I'LL SEE YOU IN COURT

Stretch-running Court Folly (Royal Academy) got the hot pace he was looking for and bested 1-10 Songster (Songandaprayer) to take the GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga yesterday afternoon. It was the first Spa win for trainer Ian Wilkes, who previously worked as an assistant to Carl Nafzger. "It's a great honor to win at Saratoga," Wilkes said. "But I don't think it has sunk in. They set it up well today." Court Folly was eight lengths behind an opening quarter of :21.8 and still had seven to make up turning for home, but kicked into gear to reel in the favorite and earn his first stakes win. It was Songster's first outing since taking the GII Woody Stephens BC S. June 10. "He definitely kicked in, but he was beaten by a better horse today," said rider Edgar Prado. "I thought we were home free, but the other horse ran a little faster." Click here for the brisnet.com chart or the brisnet.com pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Courting an Upset...

Court Folly, a maiden winner at Keeneland last fall for Nafzger, kicked off 2006 with an allowance victory at Gulfstream Jan. 27. He rallied for third behind Sharp Humor in the seven-furlong GII Swale S. Mar. 4 at the Hallandale track, but a stab at the nine-furlong GI Toyota Blue Grass S. proved fruitless when the bay was beaten 57 3/4 lengths in that Apr. 15 contest at Keeneland. Returned to sprint distances, Court Folly missed by a head to Changing Weather in the Matt Winn S. at Churchill May 20 and came into this one off a third to El Nino (Storm Cat) in a 6 1/2-furlong allowance under the Twin Spires June 21. Wilkes indicated after the Amsterdam that his charge would remain in Saratoga for the GI King's Bishop S. Aug. 26. That race will be right up Court Folly's alley, according to winning rider Calvin Borel. "He's going to love the seven furlongs of the King's Bishop," said the jockey.

SORE ANKLE FOR SUNRIVER

Plans are currently on hold for Sunriver (Saint Ballado), who emerged from a last-place finish in Saturday's GII Jim Dandy S. with a minor injury. "It looks like he wrenched his right-hind ankle a little bit," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "There was some inflammation in it [Sunday], but it improved [Monday]. We'll take it day-by-day." It was the second poor performance over a sloppy track for the three-year-old, Pletcher noted. "He won't be running on a surface like that again," said the conditioner.

PERFECT DRIFT HEADING WEST...AGAIN

The redoubtable Perfect Drift (Dynaformer) will be hoping the third time is the charm for his annual road trip to Del Mar for the $1-million GI Pacific Classic. He has been the runner-up in the 10-furlong race the last two years, and most recently ran second in the GII Washington Park H. this past Saturday. "It would have been nice to win the Washington Park, but it set him up just right for the next start," trainer Murray Johnson said about the seven-year-old, who has bankrolled over $4.5 million. "Last year, we won at Arlington and ran second there [at Del Mar], so this year we'll have to switch and win the Pacific Classic."

Godolphin, who captured this prize two years ago with Byron (GB), put forward the likely favorite Iffraaj this time. Stepping up from major handicaps last term, he took the G2 Park S. over this trip at Doncaster in September before failing to handle Longchamp's soft ground in the G1 Prix de la Foret in October.

Iffraaj returned to finish a creditable seventh in the June 24 G1 Golden Jubilee S. at Royal Ascot and produced a late rattle that just failed to catch Les Arcs in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket last time July 14. "Iffraaj has come out of the Darley July Cup, in which he ran a great race, very well," trainer Saeed bin Suroor commented. "He has class and this race should suit him. His last piece of work was pleasing." Sir Michael Stoute, who has yet to win this prize, saddles the progressive sophomore Jeremy. The three-year-old took apart a competitive line-up assembled for the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot last time June 21. That followed a game success on rain-softened ground in the Listed King Charles II S. at Newmarket May 27, and he has proved adaptable to varying conditions. "I was very impressed with him at Ascot, because he had a bit of running to do with two furlongs to run and he showed a turn of foot he hadn't done before," Stoute commented. "Hopefully he's going the right way, and I like him a lot." Nayyir, a genuine track-and-trip specialist, won this in 2002 and 2003. He showed he retained his ability when annexing the G3 Diomed S. at Epsom June 3, and was unlucky in running when fourth in the G3 Criterion S. at Newmarket last time July 1.

Having spent more time during my schoolboy years studying form, rather than Virgil's Aeneid as I was supposed to, my recall of Latin isn't nearly as good as it should be. I seem to remember, though, that "gaudeamus" means "let us rejoice."

Well, Mrs. Jackie Bolger, the owner of a two-year-old Distorted Humor filly of that name, certainly has reason to rejoice. Her filly is now the winner of three of her five starts in Ireland, with her only losses coming against colts, and Gaudeamus's wins include a Listed race and the G2 Debutante S. The youngster's earnings already equate to nearly $130,000, which underlines what a bargain she was when she was purchased for only $60,000 from the Lane's End consignment last September.

Gaudeamus's price made her one of the cheapest yearlings by Distorted Humor at Keeneland last year, when the WinStar stallion achieved an average price of around $190,000 and a top price of $1,100,000. One possible explanation for her comparatively modest price was her birthday of May 23. Only last week I commented in this column that "although a late birth date certainly doesn't help in the sales ring, it doesn't automatically consign the youngster to failure."

Gaudeamus's foaling date has clearly not been a major handicap for her and she gained her first win on May 17, six days before her actual second birthday. Even so, her late birthday suggests that we still haven't seen the best of this very tough filly, who is expected to step into Group 1 company on her next start.

Gaudeamus's price is made all the more remarkable by the fact that her dam, Leo's Lucky Lady, is a half-sister to Korveya, who equalled the then-record price for a broodmare of $7 million when she was offered at Keeneland in 1998. Korveya's price reflected the fact that this French Group 3 winner had become one of the few mares with three individual Classic winners to her credit.

Korveya's Classic winners--Hector Protector (Woodman), Shanghai (Procida) and Bosra Sham (Woodman)--are by no means the only top performers from this outstanding family. The other Group 1-winning descendants of Gaudeamus's fourth dam Queen's Statute include Awaasif, Snow Bride, Lammtarra, Brief Truce, Ciro, Mercedes Won, Passinetti, Sunstrach and Yearly Report.

All three of Korveya's Classic winners were by sons of Mr. Prospector, who himself sired Leo's Lucky Lady's high-class half-sister Proskona, a sprinter with a lofty Timeform rating of 127. In the circumstances, it is no surprise that the Mr. Prospector male line has dominated the broodmare career of Leo's Lucky Lady, who was second in a five-furlong turf stakes race at the Meadowlands as a three-year-old.

Woodman, Gone West, Seeking the Gold, Kingmambo and Fusaichi Pegasus have all sired foals from Leo's Lucky Lady. Her three foals by Woodman included Leo's Luckyman, who filled the show spot in two group races as a juvenile in 2001 and was rated as high as 110 when he won over 1¼ miles as a six-year-old.

As her Fusaichi Pegasus filly wasn't foaled until May 20, 2003, Leo's Lucky Lady's owners must have considered resting her. However, May 2003 had also seen the Kentucky Derby and Preakness S. fall to Funny Cide, a Distorted Humor gelding with a granddaughter of Seattle Slew as his dam.

As a daughter of Seattle Slew, Leo's Lucky Lady was given her chance with Distorted Humor, another incentive being that Distorted Humor's sire Forty Niner had sired the stakes-winning Luhuk from this family.

As Distorted Humor's fee currently stands at $150,000, it is easy to forget that the services of this very good stallion had cost as little as $10,000 in 2002 before being doubled on the strength of his impressive achievements as a freshman sire.

For me, Gaudeamus's emergence as a group winner is reason to rejoice, as there have long been doubts about the suitability of the Forty Niner male line for racing on turf in Europe. This sort of theory tends to be self-perpetuating: with few breeders and buyers willing to attempt to buck the trend, the end result is that the theory gains added credence. Runners by Distorted Humor have been few and far between in Britain and Ireland--he had had only three runners and no winners to the end of last year--so Gaudeamus's exploits should open a window of opportunity for her sire.

The European prejudice against this branch of the Mr. Prospector male line started with Forty Niner. With a granddaughter of Ribot as his dam, Forty Niner theoretically had a better chance of siring high-class European turf performers than some of Mr Prospector's other sons. However, he was represented by nothing better than the listed winners Island of Silver, Luhuk and Ruznama from more than 20 runners in Britain, and his only European group success came in a German Group 3, via Miss Tobacco.

European buyers and breeders weren't prepared to take much of a risk with most of Forty Niner's numerous stallion sons, one exception being Coronado's Quest, who sired an ultimately disappointing Group 2 winner and a listed winner from his European representatives.

So why should Distorted Humor do any better? Perhaps the crucial factor is that his dam is a Grade II-winning daughter of Danzig, a stallion to whom European racing owes a huge debt. It is also encouraging that Distorted Humor has sired the occasional good turf horse in the U.S., such as the Grade I-winning Fourty Niners Son, and that he did quite well in the two seasons he shuttled to Australia. His 121 Australian foals included four local stakes winners, headed by Rinky Dink (G1 Australasian Oaks) and Tirade (G3 Guineas Prelude). Hello Pretty, another Australian-bred son of Distorted Humor, won the G2 Hong Kong Derby Trial in March.

Fourty Niners Son

It will be interesting to see whether Honest Prospector, a two-year-old son of Distorted Humor--Star Nurse (Eastern Echo), can eventually add to his sire's reputation in Britain and Ireland. This $450,000 yearling is in training with Sir Michael Stoute.

ELECTROCUTIONIST HAS IRISH OPTION

Godolphin's Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) may be aimed at the Sept. 9 G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, connections revealed yesterday. After his half-length runner-up finish to Hurricane Run (Ire) in Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, the five-year-old will enjoy a short rest before a possible tilt at the 10-furlong contest. "He seems fine and, taking all things into account, he's okay," Racing Manager Simon Crisford told PA Sport. "He had a hard race and will have a few easy days now. The Irish Champion S. is maybe a suitable target, and he'll be well-entered up in races from a mile and a quarter to a mile and a half."

Andromeda's Hero ended his 2005 campaign with a win in the Dec. 5 Gill Fred Hooper H. at Calder, but had been unsuccessful in six starts this season. Third in the Feb. 4 GI Donn H., he was off the board in his next two tries, but improved to fill the show spot in the May 5 Alysheba S. at Churchill Downs. The chestnut was runner-up in the May 20 Gill W.D. Schaefer H. at Pimlico and finished well in his latest to be third behind Invasor (Arg) in the July 1 GI Suburban H. Dropping out of the stakes ranks in search of a confidence booster, he was hung wide on the first turn, raced on the outside down the backstretch and was under the gun as they hit the final bend. But the colt responded to energetic left-handed encouragement and got up late to best front-running Bank President in the final yards.

+ BRUSHED GOLD (f, 2, Touch Gold--Painted Lady, by Broad Brush) prepped for her career opener with a solid five-furlong turf work, going in 1:00 at Saratoga July 24. The Stonerside homebred rated off moderate splits, circled the leaders at the top of the lane and outfinished Enchantal (War Chant) for a half-length score at 9-2 odds. Pacesetter Pay Wright (French Envoy) was a neck back in third. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,800.

Far back after checking at the start, he hit the gas as they raced into the stretch and kept on coming, catching What a Tale (Tale of the Cat) in the final stride for a nose victory. The winner is a 1/2 to No Bad Habits (Roanoke), MSP, $469,263; and Schemer (Concern), MSP, $245,422. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,200. O-Margaret N Carrothers & Patricia Parker. Oonagh Okay:

Trainer Todd Pletcher reported that Oonagh Maccool (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), last of six as the 3-2 favorite in Sunday's GI Go for Wand H., had no obvious excuse for her performance. "I don't know, I haven't figured anything out yet," he said yesterday. "[Jockey] John [Velazquez] said he was out of horse on the backside, but she came back and scoped clean, and she is sound this morning." Plans for the multiple graded-stakes winning four-year-old are on hold.

Captain Squire has traveled the world, racing with success in stakes from California and New York to Arizona, Florida and West Virginia. He earned his first Grade I score in the Ancient Title BC S. at Santa Anita last October, and has made the trip to the UAE twice, running third in the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen in 2003 and fourth in the race this year. Freshened after that Mar. 25 event, the bay returned to be second in the June 10 GIII Ack Ack H. at Hollywood and was odds-on to add to his resume here. Captain Squire was pressed through a half in :44.32, but edged away late for a decisive score. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

The bay was unplaced in a pair of dirt outings at three before graduating over this course Sept. 3. Sidelined following a fourth at Santa Anita Oct. 19, he captured his June 17 return at Hollywood and was 6-1 here. The Florida-bred saved ground after breaking from the rail, snuck inside 3-5 Bro Lo (In Excess {Ire}) in the lane and beat him by a length. Lifetime Record: 8-3-0-0, $108,680.

New Joysey Jeff Euthanized:

MGSP New Joysey Jeff (Bright Launch--Dyna Peak, by Dynaformer) was euthanized at Del Mar after suffering a fractured sesamoid in his left front leg while working on the Jimmy Durante Turf Course yesterday. The three-year-old, trained by Mark Glatt, was in the middle of a five-furlong breeze when the injury occurred. He was the first horse to work on the course Monday, and the rest of the day's scheduled works on the course were cancelled. New Joysey Jeff was second in the May 21 GIII Will Rogers S. over the Hollywood Park turf course and was third over the main track at Santa Anita in the Feb. 12 GII San Vicente S. The bay ducked out in the stretch of the June 25 GIII Cinema Breeders' Cup H. and dumped jockey Jose Valdivia Jr. two starts back, and took the lead at midstretch in the July 19 Ocean-side S., only to duck out again, winding up third. He was put on the steward's list following that race. On the board in five of eight starts, New Joysey Jeff won once and earned $85,546.

FABRE POINTING STAR DUO AT ARC Andre Fabre will point both Michael Tabor's Hurricane Run (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Baron Georg von Ullmann's Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) at the Oct. 1 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp. Following the former's success in Saturday's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, he was reported by his trainer to be in excellent condition and could head straight to the Arc without a prep race. Alternatively, the four-year-old could take in the Sept. 10 G2 Prix Foy at Longchamp, which is also an option for the G1 Coronation Cup winner Shirocco. However, the Sept. 3 G1 Grosser Preis von Baden is the more likely option for the latter. "Shirocco will also be put in the Prix Foy, but there's a chance he'll go instead to Baden-Baden," Fabre told Racing Post.
