SPUN SUGAR HOLDS ON FOR WAND WIN

Spun Sugar (Awesome Again) gamely turned back the onrushing Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country) in the final strides to earn a bob-of-the-head win in yesterday's GI Go For Wand H. at Saratoga. Winning trainer Todd Pletcher, recently immortalized by a bobblehead doll giveaway, appreciated the thrilling finish. "That was a serious 'bobblehead' there," Pletcher said. "When I watched the replay I knew it was super close. This filly is so game." Spun Sugar was content to track the pace from fourth as stablemate Pool Land (Silver Deputy) pressed Take d'Tour (Tour d'Or) through fractions of :23.41 and :46.49. The Stronach Stables' colorbearer surged to the lead approaching the furlong marker and looked all-but-beaten as Balletto powered to the front. But the diminutive filly fought back gamely along the rail for her second Grade I win of the season. Cont. p2

STEWARDS SAY CROSBY STAYS GOLD

Pure as Gold (Stolen Gold), claimed for $100,000 out of a runner-up effort at Hollywood June 14, paid quick dividends for his new connections with a controversial victory in yesterday's GI Bing Crosby H. at Del Mar. Sent off at 23-1, the chestnut gelding with Jon Court aboard was the longest shot on the board. He contested the early fractions of :21.62 and :44.18 before inching clear in upper stretch and outfinishing Bordonaro (Memo {Chi}) for a half-length victory. But the intrigue didn't stop there. Jockey Alex Solis, aboard Bordonaro, claimed foul against the winner and replays of the stretch run clearly showed Court accidentally striking the runner-up across the face with his whip. After a lengthy review, the stewards upheld the order of finish. "It wasn't a matter of I thought he might have hit my horse," explained Solis. "I was sure he hit my horse. I wouldn't have claimed foul otherwise. Jon didn't do that on purpose. But my horse was intimidated by what happened. He turned his head when it happened and then he was watching that other horse all the way through the stretch. He kept looking at him and he wasn't giving me all he had. But I know it was one of those things. It was horse racing." Cont. p2

MANDESHA WINS PRIX D'ASTARTE

The late scratch of G1 Falmouth S. winner Rajeem (GB) (Diktat {GB}) took some quality from yesterday's G1 Prix d'Astarte, but the Deauville race produced a fluent winner in Aga Khan homebred Mandesha (Fr) (Desert Style {Ire}). Mandesha was reserved towards the rear off the even early fractions by jockey Christophe Soumillon before challenging up the stands' side passing the quarter pole. Impressionnante (GB) (Danehill) looked to have the contest won in the centre under Olivier Peslier's drive, but Mandesha found an extra gear and rolled by in the final 100 yards. Saeed Manana's Rajeem (GB) will tackle next Saturday's G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood after missing yesterday's race with an infection. Trainer Clive Brittain discovered the infection in the G1 Falmouth S. winner's off-fore heel Saturday morning, but reported the three-year-old on course for the 10-furlong Nassau after making a quick recovery. "Rajeem is 100-percent better this morning and we hope she will be clear within the next 48 hours," Brittain told PA Sport. Cont. p3

Spun Sugar Outgames Balletto in Go For Wand

Spun Sugar (Awesome Again), winner of last year's GII Black Eyed Susan S., proved her gameness earlier this season when she outbattled Happy Ticket to win the Apr. 8 GI Apple Blossom H. She was fourth behind Take d'Tour as the even-money choice in the June 17 GI Ogden Phipps H. "She was never happy in her last race," Pletcher said of that defeat. "I think she's a better filly around two turns and she showed what she's all about today." The Go For Wand marked a resurgence for Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country), who was second in the 2004 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, but missed all of 2005. She was well-beaten by Take d'Tour in all three prior starts this term, running second in the May 21 GII Shuvee H. and third in the Ogden Phipps. "She came back like her old self and ran with a lot of determination," trainer Tom Albertrani said of the runner-up. "She ran her heart out. It just came down to the bob at the wire." Pletcher also trains favored Oonagh Maccool (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), who faded to last after chasing the early pace. "[Oonagh Maccool's race] was disappointing," Pletcher admitted. "We'll check her over when she comes back. That wasn't her. She's a much better filly than that." Pure as Gold was claimed in January from his breeders Al and Sandra Kirkwood for $40,000, but made only one start for trainer Mike Mitchell before he was claimed again, this time for $50,000 in February. Transferred to the barn of Doug O'Neill, the chestnut gelding won three times racing down the hill at Santa Anita, including a 1 3/4-length victory in the GIII San Simeon H. Fourth over the main track in the May 13 GIII Los Angeles H. at Hollywood Park, Pure As Gold changed hands again when trainer Jack Carava and Ron Valenta's La Canada Stables LLC claimed him for $100,000 last time out June 14. "I thought my horse would be last early and the more I thought about it and the more I heard people saying they didn't need to be on the lead, everybody was acting like they were going to take back, so I told Jon to just play it by ear," explained Carava, winning his first Grade I race. "The horse gutted it out." Click for brisnet.com chart or brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Since graduating at Saint-Cloud May 29, Mandesha has taken on the guise of a typical Alain de Royer-Dupre improver, climbing the heights rapidly after a late start to her career. The three-year-old captured the Listed Prix Urban Sea at Le Lion d'Angers June 13 and was first past the post in the G3 Prix Chloe, but was disqualified and placed last at Maisons-Laffitte July 2. "I wasn't at Maisons-Laffitte last time, but it looked a hard decision and we considered her a worthy winner there," de Royer-Dupre said. "That's why we tried this today and she has won nicely. I'm convinced she'll be better over a mile and a quarter, so we'll try the G1 Prix de l'Opera [at Longchamp Oct. 1]." Lord of England finished 3/4 of a length in arrears of Aspectus (Ire) when second in the G3 Dr Busch-Memorial at Krefeld Apr. 23 before filling third spot behind Royal Power (Ire) and that rival in the May 14 G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne. Staying at a mile for his last start, he dominated the G3 Grosser Preis der Wirtschaft at Dortmund June 11 and appreciated this step up in trip to record a career best. Always on the tail of the leader Almerita, he was in prime position as that rival gave all in the straight and started to tire close home. Grabbing the lead in the final furlong, he was already beyond recall as Laverock put in his best work at the finish. Songster will look to continue a successful weekend at the Spa for Darley and trainer Tom Albertrani. The speedy black colt was a dominant 10-length winner of the May 20 GIII Hirsch Jacobs S. and is coming off a two-length victory in the GII Woody Stephens Breeders' Cup S. Darley will also be represented in the Amsterdam by Changing Weather, trained by Eoin Harty. The gray colt defeated Court Folly to take the May 20 Matt Winn S. at Churchill before running a well-beaten fourth behind Henny Hughes in the July 1 GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. Noonmark, narrow runner-up in the GII Swale S., will attempt to make up 2 3/4 lengths on Songster after a third-place finish in the Woody Stephens. "He represented himself well in the Woody Stephens," said Scott Blasi, taking over training duties from Steve Asmussen. "He deserves to be in this race. He has been training well here because of the relaxed atmosphere. We're hoping we can get a good race out of him."

Spa Notes:

Bernardini (A.P. Indy) returned from his impressive victory in Saturday's GII Jim Dandy S. in fine shape. "It was basically a public workout," trainer Tom Albertrani said. "He came out of it great. He came back as if he didn't even run." The colt remains on target for the Aug. 26 GI Travers S. Trainer Nick Zito reported yesterday that the Travers is also the expected next stop for Jim Dandy third-place finisher Hemingway's Key (Notebook) and for Hesanoldsalt (Broad Brush), who won a nine-furlong second-level allowance on Saturday's card. "Bernardini was obviously sensational and it was great to see a horse like that for the game," Zito said. "If he has an off day, we're going to try him again."

Survivalist (Danzig), the 2005 GIII Gotham S. winner, breezed a half-mile over Saratoga's training track yesterday in :48.91 and is being pointed towards next Saturday's GI Whitney S. "Might as well go and give it a try," explained trainer Shug McGaughey. "His last three races have been really good races." Survivalist will be looking for his fourth straight win in the Whitney after taking a pair of optional claiming races at Belmont and a July 15 Delaware stakes race. Also working towards the Whitney, Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) went five furlongs over the training track in 1:00.45.

WILKO (Awesome Again), winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile in 2004, was a good third to eventual Ky Derby winner Giacomo in the GI Santa Anita Derby, but failed to inspire while on the Triple Crown Trail. Third in three consecutive starts this term—GII San Antonio H., GI Santa Anita H. and G1 Dubai World Cup—the chestnut was out of the money in his two latest, including the GI Suburban H. July 1. Also looking for his first victory of the year is ANDROMEDA'S HERO (Fusaichi Pegasus). Winner of last year's GIII Fred Hooper H. at Calder, the chestnut was most recently third in the Suburban. brisnet.com pps

Albert the Great

31st & 32nd Winners

Albert had two new winners on Sunday as ALOHA THE GREAT won a mile maiden at Ellis Park by 4 1/2 lengths and ALMAGNUS won a mile maiden at Delaware, rallying from fifth at the top of the stretch.

Plans Forming for Pegasus Wind:

Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas is excited about the prospects for two-year-old Pegasus Wind (Fusaichi Pegasus). The colt, who made his debut when fifth in the July 8 GII Bashford Manor S. at Churchill, was a seven-length maiden winner Saturday. "This is a real nice horse," Lukas said. "I wouldn't have run him in a Grade II as a first-time starter if he wasn't." Lukas is eyeing the Sept. 4 GI Hopeful S. for his precocious runner. "That's definitely the plan, but just wait until this guy goes two turns," Lukas added. "Then you will really see something."

Silver Wagon, winner of the GI Hopeful S. at two, hit the board in the GII Fountain of Youth S. and GIII Holy Bull S. the following season. Although lacking sparkle during his four-year-old campaign, the grey proved useful, running second or third in four stakes appearances, including a runner-up finish to eventual Horse of the Year Ghostzapper in the GI Metropolitan H. last May. Fifth to Bandini in his only start this term in a $75,000 optional claimer at Gulfstream Mar. 1, the Florida-bred was given ample consideration in this salty affair. Rated off the early pace, Silver Wagon slipped through along the rail to take charge at the top of the lane and held off a late run from dual stakes winner Going Wild. MERIBEL (f, 3, Peaks and Valleys--Count to Six, by Saratoga Six) followed a win on the Gulfstream grass Apr. 8 with a troubled fifth-place finish in the Trenton S. at the Meadowlands June 12. The dark bay was caught in traffic again in a Belmont allowance test July 3, but still was beaten only a neck when running fourth. The 5-2 choice here, she trailed the field early, but closed ground on the inside as they raced around the turn. Meribel angled wide for the final drive and hit high gear, grabbing the lead inside the eighth pole before drawing off to beat Calla Lily (Pulpit) by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner is a 1/2 to Knox (Menifee), SW, $199,246. Lifetime Record: 7-2-1-2, $67,480.

“Extreme Day” Will Return to Calder in November:

Because two of the events planned for the first “Extreme Day” at Calder Race Course July 22 were called off when heavy rains forced all races to be taken off the turf, the track has announced that it will have a second “Extreme” program during the Tropical meet this fall. “Extreme Day II” will be held Saturday, Nov. 25. During the first go-round, the “World’s Fastest Daily Double,” involving a race on the dirt and one on the turf run simultaneously; and the King George’s Wrong Way S., featuring a field competing clockwise on the turf, had to be canceled. “We certainly created a buzz in the industry with these concepts, and the fans in south Florida responded well, too,” Calder President Ken Dunn said. “We had over 8,000 in attendance and it was a poor weather day. People are ready for something different. We’ve selected a day in the fall that typically has had good weather and are looking forward to putting on a great show.” In addition to the two canceled events, the card will include another edition of the two-furlong Rocket Man S. and an overnight stakes going two miles on the turf.

6.20 Galway, Mdn, €19,820, 2yo, c/g, 7ft.

CHIVALROUS (IRE) (Danehill) stepped up markedly from his debut fourth at The Curragh to finish third back there in the G3 Anglesey S. earlier this month. He represents Ballydoyle in the race won by Grey Swallow (Ire) three years ago. Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith and John Magnier's colt, who is from Jim Bolger's top-class family of Sholokhov (Ire) and the smart juvenile Teofilo (Ire), is an important marker for the current Ballydoyle juvenile crop.
