SCAT DEFINITELY CAN DO

After a year's hiatus, the GII Sanford S. is back to kick off Saratoga's trio of graded stakes for two-year-old males. Owner James Scatuorchio and trainer Todd Pletcher, immortalized by today's bobblehead give-away, are no strangers to this event, having won it with More Than Ready in 1999. The team return to the scene of many of their finest hours with Scat Daddy (Johannesburg), a colt in which Pletcher and his father J.J. reportedly each own a 25-percent stake. And ever since his much ballyhooed debut, stakes are where the $250,000 Keeneland September graduate has been heading. Entered in a Monmouth maiden June 2 after several similar spots failed to fill in New York, the dark bay was scratched instead and ran the following day at Belmont Park. That race marked the return to competition of jockey John Velazquez, injured in a horrific spill at Keeneland Apr. 20, but Scat Daddy did his part, winning off by 5 1/4 lengths in the mud, a performance which particularly impressed his trainer. "I don't think this horse wants to be rushed off his feet as much as he way," Pletcher commented.

"The first time out going five and a half furlongs over a muddy track, you don't necessarily want to take back and get mud in your face. So I thought he ran very well by running a style he's not best suited to." On paper, there appears to be little competition, but War Wolf (Tale of the Cat) broke his maiden in 1:03 2/5 at Churchill July 2 and can complete a chalky exacta.

FIRST SAMURAI RETIRED

Bruce Lansford and Lansdon Robbins III's First Samurai (Giant's Causeway--Freddie Frisson, by Dixieland Band), a dual Grade I winner at two, has been retired from racing and has arrived at Claiborne Farm, where he will begin his stud career in 2007. The decision to call a halt to his racing days was made after connections determined they would be unsuccessful in preparing the colt for a fall campaign. "We had planned to retire First Samurai at the end of the season, but as it became clear that we did not have enough time to achieve our major objectives, we made the decision to stop on him now," Lunsford explained. "He was a brilliant racehorse and we are very disappointed, but we're also looking forward to the next phase of his career." The best of his generation for most of 2005, First Samurai won his first four starts, including the GI Hopeful S. and the GI Champagne S., the first to sweep those events since Dehere in 1993. Third to eventual champion Stevie Wonderboy in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Oct. 29, the chestnut returned to run a bang-up second to Keyed Entry in the GII Hutcheson S. Feb. 4. He finished runner-up in the Mar. 4 GII Fountain of Youth S., but was promoted to the victory after being interfered with by Corinthian. He had been sidelined with broken ribs likely suffered at the start of the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. Apr. 15. Bred in Kentucky by John D. Gunther, First Samurai heads to the breeding shed with a record of 8-5-1-1 and earnings of $915,075.

First Samurai Steve Sherack

PLETCHER OFF ON THE RIGHT FOOT

For the third time in the last four runnings, trainer Todd Pletcher has kicked off the Saratoga meet with a victory in the GIII Schuylerville S., sending out Dogwood Stable's Cotton Blossom (Broken Vow) to a 1 3/4-length success on a sunsplashed afternoon. "I always love to get that first win out of the way," the conditioner said following the race. Cont. p2

Originally a member of this stable's Monmouth-based string, Cotton Blossom was hammered down to 2-5 for her five-furlong bow June 17 and obliged, coming from just off the pace to score by 5 3/4 lengths. Never far from the front while stalking from the outside, the bay rallied four wide on the turn, struck the front in upper stretch and dug in gamely for the win. "We let her do her thing and she ran a very professional race," said trainer Todd Pletcher. "She looked like a winner every step of the way." Favored Desire to Excel stumbled badly at the start and came to win the race in deep stretch, but was outfinished. Cotton Blossom is likely to start next in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 3.

ultimate Thoroughbred yearling auction," commented Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "It offers an unparalleled selection of quality individuals at all levels of the market, allowing buyers to fill their orders at one location. Such strong participation from buyers--both principals and representatives--from every corner of the world makes Keeneland September the global marketplace for yearlings." The total number of horses cataloged surpasses the previous record of 5,110 set last year and features offerings by over 300 stal-

ions, including A.P. Indy, Danzig, Deputy Minister, Distorted Humor, Elusive Quality, Forestry, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Gone West, Kingmambo, Pulpit, Sadler's Wells, Seeking the Gold, Storm Cat and Unbridled's Song, among others. Last year's September sale established a world record for gross receipts of $384,349,900. The average of $108,420 and median of $40,000 also set new industry standards. The sale was topped by a colt by Storm Cat--Tranquility Lake (Rahy), purchased by Sheikh Mohammed for $9.7 million from Mill Ridge Sales, agent for Marty and Pam Wygod.

SOUILLON ON THE HURRICANE Trainer Andre Fabre has confirmed that Christophe Soumillon will partner Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. Following regular rider Kieren Fallon's UK riding ban imposed by the Horseracing Regulatory Authority, Soumillon will partner last year's G1 Irish Derby and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner for the first time since finishing runner-up in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly last June. "It is not a worry that Kieren does not ride and Christophe does," Fabre told the Post. "Christophe knows the horse, he is one of the world's top jockeys and is perfectly able to ride Hurricane Run at Ascot."

NTRA, BREEDERS' CUP STRIKE MODIFIED OPERATING AGREEMENT

by Tom LaMarra, courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association and Breeders' Cup have struck a new joint operating agreement through at least 2008, ending speculation the two organizations could go their separate ways. In addition, they will have separate chief executive officers. The boards of directors of the NTRA and Breeders' Cup announced the decision July 26 after two days of meetings in Lexington. Under terms of the new agreement, the two organizations will continue to work jointly on television, marketing, public relations and sponsorship initiatives, and continue to share offices and administrative functions. The organizations, however, will have separate budgeting and accounting functions and separate CEOs, as was the case from 2001-04. "We'll be tracking the budgets separately, but the boards determined it would be best to continue with the financial apparatus that's in place through this year," NTRA Senior Vice President of Communications Keith Chamblin said in a follow-up interview. "It's still a joint budget; however, we are tracking organizational revenue and expenses separately as a way of making it easier to transition to separate budgets in 2007." As for the different CEOs, Chamblin said the two boards would decide on their search processes. "It was discussed, but no particular course of action was decided upon," Chamblin said. Before Tim Smith departed in 2004, he headed the NTRA, and D.G. Van Clief Jr. was president of Breeders' Cup. When Smith resigned, Van Clief became NTRA commissioner and continued as Breeders' Cup president.

Awesome Twist, several lengths last in the early stages, benefitted from a hot speed duel to get up in the final strides. After winning a local allowance at this distance last August, the chestnut ran sixth in a pair of graded stakes: the GII Jerome H. Sept. 11 at Belmont and the GIII Perryville S. Oct. 14 at Keeneland. He didn't face the starter again until June 14, when he captured a Belmont optional claimer going 6 1/2 furlongs. Unhurried early as Spanish Chestnut and I'm the Tiger ripped through fractions of :21.50 and :44.67, Awesome Twist drew a bit closer through the turn, angled to the inside and just reeled in the valiant I'm the Tiger for his second straight victory. Away alertly, the bay was shadowed in the early stages before kicking clear on his way to a 2 1/2-length score over Congo King (Horse Chestnut {SAf}). The winner, a full to Bay Head King, MSP, $210,713; and Run Production, SW, was a $180,000 KEESEP yearling. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 5-2-2-1, $74,920. Godolphin's colorbearer Rondo took the first maiden of the 2006 Saratoga meeting in impressive fashion. A $450,000 FTKJUL yearling and $2.9-million FTFEB two-year-old, he made one start for Eoin Harty last year, finishing second by 3/4 of a length to High Cotton in a Belmont maiden Sept. 17. The bay resurfaced June 18 at Belmont and crossed the wire first after a hard-fought effort, but was disqualified to second because jockey Edgar Prado's whip struck a rival. Prado didn't use his stick much this time, though. Hammered down to 1-5, Rondo glided along in second through the turn, assumed command at the head of the lane with his ears pricked and opened up en route to a 9 1/2-length tally. Mott Stable Gearing Up:

Saturday should prove to be a busy day for trainer Bill Mott, as the veteran is set to saddle Claiborne Farm's Wend (Pulpit) and Live Oak Plantation's My Typhoon (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) in the first Grade I of the meet, the Diana S. Wend, winner of the GIII Jenny Wiley S. in April, is looking to snap a two-race losing streak in the nine-furlong Diana, while My Typhoon comes into the half-million dollar event off a 1 3/4-length victory in the GIII Mint Julep H. at Churchill Downs June 17. Mott also indicated that undefeated After Market (Storm Cat), impressive winner of the GIII Lexington S. over the Belmont turf July 9, is set to take on GII Jefferson Cup S. winner Brilliant (War Chant) in the GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame Breeders' Cup S. Aug. 7. "He's going to be here and as long as it doesn't get rained off the turf, it makes more sense than shipping to Arlington for the [GI] Secretariat S. After first suggesting that Commentator (Distorted Humor) could concentrate on one-turn races for the balance of this season, trainer Nick Zito and owner Tracy Farmer seem to have had a change of heart and may give the New York-bred the chance to defend his championship in the GI Whitney H. at Saratoga Aug. 5. "You know, Mr. Farmer has an expression--never say never," the conditioner said, adding that they would "keep an open mind and see what happens." Shelved off a distant third in the GI Woodward S. last September, Commentator returned to thrash a field of state-breds by 6 1/4 lengths in the July 12 Mugatea S. at

Commentator Adam Coglianese

Belmont, covering the 6 1/2 furlongs in 1:15. Zito also reports that GI Met Mile runner-up and GII Commonwealth Breeders' Cup S. winner Sun King (Charismatic) remains on track for the Whitney despite his last-out defeat in the Albert the Great S. at Belmont July 7.

Original Spin Gets in a Breeze:

Original Spin (Distorted Humor), trainer Tony Mitchell's one-headed monster at Saratoga, breezed three-eighths of a mile in a bullet :35 yesterday morning over the main track. While the GIII Arlington-Washington Lassie S. winner is going to be nominated to the GI Darley Test S. Aug. 5, her main target at the meet will likely be the GIII Victory Ride S. Aug. 24, given that the Illinois-bred has struggled in a pair of starts this season. "When she got to Florida, we ran into a couple of problems with her," said the trainer's wife Sherri. "She didn't acclimatize to the hot weather well. It sent her into a hormonal whirlwind. After that, we had to give her some time off to get her mentally back on track." On her most recent appearance, Original Spin could not overcome a wide trip and was sixth in the restricted Purple Violet S. at Arlington Park June 24.

Statistically Strong Opening Day:

All-sources handle on the opening day of racing at the Saratoga meeting was $15,533,027, bettering the former record of $14,941,864 set in 2002. An on-track crowd of 27,346 was responsible for on-track handle of $3,789,795, also a record. The previous mark was set in 2002, when 32,913 wagered $3,723,441.

Barbaro Update

BARBARO REMAINS STABLE, COMFORTABLE
by Gail Luciani, Director of UPenn Office of Communications

KENNETT SQUARE, PA... According to Chief of Surgery Dean Richardson, Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro slept well after his left hind foot bandage was changed yesterday. "I'm happy with the appearance of this foot, which is doing as well as can be expected," said Dr. Richardson. "Over the last several days, his temperature has been normal and his blood work has significantly improved suggesting that the infection in his right hind is under control." His heart rate is also consistently normal now, a good indication that he is stable and comfortable. Barbaro remains in the Intensive Care Unit of Penn's George D. Widener Hospital. The next update will be posted on Friday, July 28 unless there is a significant change in Barbaro's condition.

For more info on Barbaro, please see www.vet.upenn.edu.

MEC Announces Slots Financing:

Magna Entertainment Corporation, the parent company of Gulfstream Park in Hallandale, Florida, has announced that it has added a tranche of $25.75 million to fund the design and construction of a slots facility to be located in the existing Gulfstream clubhouse building. This includes the purchase and installation of 500 slot machines. "This new financing will fund the installation of 500 slot machines at Gulfstream Park, which will enhance Gulfstream's capability as a year-round entertainment destination center," said Blake Tohana, MEC's executive vice president and chief financial officer. "We expect to open the Gulfstream Park slot facility in October of this year."

Gallagher to Leave KHRA:

Jim Gallagher, for the last 22 months the executive director of the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority, will resign his position effective Oct. 1, 2006, the Blood-Horse reports. "I really enjoyed my time working with the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority but I was torn between a job I really liked and my family," Gallagher told the publication. "I feel very fortunate to have had the job and I feel like we got a lot of things accomplished, but I didn't feel like I was being a very good husband, father, and son. Basically, it all came down to family issues." During his tenure, the KHRA became more strict on issues pertaining to medication rules, employed more veterinarians and developed a new breeders' incentive program. Gallagher says he intends to remain active in the KHRA right up to his departure. "I want the transition to be as smooth as possible," he added. "As much as we got accomplished, there are still more things to be done, and I want to help the authority members as much as I can before I leave."

"He's a grand horse: a Group 1-winning two-year-old who has sired some significant black-type performers like Mixed Blessing, winner of last year's G3 Princess Margaret S." Goff added, "The track in Athens is now a dirt track, the fact that he is by Seeking the Gold should fit the bill well. We are delighted that we have been able to put together this exciting move for Elia Stud."
