GIVING THEM THE RUNAROUND AT ASCOT

It looked unlikely on the home turn, but Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) rescued victory from the jaws of defeat to win a memorable renewal of the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S.

at Ascot yesterday. Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) was the first into gear, ranging up to join pacemaker Cherry Mix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) with a half mile to race. But Christophe Soumillon went to work, energizing Hurricane Run as they raced down the straight, and the 5-6 favorite came through along the rail to wear down Electrocutionist for a hard-fought half-length score. It was another half-length back to Heart's Cry (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), who stayed on gamely on the outside. "I thought [Hurricane Run] was floundering, but Christophe galvanized him and got him going again and I was kind of mesmerized," Tabor commented.

The weather was stifling in Saratoga Springs yesterday, but that didn't stop Bernardini (A.P. Indy). Sent off the 1-2 favorite in the GII Jim Dandy S., the Darley homebred just cruised around the sloppy racetrack, winning by nine lengths under a motionless Javier Castellano. "I was worried about saving him for the Travers [GI, Aug. 26]," Castellano said. "I didn't want to beat him up. At the top of the stretch, I could hear everyone trying to come after me. I decided to wait as long as I could." Added trainer Tom Albertrani, "I guess there was a lot of doubt in people's minds after the Preakness, but he showed today what a really good horse he is. I wasn't surprised." Jim Dandy cont. p3

TOUR DE FORCE

Take D'Tour (Tour d'Or) didn't look like an Eclipse contender at the start of the season. The free-running five-year-old opened 2006 with an uninspiring sixth-place finish in a minor stakes at Tampa Bay Downs, and was sent off at 8-1 facing Gulfstream allowance foes next time out. But the chestnut mare powered to a four-length success that afternoon and has been unbeatable since, adding a 10-length victory at Gulfstream

Adam Coglianese

in April before back-to-back 5 1/2-length triumphs in the May 21 GII Shuvee H. and June 17 GI Ogden Phipps H. Bidding for her fifth straight, she will be asked to carry her speed around two turns and beyond a mile and a sixteenth for the first time in the GI Go for Wand H. at Saratoga today. Can she do it? Trainer David Fawkes is convinced she can, if, he told Daily Racing Form, "she gets settled enough in the first turn where she's comfortable, that's all. She just gets into that loping stride and keeps it up at the same speed all the way around there." Go for Wand cont. p6

Together Again...

Christophe Soumillon last partnered Hurricane Run when the imposing colt was a fast-finishing neck runner-up to Shamardal in the 2005 G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. Kieren Fallon took over thereafter, winning the G1 Irish Derby and the G2 Prix Niel. Fallon earned plaudits for his enterprising ride to thread through the inside and win the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, and he resumed the connection with an all-the-way success on Hurricane Run's four-year-old bow in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup back at The Curragh May 28. Caught on the line by Pride (Fr) in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, Andre Fabre's flagbearer had a reputation to regain here and, in the absence of the banned Fallon, it was the reigning French champion who was handed the responsibility. Stalking Cherry Mix throughout, he was being ridden on the turn as Frankie Dettori took Electrocutationist to the front. Responding to the pressure, the crowd's choice ground his way to victory in the final 50 yards. "I loved the position he was in and then he just floundered for some reason," Michael Tabor continued. "When Frankie went past him I was worried, but it was great to see him come again. It's very sad for Kieren and it's very sad for us--as good a jockey as Christophe is, Kieren is our retained jockey. It's sad, but that's the way it is." Soumillon revealed that he was in no panic at the top of the straight. "I didn't want to make my move early and, when I saw Frankie coming, my only option was to sit back and wait on the inside and hope for room," he said. "I think this horse is really special to come back like he did with true Group 1 horses in front. He's just wonderful. It's the biggest race in the world." Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford was pleased with the run of Electrocutationist, who was stiff when led out on the morning of the race. "He's run his heart out and is a superb horse," Crisford commented. "He tried his best and gave absolutely everything he had, but found one too good for him on the day. Everything unfolded very well, so we have no excuses and it was a great effort." Angara hadn't won a race since taking the GI Beverly D. S. last August, but she ended the drought in celebration of trainer Bill Mott's 53rd birthday. Off the board in four starts after her Grade I triumph, the bay improved to be third in the May 27 GII Sheepshead Bay H. and was beaten just a neck when second in the June 24 GII New York BC H. going 10 panels at Belmont Park. Allowed to settle off the solid fractions set by stable-mate My Typhoon (Giant's Causeway), Angara was still next to last while caught behind horses at the top of the lane, but fought her way through the crowd to take the three-way photo for the win. Lady of Venice (Loup Solitaire), off at even-money, was wide throughout and finished fifth, beaten less than two lengths. "She didn't get beat far," said trainer Patrick Biancone, who trained Angara before she joined the Mott stable. "She showed she's a contender with the best older fillies." Unchallenged since finishing fourth in his career opener at Gulfstream in January, Bernardini enjoyed his easiest win to date here. The imposing bay broke his maiden by 7 3/4 lengths in his second start Mar. 4, then hit the line 3 3/4 lengths to the good in the Apr. 29 GIII Withers S. even after jockey Javier Castellano dropped his whip. His performance in the May 20 GI Preakness S. was overshadowed by the injury to Kentucky Derby hero Barbaro, but that 5 1/4-length score--in his first try at two turns--earned retroactive respect and he was odds-on to repeat in the Jim Dandy. Sent right to the front as he tried out a sloppy strip for the first time, Bernardini galloped along through solid splits and was under his own steam as he opened up on his overmatched rivals. "I've been saying all along how good this horse is," Tom Albertrani said. "I think we are going to see better things from this horse later on. I don't think we are going to be fearing anyone in the Travers. If he stays at this level, he is going to be a very tough horse all year." Third in the G3 Prix La Rochette at Longchamp last September, Attima was over her head when 11th in the Oct. 2 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in her European finale.

She opened her U.S. stint with a NW1X allowance score at Hollywood May 10 and came right back to take the June 4 GII Honoymoon BC H. Off at 5-2 in the July 2 GI American Oaks, the bay went right to the front, but faded badly to be eighth. The even-money chalk as she dropped back off that 10-furlong test, Attima was quickly into stride and had the lead before they hit the first turn. She galloped along through solid fractions and had enough left in the tank late to win handily. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Suave, winner of last summer's GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H., finished a decent fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Oct. 29, then closed out the year with a second-place finish in the GII Clark H. Nov. 25. Freshened up after that tough defeat, he resurfaced with consecutive sixth-place finishes at Gulfstream in the GI Donn H. Feb. 4 and the GII Gulfstream Park H. Mar. 4. Sent off as the second choice by the Arlington faithful here, the bay stalked as losilver (Silver Ghost) led through :23.16 and :46.02 fractions. With Calvin Borel aboard, Suave turned up the pressure on the turn for home and drew away in the lane to win for fun. "He's been a nice horse for us all along," trainer Paul McGee commented. "I was pretty confident at the three-eighths pole when Calvin had him so relaxed like that turning for home. I could tell Calvin was sitting cheeky in the run down the backstretch. I could tell he hadn't asked him for anything yet." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Ryan Moore kept it simple on Best Alibi and those tactics paid dividends as the sophomore made a successful first foray into all-aged company. Fourth in the G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster in October, he returned to finish eight lengths behind Septimus (Ire) when runner-up in the G2 Dante S. over course and distance May 18, tiring in the rain-softened ground. Sixth in the June 3 G1 Epsom Derby, he showed he had progressed in the interim when third behind Dylan Thomas (Ire) in the Irish equivalent at The Curragh last time July 2. Soon in front here, he had to be kept up to his work in the closing stages as Hattan threatened, but answered every call to record an ultimately comfortable score. "I think he was getting a bit fed up in front, but once the other horse got to his quarters, he went again," the owner's Racing Manager Bruce Raymond told PA Sport. "I don't think Ryan [Moore] was anxious at all. He was by far the best horse in there and something would have to have been wrong with him to get beaten. He's good over this distance and on this fast ground. He's entered in the [Aug. 22] G1 Juddmonte International back here, but we'll see how he comes back." This produced a tight thriller at the finish, with 1 1/2 lengths separating the entire field, and it was Gaudeamus who emerged on top with a gutsy display. She had finished third behind Country Song in a conditions event at Tipperary June 6 before rebounding to win the Listed Woodpark & Ballysheehan Stud S. at The Curragh June 30. The bay filly was beaten just a length when fourth in the G3 Anglesey S. back at that track last time July 16 and produced another consistent performance to register a career best in this contest. Stalking Dimenticata throughout, the Kentucky-bred looked beaten in the straight as that rival battled bravely, but dug in to overhaul the long-time leader in the final strides. "It was a messy race and tactically run," jockey Kevin Manning commented. "As my filly showed when winning her maiden, she has plenty of pace and showed a great turn of foot. She did it well and is tough and very consistent. She's very versatile trip-wise and ground-wise." Trainer Jim Bolger will take a look at the Aug. 27 G1 Moyglare Stud S. at The Curragh next for Gaudeamus. Click for the Racing Post chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Heliostatic completed a memorable stakes treble for his connections, following the exploits of Teofilo (Ire) in the Listed Tyros S. and Gaudeamus in the G2 Debutante S. earlier on the card. He had looked a Classic contender in the spring when second in the Apr. 15 G3 Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial S., but disappointed upon his return here when down the field in the May 14 G2 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial. Off the board again in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh 13 days later, he enjoyed a class drop when winning the Listed Silver S. back at The Curragh June 10 before a tilt at the G1 Irish Derby there July 2. He was enterprisingly ridden in that Classic, making the running before finishing a creditable seventh. The same tactics were adopted here; the chestnut led at every step and held sway late over Lord Admiral. "This is probably his best trip," winning rider Kevin Manning explained. "He ran a serious race in the Irish Derby and it was only inside the last 150 yards that he folded up and didn't get home. He did it very well tonight." Heliostatic may be pointed at the G1 Irish Champion S. at this venue Sept. 9.

BING CROSBY H.-GI, $300,000, 3yo/up, 6f

PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	ODDS
1	Pure as Gold	Stolen Gold	Carava	15-1
2	Trickey Trevor	Demaloot Demashoot	Hollendorfer	8-1
3	Premium Saltine	Salt Lake	West	9-2
4	Battle Won	Honour and Glory	Mitchell	8-1
5	Bordonaro	Memo (Chi)	Spawr	6-5
6	Carthage	Smoke Glacken	Sherman	2-1

Battle Won showed an affinity for the Del Mar strip last summer, running second in this event after dueling through fast fractions. The six-year-old gelding shipped west once again after finishing fifth behind Trickey Trevor in the May 6 Gil Churchill Downs H., but was outfinished in the July 2 GI Triple Bend BC H., running second after his jockey lost the whip. He has been working smartly at Del Mar for this test. Carthage has been over the Del Mar main track once before, beating $32,000 claimers last September. Haltered that day, the gray has won seven-of-10 for his new connections. He bested champion Lost in the Fog in the Apr. 22 Golden Gate Sprint and earned his fourth straight score last time out, wiring the field in the June 4 Gill Bay Meadows BC Sprint H. to take it by a length over Trickey Trevor. Bordonaro also rides a four-race winning streak into this test. He has not been out since capturing the Apr. 13 Gill Count Fleet Sprint H. at Oaklawn, but dashed off six furlongs in a sparkling 1:10 flat in his penultimate prep at Santa Anita July 13.

Brought to you by FASIG-TIPTON

IEAH STABLES - Michael Iavarone

This week's accomplishment: Iavarone is the co-president of IEAH, the majority owner of Wonder Lady Anne L (Real Quiet), victress of the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. The win marked the first Grade I victory for the racing company.

Michael Iavarone
Co-President IEAH Stables

Birthdate: 7-25-70

Birthplace: Long Island, NY

Residence: Holbrook, NY

Family: Wife Christine, daughters Kayla, 6, and Emily, 4

Education: Bachelors, UCLA

What is your favorite vacation spot? Hawaii

Favorite food or meal? Lobster

What's the funniest movie you've ever seen? Austin Powers

What's in your CD player right now? Shakira & Beyonce

How did you come up with the name of the company? IEAH stands for International Equine Acquisitions Holdings. I had a lot of European investors in the company and I knew we'd be acquiring horses.

What inspired you to leave Wall Street and start IEAH? I became bored at what I was doing and was looking for a little excitement.

Were you always a racing fan? Who are some of your favorite horses of years past? I've always been a big fan since I was young...Easy Goer and Holy Bull.

Any funny stories to tell about Rick Dutrow? We're on our way home after Rebel Rebel's third-place finish in last year's Virginia Derby. I have with me my biggest client, John Roberts. Dutrow calls me and says that the horse came out of the race fine, but Jerry Bailey said he was a little off in behind. Dutrow says that's great news because he's great at correcting hind end issues. Then Rick says he has even better news. So I say hold that thought, so I can put him on speaker phone. I get him on speaker and he says, 'I just saved a ton of money on my car insurance by switching to Geico.'

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's Graded Stakes Winning Stars of the Week:

COTTON BLOSSOM - GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga 7/26

8	Take d'Tour	Tour d'Or	Fawkes	5-2

Trainer Todd Pletcher, with three graded-stakes wins already to his credit during opening week at the Spa, has entered three, but will likely keep one in the barn.

Sure to be in the gate this afternoon is Oonagh

Maccool, winner of the Mar. 25 GII Rampart H. and May 5 GII Louisville BC H. The four-year-old found herself on the lead in the June 17 GII Fleur de Lis H. last time out and was caught in the final strides, finishing a head behind Happy Ticket, but she is not committed to fighting Take d'Tour on the front end this time. "She ran against the grain of the track--it wasn't a real speed-favoring track that day," Pletcher said. "She got a little unlucky." Spun Sugar followed a game neck win over

Happy Ticket with a disappointing fourth as the crowd's choice in the GI Ogden Phipps H., while Pool Land, the third of the Pletcher trio, was freshened after taking the May 19 GIII Pimlico BC Distaff H. Five-for-six lifetime, she could await a stakes at Monmouth Park. Summerly, bidding for her first victory since taking the GI Kentucky Oaks in May of 2005, makes her first appearance since running second in the GI CCA Oaks 372 days ago. "She popped a splint bone and it had to be removed," said trainer Scott Blasi, who recently took over for the suspended Steve Asmussen. He added, "I've been very impressed with her training."

Tie Black, Impressionnante and Price Tag renew rivalry following their controversial encounter in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Longchamp. Having emerged as the impressive winner of that Classic, Price Tag was subsequently disqualified for taking the ground of Impressionnante in the closing stages, leaving Tie Black to take the prize. While the latter has been rested since, Impressionnante met lesser opposition and took full advantage with success in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly June 4, before finding the colts too strong when sixth in the G1 Prix Jean Prat back at that venue last time July 9. Price Tag was shipped to Royal Ascot to bid for compensation for her Pouliches demotion, but could fare no better than eighth behind Nannina (GB) in the June 23 G1 Coronation S. She bids to extend the record of Pascal Bary in this race, which he won with Field of Hope (Ire) when it was a Group 2 in 1999 and with Divine Proportions 12 months ago. Clive Brittain saddles the G1 Falmouth S. hero Rajeem, who bids to prove that her Newmarket success was no aberration. She had Nannina 3/4 of a length back in second in that July 12 contest, with the top-class older mares Peeress (GB) and Soviet Song (Ire) further back. "Rajeem has come out of the Falmouth extremely well and appears to have improved," her conditioner told the Racing Post.

4	1	Lord of England (Ger)	Dashing Blade (GB)	Hofer	121
5	2	Almerita (Ger)	Medicean (GB)	Hickst	117

Arcadio is one of Germany's finest, and connections will be looking to establish him at the top of the tree with a first Group 1 success here. He had looked booked for those laurels when heading to post as favorite for the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg last July, but could only finish third in that Classic before filling the runner's-up spot behind Soldier Hollow (GB) in this contest later in the month. Off the track until his winning return in the Listed Grosser Preis der VGH Versicherungen at Hannover Apr. 17, he beat Day Flight (GB) in the May 28 G2 Grosser Mercedes Benz Preis at Baden-Baden before conquering the mile test of the G2 Berlin-Brandenburg-Trophy at Cologne last time June 18. Laverock, who was sixth in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club at Chantilly last June, ended his sophomore campaign with a success in the G3 Prix Andre Baboin at Lyon-Parilly in October. He was down the field on his return in the Apr. 23 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin, but rebounded to take the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp May 21 before finishing third in the June 25 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud on his latest start. Almerita is worthy of respect on the basis of her hard-fought victory in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Dusseldorf last time June 4, having finished runner-up in the Apr. 30 G2 German 1000 Guineas at Dusseldorf previously.

Equal Image captured the G3 King's Cup at Greyville Apr. 17 before finishing third in the G2 Drill Hall S. back at that track May 6. He could only manage sixth in the G1 Gold Challenge here June 10, but put in a career-high performance last time when third in the G1 Durban July at Greyville July 1. Stalking the early pace here, the grey was produced by Weichong Marwing to lead passing the quarter pole and soon forged a lead which African Appeal could not bridge in the closing stages.

NORTH AMERICA

MULLINS AWAITS SPLIT-SAMPLE RESULTS; BARN SEARCHED

by Margaret Ransom, courtesy of bloodhorse.com.

Trainer Jeff Mullins said he was informed by the California Horse Racing Board that one of the horses in his care, Robs Coin, tested positive for a prohibited amount of the anesthetic mepivacaine, and that he is awaiting the results of split-sample tests. Robs Coin finished second in a $40,000 claiming race at a mile on the turf July 8 at Hollywood Park. The 43-year-old conditioner, who was the leading trainer at the recently concluded Hollywood Park meet, said he was informed of the positive when CHRHB investigators arrived to search his Del Mar barn. "I was [notified of the overage] when they searched the barn [July 27]," Mullins said. "They searched both of my barns--here and at Santa Anita." Mullins said he was shocked by the post-race test, which he said revealed the presence of 30 nanograms of mepivacaine per milliliter of urine on Robs Coin. California regulations allow up to 10 nanograms per milliliter on race day. "[Robs Coin] never even needed ice," Mullins said. "He never had a joint tapped or injected. We had him for three races and he never had anything except Bute and Lasix." CHRHB officials couldn't be immediately reached for comment on the matter. Mullins said his attorney, Neil Papiano, would handle the case, but that if he's not vindicated, he's considering quitting training altogether.

The 13-1 longest shot on the board despite the class relief, the homebred forced the early pace outside Take the Bluff (Pine Bluff), edged by that one leaving the eighth pole and inched away for a 3/4-length victory. TAYLOR MADE...Where our Customers' Success is our Primary Focus

7th-MTH (Rumson S.) GSW He's Got Grit

(Songandaprayer) gets his first win of the year.

9th-MTH (Tyro S.) Bella Shambrock (Grand Slam) runs his winning streak to three.

7th-SAR (Alw) Rebuttal (Mr. Greeley) charges from last to win going away.

2nd-SAR (MSW) Pegasus Wind (Fusaichi Pegasus) finds maidens more to his liking after finishing fifth in the GIII Bashford Manor S.

7th-SAR, $51,000, Alw, NW1X, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:39 3/5, yl.

REBUTTAL (c, 4, Mr. Greeley--Reboot, by Rubiano), third in the G2 Mill Reef S. in 2004, missed by 3/4 of a length when second in that year's G1 Middle Park S. Fifth in the Listed Heron S. at Goodwood in his lone start at three May 28, the bay was second by a neck in a six-furlong allowance over the Belmont turf July 16. Allowed to lope along at the back of the field, the $110,000 FTKJUL yearling and $400,000 FTFEB two-year-old rallied wide into the stretch and closed with a rush to win by a widening three lengths. Saint Anddan (A.P. Indy), coupled with the winner as part of the favored 4-5 entry, was second. Lifetime Record: G1SP-Eng, 7-2-3-1, $142,254. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

PEGASUS WIND (c, 2, Fusaichi Pegasus--Ride the Wind {SP, $118,089}, by Meadowlake), a $90,000 KEENOV weanling and a $300,000 KEESEP yearling, pressed early the pace and weakened to finish fifth in his debut in the GIII Bashford Manor S. July 8. Giving maidens a shot this time, the 2-1 chance was hustled to the front after ducking in at the start. With Rafael Bejarano in the irons, he began to shake clear on the turn for home and opened up impressively in the stretch to score by seven lengths over Most Distinguished (Dixie Union). First Defence (Unbridled's Song), a son of GISW Honest Lady, faded in the stretch to finish a well-beaten seventh. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $33,045. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Winner of this track's GIII Sapling S. last August, the speedy He's Got Grit added a victory in the Cowdin S. at Belmont Oct. 2 before going away for the winter. The dark bay set the pace in the Matt Winn S. in his seasonal bow at Churchill May 20 before finishing third, and filled the same spot behind a monstrous performance from Henny Hughes in the GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. at this venue July 1. Sent immediately to the lead by Shaun Bridgmohan, He's Got Grit got the opening half-mile in :44.76, widened into the lane and was never threatened. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Starkay won three straight in 2005, capped by a victory in the restricted Exotic Wood S. at Hollywood in June, but was sidelined thereafter. She returned to action over the winter and couldn't make an impact against the streaking Cambiocorsa--finishing sixth to that mare in both the Jan. 29 Wishing Well H. and the Apr. 16 GIII Las Cienegas H.--before getting swallowed up late when fifth in the Tuzla S. May 12 at Hollywood. The bay was caught at the wire and settled for second in the Great Lady M S. June 3 at Hollywood and was the second choice here. Breaking alertly from the two hole, the New Zealand-bred assumed her customary spot on the lead and never looked back for her first score of the year.

Two Added to Getaway Farm Roster:

Best Minister (Deputy Minister--Best of Memories, by Halo) and Silic (Fr) (Sillery--Balletomane {Ire}), by Sadler's Wells) have been purchased privately and will stand stud at Dinesh Maniar's newly renovated Getaway Thoroughbred Farm in Romoland, California, in 2007. Six-year-old Best Minister, a stakes winner of $254,220, was retired earlier this year after compiling a record of 20-4-5-0 for Phillips Racing Partnership. Silic, the winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile in 1999, also captured two renewals of the Shoemaker BC Mile S., when it was a Grade II in 1999 and as a Grade I in 2000, and was a Group 3 winner in France. He had eight wins and two seconds from 15 career starts, bankrolling $1,422,440 before heading to stud at Crestwood Farm in 2001. Silic stood for a fee of $3,500 in 2006. From three crops to race, the 11-year-old stallion has had 20 winners. Stud fees for 2007 have not yet been announced.

HRA KEEPS EYE ON SWAMP FEVER Ireland's current outbreak of "swamp fever" could have an impact on the movement of horses to Britain, but the Horseracing Regulatory Authority is not forecasting an imminent ban at present. With 12 cases of equine infectious anemia confirmed in Ireland, HRA's Chief Executive Peter Webbon is keeping a watching brief on the situation. "I think we're a long way away from a ban, but we may find it necessary to impose some sort of restrictions," he commented. "For example, we may require horses to be tested or to come with some sort of veterinary declaration." Ireland's Department of Agriculture and Food has issued a statement advising stud and horse owners to test for the viral disease. "In view of the potential for mortality, and given the high movement of horses throughout Ireland over the past few months, horse owners are being advised to be vigilant," it read. "The general incubation period for the disease is variable and there is no vaccine available."

Dabbers Ridge looked a smart handicapper in the making when rattling up a brace at Thirsk Apr. 22 and at Chester May 12 before finishing third in a competitive handicap at York six days later. Only 12th in the June 21 Royal Hunt Cup H. at the Royal meeting here on his last start, he rebounded to collect this highly competitive and valuable prize. Always within striking distance of the leading group, he seized the advantage nearing the quarter pole before drawing on his reserves to hold the flourish of Uhoomagoo. "At the Royal meeting he didn't quite get the mile, so at the moment this seven is bang on. I was always going good and I think he's a decent horse who is improving. With age, possibly he'll get a mile, but seven is his best trip now," rider Michael Hills explained. Trainer Barry Hills will point Dabbers Ridge at the Listed City of York S. at York Aug. 24.

Satulagi paid another compliment to this year's juvenile sensation Sander Camillo when beating the colts here. Fifth behind that rival in the June 23 G3 Albany S. at the Royal meeting, she finished second to Hope'n'Charity in the Listed Empress S. at Newmarket July 1 before finishing down the field in Saturday's Weatherbys Super Sprint at Newbury over five furlongs. Settled off the early pace towards the rear, she made up ground in determined fashion passing halfway before taking over with 1½ furlongs remaining and drawing away. "She ran a cracking race here in the Albany and John [Egan] said she was idling in front," her conditioner said. "Hopefully her next run will be in the G2 Lowther S. [at York Aug. 24], as long the ground stays fast, and that'll be her for the year. I've been to the yearling sales in America for eight years and this is the first I've actually bought."

Settled towards the rear early by Kevin Manning in this contest, he was caught in traffic at the top of the straight, but muscled his way through to lead with 150 yards remaining and surged away from Middleham. "We thought he was a nice horse after he won first time at the Curragh and he's certainly a very nice horse," his jockey said. Indian Maiden, always dangerous in these heats, came to the fore once again when leaving it late in customary fashion for her sixth stakes success. After recording back-to-back wins in the Listed Lansdown S. at Bath May 2, she had failed to get her picture taken in her next four starts, but was not disgraced when sixth in the G2 Temple S. at Sandown May 30. Off the board last time in the June 10 Listed Cecil Frail S. at Haydock, she made amends with a rattle from rear to wear down Beauty Bright in the final 100 yards here.

Mister Charm, formerly a smart sophomore before being transferred to Hong Kong, returned to his beloved Deauville to win this race 12 months ago and repeated the achievement when making all. Off the track since finishing fourth at Longchamp May 11, was sent to the front and dug in to hold the threat of Turtle Bowl in the closing stages. "He loves this surface and the [Aug. 27] G3 Prix Quincey here is an obvious target," her trainer Jean-Claude Rouget commented.
