catching and reeled away to an impressive success. "Echo of Light's got a lot of class and, on that surface [Polytrack], he's got the power and strength and he really enjoyed that," said Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford. "We'll step him up now, but we'll consider that very carefully." Click for the Racing Post chart.

There is a sense of deja vu each time Mustameet runs in these contests and the ultra-consistent performer dug deep to add another stakes to his resume. Equally effective over seven furlongs and a mile, he overcame heavy ground to win the G3 Gladness S. over seven here last April, but could only finish runner-up in desperate conditions in this year's renewal Apr. 9. His next three starts came over a mile at Leopardstown and he took the Apr. 23 Listed Heritage S. and June 7 Listed Glencairn S. on either side of a fourth in the May 14 Listed Amethyst S. Adding the Listed Celebration S. to his tally back here last time July 2, he provided a textbook rendition settled on the heels of the early leaders under jockey Declan McDonogh. Sweeping to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, he was driven out to contain the late charge of Ace. "He's done it well off a nice pace," his rider explained. "I got a nice clear run and he picked up well when I asked him. He seems better than ever this season--I've ridden since he was two and he seems stronger than ever." Trainer Kevin Prendergast revealed that the five-year-old might ship to Deauville next month. Click for the Racing Post chart.

Presto Shinko notched four straight wins at the end of last term culminating in a stakes-debut success in the Nov. 5 Listed Wentworth S. at Doncaster. Stepping up another rung for a career high in this, he ended a run of four straight defeats, including a last-out fourth in the June 18 Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury, as Thierry Thulliez excelled in the saddle. Receiving a bump when making smooth progress from off the pace at the quarter-mile marker, the eventual winner returned on an even keel to challenge at the distance and was pushed out thereafter to score a shade cozily from the Tycoon's Hill and Biniou. That pair were both found to have hindered Satri's progress in the closing stages and were subsequently demoted.

Stalking the early fractions here, he was let loose early in the straight and dominated the final three furlongs for an authoritative score.

Since Dapple Bloodstock purchased Fleet Indian for $290,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale on behalf of Paul Saylor, the five-year-old mare has been unbeatable. Moved to Todd Pletcher's barn after the sale, the strapping mare--who had concluded 2005 with two wins--annexed the GIII Next Move H. at Aqueduct Mar. 26. She aired by 12 1/2 lengths in the Apr. 22 GIII Sixty Sails H. and by 7 3/4 lengths in the Obeah S. over this strip June 17, which should set her up nicely for this 10-furlong event. "We needed her to run somewhere and we knew we were focused on the Delaware H., so we felt like running her in the Obeah was a much better alternative than maybe running her at a mile and a sixteenth around one turn here at Belmont," explained Pletcher. "She is training well. We just try to keep her happy and so she has had a few nice maintenance breezes and everything looks on schedule." Fleet Indian's primary competition figures to come from stable-mate La Reason, who ran second in the GII Louisville BC H. May 5 and fourth in the GII Fleur de Lis H. June 17. "We think the distance should suit her very well," said Pletcher. "She is a very consistent, hard-knocking mare and horses get tired sometimes going that far, but the last eighth of mile she should still be running."

Silver Train has gained a reputation as being a monster at Belmont Park, and for good reason. Four-for-six in Elmont, the dark bay's wins at the track include last year's GII Jerome H. and GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and, in his most recent, the May 29 GI Metropolitan H. The four-year-old's fondness of Belmont is such that his trainer, Richard Dutrow, Jr., plans to skip the prestigious Saratoga meet. "I'm not even going to mess with him up there," Dutrow said. "We'll give him Saratoga off and point him to the [GI] Vosburgh S. [Oct. 7 at Belmont]. He can be ready for a race like the Vosburgh off training." All this means that Dutrow likely has Silver Train primed for a huge effort here. "We're ready to go," Dutrow said. "We're putting everything we have into this race. He's on top of his game right now and I'm very happy to have him that way because he's not that way all the time." Another horse who likes Belmont but who comes in a bit under the radar is War Front. Off since running second in both the GIII Mr. Prospector H. and GIII Deputy Minister H. at Gulfstream earlier this year, the colt has been working bullets for his return and has won two of three starts at Belmont. Former claimer Anew comes off a dazzling effort in the June 10 GII True North H. that earned him a 112 Beyer.

A number of these have come close to annexing the Sunset and again line up for another go at the mile-and-a-half marathon. Leprechaun Kid, third to Star Over the Bay while running for different connections in the 2004 renewal, makes his first start since a dismal showing in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf. The former claimer does his best running on the front end, but will have plenty of company on the lead here with the likes of Mr. Splash and Wild Buddy. That could set the race up for the closer T.H. Approval, a dead-heat second with Runaway Dancer in last term's Sunset. The gray completed the exacta in three straight Grade II events before winning the 1 3/4-mile GII San Juan Capistrano H. in April, but threw in a rare off-the-board effort when seventh in Lava Man's GI Charles Whittingham H. over this course June 10. Runaway Dancer, meanwhile, hasn't won since May of 2005, but ran with credit when second in the May 13 GII Jim Murray Memorial H. Eighth in the Whittingham, he'll have to take a big step forward to make an impact here.

With the sole sophomore challenge coming from a filly, this contest has a lopsided look, but the G1 Preis der Diana third and last year's champion juvenile filly Nordtanzerin is a worthy adversary for the older brigade. Successful in the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin at Baden-Baden in October, she returned to finish runner-up in the G2 Schwarzgold-Rennen in Cologne May 14 before her third in the June 4 Dusseldorf Classic.

Donaldson picks up a penalty for his front-running success in the G1 Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf last time June 25 and his opponents will be wary to allow him such a soft lead again. Trainer Peter Rau's stable jockey Terence Hellier prefers the 2004 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden runner-up Egerton, who was winning for the first time at Cologne May 14. He has questions to answer following a disappointing effort when down the field in a conditions event at Compiègne last time June 9.

On the Bus hadn't had her picture taken since posting a head score in the Yaddo S. at Saratoga last August. She was second in an optional claimer at Churchill in November and in the Marshua's River S. at Gulfstream Jan. 14, but finished off the board in the Endeavor BC S. at Tampa Feb. 18 and was given a break. She faded badly to be 11th in her comeback attempt, the June 18 Mt. Vernon H. at Belmont, and was let go at long odds here. Out to contest the pace under jockey Eibar Coa, the dark bay took over after they straightened for home and drew clear.

WILD NATURE (GB) (c, 4, Singspiel {Ire}--Change for a Buck, by Time for a Change) ended his 2005 campaign with a 5 1/4-length success in an optional claimer at Aqueduct Nov. 6 and was second in an allowance test at Gulfstream Jan. 8, but went to the shelf after running a troubled fifth in Hallandale Feb. 5. Let go at 9-1 in his return, he saved ground while racing with the leaders early, then drove through from the inside to take the lead in the stretch. The chestnut opened it up late to beat Disco's Son (Disco Rico) by 3 3/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 9-3-2-0, $90,692.

O-Four Roses Thoroughbreds. B-Buckram Thoroughbred Enterprises Inc (GB). T-Richard E Dutrow Jr.

THUNDER PASS (c, 3, Thunder Gulch--Lakabi, by Nureyev) was on the board in three grass starts at Gulfstream, but had to settle for fourth after shipping north, missing by two lengths on a yielding Belmont sod June 10. Off at 7-2 to improve on firm turf, he went right to the front with King Carter (Cat Thief) on his flank, but never would let that rival by, beating him by 3/4 of a length. The winner, a 1/2 to Coronado Rose (Coronado's Quest), MSW, $132,809, was a $155,000 KEESEP yearling and a $100,000 KEEAPR juvenile. Lifetime Record: 8-1-2-1, $42,990.

McLaughlin Mapping Out Plans:

Trainer Kieran McLaughlin is targeting Saratoga with his stables stars Jazil (Seeking the Gold) and Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes), according to Daily Racing Form. Jazil, off since his win in the 12-furlong GI Belmont S. June 10, will head straight to the 10-furlong GI Travers S. Aug. 26. McLaughlin had originally tabbed the nine-furlong GII Jim Dandy S. July 29 for the three-year-old, but reconsidered. "He just needs a little more time between races and the distance," McLaughlin told DRF. "With this particular horse, [the layoff] is not a big deal. He's a light-framed horse who doesn't need a lot of racing or training." McLaughlin's handicap star Invasor, who has tallied the GI Pimlico Special H. and the GI Suburban H. in his last two starts, will point for the GI Whitney H. Aug. 5. Though the four-year-old had been under consideration for the GI Pacific Classic Aug. 20 in an effort to keep him at 10 furlongs, logistical matters of timing and shipping will keep him in New York. "The Whitney is probably a more prestigious race, and time-wise it works out well to skip the Woodward [Sept. 2] and go to the Jockey Club Gold Cup [Oct. 7] and Breeders' Cup [Nov. 4]," McLaughlin told DRF. "And, we don't have to ship." McLaughlin also told DRF that GIII Gotham S. winner Like Now (Jules) will be sidelined indefinitely with a knee chip.

Magna, Florida Horsemen Agree on Slots Revenue:

Magna Entertainment Corp., owner of Gulfstream Park, and the Florida Horsemen Benevolent and Protective Association have announced that they have reached an agreement on the revenue distribution that horsemen will receive when slots become operational this autumn at the Hallandale Beach track. Terms of the agreement call for the FHBPA to receive 7.5 percent of the revenue after the first 500 machines are installed. Once 1,500 machines--the maximum allowed under law--are installed, the share drops to 6.75 percent of revenue less than $200 million and 12.6 percent for revenues over that amount.

Aunt Henny broke her maiden in her turf debut at Gulfstream Jan. 26. After running second by a neck in a Feb. 13 allowance, she came back to take the GIII Herecomesthebride S. in her latest outing Mar. 13. Making her comeback as the even-money chalk, the chestnut stalked the pace while racing prominently. Aunt Henny rallied to gain the lead at the top of the stretch, but had to fight off the hard-charging May Night to take it on the bob.

The winner of the GIII Gotham S. last year, Survivalist was a distant second behind Bellamy Road in the GI Wood Memorial S., then was off the board in both the GIII Withers S. and GII Riva Ridge BC S. and went to the shelf. The dark bay returned after a nine-month layoff to be second in a Gulfstream allowance test Mar. 18. He disappointed as the even-money chalk in an optional claimer at Aqueduct Apr. 29, but rebounded to take a Belmont optional test May 17 and made it two in a row against similar company June 16. The odds-on choice to make it three in a row, the Phipps homebred settled in third as Mighty Mecke (Mecke) set a moderate pace. Survivalist kicked past the leader in the stretch and pulled clear. The frontrunner faded to last.

Post Invader was tossed right into the stakes ranks after an eye-catching 7 1/4-length maiden score at Calder June 24. Bumped at the break, the dark bay was last after three furlongs, but angled wide for the stretch run. She kicked past the leaders inside the eighth pole and pulled away to win handily. "She's come a long way and she improves week to week--we're keeping our fingers crossed," trainer Gerry Procino said.

Ashkal Way was a handicap winner while racing in Britain, but ended his European stint with two off-the-board efforts. The chestnut started off 2006 in Nad Al Sheba, running third in handicap company, then shipped to the U.S. and has been on a tear ever since. The Godolphin colorbearer opened her American account with a Belmont allowance win May 25, made it two straight in an optional claimer June 14 and was the slight choice to keep the streak alive here. Rated off a fast pace, he circled the field at the top of the lane and ran down Hotstufandthensome for the narrow score.

Budget Surplus didn't have an inch to spare at the line as he and Brazilian import Jackson Fire finished on even terms. The former was a close-up fifth sprinting down Santa Anita's hillside course Apr. 13, then won a NW1X over this course June 18 and was subsequently backed as the 9-5 choice here. Jackson Fire, who went missing for a year and a half off a third in his native country's G3 GP Governador do Estado in November of 2004, was well beaten in his U.S. bow at Santa Anita in April. He rebounded to wire an entry-level allowance test over Hollywood's lawn May 13, then tired to be sixth in his latest going this trip June 11. On the engine here as Budget Surplus pressured from the outside, he lost the lead in mid-stretch, but battled back for the dead-heat win. Declan's Moon Returns Today:

Unbeaten Declan's Moon (Malibu Moon), the champion juvenile male of 2004, returns to the races today for the first time since winning the GII Santa Catalina S. in March 2005. The gelding missed the Triple Crown with a knee injury; upon his to training in the fall, a nuclear scan revealed a fracture at the top of his cannon bone. He has drawn post four in today's first race, a 6 1/2-furlong optional claimer at Hollywood Park. Regular rider Victor Espinoza will be in the irons. Declan's Moon has been training steadily since his return to the Ron Ellis shedrow. "I think he's as fit as I'd want him off a layoff," Ellis told Daily Racing Form. "I think I've done enough that he can win [today]. He's got a good foundation under him. He hasn't missed a step since he's come back this time."

SONG FINE AFTER FALMOUTH DEFEAT

The Elite Racing Club's Soviet Song (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) has come out of Wednesday's G1 Falmouth S. at Newmarket with no complications, her connections revealed yesterday. The multiple Group 1 winner could do no better than sixth as the 6-5 favorite in her bid to win her third consecutive renewal of the mile contest. "She's absolutely fine," trainer James Fanshawe said yesterday. "We took every test possible and left no stone unturned and she was bouncing this morning and hopefully it won't be too long before we can get her on the course again." Fanshawe reflected on the six-year-old's failure to pick up her rivals at the end of the Falmouth, won by the 50-1 shot Rajeem (GB). "Last year, we sat last, but we were more detached this year and that was her undoing," he added. "We can't blame anybody as she likes to come with a run--that's her style."

ELECTROCUTIONIST ON COURSE FOR KING GEORGE

Godolphin yesterday issued an upbeat bulletin on their G1 Dubai World Cup hero Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) as he builds towards the July 29 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. Runner-up to Ouija Board (GB) in the June 21 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at that venue on his return to Europe, Racing Manager Simon Crisford expects an improvement when the five-year-old tackles the midsummer highlight. "He looks a lot sharper since the Royal meeting and is doing very well," he said yesterday. "We're really pleased with him and our horses weren't right at Ascot, but hopefully we can build into a rhythm now."

RED ROCK CANYON (IRE) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) is closely related to the ill-fated G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Horatio Nelson (Ire) and debuts in the maiden won by Sholokhov (Ire) and Van Nistelrooy in recent times. Michael Tabor's son of the 2001 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Imagine (Ire) from the family of Generous (Ire) is Ballydoyle through and through and, like his sire and dam, will be nurtured towards the Classics by Aidan O'Brien. He faces His Highness the Aga Khan's Eyshal (Ire) (Green Desert), who was an encouraging fourth in a course-and-distance maiden won by Ballydoyle's Duke of Marmalade (Ire) June 30. He is a son of Ebadiyla (Ire), who took the G1 Irish Oaks on this card for her owner-breeder and trainer John Oxx nine years ago. Dermot Weld saddles Ronan Lambe's newcomer Blue Coral (Ire) (Grand Lodge), a half to Friday's G1 Grand Prix de Paris runner-up Red Rocks (Ire), who adds further intrigue to an informative maiden.

Tournedos took the G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood as a juvenile, but had been in the winner's spot only once subsequently after this race 12 months ago. Coming into this renewal off a creditable fifth behind Dandy Man (Ire) in the July 2 Listed Richard H Faught Memorial S. at The Curragh, he stalked the free-wheeling Desert Lord throughout before wearing that rival down in the final strides.

Fairmile produced a late flourish to provide Walter Swinburn with his first major success as a trainer and 17-year-old jockey Adam Kirby with an early career highlight. Having prepped for this valuable and prestigious contest with a win on Kempton's polytrack June 7 and a second in a Salisbury handicap three weeks later, the homebred received an all-important low draw which had proved so advantageous in this race's history. Reserved off the furious early tempo, he stayed close to the inside rail and had already saved ground by the time they reached the straight. Swung wide for his rally, he ground his way to the front passing the eighth pole before asserting in the closing stages. "He was given a great ride and I think Adam was wise to come up the outside, because it's quite risky hoping to get through a big field," commented the owner-breeder--and Swinburn's father-in-law--Peter Harris. "He let himself down, which was our main worry as he doesn't like it too fast."

JOHN SMITH'S EXTRA SMOOTH SILVER CUP H.-Listed

Linus Selection came across the season's biggest improver in Papal Bull (GB) when runner-up in a hot handicap at Newmarket's Craven meeting Apr. 20, but got off the mark eight days later at Sandown. He stepped up to win the King George V S. at Royal Ascot last time June 23 and rewarded a nationwide gamble to register his first stakes score here. Keen in a stalking second early, the chestnut strode to the fore inside the final half mile and had almost the whole length of the long knavesmire straight to hold on to his advantage. Refusing to relinquish, he held Balkan Knight in determined fashion in the closing stages. "He was a little bit toey today and a little bit keen," jockey Kevin Darley commented. "He's an out-and-out stayer and keeps galloping and lengthening--he loves that quick ground and he's the real stuff."

Chester, 2.25, Cond, £21,000, 3yo/up, 7f 2ydsT, 1:26.48, gd/fm.

PRINCE OF LIGHT (IRE) (c, 3, Fantastic Light--Miss Queen, by Miswaki) took the G3 Sirenia S. on Newmarket's July Course in early September before finishing fifth back there on the Rowley Mile in the G1 Middle Park S. later that month. Second on his return to the smart Librettist when the track record was broken in the Listed Midsummer S. at Windsor last time July 1, the 11-8 pick broke well from his vital low draw and soon led. Kicking decisively off the final turn, the 87,190gns GOFFEB yearling had 1 1/4 lengths to spare over Vanderlin (GB) (Halling) at the line. The winner is a half to Chateau Istana (GB) (Grand Lodge), GSW-Eng, $127,643; and Mandobi (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), SP-Ire, $175,977. Lifetime Record: GSW-Eng, 7-4-1-1, £70,573.

CARESSED (GB) (f, 3, Medicean {GB}--Embraced {GB}, by Pursuit of Love {GB}) bagged a Newmarket handicap last time June 24, but needed all of Jamie Spencer's guile to prevail in this meeting highlight. Settled last of the six runners from flagfall, the 4-7 choice came under continued urging from the half-mile pole and was forcefully driven to deny Usk Poppy (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) by a head in the final stride. Lifetime Record: 4-3-1-0, £22,833.

Pushed to the front at the eighth pole, the 2-1 choice drew off late to comfortably best Mina A Salem (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) by three lengths. The winner is a half to Choc Ice (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), G1SW, $525,196. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £9,715.

Visionario arrived at the track with such a reputation that he was hammered into 3-10 favoritism at the tills and never gave supporters a moment's worry as he laid down an impressive marker for the future. Reserved in midfield after an adequate break, the crowd's choice inched closer to the pace upon passing halfway. Seizing control in a matter of strides with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, jockey Christophe Soumillon was scouting for non-existent dangers from there and Visionario required no more than second gear in the closing stages to record an unextended four-length win from Imigrante (Fr) (Gulpha Gorge). Osterhase collected this in 58.6 seconds under 141 pounds two years ago and he took fractionally longer to stage a repeat under a higher impost this time, showing the battling qualities that do not always accompany runners with his speed. He has become dear to the Irish racing scene courtesy of his blazing displays from the front, which have carried him to six stakes successes, highlighted by a career-high in the G3 Phoenix Sprint S. over six furlongs here last August. Third to the country's new sprint sensation Dandy Man (Ire) in the Listed King of Beers S. over course and distance last time July 2, he assumed his usual position at the head of affairs and was alone until joined by Leitra inside the final quarter. Headed before the furlong marker, the veteran dug in to regain the advantage with a final bob of his blinkered head. "He had to battle, as he was led by a half-length at one stage, but he pulled out all the stops," commented his admiring trainer John Mulhern. "There aren't many horses that can race for five or six years and keep showing the toe and will to win that he has. He doesn't seem to be losing any of his zest, as he's just as keen to do what he's able to do and on his day, he's probably as good as any of them." Mulhern added that he may be aimed at either the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 24 or G3 Flying Five back at this track three days later.

+ ALEXANDER TANGO (IRE) (f, 2, Danehill Dancer {Ire} --House in Wood {Fr}, by Woodman), sent off at 7-1, broke well and stalked the early pace. Switched wide for her run in the final eighth, the 56,000gns TATDEC weanling grabbed the lead with 100 yards remaining before asserting to beat In Safe Hands (Ire) (Intikhab) by 2½ lengths. She may now return for the July 29 G2 Debutante S. and G1 Moyglare Stud S. Aug. 27.

Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, €13,020.

O-Noel O'Callaghan; B-Philip Brady; T-Tommy Stack.

Curragh, 5.30, Mdn, €13,379, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT, 2:10.77, gd/fm.

SOAR WITH EAGLES (c, 3, Kingmambo--Bound {SW & GISP-US, $339,744}, by Nijinsky), eighth on debut when shipped to Newbury Apr. 22, was sent off the 9-4 crowd's choice and broke well to race prominently. Content to sit off the fight for the lead, Kieren Fallon guided him back to the front with 1½ furlongs remaining and only needed to use his whip twice to ensure a comfortable length success from Carnbridge (Ire) (Giant's Causeway). The winner is a three-parts brother to Liable (Seeking the Gold), MSP, $235,021. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, €9,328.
