BERNARDINI BACK TO BUSINESS

Today's $500,000 GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga has attracted only six three-year-olds to the starting gate, but it features none other than Bernardini (A.P. Indy), who makes his first appearance since drawing off in the GI Preakness S. at Pimlico May 20. Though that afternoon will always be remembered for Barbaro's horrific injury, it should be noted that Bernardini made an eye-catching rally, won by 5 3/4 lengths and earned big speed figures. His connections announced shortly thereafter that he would skip the GI Belmont S. and target Saratoga instead, and the Darley homebred has been training smartly ahead of the second half of this season. "He's worked within himself," trainer Tom Albertrani said. "He looks every ounce as good as he did going into the Preakness, and he's run well off layoffs before. The Preakness was a long time ago. Actually, it feels like forever. I'm really looking forward to having him back on the track. Naturally, you want to have him good going into the Jim Dandy and then peaking in the Travers [Aug. 26], the same way we did it in the Preakness. Right now, he's showing me he's on ready. I'm hoping the Jim Dandy will catapult him to the next level." He faces some intriguing faces here. Trainer John Ward will saddle a coupled entry for owner John Oxley, the unbeaten Minister's Bid (Deputy Minister), who makes his stakes debut; and Dr. Pleasure (Thunder Gulch), the son of champion Beautiful Pleasure who is looking for his first win since taking his career opener over this surface last summer. Minister's Bid, an impressive maiden winner at Keeneland, overcame greenness to take a one-mile Belmont allowance June 22 (video). "He was a horse that had a knee problem last year," Ward said about Minister's Bid. "I wanted to run him in Florida; he was entered, but he came down with a quarter crack and we had to scratch. After that, he was ready to run, but I couldn't get a race for him until Keeneland. He got his endurance trip at Belmont Park. That race is going to set him up nicely for the Jim Dandy." Jim Dandy cont. p4

GRADE I HUNT

Seven turf distaffers have been entered for the $500,000 GI Diana S. this afternoon at Saratoga, and only two of them--Sweet Talker (Stormin Fever) and Angara (GB) (Alzao) have previously won at this level, though the latter will reportedly only run if the ground comes up soft. It's a good opportunity for trainer Patrick Biancone, who will saddle the three-year-old Lady of Venice (Fr) (Loup Solitaire). Biancone knows what a Grade I win/placing means for a filly's future worth. "I have owners who spend a lot of money getting quality horses, and it is my job to not only put those horses in races where they can win, but to get value as well," Biancone said. "Lady of Venice already won a Grade III race [Regret, June 17]...It is much better for her and for her career as a broodmare to run third in a race like the Diana than to win the [GIII] Lake George." Cont. p4

HURRICANE ON THE WAY

In the midst of the British heatwave, more weather warnings are called for today as Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) prepares for the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. With a trio of Group 1s already in the bag, including last year's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the Gallic giant takes to England's big stage to complete a champion's resume. He looked imperious in his four-year-old bow when making all in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh

May 28. While his subsequent second to Pride (Fr) in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud can hardly be labeled a disappointment, it was the first time a chink had appeared in his armor. "He doesn't line up unbeaten this season, but one of the reasons for his defeat last time was that he needed the race, and he has come on a little bit from that run," trainer Andre Fabre told PA Sport. "I've not had many runners in the King George, but you need a good horse to win both the Arc and the King George." King George cont. p2

Shadai Race Horse's Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) will expose any weakness in the favorite, as he did with compatriot Deep Impact (Jpn) in the Arima Kinen at Nakayama on Christmas Day. That landmark win came as a result of a change to forcing tactics, as he arrived too late when second to Alkaased in a bobbing finish to the G1 Japan Cup in Tokyo the previous month. Jockey Christophe-Patrice Lemaire repeated the dose to maximum effect in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba and is looking forward to taking the fight to the best Europe can offer. "I think Heart's Cry has a very good chance," he commented. "He has a lot of experience, has proven in Japan and Dubai that he is a world-class horse and the ground will suit him very well. It will be hard race, with two of the best horses in the world in Hurricane Run and Electrocutonist, but Heart's Cry has the potential to win. He's a fighter--he has a big heart, he loves to gallop and he's very strong and tough--and in the King George, you have to be powerful and stay the trip very well."

Sir Michael Stoute knows how to win this race, having captured it with Shergar (GB), Opera House (GB) and Golan (Ire). He saddles Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Maraahel (Ire) (Alzao) this year. He was breathing down the neck of Electrocutonist (Red Ransom) when third in last year's G1 Juddmonte International S. at York and showed when winning the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot last time June 24 that he is best served by late-running tactics. "He's in great form and if he reproduces the form of the Hardwicke, he should be there with a shout," jockey Richard Hills said. "He's got character and doesn't want to be in front too long, but there should be a good, honest pace and is a good horse in his own right. He's an outsider and has to improve, but Sir Michael is happy with him, which is important, and he does come right at this time of year." Godolphin, chasing King George number six, are buzzing over G1 Dubai World Cup hero Electrocutonist, who warmed up with a game second in the June 21 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at the Royal meeting here. "Electrocutonist has really come to himself after his last run at Royal Ascot," conditioner Saeed bin Suroor said.

Three days, three graded stakes, three trophies for trainer Todd Pletcher. Following in the hoofprints of two-year-old stablemates Cotton Blossom and Scat Daddy, Magnificent Song became the third straight Pletcher trainee to win a graded stakes at the Saratoga meeting that only kicked off Wednesday. The big grey filly, a maiden winner on the main track at Belmont in October, closed out 2005 with a sixth in the GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 26. Fourth on the turf at Gulfstream Feb. 13, she was given some time to regroup and captured a Keeneland allowance with blinkers on, then annexed Churchill's Edgewood S. May 5. She settled for second behind Lady of Venice (Fr) in the GIII Regret S. over the Louisville lawn June 17, but was the third choice here. Allowed to settle at the back of the pack by jockey Garrett Gomez through the opening three-quarters, Magnificent Song drew closer on the far turn and came sweeping up late, despite taking a gander at the crowd, to make it a Pletcher exacta. Click here for the brisset.com chart or Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

With the bluest of blood coursing through her veins, My Typhoon doesn't really need a Grade I victory to make her an invaluable broodmare prospect, but it certainly can't hurt. A daughter of G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Urban Sea--making her a half-sister to dual Derby hero Galileo (Ire) and several other stakes winners--the chestnut sold for 1.8-million guineas as a weanling at Tattersalls and has duly succeeded on the track.

Sherackatthetrack

The Live Oak colorbearer, who concluded 2005 with a victory in the GII Mrs. Revere S. Nov. 12, comes into this contest off an impressive victory in the GIII Mint Julep H. June 17 at Churchill. "Her last race was to me maybe one of her best," trainer Bill Mott told Daily Racing Form. "She galloped out strong. She rated well and looked like she got the trip off that one."

There may be a push to rename the Jim Dandy the Todd Pletcher S. Pletcher has posed for the win picture in this contest in each of the last three years: Flower Alley (2005), Purge (2004) and Strong Hope (2003). He has an able-bodied contender here in Sunriver, the GII Peter Pan S. hero who finished third in the GI Belmont S. June 10 in his most recent outing. "We're pleased with the progress he's made," Pletcher said. "Backing up from a mile and a half to a mile and an eighth is going to suit him well." While confident in his colt, Pletcher has a healthy respect for Bernardini. "We're not taking an unproven commodity against a Preakness winner," he continued. "We're taking a horse that's run some very competitive races. We're not stepping out of the box in that regard, but we are running against a horse who I thought in the Preakness was every bit as impressive as Barbaro was in the Derby."

Perfect Drift defends his title in this test, but has not visited the winner's circle since his 4 1/4-length score a year ago. The veteran gelding has managed three seconds and two thirds in his seven subsequent starts. Beaten just a half length when runner-up in the GI Pacific Classic last August, he filled the show spot in both the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and GII Clark H. to end the season. The bay opened the year with a second in an allowance on the Keeneland turf in April and a 10th in the May 6 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, then just missed last time out, running second by a nose in the June 17 GI Stephen Foster H. Second of June has endured a losing streak that has lasted since the GIII Holy Bull S. at Gulfstream in January of 2004. Sidelined for 10 months after finishing second in the GII Fountain of Youth S., he has yet to score in five starts since his return, but was beaten just a neck in the GII Oaklawn H. in April and by a nose by Suave in an optional claimer at Churchill June 16. O'Connell's, a group winner in his native Brazil, comes off a pair of optional-claiming victories at Churchill May 24 and July 7.

May 10. The bay filly added a victory in the June 4 GIII Honeymoon BC H. going nine furlongs, but weakened after cutting out the early fractions and getting bumped late in the July 2 GI American Oaks going 10 panels, fading to eighth. She could prove tough to catch as she shortens up to a mile here. Sol Mi Fa also started her career in France, finishing first or second in five of seven outings. The Irish-bred miss made her U.S. bow in the May 29 Bay Meadows BC Oaks, besting Soothsay by 3/4 of a length, but also tired in the American Oaks and ran fifth. Soothsay came back after her Bay Meadows adventure to be second in the July 2 Flawlessly S. going a mile at Hollywood.

This inaugural running has drawn a disappointing turn-out, but one potential class act in Best Alibi. Runner-up to Septimus (Ire) in the G2 Dante S. over course and distance May 18, he ran sixth in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby before finishing third in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh last time July 2. "He's better at this trip than a mile and a half and he likes the ground on the fast side," Gainsborough Stud's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond told PA Sport. "There are only five runners, but even if the race becomes a tactical affair it won't inconvenience him, as he can go from the front or behind." Yasoodd, who took the Apr. 15 G3 Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial S., has failed to make a serious impact in the top division subsequently. Off the board in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 14, he was fourth in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27 before finishing sixth in the G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot last time June 20. Of the older horses, Crocodile Dundee may fare best if sharp enough off an absence since winning the G3 Scandinavian Open Championship at Copenhagen last August.

BARBARO REMAINS STABLE, RADIOGRAPHS LOOK GOOD
by Gail Luciani, Director of UPenn Office of Communications

KENNETT SQUARE, PA...Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro continues to be stable after another comfortable night, according to Chief of Surgery Dean Richardson. His right hind leg cast was changed late Wednesday. "We took new radiographs, and they look good," said Dr. Richardson. "No problems were evident." In addition, the modified foot cast on Barbaro's left hind foot, which has laminitis, is changed daily so the foot can be treated and watched for signs of infection. "Barbaro has a strong appetite, and he has been enjoying hand-picked grass and 'healthy snacks' daily," said Dr. Richardson. Barbaro remains in the Intensive Care Unit of the University of Pennsylvania's George D. Widener Hospital. The next update will be posted on Tuesday, Aug. 1, unless there is a significant change in Barbaro's condition.
For more info on Barbaro, please see www.vet.upenn.edu.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

FALLON LOSES CASE Kieren Fallon faces a lengthy ban from riding in the UK after his High Court challenge to the Horseracing Regulatory Authority's decision ended in failure yesterday. Having been charged with conspiracy to defraud customers of betfair by the City of London Police, the six-time British champion jockey has been suspended by the HRA, and that will hold until the trial is concluded. Despite arguments that the HRA appeal board had acted unfairly and disproportionately in refusing to lift the ban, the High Court judge refused to grant Fallon an injunction. Mr. Justice Davis said the charges against Fallon were "grave" and it had rightly been said that, if proved, the case would "strike at the heart of racing." He concluded that the appeal board had been right in their refusal to examine the evidence which, he said, had been "cherry-picked" by Fallon's legal advisers from a wider range of material. He added that some of Fallon's arguments that the ban was disproportionate had been overstated and that his claim that it would effectively end his career as a leading jockey was not supported by any evidence. Ian Burton, speaking for Fallon's solicitors BCL Burton Copeland, said, "My client is understandably disappointed with the outcome of his efforts to have his suspension from riding in the UK lifted pending a trial in 18 months' time. We are not seeking leave to appeal and our focus will be on defending the ill-founded charges against Mr. Fallon."

HENNY HUGHES SHARP AT THE SPA Henny

Hughes (Hennessy), pointing for the Aug. 26 GI King's Bishop S. at Saratoga, worked a half mile in a bullet :46 1/5 yesterday morning with exercise rider Bernie Dalton in the saddle. "I told Bernie to have Henny Hughes work in :48," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said. "When he came back, I asked him how fast he thought the horse worked. He thought they went in :48. This is a serious and awesome horse." Runner-up in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile last October, the chestnut colt made his three-year-old bow in the July 1 GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. at Monmouth and romped to a 10-length score. Also working yesterday, stablemate Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) went a half in :48 3/5. "This was more of a maintenance work for him," McLaughlin said. The winner of the GI Pimlico Special and GI Suburban H., he will make his next appearance in the Aug. 5 GI Whitney S. at the Spa.

Corinthian Returns in Allowance at the Spa:

Centennial Farms' Corinthian (Pulpit) returns to action in today's third race at Saratoga, a non-winners of two allowance. The chestnut crossed the line first in the Mar. 4 GII Fountain of Youth S. last out, but was disqualified and placed second. "I'd still like to make the [GI] Travers [Aug. 26] with him," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "I'm glad the allowance race filled. I didn't want to put him in the Jim Dandy off that layoff." The $385,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase missed a start in the Apr. 8 GI Wood Memorial S. due to a minor fracture in his left hind ankle and was also forced to miss the July 4 GII Dwyer S. because of a skin rash.

Ad Hoc Committee Chairman to Deliver Address:

J. Patrick Barrett, chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee on the Future of Horse Racing (in New York), will deliver the keynote address at The Jockey Club's 54th annual Round Table Conference on Matters Pertaining to Racing at the Gideon Putnam Hotel in Saratoga Springs, New York, Aug. 20. Other speakers at the conference include Ogden Mills Phipps, Charles Hayward, Jim Gagliano, Rogers Beasley and Dr. Scot Waterman. Barrett is expected to discuss the role and work of the committee over the course of the past year. Formed by New York Governor George Pataki in 2005, the committee has conducted public hearings, established the franchise bid process and issued a formal Request for Proposals for the exclusive right to operate and maintain Aqueduct, Belmont and Saratoga for a franchise period beginning Jan. 1, 2008.

Wasseema was rated Guineas material by connections in the spring, but failed to make the grade when seventh in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket Apr. 18. With a sole winning maiden start in between at Goodwood June 9, she entered this contest an unknown quantity, but quickly established her credentials to outclass smart rivals. Taken straight to the lead by Richard Hills, she built a comfortable advantage and simply extended it in the straight for a commanding success. "Sir Michael doesn't get it wrong often and he has always thought a lot of her," the owner's Racing Manager Angus Gold told PA Sport. "She ran in the Nell Gwyn as a maiden, which shows the regard in which she was held. She had earplugs in for the first time and they didn't do her any harm--she floated down to the start and bounced off the ground. It is just nice to see her replicate on the track the potential she has shown at home."

3--Military Cross (GB), 128, g, 3, Cape Cross (Ire)--Tipsy (GB), by Kris (GB). £6,997.

Margins: 5, 2HF, 1. Odds: 7-1, 4-1, 9-1.

With the stands' rail bias evident at the Royal meeting ironed out, it was Dunelight who led home Easy Air among the breakaway group racing on the far side in an inspired piece of opportunism from Philip Robinson. Third behind subsequent stakes scorers Papal Bull (GB) and Linas Selection (GB) in a hot Newmarket handicap on his sophomore bow Apr. 20, Dunelight scored at that track May 6 before becoming a victim of a high draw when down the field in the June 22 Britannia H. at the Royal meeting. Rebounding to finish second in a competitive handicap at Newmarket's July meeting last time July 14, he was bounced out of the gates and taken away from the main bunch to dominate proceedings alone. Clearly in front inside the final quarter, he needed only to be pushed out to hold his advantage over Easy Air. "I spoke to Clive [Cox] before the race and he felt it was slightly better on the far side, so I thought it was probably a good idea to stay there rather than fight across," his rider explained.

YOUNG MICK (GB) (g, 4, King's Theatre {Ire}--Just Warning {GB}, by Warning {GB}), who was winning low-grade affairs on the polytrack during the winter, completed his metamorphosis to high-class handicapper when taking the June 24 Duke of Edinburgh H. at the Royal meeting. Sixth in the Old Newton Cup H. at Haydock July 8, he rebounded with another high-profile success to reward those who invested at 10-1. Settled in behind the leading group early, he ground his way to the front approaching the eighth peg and drew away to beat Royal Jet (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths. "He's very tough and all heart," jockey Robert Winston commented. "To come from winning a maiden claimer on the all-weather is absolutely amazing and he's just done tremendously." Trainer George Margaron added, "He's a fantastic horse and will go for the Ebor H. [at York Aug. 23] and may have a race beforehand. The heat doesn't bother him and he thrives in the sunshine. Longer term, he's going to be entered in the G1 Cox Plate [at Moonee Valley Oct. 10] and G1 Melbourne Cup [at Flemington Nov. 7] if they let us come." Lifetime Record: 28-8-3-3, £117,049. GUADALAJARA (GER) (m, 5, Acatenango {Ger}--Guernica {GB}, by Unfuwain) enjoyed a successful season with Jean-Claude Rouget in France last year, the high spots being her win in the Listed Grand Prix de Lyon in June and her second in the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville in August. The €110,000 DEADEC and 800,000gns TATDEC horse in training failed to see out the marathon trip in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting on her debut in the Godolphin blue last time, finishing sixth. Sent straight to the lead here, the even-money favorite had all her rivals in trouble two furlongs out and required minimal encouragement to win by 2 1/2 lengths from Ouninpohja (Ire) (Imperial Ballet {Ire}). The winner is a half to Guadalupe (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), G1SW-Ity, G1SP-Eng & Ger, $491,122. Lifetime Record: SW & MGSP-Fr, 18-7-5-2, £100,752. O-Godolphin; B-G Baron Von Ullman; T-Saeed Bin Suroor.

Ascot, 4.25, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, 7fT, 1:29.98, gd.
+ ONE TO FOLLOW (GB) (c, 2, Mtoto {GB}--Becalmed {GB}, by Dilum) raced behind the leaders early, but needed a wake-up call at halfway. Responding to his rider's efforts throughout the final quarter, the 12-1 chance ground his way to the front with 150 yards remaining before holding Big Robert (GB) (Medicean {GB}) by a neck. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,477. O-Pat & Brian Makepeace & Stephen Barrow; B-D R Wellicome; T-Clive Cox.

Ascot, 5.00, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, f, 6fT, 1:15.60, gd.
+ ITALIAN GIRL (GB) (f, 2, Danehill Dancer {Ire}--Little Italy {Ire} {SW-Ity}, by Common Grounds {GB}) was not without her supporters and traded at 7-1 at the off. Stalking the early fractions, the 34,000gns DONSEP yearling challenged wide to take command with a furlong remaining before asserting to beat Darrfonah (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) by 3/4 of a length. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,477. O-Eurostrait Ltd; B-Barton Stud; T-Alan Jarvis.

Thirsk, 2.30, Mdn, £10,000, 2yo, f, 7fT, 1:26.32, gd/fm.
+ CARWELL (IRE) (f, 2, King's Best--Lady Kestrel, by Theatrical {Ire}) broke well and disputed the early lead with Avina Laugh (GB) (Zaha) before taking over approaching the quarter pole. Driven out from there, the 7-2 second favorite asserted to score by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £6,477. O-Ali Saeed; B-Darley; T-Mark Johnston.

Newmarket, 6.10, Mdn, £8,000, 3yo, 1 1/2mT, 2:33.17, gd/sf.
VERY AGREEABLE (GB) (f, 3, Pursuit of Love {GB}--Oomph {GB}, by Shareef Dancer), runner-up in a maiden on Kempton's Polytrack last time July 5, was keen in midfield off the moderate early fractions. Traveling best of all at the quarter pole, the 9-1 shot was driven into the lead 150 yards out to best the staying-on Topjeu (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) by a half-length. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £6,514. O/B-J M Greetham; T-Walter Swinburn.
