IT'S A WONDER

Wonder Lady Anne L (Real Quiet) was finally ready for her close-up. Unsuccessful in four previous starts this term, the bay held off the late charge of favored

Adam Coglianese

Pine Island (Arch) and was posing in the winner's circle after the GI Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park yesterday. "I wasn't expecting anything like that," trainer Rick Dutrow Jr. said. "She broke good and put [jockey Edgar Prado] right there and she just stayed there. That was cool." Added Prado, who secured the Belmont riding title with the victory, "I wanted to be a few lengths off the lead, but she was doing things so easy I just let her do her own thing. She took the lead at the top of the stretch and I let her run." CCA Oaks cont. p2

ARE YOU EXPERIENCED?

J. Paul Reddam's Hendrix (Sultry Song) has been on the Del Mar turf before, breaking his maiden over the course in 2004. He returns to the site of his first success for today's GI Eddie Read H. Out just three times last year, the bay sandwiched an eighth in the GII Strub S. between a pair of grassy allowance wins. He failed to hit the board in his first two stakes attempts this term, but, after a change in both equipment and tactics, followed a Hollywood allowance score May 20 with a narrow loss in the July 2 GII American H., where he was beaten just 3/4 of a length by The Tin Man. "Taking blinkers off and taking him off the pace have been the keys," trainer Craig Dollase told Daily Racing Form. Eddie Read cont. p6-7

MABEE..MABEE NOT

The finish came down to the bob of a head and a call from the stewards, but when all was said and done it was Dancing Edie (Moscow Ballet) standing in the winner's circle after the GI John C. Mabee H. at Del Mar yesterday. The 4-1 shot fought off runner-up Moscow Burning (Moscow Ballet) and third-place finisher Island Fashion (Petionville) to take the three-way photo, but had bumped repeatedly with Island Fashion and was the subject of an inquiry. The stewards took a look at the tape, however, and let the original result stand. Mabee cont. p2

FIRST AVENUE

He was overlooked at the windows, but WinStar Farm's Union Avenue (Gone West) had the crowd's attention at the wire, holding off Can't Beat It (Atticus) for a half-length victory in the GII American Derby at Arlington Park yesterday. It was the second straight win in the race for Hall of Fame trainer Bill Mott, who sent out Gun Salute to take it by a nose at odds of 7-2 last year. American Derby cont. p3

She's Going the Distance...

Wonder Lady Anne L tried two turns for the first time in the GII Demoiselle S. at Aqueduct last November and came home a handy winner. Given a break after that performance, she returned to be third in the Feb. 4 GII Davona Dale S. and second in the Mar. 5 GII Bonnie Miss S. Moved up to fourth after weakening to be fifth in the May 5 GI Kentucky Oaks, the three-year-old had to settle for second once again in the June 17 Susan's Girl Breeders' Cup S. at Delaware Park, but was back in the winner's circle after stretching out to 10 furlongs for the first time yesterday. Wonder Lady Anne L pressed Sugar Shake (Awesome Again) through six panels in 1:11.52 and took over on the far turn. Six lengths in front at the eighth pole, she was all out to hold off Pine Island at the wire. "We were concerned about the track and the distance, but now we're not," Rick Dutrow Jr. said. Dancing Edie captured an optional claimer at Santa Anita Apr. 2 in her second start after a six-month lay-off, then was second in the Apr. 30 Fran's Valentine S. and the May 29 GI Gamely Breeders' Cup S. Off at 14-1 in the GIII Cash Call Mile July 1, the bay was caught in traffic and had to settle for fourth. Jockey Corey Nakatani opted to send the filly straight to the front from her inside post yesterday, but it didn't keep her completely out of trouble. Dancing Edie cruised along on a daylight lead until being joined by Island Fashion as they came out of the turn. The two bumped at the top of the lane and scrimmaged all the way to the wire as Moscow Burning snuck through from the rail. Despite the contact, Dancing Edie kept on running and came out on top in the photo. "I think she really showed her guts," co-owner Paul Reddam said. "She never quits, this filly." John D. Marsh S. at Colonial Downs. Overlooked by the Arlington crowd in his graded bow, the bay raced wide while pressing the pace through a half in :48.66. He grabbed a short lead after six panels in 1:13.99, opened up daylight at midstretch and, belying his rival's name, held off runner-up Can't Beat It to the wire. "He broke good and has stalking speed," said jockey Larry Melancon. "I waited and stole off around the turn, and they didn't catch me." *Papi Chullo (Comeonmom) finished third, but was DQ'd and placed seventh.

A 50-1 outsider when he beat Closing Argument by a half length in the 2005 Kentucky Derby, Giacomo was a distant third in the GI Preakness and disappeared after running seventh in the GI Belmont S. The gray returned to be third in the Feb. 4 GII Strub S., but was sidelined once again after finishing fifth in the Mar. 4 GI Santa Anita H. The fourth choice facing six rivals in his second comeback attempt, he raced at the back of the pack until they hit the stretch. The four-year-old angled outside for the stretch drive and responded to jockey Mike Smith's left-handed whip to get up for a head victory. Rathor (Ire) (Machiavellian), sent off the 5-2 chalk, pressed the pace from second before tiring to be last. Chic Dancer rattled off three straight over the Arlington grass last term, including a $100,000 optional claimer in August. The bay finished fourth in Hawthorne's Indian Maid Breeders' Cup H. in September, then closed out the season with a third-place finish in that track's Yo Tambien S. in November. She kicked off the new year with a third-place finish in a Hawthorne $100,000 optional tagger Apr. 23, but got back on track over her favorite course, winning her fourth straight on the Arlington sod in the Reluctant Guest S. last out May 28. Overlooked a bit at the windows here, the bay stalked in third as Round Heels (Ire) (Daggers Drawn) led through fractions of :23.85 and :48.34. Chic Dancer awaited room at the top of the stretch, was angled off the rail shortly thereafter, rallied to the front and gamely held off Louve Royale. "She ran a great race," jockey Christopher Emigh said. "She was really relaxed for me, more relaxed than she ever has been before. She was like a pony horse. She never turned a hair." Also Ran: Red Fort (Ire), Rush Bay, Embossed (Ire).

Cosmonaut had been racing on the turf, but experienced a surface switch when the Mar. 25 Golden Gate Fields H. was moved to the main track and responded with a 4 1/4-length score. The gray colt remained on the dirt for his next three outings, but was off the board every time, most recently finishing ninth and last in the June 17 GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs. Returning to the lawn here, he went to the front soon after the break, cut out moderate fractions over the yielding surface and held Load a Chronic at bay to win handily.

"He was very relaxed, and when I asked him at the three-eighths pole, he gave a good answer," said winning jockey Julien Leparoux. "Going back to the turf helped, too."

Fayr Jag has carved out a reputation as a fast-ground specialist, and the going was certainly quick enough when he took the G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot in 2004. This term, he confounded expectations with a highly creditable fourth in York's testing conditions in the May 17 G2 Duke of York S. before two off-the-board efforts in the June 5 Listed Leisure S. at Windsor and the latest renewal of the Golden Jubilee at the Royal meeting June 24. Rebounding to win the G3 Chipchase S. at Newcastle July 1, he was down the field in last Friday's G1 Darley July Cup. Despite the fear that the rainfall preceding this contest might dent his chances, he pulled another rabbit out of the hat. Always prominent, the veteran found his way to the front inside the final eighth and kept his nose ahead as Kodiac made rapid inroads in the late stages. The winner will be pointed to the Aug. 24 G1 Nunthorpe S. at York. Click for the racingpost.co.uk chart.

Electric Beat was runner-up in the G2 Maurice Lacroix-Trophy at Baden-Baden in September and fourth in the G1 Gran Criterium at the San Siro the following month. He finished second in the Listed Lanson-Cup back at Baden-Baden May 21, but was disqualified to third. The three-year-old showed that seven furlongs holds no fear when taking the Listed Grosser Preis der Sparda Bank Hannover last time June 18. Reserved in rear throughout the early stages, he used that extra stamina to full effect as he delivered with a last-to-first flourish to overwhelm Matrix in the final 50 yards. "He's the fastest sprinter I've sat on," jockey Andreas Helfenbein commented.

Aspectus captured the premier trial, the July 2 G2 Oppenheim-Union-Rennen at Cologne, and is in the driver's seat for the 137th renewal of this Classic. He had Lauro, Oriental Tiger and Imonso behind last time, and made up for his sole disappointment when down the field in the June 4 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. Prior to that, his climb to prominence was text book by German standards. He won the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten at Cologne in October before returning to annex the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial at Krefeld Apr. 23. The colt may have found the mile of the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) too short when a highly creditable head runner-up to Royal Power (Ire) May 14, and is more at home over middle distances. Schiaparelli has this race in his blood and bids to emulate his brother Samum (Ger), who dominated the 2000 edition. He has taken an unorthodox route to the race, having already encountered his elders when runner-up in the G1 Deutschland-Preis at Dusseldorf June 25. That effort confirmed the impression that he is one of his country's leading three-year-olds, suggested by his score in the Listed Grosser Preis der Hannoverschen Volksbank at Hannover June 5. He forms a three-pronged attack from the Peter Schiergen stable successful with Boreal (Ger) five years ago. His stable companions are Lauro, who took the Listed Prix de l'Avre at Longchamp May 31 before his second to Aspectus in Cologne, and Imonso. The latter relished the soft conditions when beating Dark Dancer and subsequent G3 Hamburger-Meile scorer Lateral (Ger) in convincing style in the June 5 G3 Bavarian Classic at Munich, but was undone on quicker ground when fourth in the Oppenheim-Union-Rennen. Trainer Peter Rau captured this prize in 1996 with Lavirco (Ger) and relies on Saddex, who booked his ticket here with an impressive success in the Listed Derby-Trial at Bremen July 9.

First or second in all five U.S. starts, Aragorn looks to add to his impressive resume as he stretches out to nine furlongs. The chestnut colt captured his only other start at the Eddie Read trip, taking the GII Oak Tree Derby by a nose last October. Second in both the Mar. 4 GI Frank Kilroe H. and Apr. 29 GII San Francisco BC Mile S. to start 2006, he comes off a 1 3/4-length tally in the May 29 GI Shoemaker BC Mile S. at Hollywood. Third in this race two years ago, Sweet Return wired the field in the 2005 edition of this event, but has been off the board in all five starts since. The six-year-old shortens up after finishing fourth behind Lava Man in the 10-furlong GI Charlie Whittingham H. at Hollywood July 2. "He's training great and I look for a good effort from him," trainer Ron McAnally said. The consistent Fourty Niners Son has been in the money in 11 of his 12 turf tries. Second to Sweet Return here last summer, the chestnut followed a third in the GI Arlington Million with a rallying success in the GI Clement L. Hirsch S. at the Oak Tree meet in October. He faded to ninth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf, but returned to finish a neck runner-up to Hendrix in a Hollywood allowance May 20 before running third in the July 2 GII American H. last time out.

Revved Up has been a revelation over the last two seasons. The eight-year-old was first or second in all eight starts last term, with his five wins including the GII Niagara BC H. over this course and distance and the GIII Stars and Stripes BC H. at Arlington. The gray gelding made his 2006 debut in a stakes going nine furlongs at Tampa Bay Downs May 6, closing from just off the pace to take it by three lengths, but was prominent from the start in a 10-panel optional claimer at Belmont June 23 before winning by 1 1/4 lengths. Jambalaya, four-for-seven at Woodbine, outfinished Last Answer to take the Singspiel S. at 1 1/2 miles June 25. He is two-for-three at the route.

All carry 123 pounds.

Although there is no obvious standout in this event, the select line-up is packed with talent. Andre Fabre, who has won three of the last five renewals, gets the services of Christophe Soumillon for Linda's Lad. Last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner was fourth in the G2 Prix Noailles on his sophomore debut Apr. 17 before winning the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial under a seven-pound penalty May 13. He lost his head in the preliminaries for the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby and failed to land a blow in ninth, but is on a comeback mission here. Multiplex forms the second string to Fabre's bow and defends an unbeaten record, having been promoted to first from second in the G3 Prix la Rochette at Longchamp last September before returning to take the Listed Prix de Saint-Patrick at Deauville last time July 4. Unlike that rival, Dragon Dancer is yet to grace the winners' spot, but is arguably the best maiden in Europe after his seconds to Papal Bull (GB) in the May 11 G3 Chester Vase and to Sir Percy (GB) in the Epsom Derby. He raced too freely early on when fourth in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh July 2 and needs to settle better to show his true worth.

Grand Vista has made an instant impression on the domestic juvenile scene with two effortless scores at Chantilly June 19 and Deauville July 4, and will be a warm order to follow up here. Italy captured this prize in 2000 and have a live chance of a repeat with Golden Titus should the favorite show a weakness. He has looked clearly the best of his generation at home with scores in the May 28 Listed Premio Alberto Giubilo at the Capannelle and G3 Premio Primi Passi at the San Siro June 17. Boccassini was runner-up to Sandwaki in the G3 Prix du Bois at this track last time July 2 and warrants respect, as does the July 6 Listed Prix Yacowlef scorer Beauty is Truth, who hails from the Robert Collet barn successful with Zipping (Ire) in 2001 and New Girlfriend (Ire) 12 months ago.

Spite the Devil, a two-time winner of the Empire Classic for New York-breds, hadn't had his picture taken in five previous starts this year. The six-year-old came into this one off a sixth--beaten a half-length--in a starter allowance for state-breds June 29 at Belmont. Unhurried early, the dark bay came five wide with his run and continued on steadily for his fifth career stakes success. But trainer Allen Jerkens nearly didn't pull Spite the Devil out of his stall. "He looked a little skinny [in the] morning and I was actually thinking of scratching him," said the Hall of Famer. "I'm glad I didn't." As for the veteran's next start, Jerkens said, "He probably won't run at Saratoga...we'll try to get him ready for the fall and the Empire Classic."

She concluded her juvenile campaign with a fourth to Wonder Lady Anne L--heroine of yesterday's GI CCA Oaks--in the GI Demoiselle S. Nov. 26. The bay returned to action June 17 in the six-furlong Dearly Precious S. over this strip and finished fourth, but was favored while stretching out to a more suitable distance here. After rating in fourth, the Michael Tabor colorbearer set her sights on Suffolk shipper Zooming By in the lane and wore her down late. "Her last race was used as a sprint to get her tight for the stretch-out," explained Anthony Sciametta, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. Barilko wired $50,000 maiden claimers over track and trip in his July 3 debut and was the third choice to stay perfect here. Sent to the front once again, he rattled off :21.66 and :44.93 fractions and won for fun. "We were a little worried because we thought there was all kinds of speed in the race, but like last time, he broke out of there running," said winning rider Constant Montpellier. "He's very talented and professional, and he showed all those aspects today."

Also ran: Gower Song (GB), Sindirana (Ire), Power Girl (Ger), Reem Three (GB), Desert Move (Ire).

Quenched debuted with a second-place finish in a nine-furlong Goodwood maiden May 25 and went one better next time over a panel further at Windsor June 7. She was impressive enough in that heat to warrant a spot in the starting gate for the June 22 G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot and finished sixth after finding traffic in the closing stages. In this one, she dropped back to stalk the moderate early pace after leading through the first furlong. The homebred was shaken up approaching the quarter pole, was angled off the rail and driven through a gap between the front-running Cresta Gold and Pictavia, and took it up 50 yards from home before asserting for the score.

STEVENTON S.-Listed, £28,000, Newbury, 7-22, 3yo/up, 10f 6ydsT, 2:04.46, gd.

3--Khyber Kim (GB), 129, g, 4, Mujahid--Jungle Rose (Ire), by Shirley Heights (GB). (40,000gns yrl '03 TATOCT). £3,015.

Margins: HD, 1 1/4, 27. Odds: 5-2, 7-4, 5-2.

Also ran: Mulaqat (GB). Scratched: Kandidate (GB).

Tam Lin rallied from last to first when taking a Leicester maiden on his racetrack bow Apr. 29 and he followed up in the Listed Glasgow S. at Hamilton May 19. Far from disgraced when fifth in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot last time June 23, he settled in third early here before being pulled wide to launch his challenge inside the final quarter. Ryan Moore only drew the persuader deep inside the final eighth, and Tam Lin had enough in reserve to cut down Windsor Knot in the shadow of the post.

Margins: 1, HD, 1 1/4. Odds: 9-1, 100-1, 20-1.

Elhamri lost no time in demonstrating his ability, besting subsequent G2 Norfolk S. runner-up Hoh Mike (Ire) in a Windsor maiden on debut Apr. 24. He got stuck in the mud when last of six in the Listed Aubigny S. at Goodwood May 26, but put that firmly behind him when wiring the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot June 22. Sent straight to the head of affairs again here, the bay charted his course down the favored central strip before holding his only realistic challenger, We'll Confer, in the final quarter. "He was beaten twice inside the final furlong and still battled back," jockey Declan McDonogh said. Trainer Sylvester Kirk added, "He did a great time at Ascot and probably didn't get as much recognition as he should have done. He's had a nice break and strengthened and is improving all the time. The initial plan was to go to Goodwood for the [Aug. 1] G3 Molecomb S., but there is also the G1 Prix Morny [at Deauville Aug. 20], which he might just take on--we'll see what the ground is like."

Newbury, 4.00, Cond, £12,000, 2yo, 7fT, 1:25.73, gd.

THOUSAND WORDS (GB) (c, 2, Dansili {GB}--Verbose {SP-Eng}, by Storm Bird) took a six-furlong maiden here on debut June 15. In this one, he was settled towards the rear of the small field throughout the early stages. Shaken up at the quarter pole, the 15-8 chance overcame greenness to collar the front-running Drumfire (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and score by a neck. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, £13,955.

LILY ELSIE (IRE) (f, 3, Danehill--Toroca {GSW-Ity, MG1SP-Eng & G1SP-Ire, $229,345}, by Nureyev) finished third in a Naas maiden in her latest outing 10 days ago. This time, she stalked the early pace before making her move at the top of the straight. Taking over passing the quarter pole, the 11-4 second choice battled gamely to withstand the late threat of Leaside Music (Ire) (Lil's Boy) and win by a head. Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-1, €14,300.

Tipperary, 6.00, Mdn, €16,847, 2yo, 5fT, 57.31, fm. RABATASH (c, 2, Johannesburg--Attasliyah {Ire}, by Marju {Ire}) met a smart rival in City of Tribes (Ire) when runner-up over course and distance on debut June 5 before finishing seventh from a disadvantageous draw in the Listed Windsor Castle S. at Royal Ascot June 20. Sent off the 4-7 favorite following the scratch of Aidan O'Brien's newcomer Brave Tin Soldier (Storm Cat), the $280,000 KEENOV weanling and $385,000 KEESEP yearling led at every step to record a snug 2 1/2-length success from Divert (Ire) (Averti {Ire}). Rabatash becomes the 11th winner for his freshman sire (by Hennessy). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, €14,637.

NAIGANI (Storm Cat) is the latest progeny of the top-class Fiji (GB), already responsible for this year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Marcus Andronicus. Aidan O'Brien saddles the colt, who debuts in Betty Maxwell-Moran's silks against His Highness the Aga Khan's Sirindiya (Ire) (Night Shift), a filly from the family of Sinnidar (Ire).

3.20 Maisons-Laffitte, Cond, €26,000, 3yo, 6fT.

ZIZANY (IRE) (Zafonic) stepped up from a debut score at Dieppe to run third in a conditions race at Chantilly only 10 days ago and is partnered by Christophe Soumillon. Richard Strauss's half-brother to the top-class Zipping (Ire) and smart sprinters Nipping (Ire) and Zelding (Ire) is all about speed, and trainer Robert Collet knows the family inside out.

LOMITAS BACK TO FAHRHOF

Lomitas (GB) (Niniski--La Colorada {Ger}, by Surumu {Ger}) has returned to Gestut Fahrhof, where he was bred, after a spell with Darley in England. The champion three-year-old of 1991, he won three Group 1 events highlighted by the Grosser Preis von Baden. He is the sire of 11 individual group winners, including 2001 GI Arlington Million hero Silvano (Ger) and 1999 G1 Deutsches Derby victor Belenus (Ger). The 18-year-old has already arrived back at Fahrhof. His fee for 2007 has yet to be announced.
