yesterday's GII Sanford S. at Saratoga. Sent off the hot 1-5 choice to handle the step up from maiden company with aplomb, the James Scatuorchio-owned colt had to work a lot harder than most had expected heading into the six-furlong affair. Bumped at the start, the bay recovered quickly and was asked to settle off a crisp early pace set by 13-1 shot Teuflesberg. Kept to the inside by jockey John Velazquez through a half in :45.77, the colt swung out for the drive and finally got going in the final 100 yards to just get up for a neck score. Partnered with Cotton Blossom's win in Wednesday's GII Schuylerville S., the victory gave trainer Todd Pletcher a clean sweep of both juvenile graded stakes opening week. cont. p2

Newsells Park Stud's G2 Princess of Wales's S. winner

Soapy Danger had been the sole three-year-old remaining in consideration, but connections have opted to avoid a clash with the stellar older cast. "We believe he's come a long way in a short period of time and Saturday's race is asking too much of a question of him at this stage in his career," Klaus and Renata Jacobs' Racing Manager Gary Coffey said yesterday. "He's got a lot of class, but he only broke his maiden at Wolverhampton in February, so we've got to be realistic." Who's Your Daddy?

Scat Daddy had a lot to live up to heading into his career debut at Belmont Park June 3 and he handled the 5 1/2-furlong trip, and the mud, with ease by running off to an easy 5 1/4-length tally as the 3-5 choice. Up to pressure the early pace that day, the $250,000 KEESSEP yearling purchase was asked to track the leaders following a rough break this time, but according to trainer Todd Pletcher, the race served as a learning experience. "The good news now is that he has got an educational trip under his belt," explained Pletcher. "He got dirt in his face and he was down inside..He was a little green." Winning rider Johnny Velazquez echoed the sentiment. "He didn't want to go head to head inside, so I just let him go," he said. "It was his first time being inside, so you had to teach him something. He learned a lot." According to Pletcher, the colt is likely to make his next start in the GI Hopeful S. Sept. 4.

LIGHT ADDED TO SUSSEX FIELD

Godolphin has supplemented impressive G3 Summer Mile S. winner Echo of Light (GB) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) to Wednesday's G1 Sussex S. at the Glorious Goodwood meeting. Racing Manager Simon Crisford revealed that the four-year-old's participation in the £300,000 contest, for which the operation also have G1 July S. runner-up Iffraaj (GB) (Zafonic), G3 Prix Messidor victor Librettist (Danzig) and last year's G1 Prix de la Foret second Caradak (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}), will depend on easing of the ground at the venue. "We'll wait and see what the weather does, as although he has been supplemented, he is not a definite runner," Crisford said yesterday. "He is dependent on the ground and we've got to look at the big picture--we have Iffraaj probably running in [Tuesday's] G2 Lennox S., but he will also be confirmed for the Sussex as well." Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. hero Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre), who was purchased to stand at Plantation Stud at the end of the season, headed the 15 remaining entries for the mile event. Aidan O'Brien has left in a trio, headed by Susan Magnier and John Ingham's G1 Queen Anne S. winner Ad Valorem (Danzig), while Sir Michael Stoute has left in Cheveley Park Stud's G1 Juddmonte Lockinge S. winner Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), Betty Moran's Jeremy (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Philip Newton's G2 Sandown Mile victor Rob Roy (Lear Fan).

Ad Valorem Horsephotos

Manager Simon Crisford. "He's really well and seems to be in excellent condition," Crisford said. "We couldn't be happier with him and the horses are performing better now and seem to be finishing their races, which is something that was lacking earlier in the year. Hopefully, that's behind us now and we can move on. We want to make sure that there's not a falsely run race, so Cherry Mix is a pacemaker, but I'm sure all the others will appreciate that as well. Heart's Cry looked excellent in Dubai and is going to be a really hard horse to beat, but I think we've got to respect all the opposition, as it's going to be a cracking race. I don't think there's any question that Hurricane Run is going to be right and I'm sure he's the horse everyone has to beat." Enforcer will start at long odds, but the five-year-old has outside claims on his third behind Shirocco (Ger) and Ouija Board in the June 2 G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom. He filled the same spot behind Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Maraahel in the G2 Hardwicke S. at the Royal meeting here June 24 and behind Soapy Danger in the Princess of Wales's at Newmarket last time July 13. "He's run some really creditable races this year and, although the King George looks a very good race and we're under no illusions, he deserves to be in the line-up," jockey Martin Dwyer commented yesterday. "If we have the thunderstorms and it goes soft, it increases his chances and, hopefully, he'll run a big race and be thereabouts."

WOODBINE JOINS ERA BID FOR NEW YORK RACING FRANCHISE

By Tom Precious, courtesy of Blood-Horse.com

Empire Racing Associates has added another potent partner, Woodbine Entertainment Group, to its team vying to take over the franchise to operate Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga racetracks.

Empire, which has prided itself on the New York roots of its horsemen members, turned to the Canadian racetrack giant as 16 groups in all are in the midst of rushing to submit their bids by the end of August for the franchise now held by the New York Racing Association. The franchise expires December 31, 2007.

"Empire Racing is New York's home-grown solution. Now we're excited to add world class talent, expertise, and a truly international perspective to our team to make New York the world capital of horse racing," said Jeff Perlee, Empire Racing's chief executive officer. The addition of Woodbine comes after Delaware North Cos. recently joined the Empire efforts.

Empire officials said Woodbine representatives will not sit on the group's board of directors, but will help develop a "state-of-the-art" operational plan for Aqueduct and Belmont racetracks.

Woodbine will also have a financial position with the Empire group, though a spokesman for the New York organization, Glen Mathes, could not immediately provide details about the investment. He noted the board approved a provision that no outside company could hold more than an 8% share in Empire. "Their interest is substantially less," he said.

Perlee could not be immediately reached for details on the financial arrangement.

Songster Readies for Amsterdam:

Songster (Songandaprayer), winner of the GIII Hirsch Jacobs S. May 20, posted his fourth workout yesterday since a victory in the GII Woody Stephens BC S. June 10. The Darley Stables representative, who is slated to make his next start in Monday's GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga, completed four furlongs in :50 3/5. "He worked good as he always does, and he's ready to go for Monday's race," explained trainer Tom Albertrani. "We normally don't work him fast. We just wanted to stretch his legs." Albertrani indicated that the colt will also be targeted toward Saratoga's marquee event for sprinters, the GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 26.

Songster Adam Coglianese

Godolphin Outlines Plans:

Godolphin's Rondo (Grand Slam), who graduated by 9 1/2 lengths at Saratoga Wednesday, will be targeted toward the GII Jerome H. at Belmont Park Oct. 1, according to Saeed bin Suroor's U.S. assistant Rick Mettee yesterday. The $2.9-million FTFEB purchase completed six furlongs in 1:09 4/5, running the final furlong in :11 1/5. "He handled himself professionally in the paddock and on the track," said Mettee. As for the colt's immediate future, Mettee added, "We're going to make a decision within a couple of weeks. Obviously, we are going to give him a race before the Jerome." Pondering another stable star's future, Mettee indicated that UAE Derby hero Discreet Cat (Forestry), who had been considered for the GI Travers S. Aug. 26, will be sidelined until the fall following loss of training after developing a cough and fever last month. "Unfortunately, he's going to miss the Saratoga meet," explained Mettee. "He's just starting to come back. We're going to look at the Belmont fall meet for him. In the meantime, he is going to start breezing over the track."

A $170,000 KEESEP yearling, the gray debuted with a runner-up finish over the Aqueduct inner Dec. 3 then added Lasix and finished second to Achilles of Troy over a sloppy inner track Dec. 29. Settled off the pace here, the 3/4 to Day Trader (Phone Trick), GSW, $447,864, lacked room at the quarter pole, then angled out while rallying towards the front at midstretch. He was shut off by Boss Zach inside the final furlong and crossed the wire a neck in arrears, but was awarded the victory by the stewards. Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $38,800.

Baffert Runners to Skip Haskell:

He has won the race three out of the last five years, but trainer Bob Baffert won't have a horse in the Aug. 6 GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park. Baffert considered bringing Point Determined (Point Given), the son of his 2001 Haskell hero, or Sinister Minister (Old Trieste), runaway winner of the GI Blue Grass S. in April, but said yesterday both will be staying in California. Point Determined was a hard-fought second in his most recent appearance, the July 8 GII Swaps Breeders' Cup S. at Hollywood Park. Sinister Minister has not been out since running 16th in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby. "I ran out of time with Sinister Minister," Baffert said. "I was going to bring Point Determined, but he ran so hard last time and he hasn't really bounced back yet. I wouldn't really feel confident running him, and I don't like to ship out of town unless I feel confident." Baffert has had six Haskell runners over the last nine years, posting three wins (Point Given, War Emblem in '02 and Roman Ruler in '05), two seconds and a third. Another of his sophomores, Bob and John (Seeking the Gold), worked five furlongs in :58 1/5 at Del Mar yesterday. His next start has not been decided. "We're just keeping him going right now," Baffert said. He added that Wanna Runner (El Corredor), off the board in the June 25 Queen's Plate S. last time out, will likely head to the Aug. 6 GIII West Virginia Derby.

KY Breeders' Incentive Fund Registration Deadline Set:

The registration deadline for the new Kentucky Thoroughbred Breeders' Incentive Fund has been set for Aug. 1. Breeders can register online, for a fee of $60, by visiting the Kentucky Horse Racing Authority website at www.khra.ky.gov. "The Aug. 1 deadline is only for mares covered in 2006," said KBIF Administrator Jamie Haydon. "It is important for Kentucky breeders to register the mares they breed this year, so then can be eligible for approximately $12 million a year in incentives during the foal's racing careers." To qualify for the program, the mare must have been covered by a Kentucky stallion and remain in Kentucky from the time of cover until foaling. Foals born in 2006 and prior years are grandfathered into the KBIF program if the foal is eligible for the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund (KTDF). For more information, please go to www.khra.ky.gov or call (859) 246-2040.

FALLON AWAITS RULING Kieren Fallon will discover if his UK riding ban can be lifted after the High Court resumes with its decision today. The six-time British champion jockey's case centers around the refusal of the Horseracing Regulatory Authority to grant another licence after the expiry of the original due to him being charged with conspiracy to defraud betfair.com customers. Fallon is also seeking a hearing at which his legal representatives can submit evidence, which was initially refused by the HRA's appeal board. Although he was absent from the High Court yesterday, Fallon's counsel, David Pannick QC, told the judge Mr. Justice Davis, "Mr. Fallon is entitled to put his case before he is suspended and before he suffers from the serious detriments that flow from that." Pannick added, "We say the panel was wrong in law to refuse to hear submissions and evidence from Fallon as to why he says the criminal case against him is very weak on the merits. We want to advance those arguments in private. We say that, before a decision is taken on suspension, the panel is obliged to hear what Fallon wants to say as an important factor in the weighing of the balance. In any event, the appeal board erred in law by concluding that to suspend Fallon was a proportionate sanction." If today's ruling is successful, Fallon faces a race against time to ride Hurricane Run (Ire) in tomorrow's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, but could be in action at Glorious Goodwood next week.

Sudoor, who beat the highly regarded Cast in Gold on debut at Newbury June 27, extended her perfect record in comfortable fashion here. Settled in rear early by Richard Hills, the bay filly was traveling strongly when she hit the front passing the quarter pole and needed only to be pushed out to assert on the uphill climb. "Richard [Hills] said she will get another furlong and the [Sept. 23] G1 Fillies' Mile at Ascot is a possibility," the owner-breeder's Racing Manager Angus Gold told PA Sport. "She could run again in between and may have another run to gain more experience. She can be quite keen, but she was very professional about it. She traveled great and quickened nicely."

GEORGE LIMBERS UP AT NAAS

Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's George Washington (Ire) (Danehill) took his first steps back in public following his injury at Naas racecourse Wednesday evening. The brilliant G1 2000 Guineas winner, who injured pelvic muscles after his second to Araafa (Ire) in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh May 27, enjoyed a leisurely canter with barnmate River Tiber (GB). Following his spin under Kieren Fallon, the sophomore was ponied back to the parade ring afterwards. "I was delighted and he behaved brilliantly; he was impeccable," trainer Aidan O'Brien told PA Sport. "He couldn't have worked better. He walked out of the parade ring like a man and Kieren was over the moon. All he wanted was a little bit of reassurance. The pony will go with him from now on. He has got very strong and powerful and looks like a sprinter. He could go for the [Aug. 27] G2 Celebration Mile at Goodwood or the G3 Desmond S. at Leopardstown [Aug. 20]."
