FOR THIS SKY, THERE'S NO LIMIT

A striking chestnut filly with a broad, white blaze and four white socks to match was knocked down to John Ferguson, bidding on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, for $1.15 million to top Tuesday night's opening round of bidding at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale of Selected Yearlings. The session top-per is a product of two of the best horses to race for John and Debby Oxley. Consigned by Gainesway, agent, hip 32 is a member of the first crop of Three Chimneys' Sky Mesa (Pulpit), winner of the 2002 GI Lane's End Breeders' Futurity while carrying the light blue and gold blocks of John Oxley. The Mar. 19 foal is a daughter of Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister), a dual stakes winner and twice Grade I-placed winner of $352,359 who carried the hot pink silks of Mrs. Oxley. "She's a very, very smart filly," said Ferguson, who did his bidding from the back ring on a crisp Saratoga evening. "It looks like she can go either way--turf or dirt. I thought that she was a genuinely outstanding model." Hip 32 has additional pedigree appeal, as Darling My Darling is out of GISW Roamin Rachel and is a half-sister to Japanese Horse of the Year Zenno Rob Roy. The renowned bloodstock advisor is one of many who have been impressed by Sky Mesa's first-crop youngsters. "He was obviously a very nice horse and is being well received," Ferguson stated. "I've seen a lot of his foals and she was the nicest one of them." Gainesway's Michael Hernon was duly pleased with the results. "She was an exceptional filly and she showed well the entire sale," he commented. "They say the cream rises to the top and that's what has happened here. We're thrilled."

TAYLOR MADE... Where our Customers' Success is our Primary Focus

Oxleys Lead a Darling One to Market...

It might not compare to winning a race like the Kentucky Derby, but John and Debby Oxley were nonetheless pleased to have sold a seven-figure horse at Saratoga. "That was so thrilling, but I was just so nervous," Mrs. Oxley explained, a smile still lighting her face. "But mostly I was really excited. She's a wonderful filly and I wish Darley the best of luck with her." The Oxleys were sitting on the right side of the pavilion next to their longtime advisor and trainer John Ward Jr. as the bidding reached the million-dollar mark. But, entering the sale, the couple took nothing for granted. "You never know what's going to happen," Mrs. Oxley said. "We had hoped that she would be somewhere near that [price], but you can't ever say that you expect that. We are very proud of all of our staff at Fawn Leap Farm and we think that we are going to raise some very nice foals there." Mrs. Oxley admitted that parting with the filly was difficult, but felt the correct decision was made. "My husband and I discussed it and we felt that we needed to sell some horses," she offered. "We are at a point where we have some really nice broodmares to sell out of and we felt that it was important to show people that we are a legitimate broodmare operation, even though we really enjoy racing." Mrs. Oxley reports that Torini (Monarchos), a homebred half-brother to last night's topper, is nearing his racetrack debut. The colt worked a half in :48 4/5 at Saratoga Sunday. Darling My Darling had a filly by Fusaichi Pegasus this year.

All Smiles for Shadwell Stable...

It's been a good summer for Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Stable. In June, colorbearer Jazil, a dead-heat fourth in the GI Kentucky Derby, captured the third leg of the Triple Crown, the GI Belmont S. Jazil was subsequently sidelined with a bruised canon bone, but another Shadwell horse, Invador (Arg), did a pretty good of picking up the slack. The Argentine-bred followed his wins in the GI Pimlico Special H. and GI Suburban H. with a thrilling nose victory over Sun King in last Saturday's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga. Last night, Shadwell president Rick Nichols added what he hopes is another future star for the operation, paying an even $1 million for hip 35, a chestnut son of top sire Distorted Humor. "He was a big, strong, correct colt with a good walk to him," said Nichols, who did his bidding from the center of the sales pavilion with Shadwell trainer Kiaran McLaughlin sitting to his left. Nichols said that the colt would likely stay in the States to race, but that Sheikh Hamdan would make that decision at a later date. Shadwell had been shopping for runners with pedigrees suitable for America's dirt racing for the past four years, Nichols said, who added that Sheikh Hamdan's commitment to U.S. racing was strengthened further by the success of Jazil. "Seeing Jazil run in the Kentucky Derby, which was the first race he saw in America live, then coming back and winning the Belmont, it's been...well, it was great," said Nichols. The sale of the hip 35, a half to GSW Fast Decision (Gulch) and GSP City Sister (Carson City) from the immediate family of champion juvenile Dehere, represented a successful return to Saratoga for consignor Lane's End. The Versailles farm had skipped the last two editions of the sale, but chose to return this year with a high-octane three-horse draft. Speaking about hip 35, Lane's End's Bill Farish said, "He's a very well-made, athletic colt. He looks like a racehorse, and he's by the right sire." Farish also said he was pleased that Sheikh Hamdan was the winning bidder. "He's bought some good horses from us over the years, and it was great to see him get the colt," he said. Lane's End consigned the Virginia-bred hip 35 on behalf of breeder Edward P. Evans.

Pricey Pinhook for Hartley/DeRenzo...

Asked last March, a month after they had sold a Forestry colt for a world-record $16 million, if he and partner Dean DeRenzo planned to alter their buying strategy when shopping for pinhooking prospects, Randy Hartley said, "No, I don't think so." Well, maybe just a little bit, as it turns out. Yesterday, the two-year-old consignors more than doubled the amount of money they have ever spent on a yearling when they purchased a son of Storm Cat for $900,000. Catalogued as hip 66, the handsome dark bay colt is out of the unraced Gone West mare Gone to the Moon and counts as his famous relations the champions Gold Beauty, Dayjur and Sky Beauty. "He's just a good horse--I thought he was the best horse in the sale," said Hartley. "Honestly, I'm kind of surprised we got him." Asked how far he was willing to go, Hartley laughed, "I was done at $700,000." Previous to last night's sale, the most Hartley/DeRenzo Thoroughbreds had spent on a pinhooking prospect was $425,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton July Sale. That horse, later named The Green Monkey, went on to become the most expensive horse ever to sell at public auction when Dr. Demi O'Byrne purchased him for Team Coolmore. While not necessarily expecting the same spectacular results with last night's Storm Cat colt, Hartley said he was excited about putting the colt into training down at their farm near Ocala, Florida. "Honestly, if he goes down there and does real good, he's a horse that could bring millions [at the two-year-old sales]," he commented. Hartley added that he hadn't yet been able to visit his most famous graduate, who resides just down the street at Todd Pletcher's barn at Saratoga, but that he was planning a trip to see The Green Monkey this morning. Hip 66, consigned to the sale by Paramount Sales, agent, was bred in Kentucky by Eagle Holdings.

Purge Sis Brings $600,000...

A full-sister to Grade I winner Purge became the first horse of the evening to clear the half-million mark last night when Live Oak Plantation's Charlotte Weber fought off a slew of challengers to land the filly at $600,000. The daughter of Pulpit sold as hip 26 from the consignment of Taylor Made Sales Agency. "We thought she was a nice physical," said Weber. "She's got a nice page on her, and she'll fit nicely into our broodmare band if she can fulfill her potential as an athlete." Perhaps it was fitting that hip 26 sold at Humphrey S. Sales Pavilion in Saratoga, given the fact that her brother Purge scored one of his biggest successes across the road. In 2004, Purge romped by 4 1/2 lengths over The Cliff's Edge in the GII Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga Race Course. He went on to take the 2005 renewal of the GI Cigar Mile H. and now stands at Vinery Stud in Kentucky for $20,000. Hip 26 is out of the stakes-winning Copelan's Bid Gal (Copelan), herself a half-sister to MGSW Valid Wager. Bred in Kentucky by Glory Days Breeding, hip 26 will now go to Live Oak in Ocala, Florida to be broken.

Great Sale for Greathouses...

The Greathouse family's Glencrest Farm staked its hopes last night on hip 23 a first-crop colt by Sky Mesa, which it acquired for $105,000 as a weanling out of last year's Keeneland November sale. The confidence they invested in their purchase paid dividends last night when the dark bay was bought by Mike Akers' Dapple Bloodstock for $335,000. "That certainly was a good sale," commented John Greathouse. "Once you reach that level, you don't exactly know what's going to happen, but the right people vetted him. The guy that bought him is a shrewd pinhooker and, even at that level, he thinks he can turn him around and make money. The colt really grew up and he's a very nice individual." The Mar. 22 foal, the property of Glencrest, was consigned by Four Star Sales, a venture in which the farm is a partner. He is from the family of Horse of the Year Lady's Secret.

Gerry Lands a Pair...

Martha Gerry, in fine form at the age of 87, has been coming to Saratoga "off and on since I was 16." The octogenarian, the owner and breeder of the great Forego who maintains a racing and breeding operation as Lazy F Ranch, signed tickets on a pair of horses in the span of three hips early during last night's session. Seated next to her trainer, Angel Penna Jr., Mrs. Gerry first went to $250,000 for hip 20, a filly by Theatrical (Ire) out of MSW Chitka (Jade Hunter) from the consignment of Eaton Sales, agent. "I like the filly very much, she was very nice," Gerry commented. If Gerry has faith in Theatrical, it's understandable. One of Lazy F's best horses in recent memory was his daughter Auntie Mame, trained by Penna to a trio of graded-stakes victories, including the 1998 running of the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. Gerry indicated that Auntie Mame's current two-year-old, Uncle Indy (A.P. Indy), could make an appearance at Saratoga. Less than five minutes later, Gerry signed the ticket on hip 22, a son of Awesome Again from GISW Classy Mirage (Storm Bird). Consigned to the sale by Dromoland Farm Inc., the chestnut was hammered down for $275,000. The Feb. 24 foal was bred by Dromoland principal Gerry Dilger in partnership with his longtime client Peter Blum. The pair acquired Classy Mirage for $290,000 carrying this foal in utero at the 2004 Keeneland November sale. Mrs. Gerry, who maintains a permanent residence in northern Florida, says it's nice to come north. "I love Saratoga, I always have," she explained.

Hurley Almost Gets More Cash...

Bobby Hurley at Duke
Duke Magazine

Two days removed from Praying For Cash's gallant runner-up effort in the GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park, former Duke basketball star Bobby Hurley took a turn last night as a seller at Fasig-Tipton. A filly by Gone West, bred in the name of Devil Eleven Stable, was set to add to Hurley's coffers, but failed to meet her reserve and was led out unsold at $495,000. "I run my operation as a business and I specifically target those horses I feel I can sell," Hurley explained. "She had the pedigree and she's a real athlete and looks like she'll be early, but we decided to buy her back." Hurley explained that Devil Eleven leased the dam of hip 27, Court Reception, from ClassicStar Stable, and owned the resulting foal, a three-parts sister to Grade II winner Ruby's Reception.

Hurley was still basking in the afterglow of the Haskell result of Praying For Cash. "We were thrilled with him," he commented. "He ran huge, but he just ran into a superior horse." Hurley added that he could not have picked a better venue for the performance. "I love New Jersey. I am a New Jersey guy through and through," he said.

"It was very special for it to happen at Monmouth Park and all the connections are also Jersey-bred, so we were really tickled with it."

Statistically Speaking...

Last night's opening session generally held its own versus last year. The average of $313,167 was off by a little more than three percent, but the middle market grew by two percent. The buyback rate remained steady, with one of every four horses failing to find a home. "By and large, consignors brought good horses and sold them well," said Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson. "It was a good sale. Horse for horse, they sold well. It was a very similar sale to last year. The average is down a bit, but the median is up. It's a very similar marketplace as last year."

Ladies Day at Fasig...

Led by the sale-topping Sky Mesa filly purchased by agent John Ferguson for $1.15 million, yesterday's opening session of the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale featured a number of fillies that were well-received in the ring. "I think that it was as strong a group of fillies, from a pedigree standpoint, as we've seen in many years here at Saratoga," said Terrence Collier, Fasig-Tipton's announcer and director of marketing. Collier pointed to the inclusion of fillies from especially strong families, including the likes of hip 75. From the first crop of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner and Eclipse champion two-year-old colt Vindication, the dark bay filly sold to Kern/Lillingston Associates for $400,000. Hailing from an outstanding family that traces back to broodmare of the year Courtly Dee, Hip 75 is out of winning Indigene (Deputy Minister), a full sister to MGSW Atelier, GISP Aunt Anne and SW Arabis, as well as a half to GISW Aldiza (Storm Cat). She was purchased as last year's Keeneland November Sale for $245,000 by Mark Reid's Walnut Green, which consigned the filly to this sale.

B-Payson Stud (Ky)

Consigned by Gainesway, Agent VII

This gray filly is the second foal of her stakes-winning dam and is from the family of St. Jovite, L'Carriere, Salem Drive and Lac Ouimet. "We brought a filly a few years ago and topped the first night and she compares very much with her," said Gainesway's Michael Hernon. "She's a big, strong filly with a lot of quality--there's a great presence to her. She's correct, she's a good mover. She has Northern Sunset (Ire) as her third dam, so it's a very deep, high-quality family."

Hip 124, c, Tale of the Cat--Reflect the Music,
by A.P. Indy

B-G Watts Humphrey Jr (Ky)

Consigned by Gainesway, agent

Purchased by Eldon Farm Equine for $390,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale, this yearling is the second foal from his stakes-winning dam. "It's a very high-class family and he's a terrific individual," Michael Hernon commented. "He's a strong, masculine, correct colt, and is a very good mover. He's an early foal [Feb. 15]. He's a great representative of a sire who's a very useful stallion. Then you look at this colt's broodmare sire--A.P. Indy--and his second dam's broodmare sire Nijinsky II, and it's great blood here. You've got some in-breeding to Northern Dancer--I think he's a terrific prospect."

Hip 134, c, Vindication--Scapegoat, by Forty Niner
B-Hardy Thoroughbreds (Ky)

Consigned by Eaton Sales

"He's an exceptional horse," Eaton Sales' Tom VanMeter said of the dark bay, who is a half to GSP Tres Coronas (Chief's Crown) and Descapate (Dehere). Asked if the yearling was typical of Vindication's offspring, Van Meter said, "We sold one at Fasig-Tipton [July] for $300,000, and this one is better."

Hip 138, f, Unbridled's Song--Sheepscot, by Easy Goer
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent LXVI
B-Beechglan Farms (KY)

Named Flashy White, this Apr. 4 foal was produced by a half-sister to GI Florida Derby winner and young sire Vicar. Dam Sheepscot was herself a good, hard-knocking racehorse, winning 10 races including a minor stakes. Her second foal, the now-five-year-old Navesink River, set a new course record winning the GII Pan American H. and is by Unbridled, meaning this miss is bred along the same lines.

Hip 146, f, Empire Maker--Sluice, by Seeking the Gold
B-Diane Snowden (Ky)

Consigned by Falls Creek Farm, Denali Stud, agent From the first crop of the Belmont S. winner, she is the first foal out of a stakes-winning daughter of MGISW Lakeway. "I think people are really going to like her when they see her and she's got a great pedigree," said Denali's Craig Bandoroff. "She's a big, rangy, scopey filly with a great big walk. You look at her, you definitely think Kentucky Oaks and not Prioress."

Electrocutionist (Red Ransom) has aggravated an old injury and will miss the Sept. 9 G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown, according to the Godolphin website. The G1 Dubai World Cup winner will instead point to the G1 Emirates Airline Champion S. at Newmarket Oct. 14. "Electrocutionist aggravated an old splint injury in the [G1] King George [VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S.], which needs to be cooled out, and, as a consequence, he will not run in the Irish Champion," Racing Manager Simon Crisford said.

Barbaro Update

CAST CHANGE PLANNED FOR BARBARO

by Gail Luciani, Director of UPenn Office of Communications
KENNETT SQUARE, PA - Doctors at Penn's George D. Widener Hospital planned to change the right hind leg cast of Kentucky Derby winner Barbaro Tuesday. "Changing the cast gives us the opportunity to take new radiographs and evaluate the progress of the fracture healing and joint fusions," said Dr. Dean Richardson, chief of surgery. "His left hind hoof continues to show signs of regrowth and looks healthy." The colt's left hind foot, which had most of the hoof wall removed due to severe laminitis, has a daily bandage change for examination and treatment. Barbaro remains in the Intensive Care Unit of the University of Pennsylvania's George D. Widener Hospital, where he is recovering from injuries suffered at the Preakness on May 20.

The weekend showcased two Grade I events which promised to point up likely major "second-season" contenders from the ranks of three-year-old colts and older males. The two events, the GI Haskell Invitational S. and GI Whitney S., were won in two very different styles, by two horses with very different types of pedigrees.

Runner-up in the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S., Bluegrass Cat revealed a new dimension in his abilities in the Haskell, producing a powerful finishing kick to draw off and score by seven lengths from the front-running Praying for Cash. A son of Storm Cat, Bluegrass Cat is out of the unraced A.P. Indy mare She's a Winner, previously dam of the two-time graded stakes winner Lord of the Game. The cross of Storm Cat over mares by A.P. Indy has always looked as if it might work well--Storm Cat and his sons work well with Seattle Slew in general, and both Storm Cat and A.P. Indy are out of Secretariat mares--and the day before the Haskell, the GIII Sorrento S. was won by Untouched Talent, a two-year-old filly who is also by Storm Cat out of an A.P. Indy mare.

As we mentioned, even though Bluegrass Cat took the GII Remsen S. and GIII Nashua S. at two, and was runner-up in two Classics this year, the Haskell marked a new performance high for him. We wonder if this is something in line with the A.P. Indy influence: as we mentioned a few weeks ago with regard to Bernardini, the tendency for horses by that sire is to reach their peak after the Classics have passed.

We can certainly see something similar to Bluegrass Cat's pattern with Accelerator and Daydreaming, a talented brother and sister to the dam of Bluegrass Cat. Accelerator won an off the turf renewal of the GIII Pilgrim S. at two, but was better at three, when he took runner-up spot in the GII Wood Memorial, and at four, when he was three times graded placed, including a third in the GI Metropolitan H. Daydreaming was third in the GI Spinaway S. on her second start at two, but didn't get her first stakes win until taking the GIII Indiana Breeders' Cup Oaks in October of her three-year-old season. Also successful in the GII Top Flight H. that year, Daydreaming added the GII Next Move H. at four.

Bluegrass Cat's granddam, Get Lucky, won the GIII Affectionately H. at three, and was a sister to Rhythm, a champion at two, and winner of the GI Travers S.--the next likely target for Bluegrass Cat--at three. We should also note that Get Lucky is a sister to the very successful Maryland-based sire, Not For Love, and three-quarters related to Woodman, who is by Mr. Prospector out of a sister to Bluegrass Cat's fourth dam, champion two-year-old filly Numbered Account. Bluegrass Cat's third dam, Dance Number, won the GI Beldame S. and GII Shuvee H.

With his future stud career in mind, it's interesting to note that Bluegrass Cat has pedigree similarities to two hot young sires, Dixie Union and Johannesburg. Bluegrass Cat is a Storm Cat (grandson of Northern Dancer) horse out of a mare by a son of Seattle Slew, with a second dam by Mr. Prospector.

Dixie Union is a Northern Dancer-line stallion out of a mare by a son of Seattle Slew, and with a second dam by Mr. Prospector, while Johannesburg is by a son of Storm Cat, and has a second dam by Mr. Prospector. Inbreeding to Mr. Prospector is already found in six of Dixie Union's first 12 stakes winners, including graded scorer High Cotton, who is out of a mare by A.P. Indy and therefore also inbred to Seattle Slew. Meanwhile, Johannesburg's first crop is headline by the GII Sanford S. first and second, Scat Daddy and Teuflesberg, and the G2 Richmond S. winner Hamood, all three inbred to Mr. Prospector, with Scat Daddy being out of a mare by that horse. In the light of that it will be very interesting to see how Bluegrass Cat does with Mr. Prospector line mares, particularly those bred on a parallel Mr. Prospector/Northern Dancer cross to Bluegrass Cat's granddam, Get Lucky.

The day before the Haskell, the Whitney was captured by Invasor, who fought off an early challenge from last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner-up Flower Alley, then dug in late to hold off a determined Sun King. In doing so, he took his U.S. record to three-for-three, having previously won the GI Pimlico Special and GI Suburban H. In fact, Invasor has been perfect on the American continent, and he also captured all five of his starts in Uruguay, where he was a Triple Crown winner and Horse of the Year. His sole defeat came early this year when fourth in the G2 UAE Derby.

Although he spent the formative part of his racing career in Uruguay, Invasor was bred in Argentina. He is a son of Candy Stripes, who, having been represented by champion turf horse Leroidesanimaux last year, may end up with a champion on dirt this term if Invasor continues in similar form. Candy Stripes, who did all his racing on turf, started only six times and never won a black-type event, but did finish third (promoted to second by the stewards), beaten two lengths, in the G1 French 2000 Guineas. Retired to stud in Argentina, Candy Stripes made a sensational start to his career, which led to him being imported to stand in the U.S., first in Kentucky and then in Florida. Unfortunately, Candy Stripes seemed less well-suited to the mares he covered in the U.S., and from four crops sired here, his only graded scorer was champion Canadian turf mare Sweetest Thing. However, from South American mares, which one suspects fit him better physically, Candy Stripes has several other runners that have made their names in the U.S., these including, in addition to Leroidesanimaux and Invasor, the Grade I-winning Different, and graded scorers Lundy's Liability, Victory Stripes and Criollito. Incidentally, Different, Lundy's Liability, Victory Stripes and Criollito all scored major victories on dirt, so in this respect Candy Stripes is emulating his sire, Blushing Groom, a turf horse who was able to get Blushing John, Arazi and Sky Beauty, who all earned Eclipse Awards for the achievements on dirt—as well as other major dirt performers such as You'd Be Surprised, Mt. Livermore and Rahy.

Invasor's dam, Quendom (by the Nashua line stallion, Interpret), never ran, but her immediate family had already made it's presence known in the U.S. prior to the arrival of Invasor. Quendom's dam, the Argentine Group 1 winner Reina Victoriosa, is dam of the More Than Ready brothers More Than Regal, winner this year of the Iowa Derby and Sportsman's Paradise S., and Ready Ruler, winner in 2004 of the El Joven S.

Invasor's pedigree is a complete outcross at five generations, but we can note that whereas Invasor is out of a mare by Interpret, Candy Stripes has also sired two Grade I winners out of mares by Interpret's sire, Farnesio. He is a horse whose pedigree has some important background similarities to that of Candy Stripes' broodmare sire, Lyphard.

At stud in Argentina, Candy Stripes made a great start to his stud career, his early crops including Seaborg, winner of South America's greatest race, the G1 Gran Premio Internacional Carlos Pellegrini, as well as horses like Different, a champion in Argentina and a multiple Grade I winner in the U.S., and Criollito, a Group 1 winner in his native country and successful in the GIII Churchill Downs H. in the U.S.

With his runners showing so much talent in North America, Candy Stripes, was acquired to stand at Taylor Made Farm in Kentucky.

Unfortunately, he didn't hit it off anywhere near as well with North American mares, and from his time in the U.S. sired only four stakes winners. Returned to South America, however, Candy Stripes has continued to shine. Not only has he sired numerous additional high-class performers in Argentina and Brazil, but was also represented by Leroidesanimaux, winner in the U.S. of the GI Citation H., GIII Inglewood H. and GIII Morvich H., and Eventuail, captor in South Africa of the G1 South African Guineas and G1 Turffontein Summer Cup.

Two questions. One: what do Blushing John, Arazi, Sky Beauty, Eliza, Cherokee Run, Serena's Song, Chilukki, Peaks and Valleys and Mt. Sassafra have in common? Two: what is the point of that question?

The answer to the first question is that all the horses named above are by Blushing Groom or sons of Blushing Groom, and all earned champion status through their efforts on dirt. The answer to the second is another question, one posed to us by Stonewall Stallions with regard to Leroidesanimaux, a Blushing Groom grandson who was the champion turf horse of 2005 and who is now standing his first season at Stonewall.

That question, "what are Leroidesanimaux's chances of siring high-class runners on the dirt?"

Of course, Leroidesanimaux made his name on the turf, and that statement also applies to his sire, and to nearly all of Leroidesanimaux's immediate family.

However, that statement also fits the description of Leroidesanimaux's male-line ancestor, Nasrullah. Imported from Europe in 1950, he subsequently took the Leading Sire title five times, an achievement then surpassed by his son, Bold Ruler, an eight-time Leading Sire.

Other Nasrullah line horses to head the Leading Sire table include champion turf horses T. V. Lark and Cozzene (by Caro, a turf runner who also sired champion three-year-old filly and Kentucky Derby heroine Winning Colors).

Leroidesanimaux's grandsire, Blushing Groom, is by Red God, a son of Nasrullah. A brilliant champion two-year-old and Classic-winning miler in Europe, Blushing Groom also came to stand in the U.S. without ever having competed on the dirt. During his tremendously successful career, Blushing Groom sired 92 stakes winners--including his three Eclipse Award winners.

From the pedigree standpoint, there is another interesting angle here. Leroidesanimaux's third dam, champion Sookera, is very closely related to the dam of Mariah's Storm. Like Leroidesanimaux, Mariah's Storm was sired by a son of Blushing Groom. A multiple graded-stakes winner on the dirt, Mariah's Storm, is dam of Giant's Causeway, a European champion on the turf, who was beaten inches in the Breeders' Cup Classic on his only dirt outing. A sire sensation with his first two crops, Giant's Causeway is already represented by dirt graded-stakes winners First Samurai, Diamond Omi and Oonagh Maccool.

TRF GALA RAISES $500,000 An option to breed to WinStar Farm's Distorted Humor at the 2006 fee of $150,000 brought $47,000 from celebrity chef Bobby Flay at the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation annual gala at the Saratoga Golf and Polo Club Monday night. The nation's oldest and largest horse rescue operation raised in excess of $500,000, which will go toward the care of the more than 1,300 retired racehorses under the group's care.

Throughout the night, options to breed to some of the sport's hottest stallions at 2006 prices were auctioned off to the more than 450 people in attendance. An option to breed to Maria's Mon at his 2006 fee of $25,000 brought $37,000 from Brookfield Bloodstock. Jack Goldthorpe paid $35,000 for a Songandaprayer option at his 2006 fee of $35,000.

Lee Pokoik paid $35,000 for a trip to the 2007 Dubai World Cup, the sale-topper among the many unique experiences put up for bids. Peter Kizenko paid $25,000 to have his name appear as a character in Jane Smiley's next novel. New York Mets All-Star catcher Paul Lo Duca was on hand to auction off the right to be on the field during Mets batting practice and to meet the team. That experience brought $12,000 from trainer Jimmy Jerkens. A private pitching clinic by New York Yankees announcer Jim Kaat and the chance to watch batting practice from the field went for $11,000. The Yankee package was bought by Denali Stud's Craig Banderoff.

"It was an exciting night," said TRF Executive Director Diana Pikulksi. "There were lots of new supporters and lots of people we hadn't seen in a while in attendance. It's wonderful that with the increased awareness about the TRF and our mission that we are getting more and more support and acknowledgement for the important work we do from some of the biggest names in racing. We look forward to topping this again next year." For more information on the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, visit www.trfinc.org

Kevin Prendergast boasts a four-strong entry including G3 Anglesey S. winner Regional Counsel (GB) (Medicean {GB}) and unbeaten G3 Swordlestown Stud Sprint S. victress Brazilian Bride (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). Another notable possible is the Tommy Stack-trained dual Listed winner Drayton (Ire) (Danetime {Ire}).

KELLY BADLY INJURED

Jockey Shane Kelly will miss much of the remainder of this season after suffering multiple leg fractures when thrown from his mount at Bath yesterday. He was riding the Jamie Osborne-trained Piano Player (Ire) (Mozart {Ire}) in the World Bet Exchange wbx.com H. when squeezed for room by apprentice rider Liam Jones, aboard Signal Hill (GB) (Observatory), approaching the final quarter of the mile contest. Jones was later handed a five-day careless-riding ban. Kelly was taken to Bath's Royal United Hospital, where X-rays revealed four breaks to a femur bone; he will undergo an operation this morning. "It is not the hip, but the very top of the leg that Shane has injured and I knew it was a bad injury as soon as I saw it," Kelly's agent, Richard Hunter, told PA Sport, adding, "He's had such bad luck with injuries and was back flying until this happened. Let's just hope the operation is a success and I'm sure he'll bounce back. He's young enough, strong enough and has bounced back before."

BOLD APACHE (IRE) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) was pitched into the Listed Tyros S. on debut at Leopardstown July 29, finishing out of his depth in 10th, and has been found a lesser spot to bounce back here. The half to G1 Dubai World Cup winner Moon Ballad (Ire) has the added benefit of Kieren Fallon in the saddle this time, but faces stiff competition including likely market rival Eyshal (Ire) (Green Desert), a homebred son of His Highness The Aga Khan's dual Classic winner Ebadiyla (Ire).

CHIEF RUNNING BEAR (Fusaichi Pegasus) may be flattered by an entry in the Sept. 2 G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, but bids to get off the mark in this racecourse bow nonetheless. The $800,000 FTKJUL yearling is a half to MGSW Marquetry and dual stakes winner Spain Lane and can handle a field of eight rivals headed by Lady Clague's homebred debutante So Well Red (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a half-sister to G2 Goldene Peitsche runner-up Red Liason (Ire).
