CONTENDER LOOKS STRONG IN HASKELL

Strong Contender (Maria's Mon) looks to continue his climb to the top of the sophomore division in today's GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park. The lightly raced colt was considered a Kentucky Derby hopeful after starting his career with a pair of impressive victories, but a third-place finish in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. derailed those dreams. Third in the GII Peter Pan S., the striking chestnut returned to the winner's circle with a 7 3/4-length victory in the July 4 GII Dwyer S. last time out. "So far we are lightly raced," admitted trainer John Ward. "That is an advantage because this is a May 15 foal. Since we didn't go in any of the Triple Crown races, we've been able to pick out spots." Haskell hopeful Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat) is making his return to the races after a successful Triple Crown campaign. The Todd Pletcher trainee, the 2-1 morning-line favorite, was second in both the Kentucky Derby and Belmont S.

RACE FOR THE AGES

Few matches turn out the way they were planned, but yesterday's G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood was textbook as the high-class mares Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) battled out the finish, with Ouija Board barely an inch better off at the line. Lord Derby's five-year-old had the support of the nation behind her and the even-money pick needed all of her popularity to ward off Noel and Miriam O'Callaghan's raider, who headed her for a large part of the final quarter. Regaining the edge in the pulsating final drive, it was a short-head verdict for Ouija Board's. "It was a great horse race and full credit to the runner-up--between them they've won 10 Group 1s, which is phenomenal for mares," trainer Ed Dunlop said. "It's a testament to her to show such courage and the reception she got was fantastic." Cont. p2

INVASOR HOLDS ON TO WHITNEY WIN

Invasor (Arg) (Candy Stripes) continued his assault on the North American handicapping ranks with a determined nose victory over Sun King (Charismatic) in yesterday's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga Racecourse. The Argentinian-bred Uruguayan champion hasn't put a hoof wrong since transferring his act to North America, following victory in the GI Pimlico Special with a win in the July 1 GI Suburban H. Cont. p3

Invasor (inside) A Coglianese

FLIPAROO PASSES TEST

Swap Fliparoo (Exchange Rate) rallied from last to first along the rail to win yesterday's GI Test S. going away by two lengths. The gray filly, a Hobeau Farm homebred trained by Allen Jerkens, had been second in eight of her previous 15 starts, including a last-out runner-up effort behind Behaving Badly in the July 3 GII Genuine Risk Breeders' Cup H. "I saved ground thinking I was going to swing out at some time," explained Eibar Coa. "But the rail was open, so I stayed there and everything worked out beautifully." Cont. p4

Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) has endeared herself to her country with shows of bravado and class at home and abroad, displaying a high level of consistency at the top level that began with an impressive success in the G1 Epsom Oaks in June 2004. Adding the G1 Irish Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf to her tally on either side of a third in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, she rescued her four-year-old season from the doldrums to finish runner-up in the Filly and Mare Turf and win the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December. After placings in the Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad al Sheba, Apr. 23 G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup back at Sha Tin and G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 2, she returned to her best to deny Electrocutationist in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 21 and was badly baulked when fifth in the G1 Eclipse S. at Sandown last time July 8. Racing closer to the pace than usual here, she took over traveling strongly with 2½ furlongs remaining before being tackled and passed by Alexander Goldrun (Ire) (Gold Away {Ire}) and Kevin Manning out wide. As the pair locked into battle, it was touch and go to the line, where Ouija Board carved out a slim margin. "We knew she'd won over a mile and a half, so we couldn't afford to sit and sprint with some good milers, but she was in front a long way out," Frankie Dettori explained. "The other mare went by me and Ouija Board likes a target, so she put her head down when it really mattered. Both fillies dug all the way to the line and she's got great guts. She's a special filly--one of the all-time favorite horses in England and one of a kind." Dunlop was putting plans on hold yesterday. "We've had plans for her all year and broken them all and we weren't even considering this race before," he said. "She's had a hard race, so we'll take her home, see how she is and take it from there." Alexander Goldrun's trainer Jim Bolger was not downcast afterwards, saying, "I was very happy with the run. I always knew it would be tight and it was on the bob. The ground was not a problem, that is not an excuse. The intended target is the G1 Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 9]." Invasor opened his career with five straight wins, earning him championship honors in Uruguay. He took his show on the road to Dubai, where he finished fourth behind Discreet Cat in the Mar. 25 G2 UAE Derby. Shipped to the U.S. barn of Kiaran McLaughlin after that effort, the colt quickly proved he was legit with a 1 1/4-length victory in the May 19 GI Pimlico Special. He powered to a 4 1/4-length victory in the July GI Suburban H. and was looking for his third straight Grade I win here. Second choice in the field of nine, Invasor stumbled at the break, but recovered to run a stalking fourth. He rallied inside of favored Flower Alley (Distorted Humor) turning for home, forced that rival wide while angling out for running room in the stretch and took over with a furlong to run before gamely holding off the late charge of Sun King. "It makes us trainers and jockeys look good when you have a horse like this," said McLaughlin. McLaughlin did admit to some anxious moments. "I was worried at the eighth pole," he said. "We had been in a fight throughout and Sun King came to us. We were in a dogfight; it was a great race. Today, he dug in and showed a great desire to win. I thought we had won, but I had to watch it over again. Two more wins and we might have Uruguay's Horse of the Year and America's Horse of the Year." Asked what might be next for Invasor, McLaughlin said, "We're not sure about the Woodward or the Jockey Club Gold Cup. [Owner] Sheikh Hamdan [bin Rashid al Maktoum] asked to run him once more before the Breeders' Cup [Nov. 4 at Churchill]." Sun King added this heartbreaking loss to his narrow defeat in the GI Met Mile. "Coming down the stretch, we were getting closer to Invasor," explained jockey Rafael Bejarano. "I knew we were ahead at one point and at the wire, I thought we had the race won. Sun King has a lot of heart, but Invasor is a tough horse." Checked after getting bumped at the break, Swap Fliparoo settled near the back of the pack as longshot Original Spin opened a clear lead through quick fractions of :22.02 and :44.67. She moved forward on the far turn and closed determinedly along the rail to power past a tiring Original Spin and win going away. "She's really a nice filly; now, she's got a Grade I," said trainer Allen Jerkens after winning his third Test S. Swap Fliparoo had been knocking on the door to graded stakes success, with runner-up efforts in last year's GIII Astarita S. and this season's GIII Old Hat S. and GII Genuine Risk Breeders' Cup H., as well as a third-place finish in the GII Nassau County Breeders' Cup S. In the Genuine Risk, the gray filly was sandwiched between Behaving Badly and yesterday's GII Honorable Miss H. winner Stormy Kiss. Original Spin held on gamely for second. "My filly ran great," said the runner-up's rider Fernando Jara. "Turning for home, I thought we might have it, but she got a little tired." She put a head in front in upper stretch and outfinished Maggie Slew while under steady urging. "I was very confident because she's very effective going a mile or further," commented trainer Marty Wolfson by phone from Calder.

"She's really better going long, although I think everybody kind of thought she was a sprinter." Of his charge's trip, Wolfson added, "[Jockey Eddie Castro] just let [Maggie Slew] just sneak off a little bit. I thought he rode her confidently, but I thought the other filly ran really game." ☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

JAZIL RETURN DELAYED GI Belmont S. winner Jazil (Seeking the Gold) will not return to trainer Kiaran McLaughlin's barn until at least the end of August, as he continues to recover from a bone bruise, according to Daily Racing Form. Originally, the bay had been expected back in training by Aug. 10, but Shadwell Farm manager Rick Nichols told McLaughlin that estimate had been pushed back. "He talked to Dr. [Larry] Bramlage and he wanted to wait until the end of this month to get him back to the track," McLaughlin told the Form. "That gives him 60 days from his last work." The additional rest time lessens the chances for the Belmont S. winner to make it to the Nov. 4 Breeders' Cup at Churchill Downs. "It will be very hard," McLaughlin admitted.

ARAAFA LAME Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's Araafa (Ire) (Mull of Kintyre) returned lame after his disappointing run in Wednesday's G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood. Trainer Jeremy Noseda revealed yesterday that the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 St James's Palace S. winner had suffered an injury to his near-fore during his fifth to Court Masterpiece (GB) in the mile feature. "Unfortunately, Araafa finished slightly lame in his left fore," Noseda said. "X-rays and ultrasound scans have revealed no long-term injury and he will be able to continue his campaign in either the [Sept. 3] G1 Prix du Moulin or [Sept. 23] G1 Queen Elizabeth II S."

Criquette Head-Maarek saddled Anabaa to win this in 1996 and Occupandiste (Ire) to follow suit the next year and relies on Quiet Royal this afternoon. She established herself as one of the leading domestic juvenile fillies last term, finishing runner-up to Confidential Lady (GB) in the G3 Prix du Calvados here in August and to Rumpelstiltskin (Ire) in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac in October. Capped by a success in the G3 Prix Miesque at Maisons-Laffitte the following month, she returned to finish runner-up to Daltaya (Fr) in the G3 Prix de la Grotte on her last outing Apr. 23. Like New Girlfriend, who hails from the Robert Colet barn successful with Whipper 12 months ago, she is attempting to re-establish her juvenile reputation. The latter, who looked impressive when winning the G2 Prix Robert Papin last July, appeared not to stay a mile when sixth in the May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp and third behind Impressionnante (GB) in the G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly June 4. "I've thought that the 1300 meters of this would suit her perfectly," her trainer told Paris-Turf. "Christophe Soumillon worked her on the track and she is very well." Somnus, who took advantage of heavy overnight rain to win this two years ago, was down the field in last year's renewal and has questions to answer. He had Kodiak back in third when enjoying a confidence-boosting win in a Haydock conditions event July 8 and heads a powerful British raiding party. Included in that crew is Amadeus Wolf, who has yet to grace the winner's spot this term after a profitable two-year-old campaign which featured wins in the G2 Gimcrack S. at York in August and the G1 Middle Park S.

The ultra-consistent Happy Ticket suffered a pair of gut-wrenching defeats at Oaklawn, with neck losses to Round Pond in the Mar. 11 GIII Azeri Breeders' Cup S. and to Spun Sugar in the Apr. 8 GI Apple Blossom H. She finally got on the right side of a win photo with a head victory over Oonagh Maccool (Ire) in the June 17 GII Fleur de Lis H. last time out. Hollywood Story settled behind blistering fractions set by Healthy Addiction in the July 2 GI Vanity H. and just nailed that foe at the wire. That nine-furlong races was Hollywood Story's first win in over a year, but she was just nosed out of a victory in last year's Clement Hirsch. Star Parade, winner of the GI Santa Maria H. in February, returned from a fifth-place effort in the Apple Blossom to earn a front-running 1 3/4-length victory over Hollywood Story and Healthy Addiction in the May 7 GIII Hawthorne H. and has been freshened since a narrow head loss in the June 3 GII Milady Breeders' Cup H.

He's even-money on the morning-line--can GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero Artie Schiller get the job done today? The five-year-old has just missed as the 1-2 favorite in his first two starts this term, running second by a nose in the Apr. 14 GII Maker's Mark Mile at Keeneland and third by a neck in the May 20 GII Dixie S. at Pimlico. He is a perfect two-for-two at the Spa, winning the GII Hall of Fame H. at three and the GII Bernard Baruch H. at four. "After the Dixie, he didn't seem right," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "He didn't look the same--he lost some weight. We didn't know what was going on with him, so we stopped with him and let him come back up." He added, "He may pick it up another notch here. Some horses do that when they get [to Saratoga]." Remarkable News capped a three-race winning streak with a front-running nose score in the May 28 GIII Connaught Cup at Woodbine. He changed tactics last time and came up 2 1/4 lengths short when second in the July 2 GIII Poker H. at a mile, but is four-for-six at a mile and a sixteenth. Ashkal Way, two-for-nine while racing overseas, is a perfect three-for-three in the U.S. The four-year-old gelding steps up in class after taking the July 15 Elkwood S. at Monmouth Park.

This week's accomplishment:

Wilkes sent out Court Folly (Royal Academy), the longshot shot on the board at 10-1, to a rousing upset over 1-10 Songster in the July 31 GII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga. It was the first win at the Spa for Wilkes, who went out on his own as a trainer in January after serving as an assistant to Carl Nafzger for 13 years.

Birthdate: May 25, 1965

Birthplace: Muswellbrook, Australia

Current Residence: Louisville, KY

Family: Wife Tracey, son

Brodie, 13, and daughter Shelby, who celebrates her 16th birthday this week.

Biggest accomplishment in racing? Winning the Amsterdam was it, at least in terms of being out on my own. I was Unbridled's exercise rider when he won the Derby, and that was amazing. We had some other really good horses, Banshee Breeze and Unshaded.

If you had the opportunity, would you bungee jump? (laughs) Never have and I never will.

What is your favorite vacation spot? Las Vegas. Aw, I love Vegas. I usually get out about once a year.

Favorite food or meal? Lamb burgers. It's expensive over here, but in Australia, it's cheap and always really good.

Favorite film? Crocodile Dundee.

Favorite racetrack? I guess it's Saratoga now! But no, I'd have to say Churchill in the U.S.

What's playing on your CD player these days? Country. I couldn't really give you a favorite artist; I like all of it.

Perfect day? Winning a Grade I? (laughs) No, honestly, just a day spent with my wife Tracey and our two kids.

Preferred beverage? You know, Tracey and I like the champagne a little bit.

Last Purchase? Just bought a new car.

CONGRATULATIONS

Montare looked exposed during the summer of 2005, but her career took off in style in the fall with successes in a pair of listed contests and the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris at Longchamp in October. Following a return fifth in the Apr. 30 G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp, she was beaten in a bobber when runner-up to Shamdala (Ire) in the G2 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier back at that track May 21. She filled the same spot behind Bellamy Cay (GB) in the July 14 G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil there last time and sets the standard. Last year's G2 Prix de Malleret winner and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Royal Highness returned to finish runner-up in the Prix Ganay, but was sixth in the June 4 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly on her latest start and has to bounce back. Andre Fabre has an enviable record in this contest, having turned out seven winners since 1989, and saddles Celebre Vadala, who bids to build on her latest success in the Listed Prix Melisande at Fontainebleau June 7. Previously, she had finished fourth in the May 14 Listed Prix de la Seine at Longchamp and has the scope to progress through the ranks. Time On, who took the May 10 Listed Cheshire Oaks and June 25 G2 Prix de Malleret at Saint-Cloud either side of a sixth in the G1 Epsom Oaks June 2. She hails from the John Dunlop yard, who brought Leggera (Ire) to win this in 1998.

JUVENILE WINNERS IN 6 DAYS

SARATOGA RACE COURSE

Pegasus Wind (Fusaichi Pegasus), a seven-length winner of a maiden special weight race on Saturday (7/31), could make his next start in the $250,000 Hopeful Stakes (G1), a seven-furlong race for two-year-olds on September 4. "That's definitely the plan, but just wait until this guy goes two turns," Racing Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "Then, you'll really see something."

NOTABLE MAIDEN WINNERS

Fusaichi Pegasus iSD (10/4) KAUAI CALLS, B. f. 2, Collect Call, by Meadowlake. Saratoga Race Course, 7/30, 6f, fast, 1:11.96. Won by 2 lengths...was impressive in her career debut.

“She powered further and further clear in the straight... the Gr.2 May Hill and the Gr.1 Fillies' Mile are on the agenda now.”

Racing Post, 4th August 2006, after CUMIN won her maiden in a very fast time at Goodwood.

FUSAICHI PEGASUS

Also SI FOO finished fast to win by a neck at Windsor for Andrew Balding on 7/31 and CUMIN barely had to be pushed out to win by 7 lengths in a maiden at Goodwood for Barry Hills on 8/3.

SIS CITY RETIRED Stonerside Stable's GISW Sis City (Slew City Slew--Smart Sis, by Beau Genius) was retired from racing after turning in an uninspiring drill at Saratoga yesterday. The four-year-old filly, 10 1/2-length winner of the GI Ashland S. and 16-length winner of the GI Davona Dale S. last year, was winless in her last six starts. Last time, she ran fourth in the July 14 Capades S. at Belmont. "We're going to stop on her," trainer Richard Dutrow, Jr. confirmed after Sis City worked six furlongs in company in 1:15. "She's done with racing. We'll send her to Kentucky, where she'll be turned out and bred next season." In addition to her graded triumphs last season, the former claimer also won the GI Demoiselle S. and was third in the GI Frizette S. in 2004. On the board in eight of 15 starts, she retires with five wins and earnings of $795,764.

Carnera was racing for purse money only after the late scratch of entymate Changing Weather (Storm Boot). The Darley colorbearer broke his maiden on the Gulfstream grass in March and was an allowance winner on the Aqueduct lawn in April. Stepping into stakes company off that effort, he was third in the June 9 GIII Hill Prince S. and second in the July 9 GIII Lexington S., both at Belmont. The dark bay kept the leaders in his sights down the backstretch and around the turn, swept to the front as they straightened for home and was clearly best.

BIG PRAIRIE (c, 4, Danzig--Dance Colony {GSW & MGISP, $504,825}, by Pleasant Colony), runner-up in last year's GII Jefferson Cup at Churchill Downs, had failed to score in four subsequent appearance. Fourth in the GIII Lexington S. in what would be his sophomore finale July 10, the bay returned to be seventh in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 12 and was coming into this off third-place efforts over the Louisville turf May 17 and June 30. Well off of suicidal early fractions, the half to Gold Colony (Forty Niner), MGSP, $118,174, was steered wide into the stretch and closed with a rush to score by a widening 2 3/4 lengths. FEROCIOUS FIRES (c, 3, Lite the Fuse--Flag On the Gate, by Key to the Flag) cruised to an eight-length maiden score in his Feb. 26 debut on the Aqueduct inner track. Despite the layoff, the chestnut was bet down to 4-5 in his second start. Hustled up to sit off the leaders after getting bumped at the break, he joined Mr. Bourbon Street (Ormsby) as they raced down the lane and prevailed by a half-length. Henny Hughes Works Towards King's Bishop:

Henny Hughes (Hennessy) worked a half mile over Saratoga's main track yesterday in :50.01 as he continues preparations for the Aug. 26 GI King's Bishop S. "I'm happy with the way he went," said trainer Kieran McLaughlin. "We wanted him to go a lot slower this time [than his half-mile move in :46.36 July 28]. He's in great shape now and I'm just trying to keep him happy." Henny Hughes has made only one start since returning from his winter in Dubai. The chestnut colt was a 10-length winner of the July 1 Gill Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S.

Alabama Possible for Wonder Lady Anne L:

GI Coaching Club American Oaks winner Wonder Lady Anne L (Real Quiet) may make her next start in the Aug. 19 GI Alabama S., despite battling illness. "We're having trouble with her," explained trainer Richard Dutrow, Jr. "She has a cough that we're trying to control. As soon as we can control that, we'll put her back on the track."

 The connections of Nicole's Dream opted out of the $250,000 Distaff Turf Sprint Championship later on the card to take on the boys, and the decision proved profitable. Three-for-five on the season, the bay had already bested males in a stakes at Canterbury Park in May and in the Smile S. at Arlington July 4. She added a victory over fellow distaffers in the J J'sdream S. 12 days later and was the second choice facing her toughest foes to date. Sent right to the front, she dashed off a half in :43.72 and had enough left in the tank to hold favored Atticus Kristy at bay. "As it turned out, I don't think it would have mattered what race we chose today," trainer Larry Rivelli said. "Once she gets clear, she's very hard to beat." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

 Off the board in her first two starts this term, Unbridled Sydney rebounded to take Churchill's May 4 Mamzelle S. by a nose. She followed with third-place finishes in the June 10 Excitable Lady H. in Louisville and July 15 Distaff Turf Sprint H. at Calder, and was the second choice to improve off that result here. Left alone on the lead when Nicole's Dream scratched and even-money Gilded Gold (Gilded Time) found herself shuffled back at the start, Unbridled Sydney had daylight on the field every step of the way, winning handily. Gilded Gold was steadied on the turn and could do no better than fifth.

Snow Lady ran hard every step of the way in her 4 1/2-furlong bow at this track June 13, but had to settle for second, beaten three-parts of a length. The Padua homebred added Lasix for her latest and broke through with a neck success July 1. Rated off the pace beneath Abel Castellano, the chestnut commenced an eye-catching move on the far turn, took command approaching the quarter pole and was able to just last from Silkily. "This filly has improved every time she's run now and that is very encouraging," the winning jockey commented. "What I liked about her race today was even with the somewhat slow early pace, she made the lead pretty easily, which should set her up well next time at seven furlongs." Snow Lady is likely to make her next start in the Susan's Girl S. Sept. 2.

In Return picked up her maiden victory in her third start, going gate to wire at Monmouth July 14, and was a well-backed third choice climbing several rungs up the ladder this time. Content to sit second as Mambo With G led by as many as 13 lengths through fast fractions, she reeled in the frontrunner at the sixteenth pole and pulled clear.

2nd-MTH, $36,000, Msw, 2yo, a1m70yd, 1:46, ft. KEENELAND KID (c, 2, Hennessy--Meadow Victory, by Ogygian) chased the pace before tiring to be fourth in his debut at Monmouth on Independence Day. The second choice at 19-10 this time, he was head-and-head for the lead through six furlongs in a moderate 1:14.97, edged clear in the stretch and fought off Braznely Bold (Petionville) for a half-length tally. The winner is a full to Keeneland Kat, SW & GISP, $132,200. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $23,760. O-George & Lori Hall. B-Liberation Farm, Oratis Thoroughbreds & Cho, LLC (KY). T-Kelly J Breen.

Caller One Races On:

MGSW Caller One (Phone Trick), who has made one start in each of the last three seasons, goes postward today in the West Virginia Legislature Chairman S. going 4 1/2 furlongs at Mountaineer Park. The nine-year-old gelding, two-time winner of the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen and third in the 2001 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, has made appearances in the last three runnings of Calder's Rocket Man S. at two furlongs. He returned from a two-year absence to run third in the 2004 Rocket Man before a runner-up effort in the race in 2005 and a fifth-place effort last time out July 22.

Winner of the Commonwealth Turf S. Nov. 13 at Churchill Downs, Therecomesatiger was a close third to the talented Drum Major in the Dec. 31 Pete Axthelm S. at Calder before going away. The dark bay tired to be fifth in this track's Mister Gus S. on his return May 29, but suggested a return to form with a solid third to Miesque's Approval in the GII Firecracker Breeders' Cup S. at Churchill July 1. Hugging the fence for the run up the backstretch, Therecomesatiger angled out for the stretch drive and edged past a game Le Cinquieme Essai for the victory.

El Don had made one prior start on the grass at Del Mar, winning an optional claimer just three days shy of a year ago, and was the crowd's choice to run his record at the track to two-for-two. The bay came back after a 6 1/2-month layoff to take the May 27 San Matean H. at Bay Meadows. He took on tough company in his latest, the July 2 Gil American H. at Hollywood, and was not disgraced, chasing the venerable The Tin Man early before weakening in the stretch to be fourth. Allowed to settle off moderate splits here, El Don rallied down the outside to take the lead in deep stretch and was all out to hold off Super Strut to the wire.

The bay was third in that event and came back to be second by 3/4 of a length in a Del Mar turf allowance last August, but had not been out since fading to 10th in a down-the-hill allowance at Santa Anita Oct. 5.

Facing just three rivals as the 9-10 chalk in her return, she pressed the pace, put a head in front in the stretch and outfinishing Vino Tinto (Boundary) for a 3/4-length score. Lifetime Record: 18-6-4-3, $79,315.

Stewards to Get a Closer Look:

In the wake of last week's controversial finish to the GI Bing Crosby H., Del Mar stewards will now have access to TVG's two isolated-camera views during weekend races at the track. "TVG uses two isolated cameras during the weekend races here and we now have access to those feeds," explained steward Scott Chaney. "We won't be watching TVG, but we do have access to those feeds if we need it. We in no way choose the horses that they decide to isolate on, but if we feel we need them, we can view the film." During the stretch run of the Bing Crosby, jockey Jon Court, aboard winner Pure As Gold accidentally hit the rallying Bordonaro across the face with his whip. The stewards took no action as TVG viewers watched repeated footage of the runner-up clearly being hit by Court's whip.

Prince of Light demonstrated his ability when winning the G3 Sirenia S. on Newmarket's July Course in September before finding the soft ground against him when fifth in the G1 Middle Park S. on the Rowley Mile later that month. Off the track until finishing runner-up to subsequent G3 Prix Messidor winner Librettist in the Listed Midsummer S. at Windsor July 1, he got his picture taken in a Chester conditions event July 15 before failing to land a blow when ninth in Tuesday's G2 Lennox S. at this meeting. Thriving for the quick return, the chestnut soon adopted the natural position for his stable's runners in front and stretched his rivals one by one in the straight. Responding to Joe Fanning's every call, he held off Metropolitan Man in the drive to the line. "That's the way we like to see them run, bowling along in front but with plenty left in the tank," his conditioner said. "It's been very frustrating, as he never had a day wrong last year and this spring it was foot problem after foot problem. He lost a shoe at Windsor, but this is the longest uninterrupted run we've had and coming back here after Tuesday has done him good."

Borderlescott was firmly on the upgrade at three and finished off with a success in York's Sprint Trophy H. in October. Returning to that track in the same vain, he captured a handicap May 19 before finishing a highly creditable fourth from a disadvantageous draw in the June 24 Wokingham H. at Royal Ascot. He found only the top-class Osterhase (Ire) too strong in the Listed Belgrave S. at Fairyhouse last time July 23 and ran to his usual level again to register a memorable success for his humble connections. Chasing the leading pack on the far side, he grabbed the lead passing the furlong marker before gamely turning down the challenge of Mutamared late on. "He's a christian to train and good to work with," conditioner Robin Bastiman commented. "You've got to be drawn high here and I knew he'd win when I saw him come there, as he has that speed that he can produce. I've trained sprinters most of my life and he's just such a good, coinsistent horse. He's so laidback at home and only does what he has to do, but he shows it on the racetrack. He'll have a break now, as he's had a few quick runs and needs a month off. I'd like to think he could go for the [Sept. 16] Ayr Gold Cup, or he could got for conditions races in Ireland."
